Index

Addison, J. T. 125
administrative controls, simulated increase in 178, 180 agricultural sector, and informal employment 56 Allingham, M. G. 80
allocation effects 2–3, 118, 142, 144, 154–5, 181
waste of resources 144–6
see also market distribution Alm, J. 91–2
Andersen, P. 80
Andreoni, J. 10
Austria
demand effects of illicit working 160
financial policy simulations to reduce shadow economy 178, 180 Bagachwa, M. S. D.
Becker, G. S. 68, 78
behavioural control, see control theory benefit abuse, incentives for 164
Bentham, J. 64
Berger, H. 126
Bhattacharyya, D. K. 160
Biedenkopf, K. H. 183
black labour market
in Africa 49
in Asia 49–53
in developing countries 56
in Germany 93–5
incentives to work in 47–8
in Latin and South America 53
in non-agricultural sector 56
in OECD countries 60–3
in transition countries 53, 58, 60
see also illicit work
black markets
in centrally planned economies 32 in developed countries 32
in developing countries 31–2 estimation using MIMIC model 31–2 and official statistics 158
Blades, D. 23
Blankart, C. B. 116
BMA (Bundesministerium für Arbeit und Sozialordnung) 163 Botero, J. 125
bounded rationality 70–1, 98
Brehm, J. 100
Brennan, G. 115
Brockmeier, T. 147
Buchanan, J. M. 115
Buehn, A. 3, 31, 35, 40, 42, 44, 45
business freedom, and shadow economy 33–5 Cagan, P. 20
Canada
tax burden in 47–8
welfare contributions 47–8 Canadian tax rule 101
capital intensity, and economic growth 146
Caspers, A. 7, 10
Cassel, D. 7, 10, 160
centralisation, in government 173–4
Chang, G. 58, 60
Charmes, J. 58, 60
Choi, J. P. 137
cognitive control, see control theory Cologne Institute for Economic Research 139, 141, 165 Cologne School of Fiscal Psychology 103 community work 164
comparative advantage 149–50
Index

competition, distortion of 146, 151 and growth of shadow economy 151 intensification of 150–1 and welfare effects 172
see also government regulation, density of consultation, and policy 169 consumption expenditure, and illicit work 163
control theory, and deviant behaviour 99–100
see also reactance theory Conway, P. 122, 125
corruption 32
and size of shadow economies 137, 172
and tax yield 172
criminal activity, in shadow economy 12, 150
crowding-out effect 73–4 currency demand, as measure of shadow economy 19, 20–2, 30, 33–5
criticisms of 22–3
and demand deposits 22
Danninger 126
de Gijsel, P. 78–80
De Grazia, R. 61
de Mandelville, B. 64 decision-making habits 67–8 and expectations 68
influence of socio-demographic variables 89
and preferences 76–7
sociological definitions 88–9
and rational choice theory 68
and restrictions 77–8
demand effects, of illicit working 160–1
democracy
and exit option 170
and threat to economic order 182 deregulation, advantages of 135, 138
in Germany 134–5
developing countries, shadow
economy in
economic growth 147
innovation potential 152
labour force 49
deviant behaviour, reasons for 75 Dickenberger, D. 101
direct tax, share in shadow economy 33–5
distribution effects 155
horizontal effects 157–8 individual corrections to 156 lack of transparency 156
regressive effect 157 division of labour, and comparative advantage 149–50
Dreher, A. 137
dual economy categorisation 7 DYMIMIC model 27–29
causes and indicators of shadow
economy 27–29
Eastern Europe, quality of public institutions 131
and modern technologies 147 economic freedom 33–5
economic growth 154–5
distortion of production structure 146–7
exploitation of production potential 153–4, 155
and labour intensity 154
and optimal resource allocation 148–9 public investment 147–8
rate calculation 159
waste of resources 144–6
see also competition; innovation economic policy, and shadow economy 1, 2–3, 4, 11, 142
failure of 178, 180
income distribution 143
efficiency and social justice 155, 158
regressive distribution effect 157 positive stabilisation effects 159–60 rationality 167, 178, 180, 183
see also allocation effects; distribution effects; stabilisation policy economic psychology 65, 103, 112 education reform 135 education and training, effects of shadow economy on 147 education, training, and illicit working 96
efficiency, and social justice 155
efficiency, of Inland Revenue 105 efficiency taxation 157
electricity consumption method               23–6, 30 Elster, J. 73
emotions, as signalling function 73 Enste, D. H. 68, 71, 93, 96, 108–9, 116, 121–2, 124–5, 126, 131–2, 137, 139
entrepreneurship 73, 152, 155
Erard, B. 10
Esser, H. 70, 71
EU
effect of increased centralisation in 173–4
membership of, and former Soviet states 41
Parliament 1
shadow labour force in 63
EU Commission
employment strategy for combating illicit work 1, 4
standardisation of national income accounts 7
Eucken, W. 168
European Central Bank 158
European Economic and Monetary Union, and shadow economy 6 European National Accounts 6 evolutionary theory 112–16
exchange theory 105
exit option 2, 5, 99, 138, 170, 181 decrease in attractiveness 170–2 and migration 113
expert opinion, on policy 169
Feige, E. L. 19–20, 22, 23, 159
Feinstein, J. 10
Feld, L. P. 135
Festinger, L. 104
Fetchenhauer, D. 137, 159
Financial Control Department for Illicit
Work 138–9
efficiency improvements to 139 firm size, and black markets 176 fiscal auditing programmes 16–17
disadvantages of 17
fiscal effects, of shadow economy 161 see also tax evasion; tax yield fiscal federalism 174
fiscal freedom, and shadow economy 33–5
fiscal policy, and distortion of economic indicators 158
Fisher’s quantity equation 19
Fortin, B. 47–8
frames, see RREEMM model
Frank, R. H. 73, 97
Fréchette, P. 47–8
freedom, infringement of, see government regulation
freedom of movement 151–2
Frey, B. S. 23, 65, 68, 71, 73, 88, 97, 100, 114, 174
Friedman, E. 123, 124
Gaetani-D’Aragona, G. 61
Garcia, G. 22
Gates, Bill 152
GDP, measurement of in shadow
economy 23–4, 33–5
German Council of Economic Experts 7
Germany, shadow economy in 63, 139 demand effects 160
deregulation effects 134–5 legalisation of ‘soft’ illicit work 175 media power in 169
and minimum wage 140–1
protection, effects of 152 punishment for illicit work 138–9 and attractiveness 170–2
costs of 146
reforms in 117
tax deductibility 140
and unemployment 63, 135
Giles, D. E. A. 28–29
globalisation, and exit option 170
Gniech, G. 101
GNP
and national accounts 9, 17–18
and size of shadow economy 134
and transactions approach to measurement 19–20
see also economic growth government effectiveness and size, and
shadow economy 33–5
government regulation
bivariate analysis of 129–30 and ‘the common good’ 182 and the media 169
costs of 144–6
density 122–4
in OECD countries 130
reduction of 172
Index

enforcement of 123, 124
impact of 13, 22, 28, 132 influence on shadow economies 124 and labour-force participation 126 measurement of 124
see also deregulation; IW regulation index; labour market regulation; policy strategies; state intervention; tax burden Grabitz, H.-J. 101
Great Britain, positive effects of shadow
economy in 160
Gresser, F. 137
Gretschmann, K. 156, 159, 160, 182 growth rate 28, 146–7
and production structure 146–7
Grupp, H. 125
Gutmann, P. M. 20
modification of Laffer curve 113 habits, see RREEMM model Hafemann, K. 125
Haferkamp, A. 137
Hardge, S. 122, 124–5, 126, 131, 132
Hayek, F. A. von 64
health insurance 121
effects of German obligatory measures 74
and part-time working 164
Heintz, J. 58, 60
Hill, R. 23
Hirschman, A. O. 73, 168
Hofreither, M. F. 175, 177–9 Homo Oeconomicus 67–8
and income–leisure model 75
link with Homo Sociologicus 69–70
and rational choice theory 68
Homo Sociologicus 68, 88
link with Homo Oeconomicus 69–70 house building/buying, subsidies for 136 Houston, J. F. 159
illicit work 1, 12–15, 18, 48
in Austria 15
and choice 72–3
and corruption 137
demand effects on official sector 160–1 demand for 108
fiscal effects 161, 165
full-time 85–6
gender and education effects 96
in Germany 15, 93–5, 108
penalties for 138–9
by immigrants 175
income, influence of 96, 176 labour market effects 159
legalisation of 146, 174–5
and market transactions 13
and official institutions 2–3 opportunity for 91
political attitude towards reduction 177–9
probability of detection 139 public perception of 140, 176 real estate, ownership of 96 shift in values 96
social environment, effect of 108–9 socio-demographic variables, effect of 89
subjective conditions for 91
tax discrimination 156
tax yield 162–3
and welfare loss 166
see also developing countries;
income–leisure model; labour force; OECD countries; social security, burden; sociological explanation; tax burden; tax morality; tax reform; transition countries
income
and deviant behaviour 75
reallocation of 117
income and expenditure statistics, discrepancy between 17–18, 30 income–leisure model 65–7, 74 assumptions on preferences and restrictions 75–8, 82, 83–4, 88–9 and illicit work and labour supply 78–80
and illicit work and regulated working time 83–6
limitations of 87–8
personal and given social characteristics 91
reasons for deviant behaviour 75 reduction in working hours 86–7 role of institutions 92
and tax evasion 80–1
income–leisure model (cont.)
time allocation 78–80, 81–3 see also integrative model indicator approaches 17–26 indifference curves, and preferences 76–7
individual behaviour, and analysis of
shadow economy 65
see also income–leisure model;
methodological individualism
industrial regulation 13
inflation rate, effect on shadow
economy 33–5
distortion in 139
informal employment, in developing countries 56
in non-agricultural sector 56
information control, see control theory information selection 72
innovation
potential for 152, 154
in social sphere 152–3
Institute for Management Development (IMD) 125
institutional framework, changes in 73 institutional sclerosis 2, 112 institutions, quality of 123, 131–2, 134, 135–6
integrative model of deviant behaviour 110–12
International Labour Organization 4 invisible hand 64
Isachsen, A. J. 22, 81, 84
IWF regulation index 124–5, 126–9, 129–30
time periods 126
variables of 125–6
Johnson, S. 123–4
jurisdiction, costs of 146
Kabir, M. 23
Kahneman, D. 68, 71
Kaliberda, A. 23–4
Kaufman, D. 123–4
and Kaufman–Kaliberda method 23–4
Kelley, H. H. 105
Kirchgässner 9, 68, 174, 182
Kladroba, A. 125
Klein, A. 182
Klovland, J. 23
Koch, L. T. 72
Kucera, G. 53–6
labour, division of 149–50, 155
labour force
freedom of movement 151–2
growth rate and participation 33–5 official and actual 18, 28 in services sector 147
see also black labour market labour market regulation 47, 53–6, 75 and deregulation 135
and size of shadow economy 130, 132
and unemployment 126
see also government regulation
Lackó, M., and Lackó method 24–6 Laffer curve 3, 67
modification of 113
Lambdorff, J. G. 137
Lamnek, S. 96, 106
Larsen, C. 135
Latin American shadow economy, growth rate in 148
labour force 53
law enforcement 12
legality, advantages of 123
Lemieux, T. 47–8
Leviathan theory on taxation 115–16
Lindenberg, S. 71
Lindsay, M. 28–29
Lippert, O. 10
LISREL Technique 29
Loayza, N. V. 123, 126, 131–2, 148 local exchange systems 152–3 location, of firms 170
Lorenz curve 156
marginal rate of substitution, and indifference curve 76, 77 market distribution 117, 119 market equilibrium 118
market failure 118
see also state intervention marketing 145
maximisation rule 67, 77
McClelland, G. H. 91–2
McKenzie, R. B. 68
measurement of shadow economy 30
direct approaches 16–17
Index

indirect/indicator approaches 17–26 model approach 26–29
surveys 16, 30
disadvantages of 17, 31, 92
transactions approach 19–20, 30 see also currency demand; electricity consumption method; indicator approaches; labour force media, power of 169
Meisterbrief 152
Menger and Böhm-Bawerk 64
Merton, R. K. 96
methodological individualism 64, 66
Mill, J. 64
MIMIC model 3, 31
causal variables 32, 33–5 indicator variables 32, 33–5 results 33–5
minimum wage effects 140–1 Mogee, M. E. 125
monetary statistics, as measure in shadow economy; see currency demand; electricity consumption method; transactions approach Montenegro, C. E. 3, 31, 35, 40, 42, 44, 45 moonlighting 1, 13, 18, 85, 96, 140 moral suasion 144
Morris, B. 25
motivation, and illicit working 73
motivational structure, see RREEMM model, man component Mückl, W. 7
Müller, K. 117

Nardo, M. 125
national accounting 17–18
National Income Accounts 7, 9 network assistance 9
Neumann–Morgenstern utility function 80
new political theory 116, 120 Nicoletti, G. 122, 125
non-saturation, and indifference curves 76 non-wage labour costs, see social security norms and values, see Homo Sociologicus
Norway, cash transactions in 22 objective probabilities, in neoclassical theory 67
OECD 125
OECD countries’ shadow economy GDP per capita 63 institutional quality 131 official indicators, distortion of 2–3 Olbrich, G. 96, 106
Olson, M. 2
openness, effect on shadow economy 33–5 Ordnungspolitik 118, 168
Osnabrügge, G. 100
overtime working 83, 85
Oviedo, A. M. 123, 124, 126, 131–2
Park, T. 22
pension insurance 121
pensions, and benefit abuse 164
Peruvian shadow economy 1
Petersen, H.-G. 117
Phillips curve 67
policy strategies, to reduce shadow economy 135–7, 168 legalisation of illicit work 174–5 see also exit option; voice option political economy explanation for shadow economy 175 cost effectiveness of combating illicit work 177–9, 181 government interests 177 individuals’ interests 176 trade unions’ interests 176–7 Pöll, G.
Pommerehne, W. W. 9, 23, 88, 174, 182 preferences, in income-leisure model 67 prices, and scarcity 148–9 product market regulation 130, 132 production market development 28 prospect theory 68
protection, problems of 151–2 Pryor, F. L. 125
public choice theory, and illicit work 175–9 public debt, and shadow economy 1 public expenditure 1
public goods, supply of, and tax evasion 147 public opinion, management of 72 punishment, for deviant behaviour 75
and income–leisure model 88
questionnaires, disadvantages of 16 R&D, effects of low intensity 154 random effects model, and size of shadow economy 132–4 rational choice theory 65, 66, 68 rational economic policy; see economic policy rationality 67, 167, 178, 180, 183
and utility maximization 77
see also bounded rationality reactance theory 97–8
and control theory 98–101, 102–3
and economic utility theory 101–2 and moral suasion 172
and tax burden 103–5, 172
and tax reform 102
recession, and shadow economy 1 regulation, see government regulation Riebel, V. 86
Rigolini, J. 123, 124
Roncolato, L. 53–6
RREEMM model 69
frames 71–2
habits 72–3
man component 73–4
Ruesga, B. S. M. 61
rule of maximisation 67
Sandmo, A. 80, 81
satisficing 70
scarcity, and freedom of choice 101–2, 148–9
Scarfetta, S. 122
Schäfer, W. 96, 106, 165
Schmidt, K. 182
Schmidl, G. 103, 105, 183
Schneider, F. 3, 31, 35, 40, 42, 44, 45, 61, 102, 106, 121–2, 134, 137, 141, 160, 175, 177–9 Schulze, W. D. 91–2
science and technology, investment in 135 Scitovsky, T. 73
self-sufficient economy 9, 12, 150 Servén, L. 123, 124, 162, 131–2 services sector, liberalisation of 135 shadow economies
activities in 12
in Austria 102
causes of 28, 137, 178, 180
common good, the 182
by continent 45, 46
in developing countries 42–5
differences in estimates 4–5 difficulties of definition in OECD 6 dual economy 7
informal economic activity 7–10 division of labour 149–50 erosion of economic order 182 evolutionary process 181, 183 and financial psychology 105 global growth in 5
GNP in Africa 49
GNP in Asia 49–53
GNP in Latin and South America 53 incentive problems 121
increase in OECD countries 36–41, 178, 180 influences on size 106–8 international rankings of 36 size and trend 37–40
loss of control, response to 101 monetary indicators 28 positive effects of 143, 149, 154, 156, 159–60, 170, 182 shift in standards 91
size indicators 28, 106–8 size of 2
theoretical approach by social scientists 3
in transition countries 41
and welfare state 138
see also measurement of shadow economy; political economy explanation
Shleifer, A. 123–4
Simon, H. A. 70
Smith, A. 64
social justice
and distribution policy 156
regressive distribution effect 157
social security burden 2, 106, 112, 120–1, 136 costs and benefits 120, 164–5 fiscal effects on 143, 157
Index

fraud 13
in Germany 117
influence of shadow economy on 163–4 reform 4, 138, 165, 172
see also benefit abuse societal development 182 socio- and economic psychology, and deviant behaviour 97, 106–9, 172
see also reactance theory
sociological explanation, for deviant behaviour 68, 88 stabilisation policy 158, 168 positive effect of illicit activities 159–60, 181 statistical distortions in 159 Stahlberg, D. 100
state intervention
democratic failure 117
and market failure 117, 119
and social injustice 117
see also government regulation
stimulation, desire for 73
Strom, S. 22, 81, 84
Stützel, W. 7
subsidiarity principle 173–4 subsidies, see public expenditure Suntum, U. van 125
supervision, costs of 145
surveys, see measurement of shadow economy Switzerland, democracy in 174 Tanzi, V. 13, 20–2
tax burden 2, 22, 33–5, 47, 75, 87–8 in Canada 47–8
distribution of and transfer payments 104–5
in Germany 106
and government efficiency 105
and labour supply 81
individual perception of 106 negative welfare effects 146
in OECD countries 47, 122
perceptibility and durability of 105 primary cause of shadow economy 28, 120 public services and free-riding 157
and reactance theory 102–3
reduction of 135–6, 140, 170
enthusiasm for 178, 180
simulations 178, 180
rise in 106, 112
and size of shadow economy 26, 42, 45, 121–2, 132–4
and social insurance contributions 135–6, 181 see also currency demand; reactance theory tax deductions 136, 140 tax evasion 1, 10, 30, 103–5, 156, 181
and prospect theory 68
taxation psychology 103
theory of 80–1
tax theory of labour supply 80 and time allocation 81
and underground economy 10 tax honesty, influence of social norms on 91–2 tax mentality 105
tax morale 105
tax morality 22, 28, 103–5, 111 impact on shadow economy 134 and public participation 174
see also reactance theory
tax rate, correlation with tax yield 114–15 tax reform 4, 136, 138, 170 Austrian model 178, 180
in Germany 117
household services 136, 140
increased participation in politics 182–3
and reactance theory 102
tax revenue, and underground activity 3
tax yield 143, 162–3, 177
taxation psychology 103
Teixeira, P. 125
Thaler, R. H. 112
tax theory of evolutionary taxation 103 tax theory of social comparison 104 Thibaut, J. W. 112
theory of market failure 117 theory of social injustice 117
Thießen, V. 122
Thomas, J. J. 12, 23
Thompson, S. C. 99
Thum, M. 137
trade registration 13
trade unions, and illicit work 176–7
transactions approach 19–20, 30
transfer payments, need for 172 transition countries’ shadow economy economic growth in 147
innovation potential 152
transparency, and distribution policy 156
Tullock, G. 68
Tversky, A. 68, 71
underground economy, definition of 9 informal sector 12
irregular sector 12
and market transactions 13
unemployment
in EU 1
insurance 164
rate calculation 159
and shadow economy 1, 80, 134, 147, 153–4, 177
US dollar, use as international currency 23
utility functions and individual preferences 77
utility maximisation, income-leisure model 76, 77
see also reactance theory
value-added tax (VAT)
harmonisation in Germany 173 temporary reductions in 136 yield 163, 181
Varian, H. R. 77
velocity of money, and currency demand 23, 30
Verbeek, H. 137
voice option 2, 5, 99, 138, 168–70, 181 need for increased participation 173, 174
see also centralisation; fiscal federalism
Walker, M. 10
Weck-Hannemann, H. 88, 114
WEF 125
Weizsäcker, C. C. von 155 welfare effects, of shadow economy 142 and efficiency 143
welfare system
and labour supply 47–8
and social contributions 47, 75 see also income–leisure model; social security
welfare theory on taxation 115
Werkneh, G. 28–29
Wiswede, G. 101
women, share in informal employment 58–60
World Bank 51, 52, 54, 55, 125
World Value Survey 134
youth employment, effect of minimum wage on 141
Zoido-Lobatón, P. 123, 124