

Index

---

- accusations
  - formulation of, 67–70
  - mitigating, 70
  - responses to, 66
  - separation from denials, 63–66
- activity misalignment, between co-mediators, 199–203
- agreement, mediator teamwork through
  - expression of, 211
- American Arbitration Association, 3
- and-prefaces, mediator teamwork through, 216–219
- approaches to mediation, 3–4
- argument, 60–88
  - avoiding, 61, 63–71
  - direct exchanges between disputants and, 71–77
  - disputant self-exit from, 71–73
  - focusing on facts to manage, 82
  - formulation of accusations and denials and, 67–70
  - interruptions, questions, and sanctions to manage, 80–82
  - managing and minimizing, 227
  - mediator-assisted disputant exit from, 73–77
  - mediator responses to, 77–88
  - minimal responses and topic shift to manage, 78–80
  - mitigated, 62
  - in ordinary conversation, 61–63
  - responses to accusations and, 66
  - separation of accusations and denials and, 63–66
  - stepwise departures from mediation format to, 83–88
- Arnold Institute, 21
- Association of Family and Conciliation Courts, 3
- attorney representation, 4
- autonomy of disputants, 9
  - proposal production and, 235–238
  - replacement of disputant and, 141–143
- bias. See neutrality of mediators
- blame, third person attributions of, 68
- brief oppositional utterances, in participation framework of mediation, 48
- clarification of main areas of disagreement, by mediator, 124–126
- community-based mediation, 12
- complementary actions, mediator teamwork through, 219–222
- consumer complaint cases. See also small claims mediation
- conversation analysis, 15
  - need for research on caucuses in mediation and, 245
- cross-cultural comparisons, need for, 245
- data collection, 18, 22
- data preparation, 23
- denials
  - formulation of, 67–70
  - separation from accusations, 63–66
- disputants
  - autonomy of. See autonomy of disputants
  - direct exchanges between, 71–77
  - ideas for resolution, as position reports, 174–177
  - mediator representation of positions of. See mediator representation of positions
  - nonproblematic intrusions by, in participation framework of mediation, 44–50
  - opening statements of. See disputants' opening statements
  - opposing, replacement by mediator, 136–147
  - recommendations for, 242–244
  - replacement by mediator. See replacement of disputant
  - requests for permission to speak from, 41
  - resistance to proposal solicits, 156–164
  - self-representation by, 120

270 Index

- disputants' opening statements, 89–119 facilitating, 94–99
 of first disputants, soliciting, 90–94 interactional consequences of going second and, 111–116
 with mediator facilitation, 96–99 mediator solicitation and mediation of, 229 with minimal mediator intervention, 94–96 moral claims for, 102–104 order of, 111–116
 preemptive, 104–107
 quotes and reported speech for, 101 of second disputant, soliciting, 107–111 stories or narratives for, 100 strong, constructing, 99–104
- dispute resolution. See resolution of dispute
- divorce mediation, 8
 interactional organization of sessions for, 51–58
 mediator replacement of disputant in,
 138–141
 Midwest data and, 21
 opening of sessions in, 33–36
 proposal production in, 185–194 proposal solicitation in, 167–171 small claims mediation compared with, 13 soliciting disputants' opening statements in,
 92–93
- empowerment in mediation, 12
- error repair, in participation framework of mediation, 46
- ethnomethodology, 14
 conversation analysis in, 15
- examples of mediation sessions, 23
- facilitative mediation, 5
- facts, focusing on, to deflect from argument, 82
- failure of mediator teamwork, 199–209
 activity misalignment and, 199–203
 interactional misalignment and, 205–208
 substantive misalignment and, 203–205
- fairness of mediators, 9
- fairness, replacement of disputant and,
 143–147
- Family Mediation Association, 3
- Federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, 3
- footing shifts, mitigation of proposals by, 181
- highlighting of common ground, by mediator, 126–130 of main point, by mediator, 123
- history of mediation, 2
- humor, to display cooperation, 58
- hybrid mediation format, 51–55
 proposal generation in, 186–191
- information provision, in participation framework of mediation, 50
- information-seeking questions as mediator proposals, 178–180
 in participation framework of mediation, 49
- Institute for Mediation and Conflict Resolution, 3
- interactional approaches to research on
 mediation, 11–14
- interactional misalignment, between co-mediators, 205–208
- interactional organization of mediation, 29–59 in divorce mediation sessions, 51–58 participation framework and, 44–50 session openings and, 29–36 turn taking system and, 36–44
- interruptions, emerging arguments and, 80–82
- joking proposals, 191–194
- local organizations, 3
- mediation programs
 comparing different types of, 244 recommendations for procedures and processes in, 242–244
 research implications for practice of,
 240–244
- mediator(s)
 facilitating solution-generating process by, 233–235
 ideas for resolution, as suggestions, 177–185 opening statements with facilitation by, 96–99
 opening statements with minimal intervention by, 94–96
 recommendations for, 242–244
 replacement of opposing disputant by.
See replacement of disputant representation of positions by. See mediator representation of positions roles of. See roles of mediators sanctions imposed by. See sanctions solicitation and facilitation of disputants' opening statements by, 229
 teamwork by. See mediator teamwork mediator representation of positions, 120–149, 230–233
 articulating main areas of disagreement and, 124–126
 articulating the main point and, 123

- highlighting of common ground and, 126–130
- mediator replacement of opposing disputant and. See replacement of disputant
- refocusing or redirecting the discussion and, 122
- repeating summaries and, 130–132
- revoicing of disputant's position and, 132–136
- mediator style, 4
- mediator teamwork, 197–223, 238
  - activity misalignment and, 199–203
  - alignment display through silence and, 209
  - through and-prefaces, 216–219
  - through complementary actions, 219–222
  - creating and displaying alignment and, 209–222
  - through explicit negotiation, 210
  - through expressing agreement, 211
  - failure of, 199–209
  - interactional misalignment and, 205–208
  - through paraphrasing, 213
  - through sentence completion, 214–216
  - substantive misalignment and, 203–205
- Midwest data, 19–23
- minimal responses, to emerging arguments, 78–80
- mitigated proposals, 180–181
- moral claims, for constructing opening statements, 102–104
- multiple mediation sessions, interactional impact of, 51–58
- narrative(s), for constructing opening statements, 100
- narrative mediation, 6
- national organizations, 3
- negotiation, explicit, mediator teamwork through, 210
- neutrality of mediators, 9, 12
  - bias perceived by disputants and, 10
  - display of, mediator proposals and, 183–185
- nonproblematic disputant intrusions, in participation framework of mediation, 44–50
- opening of mediation sessions, 29–36
  - in divorce mediation, 33–36
  - in small claims mediation, 30–33
- opening statements, of disputants. See disputants' opening statements
- oppositional utterances, brief, in participation framework of mediation, 48
- ordinary conversation, disputing in, 61–63
- paraphrasing
  - by mediator, 122–132
  - mediator teamwork through, 213
- participation framework of mediation, 44–50
  - nonproblematic disputant intrusions and, 44–50
- permission to speak, disputants' requests for, 41
- position reports, disputants' ideas for resolution as, 174–177
- preemption, 104–107
- proposals
  - display of mediator neutrality and, 183–185
  - of disputants, as position reports, 174–177
  - footing shifts and, 181
  - generation in hybrid exchanges, 186–191
  - information-seeking questions as, 178–180
  - joking, 191–194
  - of mediators, as suggestions, 177–185
  - mitigating, 180–181
  - production in divorce mediation, 185–194
  - production of, disputant autonomy and, 235–238
- proposal solicitation, 150–172
  - with candidate suggestions, 155
  - disputant resistance to, 156–164
  - in divorce mediation, 167–171
  - for elaboration of existing proposal, 154
  - general solicits for, 150
  - narrowing range of, 153
  - for new suggestions, 152
  - pursuit of proposals and, 164–167
  - recycling, 164–167
  - specific solicits for, 152–156
- purposes of mediation, 1
- questions
  - emerging arguments and, 80–82
  - information-seeking, as mediator proposals, 178–180
- quotes, for constructing opening statements, 101
- recording equipment, 19, 22
- recycling, of proposal solicits, 164–167
- redirecting/refocusing the discussion, by mediator, 122
- regional organizations, 3
- replacement of disputant, 136–147
  - disputant autonomy and, 141–143
  - in divorce mediation, 138–141
  - fairness and, 143–147
  - in small claims mediation, 136–138
- reported speech, for constructing opening statements, 101

272 Index

- representation
  - by mediator. See mediator representation
  - of positions
  - of self, by disputants, 120
- research on mediation, 8–14
  - conversation-analytic, on caucuses, need for, 245
  - further, suggestions for, 244–247
  - implications for practice, 240–244
  - improving access to data and, 246
  - interactional approaches to, 11–14
- research settings, 16–23
  - Midwest data and, 19–23
  - West Coast data and, 17–19
- resolution of dispute, 173–196
  - disputants' ideas for, as position reports, 174–177
  - in divorce mediation, 185–194
  - facilitating solution-generating process and, 233–235
  - mediators' ideas for, as suggestions, 177–185
  - soliciting proposals for. See proposal solicitation
- revoicing, by mediator, 132–136
- roles of mediators
  - in facilitative mediation, 5
  - as facilitators, 13
  - in narrative mediation, 6
  - in transformative mediation, 6
- sanctions
  - emerging arguments and, 80–82
  - imposed by mediators, 42–44
- sentence completion
  - mediator teamwork through, 214–216
  - in participation framework of mediation, 47
- silence
  - co-mediator alignment display through, 209
  - resistance to proposal solicits using, 158–160
- small claims mediation, 8
  - divorce mediation compared with, 13
  - mediator replacement of disputant in, 136–138
  - Midwest data and, 19–23
  - opening of sessions in, 30–33
  - soliciting disputants' opening statements in, 90–92
  - West Coast data and, 17–19
- solutions, generation of, facilitating process of, 233–235
- speech exchange system of mediation, 225–227
- stories, for constructing opening statements, 100
- strengths of mediation, 8
- styles of mediation, 4
- substantive misalignment, between
  - co-mediators, 203–205
- summarizing, by mediator, 122–132
- teamwork. See failure of mediator teamwork; mediator teamwork
- topic shifts, emerging arguments and, 78–80
- transformative mediation, 6
- turn taking system of mediation, 36–44
- upshots, mediator representation and, 122–132
- uses of mediation, 2
- weaknesses of mediation, 9
- West Coast data, 17–19