INDEX

abducere, medieval use of term 20, 22 see also rapuit et abduxit abduction 2

and adultery cases 124, 126–7, 139–40 conspiracy to achieve annulment 134 and ‘ecclesiastical coercion’ 126 and indictment of Richard Mareschal 124–5 prosecution in secular court 125 and prior marriage contracts 136–7 reclamation of wife as abductor’s defence 135 Church attitude to clandestine marriage 134
contra voluntatem 12
of daughters 156
and domestic abuse 154–6
and forced marriage 49, 50 and labour shortage 10
and later marriage 28
and Mirror of Justices 20 pardons for ravishment of consenting women 141 and pre-existing quarrels 16
prosecutions for 85
rapuit et abduxit cases 18, 23
by relatives 156–8 scholarship on 10
component of broader agenda 11–12 feminist view 11
legislation 10
linguistic complexity of 12–13, 14, 28–9 of wards 37
by a woman 21
women’s consent to 1
see also adultery; consensual abduction; kidnap; nuptiu; ravishment; Statutes of Westminster

Accursius, Francis, and Roman law 147

Adam of Usk, conspiracy charge against 4, 177–8 adultery
and abduction allegations 139–40, 142–3
contra voluntatem 141–2 and Church courts 72, 120–1, 182, 183 frequency of appearances in 121–2 as impediment to marriage 132 and excommunication 133 relocation of guilty parties 132 and inheritance 16
jurisdictional overlap between Church and State 120, 123–4, 126, 131, 143, 159 and Justian 146
Middleton case 131–2
and nuns 123
and marital violence 13, 188 public punishment of 121 threat to marital stability 129–30
see also abduction; elopement; ravishment;
Second Statute of Westminster;
wife-theft litigation
Aelred of Rievaulx, castration of rapist 79
Albo Monestario, Isabella de, clandestine marriage to John de Alet 132
Alexander III, Pope, individual consent in marriage 106 Amesbury Priory, struggle for control of 167–9 archdeacons’ courts, sexual offences in 122 Archer, Robert, kidnap of Alice Wodeloke 173
Asteley, Jane, and daughter’s abduction 91
Aubry, Bartholomew, attempts at forced marriage 89

Ballard, Lucy, imprisonment of 67
Barbour, Simon, and claim of wife-theft 134–5
Barnabe, Isabel, attempted abduction of 86
Bashar, N., on rape conviction rates 74
Batt, Catherine, ambiguities of nuptiu 13
Index

Beaumont, Joan, forced marriage of 48 and parliamentary statute 92–3 and prosecution of abductor 94–5 target for bride-theft 86 Beche, Margery de la, target for bride-theft 86 Bettenham, Emma, kidnap and payment of damages to husband 175–6 Bonmarche, Thomas, rape of Florentia de Wodestrete 64–5 Boys, Joan, fictitious kidnapping of 103–4 and Church law 110–11 motives for 114–15 Bracton, Henry de on disinheritance 117 on punishment of rapists 78 on rape of virgins 56 terminology of raptus 26–7 on wording of appeals 68–9 bride-theft 15 and rape 82, 92 see also abduction; forced marriages Brok, Agnes de, dowry of 135–6 Bronescombe, Bishop Walter, relocation of adulterous couple 132 Brownmiller, Susan 12, 95 Brundage, James, Second Statute of Westminster 35 Butler, Sara, studies of adultery 13 Calle, Richard, clandestine marriage of 110 Cameron, A. and forced marriage abductions 49 ravishment legislation 10, 94 Carneys, John and Margaret de, and self-divorce 130–1 Cannon, Christopher, definition of ravishment 12 Cantilupe, Katherine de, abduction by father 157–8 Canvare, John, malicious prosecution against 188 Capellanus, Andreas, courtly behaviour 53, 61 Carter, John Marshall, on, thirteenth-century rape verdicts 73 castration, as punishment for rape 26 Champion, Alice, abduction of 167 Chandler, Alice, rape of 60 chastity, and Christian doctrine 25 Chaucer, Geoffrey and Cecilia Chaumpaigne 50 Parson’s Tale and adultery 120 rape of Lucretia 54 and ravishment 4, 12–13 Wife of Bath 55 Chrétien de Troyes, and knightly attitude to rape 52 clandestine marriage 194 attitude of secular authority to 111 centrality of consent 106–7 and ecclesiastical rules 106, 109–10, 118 and censure 111 medieval use of term 107 in England 108–9, 113–14 prominence of betrothal 107 punishment in Catholic Europe 111–12 and Council of Trent (1563) 112–13 tolerance of 99 see also Hardwicke’s Act clergy, and ravishment prosecutions 161, 191 assistance in familial and marital disputes 188–9 categories of 181 defences for 185 false accusations against 3, 16–17, 155 frequency of 180, 186 and occupational status 183 listings in legal documents 172, 183–4 punishment under secular law 185 and acquittals 186–7 communal disapproval of clerical impropriety 186, 187, 192 reduced penalties in ecclesiastical courts 181–2 false claimants of benefit of clergy 73 likelihood of conviction 182 stereotyping of 189–90 susceptibility to charges 184 and wife-theft 184–5 see also malicious lawsuits; Mareschal, Richard clerics see clergy Cliffe, Robert, abduction as revenge for assault 167 Clifford, John de, abduction of Rose Savage 62 Clifton, Nicholas, elopement with Eleanor West 150–1 Coggeshale, Joan, abduction from priory 101 Colle, Thomas, abduction of Joan Gwyn 184 consensual abduction 1 fifteenth-century sources 44 and lawmakers 40–1, 42, 96–7 and marriage 3 and Statute of Rapes 48 and wife-ravishment 34, 39–40 see also elopement abduction Constable, Giles, on punishment for rape 79 Constantine, emperor, and raptus legislation 24, 29 Cornwall, William de; theft of wife 135

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org
Index

criminal conversation litigation 152–3 Cropper, Robert, abduction of Alice Pynde 65–6

Dale, John, forced marriage of Agnes Grantham 83 Daubeney, Prior Robert, abduction of Prioress of Amesbury 167–9 debt repayment, and retaliatory kidnapping 161, 190 abduction of Alice Wodeloke 173 abduction of Johanna Fryth 174 debtors, free movement of 176 divorce 129

and murder 138
prosecutions for 138–9
see also self-divorce; separation donahue, Charles, marriage litigation 108 dore, Francis, abduction of Johanna Fryth 174 donnebrigge, William de, collusion to avoid debt 175–6 draper, John, clandestine marriage of 133 duby marriage paradigm 105 durant, Agnes on clandestine marriage 135

on invalidity of marriage 133 Dyffryn Clwyd, use of concubuit in rape cases 45, 46, 47 ecclesiastical courts, and sexual offences 72 and benefit of clergy 73, 182, 183
Edward I, interest in ravishment cases 41
Edward II, and abduction of Alice de Lacy 161, 164
Ellis, Karen, rape conviction rates 74 elopement abduction 24 and adultery 139–41
and clandestine marriage 110–11, 114 criminalisation of 98–9
and disinheritance 98, 114, 117, 118
and father/daughter relationships 116 in literature 116–17 frequency of 99, 117, 119 legislation against 15–16 infrequency of prosecution for 115 of maidens and widows 102 see also clandestine marriage; Boys, Joan; Mott, Thomas; Pode, John; Simond, Alan; West, Eleanor Erasmus, on clandestine marriages 112 fines, for adultery 122 fitz Henry, Hugh, rape conviction 73

Flanvill, William de, seizure of Uddeston’s wife 34 Fleet marriages 113
forced marriages association with primitive societies 83 and female collusion 83–4 in fifteenth-century literature 90–1, 92 legislation against in fifteenth century 65–6, 90 and rights of male relatives 97 premeditation 84–5 pursuit of legal remedies 85 rape and abduction 82, 91–2 unsuccessful attempts at 86 vows made under duress 83 wealth of victims 86–7
and rank 87
see also widows
Foylet, Alexis 21
Frenes, Hugh de, seizure of Alice de Lacy 84
Fryth, Johanna, abduction of 174
Fuller, Matilda, rape and forced marriage of 82 gang rape 62–3
Gaveston, Piers, and dispute between earl of Lancaster and Edward II 61, 163
Gerard, Henry, false plea of debt 175–6
Ghent, legislation against clandestine marriage 112
Giffard, Sir Osbert, abduction of nuns 34 Glavnill on marriage after ravishment 77 on rape of virgins 56
on use of nuptio to mean rape 26–7
Godchepe, Nicola, capture to prevent prosecution 172
Godfelaugh, John, abduction of Christiana Ingelwoode 1 Goldberg, Jeremy
on castration of Roger de Pulesdon 79 on ravishment research 11 Gottlieb, Beatrice, marriages and elopement 105, 117 clandestine marriage 107
Gower, John, rape of Cornix 57
Grantham, Agnes, and vows made under duress 83 Gratian
compilation of Decretum 28–9 definition of nuptio 27 on elopement 98
on individual consent in marriage 106
Gravdal, Kathryn, legal discourse of rape 80
Green, Tom, on jury nullification 73
Grene, Denise, consensual abduction of 141
Index

Gronowesse, Isabella, castration of Roger de Pulesden 79
Groot, Roger, on rape convictions 73
Gyse, Isabella de, abduction of 137
Hakere, Richard, indictment of 69
Hampton, Katherine, abduction and prior marriage contract 136
Hanawalt, Barbara on convictions for rape and status of victims 61 on gang-rape 62–3 ravishment research 11
Hardwicke's Act (1753) 113–14
Hastings, Matthew, seizure of Amice de Hotot from 31–3 Havelok the Dane 116–17
Hawkes, Emma on rape and patriarchy 11–12 on Statute of Rapes 142 on victim ideology 95
Helmholz, Richard on clandestine marriage 108 on English common law 147 Henley, William, malicious prosecution against 178–9
Henry, vicar of Swalcliffe, malicious prosecution of 188
Herby, Richard, and wife's abduction 4 Heydon, Robert, adultery with master's wife 127–8 Hocket, Stephen, imprisonment of Lucy Ballard 67
Hotot, Amice de, née Feryng, seizure of 31–3 compensation for husband, William 32
Ingelwode, Christiana, abduction of 1 inheritance, and adultery 16, 120, 124, 131–2, 143 elopement and forfeit of dower 140–1 in Second Statute of Westminster 124, 126 and self-divorce 130–1 and Statute of Rapes 150–1 immediate loss of inheritance 151–2 Ives, E.W. on 1487 Statute 10, 94 on abduction of Margery Ruynon 49 Ives, John, prior of St Neots, malicious lawsuit against 177
Jones, Karen, on rape convictions 62
Justianian, emperor Corpus juris civilis 146 and rapuit legislation 24–5, 29
Karras, Ruth, rape as class privilege 61 Kebell, Margaret, forced marriage of 49 prosecution of abductor 95
Kelly, H.A., on ravishment legislation 10 definition of rapuit 13 Statutes of Westminster 33, 37 French clause in 35, 42 kidnap, and forced marriage 49, 50 and private vengeance 16 and ransom of women 9
King, Philippa, escape from Easebourne Priory 122
Klerman, Daniel, on rape settlements 77 knights, attitude to rape 52, 53, 55
Kyde, Alice, adultery of 124
Lacy, Alice de, abduction of 1, 2, 84, 87 alleged pre-contract 134 connection of adultery and rapuit 45 Lamanna, Elizabeth, malicious prosecution against 179–80
Lancaster, Edward, forced marriage of Joan Beaumont 92–3 Langham, Simon, Archbishop, and 1368 marriage dispensation 119

257
Index

Maddern, Philippa, on rape conviction rates 74 malicious lawsuits 16–17, 176 against clerics 188
Mallefant, Margery, abduction and rape of 91, 92 self-portrayal as victim 95 Malory, Sir Thomas, Morte Darthur 54 and ravishment 4, 12–13
Manefeld, John, malicious prosecution against 177–8 Mareschal, Richard adulterous relationship of 124–5 prosecution in secular court 125
marriage and love 15
sanctity of 111
validity of 133–4, 135–6 and medieval familiarity with rules 137 and prior contracts 136–7 see also clandestine marriage Mason, Agnes, rape of 65
Maunt, John de, conspiracy to prosecute Roger Quenby 175
Mayle, William 124
McSheffrey, Shannon on clandestine marriage 109 on medieval marriage 107, 116
Medefeld, Mary, attempted abduction of 86
Meeking, C.A.T., settlements of rape cases 74
Menefee, Samuel, and wife-sales 153
Menue, Noel J., wardship 9
Meryngfeld, John de, and Sibyl Metham’s abduction 164
Middleton, Stephen and John, case against stepmother 131–2
Mirror of justices, variant uses of 10, 20
Moelis, Alice de, property dispute and abduction 169–71
Mohun, Isabella, forced marriage of 67
Mone, Margaret, capture over ownership dispute 173
Montagu, Prioress Sibyl, abduction of 169–9
Montfort, Eleanor de, capture by Edward I 165
Montgomery, Sybil, pursuit of legal remedy for abduction 85
More, Sir Thomas, on clandestine marriage 113
Morton, Matilda, conspiracy to murder husband 139
Mott, Thomas, consensual abduction of Joan Coggeshale 101
Moulde, Thomas, attempted abduction of Isabel Barnabe 86
Mayne, Thomas, and Amicia Pynder, prosecution of 121 multilingualism, and terminology of ravishment 18 Munkton, Agnes, abduction of 157
Musson, Anthony, on punishment for rape 75 mutilation, as punishment for rape 78
Nakever, Agnes, clandestine marriage to John Kent 109 Nastok, Edmund de, marriage conspiracy 135–6 neighbourhood quarrels, and abduction 171–3 Newman, Adam le, abduction as punishment for theft 166 nocturnal violence, medieval fear of 66 nuns abduction of 34
renegade 122–3
punishment for in Second Statute of Westminster 123 O’Hara, Diana, on importance of ritual in marriage formation 108
Orr, Patricia, on settlements of rape cases 74
Overton, John, payment of damages 151
Ovide Moralisé, and ‘abduction’ of Helen of Troy 128 Palude, Pierre de la 117 parental control, and marriage 118 and bride-theft 105
Paston, John, and Joan Boys’ abduction 103 contradictory evidence of 104
Paston, Margery, clandestine marriage to Richard Calle 110
Paynel, William, and wife’s inheritance 130–1 Pedersen, Frederik, on marital litigation 154 perjury, in marriage cases 135–6
Petit, Matthew, innocence of 136
Phillips, Kim 38
Plucknett, T.F.T., on French clause in Second Statute of Westminster 35 Pode, John, consensual abduction of Johanna Legh 99–100, 115 politics, and use of retaliatory kidnapping 190 and abduction of Alice de Lacy 161 spillover effect on lower orders 164–5 and capture of Eleanor de Montfort 165 and Irish quarrels 165
and local disputes 166
Pooes, Larry 111
on importance of pre-contract 154
Pope, Julia, on Chancery petitions and abduction 12
Portsmouth, Joan, escape from Easebourne Priory 122
Post, J.B. 29
on French clause in Second Statute of Westminster 35, 42 on ravishment legislation 10 on Statute of Rapes 48
Index

Powell, Edward, on rape conviction rates 74, 77 popularity of appeal 69 trail itself as punishment 187 Power, Eileen, abduction of nuns 123 pre-existing quarrels, and ravishment claims 161–2, 190 and revenge 166
control of Amesbury Priory 167–9 use of judicial system 162 see also debt repayment; malicious lawsuits; politics; property disputes pregnancy, and rape 53, 69 property disputes and retaliatory kidnapping 161, 171, 190 capture of Alice de Moelis 169–71 social range of 169
tale of Warin and Isabella 84–5 prosecutions for rape acquittals 78
by appeal 67–8, 69–70, 74, 77, 80 wording of 68–9
in Church courts 72
convictions 73
rates of 71–4, 75, 77, 78
or settlements 74
failure to prosecute after appeal 75 by indictment 69, 80 overlap with women’s appeal 71–2 jury verdicts 72
punishments for 75, 78–9, 80 royal pardons 70–1
income from 71
settlements 73, 76, 77
by women 52, 59–60
Prouz, Alice, attempts to recover dower lands 169–71
Pulesdon, Roger de, castration of 79
Pynde, Alice, rape of 65–6
Pynder, Amicia, prosecution of 121
Quenby, Roger, and wife of John de Trays 174–5 Ranulph of Mauneby, and claim of benefit of clergy 182 rape
and abduction, medieval distinction between 38–9, 42 age of victims 60
and consensual abduction 98
by foreigners 63
legal status of women victims 52
location of 64
movement of victims 65
residential status of rapist 65 rural victims 64, 66
urban victims 64–5, 66
marriage of victim to rapist 76 medieval attitudes towards 52, 54 sympathy for victims 54 of non-virgins 59–60 overlap with adultery 188
relative social status of victim to rapist 53, 61–2 release of victims 67
timing of 66–7
of virgins 65–7, 68–9
forms of prosecution 48–9 terminology of loss 57–8 victims of 14–15
see also gang rape; prosecutions for rape;
napere, sexual assault
raper 2
and Alice de Lacy 2
ambiguity of French translation 33 medieval use of Latin verb 18 clarification using additional terms 21, 37–8 three means of 19–20, 21 and theft of labourers 10 use as primary term 22–3 raptus, terminology of 14, 18 accusations against Chaucer and Malory 13 Constantine’s legislation 24 and female consent 11–12 French term rap, use of 20 interpretation in early common law as sexual assault 26–7 Latin meaning of 19–20
and prosecution for elopement 115 used to mean abduction 27, 29, 38–9, 50 and rape and abduction cases 47 see also ravishment cases; Statutes of Westminster raubehe, see forced marriages ravishment cases 3
effect of paired terms on meaning 21, 22, 37–8 legal records of 5, 29, 34 and seizure of nun 34
use in fifteenth century 43 change to vernacular 43–4 see also lexical doublets; Statutes of Westminster nubhe, see forced marriages ravishment cases 3, 5–6 acquittals for indictments 78 adultery classified as ravishment 127 abduction of Stephen Upton’s wife 127–8 ambiguity of formulaic terminology 18, 22–3, 44–5, 47 changes in 43
different sources for 45–7

259 ravishment cases (cont.)
complexity of cases studied 194 and methods of legal resolution 195 demand for legislation 195 gendered offence 192
penalties for after Norman Conquest 26 prosecution by appeal 35 prosecution by indictment 35–6 legal consequences of 36–7 prosecution rates 6–7 reference sources 6–7 replacement of Latin by vernacular 43–4 rise and fall in allegations of 195 and self-divorce 130
see also Edward I; Hotot, Amice de; rapuit et abduxit; Statutes of Westminster Raymond of Limoges, rape of Joan le Seler 71–2
Roberd, Robert, accusation of rape 60
Roer, Amice de; rapuit et abduxit
Roman law see rapere
Rothley, William, fictitious prosecution 179–80
Ruyton, Margery, abduction of 49
Rydel, Robert, malicious accusation of rape against 177 Sacheverell, Jane, forced marriage of 49 target for bride-theft 86
Sage, Katherine, abduction of, and events in Scarborough 166
Sakeville, Joan de, and forced marriage 89
Salisbury, Eve, on veracity of rape prosecutions 80
Salvayn, Gerard, and abduction of Alice de Lacy 165
Sandcroft, Geoffrey, abduction of Mary de Pleefeld 86
Saunders, Corinne, definition of ravishment 12 Sautreour, Gilott le, conspiracy to prosecute Roger Quenby 175 and abduction of Juliana Quenby 175, 176
Savage, Rose, abduction of 62, 64, 66, 67
Scarborough, political tension in, fourteenth-century 166
Scaribrook, Isabella de, papal intervention over forced marriage 85
Scot, Hugh, murder of 165
Siepp, David, on murder conspiracies 138 Seler, Joan le, rape of 60, 63, 71 self-divorce 130
husband’s complicity in 130–1 separation 129
comparison of England and Europe 147–8
and domestic abuse 154–6
and marital neglect 159–60
and marital neglect 156
sexual assault
and Mirror of Justices 20 punishment for 26
raptus as rape 19, 23, 25, 50
in Latin legal records 44–5 rights of victims 40 terminology for 18, 37–8 and Gratian 28–9
and Justinian 25
unrecorded 2
use of conubial and carnaliter in legal terminology 45 and sources of cases 45–7 see also rape; Statutes of Westminster Sheehan, Michael
on clandestine marriage 108
on Humana Consupcisenta 133
Sheen, Agnes, consensual kidnap of 122
Sherman, Richard, conspiracy to prosecute Roger Quenby 174–5 Simond, Alan, and consensual abduction of Alice Lincoln 101–2
Sinclair, Shelley A., on abduction and breakdown of order 11
Sire, Alexander le, and theft of Amice de Hotot 32 Smith, William, abduction of Matilda Morton 139 spousal reconciliation 147
St John, Edward de, elopement with Eva 102–3 Statute of Additions (1413), occupational status of accused 183–4
Statute of Merton (1236) 37, 196
Statute of Pardons (1390) 54
Statute of Rapes (1382) 48, 84, 198–200 definition of rape 12
and disinheritance 105, 151–2
and Eleanor West 101
risk of staged abductions 150–1
Statute (1453) 48–9, 94, 200–2
Statute (1487) 48–9, 96, 122, 202–3
Statutes of Westminster concern for victims 40–1 confabulation of rape and abduction 31, 35–6, 41 emphasis on property 193 and transfer to secular jurisdiction 194
First Statute of Westminster (1275) 30, 50, 196–7 ambiguity of French terminology 33 raptus as felony and trespass 36–7 and seizure of Amice de Hotot 31–3 focus on elopement and abandonment 194
Second Statute of Westminster (1285) 30–1, 50, 197–8 association of illicit sexuality and abduction 124

260
Index

clarification in Latin text 34, 41 and husband’s property rights 126 introduction of writ of wife-theft 34, 38 addition of French text 35 parallel legislation on continent 146–7 punishment of non-theft 123 and seizure of Uddeston’s wife 34 spousal reconciliation 147 see also writ of ravishment Stone, Lawrence, marriage litigation 159 wife-selling 153 Storey, R.L., on rape indictments of clergy 187 Stratford, archbishop, Humana Concupiscentia 133 Styveton, Robert de, seizure of Sibyl Metham 164 Swanson, R.n., on clerics and priests 190 Swell, Johanna, appeal against John Hawley 70 Taillour, John, pardon for ravishment 69 theft, and use of rapere 19, 21 Thomas, earl of Lancaster, and wife’s abduction 163 Thornton, Amy, capture over ownership dispute 172–3 Topclyf, Richard, adultery of 43, 141 Tredinnick, Joan, capture over ownership dispute 43, 173 Turner, Adam, rape of Agnes Mason 65–6 two-seed conception, and consent to rape 53 Uddeston, Elias de, seizure of wife and goods 34 Ugglebarney, William, wounding of 167 Upton, Stephen, prosecution of wife’s abductor 127–8 virginity, loss of 57–8 prosecutions 58–9 Waleys, William, conviction of 187 Walker, Sue Sheridan on feudal wards 8, 117 and seizure of Amice de Feryng 32 and Second Statute of Westminster 35, 40 wards, abduction of 8–9, 37 and Second Statute of Westminster 38 Ware, Isabel, abduction of 156–7 Warin of Northampton, malicious lawsuit by 177 Warenne, John de, earl of Surrey, abduction of Alice de Lacy 163 relationship with earl of Lancaster 162 Waugh, Scott, wardship 8 Wawayne, Robert, abduction complaint 166 Wedye, Beatrice le, abduction by relatives 156 West, Eleanor complicity in forced marriage 84 consensual abduction of 100–1, 111 and retention of inheritance 114 and Statute of Rapes 48 Wickingham, Edmund, daughter’s abduction 103, 104 widows, as targets for abduction 6, 15, 87–8, 96, 193 and consensual abduction 102 and property rights 169–71 access to property 88 and the law 89, 97 context and nature of sources 95–6 emphasis on victimisation 95 initiation of prosecutions 72 parliamentary petitions 92–3 and Statutes of Westminster 84, 94 see also Boys, Joan; Godechepe, Nicola; St John; Thornton, Amy wife-sales 153 wife-theft litigation in Italy 146–7 private arrangements 153–4 frequency of 154 prosecution of lover rather than wife 144 rise and fall of 144, 148 and court records 148 husband’s motivation 152 popularity of courts other than King’s Bench 149 and prior marriage contracts 134–5, 136–7 rise in Church court cases 149 William de Hotot’s lawsuit 32 legitimacy of 32 writ of ravishment 144–6 Whips, William, assault of Matilda Fuller 82 Wodeloke, Alice, abduction to force payment 173 Widestreet, Florentia de, rape of 64–5 women and access to property 193 accessibility to rapists 62, 64 infrequency of kidnap for ransom 9 life under patriarchy 80–1 place in medieval society 193 classification by historians 6 and records of assault 2 religious precepts of 53 and status of male relatives 52–3 Woodstock, Christiana, accusation of gang rape 63, 64 writ of ravishment, husband’s motives for 145–6, 148 Wundertl, Richard, on London Church courts 121 Yulcomb, Henry, abduction of Isabella Mohun 67

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org