Table of Contents

Abbreviations and Spanish Terms
Preface
  Introduction
  The Figures
  Historiography
  ‘Checas’ in Madrid?
  Principal Theses
  A Note about Sources
 1. On the Brink
  The Elections of February 1936
  Antifascist Action, Fascist Reaction
  Madrid Anarcho-syndicalism
  The Military Conspiracy
  The Killing of Calvo Sotelo
 2. The Military Rebellion
  Rumours and Mobilisation
  The Botched Rebellion
  The Battle Continues
 3. Antifascist Madrid
  Those Who Talk of Chaos Are Lying!
  The Emergence of Revolutionary Tribunals
  The Noble ‘People’
 4. Forging the New Police
  Cleansing the Police
  The Antifascist Criminal Investigation Police
  The Creation of the Provincial Committee of Public Investigation (CPIP)
Table of Contents

5 The Justice of the People
   The Unspoken Fear 106
   The CPIP and the Network of Terror 106
   Gangsterismo 110
   Women 121
   Venturing Further Afield 138

6 If It Is the Will of the People . . .
   Responses to the Terror 145
   Two Exceptions: Manuel de Irujo and Melchor Rodríguez García 149
   Bourgeois Republicans and the Terror 151
   The Jaén Trains 153
   The Death of General Eduardo López Ochoa 156
   The Cárcel Modelo Massacre 158

7 Popular Tribunals and the Rearguard Vigilance Militias (MVR)
   The Collapse of Republican Justice? 170
   The Failure of the Popular Tribunals 171
   The Creation of the Rearguard Vigilance Militias (MVR) 175

8 A Fifth Column?
   Origins of the Term 'Fifth Column' 185
   Survival Not Resistance 188
   Protecting the Family 198

9 The Prison Problem
   The Fifth Column Panic 201
   Prison Life 205
   Prison Conspiracies: CPIP Action, Government Inaction 211
   The Flight of Agapito García Atadell from Madrid 217
   The CPIP Takes Charge 221

10 Paracuellos
   The Meeting 231
   The Sacas of 7–9 November (I): A Well-oiled Machine? 238
   The Sacas of 7–9 November (II): Victims and Perpetrators 246
   Resistance and Foreign Intervention: Melchor Rodríguez Stops the Evacuations 257
   The Dissolution of the CPIP 263
   The Operation Resumes – the Sacas from Ventas, San Antón, and Porlier 271
   The End of the Massacres 279

11 The Dirty War against the Fifth Column
   The Special Brigades 284
   Police Reform, 1937–1938 294
   The Military Investigation Service (SIM) 298
Contents

12 Dealing with the Legacy of the Terror: Forced Labour for Fascists
   1937–1939 304
   The Selective Punishment of ‘Uncontrollables’ 305
   The Creation of Labour Camps 313
   The End of García Oliver’s Dream 320
   Epilogue 324
   The Hunters Become the Hunted 324
   Red Terror, Blue Terror 332

Annex 1 Post-curfew Passwords Issued by Police Headquarters in Madrid 339
Annex 2 The Network of Terror 341
Annex 3 Prisons in Madrid Autumn 1936 343
Annex 4 Evacuations from Madrid’s Prisons 28 October to 4 December 1936 345

Sources Consulted 347
   Archives 347
   Newspapers and Official Bulletins 349
Cited Bibliography 351
Maps 363
Glossary of Key Figures 369
Index 377