

INDEX

- access to education
 as agent of European integration, 387–9
- access to justice
 ECJ and ECtHR, 210
- accidents see health and safety
- accountability
 TEU provision, 481–2
- agency work agency authorisation and requirements, 216–17 as demutualising agent, 213–14 employer responsibilities, problem of assignment, 213–15 as employment policy tool, 222–5 and equal treatment principle, 217–19 erosion of workers' rights, 215–16
 health and safety, 219–20
 mutualisation measures, 227 need for resocialisation summarised, 228–9 resocialisation through joint and several liability, 222–5 social protection and, 216–17 workers' collective rights, 221–2
- anti-discrimination critique of EU law, 123–30 effectiveness against social exclusion, 133 enhancement of, 500–1
 expanded scope, 119–23 potential for social transformation, 130–4, 137
 'self-correcting' law, 134–6 and 'Social Europe' generally, 118–19 social exclusion as discrimination, 98 social inclusion in relation, 133
 social protection in relation, 124–5, 130–1
 TEU provision, 119–20
 TFEU provision, 99, 118, 119–20, 255
see also discrimination; equality; non-discrimination
- arbitration compulsory arbitration as to strike action, 402–3
- atypical work see precarious work
- austerity measures alternatives to in response to sovereign debt crisis, 185–8 contradiction to ESC, 354
 curtailment of social and labour standards, 494–5 ESC as protection from, 117 failure, 353–4 increased poverty under, 353 see also sovereign debt crisis
- Australia
 socially sustainable sourcing, 444–5
- Austria
 free movement judgments, 379–80
 neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
- autonomy
 social dialogue in relation see social dialogue

- average workers
 - risk-bearing contrasted with marginal workers, 301–6
- Belgium
 - compatibility of collective labour law regulations with ESC, 406–7
 - free movement judgments, 381–2
 - neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
 - temporary agency work, 237
 - trade union action against austerity measures, 368–70
 - trade union opposition to ‘new economic governance’, 77–8
- Bercusson, Brian
 - on autonomy and European social dialogue, 475–6, 489–90
- Bulgaria
 - non-standard work, 203
- business models
 - communities of work in relation, 27–31
- casual labour see precarious work
- Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU 2000 (CFREU)
 - application ruling by ECJ, 272, 451, 497–8
 - Commission reference to, 422–3, 424
 - compatibility of deregulatory reforms of labour law, 262–74, 285, 289
 - ECHR in relation, 116
 - enactment, 2–3
 - ESC in relation, 116, 117
 - ‘Europe Social Agenda’ in relation, 371–2
 - guidance role, 451
 - ILO conventions in relation, 87–8, 89, 211
 - invocation, 100–1
 - limitation of applicability, 265–6
 - solidarity principle, 366–8
 - transformative potential, 496–7
 - Treaty power in relation, 79, 99–100
 - undermining of, 494–5
 - values affirmed by, 74
- Charter of Social Rights see European Social Charter 1996 (ESC)
- child poverty
 - eradication, 145
- China
 - politics and economics in relation, 33–4
 - work-related stress, 23–4
- citizenship
 - application of real link doctrine, 382–4
- civil liability
 - during strikes, 409–11
- class inequality
 - indicators by country (table), 51–2
 - variables by country (table), 51–2
- collective action see strikes
- collective agreements
 - restrictions on the right to strike, 399–400
- collective bargaining
 - coverage in selected countries 1970–2004 (table), 171–2
 - enhancement of, 499–500
 - marketisation in relation, 55–60
 - migrant labour in relation see migrant labour
 - sovereign debt crisis, 180–5
 - transnational/trans-European social dialogue in relation, 420–5
 - see also* wages
- communities of work
 - business models in relation, 27–31
- Compensated No Fault Dismissal (CNFD)
 - changes in dismissal law, 256–7
- compensatory awards
 - changes in dismissal law, 257–8
- competitiveness see economic growth
- compulsory arbitration
 - as to strike action, 402–3
- consensus building see social dialogue
- construction subcontractors
 - trade union involvement as to socially sustainable sourcing, 440

- consultation
 - TFEU provision, 414, 417, 418, 422–3, 468–9, 475–6, 481–2
- continuity of work/service provision
 - obligation to ensure during collective action, 403–5
- contracts of employment
 - ECJ judgments on fixed term contracts, 285
 - likelihood of fixed-term contracts, 205–7
 - standard employment contract, legal analysis, 338–41
 - ‘standard pension contract’ overviewed, 341–6
 - strikes see strikes
- corporate control
 - and corporate governance, 293–4
- corporate governance
 - co-operation between stakeholders, 309–11
 - and corporate control, 293–4
 - corporate government in relation, 29
 - enterprise risk, 297–8
 - labour participation
 - generally, 290–6
 - main issues, 295–6
 - reflexive self-regulation, 291–3
 - risk allocation, 297–301
 - risk-aversion of employees as justification for exclusion, 293
 - risk-bearing as entitlement to participation, 311–13
 - see also* labour participation
- corporate law
 - labour policy in relation, 27–31
 - models of legal personality, 27–8
 - risk allocation, 293
- corporate reputation
 - sustainable sourcing in relation see socially sustainable sourcing
- corporate restructuring
 - diverging goals of labour law and corporate law, 294–5
- corporate social responsibility
 - co-operation between EU and ILO, 95–6
- corporations, economic theory of risk-taking and profit-making in relation, 298–300
- Court of Justice of the EU (CJEU) see European Court of Justice (ECJ)
- criminal responsibility
 - during strikes, 409–11
- Czech Republic
 - neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
 - trade union action against austerity measures, 370
- decent work
 - guarantee of, 364
 - ILO Agenda (DWA), 88, 93–4
 - measures to promote, 89–90
 - social protection and eradication of poverty in relation, 89
- decommodification
 - labour generally, 497–8
- Delors, Jacques
 - programme of social and economic reform, 2
- demutualisation see mutualisation and demutualisation of risks to workers; precarious work
- Denmark
 - compatibility of collective labour law regulations with ESC, 402–3, 405–6
 - flexicurity, 39–40, 55–7, 60, 315–16, 317–18
 - neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
 - refusal of student maintenance aid to foreign nationals, 384–5, 387–9
 - socially sustainable sourcing, 444
 - temporary agency work, 223–4
 - unemployment, 315–16
- depoliticisation of economic policy
 - EU contrasted with China, 33–4

- deregulation
 - and economic crisis generally, 251
 - sovereign debt crisis, 172–5
- derogation
 - from ECSR obligations, 109–10
- developing countries
 - co-operation between EU and ILO, 95
- dialogue see social dialogue
- discrimination
 - transnational solidarity in relation
 - see* transnational solidarity
 - see also* anti-discrimination; non-discrimination
- dismissal
 - case study on de-regulatory reforms, 252
 - challenge to reforms
 - appropriateness, 274–7
 - basis under Article 30, CFREU, 269–72
 - conclusions as to, 277
 - practicalities, 272–4
 - minimum protection standards, 280–4
 - recent changes in UK and Portugal, 253–62
- duty of equality see equality
- ECJ see European Court of Justice (ECJ)
- economic crisis in Europe
 - austerity measures see austerity measures
 - curtailment of social and labour standards, 494–5
 - responses to global crisis, 319–28
 - social impact generally, 251, 494
 - sovereign debt crisis and labour law
 - see* sovereign debt crisis
 - unemployment, 315–16
- ‘economic dimension’
 - free movement in relation, 389
- economic growth
 - wealth redistribution and, 495
 - see also* marketisation; wealth creation
- economic integration
 - dominance of, 123
 - migrant labour as agent, 502
 - non-discrimination as agent, 123
 - social integration in balance, 69–70, 80, 89
 - social rights in relation, 495–6
- economic policy
 - depoliticisation of economics, 33–4
 - reforms under Jacques Delors, 2
- economic rights
 - aim generally, 26–7
- economic theory of corporations
 - risk-taking and profit-making in relation, 298–300
- ECtHR see European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR)
- education
 - access as agent of European integration, 387–9
- ‘embedded’ neo-liberalism
 - social protection and, 40–1
- employee ownership see labour participation
- employees see entries at labour
- employers
 - duties and risks (table), 199–207
 - re-distribution of duties and risks (table), 207–9
 - responsibilities as to agency workers, problem of assignment, 213–15
 - risk transfer to workers see precarious work
- employment see contracts of employment; entries at labour and at job; self-employment
- enterprise risk
 - corporate governance and, 297–8
- equal pay
 - ECJ judgments, 138–9
 - TFEU provision, 265
- equality
 - agency work and, 217–19
 - as core founding value of EU, 122–3
 - deliberative model of progression, 156–9

- equality (cont.)
 due regard standard, 149–56 duty of, poverty eradication in relation, 156
 enhancement of, 500–1
 foundations of, 138–9 judicial review as transformative agent, 149–56 precarious work in relation, 243–4 proactive duties generally, 138–40 proactive models, 144–9 reflexive approaches, 144–9 as remutualising agent, 161–2, 348–9 specification of aims, 159–61 transformative potential of equality duty summarised, 161–2 in UK law, 140–4
see also anti-discrimination
- Estonia
 collective bargaining and marketisation in relation, 59
 neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
- ethnicity
 social exclusion based on, 59, 101
- EU Charter of Fundamental Rights
 2000 (EUCFR) see Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU
 2000 (CFREU)
- European Central Bank (ECB) administration of monetary policy, 165–6 bail-out programme, 19–20, 456
 ETUC in relation, 366 independence, 165, 187–8
 President's remarks on economic crisis, 19–20, 32–3 recommendations on labour law reform, 182 support for Spain, 182
 'Troika' policies see sovereign debt crisis
- European Commission
 co-operation with ILO see International Labour Organization (ILO)
- collective bargaining policy, 456–8, 462–3 corporate governance policy, 28
 Delors 'Social Europe' programme, 2–3
 ESC in relation, 275
 flexicurity policy see flexicurity fundamental rights protection, 75–6, 120–2, 407–8 labour law reform initiatives, 61–3, 194–5 migrant labour policy, 448–9, 464 non-standard work policy, 238–40 oversight of directive implementation, 227, 237 social co-operation role, 271 social dialogue policy see social dialogue
 'Social Europe' policy, 2–3, 389 and sovereign debt crisis see sovereign debt crisis transnational collective bargaining policy, 422–3, 424 transnational solidarity policy, 389
- European Constitution rejection, 4–5, 63
- European Convention on Human Rights 1950 (ECHR)
 CFREU in relation, 116
 ECJ ruling on requirement to apply, 263–4 effectiveness as protection from austerity measures, 117 equality provision, 126–7
 ESC in relation, 114–16, 453–4
 freedom of association provision, 453–4, 458 fundamental rights in relation, 75
 interpretation by ECtHR, 116, 117
 as key international labour standard, 87
- European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR) access to, 210
 derogation ruling, 109–10
 ECHR interpretation, 116, 117
 ECJ in relation, 75
 judgments considered by ECJ, 75

- European Court of Justice (ECJ)
 access to, 210
 anti-discrimination and judicialisation, 126–7, 136 anti-discrimination judgments, 99, 120, 122–3, 135, 255, 358
 ‘anti-subordination’ theory applied to, 136
 balancing of fundamental human rights and market freedoms, 495–6
 Charter of Fundamental Rights application, 272, 451, 497–8 compliance and penalties powers, 19–20
 ECHR application ruling, 264
 ECtHR in relation, 75
 ECtHR judgments considered by, 75 equal pay judgments, 138–9 equal treatment right recognised as fundamental norm, 122–3
 European Trade Union
 Confederation in relation, 354, 371 fixed-term contracts judgments, 285
 free movement judgments, 389,
 462–3, 498
 ILO standards in relation, 87, 99 intergenerational fairness arguments, 274–5
 Labour Chamber proposed, 371 migrant labour judgments, 448–9, 457–8, 464–5
 protection of fundamental rights, 116 real link doctrine, 382–4 recognition of horizontal effect of human rights, 272–3 references as to compatibility of deregulatory labour reforms with EU law, 11–12, 250, 251–2, 265, 266–7, 275
 ruling on requirement to apply ECHR, 263–4
 social dialogue role, 489–90 social rights role, 164–5 trade union judgments, 4–5, 62–3, 411–13, 457–8, 490
 transnational solidarity judgments, 376–7, 378–84, 385–9
 European Employment Strategy (EES)
 as new mode of governance, 78 European integration access to education as agent, 387–9 at crossroads, 493–4, 495 failure to listen and learn, 4–5
 free movement in relation, 373–4, 387–9
 future in question, 6
 legal system supporting, 79–80 marketisation as process for, 36–7
 and neo-liberalism, 6–7 rediscovery of ‘social dimension’, 493–4
 social citizenship as process for, 36–7
 ‘Social Europe’ in relation, 7 ‘solidaristic integration’ and remutualisation in relation, 10, 187
see also economic integration; political integration; social integration; United States of Europe
 European Social Charter 1996 (ESC)
 accession to, 497
 Adequate Remuneration Threshold, 211 competency, 112–13
 contravention, 264–5, 458–9 contribution to ‘Social Europe’, 114–16
 derogation, 109–10
 dismissal appeal right provision, 282 dismissal compensation provision, 282–3 dismissal provision, 264 dynamic aspects of provisions, 113
 ECHR in relation, 114–16, 453–4
 enhancement possibilities, 117 EU economic crisis measures in contradiction, 354 guarantees and mechanisms, 107–9

- European Social Charter 1996 (cont.) importance generally, 105–6 job security provisions, 280–1, 282–3
 as key international labour standard, 87
 non-applicability, 265–6 operation of, 62–3 promotion of social rights generally, 106 protection of right to strike see strikes protections, 109–13
 TFEU reference to, 270, 280–1
- European Social Fund support for social inclusion, 101
- European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC) autonomy and social dialogue in relation, 471, 472–4, 475, 481, 484, 486–9
 European Court of Justice in relation, 354, 371 General Secretary's remarks, 77–8 independence, 470–1
 labour movement internationalisation, 355–6 regulatory strategy
 as alternative response to economic crisis, 371–2 evolution in topics and instruments (table), 360 hard law, 356–60 instrument of governance (table), 366 soft law, 360–8 risk re-socialisation role generally, 353–4 social activism, 368–71
 strikes and days of action, timing and goals (table), 370
- European Union (EU)
 citizenship and real link doctrine, 382–4 competences provision in TFEU, 72–3, 266–7, 451 core founding values, 73–4, 99, 122–3, 493–4 economic crisis see economic crisis in Europe; sovereign debt crisis expenditure on financial sector rescue, 2–3
 'highly competitive social market economy' aimed for, 71, 270
 provisionality of structure, 79–80 social and economic reforms under Jacques Delors, 2 sovereign debt crisis see sovereign debt crisis Eurozone crisis see sovereign debt crisis
- fair mutualisation see mutualisation fair remuneration effect of strikes on right to, 408–9
- feminism theory of work, 335–6, 338
- financial assistance
 TFEU provision, 267–9
- Finland
 compatibility of collective labour law regulations with ESC, 395–7
 neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
 temporary agency work, 223–4
- fixed-term contracts
 ECJ judgments, 285
- flexibility see precarious work
- flexible working hours share ownership in return for giving up rights, 257
- flexicurity
 aim generally, 26–7
 Commission's support for, 27, 55–7, 232–3, 274 concept generally, 314–15 definitional issues, 317–19 emergence of, 39–40 erosion of, 60 future prospects, 329–32
 global economic crisis in relation, 319–28 job security in relation, 278, 287 poverty eradication in relation, 318
 precarious work in relation, 232–4
 social protection in relation, 318–19

- France
- compatibility of collective labour law regulations with ESC, 400–1, 408–9
 - Labour Code and mental health risk, 23–4
 - management board membership provisions, 30–1
 - neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
 - ‘No’ vote to ‘European Constitution’, 4–5, 63
 - ‘precarious’ as sociological term, 197–9
 - socially sustainable sourcing, 444
 - temporary agency work, 204–5, 223–5, 237
 - trade union action against austerity measures, 368–70
 - trade union goals reformulated, 26–7
 - working week, 26
 - young workers in temporary agency work, 203, 204–5
- free movement
- access to university education, 385–9
 - balancing with national interests, 376, 380–1
 - complementarity of social and economic spheres, 389
 - deregulatory effect on labour law, 68
 - ECJ jurisprudence on workers’ right, 498
 - as EU-level issue, 248, 271
 - European integration in relation, 373–4, 387–9
 - level of mobility, 387–9
 - non-use of right, 380–1, 460–1
 - posted workers, 457, 458
 - transnational solidarity in relation see transnational solidarity
- Freedland, Mark
- analytical model applied to ‘standard pension contract’ (figure), 342–3
 - ‘standard employment contract’ analysis, 334, 338–42, 345, 348–9
- freedom of association
- competence provision in TFEU, 451
 - enhancement of, 499–500
- fundamental rights
- approach to ‘resocialisation’, 69–70
 - equality in relation, 138–9
 - and ‘European’ approach to labour law, 70–4
 - market freedoms in relation, 74–7
 - protection by ECJ, 116
 - see also* Charter of Fundamental Rights of the EU 2000 (CFREU); human rights
- Galbraith, J. K.
- on good society, 463
- gender-based discrimination
- co-operation between EU and ILO, 96
 - ECJ judgments, 122–3, 135
 - EU treaties provision, 119–20
- Germany
- collective bargaining and marketisation in relation, 57–8
 - compatibility of collective labour law regulations with ESC, 398, 405
 - corporate legal culture, 27–8
 - internal flexibility as means for job security, 287–9
 - labour law considered, 487–8
 - Mitbestimmung* model of corporate legal personality, 27–8
 - neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
 - short-time working scheme (Kurzarbeit), 320–2
 - ‘social state principle’, 72
 - socially sustainable sourcing, 444
 - success of business model, 30
 - temporary agency work, 203, 204–5, 223–4
 - trade union action against austerity measures, 370
 - transnational collective bargaining, 422
 - unemployment, 315–16
 - young workers in temporary agency work, 203, 204–5
 - youth unemployment, 203

- governance
 as regulation, 356
see also corporate governance
- government subcontractors trade union involvement as to socially sustainable sourcing, 439
- Greece
 austerity measures, 353
 neo-liberal economic analyses
 tested, 44–55
 non-standard work, 203
 part-time work, 203
 pensions crises, 346
 self-employment, 203–4
 sovereign debt crisis, 5–6, 43–4, 58–9, 456
 temporary agency work, 203, 204–5 young workers in temporary agency work, 204–5
- Hayek, Friedrich political theories, 32
- health and safety
 agency work, 219–20
- horizontal mutualisation see
 mutualisation
- ‘horizontal social clauses’
 TFEU, 71, 425
- hours of work share ownership in return for giving up rights to flexible hours, 257
- human rights collective bargaining and migrant labour, 451–4
 co-operation between EU and ILO, 96–7
 horizontal effect recognised by ECJ, 272–3
see also European Convention on Human Rights 1950 (ECHR); European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR); fundamental rights
- ‘humane conditions of labour’ concept of, 25–6
- Hungary
 neo-liberal economic analyses
 tested, 44–55
 trade union action against austerity measures, 370
- Iceland
 compatibility of collective labour law regulations with ESC, 397–8 improved living and working conditions promotion by TFEU, 270
- inclusive growth eradication of poverty and of social exclusion in relation, 274–5
- industrial relations
 enhancement of, 499–500
- informal work
 undeclared work defined, 205
- insecure work see precarious work
- institutional change and marketisation, Polanyi’s transformation theory, 37–8
- institutional isomorphism theory collective bargaining and migrant
 labour, 449–50, 464–5
- integration see economic integration; European integration; political integration; social integration
- intergenerational fairness
 ECJ jurisprudence and, 274–5
- intergenerational solidarity promotion of, 270
- internal market
 labour law in relation, 74–7
- International Labour Organization
 (ILO) Committee of Experts, 454–6 Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA), 394, 453
- Constitution
 ‘humane conditions of labour’ concept, 25–6
- conventions autonomy and social dialogue in relation, 475
 as basis for workers’ representation right, 211

- 'employment liability' concept, 225
- Fair Wages Resolution (FWR) in relation, 443–4
- freedom of association, 451–3, 454–6, 458–9, 462
- references in EU treaties, 87–8
- social protection in relation, 90
- socially sustainable sourcing in relation, 434–5, 437–8, 443
- support for job security, 364
- temporary agency work, 222–3, 225–6
- termination of employment, 264–5, 280–3
- co-operation with EU
 - corporate social responsibility, 95–6
 - Decent Work Agenda (DWA) see decent work
 - developing countries, 95
 - EU in relation generally, 92–3
 - furtherance measures, 93–4, 103–4
 - gender, 96
 - sustainable development and human rights, 96–7
 - sustainable development and labour standards, 94–5
- instruments
 - ECJ reference to, 115–16
- list of occupational diseases, 23–4
- norms in relation to national labour policies, 31–2
- precarious work defined, 194–5
- recourse to, 176–7
- regulations
 - international recognition of, 117
- reports
 - temporary agency work, 221–2, 224–5
- screening of national labour reforms, 276–7
- Sectoral Activities Programme, 227–8
- standards
 - autonomy and social dialogue in relation, 489–90
 - compatibility of labour reforms with, 275–6
 - ECJ in relation, 87, 99
 - European labour law in relation, 81–2, 86–91
 - European Parliament's awareness of, 464
 - future role, 84–6
 - review, 82–4
 - socially sustainable sourcing in relation, 434–5
 - supervisory process as model for ESC systems, 107–8
 - unemployment analysis, 353
- International Monetary Fund (IMF)
 - assessment of 2008 global economic crisis, 315–16
 - bail-out programme, 456
 - encouragement of austerity measures, 448–9
 - loan to Portugal, 275–6
 - loan to Spain, 333
 - questions effectiveness of austerity measures, 186
 - structural adjustment programmes, 33–4
 - 'Troika' policies see sovereign debt crisis
- Ireland
 - compatibility of collective labour law regulations with ESC, 407–8, 409–10
 - National Employment Rights Authority, 207–9
 - neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
 - part-time work, 203
 - pensions regulation, 342–3
 - self-employment, 203–4
 - sovereign debt crisis, 5–6, 41–2, 456
- Italy
 - austerity measures, 353
 - neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
 - non-standard work, 203
 - part-time work, 203–4
 - self-employment, 203–4

- Italy (cont.)
 sovereign debt crisis, 41–2, 43
 temporary agency work, 204–5
 young workers in temporary agency work, 204–5
- job creation precarious work as agent, 231–2
- job security and austerity measures generally, 279
 conclusions as to, 289
 economic benefits of, 278–9 ESC provisions, 280–1, 282–3 fair mutualisation in relation, 280–1, 283–4, 287, 289 flexicurity in relation, 278, 287
 as fundamental social right in CFREU, 279–80, 285, 289 internal flexibility as means for, 287–9 measures to restrict erosion of, 284–6 minimum protection standards against unfair dismissal, 280–4 mutualisation in relation, 278–9, 280, 283–4, 287, 289
 shift to employment security generally, 278–80
- joint and several liability resocialisation of agency work, 225–8
- Kahn-Freund, Otto
 on autonomy and European social dialogue, 476–9 collective laissez-faire theory, 479–80, 485–6
- labour
 communities of work in relation to business models, 27–31 corporate dimension, 27–31
 decasualisation, 497–8
 decommodification, 497–8
 definitional issues, 335–8 economic outcomes of social policy (table), 45 feminist theory, 335–6, 338 free movement see free movement future European policy, 34–5 ‘humane conditions of labour’ concept, 25–6 individual dimension, 23–7 insecurity see precarious work levels of organisation, 23 Marxist theory, 335, 336 national dimension, 31–4 neo-liberal assumptions tested, 44–55 new concepts of, 35
 ‘personality in work’, 35
 Polanyi’s theory, 336–7
 redistribution of duties and risks (table), 207–9
 Ricardo’s theory, 335 risk-aversion, alleged tendency to, 293 risk-bearing by average and marginal workers contrasted, 301–6 movement of risk and risk costs, 7–8
 residual risk generally, 300–1 standard employment contract, 338–41
 strikes see strikes theories of work, 335–8 ‘worker’ defined, 335–8
see also agency work; collective bargaining; contracts of employment; migrant labour; mutualisation and demutualisation of risks to workers; precarious work; self-employment; young workers
- labour law autonomy and British exceptionalism, 476–9 compatibility of deregulatory reforms with EU law, 11–12, 250, 251–2, 265, 266–7, 275

- competences provision in TFEU, 72–3, 451
- corporate restructuring in relation, 294–5
- dismissal see dismissal
- economic governance, 77–9
- ETUC strategy see European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC)
- expansion beyond employment, 498
- ILO standards in relation see International Labour Organization (ILO)
- internal market law in relation, 74–7
- paradoxes, 67–9
- in resocialised Europe, 79–80
- reduction of social exclusion, 308
- restatement method of reform, 280–1
- social activism in relation, 368–71
- social dialogue in relation see social dialogue
- United States of Europe see United States of Europe
- whether ‘European’, 70–4
- whether ‘labour’ law, 74–7
- labour participation
- effectiveness for risk reduction in corporate restructuring, 290–6
- enhancement of, 499–500
- mutualisation in relation, 290–1, 308
- reflexive self-regulation, 291–3
- risk-bearing as entitlement to, 311–13
- share ownership in return for giving up dismissal rights, 257
- see also* corporate governance
- labour policy
- corporate law in relation, 27–31
- European Employment Strategy (EES), 78
- labour protection
- integration of EU and other international sources, 497
- labour participation as see labour participation
- levels by country (table), 51
- poverty eradication in relation, 306–7
- protection of labour stability, 497–8
- social protection in relation, 337–8
- sovereign debt crisis, 177–80
- unemployment replacement pay levels by country (table), 51
- variables by country (table), 51–2
- labour relationships
- duties and risks (table), 199–207
- mutualisation and demutualization of risks in relation, 35
- non-standard forms, precarious work in relation, 199–207
- scope for remutualisation, 10
- subordination, 306–9
- labour rights
- erosion of agency workers’ rights, 215–16
- national authorities, 207–9
- labour standards
- curtailment by austerity measures, 494–5
- effect of economic crisis generally, 251
- enhancement of pay and conditions, 499
- future role, 84–6
- improvement promoted by TFEU, 270
- integration of protective measures, 497
- international standards in relation see International Labour Organization (ILO)
- and social justice, 495
- and wealth creation and redistribution, 495
- Latvia
- non-standard work, 203
- unemployment, 203
- lawyers
- role in ‘resocialising Europe’, 450
- length-of-service
- changes in dismissal law, 255

- Lenin, Vladimir
 ‘scientific’ approach to social organisation, 32 thoughts on Taylorism, 23
- liability
 during strikes, 409–11
 resocialisation of agency work, 225–8
- living conditions
 improvement promoted by TFEU, 270
- Lo Faro, Antonio
 on autonomy and European social dialogue, 480–1, 484–5
- low paid work see precarious work
- Luxembourg
 trade union action against austerity measures, 368–70
- marginal workers
 risk-bearing contrasted with average workers, 301–6
- market concerns equality in relation, 138–9
- market freedoms fundamental rights in relation, 74–7
- marketisation collective bargaining in relation, 55–60 eclipse of social citizenship overviewed, 36–9 and institutional change, Polanyi’s transformation theory, 37–8 neo-liberal assumptions as to labour tested, 44–55
 as process for European integration, 36–7 social policy shift towards, 39–44 see also internal market
- Marx, Karl
 theory of work, 335, 336
- mental health occupational health risk, 23–4
- migrant labour
 as agent of European integration, 502
 collective bargaining
- encouragement of local level bargaining, 454–7
 generally, 448–50
 human rights in relation, 451–4 institutional isomorphism theory in relation, 449–50, 464–5 issues summarised, 463–5 legitimacy of EU measures generally, 454
 posted workers, 457–63
 free movement of posted workers, 457, 458 real link doctrine applied to, 382–4 social protection, 385
 transnational solidarity in relation see transnational solidarity
- minorities
 social exclusion, 140, 156–7
- movement within EU see free movement
- mutualisation
 corporate governance see corporate governance job security and fair mutualisation, 278–9, 280–1, 283–4, 287, 289 labour participation in relation, 290–1, 308 measures for, 227 pension rights in relation, 333–4, 346–50
 symposium’s support for, 493
 transnational solidarity in relation, 376
 see also remutualisation of employment relations; ‘resocialising Europe’; see also under specific topics
- mutualisation and demutualisation of risks to workers as analytical tool, 8–9 definition, 7–8
 demutualisation see precarious work forms of work organisation in relation, 35 theme of, 1, 7
 utility of theory of, 8, 35

- national income wages share in selected countries 1970–2006 (table), 171–2
- neo-liberalism
assumptions as to labour tested, 44–55
deregulatory policies see
deregulation
and European integration, 6–7 and marketisation see marketisation
social protection and, 44–5
social protection and ‘embedded’
neo-liberalism, 40–1
and sovereign debt crisis see
sovereign debt crisis
- Netherlands
compatibility of collective labour law regulations with ESC, 398, 405–6
flexicurity, 39–40, 55–7
management board membership provisions, 30–1
neo-liberal economic analyses
tested, 44–55
‘No’ vote to ‘European Constitution’,
4–5, 63
part-time work, 203–4
pensions regulation, 343–4
self-employment, 203–4
socially sustainable sourcing, 444
temporary agency work, 204–5, 223–4
unemployment, 203
young workers in temporary agency
work, 203, 204–5
‘new economic governance’
social protection and, 77–8
- new technology
‘scientific’ organisation in relation,
32
- New Zealand
pensions regulation, 342–3
- non-discrimination
as agent of economic integration, 123
see also anti-discrimination
- non-standard work see precarious work
- Norway
neo-liberal economic analyses
tested, 44–55
- occupational diseases see health and safety
- Ombudsman
TFEU provision, 481–2
- open method of co-ordination poverty eradication and, 101
- openness treaties provision, 481–2
- organisational theory institutional isomorphism, 449–50, 464–5
- outsourcing see agency work
- pay see wages
- pensions enhancement of laws, 501 fair mutualisation of risk, 346–50
mutualisation in relation, 333–4, 346–50
mutualisation of risks generally, 333–4 standard employment contract in relation, 338–41
‘standard pension contract’, 341–6
‘worker’ defined, 335–8
- ‘personality in work’
concept of, 35
- Poland
neo-liberal economic analyses
tested, 44–55
self-employment, 203–4
temporary agency work, 203, 204–5
young workers in temporary agency
work, 203, 204–5
- Polanyi, Karl
theory of work, 336–7
transformation theory, 37–8
- political integration
migrant labour as agent, 502
as ultimate goal of integration, 374 see also United States of Europe
- politics and economics depoliticisation of economic and financial policy, 33–4

- Portugal
 austerity measures, 353 challenges to deregulatory reforms of labour law, 251–2
 changes in dismissal law
 challenge to: appropriateness, 274–7; basis under Article 30, CFREU, 269–72; conclusions as to, 277; practicalities, 272–4 compatibility with CFREU, 267–9 effect of changes to compensation in dismissal (figure), 261
 overview, 258–62
 compatibility of collective labour law regulations with ESC, 395–7
 neo-liberal economic analyses
 tested, 44–55
 pensions crises, 346
 sovereign debt crisis, 5–6, 41–2, 456
 posted workers
 collective bargaining, 457–63
 free movement, 457, 458
 poverty, eradication of child poverty, 145
 decent work and, 89 equality duty in relation, 156
 flexicurity in relation, 318 inclusive growth in relation, 274–5 increased poverty under austerity policies, 353
 labour protection in relation, 306–7
 open method of co-ordination, 101
 poverty threshold, 113–14
 precarious work in relation, 197–9 recent policies as to, 482–3 precarious work benefits to workers, assumptions as to, 232–8
 characteristics, 199 danger of embeddedness, 211–12
 decasualisation, 497–8
 demutualisation as analytical tool, 9 Directives, underlying assumptions, 234–8, 240–2
 equality approach to, 243–4 fixed-term contracts, likelihood of, 205–7 flexibility and self-regulation in relation, 291–3
 flexicurity in relation, 232–4 growth of, 191–2, 201–5 introduction to, 191 and job creation, 231–2 job security in relation see job security
 as manifestation of demutualisation, 10–11
 mapping by form of (table), 201–3 mapping by worker category (table), 205–7
 non-standard forms of employment relationship, 199–207 poverty eradication in relation,
 197–9
 ‘precarious’ as sociological term, 197–9
 prospects for regulation, 244–6, 248–9
 redistribution of duties and risks (table), 207–9
 as redistribution of risk, 207 regulatory approaches generally, 230–1 removal and risk re-balancing, 207–11
 resistance to demutualisation, 493 restrictions on use of, 284–6 risk, 246–8
 short-time working schemes, 319–28
 social exclusion in relation, 210 social protection in relation, 194–5, 199–201
 as ‘stepping stone’ to more secure work, assumptions as to, 238–42
 supply chain pressures as threat, 429–32
 undeclared work defined, 205 unequal treatment assumed to be workers’ main problem, 242–6 see also agency work profit-making risk-taking in relation, 298–300

- public sector
 - temporary agency work, 214–15
 - use of private sector management methods, 31–2
- real link doctrine
 - application to economically active citizens, 382–4
- redistribution of wealth see wealth redistribution
- redundancy
 - share ownership in return for giving up rights, 257
- reflexive self-regulation
 - labour participation and corporate governance, 291–3
- remuneration see wages
- remutualisation of employment relations
 - scope for, 10
- remutualisation of Europe see ‘resocialising Europe’
- ‘resocialising Europe’
 - equality as agent, 161–2, 348–9
 - fundamental rights approach, 69–70
 - lawyers’ role, 450
 - manifesto, 490–2
 - mutualisation and demutualisation in relation, 8–9
 - social dialogue in relation, 467–8, 490–2
 - symposium’s support for, 7, 493
 - see also* ‘Social Europe’
- retail suppliers
 - trade union involvement as to socially sustainable sourcing, 439–40
- Ricardo, David
 - theory of work, 335
- rights of workers see labour rights
- risk
 - mutualisation/demutualisation see mutualisation and demutualisation of risks to workers
 - reputational risk and sustainable sourcing in relation see socially sustainable sourcing
 - risk allocation see corporate governance
 - risk aversion
 - employees’ alleged tendency to, 293
 - risk bearing
 - average and marginal workers contrasted, 301–6
 - as entitlement to participation, 311–13
 - movement of risk and risk costs, 7–8
 - precarious work, 246–8
 - residual risk generally, 300–1
 - risk taking
 - profit making in relation, 298–300
 - ‘scientific’ organisation
 - new technology in relation, 32
 - secure employment see job security
 - self-employment
 - social protection, 195
 - variations in national levels, 203–4
 - settlement agreements
 - changes in dismissal law, 256–7
 - share ownership see labour participation
 - short-time working see precarious work
- Slovakia
 - neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
- Slovenia
 - collective bargaining and marketisation in relation, 59
 - neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
 - trade union action against austerity measures, 370
- social activism
 - effect on labour regulation, 368–71
 - timing and goals (table), 370
- social citizenship
 - as process for European integration, 36–7

- social dialogue
- autonomy in relation
 - approaches to autonomy, 479
 - autonomy as particularist proposition, 477–8
 - autonomy as relative concept, 478–9
 - autonomy as universal proposition, 476–7
 - ECJ's role, 489–90
 - generally, 466–7
 - implementation of agreements (table), 468
 - issues summarised, 490–2
 - laissez-faire* approach, 479–84
 - neutrality approach, 484–6
 - overview, 475–9
 - preliminary distinctions, 467–75
 - right to strike, 486–9
 - UK exceptionalism, 476–9
 - Commission's role
 - advocative role, 476, 483–4
 - annual meeting with social partners, 471–2
 - autonomy in relation, 474–5, 479–80
 - 'bottom up' approach, 490–2
 - consultation, 468–9, 471, 474, 482–3
 - directive role, 466–7, 470–1, 484–5
 - facilitative role, 481–2
 - 'guided' dialogue, 467–8, 484–5
 - inclusive approach to consultation, 481–2
 - obligation to consult, 468
 - oversight of agreements, 468–9, 472–4
 - promotive role, 481
 - proposal of agreements, 489–90
 - sectoral dialogue, 418
 - withdrawal of support, 484
 - consensus building generally, 414–18
 - issues summarised, 425–6
 - remutualisation in relation, 467–8, 490–2
 - sectoral dialogue, 418–20
 - TEU provision, 481–2
 - TFEU provision, 414, 417, 418, 422–3, 468–9, 475–6, 481–2
 - transnational/trans-European collective bargaining, 420–5
 - 'social dimension'
 - free movement in relation, 389
 - of TEU, 493–4
 - 'Social Europe'
 - European integration in relation, 7
 - renewal see 'resocialising Europe'
 - transnational solidarity in relation see transnational solidarity
 - see also* European Social Charter 1996 (ESC); 'resocialising Europe'
 - social exclusion
 - anti-discrimination law as effective tool against, 133
 - as discrimination, 98
 - ethnicity-based, 59, 101
 - inclusive growth reducing risk of, 274–5
 - labour law and reduction of, 308
 - minorities, 140, 156–7
 - precarious work in relation, 210
 - prohibition, 99
 - promotion of measures against, 71, 270
 - social inclusion
 - anti-discrimination in relation, 133
 - open method of co-ordination, 101, 416
 - promotion of, 77
 - 'under-theorised' rhetoric of, 136
 - social integration
 - economic integration in balance, 69–70, 80, 89
 - integration of EU and other international sources, 497
 - migrant labour as agent, 502
 - weakening of progress, 416
 - social justice
 - TEU advocacy of, 493–4
 - social legislation
 - growth of EU legislation, 251

- social market economy
 - aim to be 'highly competitive', 71, 270
- social organisation
 - 'scientific' approach, 32
- social partnerships
 - TFEU provision, 414, 417, 418, 422–3, 468–9, 475–6, 481–2
- social policy
 - disturbed balance between EU and Member States, 250–2
 - economic outcomes as to labour (table), 45
 - effect of ECJ jurisprudence on national systems, 251
 - effect of economic crisis generally, 251
 - marketisation and neo-liberalism see marketisation
 - reforms under Jacques Delors, 2
 - weakening of, 416
- social progress
 - TEU advocacy of, 493–4
- social protection
 - anti-discrimination in relation, 124–5, 130–1
 - decent work and eradication of poverty in relation, 89–90
 - dismantling of, 488–9
 - diversity of systems, 387
 - 'embedded' neo-liberalism, 40–1
 - flexicurity in relation, 318–19
 - guarantee of, 71
 - ILO Conventions in relation, 90
 - in insecure times, 38–9
 - labour protection in relation, 337–8
 - migrant labour, 385
 - national protection floors, 95
 - neo-liberal thesis, 44–5
 - and 'new economic governance', 77–8
 - non-standard work, 199–201
 - as objective of EU, 270
 - precarious work in relation, 194–5
 - resistance to extension of, 39
 - self-employed workers, 195
 - temporary work agencies and, 216–17
 - transnational solidarity in relation, 387–9
- social rights
 - aim generally, 26–7
 - ECJ's role, 164–5
- economic integration in relation, 495–6
- integration of protective measures, 497
- social security
 - enhancement of laws, 501
- social standards
 - curtailment by austerity measures, 494–5
 - and social justice, 495
 - and wealth creation and redistribution, 495
- 'social state principle'
 - CFREU in relation, 72
- socially sustainable sourcing
 - balance of independence and regulation, 436–8
- compulsory forms, 442–5
- international framework agreements (IFAs) model, 435–6
- issues summarised, 445–7
- labelling systems model, 434–5
- and labour protection generally, 427–9
- limitations of voluntary forms, 441–2
- models of, 434
- multi-partite models, 435
- private regulation model, 434
- supply chain management in relation, 432–4
- supply chain pressures on low paid workers, 429–32
- trade union involvement
 - construction subcontractors, 440
 - generally, 438
 - government subcontractors, 439
 - retail suppliers, 439–40
 - subcontractors' wage standards, 441
- sociology
 - 'precarious' as sociological term, 197–9

- sovereign debt crisis alternatives to austerity, 185–8 collective bargaining, 180–5, 456–7
 deregulatory responses, 172–5 effect on labour protection legislation, 177–80
 effect on labour standards generally, 251 ‘internal devaluation’ measures as to labour, 175–85
 and labour law generally, 163–4 labour law prior to, 164–72 regulatory mismatches between financial and labour markets, 172–5
 ‘Troika’ policies, 5–6, 41–2, 163,
 175–6, 186, 250, 260–2, 353–4, 448–9, 456, 463–4, 494–5 wage-setting, 180–5
- Spain
 austerity measures, 353
 IMF loan, 333
 neo-liberal economic analyses
 tested, 44–55
 non-standard work, 203
 parental leave reforms, 359
 pensions crises, 346
 sovereign debt crisis, 5–6, 41–2, 43, 456
 temporary agency work, 223–4 temporary agency work reforms agency authorisation and requirements, 216–17 basis for critique, 358, 359 collective rights, 221 equal treatment issues, 217–19
 health and safety, 219
 level of placements, 224–5 protection of workers’ rights, 215
 public sector, 214–15
 trade union action against austerity measures, 370
 unemployment, 353
 young workers in temporary agency
 work, 204–5
 youth unemployment, 203
- stakeholding see corporate governance;
 labour participation
 standard employment contract
 pensions in relation, 338–41 ‘standard pension contract’
 overview, 341–6
 stress occupational health risk, 23–4 strikes effect on labour regulation, 368–71 protection of right under ESC collective action, 392–3 effects on individual employment contracts: civil liability and criminal responsibility, 409–11;
 generally, 407; right to fair remuneration, 408–9;
 termination of contracts, 407–8
 generally, 390–2
 issues summarised, 411–13
 lawful strikes, 393–9 restrictions: collective labour agreements, 399–400;
 compulsory arbitration, 402–3;
 domestic courts, 405–7;
 domestic legislation generally, 400; generally, 399; obligation to ensure continuity of work/service provision in certain sectors, 403–5; procedural requirements prior to commencement of lawful strike, 401–2; type of entities entitled to organise strikes, 400–1 timing and goals (table), 370
 students free movement as agent of European integration, 387–9 subcontracting see agency work subcontractors
 trade union involvement as to
 socially sustainable sourcing, 439, 440, 441
 subordination of labour relationships
 corporate governance, 306–9

- supply chain pressures on low-paid workers, 429–32 sustainable sourcing in relation see socially sustainable sourcing
- sustainable development
 co-operation between EU and ILO, 94–5, 96–7
- sustainable sourcing see socially sustainable sourcing
- Sweden
 compatibility of collective labour law regulations with ESC, 395–7, 411
 labour law considered, 487–8
 neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
 pensions regulation, 344, 346–7
 self-employment, 203–4
 temporary agency work, 203, 204–5
 transnational collective bargaining, 421–2
 young workers in temporary agency work, 203, 204–5
- Taylorism
 Lenin's views on, 23
- temporary work see agency work
- trade unions collective bargaining see collective bargaining density in selected countries 1970–2004 (table), 171–2
 ECJ judgments, 4–5, 62–3, 411–13, 457–8, 490
 references to ECJ as to compatibility of deregulatory labour reforms with EU law, 11–12, 250, 251–2, 265, 266–7, 275 reformulation of goals, 26–7
 social activism, 368–71
 and socially sustainable sourcing see socially sustainable sourcing strikes and days of action, timing and goals (table), 370
see also European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC)
- transfer of risk to workers see precarious work
- transnational solidarity challenges to exclusion of disadvantaged migrant groups, 380–2
 generally, 380
 increase in discriminatory regulation, 382 national solidarity in opposition, 385–7 real link doctrine applied to economically active citizens, 382–4 wealthier States' discriminatory measures, 384–5 ECJ judgments, 376–7, 378–84, 385–9
 free movement in relation generally, 373–5 mutualisation in relation, 376 reasons for cost-related, 377–80
 generally, 374
 status-related, 376–7 work-related, 374–5
 social protection in relation, 387–9
 as threat to Social Europe, 387–9
- transparency
 treaties provision, 481–2
- Treaty on the European Union (TEU) accountability provision, 481–2 dialogue provision, 481–2 EU's core founding values, 73–4, 99, 122–3, 493–4
 gender-based discrimination provision, 119–20
 'highly competitive social market economy' aimed for, 71, 270
 ILO Conventions referred to, 87–8
 openness provision, 481–2
 provisionality of EU structure, 79–80
 'social dimension' advocated, 493–4 social justice and social progress advocated, 493–4 transparency provision, 481–2

- Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU)
- anti-discrimination provision, 99, 118, 119–20, 255
 - consultation and dialogue provision, 414, 417, 418, 422–3, 468–9, 475–6, 481–2
 - equal pay provision, 265, 267
 - ESC in relation, 270
 - ESC referred to, 280
 - financial assistance provision, 267–9
 - freedom of association competence provision, 451
 - gender-based discrimination provision, 119–20, 255
 - general competences, 72–3, 266–7
 - ‘horizontal social clauses’, 71, 425
 - ILO Conventions referred to, 87–8
 - improved living and working conditions promoted, 116, 270
 - labour law competences, 72–3, 451
 - Ombudsman provision, 481–2
 - openness provision, 481–2
 - social partnership provision, 414, 417, 418, 422–3, 468–9, 475–6, 481–2
 - social policy co-operation provision, 456–7
 - transparency provision, 481–2
- ‘Troika’ see sovereign debt crisis
- undeclared work
- definition, 205
- ‘underemployment’
- problem of, 239
- unemployment
- increase during European economic crisis, 315–16, 353
 - variations in national levels, 203
- unemployment replacement pay see labour protection
- unfair dismissal see dismissal
- United Kingdom
- atypical work, regulation of, 237–8, 241, 242
 - autonomy and exceptionalism as to labour law, 476–9
 - autonomy and right to strike, 486–8
 - changes in dismissal law
 - challenge to: appropriateness, 274–7; basis under Article 30, CFREU, 269–72; conclusions as to, 277; practicalities, 272–4
 - compatibility with CFREU, 263
 - Compensated No Fault Dismissal (CNFD), 256–7
 - compensatory awards, 257–8
 - context, 253–4
 - employee ownership in return for giving up rights, 257
 - length-of-service requirement, 255
 - settlement agreements, 256–7
 - collective bargaining, decline in, 427–8, 429–30
 - collective laissez-faire, 479, 485–6, 490
 - compatibility of collective labour law regulations with ESC, 401, 407–8
 - Ethical Trading Initiative (ETI), 435
 - expenditure on financial sector rescue, 2–3
 - free movement judgments, 380–1
 - low paid work, level of, 427–8, 429–30
 - national minimum wage, impact of, 429–30
 - neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
 - pensions regulation, 343–4, 345–8
 - right to strike and autonomy in relation, 486–8
 - self-employment, 203–4
 - short-time working schemes, 320–2, 325–8, 331–2
 - socially sustainable sourcing, 438–41, 442–4, 446–7
 - sovereign debt crisis, 41–2
 - ‘substantive equality’, 135
 - temporary agency work, 204–5
 - ‘underemployment’, 239
 - ‘voluntarism’, 490
 - wage inequality, 427–8
 - Welsh ProAct short-time working scheme, 323–5

- young workers in temporary agency work, 203, 204–5
- United States of America
 - collective bargaining and marketisation in relation, 58
 - corporate advertising budgets, 432–3
 - Fair Labor Association, 435
 - neo-liberal economic analyses tested, 44–55
 - pensions regulation, 346–8
 - restatement method of law reform, 280–1
 - ‘standard employment contract’ analysis, 339–40
- United States of Europe
 - concept overviewed, 64–7
 - economic governance, 77–9
 - ‘European’ approach to labour law, 70–4
 - fundamental rights approach to ‘resocialisation’, 69–70
 - labour law and internal market law in relation, 74–7
 - and labour law generally, 61–4
 - labour law in resocialised Europe, 79–80
 - labour law paradoxes, 67–9
 - model of integration, 9–10
- university education
 - free movement, 385–9
- wages
 - enhancement of laws, 499
 - ESC Adequate Remuneration Threshold, 211
 - share of national income in selected countries 1970–2006 (table), 171–2
- sovereign debt crisis and wage-setting, 180–5
- TFEU equal pay provision, 265, 267
 - see also* collective bargaining
- wealth creation
 - labour rights and, 495
 - social policy and, 495
 - see also* economic growth
- wealth redistribution
 - labour rights and, 495
 - social policy and, 495
- Wedderburn of Charlton, Kenneth William, Baron
 - on autonomy and European social dialogue, 477–8, 487–8, 490
- Welsh ProAct short-time working scheme
 - overview, 323–5
- work, workers see entries at labour and at job; young workers
- work accidents see health and safety
- work-related stress
 - occupational health risk, 23–4
- workers’ voice see labour participation
- working hours
 - share ownership in return for giving up rights to flexible hours, 257
- working mothers
- young workers
 - likelihood of fixed-term contracts, 205–7
 - precarious work, 203
 - temporary agency work, 204–5, 223–4
 - unemployment, 203