Aboriginal people
acknowledgement processes 108
apology from the government 103–4 land claims 190
stolen generations of children 2, 3 acknowledgement of injustice 17, 83, 105–13 avoiding romantic narratives 110–11 beyond liberal solutions 127 differences from apology 105–7, 108–9 for indigenous peoples 108 meanings of 107–13
practical ways to express 111–12 role in overcoming enduring injustice 86–88, 107–13 role in transformation 107–13 through shared space 113–17 affirmative action 15, 123–24, 127, 190

African Americans
apologies for slavery 3, 102–3 arguments for reparations 28–29, 31, 33–36, 40–41, 81
Black solidarity 127–28
Civil Rights Movement 24, 51–52, 58, 109–10
discrimination against 7–8
Jim Crow laws 3, 134
mistrust of the government 15, 75–76 mistrust of medical agencies 75–76 opponents of slavery 111 persisting injustices 12 pragmatic Black nationalism 127–28 progress towards racial equality 190, 191 Tuskegee experiment 75–76
Allen, Jonathan 180
Anderson, Elizabeth 52, 121–22

apologies for historical injustice 3–4 agency problem 98–102
arguments for 88–93
differences from acknowledgement 105–7, 108–9 expectations of transformation 88–93, 102 expression of regret 93–98 and humiliation 99
intent and meaning of 102
Jewish tradition of apology 38 persistence paradox 88–93 power attributed to 85–88 proliferation of official apologies 85 role in ending enduring injustice 117–19 romantic narrative of oppression 110–11 sincerity of 98–102
sincerity of governments/groups 99–102 time taken to make 102
Armenian genocide 80, 81, 200
Armenians 54
Auschwitz 199 see also Holocaust
Austin, J. L. 91
Australia
Aboriginal land claims 190
acknowledgement processes 108 apology to stolen generations 103–4 stolen generations of Aboriginal children 2, 3 Ayers Rock, Australia 66
Aztecs 38–39
Babi Masjid, destruction of 150
Balfour, Lawrie 206
Barry, Brian 142–43
Berlin, Isaiah 17, 159
Bhopal disaster 33
Black solidarity 127–28
Blair, Tony 88
Blustein, Jeffrey 100
Booth, W. James 25, 203
Borrows, John 78
Boxill, Bernard 31
Brazil
land ownership pattern 188–89, 202
Movement of Landless Rural Workers (MST) 189, 202
British imperialism 111
Bruyneel, Kevin 195
Buchanan, Allen 131–32
Buddhism 73
Burma 181
Bush, George H. W. 99
Bush, George W. 8
Butt, Daniel 33
Canada
apologies to indigenous peoples 3 creation of Nunavut province 108, 189–90 issues with indigenous peoples 78 caste system in India 71–74, 78, 111, 126, 127 Catalans 54
Catholics, discrimination against 63–64 causal argument for reparations 31–41 Chelermajer, Danielle 38, 91–92, 103–4, 112 chastened liberalism 187–210 and liberal nationalism 198–205 moving forward, uncomfortably 206–10 overlapping communities 193–98
partial success stories 188–91
and post-nationalism 198–205 from progress to hope 191–93
Chatterjee, Partha 164–65
Chernobyl disaster 33
Cherokee 184
Trail of Tears 1, 95
China
Nanking massacre 43–44
suppression of Tibetan culture 7, 60
Chinese Americans, discrimination against 29–30, 40–41, 63 Christianity
conversion by Dalits 73
holy sites 67
Christiano, Thomas 8, 131, 132–33
Church of Latter Day Saints 71, 74 civic republicanism 125–26, 129 civil disobedience to unjust laws 139–41
civilization
and injustice 138–39
notions of progress 44–48
Civil Rights Movement 24, 51–52, 58, 109–10
Cohen, Andrew I. 33–34, 36 collective memory 60–63 see also collective narratives collective narratives 14, 15, 57, 59, 60–63 asymmetrical 206–10
overlapping 198–205
and sacred land 66–70
Comanche people 184
consent and government legitimacy 130 Copp, David 132, 139
cosmopolitanism 198–205 Crow people 170, 183–84, 193
cultural dispossession 7 Dalits (Untouchables) conversion to another religion 73
discrimination against 11, 72–74, 191
domination by others 126, 127 decent regard, and legitimacy 133–37
De Greiff, Pablo 25
democracy, tension with liberal values 159–60, 167–68 democratic legitimacy of groups 168–74 democratic processes, within autonomous groups 165–68 Deveaux, Monique 163
Dienstag, Joshua Foa 45 discrimination, and mistrust 7–8, 15 domination, focus of civic republicanism 125–26

Index

economic redistribution 13 enduring injustice approach to historical injustice 58–63 asymmetrical collective narratives 206–10 causality arguments 11–12
and collective narratives 57, 59, 60–63
danger of romantic narratives 182–86 deciding who should alleviate a wrong 82–84 difficulty of repairing 56–57 discomfort for liberal citizens 206–10 as exceptions to progress 42 failure of liberalism 63–79 implications for liberalism 14 and legitimacy of the liberal state 16, 129–41 and liberal democracy 5–7 link between past and present 11–12 mistrust caused by 12, 74–79 non-liberal solutions 15–16
partial success stories 188–91
past and present injustice 58–63 path to justice 17
potential to persist in the future 12 problem of trust 12
reframing historical injustice 5–7 responsibility for 79–84 role of acknowledgement 107–13
role of hope 191–93
roots in radical injustice 10–11 tragic narratives 158–59 Enlightenment, forward-looking view 44–48 equal regard, and legitimacy 130–41 exile
and desire to return 7, 14, 15–16, 64–70, 109, 180 shared space 113–17
feminist critique, assumptions about the liberal state 142 Flanagan, Tom 143
France, reconciliation after Second World War 105
Freeman, Michael 86
Friedman, Marilyn 141, 163
German Americans, discrimination against 63 Germany
acknowledgement of Nazi atrocities 105 apologies for Nazi past 101–2 burden of past nationalism 199, 201–2 Gibney, Mark 88–89
Gover, Kevin 95
group autonomy 154
democratic legitimacy 168–74 democratic processes 165–68 effects of ending injustice 174–82 empowering women 171–74
and individual rights 141–48
internal injustice 164–65 legitimacy of group authority 160, 161–68 members’ right to leave the group 161–63 provisionally privileged groups 147–48 and self-respect 175–77 state involvement 162–66 violation of individual rights 160, 161–68 group-differentiated rights 147–48, 154, 174–76 group identity, and self-respect (self-esteem) 203–5 group solidarity 127–28
Habermas, Jürgen 139, 194, 199–203, 205
Hardin, Russell 206
Hawaiian monarchy, overthrow by US 3
Headley, John 48
Hegel, Georg W. F. 9
Hendrix, Burke 116
Hill, Renée 28–29
Hinduism
caste system 71–74, 78, 111, 126, 127 changes in 124–25, 126, 127 discrimination within 71–74 holy lands 67
Hindu nationalism 2–3, 143
see also Indian Muslims historical injustice
apologies for 3–4
choosing which to remember 25–28
as enduring injustice 5–7 exceptions to progress 24 failures of progress 49–55 groups which deserve redress 22–24 justifications for reparations 28–31 limits of remembering 25–28 non-identity approach 31–41
path to justice 17
relevance of focus on history 3–7 ubiquity of injustice in the past 31–41 which injustices matter today 31–41 which injustices to remember 5
why it is now a concern 22–24
see also enduring injustice; past injustice Hobbes, Thomas 39
Holocaust 89, 111, 199
memorials as sacred space 116–17 hope, replacing faith in progress 191–93
Huguenots, discrimination against 63–64
Hume, David 39, 130
humiliation 136
Hungarians 54
ideal theory 121–22
identity problem 23
Indian Muslims 18, 143, 146, 190 destruction of Babri Masjid 150
discrimination against 7–8
Hindu violence against 2–3 issue of exit 162
mistrust of government 15 Muslim personal law 148–53, 162
pogrom at Gujarat 150
state involvement in personal law 163–64
indigenous peoples
acknowledgement processes 108
apologies for historical injustice 3–4
arguments for reparations 40
enduring injustices 11 mistrust of governments 77–78 original possession argument 37–39 individual rights 13–14, 130–41
and group autonomy 141–48
of group members 160, 161–68 majorities and minorities 148–57 progress towards 48–49
injustice
danger of romantic narratives 182–86
distance from liberal justice 174–82 intolerable 134–35
nature of 181–82
not being at home in the world 182 oppressive regimes 181–82 outcome when it ends 174–82 and the possibility of justice 177–82 what should take its place 174–82 see also enduring injustice; historical injustice; past injustice;
radical injustice; responsibility for injustice internal injustice in communities 164–65
Inuit people, Nunavut province 108, 189–90
Iran 181
Irish Potato Famine 88–89
Islam, conversion by Dalits 73
Israel, the Holy land 67
Israeli Jews 185–86
Israeli Muslims 18, 143, 146, 190, 191
discrimination against 7–8
issue of exit 162
Muslim personal law 148–53, 162
state involvement in personal law 163–64
Ivison, Duncan 12, 25, 64, 75, 144, 146, 147, 153, 158, 170, 190
Jackson, Andrew 1
Jainism 73
Japan, Rape of Nanking 43–44
Japanese Canadians, discrimination 63
Japanese colonialism 101
Japanese government 80
Jewish law in Israel 152
Jewish tradition of apology 38
Jews, exile 7
Jim Crow laws 134
apologies for 3
justice
elusive nature of 158–86 versions in overlapping communities 193–98

Index

Kant, Immanuel 44, 49, 100, 131
Kosovo, importance to Serbs 67, 116, 180
Kukathas, Chandran 80, 159
Kurdish people 7, 75, 108
Kurdistan Worker’s Party (PKK) 75
Kymlicka, Will 153, 159, 174–76, 180

Lakota Sioux, dispossession of sacred lands 2, 66–67, 68, 97–98 land attachment to 7, 14, 15–16 redistribution 127
and shared space 113–17
see also sacred land Latin America
government changes 80–81 land ownership patterns 127 Lear, Jonathan 170
legitimacy of group authority 160, 161–68 legitimacy of the liberal state 16, 120–57
civil disobedience to unjust laws 139–41 civilization and injustice 138–39 and decent regard 135–37
democratic legitimacy of groups 168–74 detours from liberal justice 123–28 and enduring injustice 129–41
and equal regard 130–41
and group autonomy 141–48, 154 and group-differentiated rights 154
and individual rights 130–41
and intolerable injustice 134–35 non-ideal theory 121–23
partial 133–41
and persistent minorities 132–41 perspective of majorities 148–57 perspective of oppressed minorities 148–57 and reform 129–41
liberal democracy, and enduring injustice 5–7 liberalism chastened 187–210
definition 12–13
differences from democracy 167–68 and economic redistribution 13 and egalitarianism 13
and equal concern 13–14
and equal respect 13–14 failures of 15–16, 17–18, 63–79 implications of enduring injustice 14 inability to prevent enduring injustice 63–79
and individual rights 13–14
limitations in exile cases 64–70 limitations in sacred land cases 64–70 limits and flaws 17–18
mistrust caused by failures 74–79 and non-liberal solutions to injustice 15–16
and post-nationalism 198–205 view of sacred practice 70–74 liberal justice 12–19
detour from 15, 123–28 meaningful response to enduring injustice 206–10 in overlapping communities 193–98 and restitutive justice 160 liberal nationalism 198–205 liberal theory
ahistorical nature 44–48 concept of overlapping communities 193–98 and feeling at home in the world 9–10
ideal theory 121–22
non-ideal theory 121–23
replacing faith in progress 191–93
role of hope 191–93
liberal thinkers, forward-looking view 44–48 liberal values, tension with democracy 159–60 Lind, Jennifer 101, 105
Locke, John 49, 96, 127
Lovett, Frank 129
Luther, Martin 49
Lyons, David 65, 95–96
Margalit, Avishai 136
Marx, Karl 29, 97
Marxism 18
Marxist view of history 42–44

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org
mistrust of the government 77–78
Pueblo 175
repairing enduring injustice 190 respect for autonomy 108 state involvement in tribal affairs 162–63 threat from civilization 47–48 Trail of Tears (Cherokee) 1, 95
Nehru, Jawaharlal 72
New Zealand
acknowledgement processes 108 Maori tribes 116, 119, 190, 198 non-domination, and civic republicanism 125–26
non-ideal theory 121–23
North Korea 181
Nozick, Robert 36–37, 39–40, 96
Nussbaum, Martha 143–44, 151, 155, 159, 172, 173
Obama, Barack 8, 191
Okin, Susan 155–56
Ottoman Empire 80, 81, 200
overlapping communities 193–98
Palestinians 7, 53–54, 180, 185–86, 191 past injustice
as enduring injustice 5–7
groups which deserve redress 22–24
and present concerns 22–24
why it is now a concern 22–24
see also historical injustice Pearson, Noel 104
Perez, Nahshon 10, 155
persistent minorities 132–41 PKK (Kurdistan Worker’s Party) 75 political responsibility, and shared space 113–17
post-modernism 18, 52
post-nationalism 198–205
pragmatic Black nationalism 127–28
progress assumptions about removing injustice 24
and civilization 44–48 exceptions to 24, 42, 49–55 as an excuse for injustice 47–48 expectations of improvement 24
failures of 49–55
Index

and individual rights 48–49
and injustice 138–39
to irony of 49–55
post-modernist view 52
replacing with hope 191–93 revealing enduring injustice 49–55 romantic narrative 50
Protestantism 70–71
Pueblo tribe 175

racism, effects of apologies for 102–3 radical feminism 18 radical injustice 7–12 becoming enduring injustice 10–11 and cultural breakdown 8–10
cultural dispossession 7 exile and dispossession 7
link between past and present 11–12 not feeling at home in the world 8–10 pervasive discrimination 7–8 Rawls, John 44, 48–49, 70, 71, 121, 122–23, 134, 159, 175, 193, 195, 196, 204
Raz, Joseph 176
reform, and legitimacy of the liberal state 129–41
regret for past injustices, expressed in apologies 93–98
religion and liberalism 16 religious groups, members’ right to exit 161–63
religious injustice, limits of liberal justice 70–74
religious toleration 70–74 progression to individual rights 48–49
remembering historical injustice see memory
reparations
African Americans 81
based on current injustices 34–36 causal argument for 31–41 deciding who should receive 28–31 descendants of victims 28–31 historical justification for 28–31 identifying people who deserve them 31–41
identity problem 23
level of welfare argument 33–34, 36 non-identity problem 31–41
original possession argument 37–39
problems with 28–31
and responsibility for past injustice 81–82
responsibility for injustice 79–84 assumption of continuity 79–81 deciding who should alleviate a wrong 82–84
and justice 81
for the present and future 81 and reparations 81–82 separation from causality 82–84 restitutive justice 177–82 and liberal justice 160 rights of the individual see individual rights
Roma (gypsies), discrimination against 7–8, 123–24, 190
romantic narratives danger of 182–86
of enduring injustice 182–86 of oppression 110–11
of progress 50
Rousseau, Jean-Jacques 131
Roxstrom, Erik 88–89
sacred land 14
Black Hills of the Lakota Sioux 2, 66–67, 68, 97–98
and collective narratives 66–70
and liberalism 15–16 limitations of liberalism 64–70 sacred practice, limits of liberal justice 70–74
sacred space 116–17
Saudi Arabia 181
Schouls, Timothy 169, 171
Scotts 54
Scott, David 158, 50
self-respect (self-esteem) and group identity 203–5 in minority groups 175–77
Serbs, importance of Kosovo 67, 116, 180
Shachar, Ayelet 153
Shah Bano case 149–51, 173
shared space 113–17
Shelby, Tommie 127–28, 134–35
Shklar, Judith 181
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Page</th>
<th>Index</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>236</td>
<td>Index</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Shue, Henry 146

Sikhism 73

sincerity of apologies

agency problem 98–102

coming from governments/groups 99–102

slavery

apologies for 3, 102–3

arguments for reparations 28–29, 31, 81

opponents of 111

Slovenians 54

Smith, Donald 73–74

Smith, Nick 98, 100

Smith, Rogers 204–5

socialism 29

Song, Sarah 154, 155, 160

Soviet Union 1

Stalin, Joseph 1, 23, 80

stateless peoples 53–54

Stilz, Anna 131, 133, 199

Taaiake, Alfred 146, 158, 170

Tan, Kok-Chor 199

Tatars

effects of ending enduring injustice 197

exile from the Crimea 1, 7, 11, 14, 23, 67, 68–69, 80, 81, 109, 114–16, 185 lack of self-determination 53–54 ways of ending enduring injustice 180

Thompson, Janna 25, 40–41, 80, 96, 100–1

Tibet 18

Tibetans

cultural dispossession 7, 60

danger of romantic narratives 183

effects of ending enduring injustice 178–79, 197

lack of self-determination 53–54

tragic liberalism 17, 122 tragic narratives of enduring injustice 158–59

Trail of Tears, Cherokee people 1, 95

transformation

expectation from apologies 88–93 intention of apologies 102

role of acknowledgement 107–13

Trickster (First Nations character) 26, 78

Trudeau, Pierre 26, 78

trust see mistrust

Tully, James 37–38

Turkey 18, 75

acknowledgement of the Kurds 108

Armenian genocide 80, 81, 200

Turner, Dale 70, 138, 146, 158, 170

Tukege experiment 75–76

Ukraine 1, 18, 67, 68–69, 109, 114–16

United States

apologies for Jim Crow laws 3 apologies for slavery and racism 3, 102–3 apologies to Hawaiian people 3 liberal democracy 18 see also African Americans; Chinese Americans; German Americans; Native Americans unjust laws, civil disobedience 139–41

van Buren, Martin 1

Vernon, Richard 64–65

Waldron, Jeremy 39, 65, 185

Walker, Margaret Urban 191–92, 193

Walkley, Mary Anne 29

Walzer, Michael 194

wealth, redistribution of 13

Weiner, Brian 25, 90

Wenar, Leif 12, 76

Williams, Melissa 50–51, 75

Wolgast, Elizabeth 177

women’s rights

discrimination within oppressed groups 141, 143, 149–51, 152–57 diversity 171–74

enduring injustice 62–63

empowerment of women 171–74

feminist critique 142

Shah Bano case 149–51

workers

and enduring injustice 63

exploitation of 29

Young, Iris 51

Zagorin, Perez 48