Contents

List of Figures .......................... vii
List of Tables ........................... ix
Editors .................................. xi
Contributors ............................ xiii
Preface .................................. xxiii
Acknowledgments ........................ xxvii

Introduction ............................ 1
Daniel Carpenter and David A. Moss

SECTION I: FAILURES OF CAPTURE SCHOLARSHIP .............. 23
1 A Revisionist History of Regulatory Capture ................. 25
   William J. Novak
2 The Concept of Regulatory Capture: A Short, Inglorious History ... 49
   Richard A. Posner
3 Detecting and Measuring Capture ............................ 57
   Daniel Carpenter

SECTION II: NEW CONCEPTIONS OF CAPTURE – MECHANISMS AND OUTCOMES 69
4 Cultural Capture and the Financial Crisis ..................... 71
   James Kwak
5 Complexity, Capacity, and Capture ........................... 99
   Nolan McCarty
6 Preventing Economists’ Capture ............................... 124
   Luigi Zingales
Contents

SECTION III: REGULATORY CASE STUDIES

8 Capturing History: The Case of the Federal Radio Commission in 1927
David A. Moss and Jonathan B. L. Decker

9 Conditional Forbearance as an Alternative to Capture: Evidence From Coal Mine Safety Regulation
Sanford C. Gordon and Catherine Hafer

10 Captured by Disaster? Reinterpreting Regulatory Behavior in the Shadow of the Gulf Oil Spill
Christopher Carrigan

11 Reconsidering Agency Capture During Regulatory Policymaking
Susan Webb Yackee

12 Coalitions, Autonomy, and Regulatory Bargains in Public Health Law
Mariano-Florentino Cuéllar

SECTION IV: THE POSSIBILITY OF PREVENTING CAPTURE

13 Preventing Capture Through Consumer Empowerment Programs: Some Evidence from Insurance Regulation
Daniel Schwarcz

14 Courts and Regulatory Capture
M. Elizabeth Magill

15 Can Executive Review Help Prevent Capture?
Michael A. Livermore and Richard L. Revesz

Conclusion: A Focus on Evidence and Prevention
David A. Moss and Daniel Carpenter

Afterword
Senator Sheldon Whitehouse and Jim Leach

Index