Contents

Tables and Figures  \hspace{1cm} page ix
Contributors  \hspace{1cm} xi
Foreword by Harold James  \hspace{1cm} xv

1 Introduction: Power, Institutions, and Global Markets – Actors, Mechanisms, and Foundations of Worldwide Economic Integration, 1850–1930  \hspace{1cm} 1
Christof Dejung and Niels P. Petersson

PART I: LEGAL INSTITUTIONS AND PRIVATE ACTORS
2 Legal Institutions and the World Economy, 1900–1930  \hspace{1cm} 21
Niels P. Petersson

3 Against Globalisation: Sovereignty, Courts, and the Failure to Coordinate International Bankruptcies, 1870–1940  \hspace{1cm} 40
Jérôme Sgard

4 Credit Information, Institutions, and International Trade: The United Kingdom, United States, and Germany, 1850–1930  \hspace{1cm} 60
Rowena Olegario

PART II: COLONIAL MARKETS AND NON-WESTERN ACTORS
5 The London Stock Exchange and the Colonial Market: The City, Internationalisation, and Power  \hspace{1cm} 89
Bernard Attard

6 The London Gold Market, 1900–1931  \hspace{1cm} 112
Bernd-Stefan Grewe
Contents

7  The Boundaries of Western Power: The Colonial Cotton Economy in India and the Problem of Quality  133
   Christof Dejung

8  The Colonised as Global Traders: Indian Trading Networks in the World Economy, 1850–1939  158
   Claude Markovits

   Pierre-Yves Donzé

PART III: THE FIRST WORLD WAR AND THE CONSEQUENCES FOR ECONOMIC GLOBALISATION

10 Transnational Cooperation in Wartime: The International Protection of Intellectual Property Rights during the First World War  205
    Isabella Löhr

11 The Resilience of Globalisation during the First World War: The Case of Bunge & Born in Argentina  228
    Phillip Dehne

12 Global Economic Governance and the Private Sector: The League of Nations’ Experiment in the 1920s  249
    Michele d’Alessandro

Index  271
Tables and Figures

Tables

1 Share of Global Trade According to Areas page 14
2 Credit Reporting Institutions in the United Kingdom, United States and Germany 78
3 Capital Subscribed to Issues by Overseas Governments in London 95
4 Gold Reserves of the Central Reserve Banks Before the First World War 116
5 Gold Prices in London 124
6 Proportion of Nonresidents among the Holders of Patents Filed in Certain Countries 184
7 Main Categories of Patents Registered in Japan 188
8 Main Sectors for Patents Registered in Japan 191
9 Main Categories of Patents Registered in 1905, According to Nationality 192
10 Trading Companies and Their Market Share in Argentine 231

Figures

1 World Exports, 1900–1934 15
2 Capital Subscribed to Issues by Major Colonial Governments 96
3 Patents Registered in Japan, 1885–1930 190
4 Patents and Utility Models Registered in the Watch-Making Industry, 1885–1930 198
5 International Comparison of Book Production, 1890–1950 215
6 International Book Production Rates, 1890–1950 217