

Index

Page numbers in italics refer to tables.

acquisitions and mergers see freedom of establishment advertisements, restrictions or bans on, 266–267 aircraft registration, freedom of establishment, 215–216 anti-discrimination see discrimination appropriateness requirement for discriminatory and restrictive measures, 34 authorization requirements
 freedom of establishment, 214–215
 service providers, 262

Balassa, Bela, economic integration theory, 37 betting and gambling services, 264–266 candidates for election, right to stand, 142 capital

 definition, 293, 294
 free movement see free movement of capital and payments payments distinguished, 292
 taxation see taxation
capital controls, case for and against, 290–291 capital gains, exit taxes, 232 capital requirement, freedom of establishment, 232–233
“Cassis de Dijon formula,” 67–69
certifications, mutual recognition, 259–260 charges having equivalent effect to customs duties, prohibition see customs union charitable donations taxation, 315
Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union
 applicability, 107
 codification of rights, 143–144
 introduction of, 10
 invocation of, 102
children’s names and citizenship, 140

Citizens’ Initiative (CI), 143
citizenship
 applicability, 104–109, 105
 applicability factors, 109 application of provisions generally, 110 children’s names and, 140
 Citizens’ Initiative (CI), 143
 critiques, 94
 cross-border element, 29–30, 103
 diplomatic or consular protection, 143
 direct effect, 19, 100
 Directive see Citizenship Directive economic freedoms in relation, 2–3 economically inactive persons, 103
 EEA Agreement, 24
 electoral participation, 142
 employment regulation in relation, 22
 EU and national in relation, 95–96 family names, 140
 importance for EU integration, 93–94, 95
 justifications for discriminatory and restrictive measures, 32–33, 114–115 level of inter-state mobility, 108 main regulatory fields, 141
 main Treaty provisions overviewed, 96–100, 97
 material scope, 103–109
 Member States’ obligations, 109–110
 mobility factors, 108
 mobility in Europe, 108
 non-applicability, 104
 non-contributory social benefits, 135–137
 other political rights, 143–144
 overriding public-interest reasons for restrictions, 120–121
 personal names, 140
 personal scope, 22, 101–102
 prohibition of discrimination, main grounds, 110–112

- citizenship (cont.)
 - prohibition of discrimination, other grounds, 141
 - prohibition of restrictions, 112–114
 - proportionality requirement, 116, 119
 - proportionality test, 115
 - public-health-based restrictions, 119–120
 - public-policy-based restrictions, 116–119
 - right to vote and stand as candidate, 142
 - scope generally, 100
 - social benefits for students, 134–135
 - social entitlements in home state, 137–138
 - social entitlements in host state, 133–134
 - as source of rights, 94–95
 - surnames, 140
 - taxation, 138–140
 - TFEU provisions overviewed, 3
 - Treaty of Maastricht, 10, 93
 - voting rights, 142
- Citizenship Directive
 - aims, 121
 - applicability, 121
 - consolidation of rules, 169–170
 - enactment, 121
 - equal access to higher education and vocational training, 131–133
 - family members' rights, 126–128, 190
 - limitations generally, 99–100, 115–116
 - material scope, 122
 - non-applicability, 169–171
 - permanent residence, 126
 - personal scope, 122
 - protection against expulsion, 128–131
 - public-policy-based restrictions, 116–119, 119
 - residence requirements, 123
 - residence rights, 104
 - retention of worker status after employment, 155–156
 - right of entry, 122
 - right of exit, 123
 - right of residence for more than three months, 115, 123–125
 - right of residence for up to three months, 123, 154
 - right to equal treatment, 126
 - social benefits entitlement, 133–134, 135–136, 183
 - student benefits, 135
 - "sufficient resources" for residence, 125
 - TFEU basis for, 191
 - workers' families, 190
 - workers' rights, 169
- citizenship provisions
 - internal market in relation, 2–3
 - overview of, 3
- Combined Nomenclature, 51–52
- Commission, internal market role, 16
- Common Customs Tariff (CCT), 51
- company establishment see freedom of establishment
- company exit taxes, 232
- compensation, public services provision, 283–284
- competences see Treaty freedoms
- competing goods, taxation of, 90–91
- Completing the Internal Market* see White Paper on completing the internal market
- compulsory minimum fees, services provision, 262–263
- concessions for private sector provision of public services, 285–286
- consular protection, right to, 143
- consumer protection harmonization, 81–82
- "convergence," meaning of, 19
- country of destination see host state
- country of origin see home state
- Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU), internal market role, 16–17
- cross-border company transformations and mergers see freedom of establishment
- cross-border element of Treaty freedoms, 30 see also under specific freedoms
- Customs Code, 53
- customs duties, prohibition see customs union
- customs union
 - Combined Nomenclature, 51–52, 52
 - Common Customs Tariff (CCT), 51
 - Customs Code, 53
 - prohibition of charges having equivalent effect to customs duties, 49
 - prohibition of customs duties, 49
 - Treaty of Rome, 47
- "Dassonville formula," 55–57
- diplomatic protection, right to, 143
- direct discrimination, prohibition of, 30–31
- direct effect of Treaty freedoms, 19–20, 20 see also under specific freedoms
- Directives
 - direct effect, 40
 - Posted Workers Directive, 267–268
 - Professional Qualifications Directive, 233–234
 - TFEU provisions authorizing, 14–15, 15 see also Citizenship Directive; Services Directive
- discrimination
 - justifications see justifications for discriminatory and restrictive measures
 - prohibition of, 30–31 see also under specific freedoms

319 Index

- discriminatory taxation see taxation
- dividend taxation, 311–313
- documents, mutual recognition, 259–260, 277
- double regulation of service providers, 255–256
- economic integration, stages of, 37
- economic theories of trade overviewed, 37–39
- education
 - equal access to higher education and vocational training, 131–133
 - students' social benefits, 134–135
 - workers' rights, 189
- electoral participation rights, 142
- employees, free movement see free movement of workers
- employers, free movement of workers, 155
- employment regulation
 - EU and national employment laws in relation, 269
 - by non-state actors, 22
- equal access
 - employment, 173–174
 - higher education and vocational training, 131–133
 - social benefits, 176–181
- equal treatment
 - employment, 174–176
 - limitations for workers, 183–184
 - taxation see taxation
- establishment
 - freedom of see freedom of establishment
 - requirements for service providers, 261–262
 - Services Directive, 278–279
- European Commission, internal market role, 16
- European Company (Societas Europaea) see freedom of establishment
- European Economic Area (EEA)
 - free movement of workers, 149
 - freedom of establishment, 198
 - freedom to provide and receive services, 243–244
 - Treaty freedoms, 23–24
- European Economic Community (EEC)
 - creation of, 3, 5
 - in trade liberalization context, 5
 - views on the role of, 6
- European Monetary Union (EMU), Treaty of Maastricht, 10
- European Parliament and Council
 - European Parliament elections, right to vote and stand as candidate, 142
 - internal market role, 16
- European Union (EU)
 - citizenship see citizenship
 - foundation, 1
 - institutions' obligations, 44
 - internal market as central aim, 1
 - political union as goal, 1–2
- exclusive competences, 13, 14
- exit from home state, workers' right, 171–173
- exit taxes on unrealized capital gains, 232
- expulsion, protection against, 128–131
- families
 - citizenship rights, 126–128
 - free movement of workers, 190
 - Treaty freedoms, 23
- family names and citizenship, 140
- finance see free movement of capital and payments
- free movement of capital and payments
 - capital and payments distinguished, 292
 - "capital" defined, 293, 294
 - case for and against international capital controls, 290–291
 - charitable donations taxation, 315
 - cross-border element, 29–30, 296
 - direct effect, 2, 19, 292
 - distinction from other freedoms, 293–296
 - dividend taxation, 311–313
 - doctrinal aspect, 2, 19
 - EEA Agreement, 23
 - employment regulation in relation, 22
 - "golden shares" cases, 306
 - "golden shares" prohibition, 304–309
 - home state obligations, 296–297
 - host state obligations, 296–297
 - inheritance taxation, 314–315
 - introduction to, 288–289
 - justifications for discriminatory and restrictive measures, 32–33, 298
 - main Treaty provisions overviewed, 291, 292
 - material scope, 292–296
 - non-state actors' obligations, 297
 - other freedoms distinguished, 294
 - overriding public-interest reasons for restrictions, 301–303
 - payments and capital distinguished, 292
 - "payments" defined, 293
 - pension contributions taxation, 313
 - personal scope, 292
 - personal scope of Treaty freedoms, 22
 - prohibition of discrimination, 297
 - prohibition of restrictions, 298
 - proportionality, 303–304
 - public institutional investment requirements, 310–311
 - public-policy-based restrictions, 298–299
 - real property acquisition, 309–310
 - real property taxation, 313–314

- free movement of capital and payments (cont.)
 - retention of national measures enacted prior to current system, 301
 - secondary law overviewed, 315, 316
 - tax-based justifications for restrictions, 299–301, 302–303
 - tax cases, 311–315
 - Treaty freedoms divergence, 19
 - Treaty of Maastricht, 2
 - Treaty provision, 1
- free movement of goods
 - cross-border element, 43
 - customs union see customs union
 - direct effect, 19, 40–41
 - discriminatory taxation see taxation
 - doctrinal aspect, 2, 18
 - EEA Agreement, 23
 - EU institutions' obligations, 44
 - "goods" defined, 41–42
 - home state obligations, 21
 - internal taxation see taxation
 - main Treaty provisions overviewed, 40
 - material scope, 41
 - Member States' obligations, 22, 43–44
 - non-state actors' obligations, 45–47
 - origin of goods, 42
 - personal scope, 41
 - personal scope of Treaty freedoms, 22
 - quantitative restrictions (QRs) see measures
 - having equivalent effect (MEQRs); quantitative restrictions (QRs) on exports; quantitative restrictions (QRs) on imports
 - Switzerland, 24
 - taxation see taxation
 - trade economics theories overviewed, 37–39
 - trade liberalization in context, 36
 - Treaty freedoms divergence, 19
 - Treaty provision, 1
- free movement of persons
 - doctrinal aspect, 2
 - harmonization, 16
 - mobility of EU citizens see citizenship
 - personal scope of Treaty freedoms, 22
 - prohibition of restrictions, 32
 - Switzerland, 25
 - Treaty freedoms divergence, 19
 - Treaty provision, 1
 - workers see free movement of workers
- free movement of workers
 - additional groups included, 153
 - applicability, 148
 - cross-border element, 29–30, 156–158
 - direct discrimination, 162
 - direct effect, 19, 148, 159–161
 - doctrinal aspect, 19
 - education rights, 189
 - EEA Agreement, 149
 - employers, 155
 - employment regulation in relation, 22
 - equal access to employment, 173–174
 - equal access to social benefits, 176–181
 - equal treatment in employment, 174–176
 - equal treatment in taxation, 184–188
 - equal treatment limitations, 183–184
 - excluded activities, 152
 - excluded groups, 156
 - family rights, 190
 - harmonization, 16
 - health and safety at work, 193
 - horizontal direct effect, 159–161
 - indirect discrimination, 162–163
 - introduction to, 145–146
 - invocation against home state, 182
 - job-seekers, 153–155
 - justifications for discriminatory and restrictive measures, 165
 - limitations on equal treatment, 183–184
 - main Treaty provisions overviewed, 147, 147
 - material scope, 156–158
 - Member States' obligations, 158
 - migration patterns, 146
 - non-state actors' obligations, 158–159
 - overriding public-interest reasons for restrictions, 168–169
 - personal scope, 148
 - post-employment rights, 155–156, 189
 - prohibition of discrimination generally, 161–162
 - prohibition of restrictions, 161–162, 163–165
 - public-health-based restrictions, 165
 - public-policy-based restrictions, 165
 - public service exception, 165–168
 - residence rights in host state, 169–171
 - retention of worker status after employment, 155–156, 189
 - right to leave and return to home state, 171–173
 - secondary law overviewed, 191, 194
 - security grounds for restrictions, 165
 - self-employed persons, 152
 - sickness benefits rules coordination, 192
 - social security systems coordination, 191–192
 - Switzerland, 25, 149
 - taxation, 184–188
 - Turkey, 149–150
 - unemployment benefits, 181
 - work permit grants 1958–1973, 147
 - "worker" defined, 151–153
 - workers' families, 190

321 Index

- workers' rights generally, 169
- workers' rights provisions overviewed, 170
- workplace health and safety, 193
- works councils, 193
- freedom of establishment
 - access to professional organizations, 216–217
 - aircraft registration requirements, 215–216
 - authorization requirements, 214–215
 - companies, 199–200, 219–220
 - company exit taxes, 232
 - company law harmonization, 237–238, 239
 - company primary establishment, 220–223, 224, 231
 - company secondary establishment, 223–229, 224, 231
 - cross-border company transformations and mergers, 229–231, 231
 - cross-border element, 200–201
 - direct effect, 19, 197–198
 - duration, 203
 - employment regulation in relation, 22
 - European Company (Societas Europaea), 231, 239–240
 - European Economic Area (EEA), 198
 - exemption for exercise of official authority, 210
 - exemptions, 198
 - exit taxes on unrealized capital gains, 232
 - geographical protection, 213–214
 - home state obligations, 203–204
 - host state obligations, 203
 - infrastructure, 203
 - introduction to, 196–197
 - justifications for discriminatory and restrictive measures, 207–208
 - lawyers, 218–219
 - legal form requirement, 232–233
 - main Treaty provisions overviewed, 197
 - material scope, 199–203
 - minimum capital requirement, 232–233
 - multiple establishments restriction, 212–213
 - mutual recognition, 211–212
 - natural persons, 198, 224
 - non-state actors' obligations, 204–205
 - overriding public-interest reasons for restrictions, 211
 - permanent establishment, 203
 - personal scope, 198–200
 - professional organization membership, 216–217
 - prohibition of discrimination, 205–208
 - prohibition of restrictions, 32, 205
 - proportionality requirement for national measures, 209
 - public-policy-based restrictions, 209
 - real property usage restrictions, 217–218
 - recognition of professional qualifications
 - see professional qualifications
 - registration requirements for ships and aircraft, 215–216
 - regulatory competition, 228
 - residence requirements, 216
 - residence rights in host state, 212
 - secondary law overviewed, 233, 234
 - self-employment, 200
 - Services Directive, 278–279
 - ship registration requirements, 215–216
 - Societas Europaea*, 231, 239–240
 - Switzerland, 25–26, 198
 - Turkey, 27, 28–29, 199
- freedom to provide and receive services
 - advantaging of domestic providers, 254–255
 - advertisements, restrictions or bans, 266–267
 - authorization requirements, 262
 - betting and gambling, 264–266
 - compulsory minimum fees, 262–263
 - cross-border element, 29–30, 248
 - direct effect, 19, 243
 - disadvantaging of non-domestic providers, 254–255
 - disproportionate requirements, prohibition of, 261
 - doctrinal aspect, 2, 19
 - double regulation, 255–256
 - employment regulation in relation, 22
 - establishment requirements, 261–262
 - European Economic Area (EEA), 243–244
 - gambling and betting, 264–266
 - GATS, 246
 - home state obligations, 251
 - host state obligations, 251
 - insurance premium increase authorization, 263–264
 - introduction to, 241–242
 - justifications for discriminatory and restrictive measures, 257
 - legal basis for services liberalization and harmonization, 275
 - main Treaty provisions overviewed, 242, 243
 - market access, 256
 - material scope, 251
 - mutual recognition, 258–260
 - nationality, 243–244
 - non-state actors' obligations, 251–252
 - official authority, exemption for exercise of, 257
 - overriding public-interest reasons for restrictions, 258
 - personal scope, 243–245

- freedom to provide and receive services (cont.)
 - posted workers see posted workers
 - prohibition of discrimination, 252
 - prohibition of disproportionate requirements, 261
 - prohibition of restrictions, 32, 253–254
 - public-health-based restrictions, 257
 - public-policy-based restrictions, 257
 - public services see public services
 - recipients of services see service recipients
 - registration requirements, 262
 - remuneration, 249–250
 - residence, 243–244
 - residence requirements, 261–262
 - residence rights in host state, 260–261
 - seat requirements, 261–262
 - security grounds for restrictions, 257
 - self-employment, 244
 - “services” defined, 245–246
 - Services Directive see Services Directive
 - Switzerland, 243–244
 - taxation, 270–271
 - temporary nature of services provision, 250–251
 - Treaty provision, 1
- Fundamental Rights Charter see Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union
- gambling and betting services, 264–266
- General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS), 246
- geographical protection, freedom of establishment, 213–214
- “golden shares,” prohibition of, 304–309
- goods see free movement of goods
- “Groenveld test,” 83–86
- health and safety at work, free movement, 193
- health care, right of access to in another Member State, 272–275
- health-policy-based restrictions, 119–120
- higher education, equal access, 131–133
- home state
 - free movement of capital and payments, 296–297
 - freedom of establishment, 203–204
 - freedom to provide and receive services, 251
 - product origin designation, 76–77
 - social entitlements in, 137–138
 - Treaty freedoms obligations, 21
 - workers’ invocation of free movement rights, 182–182
 - workers’ right to leave and return, 171–173
- host state
 - free movement of capital and payments, 296–297
 - freedom of establishment, 203
 - freedom to provide and receive services, 251
 - social entitlements in, 133–134
 - Treaty freedoms obligations, 20
 - workers’ residence rights, 169–171
- immovable property see real property
- import licenses case law, 73–74
- indirect discrimination, prohibition of, 31
- individuals see citizenship; free movement of persons; free movement of workers; freedom of establishment
- infrastructure for service provision, acquisition of, 203
- inheritance taxation, 314–315
- Institutions of the EU see European Union
- insurance premiums, authorization for increase, 263–264
- internal market
 - as central aim of EU, 1
 - central doctrines of, 2
 - citizenship provisions in relation, 2–3
 - doctrinal aspect, 2
 - European institutions’ roles, 16–17
 - historical overview, 3–17
 - tasks of, 1–2
 - White Paper see White Paper on completing the internal market
- internal taxation see taxation
- international capital controls, case for and against, 290–291
- job-seekers’ free movement, 153–155
- justifications for discriminatory and restrictive measures
 - appropriateness requirement, 34
 - necessity requirement, 34
 - proportionality see proportionality
 - public interest grounds, 33–34
 - Treaty-based justifications, 32–33
 - Treaty recognition generally, 32
 - see also under specific freedoms*
- “Keck formula,” 60–66
- labor, free movement see free movement of workers
- lawyers’ freedom of establishment, 218–219
- legal form requirement, freedom of establishment, 232–233
- legal persons see free movement of persons; freedom of establishment
- long-term residents from third-countries, 29

- machinery standards harmonization, 80
- manufacturers' compliance with harmonizing legislation, 81
- market access for service providers, 256
- measures having equivalent effect (MEQRs)
 - "Dassonville formula," 55–57
 - distinctly applicable measures, 57–58
 - indistinctly applicable measures, 57, 58–60
 - justifications generally, 65–67
 - "Keck formula," 60–66
 - product requirements see product requirements
 - proportionality requirement, 69–70
 - public-policy-based justification, 67–69
 - selling arrangements see selling arrangements
 - Treaty-based justifications, 67
- Member States, 109–110
 - competences, 13–14
 - obligations see under specific freedoms
 - see also* home state; host state
- mergers and acquisitions see freedom of establishment
- migrant workers
 - free movement see free movement of workers
 - migration patterns, 146
 - posted workers distinguished, 267
- minimum capital requirement, freedom of establishment, 232–233
- mobility of EU citizens see citizenship
- multiple establishments, restriction of, 212–213
- municipal elections, right to vote and stand as candidate, 142
- mutual recognition
 - of authorization requirements, 214–215
 - certificates, 233–234, 259–260
 - diplomas, 12–13, 25, 233–234
 - documents, 259–260, 277
 - free movement of goods, 70–73
 - freedom of establishment, 211–212
 - freedom to provide and receive services, 258–260
 - market access compared, 256
 - non-duplication of regulatory requirements, 260
 - principle of, 68, 234–235, 237, 258–260, 277
 - professional qualifications see professional qualifications
- names and citizenship, 140
- nationality requirements for service providers, 243–244
- natural persons see citizenship; free movement of persons; free movement of workers; freedom of establishment
- necessity requirement for discriminatory and restrictive measures, 34
- non-contributory social benefits, 131–133
- non-discrimination see discrimination
- non-duplication of regulatory requirements, 260
- non-economic services of general interest (NESGIs), 282–283
- non-EU citizens, Treaty freedoms, 23
- non-state actors
 - breach of Treaty freedoms by, 22
 - collective provision of services by, 22
 - employment regulation by, 22
 - exercise of regulatory competences
 - conferred by public authorities, 21–22
 - self-employment regulation by, 22
 - Treaty freedoms obligations generally, 21
 - see also under specific freedoms*
- non-tariff barriers, 54
- official authority, exemption for exercise of, 210, 257
- payments
 - capital distinguished, 292
 - definition, 293
- pension contributions taxation, 313
- permanent establishment see freedom of establishment
- permanent residence under Citizenship Directive, 126
- personal names and citizenship, 140
- persons
 - free movement see free movement of persons
 - personal scope of Treaty freedoms, 22
 - see also under specific freedoms*
- "point of single contact" requirement for services, 277
- political union as EU goal, 1–2
- post-employment rights, 155–156, 189
- posted workers
 - EU and national employment laws in relation, 269
 - migrant workers distinguished, 267
 - Posted Workers Directive, 267–268
- private actors see non-state actors
- private sector provision of public services, concessions for, 285–286
- product origin designation, 76–77
- product requirements
 - examples, 62–63
 - selling arrangements distinguished, 61, 62, 63
- professional organizations, freedom of access to, 216–217
- professional qualifications
 - automatic recognition of, for specific professions, 236

- professional qualifications (cont.)
 - automatic recognition of previous professional experience, 236–237
 - case law, 234–236
 - general system for recognition, 237
 - mutual recognition, 233–234, 235–236, 260
 - Professional Qualifications Directive
 - overviewed, 233–234
 - recognition generally, 236
 - of service providers, 237–238
- property see real property
- proportionality
 - prohibition of disproportionate requirements, 261
 - requirement, 34–35, 69–70, 116, 119, 209, 303–304
 - test, 34, 69–70, 115
- public authorities
 - institutional investment requirements, 310–311
 - official authority, exemption for exercise of, 210, 257
 - regulatory competences conferred on non-state actors, 21–22
 - see also* public services
- public-health-based restrictions
 - citizenship, 119–120
 - free movement of workers, 165
 - freedom to provide and receive services, 257
- public-policy-based restrictions
 - overriding public-interest reasons, 120–121, 168–169, 258, 301–303
 - overview of, 33–34
 - security grounds see security grounds for restrictions
 - see also under specific freedoms*
- public procurement, service provision, 284–285
- public services
 - compensation for services paid to service provider, 283–284
 - concessions to service providers, 285–286
 - exception for free movement of workers, 165–168
 - non-economic services of general interest (NESGIs), 282–283
 - public procurement, 284–285
 - “regular” services, 281
 - Services Directive, 279–281
 - services of general economic interest (SGEIs), 282
 - special role of, 282
 - types of, 281
- quantitative restrictions (QRs) on exports
 - case law, 83
 - “Groenveld test,” 83–86
 - justifications, 86
 - measures having equivalent effect (MEQRs), 83–86
 - Treaty provisions, 82–83
- quantitative restrictions (QRs) on imports
 - “Cassis de Dijon formula,” 67–69
 - consumer protection harmonization, 81–82
 - harmonization generally, 79
 - harmonized standards for machinery, 80
 - harmonizing measures, 80
 - import licenses, 73–74
 - infrastructure requirements, 74–75
 - justifications generally, 65–67
 - manufacturers’ compliance with harmonizing legislation, 81
 - mutual recognition, 70–73
 - non-tariff barriers, 54
 - parallel imports, 77–79
 - product origin designation, 76–77
 - prohibition, 54
 - proportionality requirement, 69–70
 - public-policy-based justification, 67–69
 - restrictions on use of certain products, 74
 - technical standards harmonization, 79–81
 - Treaty-based justifications, 67
- real property
 - acquisitions, 309–310
 - taxation, 313–314
 - usage restrictions, 217–218
- recipients of services see service recipients
- recognition of qualifications see mutual recognition; professional qualifications
- registration of ships and aircraft, freedom of establishment, 215–216
- registration requirements for service providers, 262
- Regulations
 - direct effect, 40
 - TFEU provisions authorizing, 14–15, 15
- regulatory competition as to company establishment, 228
- remuneration for services, 250–249
- residence
 - Citizenship Directive see Citizenship Directive
 - long-term residents from third-countries, 29
 - requirements for establishments, 216
 - requirements for service providers, 243–244, 260–262
 - rights in host state, 212, 260–261
 - “sufficient resources” requirement, 125
 - workers’ rights in host state, 169–171

- restrictions
 - justifications see justifications for discriminatory and restrictive measures
 - prohibition of, 30, 32
- return to home state, workers' right, 171–173
- seat requirements for service providers, 261–262
- secondary law measures
 - TFEU provisions authorizing, 14–15, 15 see also Directives; Regulations
- security grounds for restrictions
 - citizenship, 116–119
 - free movement of workers, 165
 - freedom to provide and receive services, 257
- self-employment
 - free movement see free movement of workers
 - freedom of establishment see freedom of establishment
 - regulation by non-state actors, 22
 - service providers see freedom to provide and receive services
- selling arrangements
 - examples, 63–64
 - exclusion from Treaty provisions, 64–65
 - infrastructure requirements, 74–75
 - and market access, 65
 - product requirements distinguished, 61, 62, 63
- service recipients
 - right to access health care in another Member State, 272–275
 - right to enter another Member State to receive services, 271
 - right to receive services under same conditions as nationals, 271–272
 - rights generally, 271
 - Treaty provisions overviewed, 244–245
- services
 - acquisition of infrastructure for provision of, 203
 - collective provision by non-state actors, 22
 - definition of, 245–246
 - free movement see freedom to provide and receive services
 - GATS, 246
- Services Directive
 - history of, 276
 - main provisions overviewed, 275–276
 - material scope, 277–278
 - mutual recognition of documentation, 277
 - “point of single contact” requirement, 277
 - provision of services, 279–280
 - public services, 280–281
- right of establishment, 278–279
- simplification requirement for national laws, 277
- services liberalization and harmonization, legal basis, 275
- services of general economic interest (SGEIs), 282
- shared competences, 13, 14
- ship registration, freedom of establishment, 215–216
- sickness benefits rules coordination, 192
- similar goods, taxation of, 88–90
- “single contact point” requirement for services, 277
- Single European Act, key reforms, 10
- “social advantage” see social welfare benefits
- social security systems coordination, 191–192
- social welfare benefits
 - entitlements in home state, 137–138
 - entitlements in host state, 133–134
 - non-contributory benefits, 135–137
 - sickness benefits rules coordination, 192
 - student benefits, 134–135
- Societas Europaea (SE) see freedom of establishment
- “sufficient resources” for residence, 125
- surnames and citizenship, 140
- Switzerland
 - bilateral agreements with, 24
 - free movement of workers, 149
 - freedom of establishment, 198
 - freedom to provide and receive services, 243–244
 - relations with EU, 25
 - Treaty freedoms, 25–26
- taxation
 - charitable donations, 315
 - citizenship, 138–140
 - competing goods, 90–91
 - directly discriminatory measures, 89
 - dividends, 311–313
 - equal treatment of workers, 184–188
 - exit taxes on unrealized capital gains, 232
 - free movement of capital and payments, 299–301, 302–303, 311–315
 - freedom to provide and receive services, 270–271
 - harmonization, 87
 - indirectly discriminatory measures, 89–90
 - inheritances, 314–315
 - pension contributions, 313
 - prohibition of discriminatory taxation, 86–87
 - real property, 313–314
 - scope of Treaty provisions, 87–88

- taxation (cont.)
 - similar goods, 88–90
 - Treaty provisions overviewed, 87
- technical standards harmonization, 79–81
- third-country nationals
 - free movement of goods, 41
 - Treaty freedoms, 29
- trade economics theories overviewed, 37–39
- trade liberalization
 - EEC in context of, 5
 - free movement of goods in context, 36
 - historical overview, 3–5
- training and education, equal access, 131–133
- Treaty freedoms
 - addressees generally, 20
 - see also under specific freedoms*
 - analytical framework, 16–17
 - breach by non-state actors, 22
 - citizenship see citizenship
 - competences generally, 13
 - convergence between, 18–19
 - cross-border element, 30
 - direct effect, 19–20, 20
 - divergence between, 18–19
 - doctrinal aspect, 2, 19
 - EU institutions' obligations, 44
 - exclusive competences, 13, 14
 - family members, 23
 - free movement of capital and payments see
 - free movement of capital and payments
 - free movement of goods see free movement of goods
 - free movement of persons see free movement of persons
 - freedom of establishment see freedom of establishment
 - freedom to provide and receive services see
 - freedom to provide and receive services
 - justifications see justifications for
 - discriminatory and restrictive measures
 - Member State competences, 13–14
 - non-EU citizens, 23
 - personal scope generally, 22
 - prohibition of discrimination, 30
 - prohibition of restrictions, 30, 32
 - secondary law measures, 14–15, 15
 - shared competences, 13, 14
 - TFEU provisions overviewed, 11–13, 11
- Treaty of Amsterdam, key reforms, 10
- Treaty of Lisbon, key reforms, 10
- Treaty of Maastricht, key reforms, 10
- Treaty of Nice, key reforms, 10
- Treaty of Rome
 - creation of EEC, 3, 5
 - historical context of, 3–5
 - historical overview, 5–7
 - reforms of, 3
 - trade liberalization, 3–5
- Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU)
 - authorization for secondary law measures, 14–15, 15
 - Treaty freedoms provisions see Treaty freedoms
- Turkey
 - free movement of workers, 149–150
 - freedom of establishment, 199
 - Treaty freedoms, 27–29
- unemployment benefits, free movement of workers, 181
- Union citizenship see citizenship
- Union Institutions see European Union
- university education, equal access, 131–133
- vocational training, equal access, 131–133
- voting rights, 142
- White Paper on completing the internal market
 - 1992 target for internal market completion, 9, 10
 - drafting of, 3, 9
 - historical overview, 7–9
 - key reforms, 9–10
 - and Single European Act, 9–10
- workers see free movement of workers
- workplace health and safety, free movement, 193
- works councils, free movement, 193