

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

INDEX

- accession see signature and accession
- accounting
 - auditor committees' role in internal investigations, 666
- external audit
 - auditor awareness and training as to bribery, 475–80
 - auditor independence, 474
 - auditor reporting obligations, 475–8
 - provisions of Article 8 of OECD Convention overviewed, 471
 - Recommendation 2009, 749–50
 - requirement for, 472–4
- FCPA provisions see Foreign Corrupt Practices Act
- Good Practice Guidance, 450–4
- implementation of laws, standard of, 484–5
- internal company controls, Recommendation 2009 provisions, 465–71
- introduction to Article 8 of OECD Convention, 455
- laws and regulations, 456–8
- material contingent liabilities, 459
- Recommendation 2009, 749
- sanctions
 - administrative sanctions, 464–5
 - civil sanctions, 463–4
 - criminal sanctions, 462–3
 - parties subject to, 461–2
 - provisions of Article 8 of OECD Convention overviewed, 460–1
- small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs)
 - anti-bribery issues, 480–2
 - anti-bribery resources, 483–4
 - assistance to combat bribery, 4, 482–4
 - bribery awareness-raising, 482–3
 - Recommendation 2009, 746–61
 - see also* Article 8 of OECD Convention
- active bribery
 - definition of, 31–3
 - penalties compared with passive bribery, 298–300
- actus reus*, offer, promise or giving of bribes, 136–48
- administrative sanctions see sanctions
- adoption of new OECD Acts, 604–5
- advantage gained from bribery see improper advantage
- agents, indirect bribery by, 153–9
- aiding or abetting, territoriality in relation to, 335
- allegations of bribery, prosecutors' duty to follow up, 361–3
- amendment
 - alternative approaches to adoption of new OECD Acts, 604–5
 - interpretative notes, 604
 - negotiation of Protocol, 602–3
 - provision for, 602
 - revision of existing OECD Acts, 604–5
 - WGB practice, 605–6
- by consensus, 599–600
- entry into force of amendments by consensus, 600–1
- entry into force of amendments by other mechanism, provision for, 601

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

820

INDEX

- amendment (cont.)
 - majority requirement, 600
 - presumption of consensus, 601
 - VCLT provisions as to, 598–9
 - see also* Article 16 of OECD Convention
- Article 1 of OECD Convention (Offence of Bribery of Foreign Public Officials)
 - any person capable of offence, 72–4
 - bribery as criminal offence, 39
 - chapter contents, 64–6
 - elements of offence see breach of
 - official duties; bribery
 - agreement; bribes; criminal responsibility; foreign public officials; improper advantage; indirect bribery; mens rea; third parties
 - functional equivalence, 71–2
 - Official Commentary on, 27, 39, 60–2, 738–40
 - Recommendation 2009, 62–4
 - Recommendation 2009, Annex I, 755
 - scope of, 66–71
 - text of, 59–60, 731
 - see also* bribery, bribes
- Article 2 of OECD Convention (Responsibility of Legal Persons)
 - chapter contents, 214–15
 - implementation of, 245–6
 - Official Commentary on, 213, 740
 - Recommendation 2009, 213–14, 224–6
 - Recommendation 2009, Annex I, 755–6
 - text of, 212, 731
 - see also* corporate liability
- Article 3 of OECD Convention (Sanctions)
 - application of see sanctions
 - basic requirements, 255–6
 - chapter contents, 253–4
 - functional equivalence, 256–7
 - implementation of, 246–7
 - Official Commentary on, 213, 252–3, 741
 - Recommendation 2009, 224–5, 253
 - text of, 212, 252, 731–2
 - see also* sanctions
- Article 3(3) of OECD Convention (Seizure and Confiscation)
 - chapter contents, 305–6
 - introduction to, 306–8
 - Official Commentary on, 305
 - seizure, 308–9
 - text of, 305
 - see also* confiscation
- Article 4 of OECD Convention (Jurisdiction)
 - chapter contents, 322–3
 - consultation procedure (Article 4 (3)), 344–5
 - nationality jurisdiction (Article 4(2))
 - see* jurisdiction
 - Official Commentary on, 322, 741
 - Recommendation 2009, 323
 - review procedure (Article 4(4)), 346
 - territorial jurisdiction (Article 4(1))
 - see also* jurisdiction
 - text of, 590, 732
- Article 5 of OECD Convention (Enforcement)
 - chapter contents, 350–1
 - introduction to, 351–4
 - Official Commentary on, 349, 741–2
 - Recommendation 2009, 350
 - Recommendation 2009, Annex I, 756–7
 - Revised Recommendation 1997, 349–50
 - text of, 349, 732
 - see also* enforcement
- Article 6 of OECD Convention (Statute of Limitations)
 - chapter contents, 397–8
 - comparative analysis as to application, 411–20
 - introduction to, 398–9
 - text of, 397, 733
 - see also* limitation periods
- Article 7 of OECD Convention (Money Laundering)
 - chapter contents, 423
 - introduction to, 423–5

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

INDEX

821

- Official Commentary on, 422, 742
- Recommendation 2009, 422
- text of, 422, 733
- see also* money laundering
- Article 8 of OECD Convention (Accounting)
 - chapter contents, 454–5
 - external audit, 471–80
 - internal company controls, 465–71
 - introduction to, 455
 - legal framework, 456–65
 - Official Commentary on, 447, 742
 - Recommendation 2009, 448–50
 - Recommendation 2009, Annex II, 450–4
 - small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), 480–4
 - text of, 812, 733
 - see also* accounting
- Article 9 of OECD Convention (Mutual Legal Assistance)
 - issues not addressed by, 524–31
 - mutual legal assistance standard, 511–18
 - Official Commentary on, 486–7, 742–3
 - overview of, 509–11
 - text of, 486, 733–4
 - see also* mutual legal assistance
- Article 10 of OECD Convention (Extradition)
 - extradition standard, 518–22
 - Official Commentary on, 488, 743
 - overview of, 509–11
 - text of, 487, 734
 - see also* extradition
- Article 11 of OECD Convention (Responsible Authorities)
 - overview of, 509–11
 - Recommendation 2009, 488–9
 - text of, 488, 734
 - see also* responsible authorities
- Article 12 of OECD Convention (Monitoring and Follow-up)
 - chapter contents, 536–8
 - Official Commentary on, 534–5, 743–4
 - Phase 3, 568–75
 - Phases 1 and 2, 545–63
 - post-Phase 2, 563–8
 - Recommendation 2009, 535–6
 - text of, 534, 734–5
 - see also* monitoring and follow-up
- Article 13 of OECD Convention (Signature and Accession)
 - chapter contents, 579–80
 - Official Commentary on, 577–8, 744
 - rules of, 580–5
 - text of, 577, 735
 - see also* signature and accession
- Article 14 of OECD Convention (Ratification and Depositary)
 - chapter contents, 579–80
 - rule of, 589–90
 - text of, 578–9, 735
 - see also* Depositary; ratification
- Article 15 of OECD Convention (Entry into Force)
 - chapter contents, 579–80
 - text of, 578–9, 735–6
 - see also* entry into force
- Article 16 of OECD Convention (Amendment)
 - chapter contents, 579–80
 - text of, 579, 736
 - see also* amendment
- Article 17 of OECD Convention (Withdrawal)
 - chapter contents, 579–80
 - rule of, 606–7
 - text of, 579, 736
 - see also* withdrawal
- attempted bribery
 - completed crime distinguished, 205–6
 - harmonisation of rules for transnational and domestic bribery, 203–4
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared, 204–6
 - preparatory acts distinguished, 204–5
 - territoriality, 335
- audit committees' role in internal investigations, 666

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

822

INDEX

- auditors see external audit under
 - accounting
- aut dedere aut prosequi*, extradition in relation to, 519–21
- authorised payments see legal permission for payment
- awareness-raising as to bribery, small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), 482–3
- bank secrecy and mutual legal assistance in relation, 516–18
- bilateral aid procurement, Recommendation 1996, 768–9
- breach of official duties
 - exception for small facilitation payments, 171–3, 178–83
 - general limitation on, 169–71
 - limitations on, 169
 - mens rea see mens rea*
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared
 - broad concepts without provision for exceptions, 183–6
 - domestic law concepts of breach of duties, 176–8
 - exception for small facilitation payments, 178–83
 - no limitation of sphere of public official's competence, 173–6
 - wide definition of official action, 178–83
 - taking advantage of public function, 168–9
- bribery
 - active see active bribery
 - agreement see bribery agreement
 - any person capable of, 72–4
 - attempted see attempted bribery
 - beneficiaries of, 121–7
 - breach of official duties see breach of official duties
 - business objectives see improper advantage
 - complicity
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared, 200–3
 - OECD Convention framework, 199–200
 - consideration for, 168
 - conspiracy see conspiracy
 - criminalisation of, 747–8
 - definition of
 - alignment with Article 1(4) of OECD Convention, 101–8
 - EU law in relation, 114–15
 - extension to persons on fringe or threshold of public office, 121
 - foreign law as basis, 120–1
 - functional equivalence in relation, 39
 - in general or non-specific language, 115–20
 - non-alignment with OECD Convention, 108–14
 - OECD Convention and national definitions compared, 101–21
 - harmonisation of laws
 - see* harmonisation of bribery laws
 - improper advantage see improper advantage
 - indirect see indirect bribery
 - intention see mens rea
 - money laundering in relation
 - see* money laundering
 - objectives for business see improper advantage
 - offender defined, 72–4
 - prosecution for see prosecution
 - recipients see foreign public officials
 - reporting, 748–9
 - third party beneficiaries see third parties
 - victims of see victims of bribery
- bribery agreement
 - aim of, 136–7
 - completion of, 137–8
 - completion point of, 141
 - later payments, 138–9
 - limits of criminal defences, 139–40
 - negotiation stage, 137
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared
 - broadening of offence, 143

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

INDEX

823

- defences or excuses unforeseen by Convention, 146–8
- explicit reference to all phases of the crime, 141–3
- limiting of scope of offence, 144–6
- bribes
 - actus reus*, 136–48
 - confiscation see confiscation
 - giving of, 137–8
 - intention to offer see mens rea
 - later payments of, 138–9
 - legal permission for payment
 - factual determination of, 131
 - level of authority required for, 131–2
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared, 132–6
 - scope of, 132
 - non-monetary advantages from, 128–9
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared, 129–31
 - offer of, 137
 - promise of, 137
 - undue advantages from, 128–36
- business obtained or retained through bribery see improper advantage
- civil sanctions see sanctions
- civil society role in Phase 2 evaluation and monitoring, 560–2
- ‘collective unilateralism’ approach
 - against corruption, 30–6
- Commentaries see Official Commentaries of the OECD Convention
- communications between responsible authorities as to extradition, 522
- compliance
 - due diligence, 649–50
 - employees, 626–7
 - internal investigations, 668–9
 - M&A transactions, 651–3
 - post-acquisition integration, 650–1
- programmes
 - benefits of, 713–14
 - features of, 714–17
- Recommendation 2009, 749–51, 758–61
- risk mitigation, 651
- sanctions in relation, 292–3
- successor liability see successor liability
- third parties, 627–34
- vicarious liability see vicarious liability
- complicity
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared, 200–3
 - OECD Convention framework, 199–200
- confiscation
 - of bribes, 311–12
 - functional equivalence in relation, 40
 - international co-operation
 - disposal of confiscated assets, 318–19
 - forfeiture and confiscation upon request, 318
 - obligation of, 317–18
 - limits and exceptions, 314
 - ‘monetary sanctions of comparable effect’, 319
 - mutual legal assistance, 525–8
 - objective of, 310–11
 - practice of, 316–17
 - procedural issues, 309–10
 - of proceeds of bribe, 312–14
 - requirements for, 310–14
 - substituted assets, 315
 - terminology, 309
 - third party, 315–16
 - see also* Article 3(3) of OECD Convention (Seizure and Confiscation)
- consideration for bribe see breach of official duties
- conspiracy
 - harmonisation of international and national rules, 206–7
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared, 207–9
 - territoriality, 335

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

824

INDEX

- Convention on Fighting Bribery of Foreign Public Officials in International Business Transactions (OECD Convention)
 - accession see signature and accession
 - amendment see amendment
 - definition of corruption, 31–4
 - Depositary see Depositary
 - entry into force see entry into force
 - geographic reach, 34–5
 - implementation, 22
 - implementing legislation,
 - requirement for, 36
 - modification among limited
 - number of state Parties, 603–4
 - national laws compared, see specific topics
 - non-criminal provisions, 35
 - non-members see non-members
 - Official Commentaries see Official Commentaries of the OECD Convention
 - Preamble
 - see also* Preamble to OECD Convention
 - ratification see ratification
 - Recommendation 2009 in relation, 35
 - reservations see reservations
 - review of see Recommendation 2009
 - signature see signature and accession
 - text of, 730–6
 - VCLT in relation see Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties
 - withdrawal see withdrawal
 - see also specific Articles and specific topics*
- co-operation see mutual legal assistance
- corporate counsels' duty of disclosure, 667–8
- corporate governance see internal investigations
- corporate liability
 - act within the scope of corporate duties, 230
 - bribery through intermediaries and subsidiaries, 231–3
 - business entities, 226–7
 - connection between act and company interest, 229
 - criminal liability
 - identification theory (alter ego), 219–21
 - imputation theories, 218
 - objective theories, 222–3
 - specification of crimes covered, 228–9
 - theoretical approaches to, 218
 - vicarious liability (respondeat superior), 219
 - functional equivalence in relation, 39–40
 - implementation of Article 2 of OECD Convention, 245–6
 - legal entities covered by, 226–8
 - legal persons, 226–7
 - level of person engaging, 230–1
 - models of, 218
 - money laundering, 441
 - natural persons not excluded, 233
 - non-criminal, 223–4
 - parent-subsidiary liability see parent-subsidiary liability
 - public entities, 227–8
 - Recommendation 2009, 224–6
 - sanctions see sanctions
 - significance for combating bribery, 215–18
 - standard of, 234–5
 - standards setting issues, 226
 - substantive liability issues, 228–35
 - successor liability see successor liability
 - vicarious liability see vicarious liability, Article 2 of OECD Convention, criminal responsibility
- corporations
 - accounting see accounting
 - agents of see agents
 - compliance programmes
 - benefits of, 713–14
 - features of, 714–17

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

INDEX

825

- government investigations
 - see* government investigations
- groups see parent–subsidiary liability
- improper advantage from bribery
 - see* improper advantage
- internal controls, ethics and compliance, 749–51
- OECD Convention focus on
 - international business, 31
- public enterprises, exercise of public function within, 80–6
- responsibilities of, 50–2
- small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), accounting
 - see* accounting
- subsidiaries see parent–subsidiary liability
- corruption
 - ‘collective unilateralism’ approach against, 30–6
 - definition of, 31–4
 - ordinary and serious corruption distinguished, 297–8
 - rationale for combating, 8–10
 - regional Conventions against, mutual legal assistance provisions, 498
 - ‘supply side’ approach against, 30–1
- Council of Europe, mutual legal assistance, 494–5, 497–8
- criminal defences, limits of, 139–40
- criminal prosecution see prosecution
- criminal responsibility
 - attempted bribery
 - completed crime distinguished, 205–6
 - harmonisation of rules for transnational and domestic bribery, 203–4
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared, 204–6
 - preparatory acts distinguished, 204–5
- bribery as criminal offence, 39
- complicity
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared, 200–3
 - OECD Convention framework, 199–200
- conspiracy
 - harmonisation of international and national rules, 206–7
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared, 207–9
- corporate see corporate liability
- extension to existing criminal justice system, 198
- indirect bribery
 - see also* indirect bribery, corporate liability
- Crown Dependencies (UK) and jurisdiction, 331
- custodial sanctions, diversity in national laws, 280–4
- defences
 - FCPA, 702–6
 - limits of criminal defences, 139–40
 - unforeseen by Convention, 146–8
- deferred prosecution agreements (DPAs), 673–7
- Denmark, jurisdiction as to dependent territories, 330
- dependent territories and jurisdiction, 330–2
- Depositary
 - OECD Secretariat as, 592–4
 - rule of Article 14 of OECD Convention, 589–90
 - see also* Article 14 of OECD Convention
- deprivation of liberty to enable effective mutual legal assistance and extradition, 276–7
- deterrence through sanctions
 - see* sanctions
- disciplinary measures in internal investigations, 664–5
- disclosure
 - confidentiality balanced with, 559–60
 - corporate counsels’ duty of, 667–8
 - internal investigations, 663–4, 668–9
 - Voluntary Disclosure Program (US) (VDP), 10, 241–2

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

826

INDEX

- Dodd-Frank Act (US) see internal investigations
- dolus eventualis* and mens rea in relation, 193–5
- drafting of OECD Bribery Convention, history of, 18–20
- ‘dual criminality’
 - extradition, 521–2
 - mutual legal assistance, 502–3, 515–16
 - nationality jurisdiction, 341–2
 - territoriality, 335
- duties of officials, breach of see breach of official duties
- effectiveness
 - proportionality distinguished, 295–7
 - sanctions see sanctions
- effects doctrine of territoriality, 334–5
- employee vicarious liability see vicarious liability
- enforcement
 - Article 5 of OECD Convention overviewed, 351–4
 - enhanced emphasis on, 541–3
 - FCPA principles, 712
 - increase in enforcement activity, 24–5
 - Revised recommendation 1997, 780–1
 - see also* compliance, prosecution
- enterprises see corporations; public enterprises
- entry into force
 - alternative method, 597–8
 - history of, 18–20
 - preferred method, 595–7
 - scenarios for, 595
 - see also* Article 15 of OECD Convention; ratification
- ethics, Recommendation 2009, 749–51
- European Union (EU)
 - bribery definition, OECD Convention compared, 114–15
 - mutual legal assistance, 495–7
 - sanctions standard
 - basic approach, 261–3
 - broader concept of ‘effectiveness’, 264
 - developments as to, 264–6
 - impact on national sanctions, 268–9
 - relevance to OECD Convention, 260–1
 - sanctions against legal persons, 266–8
- evaluation
 - finalisation of report, 45–6
 - hearings, 45–6
 - preparatory stage, 44
 - publication of final report, 46
 - WGB procedures, 44–6
- evidence-gathering
 - in internal investigations, 660
 - by prosecutors, 372–3
- excluded offences, mutual legal assistance, 505–7
- excuses see defences
- export credits
 - Recommendation 2006, 765–7
 - Recommendation 2009, 752
- exports by OECD members (Table), 737
- external audit see accounting
- extra-territoriality and jurisdiction, 325–8
- extradition
 - aut dedere aut prosecute*, 519–21
 - defined, 492
 - deprivation of liberty to enable, 276–7
 - dual criminality requirement, 521–2
 - legal basis for, 518–19
 - see also* Article 10 of OECD Convention
- facilitation payments
 - exception for, 171–3, 178–83
 - OECD approach to, 34
- financial operators and money
 - laundering see money laundering
- follow-up see monitoring and follow-up
- Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (US) (FCPA)
 - accounting provisions

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

INDEX

827

- conduct covered by, 709
 - persons subject to, 709–11
 - summarised, 708
- adaption of OECD standards, 24
- anti-bribery provisions summarised, 686
- 'business purpose test', 691–3
- co-operation, 712–13
- corporate compliance programmes, 713–17
- corporate internal investigations
 - see* internal investigations
- corporate liability principles, 698
- defences, 702–6
- enactment, 10
- enforcement principles, 712
- exceptions, 702–6
- Guide to, 686, 723
- improper benefit, scope of, 693–5
- internationalisation of, 11–12
- introduction to, 685–6
- parent-subsidiary liability, 698–9
- persons subject to
 - accounting provisions, 709–11
 - anti-bribery provisions, 686–91
- private sector opposition to, 12
- prohibited payees, 695–7
- reformulation, 12–13
- remedial efforts, 712–13
- self-reporting, 712–13
- settlements
 - monitoring, 720–3
 - types of, 717–20
- statute of limitations, 706–8
- successor liability see successor liability
- foreign countries, sovereign authority of, 91–2
- foreign law as basis of national
 - definitions of bribery, 120–1
- foreign public officials
 - autonomous definition, 74–6
 - breach of duties by see breach of official duties
 - definition structure and principles, 76–7
 - exercise of sovereign authority see sovereign authority
- false motives relating to third parties, 121–2
- functional classification, 77–89
- institutional classification, 89–91
- mens rea see mens rea*
- OECD approach compared with
 - other international bodies, 33–4
- public function defined see public function
- foreign relations and bribery
 - prosecution, 382–3
- foreign subsidiaries and affiliates,
 - internal investigations, 658
- forfeiture see confiscation
- France, jurisdiction as to dependent territories, 330
- functional equivalence
 - concept of, 37–8
 - emerging consensus as to, 40
 - examples of, 38–40
 - see also specific Articles and topics*
- Germany, enforcement activities, 25
- Good Practice Guidance
 - see* Recommendation 2009
- government investigations
 - carrying out of, 671–2
 - deferred prosecution agreements (DPAs), 673–7
 - non-prosecution agreements (NPAs), 673–7
- resolution stage
 - conduct charged, 677–8
 - form of, 673–7
 - nature of charges, 678–9
 - negotiation, 672–3
 - parties charged, 677
 - penalties, 679
- government, sovereign authority of
 - levels and subdivisions of, 96
- groups of companies
 - see* parent-subsidiary liability
- harmonisation of bribery laws
 - attempted bribery, 203–4
 - conspiracy, 206–7
 - sanctions see sanctions
- hearings, evaluation, 45–6

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

828

INDEX

- improper advantage
 - defined, 187–8, 693–5
 - limitations on, 186–7
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared
 - extension of Convention rules
 - beyond business activities, 188
 - improper nature of advantage, 192–3
 - limitation to transnational business, 188–90
 - ‘obtaining or retaining business’ concept of FCPA, 190–1
 - undue advantages from bribes, 128–36
- independent agents see agents
- independent investigators’ role in
 - internal investigations, 666–7
- indirect bribery
 - agents, 153–9
 - basis of criminal responsibility, 150–3
 - extension of responsibility, 148–9
 - liability for third party action, 150–3
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared, 165–7
 - parent–subsidiary liability, 159–65
- intention to offer bribe see mens rea
- internal investigations
 - accounting issues, 661
 - audit committees’ role, 666
 - commencement of investigation, 657–8
 - corporate counsels’ duty of disclosure, 667–8
 - corporate governance
 - audit committees’ role, 666
 - compliance and disclosure issues, 668–9
 - corporate counsels’ duty of disclosure, 667–8
 - impact on investigations, 665
 - independent investigators, 666–7
 - other relevant reforms, 671
 - reforms, 665–6
 - whistleblower incentives and protections, 669–71
 - decision to investigate, 657
 - demand side considerations, 659
 - disciplinary measures, 664–5
 - disclosure issues, 663–4
 - features in general, 656–7
 - foreign evidence-gathering, 660
 - foreign subsidiaries and affiliates, 658
 - government investigations in relation, 671–2
 - independent investigators, 666–7
 - intermediaries and other third parties, 659
 - legal privileges, 659–60
 - local law issues, 660–1
 - local political, business and security situation, 661
 - local proceedings, 662
 - new issues arising during, 662–3
 - proliferation of players involved in, 662
 - public relations, 661
 - remediation, 665
 - whistleblower incentives and protections, 669–71
- international business
 - improper advantage from bribery
 - see* improper advantage
 - OECD Convention focus on, 31
 - see also* corporations
- international co-operation see mutual legal assistance
- international organisations
 - co-operation with, 754
 - sovereign authority, 96–9
- interpretative notes, agreement on, 604
- investigation see government investigations; internal investigations; prosecution
- Israel, jurisdiction as to Palestinian Authority, 332–3
- Japan, territoriality and ‘main office exception’, 336
- judicial co-operation see mutual legal assistance
- jurisdiction
 - consultation procedure (Article 4(3)), 344–5
 - dependent territories, 330–2
 - extra-territoriality, 325–8
 - internationally non-recognised territories, 332

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

INDEX

829

- Israel and Palestinian Authority, 332
- multiple jurisdictions in relation to
 - prosecution, 393–4, 679–81
- nationality jurisdiction (Article 4(2))
 - additional requirements, 341
 - application to corporate entities, 343–4
 - complaint by victim, requirement for, 342–3
 - ‘dual criminality’, 341–2
 - mandatory, 339–41
 - presence of accused, requirement for, 343
 - rationale for, 338–9
 - senior law officer’s assent to prosecute, requirement for, 342–3
- OECD Convention negotiations as to, 328–9
- principles of, 324–8
- review procedure (Article 4(4)), 346
- sovereignty, 324–5
- territorial basis for
 - aiding or abetting, 335
 - attempted bribery, 335
 - broad interpretation of, 333
 - connection with acts or omissions, 333–4
 - conspiracy, 335
 - ‘dual criminality’, 335
 - effects doctrine, 334–5
 - engagement of, 333
 - extended territoriality, 336–7
 - Japanese ‘main office exception’, 336
 - money laundering, 335
 - preparatory acts, 335
 - US ‘inter-state nexus’, 335–6
- territorial jurisdiction (Article 4(1)), 329
- territoriality, 324–5
- territory defined, 329–30
- see also* Article 4 of OECD Convention
- later payments of bribes, 138–9
- legal permission for payment
 - factual determination of, 131
 - level of authority required for, 131–2
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared, 132–6
 - scope of, 132
- legal privilege in internal investigations, 659–60
- liability see corporate liability
- limitation periods
 - absolute, 408
 - adequacy of national laws, 413–17
 - coherence of national laws, 417–19
 - comparative analysis of application of Article 6 of OECD Convention, 411–13
- different periods for natural and legal persons, 408
- duration of, 410–11
- extension of, 408–10, 419
- FCPA, 706–8
- general features of national laws, 402–11
- harmonisation of laws, 399–402
- interruption of, 408–10, 419
- introduction to Article 6 of OECD Convention, 398–9
- limitation at different stages of criminal procedure, 406–7
- models of, 399–411
- mutual legal assistance, 507
- need for, 402–5
- as obstacle to prosecution, 420
- relative, 408
- special period for aggravated bribery, 408
- special period for bribery and other economic offences, 405–6
- suspension of, 408–10, 419
- types of, 406–8
- see also* Article 6 of OECD Convention
- local issues as to internal investigations
 - see* internal investigations
- membership see ratification; signature and accession; withdrawal
- mens rea*
 - defined, 195
- dolus eventualis*, 193–5

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

830

INDEX

- mens rea* (cont.)
 establishment of, 195–7
 as factor in differentiating offences, 197
 OECD Convention and national rules compared, 195–8
 as to specific public official, 197–8 monetary sanctions, diversity in national laws, 284–5
 money laundering
 bribery in relation bribery as predicate offence, 436–7 laundering of bribe, 437–8 laundering of proceeds of bribery, 438–9
 predicate offence committed abroad, 440
 proof of provenance from crime, 439 self-laundering, 439–40 client monitoring obligations of financial operators, 443
 corporate liability, 441
 creation of ‘slush funds’, 426–7 criminal law standard of Article 7 of OECD Convention, 435–41
 customer identification obligations of financial operators, 442–3
 defined, 435
 implementation of laws, standard of,
 444 international instruments against broadening of scope of, 430–1 geographic spreading of, 431 new paradigm for, 429–30 private sector involvement, 434 redefinitional attempts in drafting of, 431–3
 relation between money laundering and corruption, 435 ‘risk-based approach’, 433–4 money flows related to corruption, 425–6
 notification systems, 443 objective elements of offence, 436–40 obligations of financial operators, 442–3
 regulatory standard as to, 441–3 structures for, 427–9 subjective elements of offence, 441
 territoriality, 335
see also Article 7 of OECD
 Convention
 monitoring and follow-up analytical approach to, 543 critique of, 48–50
 emerging consensus as to, 40
 enhanced emphasis on enforcement, 541–3
 legal basis for, 41
 mechanisms for, 42
 peer review (assessment), 40–1 permanent character of, 541 procedures for, 538–40
 Recommendation 2009, 5–6, 540–3, 752–3
 sanctions, 278–9
Tour de Table see Tour de Table
see also Article 12 of OECD
 Convention; Phase 1 evaluation and monitoring; Phase 2 evaluation and monitoring;
 Phase 3 evaluation and monitoring
 multinational corporations
 OECD Guidelines
 commentary, 771–3
 text, 770–1
 see also parent–subsidiary liability multiple jurisdictions see jurisdiction multiple prosecutions, mutual legal assistance, 528–9
 mutual legal assistance
 Articles 5 and 6 ECHR, 508–9 background to, 490–1 bank secrecy, 516–18 bilateral approach, 498–500 challenges for, 25–6
 chapter contents, 489–90, 493
 co-operation with non-members, 754 confiscation see confiscation
 confiscation issues, 525–8
 Council of Europe, 494–5, 497–8
 defined, 491–2
 deprivation of liberty to enable,
 276–7

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

INDEX

831

- dual criminality requirement, 502–3, 515–16
- European Union, 495–7
- excluded offences, 505–6
- excluded offenders, 506–7
- international instruments for, 493–501
- introduction to, 490–3
- legal framework, 493–500
- minimum procedural standards, 508–9
- multiple prosecutions issue, 528–9
- national legislation, 500
- ne bis in idem*, 507–8
- OECD Convention and other treaty rules compared, 522–4
- OECD Convention's impact summarised, 529–31
- pacta sunt servanda*, 501
- principles of, 501–5
- reciprocity rule, 504–5
- Recommendation 2009, 323, 498, 752
- regional approach to, 494–8
- regional Conventions against corruption, 498
- resources and tools, 500–1
- scope of, 511–15
- speciality principle, 504
- standards for, 501–9
- statute of limitations, 507
- universal approach to, 493–4
- by 'victim' states, 524–5
- see also* Article 9 of OECD Convention; extradition
- national economic interest and bribery prosecution see prosecution
- national laws
 - bribery definition
 - alignment with Article 1(4) of OECD Convention, 101–8
 - EU law in relation, 114–15
 - extension to persons on fringe or threshold of public office, 121
 - foreign law as basis, 120–1
 - in general or non-specific language, 115–20
 - non-alignment with OECD Convention, 108–14
 - OECD Convention compared, 101–21
 - OECD Convention compared see specific topics
 - third party beneficiaries of bribery see third parties
 - national legal principles and WGB methodology in relation, 36–7
 - national legal systems, integration as example of functional equivalence, 38–9
 - national security and bribery prosecution, 385–9
 - nationality jurisdiction see jurisdiction
 - ne bis in idem*, mutual legal assistance in relation, 507–8
 - Netherlands, jurisdiction as to dependent territories, 330–1
 - non-governmental organisations (NGOs)
 - Recommendation 2009, 754
 - role in Phase 2 evaluation and monitoring, 560–2
 - sovereign authority, 99–101
 - non-members, co-operation with, 323
 - non-prosecution agreements (NPAs), 673–7
 - non-recognised territories, jurisdiction as to, 332
- OECD Convention see Convention on Fighting Bribery of Foreign Public Officials in International Business Transactions
- offender defined, 72–4
- Official Commentaries of the OECD Convention
 - formulation of, 36
 - general remarks, 738
 - on specific Articles see specific Articles
 - text of, 738–44
- official duties, breach of see breach of official duties
- officials see foreign public officials; public officials

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

832

INDEX

- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)
 - accession to, 28
 - active bribery approach compared with other international bodies, 31–3
 - anti-corruption focus, 28–30
 - anti-corruption initiatives, 14–30
 - anti-corruption instruments
 - see* Convention on Fighting Bribery of Foreign Public Officials in International Business Transactions; Recommendation 2009
 - bribery issue in work programme of, 13–14
 - early initiatives against corruption, 14–16
 - state Parties' exports (Table), 737
 - Recommendation 2009
 - see* Recommendation 2009
 - Recommendation of 1994, 16–17
 - Revised Recommendation of 1997, 17–18
 - Secretariat as Depositary, 592–4
 - US request to initiate new anti-bribery instrument, 12–13
 - WGB see Working Group on Bribery in International Business Transactions, Convention on Fighting Bribery of Foreign Public Officials in International Business Transactions
- 'organised areas or entities', sovereign authority, 93–6
- Overseas Territories (UK) and jurisdiction, 331–2
- pacta sunt servanda*, mutual legal assistance in relation, 501
- Palestinian Authority, Israeli jurisdiction as to, 332–3
- parent–subsidiary liability
 - compliance issues, 639–40
 - indirect bribery, 159–65
 - parent liability for actions of subsidiaries, 637–9
 - scope for, 634–5
 - subsidiary liability, 635–7
- passive bribery penalties compared with active bribery, 298–300
- payments, whether legal
 - factual determination of, 131
 - level of authority required for, 131–2
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared, 132–6
 - scope of statutory permission, 132
- Pfizer HCP, successor liability case study, 653–5
- Phase 1 evaluation and monitoring
 - operation of, 545–6
 - Phase 1bis procedure, 43, 549–50
 - Phase 1ter procedure, 549–50
 - preliminary report, 547
 - questionnaire, 546–7
 - results of, 42–3, 548–9
 - WGB evaluation procedures, 44–6, 547–8
- Phase 2 evaluation and monitoring
 - balance between disclosure and confidentiality, 559–60
 - break-away sessions, 557–8
 - civil society participation, 560–2
 - consultation preparations, 557
 - effectiveness of, 558–9
 - fair and equitable treatment, 562–3
 - follow-up
 - discontinuance of BAE Systems investigation, 566–7
 - enhancement of provisions for, 564
 - extraordinary measures, 47–8, 565–7
 - general principle as to inadequate implementation, 565
 - 'horizontal issues', 567–8
 - need for, 46–7
 - operation of, 563
 - oral report, 564
 - ordinary, 47, 564–5
 - written report, 564–5
 - on-site visits, procedure
 - before, 560
 - during, 1, 553–5, 560–1
 - following, 561

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

INDEX

833

- operation of, 550–1
- Phase 2bis procedure, 47–8
- procedure, 43–4
- report
 - adoption of, 558
 - consideration of, 557
 - follow-up see follow-up above
 - preliminary report, 555–6
- standard questionnaire, 551–2
- supplementary questionnaire, 552
- Transparency International (TI), role
 - of, 561–2
- WGB evaluation procedures, 44–6, 556–8
- Phase 3 evaluation and monitoring
 - adoption of report, 570
 - adoption of, 28
 - elements of, 568–72
 - follow-up
 - extraordinary measures, 47–8
 - need for, 46–7
 - ordinary, 47
 - follow-up reports, 570–1
 - issues arising from, 573–4
 - on-site visits, 569–70
 - Phase 3bis procedure, 47–8, 571–2
 - preliminary report, 570
 - procedure, 44
 - process evaluated, 572–3
 - progress of, 572
 - proposals for further monitoring, 574–5
 - questionnaire, 569
 - rationale for, 568
 - sanctions, 285–8
 - WGB evaluation procedures, 44–6, 570
- plea bargaining as to bribery charges, 369–71
- political influences on prosecution
 - systems see prosecution
- Preamble to OECD Convention
 - Official Commentary on, 4
 - text of, 3–4, 730
- preparatory acts
 - attempted bribery distinguished, 204–5
 - territoriality, 335
- private prosecutions by victims, 391–3
- proportionality and effectiveness
 - distinguished, 295–7
- prosecution
 - application of similar criteria, 354–6
 - charging and plea bargaining, 369–71
 - decision to investigate/prosecute, 354–60
 - deferred prosecution agreements (DPAs), 673–7
 - discretion as to sanctions, 244
 - duty to follow up allegations, 361–3
 - effectiveness of national systems, 389–90
 - evidence-gathering, 372–3
 - foreign relations issues, 382–3
 - guidelines for prosecutors, 360–1
 - independence as to importance of
 - persons involved, 383–4
 - limitation periods as obstacle to, 420
 - multiple jurisdictions, 393–4
 - mutual legal assistance as to multiple
 - prosecutions, 528–9
 - national defence exception, 385–6
 - national economic interest in
 - relation
 - Article 5 of OECD Convention
 - generally, 378–9
 - definitional issues, 379–82
 - national security issues, 385–9
 - non-prosecution agreements (NPAs), 673–7
 - organisation of, 389–94
 - plea bargaining, 369–71
 - policy priorities, 377–8
 - political blocks to, 373–7
 - political independence
 - exclusion of state interference, 378–89
 - general duties of state Parties, 373–8
 - political influences on prosecution
 - systems
 - external, 373–7
 - internal, 377
 - presence of accused, requirement for, 343

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

834

INDEX

- prosecution (cont.)
 - private action, 391–3
 - prosecutorial discretion, 356–8
 - prosecutorial independence, 358–60
 - resources available for, 390–1
 - senior law officer's assent,
 - requirement for, 342–3
 - 'serious' offences, 368–9
 - state necessity exception, 387–9
 - threshold for commencing
 - investigations, 363–5
 - threshold for prosecution, 365–8
 - victim's role, 391–3
- Protocol, negotiation of, 602–3
- public advantages and public
 - procurement, 751
- public agency, exercise of public
 - function within, 79–80
- public enterprises, exercise of public
 - function within, 80–6
- public function
 - de facto* exercise, 86–9
 - definition, 77–9
 - exercise within public agency, 79–80
 - exercise within public enterprise,
 - 80–6
 - taking advantage of see breach of
 - official duties
- public office, bribery by persons on
 - fringe or threshold of, 121
- public officials
 - OECD Convention focus on, 33
 - see also* foreign public officials
- public procurement and public
 - advantages, 751
- public relations as to internal
 - investigations, 661
- ratification
 - facilitation for large countries to
 - ratify first, 595–7
 - implementing legislation in relation
 - to, 594–5
 - maintenance of political momentum
 - for, 597
 - progress of, 22
 - rule of Article 14 of OECD
 - Convention, 589–90
 - status (table), 22
 - see also* Article 14 of OECD
 - Convention, entry into force
- reciprocity rule as to mutual legal
 - assistance, 504–5
- Recommendation 2009
 - criminalisation of bribery, 62–3, 747–8
 - drafting of, 26–8
 - general provisions, 4–5, 62, 746–7
 - Good Practice Guidance
 - implementing specific Articles of
 - OECD Convention, 755–7
 - responsibility for bribery through
 - intermediaries, 756
 - Preamble to, 745–6
 - specific provisions of OECD
 - Convention see specific Articles and topics
 - text of, 745–54
- remediation following internal
 - investigations, 665
- reporting
 - finalisation of evaluation report,
 - 45–6
 - publication of evaluation final report,
 - 46
- reservations
 - compatibility with OECD
 - Convention, 592
 - OECD Convention provision as to,
 - 591–2
 - VCLT provisions as to, 590–1
- responsible authorities
 - communications between, 522
 - see also* Article 11 of OECD
 - Convention
- Revised Recommendation 1997
 - accounting
 - connected provisions as to, 781
 - requirements, 776–7
 - ancillary elements or offences
 - applicable to bribery, 780
 - co-operation with non-members,
 - 779
 - criminalisation of bribery, 775
 - defences, 780
 - elements of offence of active bribery,
 - 779

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

INDEX

835

- enforcement, 780–1
- external audit, 776–7
- general remarks, 775
- internal company controls, 776–7
- international co-operation, 777–8, 781
- jurisdiction, 780
- money laundering, 781
- monitoring and follow-up, 778–9
- NGOs, 779
- Preamble to, 774–5
- public procurement, 777
- relations with international
 - governmental and non-governmental organisations, 779
- sanctions, 780
- tax deductibility of bribes, 776
- text of, 774–81
- revision of existing OECD Acts, 604–5
- sanctions
 - accounting, 460–5
 - administrative
 - accounting, 464–5
 - additional corporate sanctions, 238
 - diversity in national laws, 288–9
 - civil
 - accounting, 463–4
 - additional corporate sanctions, 238
 - diversity in national laws, 288–9
 - consideration of economic effect on company, 240–1
 - corporate, 235–6
 - corporate culpability, 239–40
 - crime-related factors, 239
 - criminal, 237–8
 - accounting, 462–3
 - custodial, diversity in national laws, 280–4
 - deprivation of liberty, 276–7
 - ‘effective, proportionate and dissuasive’ standard
 - achievement through monitoring, 278–9
 - comparable penalties for active and passive bribery, 298–300
 - deployment of full range of sanctions, 301–2
 - deterrence and US corporate compliance, 292–3
 - deterrence and US criminal sanctions, 290–1
 - deterrence as objective, 289–90
 - effectiveness as key test, 279–80
 - EU law in relation see European Union
 - impact of, 289–95
 - ordinary and serious corruption distinguished, 297–8
 - origin of, 259–69
 - pre-Convention discussions, 259–60
 - proportionality and effectiveness distinguished, 295–7
 - proportionate limitation of sanctions, 300–1
 - relative effectiveness in national laws, 280–9
 - effectiveness assessment, 242–4, 279–80
 - financial, 236
 - functional equivalence, 256–7
 - government investigations, 679
 - harmonisation of OECD Convention with national rules, 271–4
 - with other forms of economic crime, 274–6
 - implementation of Article 3 of OECD Convention, 244–5
 - information sources for monitoring, 257–9
 - international standard, 236
 - interpretation of OECD Convention standard, 270–1
 - leniency for co-operation, 241–2
 - limitation of, 300–1
 - monetary
 - as confiscation equivalent, 319
 - diversity in national laws, 284–5
 - natural persons, 270
 - OECD Convention approach, 270–302
 - parameters for, 271–7
 - parties subject to accounting sanctions, 461–2
 - Phase 3 evaluation and monitoring, 285–8

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

836

INDEX

- sanctions (cont.)
 - principles, 238–9
 - proportionality see ‘effective, proportionate and dissuasive’ standard above
 - prosecutorial discretion, 244
 - repressive measures, effectiveness of, 293–5
 - restitution and rehabilitation, 241
 - successor liability after merger or acquisition, 244–5
 - see also* Article 3 of OECD Convention; confiscation
- Sarbanes-Oxley Act (US) see internal investigations
- Secretariat of OECD as Depositary, 592–4
- Securities and Exchange Commission (US) (SEC)
 - enforcement activities increase, 24–5
 - Voluntary Disclosure Program (VDP), 10, 241–2
- seizure
 - definition of, 308–9
 - see also* confiscation
- senior law officer’s assent to prosecute, requirement for, 342–3
- signature and accession
 - Convention in relation to non-OECD members, 584–5
 - Convention in relation to OECD members, 581
 - by existing OECD members, 582
 - full participation, rules as to, 585–9
 - by future OECD members, 582–4
 - OECD, 28
 - reservations see reservations
 - rules of Article 13 of OECD Convention, 580–5
 - WGB, 28
 - see also* Article 13 of OECD Convention
- ‘slush funds’, creation of, 426–7
- small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) accounting
 - see* accounting
- sovereign authority
 - foreign countries, 91–2
 - government levels and subdivisions of, 96
 - international organisations, 96–9
 - non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 99–101
 - ‘organised areas or entities’, 93–6
 - recognition of statehood, 92–3
 - sovereignty and jurisdiction, 324–5
 - speciality principle as to mutual legal assistance, 504
 - state necessity and bribery prosecution, 387–9
 - statehood and sovereign authority in relation, 92–3
 - statistics on OECD exports (Table), 737
 - statute of limitations see Article 6 of OECD Convention; limitation periods
- subsidiaries
 - foreign subsidiaries and internal investigations, 658
 - liability see parent–subsidiary liability
- substituted assets, confiscation, 315
- successor liability
 - acquired company liability, 643
 - acquirer’s vicarious liability, 643
 - arising from transaction, 642–3
 - case study, 653–5
 - commercial risks, 643
 - compliance issues
 - due diligence, 649–50
 - post-acquisition integration processes, 650–1
 - risk-mitigation tools, 651
 - for transactions, 651–3
 - US practice development, 649
 - concept of, 641–2
- FCPA
 - acquired company liability, 647–8
 - acquirer’s vicarious liability, 647–8
 - bases for enforcement action, 643–4
 - case study, 653–5
 - due diligence, 649–50
 - liability arising from transaction, 646–7
 - post-acquisition integration processes, 650–1

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-03574-4 - The Oecd Convention on Bribery: A Commentary: 2nd Edition

Edited by Mark Pieth, Lucinda A. Low and Nicola Bonucci

Index

More information

INDEX

837

- principles of, 699–702
- risk-mitigation tools, 651
- settlement of actions, 644–6
- for transactions, 651–3
- US practice development, 649
- introduction to, 612–13
- risks of, 640–1
- UK regulation, 648–9
- ‘supply side’ approach against corruption, 30–1
- taxation
 - Recommendation 2009, 762–4
 - tax deductibility of bribes, 748, 782
- territoriality
 - basis for jurisdiction see jurisdiction
 - ubiquity principle, 333–4
- territory
 - defined, 329–30
 - dependent, 330–2
 - non-recognised, 332
- third parties
 - benefiting from bribery
 - absence of explicit national rules, 125–7
 - explicit national rules as to, 124–5
 - false motives of public officials, 121–2
 - OECD Convention and national rules compared, 124–7
 - scope of offence, 122–4
 - confiscation, 315–16
 - indirect bribery see indirect bribery
 - vicarious liability, 627–34
 - see also* agents
- Tour de Table*
 - content of, 544–5
 - format of, 544
 - operation of, 42, 543–4
- transnational anti-bribery (TNB)
 - see* bribery
- Transparency International (TI), role in Phase 2 evaluation and monitoring, 561–2
- ubiquity principle and territoriality, 333–7
- undue advantage see improper advantage
- United Kingdom
 - implementation of OECD Convention, 23–4
 - jurisdiction
 - Crown Dependencies, 331
 - dependent territories, 330–1
 - Overseas Territories, 331–2
- United States
 - corporate internal investigations
 - see* internal investigations
 - Dodd-Frank Act see internal investigations
 - FCPA see Foreign Corrupt Practices Act
 - government investigations
 - see* government investigations
 - implementation of OECD Convention, 24–5
 - initiatives against ‘foreign corrupt practices’, 10–14
 - jurisdiction as to dependent territories, 332
 - rationale for regulatory initiatives, 10–11
 - request to OECD to initiate new anti-bribery instrument, 12–13
 - Sarbanes-Oxley Act see internal investigations
 - SEC see Securities and Exchange Commission
 - territoriality and ‘inter-state nexus’, 335–6
 - Voluntary Disclosure Program (VDP), 10, 241–2
- vicarious liability
 - compliance issues
 - employees, 626–7
 - international guidance and standards generally, 625–6
 - third parties, 627–34
 - employees
 - introduction to, 612–13
 - UK practice, 617–18
 - US practice, 613–16
 - World Bank practice, 618–19
 - issues summarised, 681–2

- vicarious liability (cont.)
 - non-employees
 - FCPA provisions, 619–22
 - German regulation, 623–5
 - UK regulation, 622–3
 - World Bank practice, 625–6
 - ‘victim’ states, mutual legal assistance by, 524–5
- victims of bribery
 - complaints by, 342–3
 - role in prosecutions, 391–3
- Vienna Convention on the Law of
 - Treaties (VCLT)
 - on amendments, 598–9
 - on interpretation of OECD Convention, 604
 - on modification, 603–4
 - on reservations, 590–1
 - whistleblower incentives and protections, 669–71
- withdrawal
 - rule of Article 14 of OECD Convention, 606–7
 - see also* Article 17 of OECD Convention
- Working Group on Bribery in
 - International Business Transactions (OECD) (WGB)
 - accession to, 28
 - enforcement activity by members, 25
 - evaluation procedures, 44–6
 - methodology, 36–41
 - monitoring and follow-up framework, 40–50
 - see also* monitoring and follow-up