

Contents

Tables	page xiii
Abstract	xvii
Acknowledgments	xix
1 Comparative Politics and Political Parties in Africa	1
Harbingers of Evil? Ethnic Parties and Democracy	2
International Party Assistance and Ethnic Parties	4
Fighting Ghosts? Political Science and African Parties	5
Filling in the Gaps	7
The Structure of the Book	8
2 A New Framework of Comparison for Political Parties	11
On the Study of Political Parties	12
Party Typologies in the Western World	12
Party Typologies Outside the Western World	18
Party Typologies in Eastern Europe, Latin America, and Asia	20
Party Typologies in Africa	22
Toward a New Framework of Comparison	26
The Operationalization of the Amended Diamond and Gunther Typology	30
Party Goals	31
Electoral Strategy	32
Organizational Structure	33
Social Base	34
Aggregation	37
Toward Empirical Research	38
Comparative Politics and the Diamond and Gunther Typology	41
3 Kenya: The Ubiquity of Ethnic Parties	43
One-Party Rule and the Rise of Ethnic Cleavage Lines	46

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03346-7 - Political Parties in Africa: Ethnicity and Party Formation

Sebastian Elischer

Table of Contents

More information

viii

Contents

Observation Period 1	51
FORD-Kenya: The Enduring Logic of Ethnic Politics	51
FORD-Asili: The Prisoners of Dr. Kenneth Matiba	57
The Democratic Party: In the Shadows of GEMA	59
The Kenyan African National Union: Entering the Democratic Age	61
Observation Period 2	67
FORD-Kenya: From Alliance to Mono-Ethnic Party	67
The National Development Party: FORD-K's Former Luo Wing	70
The Democratic Party: The Beneficiaries of FORD-A's Collapse	72
The Social Democratic Party: Toward Kamba Unity	73
The Kenyan African National Union	75
Observation Period 3	79
The National Alliance Rainbow Coalition	79
KANU, the Orange Democratic Movement–Kenya, and the Orange Democratic Movement	88
Kenya After the 2007 Elections	93
Political Parties in Africa: Findings from Kenya	95
4 Namibia: The Dominance of Nonethnic Parties	100
Apartheid, Ethnic Cleavage Lines, and Political Parties	101
Observation Period 1	104
The Democratic Turnhalle Alliance and the Democratic Age	105
The South West African People's Organization	110
Observation Period 2	113
The Democratic Turnhalle Alliance Falls Apart	113
SWAPO Extending the SWAPO Kingdom	117
Observation Period 3	121
The Democratic Turnhalle Alliance and Its Disintegration	121
SWAPO: The Legacy of the Nujoma Succession	124
Observation Period 4	129
The Rise and Fall of the Congress of Democrats	130
SWAPO and Pohamba	133
Namibia After the 2009 Elections	135
Political Parties in Africa: Findings from Namibia	135
5 Ghana: The Ubiquity of Nonethnic Parties	140
The First Three Republics, Ethnic Cleavage Lines, and Political Parties	141
Observation Period 1	143
The New Patriotic Party: In the Footsteps of the PP	144
The National Democratic Congress: A Dictator Elected	150

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03346-7 - Political Parties in Africa: Ethnicity and Party Formation

Sebastian Elischer

Table of Contents

More information

	Contents	ix
Observation Period 2		153
The New Patriotic Party: Generation Kufuor		153
The National Democratic Congress: A Dictator Reelected		157
Observation Period 3		159
The New Patriotic Party in Power		159
The National Democratic Congress Falling Apart		163
Observation Period 4		167
The New Patriotic Party in Its Second Term		167
The National Democratic Congress and Rawlings' Long Shadow		171
Ghana after the 2008 Elections		173
Political Parties in Africa: Findings from Ghana		175
6 The Diversity of African Party Politics		179
Political Parties in Kenya, Namibia, and Ghana		180
Variation Within Countries: Some Observations		183
African Parties and Political Ideology: Some Observations		186
Toward a New Framework of Comparison for African Parties		187
Motive of Formation		188
Rhetoric		188
Electoral Rhetoric		188
Ideology/Manifesto Content		189
National Coverage		189
Party Factions		189
Party Apparatus		190
Leadership Composition		190
Cabinet Composition		190
Party Divergence Scores and Party Nationalization Scores		191
Verification of Results: Preliminary Evidence from Additional Cases		192
Tanzania		193
The Chama Cha Mapinduzi		193
The Civic United Front		195
CHADEMA		196
Botswana		197
The Botswana Democratic Party		197
The Botswana National Front		198
Senegal		199
Parti Socialiste		200
The Parti Démocratique Sénégalais		201
Malawi		202
The Malawi Congress Party		203
The United Democratic Front		204

	The Alliance for Democracy	206
	The Democratic Progressive Party	207
	Burkina Faso	208
	The Congrès pour le Démocratie et le Progrès	208
	The Rassemblement Démocratique Africain – l'Alliance pour la Démocratie et la Fédération	209
	Zambia	210
	The Movement for Multiparty Democracy	210
	The United National Independence Party	212
	The Patriotic Front	213
	Benin	214
	The Parti Social-Démocrate	215
	The Parti du Renouveau Démocratique	215
	The Front d'Action pour le Renouveau et le Développement	217
	Alliance pour une Dynamique Démocratique, l'Union pour le Bénin du Future, and Forces Cauris pour un Bénin Emergent	218
	Summary of the Preliminary Cases	218
	Political Party Types in Africa	221
7	Explaining the Formation of Nonethnic Parties	223
	Variance Between Countries	224
	Economic Variables	224
	Electoral Systems and Political Parties	234
	Electoral Systems and Parties in Kenya, Ghana, and Namibia	235
	Democracy and Political Parties	238
	The Legal Dimension: Party Laws and Political Parties	240
	Political Parties and the Type of Independence Movement	241
	Ghana: The United Front	243
	Kenya: Ethnic Disunity from the Start	246
	Comparing African Independence Movements	248
	Ethnic Fractionalization and Political Parties	250
	Scenario 1: Balancing	252
	Scenario 2: Bandwagoning	252
	Core Groups and Political Parties: Empirical Evidence	253
	Verification of Hypothesis with Preliminary Cases	255
	Toward a Theory of the Formation of Ethnic Parties	259
	Conclusion: Political Parties in Africa	261
	The Emergence of Nonethnic Politics	261
	African Political Parties: The Main Argument	262
	African Parties and Democratic Consolidation	264
	Future Research on (African) Parties	267
	Strange Bedfellows: Academic Research and International Party Assistance	269
	Comparative Politics and African Parties	272

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03346-7 - Political Parties in Africa: Ethnicity and Party Formation

Sebastian Elischer

Table of Contents

More information

Contents	xi
Annex A: Operationalization of Secondary Party Types	275
Annex B: The Standard MRG Coding Frame	276
Annex C: Number of Effective Programmatic Categories	280
Annex D: Summary of Party Nationalization Scores (PNS) and Party Divergence Scores (PDS)	281
Annex E: Result for MRG Coding Scheme	284
Annex F: PNS Calculated on the Basis of Afrobarometer Data	285
Annex G: Scope of Party Systems Covered	287
Annex H: Party Nationalization Scores (PNS) of the Preliminary Cases	288
Bibliography	291
Index	317