

Contents

Acknowledgments	page vii
Preface	ix
1 Introduction: reporting and the individual talent	1
2 Samuel Johnson: beyond Lilliput	17
3 Samuel Taylor Coleridge and the freedom of the gallery	61
4 William Hazlitt and the real eloquence of the British Senate	97
5 Charles Dickens and the ghost of speeches past	129
6 Conclusion: taking parliamentary reporting seriously	167
Bibliography	175
Index	191