accountability 71, 249
  see also global governance standards
actual or perceived value 10, 12–13 advertising initiatives for achieving impacts 234–235 agriculture-based economies 198 Airbnb 185, 210–211
ambassadors, employees as 118–119
Apple 73
assurance-based learning 264–265
autonomy for local managers 150–151
backwards linkages in value chains 136–137
Baron, D.P. 259–260
Bartlett, C.A. 255–258
beer industry 234
behavior, standards of. see global governance standards; standards of behavior beliefs, businesses founded on 184–185
BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico
  broader view of stakeholders due to 13 competitors, impact on 6–7 credit rating of BP 6
destruction of value 107–109
employees, impact on 6
financial impacts 5–6
future production, impact on 6
indirect effects 129
industry, impact on 7
law suits following 7
multiplier effects 7, 15, 16–17
operational impacts 6
positive multiplier effects from 17
reputation, impact on 6
spillover effects 6–7, 15
stakeholder network and recovery from 17 stakeholders impacted by 5–7 takeover target, BP as 6 branded products 11, 24
prestige-laden products 74
promises and expectations of 70
recycling of branded bottles 71
British Petroleum. see BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico
business associations 93
convergence of interests 233
social and environmental issues 145
business crises
  focus on 46–48
  ‘not my job’ mindset 169
business models
  built on impacts 185–186
  new, via social media 240
business objectives, outreach aligned with 159
cause-related marketing 72
ceremonial adoption 148, 260 certification systems 187–189
  see also global governance standards
changes in expectations. see expectations, changes in civil society organizations 193–197, 254, 260–261 clarity
  of focus 97–98, 272
  over co-creating value 135 closure of organizations 62–63
clustering of organizations 80
co-creation of value
  as alternative to capturing value 279–281
benefits of 1
clarity over 135
combination of impacts 104, 122
communities 78–79
complexity of 1–2
compliance, impacts as equivalent to 176–178
corporations’ ability in 22–24
effectiveness of, measurement of 123–125
expectations, changes in 199–201
financial mindsets 53–56 global economy 270–272
information-sharing impacts 96–100
initiatives for achieving impacts 241–242
issue-by-issue approach, implications of 224–227
mechanisms for achieving impacts 241–242
multiplier effects 131–132, 152–153
myths about, implications of 178–179
‘not my job,’ impacts as 168–173
partnerships 241–242
philanthropy, mitigating impacts as 157–162
product impacts 75–76
relationships, importance of 60
size of firms 162–168
spillover effects 122–125
stakeholder-by-stakeholder approach, implications of 224–227
whole-of-company approach 279–281
co-location of services for employees 64–65
Coca-Cola 246
codes of conduct 187–189
see also global governance standards
collaborative mechanisms to achieve impacts 232, 239
combination of impacts 17
benefits of 102–103
co-creation of value 122
destruction of value 107–109
holistic view of firms 104
net impacts 109–111
stakeholders, interaction between 104
for value creation 104
see also spillover effects communication
philanthropic outreach to 157–162
smart phones 42–43
communities
building infrastructure of 117–118
business objectives, outreach aligned with 159
changing boundaries and composition of 83–86
choice of issues 97–98
clarity of focus 97–98
clustering of organizations 80
creation of value 96–100
of common interest 81–82, 84
cultural sensitivity 100
depth of concern over impacts 99–100 employee interests, outreach aligned with 159–160
expectations of corporate behavior 88
of experts 85
fact-based information 87
firm- or community-centric information 87–88 fluidity of 83–84
general public as included in 86
and global economy 270–272
information-sharing connection with 78 latent groups in 86
local, as most affected by impacts, myth of 173–176
local disparities 80–81
local focus of firms, benefits of 91–94
local/global impacts, tension between 244–245
managerial gaps 98
new business models 79
new business opportunities through 81
NGOs, engagement with 91
organizational networks as 84
overlapping interests 85
as overlooked 78
perceptual information 87
product-based spillover effects 120 responsibilities, sharing of 90
Index

332 communities (cont.) rhetoric/reality, consistency between 99 seen as source of friction 175 skills and expertise transfer to 116–117 small, spillover effects in 115

smaller problems/concrete actions 96–97
social and community issues 94–95
social issues along value chains 139–145
spillover effects 120–122
trade/professional/business associations 93
traditional mindset as restricting 82
and value creation 78–79
variety of information shared 87–89
virtual 78, 79, 81–82, 175
volume of information shared 89
competition changing expectations of business 184–190 game changing issues 209–211
global strategies 256–257, 259–260 multidomestic strategies 257–259 strategies for multinational corporations 255–258
traditional product-market strategies, limitations of 259–263
transnational strategies 258 competitors, impact on of BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico 6–7
complementary products 73–74
compliance, impacts as equivalent to 176–178
see also legal impacts; legal systems conditions in the workplace 66
consistency, need for 272–273
contracts 134–135
corporate governance
and impacts, assumptions concerning 245
initiatives for achieving impacts 237
see also global governance standards
corporations
ability to create value 22–24
size of firms 162–168, 186, 266–270
cost center mindset 48–49
countries, small, as innovators 270 creation of value. see co-creation of value credit rating, impact on of BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico 6 crises focus on 46–48
‘not my job’ mindset 169, 172
cross-functional initiatives for achieving impacts 231–232, 236–237

cultural sensitivity 100
customer-focused organizations 58, 68–69, 119–120
DeBeers 209–210
Deepwater Horizon oil spill. see BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico
depth of concern over impacts 99–100
deregulation 191
destruction of value 107–109
direct effects
financial 35–37
multiplier effects 129
and net impacts 110–111
distributing issues 207–209
downsizing/closing, dealing with 62–63
effectiveness, measurement of 123–125
efficiency 39–41
emerging economies, (in)stability of 261
employees, impact on ambassadors, employees as 118–119
attraction of potential employees 66–68
BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico, impact of 6
colocation of services 64–65
conditions in the workplace 66
downsizing/closing, dealing with 62–63
engagement with employees 62–63, 159
financial inducements 63–64
inclusivity in the workplace 65
infrastructure of communities, building 117–118 initiatives 234
interests of, community outreach aligned with 159–160
Index

investment, employee-based 116–117
leadership development 64
leadership opportunities 66–68
legal systems 65
metrics for measuring 63
non-financial inducements 64
norms in businesses, industries and regions 65–66
respect towards employees 61–62
retention of employees 64, 66–68
spillover effects 113–119
transfer of skills and expertise to communities 116–117
types of 9–10
employment opportunities for local people 114 through the value chain 265
engagement with employees 62–63, 159
Enron 215–216
entrepreneurs
responses to changing expectations 186
see also small firms
environmental issues
initiatives for achieving impacts 237
integration of issues 250–251
multiplier effects 132–133, 145–147
product use 71
sources of products 136–137
trade/business/professional associations 145
see also issue-by-issue approach
expectations, changes in blurring of boundaries 197–199
civil society 193–197
and co-creation of values 197–201 competition 184–190
game changing issues 209–211
governments 190–193
expertise transfer 116–117
experts, communities of 85
externalities of business 51
externally-oriented crises 46 Exxon Valdez oil spill 17, 215 faith, businesses founded on 184–185
farm-restaurant relationships 43–44 FedEx 64
financial impacts
BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico, impact of 5–6
complexity of 2
direct and indirect effects 35–37
evaluation with non-financial impacts 38–39
limitations of 276–277
as multidimensional 34–35
spillover effects 111
stakeholder groups, impacts on 14–15
wider view than 8–9
financial mindsets
assumptions based on 37–38
and co-creating value 53–56
cost centre mindset 48–49
changes, focus on 46–48
direct and indirect effects 35–37
dividends/profits as partial picture only 37
efficiency 39–41
focus on shareholders as incomplete 34
innovation 41–45
investment mindset 48–50
limitations of 38, 53–56, 58
parade of horribles 46–48
pernicious behaviors 50–53
reliance on as restricting 35
risk identification 37–38
social entrepreneurs 45
win-win situations 39–45
Food and Drug Administration (FDA) 221–222
food shelters, distribution to 72–73
Foxconn 73
Friedman, M. 78–79, 155, 163
functional initiatives 231, 234–236
game changing issues 209–211
gatekeepers, stakeholders as 221–222
general issues 205–207
General Motors 49 127, 234
Ghoshal, S. 255–258
giveaways, mitigating impacts as 157–162 global competitive strategy 259–260

global coordination of multiplier effects 148–149

global economy
clarity of focus 272
and co-creation of value 270–272
competition strategies for MNCs 255–258
consistency, need for 272–273
emerging economies, (in)stability of 261
global competitive strategies 256–257, 259–260
information disclosure 257–259
and local pressures 270–272
local tastes, customization to 69, 74, 91, 147–149, 257
multidomestic competitive strategies 257–259
traditional product-market strategies, limitations of 259–263
transnational competitive strategies 258

global financial crisis, multiplier effects of 16

global governance standards
accountability 249
assumptions 245
assurance-based learning 264–265
benefits for MNCs of 248
demands for 244, 261–263
engagement-based learning 265
global competitive strategies 256–257
government-led 253
hurdles, seen as 249
implementation as undermining intentions of 249 increase in 248–249
industry-led 253–254
information disclosure 249, 251–252
integration of issues 250–251
issues for MNCs around lack of 245–247 legitimacy as purpose of 249–251
local/global impacts, tension between 244–245
multilateral-led 254
opportunities from 263–266
performance-based learning 264

process-oriented systems 251
purposes of 249
response-based learning 264
government(s)
enterprises owned by 75 enterprises sponsored by 198
expectations, changes in 190–193
governance standards 253
impacts seen as responsibility of 168–173
and scalability 268–269
social issues, role regarding 217
as stakeholders 85–86
Grameen Bank 185–186
Greenpeace 221
groups of firms. see partnerships Gulf of Mexico oil spill. see BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico

harm mitigation 208–209
high status products 74
high visibility industries 231
holistic view of firms 104
Honda 91–92
human resources
initiatives concerning 234. see also employees, impact on hypernorms 254

impacts of firms’ actions aggregation of across stakeholders 233 business models built on 185–186
learning from crises 21
local communities as most affected 173–176
narrow/broad approaches to 222–224
as ‘not my job’ 168–173
number and variety of 4–5
philanthropy, mitigating impacts as 157–162
prevention of bad impacts 2–3
size of firms 162–168
as strategic choices 233
whole-of-company approach 279–281
wider view of 3
see also combination of impacts;
employees, impact on; financial impacts; information-sharing impacts; issue-by-issue approach; product impacts in-kind product donations 72–73
inclusivity in the workplace 65
indirect effects
financial 35–37
multiplier effects 129–131
and net impacts 110–111
industrial sectors
BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico 7
focus on particular impacts 229
governance standards 235–254
high visibility industries 231
industry associations
convergence of interests 233
mechanisms to achieve impacts 233
informal sector 198
information asymmetries 192
information disclosure 249, 251–252, 257–259, 260–261
information-sharing impacts actual/perceived 12–13
changing boundaries and composition of communities 83–86
choice of issues 97–98
clarity of focus 97–98
clustering of organizations 80
creation of value 96–100
common interest communities 81–82, 84 communities as overlooked 78 connection with communities 78
cross-border transfers 91
cultural sensitivity 100
customization to individual consumers 88–89
depth of concern over impacts 99–100
direct/indirect 12–13
expectations of corporate behavior 88
experts, communities of 85
fact-based information 87
firm- or community-centric 87–88 fluidity of communities 83–84
general public as included in communities 86
latent groups in communities 86
leadership opportunities 91–96
local disparities 80–81
local focus of firms, benefits of 91–94
managerial gaps 98
new business models 79
new business opportunities through 81
NGOs, engagement with 91
organizational networks as communities 84 overlapping interests in communities 85
perceptual information 87
positive and negative 11–12
responsibilities, sharing of 90
rhetoric/reality, consistency between 99
smaller problems/concrete actions 96–97
social and community issues 94–95
spillover effects 120–122
starting point for identifying 95
trade/professional/business associations 93
traditional mindset as restricting 82
variety of information shared 87–89
virtual communities 78, 79, 81–82
volume of information shared 89
information technology
smart phones 42–43
social media 78, 79, 81–82, 175, 194, 240
virtual communities 78, 79
Information Technology Industry Council (ITIC) 230 infrastructure 190
initiatives for achieving impacts
choosing 230–231, 233
co-creation of value 241–242
corporate governance 237
cross-functional 231–232, 236–237 development 236
environmental 237
functional 231, 234–236
human resource initiatives 234
marketing 234–235
multiplier effects of 236
procurement 236
Index

initiatives for achieving impacts (cont.)
  ways to think about 233
  see also mechanisms to achieve impacts
innovation 41
  and global governance standards 261–263
  small countries as innovators 270
stakeholder-by-stakeholder approach as stifling 220
integration of issues 250–251
internally-oriented crises 46 internet. see information technology
investment, employee-based 116–117
investment mindset 48–50
issue-by-issue approach
  along value chains 207–209
  co-creation of value, implications for 224–227
  discrete items, issues as 212
  fluidity of issues 214
  as focus 202–203
  game changing issues 209–211
  general issues 205–207
  impact-focused approach as alternative 203–204, 224
  integration of issues 250–251
  intertwined, issues as 214 legacy issues 215
  limitations of 204–205
  movement between types of 211–212
  persistent issues 217
  prioritization of 205–206
  sourcing-producing-distributing issues 207–209
issue networks 143–144
job creation through the value chain 114

Kravis, Henry 1

labeling of products 70
large firms
  and co-creation of value 162–168
  responses to changing expectations 186
  and scalability 266–269
latent groups in communities 86
layoffs, dealing with 62–63
leadership development 64
leadership opportunities
  employees, impact on 66–68
  information-sharing impacts 91–96
  product impacts 74–75
learning
  assurance-based 264–265
  from crises 21
  engagement-based 265
  performance-based 264
  response-based 264
legal impacts
  BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico 7
  compliance, impacts as equivalent to 176–178
legal systems
  governments, role of 191
  impacts seen as responsibility of 168–169, 171
  and net impacts 109–110
  personnel impacts 65
  product impacts 73
legitimacy
  global competitive strategies 256–257
  as purpose of global governance standards 249–251 local communities. see communities
  local focus of firms, benefits of 91–94, 100, 120–122
  local/global impacts, tension between 244–245
  see also global governance standards
  local managers
  autonomy for 150–151
  ‘not my job’ mindset 170, 171–172
  local tastes, customization to 69, 74, 91, 147–149, 257

management innovations 43–45
marketing 69
  cause-related marketing 72
  initiatives for achieving impacts 234–235
  materiality 124–125
  McDonald’s 221
  measurement of effectiveness, 123–125
  mechanisms for achieving impacts
Index

co-creation of value 241–242
  collaborative 232, 239
  industry associations 233
  solo 232, 238–239
  ways to think about 233
  see also initiatives for achieving impacts
microfinance 185–186, 267
Microsoft 216
mission, businesses founded on 184–185
mobile phones 42–43
momentum 123, 124–125
monitoring and reporting 151
multidomestic competitive strategies 257–259
multinational corporations competitive strategies for 255–258
  see also global economy; global governance standards
multiplier effects
  across geographies 147–149
  along the value chain 16–17
  assumptions when addressing 152–153
  autonomy for local managers 150–151
big picture perspective needed 132
BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico 7, 15, 16–17
clarity over co-creating value 135
co-creation of value 131–132, 152–153
  coordination of 131
  defined 15–16, 128–133
  direct effects 129
environmental multipliers along
  value chains 145–147
  global coordination 148–149
  global financial crisis 16
  indirect effects 129–131
  initiatives for achieving impacts 236
  issue networks 143–144
  monitoring and reporting 151
  positive from BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico 17
risk mitigation 149
shared responsibilities 149–152
  social and environmental issues 132–133
social issues along value chains 139–145
  sources of products 136–137
use of products 137–138
  value chains 133–139
vertically integrated firms 139
myths about co-creating value
  compliance, impacts as equivalent to 176–178
  implications of 178–179
  local communities as most affected 173–176
  ‘not my job,’ impacts as 168–173
philanthropy, mitigating impacts as 157–162
  size of firms 162–168
nation states
  governance standards 253
  impacts seen as responsibility of 168–169
nationalized enterprises 75
net impacts 17–20, 109–111
networks
  issue 143–144
  organizational, as communities 84
  see also multiplier effects Nokia 62–63
non-financial impacts
  complexity of 2
  evaluation with financial impacts 38–39
  integration of activities across functions 278–279
  ‘not my job’ mindset 169
non-governmental organizations engagement with 91
  global governance standards 254
  norms in businesses, industries and regions 65–66, 109–110, 187–189, 254
  see also global governance standards
  ‘not my job,’ impacts as 168–173
oil spill, Gulf of Mexico. see BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico Operation Hope 225
operational impacts of BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico, impact of 6
organizational networks as
  communities 84
parade of horribles mindset 46–48
partnerships
  co-creation of value 241–242
partnerships (cont.)
    convergence of interests 233
    credibility 226–227
    focus on particular impacts in industrial sectors 229
    social media 240
    as way to achieve impacts 239 perceived or actual value 10, 12–13
    performance-based learning 264
    pernicious behaviors mindset 50–53
    persistent issues 217
    personnel impacts. see employees, impact on pharmaceutical industry, multiplier effects in 129
    philanthropy, mitigating impacts as 157–162
    prestige-laden products 74
    privatization 191
    process innovation 43
    process-oriented systems 251
    procurement initiatives for achieving impacts 236
    product impacts
        accountability 71
        cause-related marketing 72
        and co-creation of value 75–76
        complementary products 73–74
        customer focus 68–69
        food shelters, distribution to 72–73
        in-kind product donations 72–73
        labeling of products 70
        leadership opportunities 74–75
        legal systems 73
        local tastes, customization to 69, 74
        marketing of products 69–70
        negative externalities 72
        prestige-laden products 74
        range of 10–11
        recycling of branded bottles 71
        social issues 71
        sources of products 136–137
        spillover effects 119–120
        state-owned enterprises 75
        use of products 137–138
        vertically integrated firms 74–75
        product innovation 41–43
        production issues 207–209
        professional associations 93, 145 public-private partnerships 25–26 reality/rhetoric, consistency between 99 recruitment of potential employees 66–68
    recycling of branded bottles 71
    relationships
        importance in co-creating value 60
        see also multiplier effects renewable energy programs 267
        reputation, impact on 277
        BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico 6
        respect towards employees 61–62
        see also employees, impact on
        response-based learning 264
    responsibility
        ‘not my job,’ impacts as 168–173
        sharing of 90, 149–152
        Walmart 172–173
        restaurant-farm relationships 43–44
        retention of employees 66–68
        rhetoric/reality, consistency between 99
        risk identification 37–38
        risk mitigation 149, 192
    scalability 266–269
    self-regulation 187–189
    shareholders
        financial spillover effects 111
        focus on as incomplete 34 integration with stakeholders 38–39
        size of firms 266
        and co-creation of value 162–168
        responses to changing expectations 186
        skills transfer 116–117
    small countries as innovators 270
    small firms
        and co-creation of value 162–168
        impact integration from the start 269–270
        and scalability 266–269
        smart phones 42–43
    social entrepreneurs 45
    social issues
        along value chains 139–145
        integration of issues 250–251
        multiplier effects 132–133
        as persistent issues 217
        product use 71
Index

- sources of products 136–137
- trade/business/professional associations 145
- issue-by-issue approach
- social media 78, 79, 81–82, 175, 194, 240
- sources of products 136–137
- sourcing issues 207–209
- spillover effects
  - ambassadors, employees as 118–119
  - BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico 6–7, 15
  - co-creation of value 122–125
  - communities 120–122
  - effectiveness, measurement of 123–125
  - employees, impact on 113–119
  - employment of local people
  - feedback from customers, action on 119–120
- financial 111
- growth/shrinkage of firms 115
- information 120–122
- infrastructure of communities, building 117–118
- investment, employee-based 116–117
- job creation through the value chain 114
- and net impacts 110
- product impacts 119–120
- skills and expertise transfer 116–117
- in small communities 115
- volunteering, employer-sponsored 114–115
- spin-off organizations 45
- staff. see employees, impact on
- stakeholder-by-stakeholder approach
  - changeability of stakeholders 220–222
  - co-creation of value, implications for 224–227
  - gatekeepers. stakeholders as 221–222
- mixed messages 219
- multiple roles/hats of stakeholders 219
- narrow focus on impacts due to 222–224
- as stifling innovation 220
- stakeholder forums 192

- stakeholder network
  - recovery from BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico 17
  - see also multiplier effects
- stakeholders
  - aggregation of impacts across 233
  - BP oil spill, Gulf of Mexico, impact of 5–7
  - financial impacts 14–15
  - financial spillover effects 111
  - governments as 85–86
  - integration with shareholders 38–39
  - interaction between 104
  - net impacts on 109–111
  - Starbucks' public-private partnership with Colombia 25–26
  - wider view of 3
  - workplace impacts 14–15
- standards of behavior
  - expectations of corporate behavior 88
  - and net impacts 109–110
  - pernicious behaviors mindset 50–53
  - self-imposed 187–189
  - see also global governance standards
- Starbucks' public-private partnership with Colombia 25–26, 236
- state-owned enterprises 75
- survival after crises 20–21
- Tata 43, 186
- taxes 190–191
- technology. see information technology
- Tesla 210
- Timberland 45
- tobacco manufacturers 213–214
- Toyota 43, 49, 91–92, 210
- trade associations 93
- mechanisms to achieve impacts 233
- social and environmental issues 145
- transfer of skills and expertise to communities 116–117
- transnational competitive strategies 258
- Unilever 113–114
- universal standards, demands for. see global governance standards
- value
  - actual or perceived 10, 12–13
value (cont.)

cost savings

co-creation of

as alternative to capturing value

279–281

benefits of

1

clarity over 135

combination of impacts 104, 122

communities 78–79

complexity of 1–2

compliance, impacts as equivalent to 176–178

effectiveness of, measurement of 123–125

expectations, changes in 199–201

financial mindsets 53–56

global economy 270–272

information-sharing impacts 96–100

initiatives for achieving impacts 241–242

issue-by-issue approach, implications of 224–227

mechanisms for achieving impacts 241–242

multiplier effects 131–132, 152–153

myths about, implications of 178–179

‘not my job,’ impacts as 168–173

philanthropy, mitigating impacts as 137–162

product impacts 75–76

relationships, importance of 60

size of firms 162–168

and spillover effects 122–125

stakeholder-by-stakeholder approach, implications of 224–227

whole-of-company approach 279–281

corporations’ ability to create 22–24

destruction of 107–109

direct/indirect 12–13

value chains

backwards linkages 136–137

clarity over co-creating value 135

contracts 134–135

downside economic risks 135

environmental multipliers along 145–147

issues along 207–209

multiplier effects 16–17, 133–139

social impact along 139–145

sources of products 136–137

traditional, product-based 133–136

use of products 137–138

values, businesses founded on 184–185

variety of information shared 87–89

vertically integrated firms/sectors 74–75, 139, 268

ViiV Healthcare 45

virtual communities 78, 79, 81–82, 175

voluntary regulation 187–189

volunteerism, employer-sponsored 114–115

Walmart 172–173, 213, 224–225

whistleblowers 219

whole-of-company approach 279–281

win-win situations 39–45

workplace impacts

attraction of potential employees 68

colocation of services for employees 64–65

conditions in the workplace 66

inclusivity 65

norms in businesses, industries and regions 65–66

spillover effects 113–119

stakeholder groups, impacts on 14–15

types of 9–10

see also employees, impact on