

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07073-8 - Imperial Underworld: An Escaped Convict and the Transformation of the British Colonial Order

Kirsten McKenzie

Index

More information

Index

- Adderley, Rosanne Marion, 104
 African Society House, 214
 Africans, liberated, 116, 122, 123
 See also prize slaves ‘Afrikaner’ identity, 45
 amaXhosa, 46, 47
 Anatomy Act (1832), 279, 280–1
 Anderson, Clare, 12, 35, 36, 262
 Anti-Slavery Act, 116
Anti-Slavery Reporter, 114
Apologeticus (Grotius), 201
 Arnot, Sandford, 206
 Auret, Pieter (Peter), 160, 161
 Australian colonies, 4, 46, 50, 51, 281 Chartist principles and practices in regarding traitors, 238 convicts outnumbering free settlers in, 54 indigenous population of, 53 low opinion of Bigge, 52 political power in, 53
 See also Bigge, John Thomas, reports concerning Australian colonies; New South Wales; Norfolk Island; Van Diemen’s Land
Australian (newspaper), 98, 250, 251, 263 account of suppression of the Advertiser, 207 attack on Bigge in, 98 on the relationship between Bigge and Edwards, 99–100
 report in, that Edwards was a spy for Bigge, 99 report concerning Edwards’ connection to Bigge, 100–1
 Australian Courts Act (1828), 282

 Baartman, Teunis, 43
 Baines, Edward, 88, 89, 236, 238 allegations against Oliver concerning the Pentrich uprising, 89
 Ballantyne, Tony, 11

 banishment and the law, 197–8 controversy concerning, 200 and the differences between transportation and banishment, 197–8 English and Dutch views of, 200 and the legal system of the VOC, 198, 199 Truter and Denyssen’s legal opinions concerning, 200–2
 Bannister, Saxe, 254
 Barnard, Anne, 62, 106
 Barry, James, 221, 246 brilliant intellect of, 221 cordial dealings of with Hudson, 221 duel fought by, 225
 as the ‘little doctor’, 221 mystery/scandal regarding the sex of, 221–3 as an outstanding surgeon and surgical pioneer, 221
 penchant for reckless driving, 221 poodles all named ‘Psyche’, 223–4
 See also placard scandal
 Batavia (Java), 42
 Batavian interregnum, the (1803–1806), 44
 Batavian Republic, 43
 Bathurst (New South Wales town), Edwards’s time at, 248, 252 illegal convict movement on the Bathurst frontier, 255
 Bathurst, Henry, third Earl Bathurst, 45, 64, 70, 73, 76, 80, 95, 146, 157, 171–2, 200, 242 advice to Somerset on the prosecution of memorials for libel, 183–4 correspondence with Somerset, 78–9, 208 correspondence with colonial governors, 78, 80 criticisms of New South Wales administration, 76

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07073-8 - Imperial Underworld: An Escaped Convict and the Transformation of the British Colonial Order

Kirsten McKenzie

Index

More information

302 Index

- Bathurst, Henry, third Earl Bathurst (cont.) on the curtailment of colonial government powers, 208 deference to Somerset in their correspondence, 77 description of Somerset as a 'Jockey', 77 doubts concerning the legality of Edwards's libel sentence, 189 dual administration system of, 79–80 on the errors made by Somerset, 208 exasperation with Somerset, 66, 77 farewell to the colonial governors, 78 Greville's description of, 64–6 haphazard way of handling papers and correspondence, 67 humorous nature of, 66 instructions to Somerset to release Edwards, 261, 268 interest in the Edwards–Somerset libel case, 179 key elements in managing the interpersonal relations of colonial governance, 76–7 on the legality of political removal, 209–10 on the legality of Somerset's executive power, 208 pragmatic nature of, 66 private correspondence of, 79 proposal for an advisory council, 210 relationship with colonial officials, 78 reprimand of Somerset, 70–1, 76 skill as a manager, 66 warning to Somerset concerning the apprentice slave system, 150
- Bayly, C. A., 10, 194, 205
- 'Beaufort influence', 75, 76, 96
- Bennett, J. M., 9–10, 98, 99, 101
- Bentick, W., 219
- Benton, Lauren, 111
- Bigge, John Thomas, 5, 19, 25, 39, 60, 98, 109, 115, 134, 170, 171–2, 188–9, 197, 246, 251, 266 complaints of Somerset to, concerning Denysen and Greig, 225, 232 concern over the harsh sentencing of Edwards, 179 correspondence with Somerset, 25
 as an information-gathering bureaucrat, 6 instructions concerning convicts and convict transportation, 53 investigation into criminal law and jurisprudence, 180 investigation into Edwards' allegations against Somerset, 61–2 investigation into the identity and background of Edwards, 60 investigations in Van Diemen's Land, 5, 51 and the issue of 'salutary terror', 53 opinion of the Burnett memorial libel case, 180–1 poor reputation of, in Australia, 52 recommendation of the implementation of English law in Trinidad, 175 report on the Courts of Justice, 175 on Somerset's actions having significance in colonies other than the Cape, 205 warm personal relationship with Somerset, 194–5
See also Bigge, John Thomas, reports concerning Australian colonies; Bigge, John Thomas, reports concerning New South Wales; prize slave scandal and investigations
- Bigge, John Thomas, reports concerning Australian colonies, 25–6, 52 criticism of the reports, 98 key outcome of the Bigge reports, 54 motives behind the commission, 53 recommendations concerning convicts, 54–5 recommendations leading to greater colonial rights and constitutional development, 55
- Bigge, John Thomas, reports concerning New South Wales, 51 general reports, 9–10, 23 judicial reforms following the reports, 250 report on judicial establishments, 35–6 report noting escapes from New South Wales, 35
- biography, transnational, 11
- Bird, Christopher, 41, 177 conflicts of, with Somerset, 61
- Bird, William Wilberforce, 105, 107, 116, 138, 161 Groene Rivier property, 124 personal benefits from the prize slave system, 121 protestations of his innocence in the prize slave scandal, 127 strategies to profit from the prize slave system, 123, 124
- Birkwood, W. J., 123
- Bishop, Sophia, 221
- Blackstone, William, 57, 145, 186, 204
- Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine*, 47

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07073-8 - Imperial Underworld: An Escaped Convict and the Transformation of the British Colonial Order

Kirsten McKenzie

Index

More information

Index

303

- Blair, Charles, 19, 105, 106, 107, 116, 119, 129, 130, 134–5, 139, 144, 146, 151 accusations against, as a political liability for Somerset, 151 denial of cruelty towards Cousins, 135 dispute with Corbitt over Malamo, 135–6, 137 gossip concerning Blair's 'transactions', 126–7 as the 'great Prize Negro Merchant', 125 personal benefits of the prize slave system, 121
 protestations of his innocence in the prize slave scandal, 127 return to England (1820), 123 sale of his Stellenberg estate, 124, 125 strategies to profit from the prize slave system, 123, 124 temper of, 130, 135
See also prize slave libel trial, of Edwards and Cooke; prize slave scandal and investigations concerning
- Blanketeers March (1817), 46
- Blasphemous and Seditious Libels Act (1819), 168–9, 179, 198 parliamentary debates concerning, 197–8 repeal of the banishment clause of, 207
- Bourke, Richard, 81, 249
- Brand, Christoffel Joseph, 176, 177, 178 defence of Edward during his appeal of the Edwards–Somerset libel conviction, 184, 185–7 defence of Edwards during the prize slave libel trial, 145 on the sentence of transportation for libel as 'illegal', 179 use of Cicero's defence of Milo in defending Edwards, 184
- Bridekirk, William, 217, 219
- Brisbane, Thomas, 246, 261, 266 involvement of, with Edwards and subsequent political debate concerning, 253–4
- Britain
 conceptions of freedom in, and subsequent opposition to slavery, 155 concepts of good governance in, 101 conservative reaction to revolutionary challenges in North America and Europe, 10 controversial nature of colonial administrators in, 10 emigration initiatives of, 46 generational shift in eighteenth-century notions of governance, 71 government reform investigations into the Cape and Australian colonies, 6 national identity of, 3
 'Old Corruption' in, 5, 14, 43, 92, 121 overhaul of imperial administration, 4 political and social upheavals after Waterloo, 45–6, 53 transformations from the eighteenth to the nineteenth century, 75 See also British colonial subjects
 'British and the Cape, The' (Peires), 51–2 British colonial subjects, 181, 211 definition of, 167
 legal rights/status of, 167, 176, 211, 251
See also settler societies
- Brougham, Henry, 15, 16, 48, 66, 91, 209, 241, 242, 243 on Oliver the Spy and the placard scandal, 241
- Brown, Christopher Leslie, 155, 158
- Bryant, Mary, 35
- Buckingham, James Silk, deportation case of, 206 reported in the Advertiser, 206 buggery, 224
- Burbidge, Peter, 28, 30
- Burdett, Francis, 91
- Burnett, Bishop, 16, 17, 95, 96, 156, 166, 192, 230, 241–2, 243 banishment for libel, 197, 198 daring escape, 200
 on Oliver the Spy, 240–1
 trial for a memorial libeling the Cape judiciary, 179
- Buxton, Thomas Fowell, 49, 113
- Byron (George Gordon, Lord Byron), opinion of the Hortons, 68
- Calcutta Journal*, 206
- Calderón, Luisa, 204
- Caldwell, Maria, 67
- Campbell v. Hall* (1774), 203
- Canning, George, 82, 89
- Cape Advisory Council, 210–11
- Cape Colony, 4, 9 activists/reformers in, 48 alliance in, between the Cape Dutch gentry and the ruling British administration, 43, 151, 158 British subsidised emigration scheme for settlers (the '1820' settlers) in, 46, 47, 274–5 the 'Cape Patriot movement' in, 43, 201

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07073-8 - Imperial Underworld: An Escaped Convict and the Transformation of the British Colonial Order

Kirsten McKenzie

Index

More information

304 Index

- Cape Colony (cont.)
 as 'Cape of Torments', 39 as a conquered colony remaining under a Roman–Dutch legal system, 57 Customs Department of, 105, 115, 121 domination of the Cape Dutch over other European settlers, 43 geographical location of, and the slave trade, 115
 as a highly litigious society, 140 labour market of in the 1820s, 111 the prize slave system of, 110–11 public opinion in and the government of, 73 regime change in the colonial administration of, 211
 slave trading in, 112–13 use of slave labour, 112 wine industry boom, 111, 112 See also Batavian interregnum, the (1803–1806); Cape Colony, petition for a free press in; Cape Colony, populations of; espionage/spies, in the Cape Colony; Roman–Dutch legal system, in the Cape
- Cape Colony, petition for a free press in, 96 government attempts to gain information on signatories, 96 list of signatories sent by Somerset to the secretary of state, 96
- Cape Colony, demographics of, 53
 Dutch population, 42 indigenous Khoekhoen population, 42, 137 legal questions regarding the sovereignty
 of, 57–8
 percentage of colonial population living in Cape Town, 42 settler population, 41 slave and 'free black' population, 42
- 'Cape Patriot' movement, 43, 201
- Cape Town, population of, 42
- Cape Town Gazette*, 123
- Carnall, John, 156, 245, 246
- Cartledge, James, 238
- Castle, John, 89
- Castlereagh (Robert Stewart, Viscount Castlereagh), 89
- Cato Street conspiracy, 84, 88 fate of the conspirators, 84–5
- Catton Hall, 68
- Causar, Timothy, 2
- Ceylon, 5
- Charouneau, William, 31
- Charter of Justice (1828), 174, 211
- Christie, John Harvie, 86
- Cirencester Park, 67
- Cloete, Abraham Josias, 225
- Cloete, Hendrik, 145, 176, 178 defence of Cooke by, 144–5
- Clune, Frank, 13, 262, 277
- Cobbett, William, 5
- Colebrooke, William, 5, 19, 25, 39, 60, 109, 115, 134, 171–2, 189, 209, 266 concern over the harsh sentencing of Edwards, 179
 investigation into criminal law and jurisprudence, 180 investigation into Edwards's allegations against Somerset, 61–2 opinion of the Burnett memorial libel case, 180–1
- Collier, Robert, 32
- Collins, David, 58
- Colonial Office, 9, 11, 23, 72 and the accusations against Somerset, 72–3 accusations of 'Liberalism' against, 74 as an amalgam of gentlemen's club and the official civil service, 69 clerks of, 67–8 concern over the sentencing in the Edwards–Somerset libel case, 179 organisation comparable to that of a private house, 67 original staffing of, 64 origins in the eighteenth century, 64 poor operating and physical conditions of, 63–4
 public opinion concerning, 70, 73–4 reaction to the prize slave scandal and investigation, 109 relations with House of Commons, 70, 71, 73–4 response to scandals initiated by Edwards, 18, 62
 slow movement into bureaucratic efficiency, 67
- colonial officials, accusation of misconduct against, 9–10
- Commentaries on the Laws of England*
 (Blackstone), 57
- Commission of Eastern Inquiry, 5, 8, 9, 25, 48, 49, 51–2, 61, 82, 97, 109,
 115, 116, 119, 120, 123, 152, 166, 175, 208, 210, 282
 complaints brought to, by prize slaves, 116

- investigation into the trial and sentencing of Edwards for libel, 189–90
- the ‘job’ of, 120
- report on the complaints of Burnett, 241–2
- report on the prize slave libel trial, 149
- on the role of truth in civil prosecutions for defamation, 141
- on the slippage between private dispute and public complaint, 142, 146
- See also* prize slave scandal and investigations
- Commissions of Inquiry, Parliamentary, 9, 18, 23, 39, 51, 57, 59, 61–2, 101
- reduction of executive power by, 77
- See also* Bigge, John Thomas, reports concerning Australian colonies, Bigge, John Thomas, reports concerning New South Wales
- Committee of Secrecy (1817), 88, 89
- convict escapes, 247, 252
- attempted escapes from New South Wales, 36
- escapes from Australia to India, 36
- gendered view of, 252
- historiography of, 35
- by sea, 35–7
- suicide as a form of escape, 247
- convicts, 281
- mutinies amongst, 33
- rights of, 58
- suicides and murder–suicides of, 258–9
- transportation, 53
- debates concerning educated (‘gentlemen’) convicts, 248, 249
- See also* convict escapes; penal colonies
- Cooke, Lancelot, 8, 19, 20, 105, 106, 107, 130, 134–5, 151
- acquittal of, 21
- arrest of, 20
- charges brought against Cooke and Edwards by Denysen, 108
- complaints concerning Blair’s conduct in the assignment of prize slaves, 108
- departure for England, 160
- exposé by (with Edwards) of prize slaves, 8, 20, 79, 158
- filing of a civil suit against Blair, 107
- memorial to Somerset (by Cooke and Edwards), 108, 130–1
- response to Blair’s insults, 130
- speculation that Cooke should defend his honour against Blair with a duel, 132
- See also* prize slave libel trial, of Edwards and Cooke
- Corbitt, William, dispute with Blair over Malamo, 135–6, 137
- Cory, G. E., 224
- Cousins, William, 122
- fate of, 135
- on the temper of Blair, 130, 135
- trial of, 20
- Cox, Charles, 278
- court martial of, 279
- as part of a ‘foul conspiracy’, 279
- Craddock, John, 111
- Crotty, Martin, 52
- Cruikshank, George, 89
- Darling, Ralph, 4, 21, 55, 57, 58, 207, 248, 252, 255, 270, 271, 274
- accusations of cruelty and tyranny against, 260
- complaints concerning the investigation of Edwards’ identity, 272
- conflicts with Chief Justice Forbes, 250
- as an example of gubernatorial mismanagement, 249
- hierarchical and militaristic outlook of, 249
- importance of Darling clearing his name in regards to the treatment of Edwards, 271–2
- insistence that New South Wales was a penal colony only, 56
- letter exonerating himself from the mistreatment of Edwards, 279
- policy regarding ‘gentlemen’ convicts, 249
- and the question of Edwards’s identity as Kaye, 266, 267
- similarities with Somerset, 55
- Dashwood, Francis, 125–6
- De Grey, William (Chief Justice), 204
- Deane, Thomas Kift, 216
- defamation/defamation law, 21, 142, 166, 174, 175
- and amende honorable, 140–1, 170
- and amende profitable, 170
- compatibility and differences of English and Dutch laws concerning, 144, 174
- confusion over the question of truth in, 170
- criminal defamation, 141
- gender dimensions, 141
- non-legal methods of redress, 140–1
- the role of truth in civil prosecutions, 141, 142, 169

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07073-8 - Imperial Underworld: An Escaped Convict and the Transformation of the British Colonial Order

Kirsten McKenzie

Index

More information

306 Index

- Denijssen (Denyssen), Daniel, 43, 44–5, 145, 151, 152, 161, 172, 177, 178, 193
- attacked in satirical placards, 182
 - call for an exemplary sentence in the Edwards–Somerset libel case, 179
 - as ‘Dog Dan’, 44
 - Edwards’s attacks on his service and loyalty, 45, 108
 - on executive power, 205
 - legal opinion concerning banishment, 200–2
 - letter defending himself against Edwards’s charges, 152, 153
 - an opponent of Anglicisation, 45
 - proficiency in the English language, 177
 - prosecution of Edwards in the Edwards–Somerset libel case, 187–8, 205
 - prosecution of Edwards in the placard scandal, 226
 - retirement of, 45
 - Somerset’s complaints concerning, 225
- dissection, 280–1
- of convicts and Aboriginal people in colonial Australia, 281
 - horror of, 279–80
- Dixon, Charles, 123–4
- Donkin, Rufane, 41, 61, 96, 236–7
- cost-cutting during his tenure as governor, 92
 - opinion of Somerset, 91
 - squashing of espionage operations when governor, 92, 93
- Dooling, Wayne, 112
- ‘Dreyer’s Corner’, 214
- Dutch East India Company (Vereenigde Oostindische Compagnie [VOC]), 43, 144–5
- forced migration network of, 201
 - legacy of, at Cape Colony, 153
 - legal system of, 198, 199
- Dutch Reformed Church, 49
- Dyke, R., 97
- Eddy, J. J., 11, 66, 69, 75
- Edwards, Elizabeth. See Rens, Elizabeth Catharina (Elisabeth Edwards)
- Edwards, George, 84, 85, 87, 241, 265
- as an agent provocateur, 85
- Edwards, William (Alexander Loe Kaye), 3, 11, 12, 22–3, 39, 48, 59, 63, 105, 130, 249, 282, 284
- accusations of spying against, 98, 99
 - application to remain in Cape Colony, 84
 - applications to work for the Commission of Eastern Inquiry, 26, 27, 39, 63, 83, 113
 - anecdote concerning an old slave’s view of England’s goodness, 154–5
 - arrests of, 20, 21, 125, 157, 162, 253
 - arrival at the Cape Colony, 113
 - assertions of his genteel social credentials, 26–7
 - attack on the character and actions of Denyssen, 151–2
 - at Bathurst, New South Wales, 248, 252
 - under the influence of the anti-government opposition, 155, 156
 - on the betrayal of British reformist ideals, 153
 - boasts concerning money, 38
 - as a British ‘patriot’, 153, 157
 - burial of, 258
 - charges against Somerset, 16, 61
 - children of, 248
 - colonial contexts in which Edwards came to prominence, 18
 - colorful escapades of, 8
 - complaints concerning legal pluralism, 175
 - reported connection to the Bigge commissions, 100–1
 - continuing protests against the Cape administration, 8, 151–2
 - controversies concerning, 13
 - as a covert agent for Bigge, 6
 - difficulty in establishing the status and identity of, 12–13
 - reported dissection of Edwards’s body, 276, 278–9, 280
 - escapes of, 245–6, 247, 248
 - evidence compiled against, 9
 - exposé by (with Cooke), of the treatment of former prize slaves, 8, 20, 79
 - genuine outrage over the situation of prize slaves at the Cape, 157
 - and habeas corpus legal arguments on behalf of, 254–5
 - identification as an escaped prisoner, 248
 - ‘imperial careering’ of, 11
 - independent spirit of, 2
 - ‘infamous Character’ of, 75
 - legal training of, 8
 - letters to Bathurst concerning his conviction for libel, 189
 - link to Bigge’s activities in New South Wales and Australia, 98, 100–1
 - on the manipulation and betrayal of the Abolition Act by corrupt officials, 153–4

- marriage of, 244
 in Mauritius, 63 mental suffering and possible madness of, 256, 259
 motives of, 23 move from Java to Mauritius, 26 near-shipwreck of, 245 notary and legal work of, 38, 83–4 notoriety of, 3, 27, 34 as a ‘politician’, 269 problems in assigning meaning to the suicide of, 259–60 reasons for Edwards’s attack on Somerset, 19 reasons for Edwards’s leaving the Frederick, 253 recapture after his escapes, 246, 252 recurring bouts of ‘Java fever’ suffered by, 26
 reward offered for the capture of, 251 scandals instigated by, 71 sentencing for leaving the Frederick, 253, 255 suicide of, 2–3, 247, 256–8, 282 suicide attempts of, 246, 247, 256 taking of the name William Edwards (transition from Kaye to Edwards), 8, 27–8
 various publications of, 269–70 at Wellington Valley, 248, 269
See also Edwards, William, false accusations against as agent provocateur George Edwards;
 Edwards, William, investigations concerning the identity of; Edwards, William, and the placard scandal; Edwards, William, as a political activist; Edwards, William, trial of for horse stealing; Edwards, William, trial of for libeling Somerset; prize slave libel scandal, Edwards’ pre-trial involvement in; prize slave libel scandal and investigations; prize slave libel trial, of Edwards and Cooke Edwards, William, false accusations against as agent provocateur George Edwards, 84, 88
 defence of, 85 testimony of witnesses for, 85–6 use of a notary to defend himself, 87
 Edwards, William, investigations concerning the identity of, 260, 265, 267, 275 and the accessibility and manipulation of convict records, 263 Bigge’s suspicions concerning the identity of Edwards, 264, 266 broader political implications of, 261–2 complaints concerning the investigation of Edwards’ identity, 272
 Darling’s investigation into the matter, 267 debates in the Sydney press, 267–8 earliest evidence for the link between Edwards and Kaye, 263–4
 Hay’s opinion of the investigation, 272–3, 274
 height differences between Edwards and Kaye, 262
 identification of Edwards as Kaye on arrival in Cape Colony, 265, 266–7 identification of Edwards as Kaye on arrival in New South Wales, 265–7 identification of Edwards as Kaye by the Commissioners of Inquiry and Somerset, 264–5 investigations into the identity/background of, 23, 60 primary thrust of the investigation, 273 and the secretary of state’s response to Elisabeth Edwards’ petition concerning, 271
 and use of convict records to determine identity, 262–3
 Edwards, William, and the placard scandal accusation by Edwards’s servant (Daniel Lee) against Edwards, 226–7, 230 the Court of Justice’s dismissal of the case, 230
 denial by Edwards of any involvement, 226 Denyssen’s proposed motives for Edwards’s involvement, 230 Edwards’s challenge to the fiscal to produce a respectable witness, 234 Edwards’s opinion of the scandal given to the Commission of Eastern Inquiry, 234–5
 Edwards and other ‘radical’, as persons of suspicion in, 219, 225 failure of the investigation to come to any conclusion, 231 recognition by Edwards of the damage done to him by the scandal, 232 Somerset’s reaction to the dismissal of charges against Edwards, 231 unreliability of the evidence against Edwards, 234

308 Index

- Edwards, William, as a political activist, 37, 38, 269 and the cause of the Khoekhoen, 50 difficulty establishing Edwards's motives for, 160 doubts concerning Edwards's motives amongst anti-Somerset activists, 159 insistence by Edwards on his identity as a lawyer, 38 involvement in Cape Colony politics, 18–19 lack of clues as to the origin of his activism, 37–8 negligible influence of Philip on, 49 while incarcerated, 214–15
- Edwards, William, trial of, for horse stealing, 20 acquittal of, after the first arrest and trial, 21 guilty verdict after the second arrest and trial, 21 sentence of, 21, 27
- Edwards, William, trial of for libeling Somerset, 160–1, 166, 167
 the Act of Accusation made against Edwards at, 168 arguments concerning which laws (Dutch or English) should apply at the trial and sentencing, 178–9 appeal by Edwards of his conviction, 184 arrest of Edwards, 162, 195 conviction of Edwards, 184 Court of Justice ruling that Edwards had confessed, 177–8 defence claim that the letters of Edwards were forged, 184, 186–7 difficulty in determining the intent of Edwards's letters regarding, 161 Edwards's list of witnesses, 170–2 incarceration of Edwards, 209, 214–15, 245 judicial actions brought against Edwards by Somerset because of the letters, 161–2 letters sent to Somerset by Edwards regarding the 'house molestation' charges, 160–1 muzzling of the Cape press from covering the trial, 170 possible motivations for Edwards's letters to Somerset, 162–3 presentation by Edwards's defence that William Parr was the true culprit, 185–6 proposed punishment of Edwards and the doctrine of Roman law, 173–4 the prosecution's case against Edwards, 172–3, 205
 the prosecution's response to Edwards's defence appeal, 187–8 questions concerning the legitimacy of the sentence of transportation, 187, 268 representation by Brand during Edwards' appeal, 184–5, 186–7 self-defence of Edwards at the initial trial, 170 upholding of Edwards's sentence on appeal, 188 witness of the manumitted slave 'Carolina', 171–2
- Ellé, Jean, 20, 103, 104, 107, 113, 130 apprenticeship to Samuel Murray, 106, 123 involvement in the prize slave scandal, 109 wages as a cook, 106
See also prize slave scandal and investigations
- Epstein, James, 156, 205
- espionage/spies, 83, 243–4 anti-spying paranoia and the concept of English liberty, 87 arguments against state-sponsored espionage in Britain, 234 and British military success in India, 93 government spies, 87 as part of a wider reformist agenda, 90–1 political liability of, 93 state-sponsored espionage as a foreign invention, 88 use of informers against popular radicalism, 87
See also espionage/spies, in the Cape Colony; Royal Mail, the, and espionage practices
- espionage/spies, in the Cape Colony, 92, 93, 191–2 the opening of private correspondence by Somerset's informers, 95–6
- Evans, Raymond, 52
- Evans, Thomas, 31, 32
- executive power, 205
 Denyssen's opinion of, 205
See also banishment, and the law expression, freedom of, 21
- Fabrigas v. Mostyn* (1773), 203
- Facts connected with the stopping of the press, and the censorship of the fiscal, 192, 193

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07073-8 - Imperial Underworld: An Escaped Convict and the Transformation of the British Colonial Order

Kirsten McKenzie

Index

More information

Index

309

- Fairbairn, John, 13, 14, 15, 47, 48, 49, 94, 95, 209 as co-editor of the Advertiser, 47–8 use of nicknames by, 223
 doubts concerning Edwards's motives, 159
- Farquhar, Robert T., 113, 114
- Fatal Shore, The* (Hughes), 2
- Faure, Abraham, 49
- 'felony attain't', legal doctrine of, 58
- Findlay, John, 216
- fiscal, 152
 duties of, 44
 Edwards's speech against, 148–9 placard of deriding the fiscal, 148 unpopularity of, 148
- Flanagan, Owen, 263
- Flanagan, Patrick, 263
- Forbes, Francis, 58, 207, 252 conflicts with Darling, 250 insistence on holding executive power to newly minted constitutional dictates, 250
- Ford, Lisa, 164, 204, 254
- Four Stages of Cruelty* (Hogarth), 280
- France, 87
- Francis, D. P., 97
- Frykenius, Simon Hendrik, 180
- Fyans, Foster, 2
- Garrow, William, 31
- Gibson, Andrew, 277
- Gloucester Journal*, 32
- Goldsmith, Charles, 30
- Goulburn, Henry, 236
- governance. See imperial governance
- Great Reform Act (1832), 18
- Greig, George, 13, 15, 16, 21, 47, 48, 49, 85, 92, 192, 204, 207, 230, 240 actions of Somerset against, 196, 197 complaints concerning search warrants issued against him, 232–3 on the government's handling of the placard scandal, 242
 Somerset's animosity towards and distrust of, 192 as a suspect in the placard scandal, 226, 227
- Greville, Charles, 64–6, 68
- Griffin, William, 238
- Grotius, Hugo, 201
- habeas corpus* legal arguments concerning Edwards and, 254–5 periodic suspension of, 11
- Habeas Corpus Act (1679), 199
- Hall, Edward Smith, 250, 260, 268, 269, 270
- Halloran, Laurence, 277
- Hammond, Thomas, 217
- Hammonds, Barbara, 237–8
- Hammonds, J. L., 237–8
- Harling, Philip, 168
- Hartwell, Philip Harmot, 278
- Hastings, Warren, 145
- Hay, Robert, 67, 69 and the Colonial Office report on Edwards, 37 opinion of the investigation into Edwards' identity, 272–3, 274
- Hero* (ship), 26, 84
- Hirst, John, 247
- History of the Reign of George III* (Baines), 90
- History of South Africa* (Theal), 14
- Hoffman, Jan Bernard, 121, 140 evidence to the Commissioners, 121–2
- Hogarth, William, 280
- Hollett, William, 124
- Holmes, Rachel, 223
- Holy Alliance, the, 15
- honour, 78–9, 166
See also prize slave scandal and investigations, themes of honour in
- Hopley, W. M., 97
- Horton, Anne Beatrice, 68
 Lord Byron's praise of her beauty, 68
- Horton, Robert Wilmot, 63, 68, 69, 71, 74, 75, 81, 92, 150, 249 on the Cape government being 'under public opinion', 73 as the 'chief protagonist of Anglicisation', 153 exasperation at having to defend Somerset, 73 invaluable service to the Colonial Office, 68 on the law of conquest and colonial governance, 181
- Howell, James, 97, 214
- Howell's Circulating Library and Stationers, 214
- Hudson, Samuel, 22, 96, 97, 132, 182, 187, 209, 245, 251 account of Shee's disfigurement, 228 on the Cooke–Edwards libel trial, 147, 148 on the departure of Greig, Burnett and Wilmot from the Cape to London, 244 on English and Dutch placards, 215

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07073-8 - Imperial Underworld: An Escaped Convict and the Transformation of the British Colonial Order

Kirsten McKenzie

Index

More information

310 Index

- Hudson, Samuel (cont.)
 gossip concerning Blair's 'transactions', 126–7 on the incarceration of Edwards, 209
 on Oliver the Spy, 239–40
 placard deriding the fiscal, 148 on rumours and gossip at Howell's book shop, 214
- Hughes, Robert, 2 account of 'suicide lotteries', 2
- Hughes, Thomas, 32
- humanitarianism, British, 121
- Hume, Joseph, 48, 66, 72, 181, 240
- Humphreys, Samuel, 30
- Hunt, George, 84, 86–7
- Huskisson, William, 271
- Hutchinson, William, 33, 34, 36, 248 as the person who identified Edwards as Kaye, 224, 248, 265 imperial governance, debates concerning, 11, 247, 253–4 factionalism in colonial administrative politics, 41, 62, 91 implications of obscure/local scandals on imperial power relations, 75–6 importance of theatre to the governmentality of imperial society, 156–7 interpersonal controversies that mark imperial governance, 23 systemic problems of, 61 transformation after the Napoleonic Wars, 39 transition from a Dutch to British imperial system at Cape, 22
- Imperial Meridian* (Bayly), 10
- indentured servants, Irish, 227 link between indentured servants and the system of unfree labour at the Cape, 227 as part of the Cape underclass, 227, 228
- India, 205
 British actions against the press in, 206 British military success in, 93 information-gathering/collection, 23, 80, 101, 243 and informal intelligence networks, 62, 215 potential stigma of espionage in, 243 role of gossip and interpersonal correspondence in, 62–3, 93
 'word on the street' and the means of spreading libelous writings, 215–16
- Ingram, John, 226, 227, 235
- Jane* (ship), 34
- Java. See Batavia (Java)
- Jones, William. See Oliver, William (real name W. J. Richards, aka William Jones)
- Jury, James, 85
- Kable, Henry, 58
- Kable, Susanna, 58
- Karskens, Grace, 247, 252
- Kaye, Alexander Loe (William Edwards), 162, 199 arrival in Sydney, 33–4 assigned to solicitor Thomas Wylde, 34 as a banker, 30, 31 birth and baptism of, 7, 28 escapes of, 6, 34
 imprisonment in King's Bench prison after a fuel bill dispute, 31–2 inaccurate reports that he was sent to Van Diemen's Land after his conviction, 33 indictment for assault, 32 involvement in attempted mutiny on the convict transport Atlas, 33 involvement in property speculation, 28
 marriage of, 30
 movements within the convict system of New South Wales, 34
 notary and legal work of, 19, 20, 28
 precarious financial position of, 31 press reports of his trial for horse stealing, 32 time in Batavia (Java), 35 trial and conviction for horse stealing, 6, 31–2 variants of his surname, 28, 31 See also Edwards, William, investigations concerning the identity of
- Kaye, Charles (brother of Alexander Loe Kaye), 29, 30
- Kaye, Edward Shackfield (son of Alexander Loe Kaye), 31
- Kaye, Margaret (mother of Alexander Loe Kaye), 28, 29, 31
- Kaye, Mary (sister of Alexander Loe Kaye), 29, 30, 162
 low opinion of her brother Alexander, 29–30
- Kaye, Thomas (brother of Alexander Loe Kaye), 19 death of in the British–American War (1814), 29
- Kaye, Thomas (father of Alexander Loe Kaye), 28, 29, 31 bankruptcy of, 29

- Kekewich (Justice), 195, 196
 Kercher, Bruce, 247
 Khoekhoen ('Hottentots') rights of parents over children, 118 legal status, 118
 Kostal, R. W., 202
 Krumpholtz, Philip, 86
- Lady Campbell* (ship), 25 Laidlaw, Zoë, 11, 62, 77 law, 202 constitutional law, 164 decline in seditious libel prosecutions in English law, 169
 Dutch law and the 'foreignness' of the Cape administration, 183 law of conquest, 166, 181 law as a threat to tranquility, 165
 'Laws of War', 203 maritime law regarding prize slaves, 104–5
 See also banishment, and the law;
 defamation/defamation law; legal pluralism; libel; Roman–Dutch legal system, in the Cape
- Law of Libel* (Holt), 145
Le Victor (ship), 111 capture of, 103
 See also Le Victor, alleged slave passengers of
- Le Victor*, alleged slave passengers of Denis, 103
 Jean-Pierre, 103
 Louisa, 103
 See also Ellé, Jean
- Lee, Daniel, involvement in the placard scandal, 226–7, 228, 230, 235, 241–2
 arrest of, 230
 attempted coercion of Lee by O'Grady, 228–9
 beating of, 235 coerced confession while drunk, 234 Edwards's dismissal of, 234 rumours of concerning bribery to commit perjury, 234
- Leeds Mercury*, 89 legal pluralism, 166, 194, 211 blurring of the lines between Roman–Dutch and English law in libel cases, 178 complaints concerning indiscriminate application of Roman, English, and Dutch law, 175–6 concern across the British empire in relation to, 164
- debates concerning the Edwards– Somerset libel trial, 178–9 problems with, in settler societies, 204–5, 212 and the relationship between civil and common law, 174
- libel, 174
 blurring of the lines between Roman– Dutch and English law in libel cases, 178 criminal libel, 141, 167, 179 decline in seditious libel prosecutions in English law, 169
 difficulty in defining, 164 the risk of libel trials, 168 seditious libel actions, 166 under Dutch–Roman law, 166, 169, 187
- Libel Act of 1792 (Fox's Act), 168 liberalism, 224 radical liberalism, 205
- liberty and security, relationship between, 22
- Liverpool (Robert Banks Jenkinson, second earl of Liverpool), 82, 84
- Loe, Margaret (aunt of Alexander Loe Kaye), 28, 31
 death of, 30
- London Missionary Society, 48, 49
Louis decision, 111
 Luddites, attacks of, 46
- MacDonald, Helen, 279, 281
 Macmillan, W. M., 15, 282 view of Edwards as a 'bounder', 15
 Macquarie, Lachlan, 52, 54, 99, 101
 'Macquarie Bicentennial', 52
 Mahony, Thomas, 214 Malamo, dispute over between Blair and Corbitt, 135–6, 137
- Mansfield (William Murray, first earl of Mansfield, Lord Chief Justice), 166, 203, 204
- Mascarenes Islands, 113
 Mason, John, 137, 138
 Mauritius, 5, 113
 Maxwell-Stewart, Hamish, 33, 279
 McCallum, P. F., 156
 McLachlin, N. D., 69 Melville (Henry Dundas, first Viscount Melville), 145
 Métairie, Claude Guillaume, 103, 104
 Meurant, Louis, 92, 193, 214, 235 on Edwards's speech against the fiscal, 148–9
 on spies in the Cape Colony, 93
- Miller, Linus, 263

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07073-8 - Imperial Underworld: An Escaped Convict and the Transformation of the British Colonial Order

Kirsten McKenzie

Index

More information

312 Index

- Minerva* (ship), 98, 244, 245, 248, 265, 266
- Mixed Commissions, the (1819), 111
- Murray, George, 271
- Murray, Samuel, 106
- Napoleonic Wars, 111 shifting of the legal system after, 111 social and economic upheaval following, 10–11
- Narrative of a Residence in South Africa* (Pringle), 14, 92, 97
- Neal, David, 247
- Nederburgh, Sebastian Cornelis, 180
- New South Wales, 5, 199
administration of, 9, 51
and British emigration policy, 46
centralisation of population in, 54
as a colony of settlement rather than of conquest, 57 dissection of prisoner bodies in, 281 establishment of a Legislative Council for, 55 establishment of a Supreme Court for, 55 free immigrant population of, 53 as a free or 'slave' society, 247 independent press of, 207 legal issues concerning its character as a penal settlement, 58–9 litigation in, 251 migrant and emancipist population of, 54 rights of convicts not in accordance with English law, 58
- New South Wales Act (1823), 55, 57, 58, 207, 250, 254
- Norfolk Island, 1–2, 54, 255 cemetery of, 276 first suicide reported on, 2 lurid reputation of, 2 as 'the modern Gomorrah', 1 myth of murder–suicide lotteries in, 2, 259 as 'Norfolk's fell Isle', 1 notaries, use of, 87
- O'Grady, Roger, 228, 230 attempted coercion of Lee in the placard scandal, 228–9 wrote love letter for Lee in exchange for information, 229–30
- Oliver, William (real name W. J. Richards, aka William Jones), 88, 89, 236, 238, 243 exposure as a government agent, 88, 89 fate after the Pentrich uprising, 237 hatred of, by the English populace, 91 historiography on, 237–8
as 'Oliver the Spy', 88, 89, 236
See also Oliver, William (real name W. J. Richards, aka William Jones), in the Cape Colony
- Oliver, William (real name W. J. Richards, aka William Jones), in the Cape Colony, 238–9, 240
Burnett's view of, 240–1
Edwards's view of, 240 and opposition attacks on Britain's Tory government, 241 and the placard scandal, 241 as Somerset's 'Jackall', 239 as a symbol of the excesses of the Somerset regime, 239 usefulness as a covert operative, 239
- Olivier, N. J. J., 174
- Order in Council (1808), 115
- Ordinance 19, 117
- Ordinance 50, 50, 282
- Ordinance 60, 159
- Oriental Herald*, 206
- Ovens, T., 265
- Parr, Thomas William, 185–6
- Parker, George, 85
- paternalism, 139
in the Cape slave system, 137 and family structure in Cape slave society, 137–8 pervasiveness throughout the prize slave investigations, 135
- patronage/patronage networks, 121, 128
- Peel, Robert, 249
- Peires, Jeff, 51–2
- penal colonies
ad hoc legal arrangements in, 254, 274–5 emancipist sentiments concerning, 250–1 reform of, 50–1
- Pentrich uprising (1817), 46, 88
allegations against Oliver concerning, 89 fate of the leaders of, 88
- Perceval, Dudley, 41, 80
duties of, 80
ennui of, 80 letter book of, 80
opinion of Somerset, 41–2
reports to London concerning the Cape Colony, 81

- on the weaknesses in Somerset's character, 81
- Perceval, Spencer, 41, 80
- 'Peterloo' massacre (1819), 46
- Philip, John, 14, 15, 16, 48, 49, 94, 95, 209
 - return to London as a lobbyist, 49
 - as superintendent of the London Missionary Society in the Cape, 48–9
- Pickering, Paul, 87, 237, 238
- Picton, Thomas, 204
- Pigou, H. M., 106–7, 133, 134
 - See also* prize slave scandal and investigations
- Pitt, William (the younger), 87
 - 'spy system' of, 243
- placard scandal, 22, 225, 242
 - advantageous opportunities for the government created by, 232
 - attempts by witnesses to reconcile their own propriety with the salacious content of the placard, 217–19
 - as a dirty tricks campaign manufactured by the authorities, 243
 - first appearance and disappearance of the placard, 216–17
 - G. E. Cory's account of, 224
 - immediate responses of the colonial administration, 219
 - inability to prove facts, 224–5
 - initial public sympathy for Somerset and Barry, 231–2
 - legal pluralism and the comic aspects, 219
 - in the oppositional politics of the Cape, 225
 - origins of, 216
 - political implications of, 231, 241, 242–4
 - response in London, 240
 - reward offered for information concerning, 233, 234, 235–6
 - Somerset and Barry's appearance together in the wake of, 219
 - text of the offending placard, 216
 - use of search warrants during, 232–3
 - witnesses to the placard, 217
 - See also* Edwards, William, and the placard scandal; Lee, Daniel, involvement of in the placard scandal; O'Grady, Roger, attempted coercion of Lee in the placard scandal
- placards, 209, 215
 - against the Cape authorities' perverting English concepts of law, 182
 - examples in Dutch, 183
 - examples in English, 182
 - prominent place for the posting of, 213
 - as 'word on the street' and the means of spreading libelous writings, 215–16
 - See also* 'Dreyer's Corner'; placard scandal
- Plasket, Richard, 165, 284
 - on the law as a threat to tranquility, 165
- politieke uitzetting* [political removal]
 - Bathurst's belief concerning, 209–10
 - Somerset's attempts to justify the legality of, 196–7
 - Somerset's use of against Greig, 196
 - See also* banishment, and the law
- Port Macquarie, 248, 255
- Porter, Bernard, 237
- Porter, William, 45
- Powley, F. G., 97
- Pringle, Thomas, 13, 14, 15, 17, 47, 48, 49, 158, 206, 209
 - assessment of Edwards as an 'adventurer', 14
 - on the 'Cape Reign of Terror', 14, 92
 - co-editor of Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, 47
 - co-editor of the South African Commercial Advertiser, 47–8
 - complaints concerning search warrants issued against him, 232–3
 - determination to publish an exposé of the Cape administration, 209
 - disjunctures between the published work and private correspondence, 17
 - doubts concerning Edwards's motives, 159
 - fear that his private correspondence was under surveillance, 94
 - fear of the possibility of incarceration, 209
 - financial ruin of, 14
 - on the intimidation of the Cape population by Somerset's administration, 97
 - letter to Brougham, 15, 16
 - letter to Fairbairn, 16
 - low opinion of Edwards, 14, 15, 17
 - on the object of the 'Placard Plot', 232
 - opinion of the Commissioners of Inquiry, 97
 - return to Britain, 49
 - as secretary of the Anti-Slavery Society in London, 49
 - use of nicknames by, 223
 - 'Whig principles' of, 209

314 Index

- prize slave libel scandal, Edwards's pre-trial involvement in, 124, 158 compiling of testimony by, concerning Blair's corruption, 108 dismissive attitude of, towards Blair's supporters, 132–3 and the drawing up of Cooke's complaint, 107 information provided by, to the Commissioners of Eastern Inquiry, 114 letter of, to the Commissioners of the Court of Justice, 151–2, 155, 156 manipulation of the scandal by Edwards for local/metropolitan audiences, 131 memorial of, brought to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, 130–1
- prize slave libel scandal and investigations,
 97, 120, 131, 138
 Blair's primary defence, 127–8 charges brought against Cooke and Edwards by Denysen, 108 circumstantial evidence presented at, 128 colonial and imperial context of, 109 Colonial Office reaction to, 109 informal nature of the investigation, 128–9 investigations concerning Blair's control over the distribution of prize slaves, 122, 132
 origins of the scandal, 106–7, 133–4 the prize slave system at the Cape Colony, 110–11 protestations by Blair and Bird of their innocence in the scandal, 127 testimony during, as almost exclusively by British subjects, 138–9 testimony of prize slaves during, 120 See also prize slave libel scandal and investigations, themes of honour in; prize slave libel trial, of Edwards and Cooke
- prize slave libel scandal and investigations, themes of honour in, 131, 132 Edwards' imagined dialogue between Cooke and Ellé, 134
 the honour culture between the Dutch and the British, 133
 the manner in which honour and status were conceived in Cape slave society, 134–5
 the pervasiveness of paternalism throughout the investigations, 135, 139
- prize slave libel trial, of Edwards and Cooke, 77, 131, 139, 144, 148, 159, 166 acquittal of Edwards and Cooke, 149, 160
 Brand's defence of Edwards, 145
 Cloete's defence of Cooke, 144–5 basis of the indictment, 139 as both a cause célèbre and a form of public entertainment, 147 charges against Cooke, 108, 140
 charges against Edwards, 108, 140
 Cooke's defence against the charges, 142–3 Denysen's arguments against the defences of Cooke and Edwards, 143–4
 Edwards's attack on the Cape regime and the fiscal during, 140, 148–9 Edwards's charged with contempt of court, 140
 Edwards's defence, 143 Edwards's vehement protest against the fiscal during, 140, 148 failings of the Cape administration brought to light during, 146–7 grandstanding of Edwards during, 131 implications of the acquittal for the Cape administration, 149
 key element of, concerning the uses of the memorial, 141–2 key points of, concerning the memorial, 142 libel as a breach of the peace, 139 newspaper reports of, 147 as a political liability for the Somerset administration, 149, 150, 151
 the prosecution's case against Edwards during, 77–8 ruling of concerning allowing witnesses to the truth or falsehood of the memorial, 142
 Somerset's complaints concerning, 147 unusual nature of (as a criminal libel case), 141
See also Stephen, James, opinion on Fiscal v. Cooke, Edwards and Hoffman case
- prize slaves, 110, 116, 120, 151 complaints of, 116–17 corruption in the prize slave system, 132 length of apprenticeship for, 121 maritime law regarding prize slaves, 104–5
 mistreatment of, 151

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07073-8 - Imperial Underworld: An Escaped Convict and the Transformation of the British Colonial Order

Kirsten McKenzie

Index

More information

Index

315

- the prize slave system in imperial context, 110
- as slaves seized by the British navy, 19, 20, 105
- as a source of real income, 122
- treatment as real property, 125–6
- as under the authority of the local Customs Department, 105
- See also* Africans, liberated; prize slave scandal and investigations
- public opinion
- and the Cape government being ‘under public opinion’, 73
- concerning the Colonial Office, 70, 73–4
- Publications Act (1819), 168, 169
- Racehorse* (ship), 103
- Records of the Cape Colony* (Theal), 17, 194
- Reminiscences* (Meurant), 92
- Rens, Elizabeth Catharina (Elizabeth Edwards), 244, 245, 247, 253
- attempts by to raise money after Edwards’s death, 269–70
- authorisation by Darling of money for after Edwards’s death, 270
- Bigge’s description of, 268
- case brought by Elizabeth to the Supreme Court concerning Edwards’s identity, 268–9, 270
- inheritance from her mother, 270
- petition regarding her husband’s mistreatment and sentence, 252–3, 268
- the secretary of state’s response to her petition, 270–1
- time with her husband at Port Macquarie, 248
- Researches in South Africa* (Philip), 50
- Reynolds, Thomas, 89
- Richards, W. J. See Oliver, William
- Riches, Isaac, 85, 86
- Rise of South Africa* (Cory), 224
- Ritchie, John, 98
- Robben Island, 199, 245
- Roberts, David Andrew, 52, 248, 252, 254
- on illegal convict movement on the Bathurst frontier, 255
- Roberts, Michael, 75
- Roman–Dutch legal system in the Cape, 57, 164, 166, 174, 175
- and laws concerning marriage and inheritance, 175
- protests against Dutch law in the sentencing of Edwards for libel, 183
- Wylde’s opinion of, 211
- See also* banishment, and the law
- Ross, Lynette, 258
- Ross, Robert, 9
- Royal Mail, 94
- Royal Navy, 111
- Sambo, testimony of, 119
- Sandys, Francis, 206
- Saunders, Charles, 116
- Scallywags of Sydney Cove* (Clune), 13
- scandals, as a way of understanding social and political relations, 224
- settler societies, 211
- and the problems of legal pluralism, 204–5, 212
- settler rights, 167
- Shackfield, Edward (father-in-law of Alexander Loe Kaye), 31
- Shackfield, Susanna (wife of Alexander Loe Kaye), 30, 31
- Shee, Daniel, 228, 235
- disfigurement of, 228, 235
- Shortt, Francis, 277, 278
- Shuttleworth, Thomas, 29, 30
- Sidmouth (Henry Addington, first Viscount Sidmouth), 89, 236
- Sitwell (Under-Sheriff), 245, 246
- Six Acts (1819), 11, 84, 168, 198
- slaves/slavery
- Christian slaves, 117
- as slave-owners’ volk [people], 137–8
- difficulty of eliminating the slave trade in the Cape Colony, 114
- illegal slave trade in the south-west Indian Ocean, 113
- number of captured slaves entering the British colonial system, 104–5
- office of the Guardian of, 120
- in parliamentary debates, 108–9
- preparation for liberation, 115
- shifting master–slave relations, 137
- slave children (see also Malamo), 119
- value of slaves captured at sea, 104
- See also* prize slaves; slavery, abolition of
- slavery, abolition of, 19, 20, 104, 151
- abolition as central to the conception of Britishness, 154
- adherence to the cause of in Britain, 158
- Edwards’s view of the Abolition Act, 153–4
- Somerset, Lord Charles, 8, 9, 14, 16, 25, 31, 57, 70, 96, 132, 146, 151, 200, 236, 262, 266
- animosity towards Edwards, 195

316 Index

- Somerset, Lord Charles (cont.)
- autocratic powers of, 41, 196
 - belief that Bird had gathered conspirators ('the Aviary') against him, 61
 - collapse of the parliamentary proceedings against, 82
 - colourful background of, 39
 - complaints concerning Greig, 232
 - complaints concerning the inaction of Fiscal Denysen in prosecuting cases, 225
 - correspondence with Bigge, 25, 194–5
 - chronic habit of misreading Britain's changing political climate, 243
 - discrediting of Wilmot by, 231
 - effect of the Edwards–Somerset libel trial on, 188–9
 - executive actions of, having significance in colonies other than the Cape, 205
 - extravagance of, 92
 - and the factionalism of colonial administrative politics, 41, 62, 91
 - failure to recognise the changing political climate surrounding him, 73
 - gubernatorial mismanagement, 249
 - as liability to the Tory administration, 41
 - miscalculation in bringing libel charges against Edwards and Cooke, 149
 - mistress of, 171–2
 - nickname ('Llama'), 223
 - as 'one of the villains of South African history', 41
 - opinion of Pringle, Philip and Wright, 94–5
 - Perceval's opinion of his character, 81
 - period of time spent as governor of the Cape, 39
 - persecution of Pringle by, 14
 - popularity with the Dutch elite of the Cape, 41
 - proclamation concerning chattel slavery (1823), 117–18, 119
 - questions concerning an adequate defence of against allegations, 73–5
 - reaction to Edwards's letter to the Council of Justice, 155
 - return to London to answer his critics (1826), 81
 - and the right of banishment by executive order, 21
 - on the significance of the placard scandal for its political ends, 242–3
 - suspicion that Edwards used a false name, 191
 - use of paid informers by, 93–4
 - vexatious nature of his second term as governor, 60–1, 213
 - vicissitudes of, 17
 - warm personal relationship of, with Bigge, 194–5
- See also* Edwards, William, trial of for libeling Somerset; placard scandal; politieke uitzetting [political removal]; Somerset, Lord Charles, relationship of with the press; Somerset, Lord Charles, specific allegations of corruption made against
- Somerset, Lord Charles, relationship of with the press
- attempted executive banishment of Greig by Somerset, 197, 200
 - determination to move against Greig and his editors, 192
 - suppression of the Cape Colony's first newspaper, 13
 - use of government informers to gather information on the press, 191–2
- Somerset, Lord Charles, specific allegations of corruption made against, 61
- attacking the liberty of the press, 61
 - deportation without trial, 61
 - distributing liberated Africans, 61
- See also* 'Sorcerer Colt'
- Somerset, Lord Edward, 18, 31
- defence of his brother before Parliament, 182
- Somerset, Lord Granville, 71, 73, 75, 208
- advice to Horton on handling Edwards's anti-government crusade, 71
 - on the character of Lord Charles Somerset, 74
 - on the conduct of Cape politics, 149–50
 - on the problems for the Colonial Office and the Tories due to the Somerset critics, 72–3
 - reply of to Horton's complaint, 73–4
- Somerset, Henry, 61
- 'Sorcerer Colt' (horse), 61
- South Africa, 14, 53
- See also* Cape Colony
- South African Commercial Advertiser*, 13, 22, 47, 95, 164, 192, 207, 213, 241
- account of the prize slave libel trial in, 21
 - comical aspects of the fiscal's suppression of, 193
 - confrontation with the colonial government, 21

- on the government's handling of the placard scandal, 242
- official suppression by the fiscal, 192–3
- report of the Buckingham deportation case in, 206
- suppression of publication by the Somerset administration during the Edwards–Somerset libel trial, 192
- South African Journal* [Het Nederduitsch Zuid-Afrikaansche Tijdschrift], 49
- sovereignty, 164, 203, 211, 212
- in conquered territories, 22, 197
- Spa Fields riots (1816), 46
- trials in the wake of, 89
- Spies and Bloodies!!!* (anonymous), 88, 89
- State of the Cape of Good Hope* (W. W. Bird), 115
- Statistical, Historical, and Political Description of the Colony of New South Wales* (Wentworth), 98, 251
- Stephen, James, 58, 68–9, 80, 143, 146, 157, 200, 208, 274
- on the condition of the Cape penal colony, 274
- opinion concerning Somerset's use of executive banishment, 203–4
- opinion in the Fiscal v. Cooke, Edwards and Hoffman case, 179–80
- Stockenstrom, Andries, 16
- Sudds, Joseph, 260
- suicide, as a punishable offence, 258
- Sydney Gazette*
- on the Australian's attempts to discredit Edwards, 100
- on the dissection of Edwards's body after his death, 276–7, 278
- report on escaped prisoners, 34
- reporting Edwards' connection to the Bigge Commissions, 100–1
- Sydney Monitor*, 207, 250
- on the corruption of Darling, 260–1
- on dissection of Edwards's body, 276–8
- gendered view of convict escapes in, 252
- on the injustice of Edwards's sentence for libel, 183
- obituary of Edwards in, 260
- Taylor, David Passmore, 84, 85
- Taylor, Henry, 78
- admiration of Bathurst's managerial skills, 66
- Telfair, Charles, 114
- 'Belle Ombre' estate of, 114
- Theal, George McCall, 14, 17
- theatre, importance of, to the governmentality of imperial society, 156–7
- Thompson, E. P., 88, 89
- Thompson, Patrick, 260
- Tory Party/Tories, 241
- Reformist Tories, 127
- ultra-Tories, 82
- transportation, 53
- differences between transportation and banishment, 197–8
- and English law, 199
- on the sentence of transportation for libel as 'illegal', 179
- use of, against Cape inhabitants during the VOC period, 199–200
- Transportation Act (1718), 199
- Transportation Act (1826), 254–5
- Treaty of Amiens (1802), 43
- Truter, Johannes Andreas (Sir John), 43–4, 57, 86, 177, 196
- legal opinion concerning banishment, 200–2
- opinion of Cooke's and Burnett's memorials, 180
- poor advice given to Somerset by, 191
- proficiency in English, 177
- retirement of, 45
- Turner, William, 89
- Turning Points in Australian History* (Crotty and Roberts), 52
- van der Stel, Willem Adrian, 145
- Van Diemen's Land, 5, 199
- administration of, 51
- and British emigration policy, 46
- as a colony of settlement rather than of conquest, 57
- dissection of Aboriginal and prisoner bodies in, 281
- van Leeuwen, Simon, 187
- van Niekerk, J. P., 111
- van Ryneveld, William, 107, 144
- Ward, Kerry, 201
- Wardell, Robert, 98, 250, 251
- Warden, John, 124
- Waterloo, Battle of, 18
- Watson, R. L., 154
- Wellington Valley (the 'Valley of Swells'), 248
- Wentworth, D'Arcy, 98
- Wentworth, William Charles, 98, 250, 251
- West Indies, 205

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07073-8 - Imperial Underworld: An Escaped Convict and the Transformation of the British Colonial Order

Kirsten McKenzie

Index

More information

318 Index

Whig Party/Whigs, 165, 168, 241

Wickwar, W. Hardy, 169

Wilberforce, William, 49, 155

Williams, James Onslow, 125–6

Wilmot, Benjamin, 230, 231

Wilson, Kathleen, 156

Wright, Thomas Edward, 278

Wright, William, 94

Wylde, John, 34, 45, 211, 282

on Roman–Dutch law, 211

Wylde, Thomas, 34

death of, 34