

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06453-9 - Understanding Multinationals from Emerging Markets

Edited by Alvaro Cuervo-Cazurra and Ravi Ramamurti

Index

More information

Index

Page numbers in italics are tables

- Abramovitz, M., 132
 accountancy, 25
 Acer, 116–17, 119
 acquisitions
 knowledge resources, 137, 178–84, 290
 legitimacy, 210–15, 290
 nationality of subsidiary, 23
 partial, 182
 profitability, 212
 Ranbaxy, 139
 strategic asset seeking, 178–84
 Suzlon Energy Limited (SEL), 144–45 value chain development, 65 value creation, 210–11
 adaptation environment, 17 products, 18, 114, 131, 288
 adversity advantage, 39, 41–42, 56–57, 115–16, 121, 294
 aerospace industry, 63–65
 affiliations see business groups Aharoni, Yair, 22, 272, 293 aircraft industry, 2, 63–65
 airline industry, 25, 85
 Aliber, Robert, 24
 alliances, 290
 Amano, T., 75
 AmBev, 250
 see also Anheuser-Busch InBev ambiguity of nationality, 204–6, 216–17
 Anglo-American, 195, 201, 204
 Anheuser-Busch InBev, 117–18, 120–21, 197, 209–10
 Arçelik, 19–20
 Asian Tigers, 1–2
 asset seeking, 54–55, 247
 auto components industry, 135–37, 145, 146, 147, 161–62, 250, 256
 Aviation Industry Corporation Group of China (AVIC), 63–65
 Aybar, B., 210
 bank-led development, 37, 39, 112
 Barnard, Helena, 292, 294
 Bartlett, C. A., 245, 256
 Beamish, P., 245
 Bharat Forge, 136, 137
 Birkinshaw, J., 196, 198, 199, 204, 207
 Bollywood, 134, 140–43
 Borini, F., 251
 “born global” firms, 208
 Brandl, Kristin, 293
 Braskem, 249
 Braunerhjelm, P., 196
 Brazil
 Anheuser-Busch InBev, 117–18, 120–21
 business models, 245 commitment, 248
 country of expansion selection, 246–47, 257
 country of origin effects, 252, 258
 culture, 254
 firm-specific advantages (FSAs), 242, 244–45, 251–52, 252
 global FDI share, 171, 248, 257
 Global Production Networks (GPNs), 255–56 history, 8–9, 243, 252–54, 257–58
 home market focus, 63, 72–73
 innovation, 244–45, 250, 260
 mergers and acquisitions (M&As), 247–48, 250 natural resources, 254–55
 organisational models, 249–51
 subsidiaries, 250–51
 Bremner, Ian, 18
 British American Tobacco, 44, 196–97

- Buckley, Peter J., 21, 34, 36, 215, 275 Bunge, 197
 business groups, 8, 227–32, 234–35, 285, 291
- capabilities, 116, 118–19, 125, 211, 215, 217, 294 capital access, 112, 292 car industry, 71–72 case studies historical analysis, 35, 37–41 recent sources, 3 selection bias, 66
 Casson, M., 36
 CAT test see Complementary-Appropriable-Transferable framework catch-up processes, 7, 129–30, 131–32, 133–34, 145–49, 155–56, 272–73
 CEMEX, 109, 117, 119–20
 Chandler, A. D., 198, 199, 206–7
 China
 see also Lenovo
 Aviation Industry Corporation Group of China (AVIC), 63–65
 educational systems, 182–83
 firm-specific advantages (FSAs), 53
 global FDI share, 172
 global integration, 158
 guanxi, 25
 home market focus, 61–63, 72, 76
 internationalization challenges, 176
 joint ventures, 177
 management of subsidiaries, 57, 181 outgoing FDI, 188
 reverse knowledge transfer, 182
 state-owned enterprises (SOEs), 19, 59, 61–63
 subsidies, 32, 187
 Western firms expansion mistakes, 174–75, 176
 China Communications Construction (CCC), 61–63
 China Shipbuilding Industry, 63
 ChingFeng, 73
 code sharing agreements, 17 collaboration, 178
 collocation advantages, 97, 101
 colonialism, 205, 254
 commitment, 173–74, 248
 competition, 32, 92, 100
 competitive advantage emerging market requirements transference, 7, 20–21, 131–32
 fast follower strategies, 130, 132, 144
 global value chains, 7 home market size, 22
 latecomer status, 20, 33, 39, 57–58, 131–32
 research focus, 4
 Complementary-Appropriable-Transferable framework (CAT), 6, 119, 285 computing industry, 23, 67–69, 116–17
 see also Lenovo
 configuration, 249–51 consolidation, 132, 136, 162
 contingency theory, 25–26 control, 200, 204, 206 coordination, 249, 251
 corporate governance, 287, 292
 country of expansion selection, 246–47, 257
 country of origin
 see also nationality of EMNCs Brazilian firms, 258 liability of origin, 207, 287, 292
 overview, 252
 pulls, 252–55, 285
 pushes, 255–58, 285
 research focus, 263, 271, 295
 country-specific advantages (CSAs)
 adversity advantage, 39–40, 41–42, 56–57, 115–16, 121, 294
 collocation, 97, 101
 definitions, 53, 156
 heterogeneity, 129
 innovation, 288
 internationalization process model (IPM), 174–75 “public goods,” 97 relationship to firm-specific advantages, 6, 18, 21, 53, 57, 82, 156–57
 research focus, 293–94
 restricted access, 6, 83, 96, 97–99, 103, 157

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06453-9 - Understanding Multinationals from Emerging Markets

Edited by Alvaro Cuervo-Cazurra and Ravi Ramamurti

Index

More information

Index

319

- weakness, 83, 95
- cross-border activity, 87, 91–92, 198
- Cuervo-Cazurra, A., 56–57, 161, 233, 246, 252, 273–74
- cultural differences, 25–26, 246
- currency access, 24

- Dau, A., 233
- D’Cruz, J. R., 22
- decentralization, 57
- Deephouse, D. L., 215–16
- defence industry, 63–65
- diamond exchange, 26
- diasporas, 203, 205–6
- disruptive innovation, 236
- domestic market focus, 6
- dormitory system, 39
- double diamond, 22, 85
- Doz, Y. L., 275
- “dragon multinationals,” 31, 33, 36–37, 215
- Dunning, John H., 16, 34, 35, 54, 160, 275

- Eastern European economies, 149
- economic actors
 - definitions, 84
 - inertia, 93, 94
 - pre-globalization, 87, 100
- Eden, L., 205
- educational systems, 182–83, 289–90
- Elango, B., 183
- electronics industry, 123–24
- elephant parable, 26
- Embraco, 250, 256
- Embraer, 2, 250
- emerging markets
 - characteristics, 203, 225, 229–30
 - definitions, 2–3
 - dual economy, 129
 - global FDI share, 172
 - growth, 157–58
 - heterogeneity, 129
 - income levels, 288
 - infrastructure, 285–88, 289–90
 - institutional transition, 232–36
 - emigrants, 202, 203, 204–6
 - entrepreneurial comparison, 208–9
 - entry strategies, 156, 159, 162–63, 224–25, 247–48
- Escobari, M., 245
- ethnocentrism, 115
- European ownership patterns, 228
- external stakeholders, 198, 199, 207

- fast follower strategies, 130, 132, 144
- FDI see foreign direct investment
- Ferrexpo, 197
- Ficici, A., 210
- filmed entertainment industry, 134, 140–43, 147
- financial performance, 6
- financial services, 90, 95, 112, 197–98
- firm-specific advantages (FSAs)
 - Brazil, 242, 244–45, 252
 - China, 53
 - definitions, 53, 156
 - development of strategies, 22
 - government cooperation, 132–33
 - location specificity, 56, 57, 100
 - non-traditional, 157, 165
 - as part of IB theory, 16, 155
 - as part of OLI theory, 21
 - recombination capability, 56, 57, 58, 76, 103, 161
 - relationship to country-specific advantages, 6, 18, 21, 53, 57, 82, 156–57
 - research focus, 274
 - types, 58
 - value capture, 66–67
- Fleury, Afonso, 251, 285
- Fleury, Maria T. L., 251, 285
- Ford Motor, 22
- foreign direct investment (FDI)
 - exclusion from early IB theory, 15–16
 - growth in EMNC share, 2, 9, 18, 31, 170–73, 234, 284
 - mergers and acquisitions (M&As), 17, 183
 - outgoing from Brazil, 246
 - outgoing from China, 188
 - ownership-location-internalization (OLI) theory, 54
 - as percent of world output, 42–43
 - pre-globalization, 86
 - pre-World War I period, 38, 42–43
 - product cycle theory, 35
 - state discouragement of inbound, 1

- foreign direct investment (FDI) (cont.)
 - statistical effect of tax havens, 199–200
 - strategic alliances, 17
 - strategic asset seeking, 178–84
 - strategy types, 31
- Forsgren, M., 16–17
- Fortune Global 500, 59, 60–61, 75–76
- Foxconn, 109, 123–24
- Fraunhofer, 90
- free agents, 84
- free standing companies, 43
- Fresnillo plc, 197
- FSA see firm-specific advantages
- Genc, M., 56–57
- General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), 112, 139
- Gerdau, 204–5, 250
- Germany, development in nineteenth century, 5, 33, 37–40
- Gerschenkron, Alexander, 33, 36–39, 44–45
- Ghoshal, S., 245, 256
- Global Production Networks (GPNs), 255–56
- Global Value Chain Enterprises (GVCEs), 6, 109, 122–25, 160, 161–62
- global value chains
 - competitive advantage, 7
 - historical networks, 205
 - subsidiary location effect, 9
- globalization
 - see also* liberalization
 - definition, 82, 83
 - development, 89–92
 - home market focus, 100–1
 - institutions, 96
 - prior period, 85–89
 - process, 83–84
- Godley, Andrew, 293
- golden opportunities, 245
- government policy
 - Asian Tigers in 1960s and 1970s, 1–2
 - catch-up processes, 132–33, 148
 - domestic focus, 87
 - implementation issues, 92
 - India, 148
- internationalization process model (IPM), 187
- wind power industry, 143
- GPNs see Global Production Networks
- Greece, 232
- Greek shipping, 39
- growth of EMNCs, 1–2, 18, 31
- guanxi*, 25
- Gubbi, S. R., 210
- GVCEs see Global Value Chain Enterprises
- Haier, 19–20, 63, 72, 121, 290
- Harries, Grant, 202
- Hawthorne effect, 24–25
- headquarter roles, 198, 206, 249
- health care, 25
- Hedlund, G., 205
- Hennart, J.-F., 56, 184
- high-tech industry, 2, 25, 32, 155–56
- Hirsch, S., 201, 202
- historical comparisons, 5, 33–34, 40–41, 44–46, 204–5
- Hofstede, G., 246
- Holm, U., 196
- home country
 - Brazil, 8–9
 - definitions, 22–23
 - growth impedance, 81
 - market size, 21–22
 - research focus, 3, 4, 295
- Honda, 74, 75
- HSBC, 197, 204
- Huawei, 2, 32
- Hutchinson Whampoa, 205
- Huy, Q. N., 207–8
- Hymer, Stephen, 16
- IB theory see international business (IB) theory
- IBM, 67–69
- imitation, 177
- immigrants, 203, 204–6
- improvisation, 287, 291
- income levels, 288
- incremental internationalization theory, 246, 260, 275
- India
 - auto components industry, 135–37, 145, 146, 147

- business groups, 231–32
- catch-up processes, 7, 133–34, 145–48
- dual economy, 129
- filmed entertainment industry, 134, 140–43, 147
- global FDI share, 172, 234
- government cooperation, 132–33
- home market focus, 63, 72, 231–32
- Infosys, 122–23
- institutional transition, 233–34
- liberalization, 129–30, 133, 136, 137, 148
- pharmaceuticals, 137–39, 145, 146–47
- wind power industry, 69–71, 134, 143–46, 147–48
- industry variances, 25, 129, 145, 148–49, 160
- inertia, 83, 93–94, 95, 102
- information and communications technology (ICT) developments, 112
- Infosys, 122–23
- infrastructure, 285–88, 289–90
- innovation, 130, 145, 163–64, 236, 250, 286, 288–89, 294
 - Brazil, 244–45, 260
- institutions
 - business group embeddedness, 230
 - co-creation, 235
 - definition, 84
 - differences, 25
 - formal, 95–96
 - inertia, 93–95, 102
 - informal, 96, 99
 - internationalization process model (IPM), 180, 186–88
 - Latin America, 114
 - research focus, 235–36
 - systems approach, 82
 - transition, 232–36
 - underdeveloped, 285, 290
 - voids, 56–57, 102, 228, 229–30, 234–35
- integration, 132, 137
- integration/differentiation and legitimation models, 275
- intellectual property, 39–40, 137, 138, 139, 146, 293
- internalization advantages, 16, 289
- internalization theory
 - EMNC behavior, 57–58
 - history variable, 36
 - knowledge retention, 55
 - new theory, 55–56
 - research focus, 275
 - traditional, 54
- international business (IB) theory
 - asset mobility, 100
 - contingency theory, 25–26
 - country of origin effects, 263, 271
 - cross-border activity, 198
 - early assumptions, 15–17, 22, 24–25, 159
 - entry strategies, 156, 159, 162–63, 224–25, 247–48
 - evolution, 108, 112–13, 114, 227, 243–44, 263
 - firm-specific advantages (FSAs), 16, 155
 - neo-classical bias, 84
 - organisational model development, 249
 - time as a variable, 34–37
- International Flavors and Fragrances, 25
- international regulations, 90, 91, 99, 138–39
- internationalization process model (IPM)
 - institutional effects, 180, 186–88
 - as research tool, 169–70, 189
 - with strategic alliances, 179, 184–86
 - with strategic asset seeking theory, 178–84, 179
 - theory, 173–78
- internationalization strategies, 245–48
- Israel, 22
- Japan, 39, 114
- JBR-Friboi, 249
- jeitinho*, 291
- Johanson, J., 173, 175, 246, 275
- John Morrell Food Group, 197
- joint ventures, 117, 177, 179, 184–86
- Jones, G., 34–35, 41, 196–97, 199, 202, 204, 205
- jugaad* innovation, 289

- Khanna, T., 34–35, 41
 Kheyani, M., 208
 Kim, C., 160
 knowledge resources
 see also intellectual property;
 technology development
 acquisitions, 137, 178–84, 290
 alliances, 184
 diasporas, 203
 geospatial aspect, 98
 IB theory, 262, 275
 inertia, 94
 internalization, 76, 95
 internationalization process model (IPM), 174–75, 176
 mobility issues, 163–64
 reason for internationalization, 7, 21, 36, 95, 102, 155, 156, 161, 163–64
 reverse knowledge transfer, 103, 182, 251
 universities, 90
 Kostova, T., 209, 211
 Kumaraswamy, A., 132, 135
- labor costs, 18, 131, 155–56, 158, 293
 latecomer status, 20, 33, 57–58, 113,
 131–32, 165
 Latin America, 114
 Lave, J., 218 legislation, country of incorporation, 200
 legitimacy
 acquisitions, 210–15, 290
 corporate governance, 292
 country of origin effects, 188–89, 287, 290, 292
 definitions, 207
 ideologies, 188
 research focus, 217–18
 similarity and difference, 215–16
 symbolic management, 207–8, 209–10
 value creation driver, 199, 206–9
 Lenovo, 23, 32, 67–68, 69, 212
 Lessard, Donald, 118–19, 285, 294 leverage see LLL framework Li and Fung, 109
 liability of origin, 207
 liberalization, 92–93, 101–2
 India, 129–30, 133, 136, 137, 148
 linkage, 32, 38, 42, 43, 93, 132
 LLL framework, 32, 38, 132, 215, 226 location advantage see country-specific advantages location embeddedness, 81–82, 96, 99, 103, 230
 Lucea, R., 118–19
 Lundan, S., 34
 Luo, Y., 226
- Mabe, 19–20
 Madhok, A., 208
 Mahindra and Mahindra SUV, 72
 Malaysia, 123
 management team
 acquisitions, 23, 181
 composition, 23
 decentralization, 57
 nationality, 202, 294–95 recruitment of entrepreneurial skills, 177
 research focus, 294–95
 selection in SOEs, 24
 self-reliance, 287, 291–92
 manufacturing changes, 110
 Marcopolo, 72–73, 205 market reforms business groups development, 8 historical development, 2, 112
 India, 133, 136, 137, 148
 institutional transition, 232–36, 291
 liberalization, 92–93, 129–30, 133, 136, 137, 148
 market segment focus, 22, 26–27
 market structure, 25
 Mathews, John, 31, 32, 36–37, 39, 44–45, 132, 215, 226
 maturity effect, 183–84, 185–86, 189
 Melkonian, 44
 Mercosur, 255, 257
 mergers and acquisitions (M&As), 17, 183, 247–48
 see also acquisitions metanationality, 110, 121
 Mexican Eagle Oil Company, 42
 Mexico, 117, 172
 migrants, 202
 migrating multinationals, 196–99, 206, 210, 216–18

- Motassian, 44
 motorcycle industry, 73–75
 Mudambi, Ram, 293
multilatinas, 108–9 multinational companies (MNCs) adolescent, 81
 definitions, 16, 17, 59, 109
 heterogeneity, 113, 125, 224–25
 Multinational Enterprise Project, 16
- Narula, Rajneesh, 56, 66, 288, 294
 National Champions, 18–19
 nationality of EMNCs
 see also country of origin
 acquisitions, 23
 ambiguity, 204–6, 216–17 country of incorporation, 199–200 country of main sales market, 200–1
 country of stock market listings, 200 historical effects, 201, 204–5 legitimacy effects, 188–89 management team nationality, 202 perceptions, 195–96, 199, 206–7, 211, 290, 292
 relocation effect, 4, 8, 196 networking, 17, 89, 98–99, 178, 205–6, 228
 see also business groups
 Newman, K. L., 233
 Nguyen, Quyen T. K., 294
- offshoring, 110
 Old Mutual, 197–98, 204
 OLI see ownership-locationinternalization (OLI) theory
 organisational models, 182, 249–51
 ownership advantages, 19, 103, 115–16, 123, 124
 ownership-location-internalization (OLI) theory, 16, 21, 36, 54, 185–86, 261, 275
- Pangarkar, N., 210
 Pant, A., 207, 211, 217
 Park, D., 160
 patent laws, 39–40
 Pattnaik, C., 183
 Pearson Group, 42
 Pedersen, Torben, 228, 285, 291, 293
- Peng, M. W., 233
 Penrose, E.T., 275
 performance analysis
 Aviation Industry Corporation
 Group of China (AVIC), 63
 Lenovo, 67–68, 69
 research focus, 59, 65, 75–76
 Suzlon Energy Limited (SEL), 69–71
 Tata Motors, 71–72
 Perrier, 26–27
 Pettis, Michael, 32, 37
 pharmaceutical industry, 137–39, 145, 146–47
 Piaggio, 73, 74
 Porter, Michael, 22, 27, 85
 Prahalad, C., 275 process innovation, 244–45, 260 product adaptation, 18, 114, 131, 288 product life cycle theory, 35, 244, 260, 275
 profitability of acquisitions, 212
- quality perceptions, 208 Quanta, 109
- Ramachandran, J., 207, 211, 217
 Ramamurti, Ravi, 23, 31, 56, 58–59, 72, 115, 273, 293
 Ranbaxy, 138, 139, 147
 RAT test see Relevant-Appropriable-Transferable framework
 recombination capability, 56, 57, 58, 76, 103, 161, 164
 reductionist approach, 45
 Reich, R.B., 22
 Relevant-Appropriable-Transferable framework (RAT), 6, 118–19, 285 Reliance Entertainment, 142–43 relocation to advanced economies difficulties, 96 effect on nationality, 8, 196 knowledge resource reasons, 102
 legitimacy, 292
 research focus, 4
 research and development investment
 adaptation, 138
 Germany in nineteenth century, 38–40
 imitation, 131
 resource requirements, 66

- research focus
 - country differences, 40
 - country of origin, 263, 271, 295
 - country-specific advantages (CSAs), 293–94
 - diasporas, 203, 205–6
 - firm-specific advantages (FSAs), 274
 - historical comparisons, 40, 41–42, 44
 - home country, 3, 4, 295
 - industry variances, 148–49
 - institutions, 235–36
 - latecomer status, 165
 - legitimacy, 215, 217–18
 - management team, 294–95
 - maturity effect, 189
 - migrating multinationals, 216–18
 - non-traditional FSAs, 165
 - organisational models, 164, 165
 - partial acquisitions, 182
 - perceptions, 216
 - performance analysis, 58–59, 65, 75–76
 - recent analysis of EMNCs, 3
 - recombination capability, 57
 - uniqueness, 293, 295–96
- research methods, 26
- resource-based theories, 17, 155, 161, 209, 262, 275
- reverse engineering, 138, 290, 293
- reverse knowledge transfer, 103, 182, 251
- Ronen, S., 246
- Rugman, Alan M., 22, 55–56, 57, 85, 156–57, 201, 294
- Russia
 - global FDI share, 172
 - home market focus, 63
 - state subsidies, 18–19
- SABMiller, 2, 195, 197, 201, 202, 209–10, 211, 216
- Sabo, 250, 256
- sales market as nationality identification, 200–1
- Sangyang Motor Taiwan (SYM), 73
- Sassoons, 205
- self-reliance, 287, 291–92
- shareholders' nationality, 200
- Shenkar, O., 246
- Shintaku, J., 75
- similarity and difference, 215–16
- size of firms, 25
- small MNCs, 169–70, 175
- smile curve, 123
- SOEs see state-owned enterprises
- software services, 122–23
- Solow-Swan model, 38
- South Africa, 171, 195, 201, 202, 205–6, 208
- Sovereign Wealth Funds, 19
- Spain, 232
- spillovers, 93, 98, 211–12
- springboard strategy, 142, 226
- SSAs see subsidiary specific advantages
- stage model, 45
- state capitalism, 18
- state intervention
 - auto components industry, 136, 137
 - foreign direct investment (FDI), 1
 - knowledge resources, 94–95
 - pharmaceutical industry, 137
 - protection, 23, 24, 133
 - small and medium sized enterprises, 187
 - subsidies, 18–19, 32, 41, 272
- state regulations, 17, 291
- state-owned enterprises (SOEs)
 - growth in Fortune 500, 18–19
 - home market focus, 61–63
 - ideological values in theories, 23–24
 - management selection, 24
 - performance analysis, 59, 63
 - protection, 89
- strategic alliances, 17, 20, 144, 177, 179, 184–86
- strategic asset seeking, 178–84, 179, 226
- “strategic balance” theory, 215–16
- Stucchi, Tamara, 285, 291, 293
- subsidiaries
 - asset seeking, 54–55
 - Brazil, 250–51
 - management team, 57
 - parent FSAs, 54
- subsidiary specific advantages (SSAs), 56, 76
- subsidies
 - China, 32
 - research focus, 41

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-06453-9 - Understanding Multinationals from Emerging Markets

Edited by Alvaro Cuervo-Cazurra and Ravi Ramamurti

Index

More information

Index

325

- Russia, 18–19
- Suchman, M., 207
- sudden death, 245
- Sull, D., 245
- sunset industries, 162
- supply chain, 65, 110, 178
- supra-national regions, 99
- Suzlon Energy Limited (SEL), 69–71, 144–45, 147–48
- Suzuki, 73
- symbolic management, 207–8, 209–10
- systems approach, 82, 84–85, 93, 98–99

- Taiwan, 1–2, 116–17
- Tata Consulting Services, 236
- Tata Motors, 71–72
- Tata Tea, 2
- tax havens, 199–200
- technology development, 87, 102, 110, 286, 289–90, 293
 - see also* knowledge resources
- technology standardisation, 35
- technology variances, 25
- telecommunications, 2, 198
- Terjesen, S., 196
- Teva, 201
- Thomsen, S., 228
- Toyota, 22
- trade policies, 112
- transaction cost theory, 16–17, 36, 115, 184, 185, 230
- transition, 132, 136
- transportation changes, 112
- TRIPs (Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights), 139, 146
- Tung, R. L., 226

- UK
 - decrease in global FDI share, 171
 - migrating multinationals, 197
- UK Financial Investments Limited (UKFI), 24
- UNCTAD, 17, 60–61

- uniqueness, 27, 295–96
- universities, 90, 289
- Uppsala model, 36, 246
- USA
 - decrease in global FDI share, 171
 - historical internationalization of firms, 114
 - institutional structures, 25
 - inward FDI, 188
- Vahlne, J.-E., 173, 175, 246, 275
- value capture, 66–67, 118–19
- value chain, 65, 90, 98–99, 160, 161–62, 250, 251
- value creation, 17, 198, 206–9
- value for money, 158–59
- Vedanta Resources, 197
- venture capital, 43
- Verbeke, A., 55–56, 66–67, 201
- Vernon, Raymond, 16, 25, 35, 76, 113, 244, 260, 275, 288
- Vietnam, 73–75
- Vimpelcom, 198
- virtual diamonds, 116
- Vives, L., 118–19

- Wanxiang, 161–62
- Weiqiao Pioneering Group, 63
- Wells, Lou, 17
- Wenger, E., 218
- white goods industry, 19–20
- Wilkins, Mira, 45, 197, 202
- Williamson, Peter J., 21, 161–62, 294
- wind power industry, 69–71, 134, 143–46, 147–48
- WIPRO, 89–90
- World Trade Organization (WTO), 91, 92
- worldviews, 45

- Yamaha Vietnam, 75
- Yuan, L., 210

- Zaheer, S., 209, 211
- Zeng, M., 21, 161–62
- Zott, C., 207–8