

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02459-5 - The Regulatory Aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis

Eilis Ferran, Niamh Moloney, Jennifer G. Hill and John C. Coffee

Index

More information

INDEX

- ABC Learning
 - collapse of 214–15, 257
- AIG
 - rescue of 343, 349
- Allco Finance
 - collapse of 214–15, 257
- Allen, Franklin
 - on financial regulation 4–5
- attorneys as whistle blowers
 - standards of professional conduct (SOX Section 307) 328–31
- Australia see also D’Aloisio, Tony; Fels, Allan; Gillard, Julia; Horne, Donald; Laker, John F; Rudd, Kevin; Shorten, Bill; Stevens, Glenn; Stiglitz, Joseph; Swan, Wayne; Turnbull, Malcolm
- APRA (Australian Prudential Regulation Authority)
 - 220–1, 223, 226–8, 241, 254, 264–5, 267–8, 285–8, 293
- background 203–7
- banking system
 - conservative approach to regulation 288, 293
 - corporate governance compared to US 294
 - covered bonds measures 251–6
 - deposit guarantee 238–44
 - insolvency law 294
 - market capitalization 268–9
 - mortgage market compared to US 293
 - Residential Mortgage-Backed Securities (RMBS) Initiative 247–51
 - resilience of 289–95
 - “too big to fail” problem (TBTF) 243–4, 290
 - wholesale funding guarantee 238–40, 244–7
- business collapses 214–15
- chief executive officer (CEO) pay 268–70
- consumer protection regulation 182–3
- corporate crises and securities market reform 204–5
- corporate governance and “law matters” hypothesis 204
- corporate regulatory structure 224–5
- economic growth 279–80
- economic resilience 276–7
- Economic Stimulus Program
 - overview of 233
 - success of 281–4
- employment market resilience 211–12
- executive remuneration reforms 262–70
- financial advice reforms (FoFA) 270–6
- Financial Development Index
 - ranking 290–1
- financial services regulatory structure
 - compared to other economies 215–17, 221–5
- Financial Claims Scheme (FCS) 241, 244
- impact of global financial crisis 215
- overview of 215–21
- resilience of 285–8

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02459-5 - The Regulatory Aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis

Eilís Ferran, Niamh Moloney, Jennifer G. Hill and John C. Coffee

Index

More information

374

INDEX

- Australia (cont.)
 “twin peaks” model 217–88
 Wallis Report see Wallis Report below
 government debt 280
 HIH Royal Commission 217, 220–1, 223, 262–3, 285–8
 impact of global financial crisis
 compared to other economies 210
 on financial markets 208–15 on financial regulation 215
 generally 203–4
 regulatory response generally 206–7 regulatory responses 232–3
 International representation 226–7
 Keynesian influence 233–4, 236 as “the lucky country” 203, 276–7 mining exports to China 277–80 to India 277–8 resource super profits tax proposal 278–9
 monetary policy success 281–4 mutual recognition arrangements
 New Zealand and Hong Kong 231
 US 100, 225–31
 OECD survey 210–11, 281–4
 pension fund operation 295–9
 Residential Mortgage-Backed Securities (RMBS) Initiative 247–51 residential property market 213 resilience to crisis 203 retail investor protection 270–6 risk management and executive remuneration 268
 securities market reform and corporate crises 204–5 shareholder protest votes 266
 short selling ban 256
 size of stimulus programmes 283
 summary of issues 299–300
 superannuation system 295–9 telecommunications privatization 298–9
 unemployment rate 211–12
- Wallis Report
 as basis for regulation 270–1 on Australia and globalization 208 philosophy of 243–4 recommendation for single agency 219–20 timing of inquiry 219 and “twin peaks” model of financial regulation 218–19, 285, 286
Wingecarribee litigation 274–6
 Australia and New Zealand Bank (ANZ) covered bonds sales 255 importance and size 289
 profitability 290
- Babcock & Brown
 collapse of 214–15
 Bagehot, Walter on role of central banks 347 Bainbridge, Stephen critique of crisis financial regulation 331, 348–9
 Bank of America
 executive bonuses 355–6
 judgment 331
 banking system see also “too big to fail” problem (TBTF) Australia see Australia bank assets as percentage of GDP 41–2 corporate governance see corporate governance
 deposit guarantee 240–4 executive remuneration see executive remuneration
 insolvency law 294
 market capitalization 268–9 minimum capital adequacy requirements 288 resilience of 289–95
 ring-fencing model 133–5 rogue trader cases 356–60 role of central banks 347 systemic risk see systemic risk
 Tier 1 capital level 288
 “universal” banking model 39–40
 wholesale funding guarantee 244–7

- Banner, Stuart on hostility to securities trading 256–7
- Barclays
“universal” banking model 41–2
- Barings rogue trader case 356–7, 359
- Barnier, Michel on capping banks 67–8 on defence of national corporate traditions 45 on equality and reciprocity with US 104 on European Parliament’s role 64–5
on financial innovation 135–7 on financial supervision 71–2 on financial transactions tax (FTT) 149–52
on post-crisis EU regulatory agenda 90–2 on pre-crisis assumptions 123–4 on “regulatory rethink” 134–5 on ring-fencing banking model 134–5 on self-regulation 143 on single market project 146–7
- Barroso, José Manuel evaluation of role 78–9 re-election 57, 88–9 term of office 55
- Basel Accords
implementation of 90–2, 158–9, 227–8 liquidity reforms 255–6 minimum capital adequacy requirements 288 negotiations on 99
support for 90
- Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (Basel Committee)
Australian representation 226–7
international networks 225
Joint Forum 226–7
- Bear Stearns liquidity crisis 343–4
rescue of 11, 340–1
- Bebchuk, Professor Lucian
on crisis and executive remuneration 336–7, 338–9
- Belgium
product intervention 187–8
- BHP Billiton
market capitalization 268–9
- bilateral mutual recognition model
US–Australian agreement as example of 228–31
- Bismarck, Otto von on making legislation and sausages 317–18
- BNP Paribas
“universal” banking model 39–40
wholesale funding guarantee 246
- Breyer, Justice Stephen on mandatory sunset law 316–17
- Buckley, James on French ambivalence towards new financial developments 32
on French views on financial services supervision 47
- Business Roundtable* judgment 352–5
- Byrne, Michael
on economic importance of Australian mining 277
- Cable, Vince
announcement on shareholder vote provision 267
- Cameron, David veto of EU Treaties reform 113–15
- Canada banking sector concentration 290–1 conservative approach to regulation 293 funding profiles contrasted with Australia 291 economic strength 281
Financial Development Index ranking 290–1 financial services regulatory structure compared to Australia 215–17

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02459-5 - The Regulatory Aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis

Eilis Ferran, Niamh Moloney, Jennifer G. Hill and John C. Coffee

Index

More information

376

INDEX

- Canada (cont.)
 - fiscal responses to crisis 237
 - impact of crisis generally 210
 - preliminary mutual recognition
 - discussions with US 229–30
 - short selling ban 257–8, 260–1
 - size of stimulus programmes 283
- capital surcharges
 - maximum harmonization 42–3
- capitalism theory
 - “Anglo-American” capitalism 18–19, 109–10, 135
 - Clark’s stage of capitalism 297
 - varieties of capitalism 18–21
- centralized clearing
 - EMIR 37–8
 - mandatory 37–8
 - OTC derivatives 37–8
 - role of 347
- Centro Property Group
 - duty of care enforcement action 293–4
- chief executive officers (CEOs)
 - excessive loans to 326
 - pay in Australia and US contrasted 268–70
- China
 - Australian mining exports to 277–80
 - economic influence 92–3
 - impact of crisis generally 210
- Citigroup
 - executive bonuses 355–6
 - total assets 41–2
- Clark, Robert
 - fourth stage of capitalism 297
- collateralized debt obligations (CDOs)
 - Wingecarribee* litigation 274–6
- Committee of European Securities Regulators (CESR)
 - see* European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA)
- Commonwealth Bank of Australia
 - covered bonds sales 255
 - global ranking 290
 - importance and size 289
 - profitability 290
 - Tier 1 capital level 288
- competition
 - regulatory measures 121–2
- conflicts of interest
 - Dodd-Frank Act see Dodd-Frank Act
- consumer protection regulation
 - competition measures 121–2
 - EU regulation redesign see EU financial regulation
 - growth of interest in 82–3
 - legacy effects of crisis
 - consumer markets 182–6
 - distrust of innovation 186, 194–201
 - product intervention 186–94
 - objectives of 81–2
 - as priority 111–12
 - purpose of 119
 - regulatory innovation 115, 122
 - regulatory tools 120
- contingent capital
 - Dodd-Frank Act 363–4
- corporate collapses see also specific corporations e.g. Lehman Brothers
 - and securities market reform 204–5
- corporate governance see also executive remuneration; shareholder voting
 - Dodd-Frank Act 352–5
 - duty of care 294
 - EU differences over 44–5
 - examples of executive abuses 326
 - “law matters” hypothesis 204
- corporate regulatory structure
 - Australia 224–5
- Council of the European Union
 - ECOFIN Council see Economic and Financial Affairs Council (ECOFIN)
 - Presidency 64–5
- Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU)
 - ESAs 74–6
 - euro crisis 14–16
- covered bonds measures
 - overview of 251–6
- credit rating agencies (CRAs)

- regulation of 6–7, 13–14, 103–7, 148–9
- risk management 122–3
- Cuomo, Andrew
 - study of executive remuneration 355–6
- Czech Republic
 - euro crisis 14–16
- D'Aloisio, Tony
 - on crisis and Australian banks 289
 - on crisis and Australian regulatory regime 215
- Denmark
 - deposit guarantee 240–1
- deposit guarantee
 - overview of 35–6, 238–44
- derivatives trading
 - Dodd-Frank Act 349–51
 - EMIR 37, 38–9, 49
 - ESMA's role 49
 - by G-SIFIs 132
 - multi-lateral trading platforms (MTFs) distinguished 161–2
- Organized Trading Facility (OTF)
 - see* Organized Trading Facilities (OTFs)
- risk management 122–3
- trading venue regulation 160–2
- transatlantic regulation of 103–4, 105–7
- Deutsche Bank
 - “universal” banking model 39–40
 - wholesale funding guarantee 246
- Dinan, Desmond
 - on Barroso Commission 78–9
- directors' loans see executive loans
- disclosure
 - EU regulation redesign 170–4
 - as regulatory tool 123–4
 - SMEs 181–2
- Dodd-Frank Act see also Volcker Rule
 - background 301–12
 - changes to 364–7
 - conflicts of interest and lack of transparency, regulatory scenario 333–4
 - corporate governance 352–5
 - criticism of 238, 307–8, 315–16, 331–2
 - downsizing of 308–9, 310
 - enactment of 301–2
 - equity capital requirements 344
 - executive compensation as cause of crisis
 - limit of regulation 352
 - regulatory scenario 332–3
 - shareholder protest provisions 336–42
 - implementation generally 351–2
 - industry-funded insurance scheme 344
 - and internal control reports 322–5
 - over-the-counter (OTC) derivatives market 349–51
 - proxy access 352–5
 - as regulatory response
 - executive compensation as cause of crisis 336–42
 - generally 334–6
 - “too big to fail” problem (TBTF) 342–4
 - regulatory scenarios
 - conflicts of interest and lack of transparency 333–4
 - executive compensation as cause of crisis 332–3
 - generally 332
 - “too big to fail” problem (TBTF) 333
 - “regulatory sine curve” and statutory correction 312–21
 - regulatory structure 221–2
 - risk reduction measures 345–9
 - Sarbanes-Oxley Act contrasted 310
 - Section 956 implementation 355–60
 - summary of issues 367
 - “too big to fail” problem (TBTF)
 - contingent capital 363–4
 - regulatory response 342–4, 360
 - regulatory scenario 333
 - resolution authority 361
- duty of care
 - corporate governance 294
 - enforcement action 293–4

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02459-5 - The Regulatory Aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis

Eilis Ferran, Niamh Moloney, Jennifer G. Hill and John C. Coffee

Index

More information

378

INDEX

- East Asian crisis
 - fiscal austerity 233–4
 - recession after 237
- Ebbers, Bernie
 - executive abuse 326
- Economic and Financial Affairs Council (ECOFIN)
 - agreements 64–5
 - and de-intensification and simplification 146–7
 - and ESAs 72
 - and European Commission 60–1
 - and financial transactions tax (FTT) 149–52
 - international representation 97–8
 - “roadmap” for financial stability 59–60
- Economic and Financial Committee (EFC)
 - crisis management by 59–60
 - and European Commission 60–1
- Economic Stimulus Programme
 - see* Australia
- Enron
 - collapse of 63–4, 104–5, 124–5, 230–1, 238, 262–3, 301–2
 - executive abuse 326
- equity markets
 - Dodd-Frank Act 344
 - EU regulation redesign 174–82
- equivalence
 - international financial regulation 103–4
- Erkens, David H
 - on crisis and executive remuneration 338
- EU external relations
 - cooperation with US 100–7
 - export of regulatory ideas 99–100
 - with new economic powers 92–6
 - regulatory leadership opportunities 92–6
 - role in post-crisis regulation 89–92
 - “speaking with a single voice” 96
- EU Finance Ministers
 - agreements 60–1
- EU financial regulation
 - approach of chapter 6
 - competition measures 121–2
 - consumer protection case study
 - de-intensification and simplification 145–52
 - growth of interest in consumer protection issues 82–3
 - introduction to case studies 117–27
 - market intensity and innovation 127–37
 - regulation as priority 111–12
 - regulation redesign
 - consumer markets 182–6
 - distrust of innovation as factor 194–201
 - product intervention 186–94
 - regulatory design issues 137–40
 - regulatory innovation 115, 122, 140–5
 - and euro crisis see euro area
 - sovereign debt crisis
 - European Commission’s role
 - see* European Commission
 - EU’s ascendancy over market regulation 13–14
 - external relations see EU external relations
 - harmonizing effect of 21–2, 44, 144–310
 - initial response to crisis 111–12
 - internal market as priority 146–9
 - management of legislative program 63–5
 - market regulation case study
 - de-intensification and simplification 145–52
 - introduction to case studies 117–27
 - market intensity and innovation 127–37
 - regulation agenda 154–60
 - regulation redesign
 - equity markets 174–82
 - market disclosure 174
 - trading practices regulation 166–70
 - trading venue regulation 160–6
 - regulatory design issues 137–40

- regulatory innovation 115, 122, 140–5
- Member State disagreements over
 - post-crisis 36–7, 52–4
- post-crisis 29–36
- pre-crisis 23–9
- re-orientation of reform programme 152–4
- regulatory change
 - background to 111–12
 - case studies 117–27
 - forms of change 116
 - process of 112–17
- regulatory innovation 115–17
 - see also* consumer protection case study and market regulation case study above
- scope of chapter 6
- single market as priority 146–9
- summary of issues 107–10
- EU Heads of State and Government discussions 60–1
- EU Member States see also specific countries
 - control over operational supervision 141–2
 - disagreements over post-crisis reforms 36–7, 52–4
 - and ESAs 72
 - and European Commission 78–9
 - and financial transactions tax (FTT) 87–8, 149–52
 - and harmonization 144–5
 - hedge-fund regulation 142
 - intergovernmentalism
 - see* intergovernmentalism
 - intervention powers 160
 - and post-crisis EU reforms 29–36
 - and pre-crisis EU regulation 23–9
 - pursuit of national agendas
 - internationally 99
 - and SME support 177–8, 180
- euro area sovereign debt crisis
 - impact of 100
 - overview of 12–17
 - responses to 35–7, 38–9, 53–4
- Europe 2020 strategy
 - aim of 9–10
- European Banking Authority (EBA)
 - location 40, 49–50
 - supervision by 43, 45–6, 85
- European Central Bank (ECB)
 - and de-intensification and simplification 146–7
 - equity markets study 176–7
 - international representation 97–8
 - support for banks 70–1
- European Commission see also Barnier, Michel; Barroso, José Manuel; Larosière, Jacques de; McCreevy, Charlie
 - background to financial regulation 54–5
 - completion of FSAP 6
 - cooperation with US 101
 - and CRAs 104–5
 - and de-intensification and simplification 146–7, 148–9
 - description of new regime 113–15
 - and ECOFIN Council 60–1
 - and Economic and Financial Committee (EFC) 60–1
 - and ESAs 71–8
 - euro crisis 13–14, 63–4
 - and European Parliament 57, 59–60, 64–5, 67–8, 73, 81–2, 88, 89–90, 94–5, 108–9
 - evaluation of role 78–83, 108–9
 - and financial innovation 135–7
 - and financial transactions tax (FTT) 86–7, 149–52
 - and FSB 92–3, 99
 - and IMF 66–7
 - initial response to crisis 57–62
 - international representation 97–8
 - later response to crisis 63
 - management of legislative program 63–5, 112–13, 165–6
 - measurement of public opinion 184–5
 - and Member States 78–9
 - and MiFID 135, 163–4
 - new supervisory measures 71–8
 - in pre-crisis era 55–7
 - regulatory innovation 118–19

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02459-5 - The Regulatory Aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis

Eilís Ferran, Niamh Moloney, Jennifer G. Hill and John C. Coffee

Index

More information

380

INDEX

- European Commission (cont.)
 - and SME support 177–80
 - and “too big to fail” problem (TBTF) 65–71
- European Council
 - and ESAs 72, 73
 - and financial transactions tax (FTT) 149–52
 - international representation 97–9
 - Lisbon Agenda 55
 - meetings 59–60
- European Court of Justice (ECJ)
 - see* Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU)
- European Covered Bond Council
 - guidance from 251
- European Financial Stability Facility
 - support for banks 70–1
- European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority (EIOPA)
 - supervision by 45–6
- European Market Infrastructure Regulation (EMIR)
 - negotiations on 37–9
- European Parliament
 - and CRAs 104–5
 - Economic and Monetary Affairs Committee (ECON) 64–5, 88–9
 - and European Commission 57, 59–60, 64–5, 67–8, 73, 81–2, 88, 89–90, 94–5, 108–9
 - evaluation of role 85–6
 - and financial transactions tax (FTT) 86–8, 149–52
 - international representation 97–9
 - post-crisis prospects for 88–9
 - and ring-fencing model of banking 134–5
 - role in crisis reforms 84–5
 - role in financial regulation 38–9, 83
- European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA)
 - advice from 103–4, 179–80, 191, 201
 - decisions by 105–7
 - establishment of 105–7, 184–5
 - interpretative approach by 104–5
 - intervention by 163–5
 - powers of 48–9, 143–4, 148–9, 160, 166–7, 190–1, 193–4
 - referral to 38–9
 - responsibilities of 84–5
 - supervision by 6–7, 74–6, 165–6, 174, 196
 - upgrading of 45–6
- European Supervisory Authorities (ESAs)
 - cooperation with US 101
 - international representation 97–8
 - regulatory role of 118–19
 - supervision by 45–6, 49–50, 51–2, 53–4, 71–8, 84–6, 88
- European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB)
 - supervision by 43, 45–6, 48–9, 72
- European Union (EU) see also Council of the European Union; EU Member States
 - adoption of IFRS 102–3
 - covered bonds market 252
 - deposit guarantee 35–6, 240–1
 - Economic and Financial Committee (EFC) see Economic and Financial Committee (EFC)
 - financial regulation see EU financial regulation
 - Financial Services Action Plan (FSAP) see Financial Services Action Plan (FSAP)
 - intergovernmentalism, theoretical insights 17
 - internal market as priority 146–9
 - international representation 97–8
 - as multilateral regulatory framework 228
 - preliminary mutual recognition discussions with US 229–30
 - regulatory response compared to US 112–13
 - supranational bodies see European Commission; European Parliament
- exchange-traded funds (ETFs)
 - product intervention 193–4, 199–200

- executive abuses
 - examples of 326
- executive loans
 - examples of abuses 328–31
 - Sarbanes-Oxley Act (Section) 325–8
- executive remuneration
 - as ‘American’ problem 267–8
 - bonuses 355–6
 - chief executive officer (CEO) pay 268–70
 - Dodd-Frank Act see Dodd-Frank Act
 - reforms as to 262–70
 - and risk management 268
 - shareholder protest votes 266
 - “two strikes” rule 266
- executive remuneration reforms 263–4
- external relations of the EU see EU
 - external relations
- Fannie Mae
 - Australian equivalent to 247–8
 - short selling ban 258–9
- Faull, Jonathan
 - on “single rulebook” concept of regulation 42–3
- Fels, Allan
 - on rise of Australian big four banks 250
- financial advice reforms
 - “independent advice” model 184, 197–8
 - overview of 270–6
- financial crises see also East Asian crisis; global financial crisis
 - and change 299–300
 - impact of 1–6
 - and reform of legislation 301–12
 - types of responses to 234
- financial manias
 - existence of 4–5
- financial market intensity
 - de-intensification and simplification 145–52
 - and regulatory innovation 127–37
- financial regulators
 - international networks 225
- financial regulatory design and development
 - see also* consumer protection regulation; EU financial regulation; market regulation; prudential regulation; regulatory innovation
 - bilateral mutual recognition model 228–9
 - convergent and divergent factors 205–6
 - financial crises and legislative reform 301–12
 - international cooperation 225–31
 - multilateral framework 228
 - objectives of regulation 111
 - regulatory innovation see EU
 - financial regulation;
 - regulatory innovation
 - “Regulatory Sine Curve” and statutory correction 312–21
 - “single rulebook” concept of regulation 42–3
 - sunset provisions 304–10
 - “twin peaks” model see “twin peaks” model of financial regulation
- Financial Services Action Plan (FSAP)
 - completion of 6, 141–2
 - harmonizing effect of 20–1
 - increase in EU intervention 6–7
 - lawmaking machinery 63–4
 - legislation 118–19
 - supervisory committees 45–6
- financial services supervision
 - EBA see European Banking Authority (EBA)
 - EIOPA 45–6
 - ESMA see European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA)
- EU differences over 45–52
 - new measures by European Commission 71–8
- Financial Stability Board (FSB)
 - Australian representation 226
 - and consumer protection 185–6
 - and derivatives regulation 105–7
 - establishment of 92–3
 - and ETFs 193–4

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02459-5 - The Regulatory Aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis

Eilís Ferran, Niamh Moloney, Jennifer G. Hill and John C. Coffee

Index

More information

382

INDEX

- Financial Stability Board (FSB) (cont.)
 and financial innovation 135–7 focus of 226
 international networks 225
 membership of 99
 Principles for Sound Compensation Practices 227–8, 263–5 regulatory agenda 233
 on “too big to fail” problem 67–8
- financial transactions tax (FTT) European Parliament and 86–8 negotiations on 149–52
- Fincorp
 collapse of 271–2
- France see also Buckley, James; Howarth, David; Jouyet, Jean-Pierre banking regulation (“too big to fail” problem) 39–40
 euro crisis 12–13
 and financial market intensity 134 and financial transactions tax (FTT) 149–52 and G20 152–3 high frequency trading (HFT)
 regulation 169
 product intervention 167–8, 187–8, 196–7, 199–200
 retail market agenda 184–5 variety of capitalism 18–19
 views on EU financial regulation 23, 27, 28, 29–36
 views on financial services supervision 47, 113–15
- Freddie Mac
 short selling ban 258–9
- Friedman, Milton on crisis and change 299–300
- Gale, Douglas
 on financial regulation 4–5
- Germany see also Bismarck, Otto von;
 Zimmermann, Hubert
 banking regulation (“too big to fail”
 problem) 39–40
 consumer protection regulation 183–4 corporate governance model 44 covered bonds origin in Prussia 252
 deposit guarantee 240–1
 economic strength 281
 employment market resilience 211–12
 and financial transactions tax (FTT) 149–52
 fiscal responses to crisis 237
 Neuer Markt regulation 180–1
 short selling ban 257–8
 variety of capitalism 18–19
 views on EU financial regulation 23, 27, 28–36, 37–9
 views on financial services supervision 46–8, 52, 113–15
- Gillard, Julia and resource super profits tax proposal 278–9
- global financial crisis chronology of 11–12 effectiveness of market regulation 123 and end of status quo 299–300 and euro crisis 53–4 fiscal responses to 233 as game-changer 1–2
 impact of 204–5
 OECD report 3
 and regulatory innovation 115–17
 responses to 33–4
 as “wholesale” panic 347 worst hit economies 210
- Global Systemically Important Financial Institutions (G-SIFIs) competition measures 121–2 derivative trading by 132
- Goldman Sachs
 executive bonuses 355–6
- Goldstein, Morris on “too big to fail” problem 65–6
- Goodhart, Charles
 on financial regulation 4–5
- Gorton, Gary
 on global financial crisis as “wholesale” panic 348

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02459-5 - The Regulatory Aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis

Eilis Ferran, Niamh Moloney, Jennifer G. Hill and John C. Coffee

Index

More information

INDEX

383

- Grange Securities Wingecarribee litigation 274–6
- Greece
 euro crisis 12–13, 14–16, 38–9
- Gropp, Reint
 on crisis and executive remuneration 338
- Group of Eight (G8)
 international networks 225
- Group of Seven (G7)
 call for action 238–9
 government debt 280
- Group of Twenty (G20)
 call for global coordination of systemic risk monitoring 263–4 commitment to promote integrity in financial markets 152–3 and consumer protection 185–6
 and derivatives regulation 105–7 emergence of 92–3
 EU representation 97–8
 and financial transactions tax (FTT) 149–52
 and FSB Principles for Sound Compensation Practices 227–8 interest rate rises 282, 283–4
 international networks 225
 meetings 9–10, 59–60
 and OTC derivatives 160–1 priorities 93–4 regulatory agenda 90–2, 142–3, 144–5, 152–4, 166–7, 177–9, 233
- Haldane, Andrew on “patience gene” 130–1 on trading practices and risk 169
- harmonization see EU financial regulation
- hedge-funds
 product intervention 142, 198–9
- high frequency trading (HFT)
 regulation of 167
- HIH Insurance
 Royal Commission on failure of 221, 262–3, 285–8
- historical institutionalism and financial regulation 22–3
- Hong Kong
 mutual recognition arrangement with Australia 231
- Hopt, Klaus
 on history of corporate governance 203 on relationship between state and market 109
- Horrne, Donald
 on Australia as “the lucky country” 203, 276–7
- Howarth, David
 on French ambivalence towards new financial developments 32
 on French views on financial services supervision 47
- HSBC
 “universal” banking model 41–2
- Hung, Mingyi
 on crisis and executive remuneration 338
- Iceland
 deposit guarantee 240–1
- Icelandic banking crisis
 impact of 100
 lessons of 32–3
- “independent advice” model of financial advice proposed regulation 197–8
- India
 Australian mining exports to 277–8
- industry-funded insurance scheme
 Dodd-Frank Act 344
- insolvency law
 banking system 294
- interest rates rises 282, 283–4
- intergovernmentalism
 theoretical insights 17
- internal control reports
 Sarbanes-Oxley Act (Section 404) 321–5
- International Accounting Standards Board (IASB)
 Australian representation 226–7

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02459-5 - The Regulatory Aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis

Eilis Ferran, Niamh Moloney, Jennifer G. Hill and John C. Coffee

Index

More information

384

INDEX

- International Association of Insurance Supervisors (IAIS)
 - EU representation 97–8
 - international networks 225
 - Joint Forum 226–7
- International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board (IAASB)
 - Australian representation 226–7
- international bank capital accords
 - see* Basel Accords
- international financial reporting standards (IFRS)
 - adoption of 102–3
- International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) Foundation
 - Australian representation 226–7
- International Monetary Fund (IMF)
 - on benefits of financial intensity 127–9
 - and ETFs 191–4
 - and European Commission 66–7
 - and financial transactions tax (FTT) 149–52
 - governance reform 98–9
 - and international regulatory cooperation 225
 - policy on private insurance systems 344
 - and UK banking regulation 43
 - warning on viability of financial system 11
- International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO)
 - Australian representation 226–7
 - critique of market regulation 125–6
 - and EU market regulation 153, 157–8
 - EU representation 97–8
 - and financial innovation 135–7
 - international networks 225
 - Joint Forum 226–7
 - regulatory outcomes 226
 - standard-setting activities 152–4
- Ireland
 - deposit guarantee 240–1
 - euro crisis 12–13, 35–6
 - and financial transactions tax (FTT) 149–52
 - wholesale funding guarantee 245
- Italy
 - corporate governance 44
 - euro crisis 12–13
 - product intervention 187–8
 - views on EU financial regulation 29
- J P Morgan Chase
 - executive bonuses 355–6
 - wholesale funding guarantee 246
- Japan
 - deposit guarantee 242–3
 - government debt 279–80
 - short selling ban 257–8
- Jouyet, Jean-Pierre
 - on equity markets 176
 - on “social utility” of high frequency trading 134
- Kay, John
 - on “final goals” of markets 132–4
 - review of equity markets 175–6
- Keynesianism
 - influence of 233–4, 236
- Köhler, Matthias
 - on crisis and executive remuneration 338
- Korea
 - short selling ban 257–8
 - size of stimulus programmes 283
- Kozlowski, Dennis
 - executive abuse 326
- Laker, John F
 - on conservatism in Australia 285
 - on financial risk-taking 268
- Langevoort, Donald
 - on roots of roots of market regulation 123
- Larosière, Jacques de
 - Report 61–2, 71–2, 98–9, 135–7
 - on “universal” banking model 39–40
- “law matters” hypothesis
 - corporate governance 204
- lawyers as whistle blowers
 - standards of professional conduct (SOX Section 307) 175–6, 328–31

- Lay, Ken
 executive abuse 326
- Lehman Brothers
 collapse of 11, 233, 238–9, 244–5, 257, 281–2, 349, 361–2
Wingecarribee litigation 274–6
- Levitt, Arthur
 reform initiatives 319–20
- Lo, Andrew on financial manias 4–5
- loans to directors see executive loans
- Macartney, Huw on “variegated capitalism” 20
- Mandelson, Lord (Peter) on financial engineering 135–7
- market regulation
 case study see EU financial regulation competition measures 121–2 effectiveness 123 and Enron collapse 124–5 EU’s ascendancy 7–8 perspectives on 113–15
 as priority 111–12
 purpose of 119
 regulatory innovation 115, 122
 regulatory tools 120, 123
 risk management 122–3, 125–7
 roots of 123
- Matos, Pedro P
 on crisis and executive remuneration 338
- maximum harmonization
 capital surcharges 42–3
- McCreevy, Charlie on private equity funding model 174–5 term of office 55
- Merrill Lynch
 executive bonuses 355–6
 rescue of 340–1
- Moloney, Niamh
 on ECOFIN “roadmap” 60
 on European Parliament’s role 88
 on financial transactions tax (FTT) 86–7 on growth of EU financial market regulation 27, 39
 on MiFID 80–1
- monetary policy
 size of stimulus programmes 283–4
 success of 281–4
- Morgan Stanley
 executive bonuses 355–6
- Mülbert, Peter
 on “too big to fail” problem 65–6
- multi-lateral trading platforms (MTFs)
 and OTC derivatives 161–2 “regulated markets” distinguished 162 regulation of 156, 161–2, 166–7, 169–70
 and SME support 179–81
- multilateral regulatory framework EU as example of 228
- National Australia Bank Ltd (NAB) foreign exchange trading scandal 268 global ranking 290
 importance and size 289 losses 291–2 profitability 290
- Netherlands
 product intervention 188–90, 193–4, 196–7
- new economic powers relations with EU 92–6
- New Zealand
 Australian banks in 289 mutual recognition arrangement with Australia 231
 pension fund operation 298–9
 size of stimulus programmes 283
- Northern Rock
 collapse of 11, 223, 239
- Norway
 pension fund operation 298–9
- Olson, Mancur political science and financial regulation 303, 308–9
- Opes Prime
 collapse of 214–15, 271–2
- Organization of Economic Corporation and Development (OECD) average unemployment rate 211–12

- Organization of Economic Corporation and Development (OECD) (cont.)
 budget deficits within membership 279–80 Committee on Financial Markets (CMF) 242–3 competition measures 121–2
 and consumer protection 185–6 economic survey of Australia 210–11, 281–4
 and financial innovation 135–7
 and financial market intensity 132
 fiscal responses to crisis 236–8 report on financial crisis 3 size of members' stimulus programmes 283 organized trading facilities (OTFs) creation of classification 162–3, 165
 regulation of 166–7, 169–70
 over-the-counter (OTC) derivatives market see derivatives trading
- Pauly, Louis
 on responses to global financial crisis 34
- Peterson, Robert J on international regulatory cooperation 225
- political science
 financial crises and legislative reform 7–8, 301–12
- protest votes by shareholders see shareholder voting
- proxy access
 Dodd-Frank Act 352–5
- prudential regulation ambit of 45
 competition measures 121–2 focus on 111–12, 115, 116–17
 purpose of 119
 regulatory innovation 122
 regulatory tools 120
 responsibility for 85 review of 59–60 shortcomings in 102–3
- public choice theory and financial regulation 22
- Rasmussen, Poul-Nyrup
 Commission Presidency candidacy 89 “regulated markets”
 multi-lateral trading platforms (MTFs) distinguished 155–7
 regulation of 156, 161–5 regulatory design see financial regulatory design and development
 regulatory innovation
 EU financial regulation see EU financial regulation and financial market intensity 127–37 financial regulatory design 115–17 implications of 137–40 monitoring of 135–7 in policies and rules 140–5 ‘regulatory sine curve’ and statutory correction 312–21
- Residential Mortgage-Backed Securities (RMBS) Initiative
 overview of 247–51
- retail investor protection
 overview of 270–6
- ring-fencing model of banking consideration of 67–8, 134–5
- risk management and executive remuneration 268 global coordination of systemic risk monitoring 263–4 market regulation 122–3, 125–7 and trading practices 169–70
- risk reduction
 Dodd-Frank Act 345–9
- rogue trader cases
 impact of 356
- Romano, Roberta
 critique of crisis financial regulation 304–10, 312–13, 315–19, 321, 325, 331, 348–9
- Royal Bank of Scotland
 collapse of 223, 260–1
 total assets 41–2
- Rudd, Kevin
 on crisis and executive remuneration 264

- on design of Australia's stimulus programme 237–8
- introduction of deposit and wholesale funding guarantee scheme 238, 240
- replacement as Prime Minister 278–9 and Residential Mortgage-Backed Securities (RMBS) Initiative 247
- and resource super profits tax proposal 278–9
- wholesale funding guarantee 244
- Sants, Hector
 - on intervention by regulator 198–9
- Sarbanes, Senator Paul
 - reform initiatives 319–20
- Sarbanes-Oxley Act (SOX)
 - attorneys as whistle blowers and (Section 307) 328–31
 - criticism of 238, 304–10, 321, 331–2
 - Dodd-Frank Act contrasted 310
 - downsizing of 308–10, 318, 321
 - enactment of 301–2, 326
 - evaluation of 331–2
 - executive loans (Section 402) 325–8
 - internal control reports (Section 404) 321–5
- Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC)
 - attorneys appearing before 328–31
 - banking supervision 102–3
 - criticism of 125–6
 - and executive abuses 326
 - exemptive authority 318–19
 - and financial innovation 135–7
 - and internal control reports 321–5
 - and OTC derivatives market 349–51
 - review of SME support 177–9
 - and shareholder access rules 341–2, 352–5
 - short selling ban 258–9, 260–1
 - and sunset legislative provisions 306
 - and US–Australian agreement 228–31
- securities market reform
 - and corporate crises 204–5
- self-regulation
 - “failure” of 144–310
 - as regulatory tool 123–4
- shareholder voting
 - incidence of protest votes 266
 - legislative provision for 336–42, 352–5
 - “two strikes” rule 266–7
- Shiller, Robert
 - on democratization of finance 199–200
 - on “humanized” finance 130–1
- short selling
 - ban on 125–6, 256
 - disclosure requirements 172–3
 - exemption for 148–9, 160
 - negotiations on regulation 37–9
 - scope of regulation 162–3, 166–7
- Shorten, Bill
 - on lack of investor protection 270
- Simmons, Beth
 - on US and international capital market regulation 93
- single rule book, meaning of 42–3
- small and medium-sized issuers (SMEs)
 - support for 177–82
- Société Générale
 - rogue trader case 356–7, 359
 - “universal” banking model 39–40
 - wholesale funding guarantee 246
- sovereign debt crisis see euro area sovereign debt crisis
- Spain
 - consumer protection regulation 183–4
 - euro crisis 12–13
 - views on EU financial regulation 29
- Stevens, Glenn
 - on Australian local government investment 275–6
 - on resources boom 277
- Stiglitz, Joseph
 - on Australia's economic stimulus package 284
- stimulus programmes
 - size of 283–4

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02459-5 - The Regulatory Aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis

Eilis Ferran, Niamh Moloney, Jennifer G. Hill and John C. Coffee

Index

More information

388

INDEX

- Storm Financial Ltd
collapse of 271–2
- Stulz, René
on crisis and executive remuneration 337–8
- subprime market level of investment 209, 293
support for 247–8
- sunset legislative provisions proposals for 304–10
- superannuation system
resilience of 295–9
- supranational EU bodies see European Commission; European Parliament
- Swan, Wayne
on being Keynesians 233 on covered bonds 251 and deposit guarantee 242, 244 reassessment of Financial Claims Scheme (FCS) 244 and Residential Mortgage-Backed Securities (RMBS) Initiative 247–8
- Sweden
and financial transactions tax (FTT) 149–52
- systemic risk see also “too big to fail” problem (TBTF)
Dodd-Frank Act 342–4
global coordination of monitoring of 263–4
- Tafara, Ethiopis
on international regulatory cooperation 225
- taxation
Tobin Tax see financial transactions tax (FTT)
- “Tea Party Caucus”
critique of crisis financial regulation 306–8, 312–13, 331
- Telstra
privatization of 298–9
- Tobin Tax see financial transactions tax (FTT)
- “too big to fail” problem (TBTF)
Australian banks 243–4, 290 bank subsidies 333, 335 divergence between EU and US 65–6
Dodd-Frank Act see Dodd-Frank Act
EU differences over 39–43
European Commission and 65–71 recognition of 243–4 and systemic risk 342–4
Volcker Rule 361–3
- trade repositories
regulation of 7
- trading practices regulation
reshaping of 166–70
- trading venue regulation
reshaping of 160–6
- Turnbull, Malcolm on government borrowing and spending 284
- Turner, Adair
on attribution of economic success 285 on benefits of deregulation 128–9 on financial innovation 132–4 on global financial crisis as “wake-up call” 32–3 on intervention by regulator 142, 198–9
on UK views on EU financial regulation 24 “twin peaks” model of financial regulation
adoption of 119–20
compared to other structures 221–5 operation of 217–21 success of 285–8
- Tyco
executive abuse 326
- UBS (Bank)
wholesale funding guarantee 246
- Undertakings For The Collective Investment Of Transferable Securities (UCITS) open-ended UCITS (ETFs) 191, 193–4, 199–200
product intervention 186–7 structured UCITS 191

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02459-5 - The Regulatory Aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis

Eilis Ferran, Niamh Moloney, Jennifer G. Hill and John C. Coffee

Index

More information

INDEX

389

- United Kingdom (UK) see also Cable, Vince; Cameron, David; Haldane, Andrew; Kay, John; Mandelson, Lord (Peter); Sants, Hector; Turner, Adair
- bank assets as percentage of GDP 41–2
 - bank nationalizations 238–9
 - banking regulation (“too big to fail” problem) 39–43
 - and Basel Accords 90
 - budget deficits 279–80
 - competition measures 121–2
 - consumer protection regulation 183–4
 - cooperation with US 102–3, 104
 - corporate crises and securities market reform 204–5
 - corporate governance model 44
 - deposit guarantee 240–1, 242–3
 - equity markets 175–6
 - euro crisis 14–17, 36–7, 53–4
 - and European Banking Authority (EBA) 49–50
 - and European Commission 55
 - and financial innovation 135–7
 - and financial market intensity 132–4
 - financial services regulatory structure
 - compared to Australia 215–17, 221–5
 - and financial transactions tax (FTT) 87–8, 149–52
 - fiscal responses to crisis 236–7
 - form of capitalism 18–19, 109–10, 135
 - government debt 279–80
 - high frequency trading (HFT) regulation 169
 - impact of crisis generally 210
 - “independent advice” model of financial advice 184, 197
 - product intervention 178–201
 - regulatory approaches 142–3
 - regulatory tools 123–4
 - residential property market 213
 - on role of central banks see also Bagehot, Walter
 - securities market reform and corporate crises 204–5
 - shareholder protest votes 266
 - short selling ban 257–61
 - “twin peaks” model of financial regulation 119–20, 221
 - unemployment rate 212
 - veto of Treaties reform 113–15
 - views on EU financial regulation 23–36, 37–9
 - views on financial services supervision 46–8, 52
 - wholesale funding guarantee 245–6
 - United States (US) see also Bainbridge, Stephen; Breyer, Justice Stephen; Cuomo, Andrew; Friedman, Milton; Gorton, Gary; Levitt, Arthur; Olson, Mancur; Romano, Roberta; Sarbanes, Senator Paul; Simmons, Beth
 - bank assets as percentage of GDP 41–2
 - banking corporate governance compared to Australia 294
 - and Basel Accords 90
 - and Basel II 90–2
 - budget deficits 279–80
 - consumer protection regulation 182–3
 - cooperation with EU 100–7
 - cooperation with UK 102–3, 104
 - corporate activity in Europe 27–8
 - corporate crises and securities market reform 204–5
 - corporate governance model 44
 - covered bonds market 252–3
 - deposit guarantee 240–1, 242–3
 - Dodd-Frank Act see Dodd-Frank Act
 - equity markets 175–6
 - examples of executive abuses 326
 - executive remuneration as “American” problem 267–8

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02459-5 - The Regulatory Aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis

Eilís Ferran, Niamh Moloney, Jennifer G. Hill and John C. Coffee

Index

More information

390

INDEX

- United States (US) (cont.)
 - chief executive officer (CEO) pay 268–70
 - reforms 262–3
 - Fannie Mae 247–8, 258–9
 - Federal Reserve discount rate cut 281–2
 - financial crises and legislative reform 301–12
 - financial services regulatory structure
 - compared to Australia 215–17, 221–5
 - fiscal responses to crisis 236–7
 - Freddie Mac 258–9
 - government debt 279–80
 - high frequency trading (HFT) 167–8
 - impact of crisis generally 210
 - influence on international capital market regulation 92–3
 - mortgage market compared to Australia 293
 - mutual recognition arrangement with Australia 100, 225–31
 - “non-recourse” loans 293–4
 - post-Enron reforms 123–4
 - preliminary mutual recognition discussions with EU and Canada 229–30
 - product intervention 199–200
 - regulatory response compared to EU 112–13
 - residential property market 213
 - Sarbanes-Oxley Act (SOX)
 - see* Sarbanes-Oxley Act (SOX)
 - Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC)
 - see* Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC)
 - securities market reform and corporate crises 204–5
 - short selling ban 257–61
 - size of stimulus programmes 283–4
 - sub-prime market support 247–8
 - subprime market investment 209, 293
 - “Tea Party Caucus” 306–8
 - “too big to fail” problem (TBTF) 65–6
 - Troubled Asset Relief Program (TARP) 355–6
 - “twin peaks” model of financial regulation 221
 - unemployment rate 212
 - varieties of capitalism 109–10, 135
 - Volcker Rule see Volcker Rule
 - wholesale funding guarantee 245–6
- “universal” banking model
 - adoption of 39–40
- “variegated capitalism”
 - existence of 20
- varieties of capitalism
 - national varieties 18–19, 109–10, 135
 - theory of 18–21
- Véron, Nicolas
 - on “too big to fail” problem 65–6
- Volcker Rule
 - adoption of 345
 - purpose of 67–8
 - use of 360, 361–3
- Wachovia
 - rescue of 340–1
- Westpac
 - covered bonds sales 255
 - global ranking 290
 - importance and size 289
 - near failure 292
 - profitability 290
- Westpoint Group
 - collapse of 214–15, 271–2
- whistle blowers
 - lawyers as (Sarbanes-Oxley Act Section 307) 175–6, 328–31
- wholesale funding guarantee
 - overview of 238–40, 244–7

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-02459-5 - The Regulatory Aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis

Elis Ferran, Niamh Moloney, Jennifer G. Hill and John C. Coffee

Index

More information

INDEX

391

- Wilhelm, Alexander
on “too big to fail” problem 65–6
- Wingecarribee* litigation
collateralized debt obligations (CDOs) 274–6
- World Bank and international regulatory cooperation 225
- World Economic Forum
Financial Development Index
290–1
- World Trade Organization (WTO) and international regulatory cooperation 225
- WorldCom
collapse of 238
executive abuse 326
- Zimmermann, Hubert
on German ambivalence towards new financial developments 32