Index

abortion, 43
abstract thought capacity for, 31–2 acknowledgment
ritual recognition, 73–5 theories of recognition, 76 actor–network theory
and the animal–industrial complex, 89–90 application in Ectatomma ants, 168–9 Adorno, Theodor, 83
affected ignorance
animal experimentation, 229
ethical failure, 229–30 African gray parrot complex communication, 33 demands of the Nonhuman Rights Project, 244 agency and subjectivity, 6
definition, 5–6
Alliance for Zero Extinction (AZE) sites, 201 Allport, Gordon, 56–7, 62 altruism in primates, 186 animal advocacy and science, 95
animal behavior studies abnormal behavior in captive chimpanzees, 148–50 defining abnormal behavior, 145–6 empirical tests in chimpanzees, 146–8 measuring behavioral effects, 145–6 proximate mechanisms, 144, 151–2 ultimate mechanisms, 144, 151–2
animal experimentation
and affected ignorance, 229–30
here and now bias, 229–30
animal–human relationships. see human–animal relationships.
animal–industrial complex application of actor–network theory, 89–90 canine anti-depressant drugs, 84 capitalist biopolitics, 78–80 capitalist influences, 80–2 case for challenging, 91 commodification of farmed animals, 77 commodity chain analysis, 89 camouflage of violence against farmed animals, 87–8 critical animal studies approaches, 77
definition, 80–2
denial of the animal in humans, 87–8 drugs used in farmed animals, 84 expression of speciesist norms, 88–9 future research directions, 89–90 health risks of high meat/dairy consumption, 84 intersectional concept, 79–80 intersectionality of, 82 linking to pre-existing research, 90 meanings of complex, 85, 87–9 networks at play, 88–9 overlap with the entertainment–industrial complex, 83 overlap with the military–industrial complex, 82 overlap with the pharmaceutical–industrial complex, 83–4 overlap with the prison–industrial complex, 82–3 overlap with the temperate grain–livestock complex, 85 overlap with the triple helix concept, 82 overlap with the vegetable–industrial complex, 85 politics of food, 85–7
role of biotechnology, 78–80 role of the mass media, 88–9 sustainability of the livestock revolution, 78–9 techno-capitalist imaginary, 78–80 use of animals in drugs research, 83 work of Barbara Noske, 77 animal research and the principle of beneficence, 236–8 animal welfare, 23–4 applications for human research protections, 239–40 dolphins, 100–1
pharmaceutical industry, 83 principle of justice, 238–9
principle of nonmaleficence, 236–8 principle of protection of the vulnerable, 235–6 principle of respect for autonomy, 234–5 whales, 100–1
Index

animal rights activists parallels drawn with the Holocaust, 75 animal welfare and conservation, 203–4 use of animals for research, 23–4 Animal Welfare Act (1966), 64, 234 limitations, 23–4 animals negative connotations, 68–9 unfavorable stereotypes, 72–3
See also non-human animals.
animalism in traditional societies, 156–60 ant (Ectatomma ruidum) and insect love, 164–5 application of actor–network theory, 168–9 becoming with significant others, 173–4 colony as ensemble, 168–9 cutting the network, 167–9 development from consensus view of ant colonies, 166–7 tangled empathy, 173–4 feeding behavior, 169 feeding process, 168 flourishing in the Anthropocene, 175–6 fluid exchanges, 169–72 initial observations, 165–7 reciprocal altruism, 169–72 relationships between colonies, 167–9 relationships with other species, 173–4 social organization of colonies, 167–9 trophallaxis, 169–72
ant (Temnothorax albipennis) teaching in, 123 ant (Wasmania auropunctata), 166 Anthropocene, 174, 181–2, 187 anthropology, 189–91 traditional views of non-human animals, 3 See also ethnoprimatology.
anthropomorphism, 26
problematic aspects, 226 role in promoting conservation, 196 antibiotic resistance
drugs used in farmed animals, 84
anti-depressant drugs for dogs, 84 anti-Semitism, 53
apeism and erroneous beliefs, 60–2 and specieism, 54–5 asymmetric contact with apes, 58–9 combating indifference to ape welfare, 62–5 concerns about apes in captivity, 58–9 contact strategy against, 57–9
definition, 54–5
Enlightenment Strategy, 60–2 imaginary contact with apes, 58
observational contact with apes, 58 potential strategies against, 53–4 strategy of individualizing apes, 62–5 wrongness of, 55–6 apes effects of interactions with humans, 183 giving consideration to relationships with, 246–8
mind minding capabilities, 131–7 performance on false-belief tests, 132–3 performance on non-verbal false-belief tests, 133–6 personality factors, 123 question of moral agency, 137–40 question of phenomenal consciousness, 138–40 use of folk psychology, 132–3 ways of engaging with other minds, 126–7 See also great apes, primates.
aquariums concerns about animals in captivity, 58–9 observational contact with animals, 58
Aquinas, Thomas, 69
Arcus Foundation convention on relationships with non-human animals, 247–8
Aristotle, 69, 74
Association of Zoos and Aquariums (AZA), 146 atomism potential strategies against, 53 false-belief tests, 132–3
true-belief tests, 132
erroneous beliefs and apeism, 60 erroneous beliefs and racism, 60 ethicists, 69
authentic self, 121–3 autonomous agency and mindreading, 116, 118–23 cognitive capacity required, 118–23 criteria for, 115–16
autonomy, 123
practical autonomy, 242–4 principle of respect for, 234–5 baboons expression of grief, 106–7 backyard chickens See urban chicken keeping.
Bangladesh tiger–human conflict, 20–1 Bauman, Zygmunt, 88
beasts negative connotations, 68–9 becoming with significant others, 173–4 bees cognitive abilities, 19 beliefs development of understanding of, 127 erroneous beliefs and apeism, 60–2
erroneous beliefs and racism, 60	nature of, 126 Belmont Report (1978), 232–3 principle of beneficence, 236–8 Belmont Report (1978) (cont.)
principle of justice, 238–9
principle of non-maleficence, 236–8
principle of protection of the vulnerable, 235–6
principle of respect for autonomy, 234–5
beluga (Delphinapterus leucas), 103 beneficence principle, 236–8 Bentham, Jeremy, 74
Bible
as justification for speciesism, 28 biodiversity loss, 16–17, 198–200 bioindustry, 2 biological kinds, 45–7 defining what it is to be human, 41
biology repudiation in cultural anthropology, 71–2 biosenergy notion, 196 biotechnology, 86 capitalist biopolitics, 78–80 birds
cognitive abilities, 19
Boas, Franz, 71–2
bonding in humans, 186
bonobos, 57, 202
boundaries between humans and other animals, 3–4 brain
and sentience, 34–5
size of the cetacean brain, 96
Braithwaite, Victoria, 20 Breed, Michael, 171
British and Irish Association of Zoos and Aquariums (BIAZA), 146 bushmeat trade, 204
Cambridge Declaration on Consciousness, 15–16 capitalism
commodification of problems caused by, 84 influence on human–animal relations, 80–2 capitalist biopolitics
techno-capitalist imaginary, 78–80
captive animals evidence of abnormal behaviors, 152–4 indications of suffering, 152–4 capuchin monkeys
self-awareness, 98
carbon tax, 84
Carpenter, Novella, 220
categorizing and discrimination, 2 cats, 1 causal essences and natural kinds, 45–7 and racism, 47–9 epistemological problem, 47–9
cetacean brain complexity of the cerebral cortex, 96–7 cetaceans
aberrant behavior in captivity, 102
abuses by humans, 99–103 reverse effects of captivity, 102–3
as food, 100
challenge of moral inclusivity, 103–5
cultural attributes, 98–9
demands of the Nonhuman Rights Project, 244
mass slaughter by humans, 100 mortality in captivity, 103
reduced life expectancy in captivity, 103 research on, 100–1
slaughter as bycatch, 100
social complexity and relationships, 98–9 stress and disease in captivity, 103
use by the military, 101
See also specific cetaceans.
charismatic mega-fauna, 201 charismatic species, 21–2 chickens
cognitive abilities, 19
problem-solving ability, 11 range of communications, 11 respectful treatment in traditional societies, 11–12 social structure in the wild, 11 stresses of domesticated exploitation, 11 suffering in egg factories, 27, 37 See also urban chicken keeping.
children
humane education, 25–6
Chimp Haven, 65, 141
chimpanzees, 57
ability to recognize intentional behavior, 120–1 abnormal behavior in captivity, 102, 141–2, 144 defining abnormal behavior, 145–6
demands of the Nonhuman Rights Project, 243–4 empirical tests of abnormal behavior, 146–8 ethical issues with captive animals, 154–5 ethogram for wild chimpanzees, 145
evolutionary psychopathology, 150–2 expression of grief, 110–11 future directions in welfare improvement, 154 human–chimpanzee interactions in the wild, 142–3 lack of moral concern for, 104 measuring behavioral effects of captivity, 145–6 orphans from the bushmeat trade, 204 range of wild chimpanzee behaviors, 142–3 response to death of a group member, 110
suffering in captivity, 141–2, 152–4
See also human–alloprimate interface.
Christman, J., 118, 120–1 classism, 1 climate change, 17
climate change mitigation, 84 Coetzee, J. M., 75 cognitive development, 130 cognitive ethology, 15 cognitive neuroscience, 70 collaborative behavior comparison between apes and humans, 57 commodification of animals, 2 commodification of the excesses of capitalism, 84 commodity chain analysis, 89
common law Nonhuman Rights Project, 241–2 commons tragedy of, 2
compassionate conservation, 21–2
humane education, 25–6
need for social change, 24–5 complex meanings of, 85, 87–9
complex communication
and the right to life, 32–3 consciousness
Cambridge Declaration on, 15–16
in non-human animals, 15–16 conservation
and animal welfare, 203–4
and great ape welfare, 203–4 and respectful coexistence, 204–5 compassionate conservation, 21–2 destruction of ecosystems, 198–200 failure of sustainable development, 198–200
great apes, 200–2
importance of ecosystem services, 198–200 loss of biodiversity, 198–200
motivations for, 197
notion of shared ecological space, 196 promotion through anthropomorphism, 196 respectful coexistence, 197 strategies from traditional societies, 194–6 tiger–human conflict, 20–1 contact
as a strategy against apeism, 57–9 effects on prejudice, 59 effects on racism, 56–7, 59 effects on sexism, 59 contact hypothesis (Allport), 56–7 coop tours, 213–18
cooperative behavior as strategy against racism, 56–7 Corbey, Raymond, 16 critical animal studies, 80, 88 and the animal–industrial complex, 81 approaches to the animal–industrial complex, 78 intersectionality concept, 79–80 crocodiles, 162 crops industry, 85
crows, 30
crustaceans
evidence of ability to feel pain, 34–5 cultural anthropology influence on human rights discourse, 71–2 repudiation of biology, 71–2 cultural intelligence, 184–6 cultural stereotyping negative stereotypes of non-human animals, 72–3 culture attributes in cetaceans, 98–9 development without mindreading, 117 misrepresentation of non-human animals, 18 culture industry
and the animal–industrial complex, 83
cumulative culture
development without mindreading, 117
dairy products
health risks associated with high consumption, 84
Darwin, Charles, 15–17, 26, 141
Dawkins, Marian, 15–16
Declarations of Helsinki (1964), 232 depth ethology studies, 24 dehumanization, 40
and exclusion from moral consideration, 52 moral implications, 42–3 Native Americans, 51 psychological essentialism, 43–7 denial role in speciesist thinking, 18 Descartes, René, 69
diet
health risks of high meat/dairy consumption, 84 dignity
recognition of, 74
Dilthey, William, 71
discrimination
as categorizing, 2
as prejudicial and value laden, 2 legitimization of, 1 Dobzhansky, Theodosius, 70 dogs, 1
anti-depressant drugs for, 84 Dolly the cloned sheep, 207
dolphins
aberrant behavior in captivity, 102
abuses by humans, 99–103
adverse effects of captivity, 102–3
as food, 100
brain evolution, 96–7
challenge of moral inclusivity, 103–5 cognitive complexity and flexibility, 97–8 complexity of the cerebral cortex, 96–7
cultural attributes, 98–9
dolphin assisted therapy, 101–2
Index

dolphins (cont.)
  drive hunting, 100–1, 105 evidence for complex intelligence, 95 evidence for metacognition, 97–8 evidence for self-awareness, 95, 97–8 evidence of intelligence, 97–8 expression of grief, 113
  mass slaughter by humans, 100
  mortality in captivity, 103
  reduced life expectancy in captivity, 103
  research on, 100–1
  response to death of a group member, 113
  size of the cetacean brain, 96
  slaughter as bycatch, 100
  social complexity and relationships, 98–9
  suffering in captivity, 95
  use as entertainment, 101
  use by the military, 101
  domesticatory practices, 207 Douglas-Hamilton, Ian, 113 drugs used in farmed animals, 84
  Durkheim, Emile, 71–2, 74
  E. coli scares, 85
  early mindreading system, 126 earthworms
    evidence of ability to feel pain, 35
    echinoderms evidence of sentience, 35
    ecofeminism, 88
    intersectionality concept, 79–80
    ecological dominance of humans, 1–2 ecological modernization notion, 79 ecology obligations of research, 24 economic contingency
        misrepresentation of non-human animals, 18 ecosystem destruction, 198–200 ecosystem services, 197 importance of, 198–200 ecotourism, 58
    concerns about, 59
  Ectatomma ruidum. See ant (Ectatomma ruidum) egg factories suffering of chickens, 27, 37
  Ehrlich, Paul, 24
  Eisenberg, Melvin Aron, 241–2
  elephants, 202
  demands of the Nonhuman Rights Project, 244
  expression of grief, 113
  lack of moral concern for, 104
  Elias, Norbert, 87
  emotional suffering capacity of non-human animals, 28–9 empathic overload and burnout, 229–30 empathy correcting empathic failures, 227–8 examples of inapt empathy, 228–31
      motivational aspect, 226–7 enactivist view of mind minding, 136–7 encephalization quotient (EQ), 96 Engh, Anne, 106–7
    ensemble notion, 168–9 entangled empathy correcting empathic failures, 227–8
      Ectatomma ants, 173–4
      ethical relations with other species, 224–6 examples of inapt empathy, 228–31
      motivational aspect, 226–7 nature of the process, 226–7 entertainment–industrial complex overlap with the animal–industrial complex, 83
        use of dolphins and whales, 101 environment of evolutionary adaptedness, 142 equality and legal personhood, 244–5 right of, 244–5 essentialism, 10
    ethical consideration and speciesism, 223 animal research protections, 239–40 expanding the circle, 223 principle of beneficence, 236–8
      principle of justice, 238–9
      principle of non-maleficence, 236–8
      principle of protection of the vulnerable, 235–6 principle of respect for autonomy, 234–5 sameness approach, 223–4 widening human research protections, 239–40
    ethical failure
      affected ignorance, 229–30
      here and now bias, 229–30 response to empathic overload, 229–30 ethical relations with other species, 224–6 ethnocentrism
      and the human concept, 43 ethnoprimatology, 179, 189–91 perspective on the human–alloprimate interface, 180–2 ethnoracial groups, 50
      ethogram for wild chimpanzees, 145
      etiquette and manners in eating, 87
      European Union
      animal welfare policies, 23 evolutionary approach discontinuity between humans and other primates, 186–7 evolutionary biology new synthesis with genetics, 70–1 evolutionary continuity, 16–17, 26
Evolutionary perspective
- Human-alloprimate interface, 180
- Evolutionary psychiatry, 152
- Evolutionary psychology, 150–1
- Evolutionary psychopathology
  - Chimpanzees, 150–2
  - Exclusion as lack of ritual recognition, 73–5
- False-belief tests
  - Non-verbal tests, 133–6
  - Performance of apes, 132–3
- Farmed animals. See animal-industrial complex
- Feminist theory
  - Assimilation problem, 224
- Fichte, Gottlieb, 49
- Fish ability to feel pain, 20
- Cognitve abilities, 20
- Flatworms evidence of ability to feel pain, 35
- Fluid exchanges in Ectatomma ants, 169–72
- Folk categories
  - And scientific categories, 41–2
  - Defining what it is to be human, 41–3
- Folk psychology, 127–8, 131
  - In apes, 132–3
- Folk taxonomy
  - Generic species concept, 50
- Food politics of, 85–7
- Food security, 78
- Fouta Djallon of Guinea, 202
- Frankfurt School, 2, 77, 83
- Fruit flies, 31
- Future and past sense of, 30–1
- Generic species concept, 50
- Genetics
  - Human variability, 68
  - New synthesis with evolutionary biology, 70–1
  - Genocide
  - And definition of human beings, 43
  - Rwanda, 53
- Genomics in animal farming, 79
- Gibbons
  - Mentawai song about, 163
- Gift giving as a moral activity, 74
- Global markets
  - Influence on human lives, 2
  - Global warming, 61
- Goodall, Jane, 106–7
- Gorillas, 57
- Expression of grief, 112–13
- Intelligence of, 28
- Response to death of a group member, 112–13
- Great Ape Project, 22–3, 74
- Exclusion of other species, 73
- Influence of UN discourse on human rights, 73
- Great apes
  - Argument for moral and legal standing, 124–5
  - As agents with social norms, 124–5
  - As keystone species, 201–2
  - Behavioral comparison with humans, 115–16
  - Conservation and welfare, 203–4
  - Demands of the Nonhuman Rights Project, 244
  - Evidence of teaching, 123
  - Giving consideration to relationships with, 246–8
  - Importance of conservation, 200–2
  - Response to death of a group member, 109–13
  - Role of mindreading, 115–16
  - Self-creation, 121–3
  - Social learning, 121–3
  - Welfare and expression of grief, 109–13
  - See also apes, primates.
- Greek philosophy
  - Human essentialist view, 69
- Greenwood, Christina, 20–1
- Grief in animals
  - And great ape welfare, 109–13
  - And love, 108
  - Baboons, 106–7
- Behaviors that are not grief, 109
- Beyond speciesism, 113–14
- Chimpanzees, 110–11
- Defining, 107–9
- Dolphins, 113
- Elephants, 113
- Future of grief research, 114
- Gorillas, 112–13
- Maternal corpse-carrying in monkeys, 109
- Response to death of a group member, 109–13
- Responses to death, 109
- Griffin, Donald, 141
- Habermas, Jürgen, 2, 73, 76
- Habitat destruction, 2
- Health pharmaceuticalization of, 83–4
- Risks associated with high meat/dairy consumption, 84
- Hegel, G. W. F., 73
- Here and now bias
  - Ethical failure, 229–30
  - Hermeneutic tradition, 6
- Hierarchical speciesist thinking, 17–18
- Himmler, Heinrich, 43
- Hitler, Adolf, 48
- Hobbes Thomas, 72
- Hölldobler, Bert, 166
- Holocaust discourse following, 72
Index

Holocaust (cont.)
parallels drawn by animal rights activists, 75 Homo sapiens
defining what it is to be human, 40–2
implications of classification as, 42–3 Honneth, Axel, 73
Horkheimer, Max, 83
human as a biological kind, 41
as a folk category, 41–2 defining what the term means, 40–2 denial of the animal in, 87–8 legitimization of discrimination, 1 moral implications of classification as, 42–3 post-humanist view, 4 social formation of, 87–8 viewed as distinct from animals, 72–3 human–alloprimate interface
altruism, 186
arguments for reappraisal of, 180–2 complexity of relationships, 179 continuities and commonalities, 183–6 ethnoprimalatomological perspective, 180–2 evolutionary discontinuity between humans and apes, 186–7
evolutionary perspective, 180
examples, 182–3 factors influencing relationships, 187–8 interactions with apes, 183
macaques, 182–3
niche alteration and destruction by humans, 187 reciprocity, 184–6
social bonding, 186
social intelligence, 184–6
social kinship, 186
human–animal relationships capitalist influences, 80–2
See also traditional societies.
human behavior
abuses of cetaceans, 99–103 concealment of violence against farmed animals, 87–9 domination of the natural world, 197 ecological dominance, 1–2
etiquette and manners in eating, 87
propensity to categorize, 2 human–chimpanzee interface. See chimpanzees, human–alloprimate interface.
human concept
as an indexical term, 49–52
epistemological problem, 47–9
ethnocentrism, 43
natural kinds, 45–7
psychological essentialism, 43–7 human dignity concept of, 69
recognition of, 74
human exceptionalism
and ethical consideration, 223
and the definition of human, 40–1 in European metaphysics, 69 specieist arguments for, 16–18 human–macaque interface, 182–3 attitudes and actions towards primates, 192–3 attitudes toward nature, 192
Lore Lindu National Park, Sulawesi, 191
role of place, 194
strategies to promote conservation, 194–6 Sulawesi Tonkean macaque (Macaca tonkeana), 191 human nature concept, 10 human research protections applications in animal research, 239–40 extending to non-human animals, 232–4
principle of beneficence, 236–8
principle of justice, 238–9
principle of non-maleficence, 236–8
principle of protection of the vulnerable, 235–6 principled approach, 232–4 respect for autonomy, 234–5 human rights post-World War II UN discourse on, 67–9 human–tiger conflict Bangladesh, 20–1 dilemmas for conservationists, 20–1 humane education for children, 25–6 Humanimalia journal, 4 humanism, 1–2
post-World War II UN discourse on human rights, 67–9
humanomativity
and ethical consideration, 223
humpback whale (Megaptera novaeangliae), 98 Huxley, Julian, 70
hyper-sociality in humans, 184–6 identifiable victim effect, 64–5 imaginary contact with apes, 58 important bird areas (IBAs), 201 indexical terms
human concept, 49–52
individualizing humans
effects on racism, 62
individuation as strategy against apism, 62–5 insect love
becoming with significant others, 173–4 Ectatomma ants, 164–5
initial observations of Ectatomma ants, 165–7
living in common worlds, 173–4 insects debate on ability to feel pain, 18 evidence of ability to feel pain, 34–5

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org intelligence and capacity to experience suffering, 34 evidence in dolphins, 97–8 intentional behavior ability to recognise, 120–1 intentionally directed attitudes in intersubjective encounters, 137 interfaces between humans and other animals, 3–4 See also specific human–animal interfaces.
interpretive tradition, 6 intersectionality animal–industrial complex, 82 concept, 79–80
intersubjective engagements in humans, 127–30 intentionally directed attitudes, 137 mind minding in the great apes, 131–7 ways of engaging with other minds, 126–7
intuitive concepts
human concept, 43–7
race, 47
intuitive theories, 45
invertebrates debate on ability to feel pain, 18 James, William, 169
jellyfish evidence of sentence, 35 jigsaw classroom method, 56
John Paul II, Pope, 69
Judeo–Christian tradition
human exceptionalism, 69
justice principle of, 238–9
Kant, Immanuel, 4, 42, 48–9, 55–6, 69, 71–4, 175, 242 Keinc of Sumatra, 156–7 ancestor–tiger beliefs, 160–2 attribution of a soul to animals, 157–9 beliefs relating to dangerous animals, 160–2 myths and rituals, 159–60
pact of respect for animals, 162–3
respect for the forest and its inhabitants, 159–60 Key Biodiversity Areas (KBAs), 201 keystone species, 201–2 killer whale (Orcinus Orca), 98 mortality in captivity, 103
kinds natural and non-natural, 45–7 knowledge-based bio-economy, 79 knowledge transfer in animal farming, 79 Kockelman, Paul, 169
Korsgaard, Christine, 118–20
Kroebber, Alfred, 71
Lecky, W. H., 223
leeches evidence of ability to feel pain, 35 legal personhood and right of equality, 244–5 legal rights pyramid, 242
practical autonomy, 242–4 rights associated with, 241 legal rights
Nonhuman Rights Project, 241–2
legal rights pyramid, 242
legal things lack of rights associated with, 241 Lévi-Strauss, Claude, 71–2 Lindu of Sulawesi, 191
attitudes toward nature, 192 attitudes toward primates, 192–3
role of place, 194
strategies to promote conservation, 194–6
livestock revolution meatification of the global diet, 85 sustainability concerns, 78–9 love for insects, 164–5
love in animals and grief, 108
macaques
Lore Lindu National Park, Sulawesi, 191
self-awareness, 98
Sulawesi Tonkean macaque (Macaca tonkeana), 191
See also human–macaque interface.
Makuna of Amazonia treatment of chickens, 12 mantis shrimps, 30
mass media role in the animal–industrial complex, 88–9 maternal corpse-carrying in monkeys, 109
Mauss, Marcel, 72, 74
Maya of Guatemala treatment of chickens, 11
Mayr, Ernst, 46
meat
health risks associated with high consumption, 84 meerkats, 123
mental state attribution, 129–30 Mentawai of Sumatra, 156–7 attribution of a soul to animals, 157–9 beliefs about crocodiles, 162 beliefs relating to dangerous animals, 160–2
myths and rituals, 159–60
pact of respect for animals, 162–3
respect for the forest and its inhabitants, 159–60 song on a gibbon, 163
metacognition
evidence in dolphins, 97–8
metaphysical naturalism, 70 mice empathic ability, 19
military
use of dolphins and whales, 101
mind minding
and moral agency in non-human animals, 137–40 capabilities of great apes, 131–7 enactivist view, 136–7
intentionally directed attitudes, 137
non-verbal false-belief tests, 133–6 phenomenally charged experiencing, 137 without a theory of mind, 133–6 mind minding systems
developmental stages, 127, 130 evidence for, 127–8 high-level capacities, 127–8
inter subjective engagements in humans, 127–30 low-level capacities, 128–9 mental state attribution, 129–30
mirroring systems in the brain, 129 theory of mind capacities, 127–8 mindreading
and argument for moral and legal standing, 124–5 and autonomous agency, 116, 118–23 and cumulative culture, 117 and development of social norms, 116 and prediction of behavior, 123–4 and theory of mind, 116 and understanding of social norms, 117–18 benefits of, 116–18
explanatory drive in humans, 117–18 in humans, 115–16
personality in apes, 123 teaching in apes, 123 to explain behavior, 116–17 to predict behavior, 116–17 mimics, 30
mirroring systems in the brain, 129 modern evolutionary theory, 150, 179 mollusks
evidence of ability to feel pain, 34–5
monotheistic religions legitimization of discrimination against nonhumans, 1
Moore, Michael, 206, 214 moral agency, 5–6
criteria for, 137–40
in non-human animals, 137–40
moral discrimination and dehumanization, 52 basis for, 52
moral inclusivity challenge of cetaceans, 103–5 moral status implications of human classification, 42–3 Moss, Cynthia, 113 mountain gorillas, 202
multispecies ethnography, 2–3, 7 Murtoff, Jennifer, 220
naïve, weak, or minimal theory of mind, 126 Native Americans
dehumanization, 51
shifting racial classification, 51
natural kinds, 45–7
human as an indexical term, 49–51
human concept, 49–51
Nazi theories of race, 48
neo-Durkheimian tradition, 74 nervous system link with sentience, 34–5 neuro developmental stages, 130
new spec i es ism, 30–3
new synthesis of evolutionary biology and genetics, 70–1
niche alternation and destruction by humans, 187 niche construction, 184 non-human animals
Arcus Foundation convention on, 247–8 basis for moral discrimination against, 52 capacity for physical suffering, 28 capacity for psychological suffering, 28–9 complex communication, 32–3
ecological dominance of humans, 1 effects of individualizing animals, 62–5 evidence of sentience, 34–5 exclusion from moral consideration, 52
giving consideration to relationships with, 246–8
human interactions with, 15–16 misrepresentation by various agencies, 18 moral judgments against, 15–16 negative associations with animals, 68–9 protection under non-speciest law, 35–8 sentience in, 18–20
spec i es ism by humans, 16
unfavorable stereotypes, 72–3 views of traditional anthropology, 3 Nonhuman Rights Project, 241–2, 245 non-malefice nce principle, 236–8 non-speciest law protection for non-human animals, 35–8 Noske, Barbara. See animal–industrial complex Nuremberg Code (1947), 232 observational contact with apes, 58
octopi
cognitive abilities, 19
old spec i es ism, 27–9 opiates effects on pain, 34
production by invertebrates, 34–5 orangutans, 57, 204
behavioral comparison with humans, 115
orcas. See killer whale orthonectids, 35

pain ability of fish to feel, 20 association with substance P, 34 capacity for physical suffering, 28 effects of opiates, 34 in insects, 18
in invertebrates, 18
Pareto, Vilfredo, 170
Parkman, Francis, 51
past and future
sense of, 30–1
Patrick-Goudreau, Colleen, 26 perceptual mindreading, 126 personhood, 179
and agency, 6
pets
moral concern for, 104 pharmaceutical–industrial complex
overlap with the animal–industrial complex, 83–4 pharmaceuticalization of health, 83–4 phenomenal consciousness
in non-human animals, 138–40
phenomenally charged experiencing, 137
phenotypic plasticity, 184 pied babblers, 123
placozoans, 35
Plato, 69
polar bears
lack of moral concern for, 104
politics
definition, 1
misrepresentation of non-human animals, 18
of food, 85–7 Pollan, Michael, 85, 216 post-humanist thinking, 4 Pratt, Stephen, 169
prediction of behavior and mindreading, 123–4 prejudice
effects of contact, 59
primate behavior comparisons, 183–6 primate thanatology, 108 primates
altruism, 186
reciprocity, 184–6
social intelligence, 184–6 See also apes, great apes, human–alloprimate interface, prison–industrial complex
overlap with the animal–industrial complex, 82–3 proximate mechanisms in animal behavior, 144, 151–2 psychiatry, 150, 152
See also evolutionary psychiatry, psychological empiricism, 45
psychological essentialism concept of the human, 43–7 epistemological problem, 47–9
racism, 47–9
psychological suffering capacity of non-human animals, 28–9 psychopathology, 151
See also evolutionary psychopathology.
race concept, 47
racism, 27
and causal essences, 47–9 and erroneous beliefs, 60
definition, 1
effectiveness of policies against, 53–4 effects of contact, 59
effects of contact between groups, 56–7 effects of individualizing humans, 62 Enlightenment Strategy, 60
epistemological problem, 47–9
Nazi theories of race, 48
post-World War II UN discourse on human rights, 67–9 radial invertebrates
evidence of sentience, 35
rationality, 6
reciprocal altruism
in Ectatomma ants, 169–72 reciprocity in humans, 184–6 recognition debate, 73–6 Reconcile® (canine anti-depressant), 84 Regan, Tom, 27–8
religion
misrepresentation of non-human animals, 18
representational theory of mind, 134 research using animals. See animal research. respective coexistence, 197 and conservation, 204–5 and multispecies ethnography, 2–3
definition, 2
overcoming resistance to, 9–10
rhesus macaques
self-awareness, 98
rhombozoans, 35
ritual recognition
and implicit exclusion, 73–5 and the UN discourse on human rights, 73–5 ritual recognition theories, 76 Rollin, Bernard, 141
Roman Catholic doctrine
human exceptionalism, 69
Rorty, Richard, 10
Index

Rose, Deborah Bird, 169, 174
Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 73
Ryder, Richard, 27–8

Sakkudei of Sumatra treatment of chickens, 11–12
sameness arguments for ethical consideration, 223–4 Sapir, Ernst, 71
scholasticism, 69
science and animal advocacy, 95 scientific categories and folk categories, 41–2 defining Homo sapiens, 40–2 sea anemones
evidence of sentience, 35
SeaWorld, 101
self-as-ensemble concept, 168–9
self-awareness
evidence in dolphins, 97–8
self-creation
in great apes, 121–3
sense of past and future, 30–1 sentience
and possession of a brain, 34–5 and right to life and well-being, 34 and subjectivity, 6
and suffering, 34
definition, 5–6
evidence in non-human creatures, 34–5 in creatures with a nervous system, 34–5
in invertebrates, 34–5
in non-human animals, 18–20
in vertebrates, 34
sexism, 1, 59
shared ecological space notion promoting conservation, 196
Singer, I. B., 75
Singer, Peter, 27–8, 30–3, 223
Skinner, Katy, 210
slavery, 241
and definition of human beings, 43 and ethnoracial grouping, 51 Smith, Lillian, 47–8 social bonding in humans, 186 social complexity
in cetaceans, 98–9 social intelligence in primates, 184–6 social kinship, 186
social learning
in great apes, 121–3
social norms and development of mindreading, 116–18 understanding of, 117–18
social ties
criterion for speciesism, 31 soul attribution of a soul to animals, 157–9
species individual differences within, 18
speciesism, 16
and animal welfare, 23–4
and apeism, 54–5
and ethical consideration, 223
and sentience, 34
and the definition of human, 40–1 arguments against, 16–18 bias toward human characteristics, 30–3 charismatic species, 21–2
definition, 1, 33–4
favoring all humans over all non-humans, 27–9 Great Ape Project, 22–3 justification in the Bible, 28 need for humane education, 25–6 new for social change, 24–5
new speciesism, 30–3
non-speciesism, 33–8
old speciesism, 27–9
role of denial, 18
suffering of chickens in egg factories, 27 tiger–human conflict in Bangladesh, 20–1 sperm whale (Physeter macrocephalus), 98 brain size, 96
spiders, 19
spindle cells, 97
sponges (animal), 35
Squier, Susan, 208, 214
Sterelny, Kim, 115–16 stereotypes, 67
unfavorable stereotypes of animals, 72–3 Strathearn, Marilyn, 168 subjectivity
and agency, 6
substance P
association with pain, 34 production by invertebrates, 34 suffering and intelligence, 34
empathic overload and burnout, 229–30
in sentient beings, 34 indications in captive animals, 152–4 Sulawesi, Lore Lindu National Park, 191
Sulawesi Tonkean macaque (Macaca tonkeana), 191
Sumatra. See traditional societies in Sumatra.
Summer, William Graham, 43
Sundarbans Tiger Project, Bangladesh, 20–1 sustainability
carens about the livestock revolution, 78–9 failure of sustainable development, 198–200 symbolic meaning
as a distinctive quality of humans, 71 importance in cultural anthropology, 71 Taylor, Charles, 73
techno-capitalist imaginary
and the animal–industrial complex, 78–80
technocracy
influence on human lives, 2 temperate grain–livestock complex overlap with the animal–industrial complex, 85 theory of behavior, 126 theory of mind
and mind minding, 133–6 and mindreading in animals, 116
mind minding systems, 127–8
Thomson, Judith Jarvis, 43 tigers
ancestor–tiger beliefs, 160–2 conflict with humans in Bangladesh, 20–1 lack of moral concern for, 104
Tinbergen, Niko, 151
toads, 30
Tomasello, Michael, 115 traditional societies
attitudes toward nature, 192
attitudes toward primates, 192–3 attitudes toward protected area conservation, 192 respectful treatment of chickens, 11–12
role of place, 194
strategies to promote conservation, 194–6 traditional societies in Sumatra animism, 156–60
attrition of a soul to animals, 157–9 beliefs relating to dangerous animals, 160–2
myths and rituals, 159–60
pact of respect for animals, 162–3
respect for the forest and its inhabitants, 159–60 views of non-human animals, 156–7 tragedy of the commons, 2 triple helix concept
overlap with the animal–industrial complex, 82 trophallaxis in Ectatomma ants, 169–72 ultimate mechanisms in animal behavior, 144, 151–2 United Nations discourse on human rights and ritual recognition, 73–5 influence of cultural anthropology, 71–2 influence of European metaphysical traditions, 69 influence of new synthesis biology, 70–1 influence on the Great Ape Project, 73 post-World War II anti-racist stance, 67–9 unfavorable stereotypes of animals, 72–3 Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UN, 1952), 67 urban chicken keeping
coop tours, 213–18
cultural politics of, 207–9 debate over, 206–7
historical domesticatory practices, 207 involvement of consumer capitalism, 207–8 market for chicken coops, 207–8 motivations for, 207
nostalgia factor, 208–9 novelty factor, 208–9 regulations in different areas, 218–22 rustbelt chickens’ experience, 209–13 wider aspects of, 218–22 urban farming
debate over, 206–7
motivations for, 207, 222
See also urban chicken keeping.
van Dooren, Thom, 169, 174 veganism
politics of food, 85–7
vegetable–industrial complex
overlap with the animal–industrial complex, 85 vegetables industry, 85 vertebrates sentence in, 34
von Economo neurons, 97 vulnerable individuals protections for, 235–6 warm-body hypothesis, 56, 59
Watts, Michael, 89
Wcislo, Bill, 205
Weisz, Tony, 85
Western diet
health risks of high meat/dairy consumption, 84
whales
adverse effects of captivity, 102–3
cultural attributes, 98–9
social complexity and relationships, 98–9
use as entertainment, 101
See also cetaceans.
Wheeler, William Morton, 169–71
White, Lynn, 24
Wilson, Edward O., 22, 166–7
Wirtheim, Joe, 208
Yaka of the DRC
treatment of chickens, 11
Yourcenar, Marguerite, 75 zoos
concerns about apes in captivity, 58–9 observational contact with animals, 58