THE CAMBRIDGE HISTORY OF
GAY AND LESBIAN LITERATURE

The Cambridge History of Gay and Lesbian Literature presents a global history of the field. It is an unprecedented summation of critical knowledge on gay and lesbian literature that also addresses the impact of gay and lesbian literature on cognate fields such as comparative literature and postcolonial studies. Covering subjects from Sappho and the Greeks to queer modernism, diasporic literatures, and responses to the AIDS crisis, this volume is grounded in current scholarship. It presents new critical approaches to gay and lesbian literature that will serve the needs of students and specialists alike. Written by leading scholars in the field, The Cambridge History of Gay and Lesbian Literature will not only engage readers in contemporary debates but also serve as a definitive reference for gay and lesbian literature for years to come.

E. L. MCCALLUM is associate professor of English at Michigan State University. Her essays have appeared in journals such as Technoculture, Postmodern Culture, Poetics Today, differences, Arizona Quarterly, and Camera Obscura, as well as in a number of edited collections.

MIKKO TUHKANEN is associate professor of English and Africana studies at Texas A&M University. His essays have appeared in diacritics, American Literature, GLQ, Modern Fiction Studies, and Cultural Critique.

Acknowledgments

The editors would like to thank our contributors for their excellent scholarship and thoughtful engagement with this project's endeavor not simply to define but to reframe this important area of study. We are immensely grateful to our editorial assistant, Steven Ambrose, whose eye for detail and careful reading were indispensable to bringing this book to completion. We thank as well our editor at Cambridge University Press, Ray Ryan, for his patient and understanding support of this project; his advice and assistance have been invaluable at every stage.
