

Index

A

abnormal economic fluctuation 237–43 abnormal shortage 114, 238–43 accumulation mechanisms, less developed regions 175–79 administrative reform 60 aggregate demand and supply 88 aggregate social product 49 agricultural population percentage 203 alert lines, zero employment/inflation ix American Economic Review 211
Anti-Equilibrium 217
 art products 138–46
 averages principle 109

B

balance of payments, and exports 9–16 bank credits and investment 50 banks and socialist enterprises 76–77
 Benassy, Jean-Pascal 217, 218
 “big bang” approach xiv
 Black, Cyril Edwin 196
 blood-making/blood transfusion 174, 176 Boards of Directors 72
 budget restraints 218

C

capital
 for industrial development 172, 175 quantitative quotas 222 capital goods ownership 29, 69 and proprietorship 84–85 capital inflow 179, 181–82 capital investment and development 175, 179–82 internal 177, 180
 and resource allocation 176
 structure 179–82
 and surplus funds 177
 capital markets 58
 capital reinvestment see capital investment capital utilization efficiency 182–84 central banking see monetary policy central planning, and rural enterprises 247–48, 252–53 channels, lack of 229

China Council for International Cooperation on Environment and Development viii
 circulation
 in economic growth 232–37
 outsourcing 235
 civilizations, rise and fall of 207 cliometrics 192
 Clower, Robert Wayne 216 cohesion of organizations 308–09 collective shares 263
 collectives 79
 commodity economy 70, 81
 commodity markets 58
 commodity producers, and interest 310 commodity production, and resources 143–44 commodity sales, and labor supply 216 commodity shortage 238
 comparative economic history 190–213 future direction 211–13 and imaginative theory 213 questions on 195
 compensation
 full 160–62
 indirect 162
 irreparable loss 162–64
 to victims of environmental damage/treatment 148–66, 151–58 principles 157–58
 competition
 and firms 310
 in rural enterprises 247
A Contribution to the Theory of the Trade Cycle 201
 control rights and ownership xvi cooperative system, in rural enterprise reform 258–62, see also joint-stock cooperative system
 cooperatives, small 78–80, 84 corporate culture 132–36 corporate shares 263
 corporate stock-holding 73–75 corruption 130
 credit rationing 295
 credit scale control 295, 296–98 Crisis in Keynesian Economics 201 crowding out effect 286, 287

Index

cultural needs 121–23
 cultural products 138–46 cultural progress, and obstacles 134 cultural reform 124
 cultural revolution 125–27 culture 120–36
 corporate 132–36
 and entrepreneurs 60–61, 131–36
 foundation of new culture 123–25 new culture and the economy 129–30 pre- and post-liberation year 121–22 remodeled old culture 122, 123, 130–31
 currency growth 48
 currency policy 200

D

debt chain 233–37
The Decline of the West 206–07 democracy and the economy 128–31 development strategies 76 development/environment coordination, and capital investment 179–82 dialectic thought, and synthetic analysis xvii
 direct compensation costs 158–60 disequilibrium ix, xvi–xvii, 111, 114
 assumptions 222
 between regions 172
 categories 223
 in Chinese economy 223, 228
 and circulation 235
 and debt chain 232–37
 and dual mechanism frictions 98–101, 102 and economic operations 102–04 in firms 223–26
 flaws in analysis 223
 in incomplete markets 223–26 and invested capital 180 and market self-restraint role 92–98 and microeconomic agents 90–91, 92, 94 in modernization process 209–11 and price rigidity 221
 and resource allocation 88–89
 restraints on growth and fluctuations 216–26
 shortest side syndrome 226–32
 wooden barrel principle 226–32
 see also equilibrium
Disequilibrium in the Chinese Economy 223 distribution quotas 110 diversity, in modernization 206–09

double-track prices 114 dual mechanism frictions 98–101, 102

E

econometrics 45–46
 economic behaviour, and workforce interests 315
 economic blood-making/blood transfusion 174, 176
 economic bubbles 302–03 economic data 193
 economic development, major outbursts 204 economic disequilibrium/equilibrium see disequilibrium; equilibrium economic efficiency, and education 16–24 economic fluctuation 200–203 abnormal 237–43
 Multiplier–Accelerator model 219–20
 normal 237–43
 theories 219–20
 economic funnels and reservoirs 174–75 economic growth
 and balance of payments 9–16 Chinese 223–24
 and corporate culture 132–36
 and economic structure 4
 and environmental damage 165
 and government fiscal/monetary policy 290–91
 and industrial structure 106–17
 and investment 32–34
 and law of the shortest side 226–32
 multi-linear 203–06
 production and circulation 232–37 and resource shortage 110
 theories 218–19
 Third World 203–06
 tilting type 111, 112, 116 economic historians 190, 191, 192 economic history
 of China, comparative 190–213
 and economics 212
 economic inertia 97
 economic operational mechanisms 168–88 economic plans, Chinese economy 65–66 economic reform
 confidence in 123–25
 and industrial restructuring 106–17
 for people 120–21
 speed of 124–25
 economic regulation 177–78 and government efficiency 58–60

Index

- economic restructuring acceleration of 205 extending lateral economic ties 63–64 and ownership reform 54–57 and values 63
- economic returns, art and cultural production 141–45
- The Economics of Market Disequilibrium* 217
- Economics of Shortage* xiv, 217
- economy
 capital-intensive 13
 knowledge-intensive 9–16
 self-regulation 57
 traditional social structure as brake 203–06
- ecosystem preservation 187
- education development/restructuring of 3–9 and economic growth 2–30 aspects of 2–3
 role of 2–3
- funding sources 24
- investment
 and economic development 9–16 and fiscal revenue 24–29 and income distribution 16–24 and social gains 27
- and knowledge-intensive economy 9–16
- need for development vii
- in socialist system 29–30
- and structural nature of unemployment 3–9
- efficiency
 and equality 16
 material/moral foundations of 312–16 and organizational cohesion 308–12 potential for growth 316–18 and social cohesion 308–12 super 313–16
 within firms 306–08
- efficiency studies 306–08
- egalitarianism
 and equitable income distribution 268–82
 and individualism 63
- Eleventh Party Central Committee, Third Plenary Session 122, 123, 127
- emancipation 122–23
- employment
 structural nature of 3–9
see also unemployment
- employment problems, and cultural revolution 6–7
- Engerman, S.L. 192–93, 212
- enterprise reform 103
- enterprise shareholding system 72–73
- entrepreneurs 60–61, 131–36
- environmental damage, and economic operational mechanisms 170–72
- environmental damage/treatment, victims and compensation 148–66
- environmental preservation 168–70
- environmental protection 148–66
- environmental treatment, definition 154
- equality and efficiency 16
- equilibrium 64–65
 assumptions 222
 and microeconomic agents 90–91
 models 218–19
 and resource allocation 88–89
see also disequilibrium
- equitable income distribution 268–83
- Europeanization 196
- exchange rate elasticity 226
- expectation concept 218
- exports
 alternative strategies 12
 capital-intensive 13
 human capital-intensive xviii
 knowledge-intensive 9–16
 labor-intensive 9–16
- F
- firms
 competition 247, 310
 and disequilibrium 223–26
 efficiency factors within 306–08 as investment/interest principals 106–07, 115–17
 liability 54
 organizational/social cohesion within 308–12 relationships within 306–07 size categories 56
- fiscal deficit 48
- fiscal funding/appropriations, and reinvestment 48, 50
- fiscal policy 66
 effectiveness in economic growth 286–87 limitations in incomplete market 286–92 loose 286, 289–91
 and monetary policy 286–303 tight 289–91, 297
- fiscal revenue, and educational investment 24–29
- fluctuation see economic fluctuation
- Fogel, R.W. 192–93, 212
- Four Modernizations 64
- Four Olds 125–26
- fund raising in shareholding companies 73

Index

fund shortage 238
 funding sources 50–51

G

The General Theory of Employment, Interest, and Money 88
 Gerschenkron, Alexander 203–06 global diversity, in modernization 206–09 GNP per capita 203
 goals
 and efficiency 306
 government 109, 113, 306
 goals mechanism, in socioeconomic development 168–69, 175 goals principle 109
 goals target model, rural enterprise rights 258–61
 government
 and corporate culture 132–36
 and environmental damage compensation 150–51, 155–56, 160, 164–66 and historical ratios principle 109
 and industrial restructuring 108
 last resort intervention 240 and policy stability 65
 rural government reform 255–56
 government efficiency 58–60 government goals 109, 113, 306 government intervention, inappropriate 226 government quotas 108, 109, 114, 116 government rationing 113 government regulation 57, 239, 240
 Granick, David xv
Growth, Shortage and Efficiency 217

H

hard budget restraints 218 Harrod–Domar model of economic growth 218, 220 health compensation 163 Hicks, John 200, 201, 207 historical ratios principle 109 holding companies 55–56, 75 household contract system vii household responsibility system 80 human resources 42

I

imaginative theory 213
 impetus mechanism in socioeconomic development 169, 175 improper resource allocation 93 incentive, lack of 229 incentive policies, for poor regions 173–75 income

 and culture 122
 and investment 33
 income disparity
 and efficiency 61–62
 Gini Coefficient 281–82
 rationality 271–79
 and social instability 274–82 income distribution 17–24, 82, 268–83 equitable 268–82
 individual 270
 proportionality 269–72
 rational 268–69
 regional 270–71
 income satisfaction 276–83
 Threshold Values 280–83 income tax 62–63
 incomplete markets 216, 221, 223–26, 236, 290, 292, 296, 300–301 India, social structure 208 individualism, and egalitarianism 63 industrial development capital for 172
 and environmental damage 170
 and Weber 198–200
 industrial restructuring 107–17 Industrial Revolution 198–200, 201 industrialization 10–11 industry-prioritizing policy 111–13 inflation 96
 and fiscal policy 290
 non-zero 220, 221, 238
 zero ix
 information 229
 lack of 229
 transmission 216
 infrastructure, investment in 64 input–output ratio 107, 178, 232 institutional reform, political 205 interest mechanisms, and efficiency 306 interest rates, and monetary policy 293 interference elimination mechanism in socioeconomic development 169, 175 internal accumulation mechanisms, less developed regions 175–79, 184–86 internal capital investment 177, 180
 investment 32–52
 capital see capital investment effective 32, 34–47
 and firms 224

Index

ineffective 34–37
 in infrastructure 64
 irrational 37–40
 overinvestment 225
 preferential tax rates 180 probable/potential increases in 35–36 and production factors 230 promptness in 36
 rational 32–52
 and resource allocation 178
 investment discrepancy, effective/rational 40–41 investment funding supply 47–52 investment growth, and economic fluctuations 202 investment outlet shortage 238 investment principals 106–08 investment profitability 44–47 investment quantity 232 investment rate elasticity 226 investment savings – liquidity preference money supply (IS–LM model) 219–20 investment stability 179 irrational consumption 177 irreparable loss compensation 162–64
 IS–LM model of economic fluctuation 219–20
 Italy, and industrialization 199

J

Japan, modernization 196, 204–05 job creation 7
 job shortage 238
 joint-stock cooperative system 246, 259, 260, 261–66
Journal of Economic Perspectives 201

K

Keynes, John Maynard 88
The Keynesian Counter-revolution: A Theoretical Appraisal 216
 Keynesian economic theory 88–89, 216, 219 fiscal/monetary policy 286–87 knowledge-intensive economy 9–16 knowledge-intensive exports 9–16
 Kornai, János xiv, 217, 218

L

labor input 14, 70
 labor market 58
 labor mobility 21
 labor productivity 11, 14, 25, 66 labor quality 13, 14
 labor, quantitative quotas 222 labor supply, and commodity sales 216

 Lane, Frederic C. 213
 Lange, Oscar xiii
 last resort intervention 240
 latecomers, advantages and disadvantages of 204 lateral comparative approach to economic history 193–94
 Latin America, socioeconomic structures 208 law of the shortest side 226–32
 Leijonhufvud, Axel 216
 Lerner, Abba xiii
 Lin, Justin Yifu xvii
 Little Red Book 126
 local protectionism 247 loose fiscal policy 286, 289–91

M

Macroeconomics: An Introduction to the Non-Walrasian Approach 217
Macroeconomics and Imperfect Competition 217 manufacturing
 human capital-intensive xviii labour-intensive xviii, 9–16 market competition 247
 survival of the fittest rule 251, 252
 market completeness 216, 221, 223–26, 236, 290, 292–98, 300–301
 and policy effectiveness 287–89
 market conditions
 and investment 43
 and rural enterprises 247
 market economy
 efficiency 306–18
 and entrepreneurs 60–61
 market information, adequacy of 181 market mechanisms 57–58, 88–89
 and efficiency 306
 and government regulation 98–101 and growth 62
 market policy readjustment 95–96 market quotas 115–16
 market rectification 95, 96 market regulation 57
 and efficiency 306
 market, self-restraint role 92–98 market socialism xiii marketability for effective/rational investment 42–44
 markets, incomplete 216, 221, 223–26, 236 material foundations of efficiency 312–16 material needs 121
 material resources 42

Index

matrix companies 75
 maximum returns principle 143
 May Fourth Movement 126
 Melotti, Umberto 203–06
 microeconomic agents 89, 90–91, 92, 94, 97, 98 minimum cost principle 143 mixed-ownership companies 77–78 modernization
 and disequilibrium 209–11
 and economic fluctuations 200–203 global diversity in 206–09 opinions on 202–03
 of people 122–23
 studies 194–96
 Chinese academic 197–200
The Modernization of Japan and Russia 196
 Monetarist view on fiscal/monetary policy 286–87
 monetary policy 66
 effectiveness 298–303
 and fiscal policy 286–303
 and GNP 292–93
 and interest rates 293
 tools 292–98
 money supply volume 294 monomorphic ownership structure 68 monopolization, of raw materials 247 mountain economies 187–88
 Movement of Agricultural Collectivization (1954–1955) 83
 Movement of the People's Communes 83 multi-linear economic growth 203–06 Multiplier–Accelerator model of economic fluctuation 219–20

N
 national economy, problems in 125
 Neo-Cambridge model of economic growth 219, 220
 Neo-classical model of economic growth 218–19, 220
 New Culture Movement 126
 non-market intervention 95 non-Walrasian equilibrium 88 normal economic fluctuation 237–43 normal shortage 114, 238–43
 North, Douglas Cecil 213

O
On Keynesian Economics and the Economics of Keynes 216

one man, one vote decision-making 259, 263 one-shot price reform xiv open market system 294
 organizational cohesion, and efficiency 308–12 output price elasticity 226 outsourcing of circulation 235 overcapitalization 238
 overinvestment 225
 ownership diversity 69–70 ownership reform and commodity economy 68 and economic restructuring 54–57
 in rural areas 80–83
 ownership structure, monomorphic 68

P

partial compensation 160–62 participatory system 73–75 per capita income, and wages 10 plantation economy 212–13 policy readjustment 95, 96 political institutional reform 205 Pollard, Sidney 209–11
 poverty
 and the environment 168, 184–88
 in rural areas 257
 price control 66
 price elasticity 114–15, 218 price flexibility/rigidity 93, 216, 218, 221, 235 price reform 54
 price restraints 221
 price signals 114
 primary driving force 32 principle of averages 109 product marketability 43–44 production
 in economic growth 232–37
 purpose of 120
 production efficiency, and shareholding companies 73
 production factors difficulties in mutual replacement 229–30
 and law of the shortest side 226–32
 reallocation 230–32
 production materials, quantitative quotas 222 production technology, and industrialization 198 profitability, of investment 44–47 property rights reform 246–66 proportionality of income distribution 269–72 proprietorship of capital goods 84–85 protectionism 247

Index

Q

quantity constraint 217
Quotations of Mao Zedong 126

R

rationalized equilibrium 218 re-education 126
 real estate markets 58
A Reconsideration of the Microfoundations of Monetary Theory 216 red spots hypothesis 209–11 rediscount quotas 295–96
 rediscount rate 293, 294
The Reinterpretation of American Economic History 193 relending quotas 295–96
 remodeled old culture 122, 123, 130–31
 repetitious construction 248–51 reserve requirement ratio 294 resource allocation disproportionate 96, 98, 113 improper 93
 and investment/reinvestment 176, 178 maladjustment 95
 and social returns 144–46
 in socioeconomic development 169, 175 resource investors 306 resource shortage 114, 238 resource utilization efficiency 109, 182–87 resource waste, and repetitious construction 250 rigidity in interests 124
 Robinson, Joan 219
Role of Government in Economic Growth in Early Modern Times 213 rural enterprises 246–66 capital stock/stock shares problem 259–60 and central planning 252–53 farmers' business efficiency 254–55 farmers' status in 253–54 and market conditions 246–48 new participants 260–61 and poverty 257
 property rights reform 251–57
 and repetitious construction 248–51
 rural government reform 255–56
 rural ownership reform 80–83 rural supply and marketing cooperatives 82–83
 Russia, modernization in 196

S

Schumpeter, Joseph Alois 200 science, and the economy 128–31

secluded economies 200
 securities market 58
 share-controlling, multi-level 75 shareholder categories 71–72 shareholding companies dividends 84–85
 fund raising 73
 and production efficiency 73 and small cooperatives 79 shareholding system xiv–xv, 55, 58, 71 shortages 114, 237–43
 shortest side law 226–32
 side effect of policy xviii slave economy 212–13
 small collectives 79
 small cooperatives 78–80, 84 social cohesion, and efficiency 308–12 social compensation 153–54 social entrepreneurs 60–61 social instability, and income disparity 274–82 socialism
 and education 29–30
 investment under 32–52
 reinvestment and fiscal appropriations 48 socialist corporate consortiums 75 socialist economic operational mechanisms 168–88 socialist enterprises 75 and banks 75–76
 socialist ethics, and economic norms 61–63 socialist market economy, and entrepreneurs 60–61 socialist market system 58 socialist new culture, and the economy 129 socialist ownership structure 68–85
Socialist Political Economics 315 SOE see state-owned enterprises soft budget constraint (SBC) syndrome xiv, xvii soft budget restraints 218 sole market prices 114
 Solow, Robert M. 211–12
 South Korea, economic growth 208–09
 Southeast Asia, economic crisis (1997) ix Soviet Union, relationship to Chinese economy 202–03 Spengler, Oswald 206–07 stagflation 96
 stagnation 96
 standard old culture 122
 State Council Commission of Environmental Protection viii state ownership policy xv

Index

state owned enterprises (SOE) autonomy xiii
 holding company system 55–56 multiple principals xv profit-maximizing xiii property rights structure xiv–xv shareholding system xiv–xv, 55 stock markets, and the economy 302 stock-holding 73–75, 76
Strategic Choice for Prosperity 239, 240, 241
A Study of History 207
 super efficiency 313–16
 supply and demand 33, 57, 92–93, 101, 115, 159, 171, 217, 218, 230
 supreme directives 128
 survival of the fittest rule 251, 252

T

take-overs, of ill-managed firms 74–75 technology market 58
A Theory of Economic History 200, 201, 207
 Third World growth 203–06
 Thomas, Robert Paul 213
 Tian'anmen Incident (1976) 126 tilting type of economic growth 111, 112, 116 township governments, and enterprise management 82, 83
 Toynbee, Arnold 207
 traders, and supply/demand 217 trading processes 139, 141 tradition and modernization 196 traditional economic history 192 traditional social structure, role as brake on economy 203–06
 trans-sectoral/regional business 75 treatment effect of policy xviii

U

undercapitalization 238 underground market 97

unemployment
 non-zero 220, 221, 238
 and vacancies 5–6
 zero ix
see also employment
 unemployment problems, and cultural revolution 6–7
 United States, slave economy 212–13
 urban economic restructuring vii

V

vacancies and unemployment 5–6 vertical comparative approach to economic history 193–94
 victims, of environmental damage/treatment 148–66

W

wages
 and investment in education 16–24 and per capita income 10 policy 66
 Walras, Léon 88
 Walrasian equilibrium 88, 89
 Weber, Max 198–200
 Weber fever 198
 Westernization 196
 wooden barrel principle 226–32
 workforce motivation/initiative 34

Y

yin–yang xvii

Z

zero inflation axis ix
 zero shortages 238, 239, 241
 zero unemployment axis ix