Contents

Contributors  ix
Acknowledgments xvii

Introduction: Marrying Human Rights and Health Care Systems: Contexts for a Power to Improve Access and Equity 1
Colleen M. Flood and Aeyal Gross

PART I: NATIONAL PUBLIC HEALTH SYSTEMS (TAX FINANCED)

1. Litigating a Right to Health Care in New Zealand 19
Joanna Manning

2. The Right to Health in Sweden 51
Anna-Sara Lind

3. Litigating Health Rights in Canada: A White Knight for Equity? 79
Colleen M. Flood

4. Promoting Access and Equity in Health: Assessing the National Health Service in England 107
Christopher Newdick

PART II: SOCIAL HEALTH INSURANCE SYSTEMS

5. Colombia’s Right-to-Health Litigation in a Context of Health Care Reform 131
Everaldo Lamprea
6. The Right to Health in Israel between Solidarity and Neoliberalism
   Aeyal Gross
   André den Exter
8. Addressing Equity in Health Care at the Public-Private Intersection: The Role of Health Rights Enforcement in Hungary
   Mária Éva Földes
9. Lending a Helping Hand: The Impact of Constitutional Interpretation on Taiwan’s National Health Insurance Program, Health Equity, and Distributive Justice
   Y. Y. Brandon Chen

PART III: MIXED PRIVATE/PUBLIC SYSTEMS

10. Health Rights at the Juncture between State and Market: The People’s Republic of China
    Christina S. Ho
11. The Role of Rights and Litigation in Assuring More Equitable Access to Health Care in South Africa
    Lisa Forman and Jerome Amir Singh
    Mariana Mota Prado
    Allison K. Hoffman
14. The Legal Protection and Enforcement of Health Rights in Nigeria
    Remigius N. Nwabueze
15. Litigating the Right to Health in Venezuela: A Nonjusticiable (?) Right in the Context of a Deficient Health Care System
    Oscar A. Cabrera and Fanny Gómez
Contents

16. Right to Health: Addressing Inequities through Litigation in India
    Anand Grover, Maitreyi Misra, and Lubhyathi Rangarajan 423

Conclusion: Contexts for the Promise and Peril of the Right to Health
    Colleen M. Flood and Aeyal Gross 451

Index 481