Contents

List of illustrations page vii
List of contributors x
Acknowledgments xii

1 Introduction: manuscripts and cultural history
   Michael Johnston and Michael Van Dussen 1

2 Bibliographical theory and the textuality of the codex: toward a history of the premodern book
   Seth Lerer 17

3 What is a manuscript culture? Technologies of the manuscript matrix
   Stephen G. Nichols 34

4 Decoding the material book: cultural residue in medieval manuscripts
   Erik Kwakkel 60

5 Organizing manuscript and print: from compilatio to compilation
   Jeffrey Todd Knight 77

6 Containing the book: the institutional afterlives of medieval manuscripts
   Siân Echard 96

7 Medieval manuscripts: media archaeology and the digital incunable
   Martin K. Foys 119

8 The circulation of texts in manuscript culture
   Pascale Bourgain 140
Contents

9 Multilingualism and late medieval manuscript culture 160
  Lucie Doležalová

10 Miscellaneity and variance in the medieval book 181
  Arthur Bahr

11 Vernacular authorship and the control of manuscript production 199
  Andrew Taylor

12 Medieval French and Italian literature: towards a manuscript history 215
  Keith Busby and Christopher Kleinhenz

13 Afterword: social history of the book and beyond: Originalia, medieval literary theory, and the aesthetics of paleography 243
  Kathryn Kerby-Fulton

Bibliography 255

Index 295