Index

Aamotshakken, B., 40
academic learning, and social identification, 10, 229
Afdal, G., 198
Atfenposten, 47, 48–49
alternative pedagogy, 30, 202
Andersen, B., 44, 46
“Area Lift” programme, 217–18
Ashly school, 117
Barnsley school, 55, 55t3.3
Barton, D., 6
Bettie, J., 13
Biesta, G., 17, 72
bildung, 3, 16, 17–19, 25, 28, 177, 192, 203, 215, 216, 228, 229
and learning lives, 33–35
Biseth, H., 44, 46
Booth, M., 49
Borg, E., 41
boundaries of belonging, 197–202
boundary crossing, 69
Brochmann, G., 36, 38

capitalism and Nordic model, 33 career trajectories, longer-term, 175
cartmel, F., 192
celebrating the other, 203
children of Norwegian-born parents, 36
choice-making, 223
based on place, 173–74
and decisions, 166
educational policy, 166
and future-making, 166
social geography and, 186
Christianity, and “the other”, 31–33
civic engagement, 198 collective imagining, 106
collective self-understanding, 29 commuting time, and school choice, 175 comprehensive school, 235
compulsory schooling, 227
construction of students’ own agency, 23, 135 contexts, 7–8
shifting properties of, 8
continuity across sites, 69
cultural clashes, 28 cultural identities, 12, 75–76, See also identity
Aisha and Amna’s story, 98–101
and cultural work in families, 82–85
curriculum of the cold, 76–77
defined, 75
ethnically defined, 103
Khalida’s story, 95–97
Marcus’s story, 86
reworking immigrant identities with social capital, 98–101
reworking older immigrant identities, 94–98
symbolism and, 75
Tharakesh’s story, 86–89
transported and maintained, 85–94
work, 219
cultural narratives of learning, 224 cultural resources, and future-making, 136 cultural work, 220
curriculum, 236–37, See also Norwegian national curriculum hidden curriculum, 4
curriculum of the cold, 76–77, 84–85
curriculum reform, 235
Davidson, E., 4 debt of gratitude, 184
Deeplake school, 52, 53t3.1, 84, 107, 110
outdoor environment, 77, 81
demerath, P., 4
democracy, 214
Djøve, A.B., 36
Index

education choice [abroad], 95–98, 176–85 education system in Norway, 233–38 educational aspirations, 189 educational policy, and choices, 166
Edwards, R., 8
enterprise education, 125–27
equal opportunities, 166
Eriksen, I.M., 41
Eriksen, L.L., 29, 32
ethnic capital, 188
etnic category, 12
outdoor activities, 83–84
ethnography, 4
linguistic ethnography, 5
everyday agency, 72
everyday artefacts, and learning, 105, 106, 107
everyday experiences and activities, and learning identities. See under learning identities
Facer, K., 191
families
collective decision on future career, 182 cultural work in, and cultural identities, 82–85 expectations of, 190
from immigrant, 216
narratives, 221, 226
role in future-making, 166, 191
and tradition, 197–202
Fekjær, S., 188
feminism, 40
folk high schools, 56, 176–88
folk learning, 229
formal education, 50, 72, 103, 192
life chances relating to, 187 framing activity, 203–5
free choice, 166–71
free play, 105
central features, 106
freedom of choice, 171
by immigrants, 169–71
interpretation of, 185–87
Mahudan’s story, 112–16, 169
friluftslev (open air life), 46, 48
friluftsveske, 48
funds of knowledge, 6, 98–99
Furlong, A., 192
future, uncertainty about, 180 future-making, 185–92, 223, 224, 228
Cathrine’s story, 172–74, 175
as local and individualized experiences of agency, 192
mobility and, 165
parents’ role in, 166
personal choice and aspirations, 171–76
qualifications and, 165
school choice and, 165
Sheshan’s story, 172, 174–75
social geography and, 165
and timescales, 227
gaming in the home, and learning, 14 gap year opportunity, 176–85, 187, 188
Andreas’s story, 177–80
David’s story, 180–82
Houda’s story, 183, 184–85, 195–96, 197
Khalida’s story, 183–84
gender, 12, 136
academic performance and, 31
equality, 221
General Plan of 1950, 42
global, local, and social perspectives, of
narratives, 190
global social networks, and future-making, 176 globalization, 2
and Nordic model, 33
goal-oriented pedagogy, 34
Grieg, N., 223
grit, and outdoor play, 77–82
Grorudalen, 2, 20, 27–28, 217, 221
classes, 45
Cohort 1 young people in, 52–53
Cohort 2 young people in, 53–55
Cohort 3 young people in, 55–56
as a conflict in public debate, 46–49 education choice outside of, 176–85
graphic area, 45
housing in, 44–45
learner identity. See learning identities as a local community in a global world, 223 location of kindergartens in, 77 role of schools in, 220
settlement patterns in, 42–46
as a signifier for new Norway, 219–24 sociogeographical aspects of, 77
Gullestad, M., 37, 197, 203
Hall, S., 75
Hamilton, M., 6
© in this web service Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
identity. See also cultural identities; learning identities
- collective, 37
- conflicts, 103
- construct of, 11
- dimensions, 9n1
- language and, 29
- national identity, 37
- work, 11, 130
imaginary situation creation (in relation to play), 106 imagined sameness, 37, 203 immigrant cultural identities, reworking with social capital. See under cultural identities immigrant families, 85, 220
immigration, 2, 28
  in Norwegian social policy, 35–38
Insen, G., 238
incidental learning, 72
individual motivation, 173 individual narratives, 56–57
  Alan's story, 65–71
  Jennifer's story, 57–64
  individual trajectory, 192
indoctrination, 32
informal learning, 50, 69, 72
inquiry-based learning, 112
institutional boundaries developing within, 5 movement across, 15
instrumental concerns, 190 integration, 37
Jacobsen, C.M., 40
James, A., 124
Johansson, E., 124
kindergartens and schools, differences between, 219
Kjeldstadli, K., 38
knowledge promotion reform, 33, 235–36
Kunnskapsloftet, 33, 235–36
language
  as identity marker, 29
  out of school learning, 5
  in school, 5
language of learning, 17
Lave, J., 133
learnnification, 17
learning
cultural narratives of, 224
description of, 4, 14
domains for, 217
everyday artefacts and, 105, 106, 107
in the family, 5
gaming in the home and, 14
language of, 17
outside of school, 4–7, 229
and potentialities, 1
sociocultural framework of, 7 theories of, 224–27
understanding of, 7
understood as work, 133
learning experience, 14 learning identities, 9–13, 46, 105–7, 162–64, 224, 225, 230. See also identity Amirtha's story, 143–48 closing down of interests, 143–48 closing down of interests, new possibilities, 148–56 in contexts other than school, 163
everyday experiences and activities and, 137
forming through narrative, 135–37 goal-directed and ambitious actions, 156–62
and learning lives, 71–74
learning work in primary school, 117–24
Lien's story, 137–43
Mathia's story, 148–56
new interests, new opportunities, 137–43 and non-academic entities, 143 preparing for working lives, 124–25
Sara's story, 156–62
learning lives, 1, 17, 28, 50, 216–19
bildung and, 33–35
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Learning lives (cont.)</th>
<th>Norwegian national curriculum, 18, 236–37</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Groruddalen as a signifier for new Norway, 219–24</td>
<td>Christianity in, 31–33</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>learning identities and, 71–74</td>
<td>educating tolerance, 198</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>rationale for studying, 228–31</td>
<td>Norwegian textbooks. See textbooks</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>learning over time, 13–17</td>
<td>Norwegian values and norms, 48</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learning to labour (Willis), 4, 6</td>
<td>Norwegian welfare model, 24, 193</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>learning trajectories, 134</td>
<td>Norwegian-born to immigrant parents, 36</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Leirvik, M., 188</td>
<td>Norwegianness, 12, 38, 221, 222</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>leisure experiences, 163</td>
<td>education and, 28–30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lemke, J., 10, 218, 225</td>
<td>language and, 29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>lifelong learning, 73</td>
<td>performances of, 102</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>linguistic ethnography, 5</td>
<td>textbooks and, 38–41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>literacy learning across social contexts, 6</td>
<td>white Norwegianness, 39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Local literacies (Barton and Hamilton), 5</td>
<td>among young Muslim women, 40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>local school, 30</td>
<td>not-learning, 4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>longitudinal studies, 17</td>
<td>Nynorsk language, 29</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lorentzen, S., 38</td>
<td>object and actions, changing the meaning of, 106</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>low-income families, 43</td>
<td>older immigrant cultural identities. See under cultural identities</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Luke, A. 9</td>
<td>optional assignment, 199</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lundon school, 117</td>
<td>Arian’s assignment, 202–5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>market logic of educational choice, 174</td>
<td>Sara’s assignment, 199–200</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>McLeod, J., 73</td>
<td>Vebjorn’s assignment, 200</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>media, 222–23</td>
<td>optional assignments, 221</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>methodology, 72, 73</td>
<td>oral presentation, 95–97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>migration and family networks, 185</td>
<td>organization of learning practices, 134</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>mobility, and future-making, 165</td>
<td>Oslo, 28, 171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Moje, E. 9</td>
<td>Østrem, S., 39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>motivation, and further studies, 180</td>
<td>“the other”, 35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>multiculturality, 37, 39, 194, 214</td>
<td>and Christianity, 31–33</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Munch, P. A., 38</td>
<td>in educational contexts, 38–41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>narrative analysis, 135–37, 226</td>
<td>“otherness”, 27</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>narrative learning, 164, 225</td>
<td>in Norwegian social policy, 35–38</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>national identity. See identity</td>
<td>outdoor play</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>national romanticism, 187</td>
<td>grit and, 77–82</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>neoliberalism, 31</td>
<td>learning through, 76–77</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nespor, J., 230</td>
<td>out-of-school interests, 149, 152, 153</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>new Norwegian-ness, 136, 228, 230</td>
<td>outside of school learning, 4–7, 163</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>non-immigrant parents, 186</td>
<td>parents support, 173, See also families</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>non-Norwegian heritage, 99</td>
<td>peasant culture, 35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nordic educational philosophy, universalistic tenet to, 173</td>
<td>pedagogization, 221</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nordic model, 3</td>
<td>of familiar objects and artefacts, 124</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and bildung, 33–35</td>
<td>peer-based experiences, 163</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Christianity and the other, 31–33</td>
<td>personal choice and aspirations, 171–76</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>education in, 30–31</td>
<td>personal development, 173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nordic welfare state, 28, 30, 36</td>
<td>Pinewood school, 53, 54±3.2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Norwegian educational system, 3, 28</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
PISA (Programme for International Student Assessment) testing, and Nordic model, 33

Plausible prejudice (Gullestad), 197 playful approach. See work and play playing the other, 202–5 moderating controversy, 207–10

shifting identities, 210–14

social-emotional nature of the debate, 205–7

popular culture, 163

position of the learner, 9, 11, 63, 74, 225

Pramling Samuelsson, I., 124

pre-existing interests, 182

pre-existing sets of values and practices, 217

pre-school lessons, 107–16

public school system, 19, 30, 221

qualifications, and future-making, 165

qualitative studies, research methodology, 73

quantitative studies, research methodology, 73

Ramadan, T., 103

Rampton, B., 5

redistributive social welfare, 30

Redwood school, 52, 53t3.1, 105, 107

outdoor environment, 79, 81, 82–83

reflexivity, process of, 135

religious education courses, 41

role/real identities, 210–11, See also cultural identities; identity; learning identities role-plays, 199, 202, 215

Roostami, C. H., 186

Rosmarin school, 117

Røthing, Å, 40, 94

Rysst, M., 41

salon/skincare vocational courses, 127–32

Sami people, 32n1, 40

Scandinavian model, 33

folk high schools. See folk high schools Schegloff, E., 7, 8

Schengen Agreement of 1985, 36

school

as common ground, 214–15

reasons for changing, 186

school choices, 221, 230

and future-making, 165

interests and, 175

Marcus's case, 167–68

uncertainty about, 173

school for all, 30, 171, 237

scientific report, 110

second generation of immigrants, 103

secularism, in Norway, 31

Selander, S., 40

self, 190

reflective process of, 188

sense of, 156–62

self-driven enquiry, 130

single, small communities studies, 73

situating learning, 133

skolebytte, 167

social capital, reworking immigrant cultural identities with. See under cultural identities social classes, 12, 20

social geography and choice, 186

and future making, 165

social identities, 12–13, See also cultural identities; identity; learning identities social imaginary, 197

social issues, in moving out of the valley, 175

social practices, sense of, 17

social situations, as a context for learning, 8

social structure, subjectivity and, 74

social transformations, 217

socio-anthropology, 4

of language and literacy, 5

socioculturalism, 7, 50, 216, 225

socioeconomic class-based differences, 219

specific cultural narrative, 217

Stanby school, 55, 55t3.3

Stevens, R., 14

Stonefield school, 53, 53t3.1, 54t3.2

Stonemak school, 52, 84, 107, 110

outdoor environment, 77, 81

storytelling, 94

structural opportunities, 190

structured activity, 122

student-centred activity, 129

subject choices, 175

subjectivity as a learning outcome, 4

social structure and, 74

Svendsen, S.H., 40, 94
| tacit learning, 72 | vocational work, 125 |
| Tajik, H., 47, 222 | Volekmar, N., 238 |
| Tamil families, 83–84, 84n2 | Ways with words [Heath], 5 |
| Tangled up in school [Nespor], 230 | Weis, L., 15 |
| task-driven pre-school activities, 116 | Wenger, E., 133 |
| textbooks, analysis of, 38–41 | white flight, 44, 167, 186, 220 |
| Thomson, R., 16, 73 | white Norwegianness, 39 |
| TIEY [Tidlig Innsats, Early Years], 52, 52n2, 117–23 | white, middle-class Norwegians, 219 |
| time and space, structuring of, 110 | white, non-immigrant Norwegians, 93, 94, 99, 103, 173, 186 |
| timescales, 10–11, 225–26, 227 | Willis, P., 4, 6 |
| tolerance, 193–94, 203, 214, 215, 221, 228 | work and play boundaries between, 110, 226 |
| educating for, 198 | play restructuring, 107–16 |
| Townhill school, 117 | working lives, 124–25 |
| 22 July killings, 193, 194–97, 214, 222 | enterprise education, 125–27 |
| Tybring-Gjedde, C., 47 | salon/skincare vocational courses, 127–32 |
| universal right to upper secondary education. See school for all | Silje’s story, 125 |
| valley of otherness [Groruddalen], 20, 25, 28, 46–49, 217, 223 | Wortham, S., 10, 11, 13, 74, 143, 163, 164, 225, 226 |
| Vell school, 117 | | |
| vocational courses, 127–32 | Yates, L., 73 |