Contents

Preface: Confronting Empire
page vii

1. Prologue. “Scene of a Foul Transaction”: The Languages of Empire and the Carib War in St. Vincent
   1

   20

3. Outposts of “Loose Vagrant People”: The Language of Alterity in the Construction of Empire
   50

4. “A Fabric at Once the Dread and Wonder of the World”: The Languages of Imperial Grandeur, Liberty, Commerce, Humanity, and Justice and the American Challenge to Empire
   84

5. Arenas of “Asiatic Plunder”: The Languages of Humanity and Justice and the Excesses of Empire in India
   120

6. Sites of Creole Despotism: The Languages of Humanity and Justice and the Critique of Colonial Slavery and the African Slave Trade 156

7. “A Fruitless, Bloody, Wasting War”: The Languages of Imperial Grandeur, Liberty, Humanity, and Commerce in the American Conflict 200

8. “This Voracious Gulph of Hibernian Dependence”: The Languages of Oppression, Corruption, Justice, Liberty, and Humanity and the Identification of Imperial Excesses in Ireland
   244

9. A “Shadow of Our Former Glory”?: The Discussion of Empire in the Wake of American Secession
   296
Contents

Epilogue. “Against Every Principle of Justice, Humanity, and Whatever is Allowed to be Right Among Mankind”: Standards of Humanity and the Evaluation of Empire

Index