

INDEX

- access
 - to internet, rights to, 4–5, 250
 - to personal data, rights to, 91
- ACTA (Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement), 110–11
- advertising, online, 13, 58, 148
 - targeted/behavioural, 119–20, 155–6, 266
 - see also* behavioural tracking and targeting
- adware, 152, 170
- Allen, A. L., 280
- Amazon, refusal to implement Webwise, 170
- Anderson, Ross, 154, 161, 198–9
- anonymity
 - on internet, 53
 - and behavioural tracking, 154, 173
 - and deletion of personal data, 204–5
 - and hacking, 260–1
 - provisions for, 135, 140
 - levels of, 238–9
 - and online identity, 235–6
 - and privacy, 17
 - right to, 256–7
- anonymous internet business model, 219–20
- antiterrorism, data used for purposes of, 72–3, 97–8
- apps, use of, 136
- Arab Spring, subversion of internet surveillance in, 260–1
- Article 29 Working Party (Data Protection Directive, EC), 79, 89, 124
 - conflict with Google, 124–31, 132–3, 275
 - resolution of, 137–8, 143, 222, 228, 231–2
- Ask.com, 133–4
- assembly, freedom of, on internet, 270–1
- assertion, of online identity, 247–50
- astroturfing, 259
- augmented reality, 6–7
- authentication systems, 260
- automated impersonation, 254–5
- autonomy, 9, 24–7, 28
 - and consent, 36
 - criticism of
 - communitarian, 46–7
 - feminist, 47–8
 - on internet, 12–14, 27–8
 - and vulnerability of personal data, 176
- and internet privacy, 212, 265–6, 267–8
- and privacy, 9–10, 15, 285
- restrictions to, 31–2
- rights/human rights based on, 28–31, 269–71
 - criticism of, 42–3
 - and security, 43–5
- autonomy by design concept, 216–17
 - and internet privacy rights, 217–19
- avatars, 246
- awareness, of data vulnerability, 199
- Ayres, Ian, 122, 149, 150–1
- balancing of rights, 84–5, 213
- Balkanisation, 70–1
- banking, online, 218

- Barlow, John Perry, 82
- Beacon affair (Facebook), 67, 171
- behavioural tracking and targeting, 13, 144–6, 266
and anonymity, 154, 173
attitudes towards, 178 consent for, 147, 160, 174 future of, 175, 208–9
by Google, 119–20, 156
by Phorm, 67–8, 146–7, 150, 152–7
controversies over, 160–4, 172, 275
failure of, 151–2, 164–6, 169–71
legality of, 157–8, 160
regulation of, 166–9
see also profiling
- benefits of data retention, 139–40 of forgetting, 206 of internet privacy rights, 142, 233
of monitoring internet behaviour, 17, 211
- Bentham, Jeremy, 29–30
- Berners-Lee, Tim, 107–8, 161, 173, 232
- Bill of Rights for the internet, see declaration of internet
rights
- ‘Blaney’s Blarney’ case, 252–3
- Bohm, Nicholas, 154, 157
- bots (computer-generated identities), 254–5
- boyd, danah, 245
- Bradley, Anna, 5
- Brandeis, L. D., 33
- Brown, Ian, 281
- browsers
anonymous searching enabled by, 135–6
‘Do Not Track’ implementation
by, 167–8
- browsing behaviour, commercial analysis of, 67–8
- BT, secret trials of Webwise system
by, 161–2, 170–1
- Buckinx, W., 64
- Bulgaria, implementation of Data
Retention Directive in, 102–3
- Burton Review (UK), 194
- business interests
on internet, 14
global scale of, 228
and internet privacy, 21–2, 45, 52, 202, 221–2
- business models of Google, 58, 117–20 new privacy-friendly, 200, 209, 219–21, 222–3, 227–8
and Symbiotic Web regulation, 80–1, 136–7, 143
- capacity, 26
- Cerf, Vint, 5, 260
- Chalmers, D. J., 180
- Chester, Jeff, 166
- China, hacking of Google by government of (‘Google hack’), 184, 187–8, 190, 282
- Clark, A., 180
- Clayton, Richard, 153
- clickstream data, 64–5, 119–20
- cloning of online identities, 253
- Code of Practice for Privacy Notices (Information
Commissioner’s Office,
United Kingdom), 42
- Cohen, J. E., 241, 247
- collaborative consent, 18, 40–2, 147, 210–11
to behavioural tracking, 174
- commercial value, of data, 72–3
- commercial websites, role in Symbiotic Web, 64–5
- Communications Consumer Panel
(UK), 5
- communications on internet interception of, 158
- communications providers
data gathering by, 62, 71
role in Symbiotic Web, 61–2
- communitarianism autonomy and privacy criticised
by, 46–7
network, on laws on internet, 83–4 perspectives on internet privacy rights of, 278–9

- compartmentalisation of identities, 249–50
- competing interests, on internet, 14
- computer-generated identities (bots), 254–5
- Computer Misuse Act (UK, 1990), 96–7
- consent
 - and autonomy, 36
 - to behavioural tracking, 147, 160, 174
 - collaborative, 18, 40–2, 174, 210–11
 - and criminality, 97
 - Data Protection Directive on, 89, 90
 - on internet, 36–8, 39–40
 - opt-in/opt-out systems of, 38–9, 160
 - for unsolicited emails, 95
 - for use/retention of search data, 123–4, 129–30, 140
- control
 - over link between online and offline identities, 237, 255–7
 - and privacy, 35
 - data utilisation, 210–11
- Convention on Cybercrime (Council of Europe), 96–7, 191–2
- cookies, flash, 225–6
- Cookies Directive (EU), 95–6, 116, 168–9
- copyright, see intellectual property
- crime on internet, see cybercrime
- Cyber Intelligence Sharing and Protection Act (CISPA, US), 107
- cybercrime, legislation on, 96–7
- cyberlibertarians, on laws on internet, 82–3
- cyberpaternalists, on laws on internet, 83
- cyberwarfare, 184
- data
 - clickstream, 64–5, 119–20
 - commercial value of, 72–3
 - gathering of, 66
 - by communications providers, 62, 71
 - by free services providers, 65
 - and privacy rights, 9, 207–10
 - for profiling, 148–9
 - geo-location, 114
 - legal regimes for protection of, 74, 78, 158–60, 191–2, 223
 - by EU, see Data Protection Directive
 - tensions with data retention regimes, 99–101, 122, 126, 128–9, 138, 139
 - online and offline, 54–5
 - integration of, 6
 - quality requirements, 90–1
 - retention, 74, 97–103, 138, 211–12, 281–2
 - benefits of, 139–40
 - justifications for, 177
 - of searches, 118–19, 122–4
 - retention of, 126–30, 138
 - secure keeping of, 91
 - social, 27–8
 - use of, control over, 210–11
 - see also* personal data
- Data Protection Directive (DPD, EC), 74–5, 88–92, 223
- Article 29 Working Party, 79, 89, 124
- conflict with Google, 124–31, 132–3, 137–8, 143, 222, 228, 231–2, 275
- criticism of Data Retention Directive, 99–101
- impact of, 114–15
- implementation of, 92, 163–4
- reform of, 92–4
- Data Retention Directive (DRD, EC), 97–103, 142, 281
- de-anonymisation, 205–6
- Declaration of the Independence of Cyberspace (Barlow), 82
- declaration of internet rights, 271–4
- defamation of online identities, 251–2
- deletion
 - of online identity, 252
 - of personal data
 - and anonymisation, 204–5
 - highlighting of possibilities for, 204
 - right to, 18–19, 138–9, 177, 178–9, 200–2, 206, 211–12

- weapon against vulnerability of data, 206
- dialogues, as part of consent procedures, 42
- digital divides, 4
- digital economy, 2–3
- Digital Economy Act (UK, 2010), 109–10
- digital memory, 206
- disaggregated identities, 250
- disclosure minimisation principle, 19, 248–9, 250
- ‘Do Not Track’ initiatives, 144, 166–8, 222
- DuckDuckGo, 134
- e-money systems, need for, 59–60
- E-Privacy Directive (EC), 94–5
- economy, digital, 2–3
- email, unsolicited, see spam
- email providers, see communications providers
- empowerment of individuals, and rights-based approaches, 232
- encryption technology, 198–9
- Ertugrul, Kent, 152, 170
- European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (ECHR), 30, 51–2, 85, 87–90, 108
 - and Data Protection Directive, 90
 - on right to privacy (Art. 8), 87
- European Court of Human Rights, on data retention, 102
- European Court of Justice
 - on data retention, 101–2
 - right to privacy and freedom of expression, 213
- European Union
 - conflict with Google, 124–31, 132–3, 275
 - resolution of, 137–8, 143, 222, 228, 231–2
 - Cookies Directive, 95–6, 116, 168–9
 - data protection regulation by, see Data Protection Directive
 - Data Retention Directive, 97–103, 142
 - E-Privacy Directive, 94–5
 - exceptions to right to delete personal data, 18–19, 202–4, 211–12
 - exceptions to right to privacy/internet privacy, 87
 - in Data Protection Directive, 89
 - laws on, 97
 - exclusion from online services, 252
 - extended mind concept, 180
 - extended self, personal data as, 179–81
- Facebook, 62–3, 222
 - Beacon affair, 67, 171
 - online identities policy of, 242
 - Rushdie’s identity on, 243–4
- Falciani, Hervé, 189
- Fawkes, Guido, 51
- Fearon, J. D., 240
- feminism
 - autonomy and privacy criticised by, 47–8
 - perspectives on internet privacy rights of, 279–81
- flash cookies, 225–6
- Fleischer, Peter, 39–40, 119, 128–9, 133, 142
- Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA, US), 186
- forgetting, virtues of, 206, 285
- forgotten
 - right to be, 18, 177, 201–2
 - see also* deletion of personal data, right to
- found, right to be/not to be, 269–70
- Foundem case, 270
- France
 - governmental use of illegally obtained banking data, 189
 - legislation on intellectual property surveillance in, 110
- Franklin, Benjamin, 283
- free enterprise, and right to delete, 202
- free services, providers of, data gathering by, 65
- freedom
 - of assembly, on internet, 270–1
 - and autonomy, 30

- freedom (cont.)
 on internet, 269–70
 and internet privacy, 51–2, 201–2, 203, 213
 restrictions on, 31–2 function creep, in data uses, 72–3 future of internet, 54, 59
 of internet privacy, xi, 22–3, 175
- Gearty, C. A., 44, 271, 283
 geo-location data, 114
 Germany governmental use of illegally obtained banking data in, 188–9, 191–2
 implementation of Data Retention
 Directive in, 102
 global scale of internet businesses, 228
 Gmail, see Google
 GNI (Global Network Initiative), 273–4
 Gomes de Andrade, N. N., 241
 Google
 biasing of search results by, 270 business model of, 58, 117–20
 and Symbiotic Web regulation, 60–1, 136–7
 Chinese government's hacking of ('Google hack'), 184, 187–8, 190, 282
 conflict with EU authorities, 124–31, 132–3, 275
 resolution of, 137–8, 143, 222, 228, 231–2
 as email provider, 62
 online identities policy of, 242–3 personal data gathering by, 37, 122 mining of, 183
 privacy policies of, 290 reports on governmental search data requests, 185
 search results of, 120–1
 Street View, 171–2 targeted advertising by, 119–20, 156
 US government requests for search data from, 184–5
- governments acquisition of personal data by, 184–7 illegal/hacking, 184, 187–90, 192–3
 data losses by, 193–6
 impact of internet privacy rights on, 16–17, 20–1
 interests on internet of, 14 internet surveillance by, 276–7 privacy needs of, 283
 Symbiotic Web shaping by, 73–7
- hacking
 of personal data, 182–4
 by Chinese government ('Google hack'), 184, 187–8, 190, 282
 and protection of anonymity, 260–1
 HADOPI Law (France), 110
 Halfon, Robert, 272
 Hari, Johann, 258
 harm, protection of online identities against, 251–2
 Harrah's casinos, predictive profiling
 by, 150–1
 Hart, H. L. A., 29
 history, interactive, 246–7
 HTML5, 226–7
 human rights, 10–11
 autonomy as basis for, 30–1 functions of, 78
 to privacy, 10, 33, 87–8
 Hustinx, Peter, 100, 103, 281
- ICO (Information Commissioner's Office, UK)
 on governmental data losses, 195–6, 197, 199
 Privacy by Design Report, 215, 216, 218–19
 on UK data protection regime, 223–4 identifiable search data, retention of, 126–30
 identification of individuals, through behavioural tracking, 150, 153–4
 identities, 240–1
 multiple/compartmentalisation of,
 249–50, 261–2

- online, 17, 234–5
 - and anonymity, 235–6
 - assertion of, 247–50
 - creation of, 241–2, 245–7
 - and internet privacy, 237–8
 - and offline identities, 237, 242–5
 - right to, 19, 234, 236–7, 250–9
 - and technological developments, 259–61
- and privacy, 239–40
- theft of, 253
- images, related to online identities, 246
- impersonation, online, 252–5
- individuals
 - browsing behaviour by, commercial analysis of, 67–8
 - empowerment of, and rights-based approaches, 232
 - identification of, through behavioural tracking, 150, 153–4
 - impact of internet privacy rights on, 20
 - interests on internet of, 14
- Information Commissioner's Office (ICO, United Kingdom), 42
- informed consent, 40–1
- instant collaboration internet business model, 220–1
- instant tailoring internet business model, 220
- intellectual property rights, internet surveillance for protection of, 109–11
- intelligence services
 - internet surveillance by, 108–9, 185–6
 - see also* PRISM programme
- interception of online communications, 158
- interest data from online shopping, 64–5
- interests theory of rights, 29, 178
- internet
 - access to, as human right, 4–5
 - anonymity on, 53
 - and behavioural tracking, 154, 173
 - and deletion of personal data, 204–5
 - autonomy on, 12–14, 27–8
 - communication of privacy notices on, 42
 - competing interests on, 14
 - consent on, 36–8, 39–40
 - crime/criminal behaviour on, see cybercrime
 - development/future of, 22–3, 54, 59, 287–8
 - importance in contemporary life, 2–4
 - laws on, 82
 - cyberlibertarians on, 82–3
 - cyberpaternalists on, 83
 - on data retention, 97–103
 - on intellectual property surveillance, 109–11
 - on network communitarianism, 83–4
 - on surveillance, 103–4, 106–7, 115
 - in United Kingdom, 104–5
 - maturity of, 235
 - personal data on, 5–6, 7
 - see also* behavioural tracking and targeting; profiling
 - as public space, 7–8
 - rights-based approaches to, 269, 278
 - see also* Symbiotic Web
- internet privacy, ix, 1, 34, 35, 50–1, 52, 288–9
 - and autonomy, 265–6, 267–8
 - and business interests, 21–2, 45, 52, 221–2
 - need for new business models, 200, 209, 219–21, 222–3, 227–8
 - end of/transparency criticism of, 48–50, 283–7
 - and freedom of expression, 51–2, 201–2, 203, 213
 - future of, xi, 22–3, 175, 289–90
 - laws on, 85–6, 116
 - Cookies Directive (EU), 95–6, 116
 - development of, 86–7
 - E-Privacy Directive (EC), 94–5
 - invasive, 97
 - and online identities, 237–8
 - protection of, 9
 - deficiencies in, 263–5

- internet privacy (cont.)
 transparency criticism of, 48–50 rights, ix, 14, 207, 212–13, 228–30, 233
 application of, 213–15
 and autonomy by design concept, 217–19
 benefits of, 142, 233
 communitarian views of, 278–9 and data gathering, 9 to delete personal data, 18–19, 138–9, 177, 178–9, 200–2, 206, 211–12
 exceptions, 18–19, 202–4, 211–12
 and right to have data anonymised, 204–5
 exceptions, 89
 feminist views of, 279–81
 impact of, 19–22
 and jurisdiction issues, 228 to monitor the monitors, 17–18, 42, 172–4, 210–11 need for, 263, 268
 to online identity, 19, 234, 236–7, 250–9
 and privacy-friendly business models, 227–8
 to roam the internet with privacy, 15–17, 140–2, 143, 207–10 and surveillance, 16–17, 43–5
 rights-based approaches to, 223–4
 and technological neutrality, 224–7
 and security, 43–5, 51, 74–5, 203, 281–3
 self-regulation of, 79, 233
- internet rights, 8, 269 to access personal data, 91 declaration of, 271–4 to be forgotten, 18, 177, 201–2 to be/not to be found, 269–70 freedom of assembly, 270–1 freedom of expression, 269–70 to internet access, 4–5, 250 and law, 274–6
 to online identity creation, 247 to social networking, 270–1
- see also* internet privacy, rights
- Internet Service Providers (ISPs)
 impact of internet privacy rights on, 16, 141, 214–15
 role in Symbiotic Web, 63–4
- internet surveillance, 75–7, 108–9, 276–7
 and internet privacy rights, 16–17, 43–5
 laws on, 103–4, 106–7, 115
 minimisation of, 141, 277–8 to protect intellectual property rights, 109–11
 subversion of, 260–1
- ‘internet of things’, 6–7
- Ireland, implementation of Data
 Retention Directive in, 101
- Koot, Matthijs R., 183
 Kuneva, Meglana, 168
- La Rue, Frank, 109, 236, 276
 Landau, Susan, 282 law, and internet rights, 274–6 laws on internet, 82 crime, 96–7
 cyberlibertarians on, 82–3
 cyberpaternalists on, 83
 on data retention, 97–103
 on intellectual property surveillance, 109–11 network communitarians on, 83–4
 privacy, 85–6, 116
 Cookies Directive (EU), 95–6, 116
 development of, 86–7
 E-Privacy Directive (EC), 94–5
 exceptions/invasion, 97
see also privacy, laws on surveillance, 103–4, 106–7, 115
 in United Kingdom, 104–5
- Lessig, L., 71–2, 83
 limits, on transparency, 286–7
 Lockheed Martin (company), 186–7 long-term collaboration internet business model, 221
- MacMaster, Tom, 258
 McNealy, Scott, 49

- manipulation, protection from, 25–6
- marketing industry, enthusiasm for behavioural tracking and targeting, 145
- markets, for data, 72–3
- Mayer-Schönberger, Viktor, 206, 285, 286
- media coverage, of government hacking/acquisition of stolen
data, 189–90
- medical consent, 41
- Mexico, Geolocalization Law in, 114
- Microsoft, ‘Do Not Track’ implementation by, 167, 222
- Mill, John Stuart, 29–30
- Miller, Sue, 163
- minimisation of data, 177, 195, 199–200, 211
of disclosure, 19, 248–9, 250 of internet surveillance, 141, 277–8
- monitoring of internet activities, 153–5
benefits of, 17
right to monitor the monitors, 17–18, 42, 172–4, 210–11
- The Morality of Freedom* (Raz), 24–5
- Mozilla, ‘Do Not Track’
implementation by, 167
- multiple identities, 261–2
- Murray, Andrew D., 11, 83, 97, 272, 283
- Narayanan, A., 205
- natural rights, 29–30
- Netherlands, implementation of Data
Retention Directive in, 101
- network communitarianism on laws
on internet, 83–4
- The New York Times*, 226
- news and information websites, and internet privacy rights, 214
- Nightjack blogger, unmasking of, 256–7
- Nissenbaum, H. F., 9–10, 25–6, 33, 34, 35
- non-data gathering internet business model, 219–20
- Nothing to Hide: The False Tradeoff Between Privacy and Security*
(Solove), 51
- NSA (National Security Agency, USA), PRISM programme of/internet surveillance by,
75–6, 108, 185–6
- nymwars, 242–5
- offline data
gathering of, 54–5
integration with online data, 6
- offline identities and online identities, 242–5, 262
boundaries between, 242
links between, 237, 251, 255–7
- online advertising industry, behavioural tracking by, 13
- online banking, 218
- online community, 83–4
- online data, integration with offline
data, 6
- online identities, 17, 234–5
and anonymity, 235–6
assertion of, 247–50
creation of, 241–2, 245–7
and internet privacy, 237–8
and offline identities, 242–5, 262
boundaries between, 242
links between, 237, 251, 255–7
right to, 19, 234, 236–7, 250–9
and technological developments, 259–61
- online privacy, see internet privacy
- online shopping, data gathering through, 64–5
- opportunity, 26
- opt-in/opt-out systems of consent, 38–9, 160
- Paine, Thomas, 29–30
- PATRIOT Act (US), 186–7
- payments, online, 218
- penalties, for data losses/failures of data security, 197
- personal data, 5–6
acquisition by governments of, 184–7 illegal/hacking, 184, 187–90, 192–3
control over, 8–9, 91
Data Protection Directive, definition of, 89

- personal data (cont.)
 as extended self, 179–81
 Google's gathering of, 37, 122 loss of by governments, 193–6 penalties for, 197
 as property right, 178–9 right to access, 91
 right to delete, 18–19, 138–9, 177, 178–9, 200–2, 206, 211–12
 exceptions, 18–19, 202–4, 211–12
 and right to have data
 anonymised, 204–5
 sensitive, special protections for, 91 vulnerability of, 7, 91, 181, 196, 282–3 autonomy threatened by, 176
 commercial risks, 181–2
 to governments, 184–7, 192–6
 hacking and technological risks, 182–4 solutions, 197–200, 206, 211–12
 Phorm, 152
 Webwise system, 67–8, 146–7, 150, 152–7, 225
 controversies over, 160–4, 172, 231, 232, 275
 failure of, 151–2, 164–6, 169–71, 220, 230
 legality of, 157–8, 160
 politics, and profiling, 267–8
 Poole, Chris, 244
 Poynter Report (UK), 193–4 predictive profiling, 150–1
 PRISM programme (NSA), 75–6, 108, 185–6
 privacy, 1–2, 32–3
 and anonymity, 17
 and autonomy, 9–10, 15, 285
 and control, 35
 criticism of communitarian, 46–7
 feminist, 47–8
 end of, ix of governments, 283
 and identities, 239–40
 laws, 111–12
 in United States, 112–14
 right to, 10, 33
 see also internet privacy; protection,
 of data
 Privacy by Design Report (ICO, UK), 215, 216, 218–19
 profiles, retention of, 138, 204 profiling, 122, 148–51, 266
 impact of, 13
 by Phorm, 156
 and politics, 267–8
 by users of social networks, 62–3 volunteering for, 175 property rights intellectual, internet surveillance for protection of, 109–11
 to personal data, 178–9 protection of autonomy, 9–10, 15
 and internet privacy rights, 212
 of data
 EU law on, see Data Protection
 Directive
 legal regimes on, 74, 78, 158–60, 191–2, 223
 tensions with data retention,
 99–101, 122, 126, 128–9, 138, 139
 from manipulation, 25–6
 of intellectual property, on internet, 109–11
 of internet privacy, 9
 deficiencies in, 263–5
 transparency criticism of, 48–50
 of online identity, see online identities, right to pseudonymity, 236, 258–9 public spaces internet as, 7–8 privacy protection in, 9 quality requirements for data, 90–1
 Rawls, J., 28
 Raz, J., 9, 24–5, 26–7, 28, 29
 Reding, Viviane, 163–4
 Reed, C., 84, 275
 Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act
 (RIPA, UK, 2000), 104–5

- reputation damage to online identities, 251–2
- retail websites, and internet privacy rights, 214
- retention of data, 74, 138, 211–12, 281–2
- benefits of, 139–40
- EU directive on, 97–103, 142, 281
- justifications for, 177
- search data, 126–31
- tensions with data protection, 99–101, 122, 126, 128–9, 138, 139
- rights
- to anonymity, 236, 256–7
- autonomy as basis for, 28–30, 269–71
- criticism of, 42–3
- balancing of, 84–5, 213
- to intellectual property, internet surveillance for protection of, 109–11
- on internet, see internet rights
- to internet privacy, see internet privacy, rights
- natural, 29–30
- property, personal data as, 178–9
- theories of, 28–9, 178
- see also* freedom of assembly; freedom of expression; human rights
- rights-based approaches, 15
- to internet, 269, 278
- to internet privacy, 223–4
- and empowerment of individuals, 232
- and technological neutrality, 224–7
- and symbiotic regulation, 81, 231–2
- risks, of default position of privacy on internet, 238
- roaming the internet with privacy, right to, 15–17, 140–2, 143, 207–10
- Robertson, Struan, 168
- Romania, implementation of Data Retention Directive in, 102–3
- Ronson, Jon, 254–5
- Rosen, Jeffrey, 201
- Rushdie, Salman, online identity of, 243–4
- SABAM v. Netlog and Scarlet v. SABAM* cases, 213, 275
- Schäuble, Wolfgang, 190
- Schmidt, Eric, 178
- Schneier, Bruce, 225, 282
- search data, 118–19, 122–4
- consent for use or retention of, 123–4, 129–30, 140
- governmental requests for, 184–5
- retention of, 126–31, 138
- search engines, 117–18, 131, 265–6
- alternatives for, 136
- biasing of search results by, 270
- data gathering by, 208
- individualised advertising by, 58
- influences of, 13, 16
- privacy-friendly, 133–4, 213–14
- provisions for anonymity in use of, 135, 140
- role in Symbiotic Web, 60–1, 120–2
- secure keeping of data, 91
- security
- of data, and encryption technology, 198–9
- and internet privacy, 43–5, 51, 74–5, 203, 281–3
- see also* antiterrorism; internet surveillance
- self, extended, personal data as, 179–81
- self-government, 28
- self-profiling on social networks, 62–3
- self-regulation, of internet privacy, 79, 233
- sensitive personal data
- and consent issues, 160
- special protections for, 91, 158–60
- Shmatikov, V., 205
- smartphones
- and augmented reality, 6–7
- used for searching, 136
- Smith, Roger, 282–3
- Snowden, Edward, 75–6
- social data, 27–8
- social networking
- rights to, 270–1

- social networking (cont.)
 role in Symbiotic Web, 62–3
 used for searching, 136
- Solove, Daniel J., 32–3, 45, 50, 51, 184, 285
- Sony Playstation Network, hacking of, 183
- spam, EU law on, 95
- spoof identities, 255
- spyware, 97
 and adware, 152, 170
- Startpage, 134
- Stop Online Piracy Act (SOPA, US), 110
- Street View (Google), 171–2
- strong anonymity, 238–9
- Sunstein, C. R., 70
- supermarket loyalty schemes, data gathered by, 6
- surveillance, see internet surveillance
- Sweeney, Latanya, 205
- Switzerland, illegally obtained banking data from, governmental use
 of, 188–9, 191–2
- symbiotic regulation
 and rights-based approaches, 81, 231–2
 of Symbiotic Web, 79–80, 131, 136–7, 142–3, 171–2
 Phorm's Webwise failure, 169–71 towards new business models, 222 theory, 11
- Symbiotic Web, x, 6, 11–12, 53–6 elements of, 65
 commercial websites, 64–5
 communications providers, 61–2
 Internet Service Providers, 63–4 search engines, 60–1, 120–2
 social networking services, 62–3 emergence and evolution of, 56–60 governments' role in, 73–7 management of, 77–9
 new business models required for, 80–1, 136–7, 143
 symbiotic regulation, 79–80, 131, 142–3, 169–72, 222
 risks of, 65–8, 71–2
 Balkanisation, 70–1
 commercial value of data, 72–3 data gathering, 71 government surveillance, 75–7 tailoring, 68–70
- T-Mobile, 181–2
- tailoring, 68–70, 266
- Taking Stock, Taking Action (ICO Report, UK), 195–6, 199
- targeted advertising, 119–20, 155–6
- targeting techniques, 147–8 see also behavioural tracking and targeting
- technology for anonymous searching, 135 identity-based, 259–61 for internet surveillance, 282 neutral, and rights-based approaches to internet
 privacy, 224–7
- Teff, Harvey, 41
- Tene, O., 250
- theft, of identity, 253
- The Times* (newspaper), unmasking of NightJack blogger by, 256–7
- transaction data from online shopping, 64–5
- transfer of data, control over, 91
- transparency criticism, of internet
 privacy, 48–50, 283–7
- transparency reports on governmental search data requests, 185
- Turkle, S., 242
- UNESCO, on internet privacy, 236
- United Kingdom
 authentication systems in, 260 data losses by government of, 193–6 internet surveillance by government
 of, 76–7
 legislation on cybercrime (Computer Misuse Act, 1990), 96–7
 on data protection, 158–60, 163–4, 223–4
 implementation of Cookies
 Directive, 168
 implementation of Data Retention
 Directive, 99

- on intellectual property surveillance, 109–10
 - on internet surveillance, 104–5
 - penalties for data losses/failures of data security in, 197
- United States
 - data retention policies in, 281–2
 - Google's search data requests from government of, 184–5
 - internet surveillance by (PRISM), 75–6, 108
 - legislation in
 - on behavioural tracking and targeting, 166–8
 - Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA), 186
 - on intellectual property surveillance (SOPA), 110
 - on internet surveillance (CISPA), 107
 - on privacy, 112–14
 - privacy bill of rights proposals, 272–3
 - Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism (USA PATRIOT) Act of 2001, 186–7
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 30
- on right to privacy (Art. 12), 87
- unsolicited emails, see spam
- usernames, allocation of, 253–4
- Van den Poel, D., 64
- Vaz, Keith, 104
- volunteering, for profiling services, 175
- vulnerability of personal data, 7, 91, 181, 196, 282–3
 - autonomy threatened by, 176
 - commercial risks, 181–2
 - to governments, 184–7, 192–6
 - hacking and technological risks, 182–4
 - solutions, 197–200, 206, 211–12
- Walker, Claire, 103, 281–2
- Warren, S., 33
- Waters, Darren, 164
- weak anonymity, 238–9
- Webwise, see Phorm, Webwise system
- Whitten, Alma, 290
- WikiLeaks, 7
- will theory of rights, 29
- Wilmot, Mark, 145
- worldwide web, see internet
- WUMs (wind-up-merchants), 254
- XY Magazine, 182
- Yahoo!, as email provider, 62
- Zuckerberg, Mark, 1, 49, 284