Now reissued in a third, updated edition, this book provides a concise, illustrated introduction to the modern history of Greece, from the first stirrings of the national movement in the late eighteenth century to the present day. The current economic crisis has marked a turning point in the country’s history. This third edition includes a new final chapter, which analyses contemporary political, economic and social developments. It includes additional illustrations together with updated tables and suggestions for further reading. Designed to provide a basic introduction, the first edition of this hugely successful Concise History won the Runciman Award for the best book on an Hellenic topic published in 1992 and has been translated into twelve languages.

Richard Clogg has been Lecturer in Modern Greek History at the School of Slavonic and East European Studies and King’s College, University of London; Reader in Modern Greek History at King’s College; and Professor of Modern Balkan History in the University of London. From 1990 to 2005 he was a Fellow of St Antony’s College, Oxford, and is now an Emeritus Fellow of the College. He has written extensively on Greek history and politics from the eighteenth century to the present.
This is a new series of illustrated ‘concise histories’ of selected individual countries, intended both as university and college textbooks and as general historical introductions for general readers, travellers and members of the business community.

PREFACE

The text has benefited greatly from the critical scrutiny of my friend and colleague Dr Lars Baerentzen and, as always, of Mary Jo Clogg. To both, as to Professor Susannah Verney and Dr Rolandos Katsiaounis, I am much indebted. I am also very grateful to the following for help in connection with the illustrations: Guy Evans, Manos Haritatos, David Howells, Dimitrios Kaloumenos, Paschalis Kitromilidis, John Koliopoulos, Fani Konstantinou, Nikos Linardatos, Ioannis K. Mazarakis-Ainian, Georgios Mountakis, Helen Zeese Papanikolas, Nikos Stavroulakis, Fani-Maria Tsigakou, K. Varfis and Malcolm Wagstaff.
