

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07319-7 - The New Legal Realism, Volume II: Studying Law Globally

Edited by Heinz Klug and Sally Engle Merry

Index

More information

Index

- Abbott, Kenneth W., 74–75
- accountability
- Inter-American Court cases and, 235–236
  - negative impact in HIV/AIDS clinics of pressures for, 79–82
  - transitional justice and, 204–206, 209–217
- ACT UP advocacy group, 57–59
- Administrative License Law (China), 190–194
- Adorno, Theodor, 216
- Advisory Centre on WTO Law (ACWL), 154–155
- African constitutionalism
- absence of rule of law and, 18–20
  - failing states and, 21–22
  - future challenges for, 22–29
  - history of, 13–14
  - independence and, 15–16
  - institutional collapse in postcolonial era and, 16–17
  - languages and translation strategies, 23–29
  - legal realism and, 5
  - neoliberal architecture for, 20–21
  - rival development paradigms and, 17
  - single-party states and, 16–17
  - top-down vs. bottom-up approach to, 13–14
- Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS)
- forum proliferation and shifting following, 57–63
  - intellectual property protection in, 56–57
  - U.S. origins of, 52–53
- Ake, Claude, 13–14
- Akhavan, Payam, 211–212
- Akyesu, Paul, 246–250
- Albright, Madeleine, 201–204
- alcohol sales and possession, Sudanese criminalization of, 101–103
- Allied Control Council Law 10, 204–206
- American Journal of International Law*, 149
- American Legal Realism, 145–146
- analytical theory, New Legal Realism and, xvi
- Anglo-Egyptian Condominium, Sudanese state governance and, 98–100
- anthropology
- extended case method in, 119
- Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement (ACTA)
- forum shifting concerning, 60–63
  - intellectual property protections in, 52–53
- antiretroviral (ARV) drug regimens
- compliance and monitoring of, 81–82
  - global access to medicines movement and, 86–88
  - shortages of, global South HIV/AIDS clinics, 85–86
- Anti-Rightist Campaign (China), purging of lawyers during, 182–184
- Antoine, Rose-Marie Belle, 171–172
- apartheid legislation, vernacular law in South Africa and, 117–120
- apostasy, criminalization in Sudan of, 99–100
- Appadurai, Arjun, 27
- Aramaeans, Turkish human rights policies concerning, 45–47
- Argentina
- criticism of IAC in, 235–236
  - transitional justice and democratization in, 204–206
  - truth commission reports in, 209–211
- Asia, statistical indicators on human rights in, 36–40
- Assange, Julian, 163–164
- atrocities, state prosecution of, 225–239
- Austin, J. L., 255–259
- Backer, David, 215–217
- Badie, Bertrand, 22–23
- Baldwin, James, 145–146, 155–156

- Bámaca Velásquez v Guatemala*, 230–233 bank secrecy international cooperation for reduction of, 173–176 offshore financial systems and, 160–168
 bar associations and examinations in China, 183, 188–194 Barayagwisa, Jean-Bosco, 246–250
 Bartley, Tim, 77–79, 92
 Base Erosion and Profit Shifting (BEPS), 176–177
 Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS), 168–170 Bashir, Omar al-, 96, 99–100 benefits and costs of legal rigidity for, 106–108 expansion of criminal law under, 101–103 basic-level legal service workers (jiceng falü fuwu gongzuozhe), 188–190 Bass, G. Jonathan, 215–217
 Beijing Lawyers Association, 191–192
 Belmont Report, 89
 Bentley, Derek, 254n.33
 Bikindi Trial Chamber Judgment, 244–250 bilateral trade agreements intellectual property and, 53–54 tax information exchange agreements, 173–176 TRIPS agreement and, 59–60
 Blum, Jack, 163–164
 Bonthuys, Elsje, 114 bottom-up scholarship, New Legal Realism and, 123–125
 Bo Xilai, 192–193
 Brandenburg test
   Rwanda genocide and, 248–250 speech acts and causation, 244–245, 256–259 Brazil challenges to WTO from, 154–155 intellectual property agreements and, 54–56
 Brđnjanin, Radoslav, 242–244, 256–259
 British Virgin Islands, as tax havens, 165–166 bulletin board systems (BBS), Chinese lawyers' use of, 192–193
bulubulu (reconciliation), in Fiji, 48 bureaucracy
   Chinese lawyers as state bureaucrats, 182–184
   Chinese legal structure and dominance of, 180–181
   Inter-American Court and resistance of, 235–236 postcolonial proliferation in Africa of, 18–20
 Busch, Marc, 154–155
 Cambodia, hybrid transitional justice tribunal in, 206–209
 Caribbean Basin Initiative, 53–54
 Carothers, Thomas, 219
 Carruthers, Bruce G., 70
 Cassese, Antonio, 215–217
Castillo Páez v. Peru, 230–233, 234 causal analysis, New Legal Realism and, xviii–xxi causation models criminal accountability and, 7–8 international law on genocide and, 242–259
   legal realism and, 254–259
   social facts and fabrications, 250–253 speech acts, international criminal law, 244–250 Cayman Islands bank operations in, 160–161 evolution of offshore financial systems on, 164–168 tax avoidance and banking on, 161–163 tax information exchange agreements and, 173–176
 Cayman Islands Trusts Act, 165–166
 Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC, U.S.), 88–90
 Chanock, Martin, 5, 13–29, 117
 Charter 77 Foundation, 205–206
 Chayes, Abram, 229–230
 Chekhov, Anton, 145–146, 155–156
 Chile, transitional justice and democratization in, 204–206
 China bar reform and legal education in, 180–181, 182–184, 188–194 foreign law firms in, 184, 185, 188–190 growth of legal profession in, 186–188 human rights law in, 193–194 lawyers as market brokers in, 184–190 lawyers as state bureaucrats in, 182–184 legal and regulatory infrastructure in, 180–194 political activism of lawyers in, 190–194 professionalization of legal profession in, 6–7, 184–190 shortage of lawyers in, 182–184
 China Patent Bureau, 184, 187–188
 Christensen, John, 163–164
 Christianity, African constitutionalism and, 26–29 citizen representation (gongmin daili), Chinese system of, 192–193 civil law, Sudanese Islamic law and, 102–103, 106–108 civil society, restorative justice and victim participation and, 233–235 clinical practice guidelines impact of law in HIV/AIDS clinics and, 82–85 mutual adjustments to impact of regulations on, 88–90 clinical trials data from HIV/AIDS clinics

- access to medicine as enrollment incentive, 86–88
- inequities in disease management and, 77–79
- outside regulations on, impact of, 79–82
- resistance US rules concerning, 85–86
- closure in transitional justice, 215–217
- Cold War
- African constitutionalism and, 13–14, 17
  - human rights treaties during, 34–40
  - international relations legal realism and, 146–149
  - legal realism and, 3–4, 5
  - transitional justice and legacy of, 204–206, 212–213
  - transitional justice following, 204–206, 208–209
- collective action, Chinese lawyers' engagement in, 190–194
- Collier, Paul, 22–23
- Colombia
- dialogic mechanisms in court system of, 230–233
  - peace process in, 238–239
- colonialism
- African constitutionalism and, 13–14, 24–25
  - legal realism and, 3–4, 5
  - medical law and HIV/AIDS treatment and research and, 69–92
  - Sudanese manipulation of Islamic law and, 98–100
  - vernacular law and, 117–120
- Comites de Impulso* (Guatemala), 230–233
- commercial radio, offshoring strategies of, 166–168
- Committee of Experts on International Cooperation in Tax Matters, 173n.17
- Committee on Fiscal Affairs (CFA), 172–173, 176–177
- Committee on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, monitoring of CEDAW compliance by, 41–49
- common law
- African constitutionalism and, 13–14
  - Sudanese Islamic law and, 102–103
- communal voters, African constitutionalism and, 15–16
- communication technologies, tax avoidance and, 166–168
- community-in-council
- Kwa Zulu-Natal tradition of, 114–117
  - vernacular dispute management and, 120–121
- complementarity
- of International Criminal Court, 225–226
  - positive complementarity of IAC, 226–229
- compliance monitoring
- dialogic mechanisms and, 230–233
  - in HIV/AIDS research and treatment, 76–90
  - indicators of human rights compliance, 40–41
  - legibility of preexisting routines in HIV/AIDS clinics and, 77–79
  - negative impact in HIV/AIDS clinics of, 79–82
  - resistance in HIV/AIDS clinics to, 85–86
  - state institutions and, 231
  - treaty-based initiatives for, 34–40
  - treaty body hearings on human rights and, 33–34
- composite indicators of human rights compliance, 40–41
- confidentiality issues, HIV/AIDS clinic regulations and, 82
- constitutional law
- African constitutionalism and, 13–14
  - dialogic mechanisms and, 230–233
  - global context for, 15–22
  - lack of, for Kwa Zulu-Natal women, 113–117
  - matasi* system in Samoa and, 42–45
  - postcolonial African attempts to return to, 20
- Consumer Project on Technology, 57–59
- Convention against Torture (CAT), 35–40
- Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance in 35–36, 201–220
- Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW)
- matasi* system in Samoa monitored by, 42–45
  - monitoring committee for, 35–36
  - statistical information for, 36–40
  - Sudanese human rights issues and, 104–105
  - treaty hearings and, 33–34
- Convention on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination (CERD), 35–40
- Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, Article III(c), 245–246
- Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC), 35–36
- indicators requested by, 36–40
- cooperative law firms, Chinese establishment of, 185
- copyright protection, U.S. legislation for, 61
- corporate law
- Chinese state restrictions on practice of, 184
  - foreign law firms in China and evolution of, 185
  - growth in China of, 188–190
  - political embeddedness of Chinese lawyers and, 187–188
- Council of International Medical Societies, 89
- country reports
- human rights monitoring and limits of, 33–34
  - Turkish human rights report, 45–47
  - variations in statistical data from, 36–40
- court systems
- African constitutionalism and, 28–29

- court systems (cont.)
 in China, 180–181
 Chinese lawyers' political activism concerning, 192–193
 complementarity of ICC concerning, 225–226 dialogic mechanisms in, 230–233 dispute management in KwZulu-Natal and, 118–120 experimentalist governance and, 229–233
 in Latin America, 235–236
 transitional justice and, 204–206
 vernacular groupings in South Africa and, 136–140
 women's justice in Kwa Zulu-Natal and, 113–140
- Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (CESCR), 46
- Craig, Christopher, 254n.33
- criminal law. See also international criminal law in China, 180–181, 188–190, 192–193
 in Sudan, 101–103
- Critical Legal Studies, 149
- critical pragmatism, New Legal Realism and, 149–152
- Crowder, Michael, 22–23
- Cullen, Richard, 193–194
- Cultural Revolution
 Chinese legal profession and, 180–181 trials during, 182–184
- culture
 African constitutionalism and, 26–29
 HIV/AIDS clinic management and tools of, 90–92
 legal pluralism in Africa and, 18–20
 new legal realism and, 4–5
- Curren, Ericka, 114
- customary law
 African constitutionalism and, 25–26
 legal pluralism in Africa and, 18–20
 reinforcement in Kwa Zulu-Natal law of, 114–117 Traditional Courts Bill and influence of, 136–140
 vernacular law and, 117–120
- Czech Republic, post-Soviet transitional justice in, 204–206
- Dagan, Hanoch, 2–3
- data ethnographic data, 72–73 in HIV/AIDS clinics, negative impact of outside regulations on, 79–82 indicator categories, 40–41 international data collection, 33–34, 36–40, 41–49 in low-income countries, 78–79 privacy and reporting requirements, 60–63 debate structure, transitional justice and, 213–215
- Declaration of Helsinki, 84–85, 89
- democratization
 African constitutionalism and, 28–29
 constitutional challenges with, 20 future challenges in Africa for, 22–23
 in Latin America, 226–229
 transitional justice and, 204–206, 219
- Demographic and Health Surveys (DHSs), 33–34
- denial, transitional justice and, 209–213
- Der Stürmer*, 245–246
- development
 African constitutionalism and paradigms of, 17 growth of economic bureaucracy and, 18–20
- dialogic mechanisms
 Inter-American Court and, 230–233
 transitional justice and reconciliation and, 213–215
- digital economy, evolution of offshore systems and, 164–168
- “Dirty War” in Argentina, 204–206
- Discrimination. See also sex discrimination in Sudan, 104–105
 treaties for ending of, 33–34, 41–49
- dispute management in Kwa Zulu-Natal case studies in, 125–131
 evaluation of cases, 131–136 flexibility of vernacular law and, 135–136 framing theory and, 121–125 motivations for, 119–120
 new legal realism and, 136–140
 terminology for, 118–120
 vernacular grouping and, 131–132 vernacular laws concerning, 114–117
- disputing theory, 121–122
- diversity, new legal realism and, 3–4
- Doctors Without Borders, 57–59
- Dodd, Christopher, 61–63
- Doing Business Index, data sources for, 40–41
- Douglas, Mary, 77–79
- Draft Code of Crimes against the Peace and Security of Mankind, 246n.14
- Drahos, Peter, 52–53
- due process guarantees, transitional justice and, 215–217
- ‘Dutch sandwich’ financial arrangement, evolution of offshore systems and, 164–168
- duty to the victim, transitional justice prosecutions and principle of, 233–235
- Dworkin, Ronald, 154–155

- Eastern Europe, transitional justice in post-Cold War era in, 204–206
- Eastwood, Margaret, 245–246
- economic theory
- African constitutionalism and, 15–22
  - compliance in human rights and, 32–50
- Elizabeth Glazer Pediatric AIDS Foundation (EGPAF), 88–90
- Elmer, Rudolf, 160–161, 163–164, 174–176
- El Salvador, truth commission in, 209–211
- Elster, Jon, 215–217
- Empirical Legal Studies (ELS), New Legal Realism and, xvi
- empiricism, in New Legal Realism, 149–152
- Englund, Harri, 24–25
- enterprise legal services (China), 183, 187–188
- Enterprise Zones (EPZs), 169–170
- epistemology, New Legal Realism and, xvi
- ethical principles, inequities in HIV/AIDS clinic management and, 88–90
- Europe, statistical indicators on human rights in, 36–40
- European Court of Human Rights (ECHR), 235–236
- European Patent Office, Substantive Patent Law Treaty harmonization with WIPO and, 59–60
- European Union
- financial services market and, 169–170
  - Savings Directive of, 174–176
- experimentalist governance, Inter-American Court of Human Rights and, 229–233
- Export Processing Zones (EPZs), 169–170
- extended case method, state courts and, 119
- external interventions, transitional justice and, 212–213
- fact, in New Legal Realism, 151–152
- failed states
- African constitutionalism and, 21–22
  - Sudanese manipulation of Islamic law and, 98–100
- Falun Gong movement (China), 193–194
- Farber, Daniel, 150–151
- Federal Wide Assurance (FWA) mandates, imposition in global HIV/AIDS clinics of, 85–86
- female circumcision, 106–108
- Feminist Methods, 149
- Fiji, monitoring of human rights in, 48
- Financial Secrecy Index, 165n.6
- financial services markets
- law and legitimacy issues and, 163–164
  - tax avoidance through offshore financial systems and, 161–163
- Financial Stability Forum, 171–172
- first-order numbers, indicators of human rights compliance and, 40–41
- flags of convenience (FoC)
- offshoring strategies and, 166–168
  - sovereignty challenges to, 168–170
- Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA), 174–176
- foreign aid agencies, human rights in Sudan and, 103–106, 108–110
- foreign law firms in China
- privatization of Chinese law and, 184–190
  - restrictions on work by, 184
- forum proliferation and shifting
- Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement negotiations and, 60–63
  - post-TRIPS challenges from, 57–63
- forum shopping, tax avoidance strategies and, 166–168
- framing theory
- dispute management in Kwa Zulu-Natal and, 121–125
  - transitional justice and reconciliation and, 206–209, 216
- Frontline Club, 163–164
- Fu, Hualing, 193–194
- G7 group, 172–173
- G8 group, offshore tax haven reforms and, 174–176
- G20 group, 172–173
- international tax reform and, 176–177
  - offshore tax haven reforms and, 174–176
- Gang of Four (China), trial of, 182–184
- Gazley, Lynn, 77–79
- gender equality. See also women
- African constitutionalism and, 26–29
  - lack of, for Kwa Zulu-Natal women, 113–117
- General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT)
- dispute settlement in, 150–151
  - intellectual property protections in, 53–54
  - international support for, 54–56
- generic drug production, intellectual property protections for pharmaceuticals and, 57–59
- genocide
- African constitutionalism and, 13–14, 21–22
  - causation in international law and, 242–259
  - Inter-American Court and, 225–226
  - justice and reconciliation after, 7–8
  - legal realism at international criminal tribunals on, 254–259
  - media broadcasts and linked to, 242–244
  - new legal realism and, 7–8
  - Nuremberg and criminal responsibility for, 245–246
  - in Rwanda, 215–217, 242–244, 246–250

- genocide (cont.)
 social facts and fabrications of causation and, 250–253
 transitional justice and, 201–204
- geographical distance, compliance monitoring of HIV/AIDS clinics and, 76–90
- Germany, post-Soviet transitional justice in, 204–206
- Ghana authoritarian regime in, 16–17
 constitutionalism in, 25–26
 postcolonial constitutional democracy initiatives in, 20
- Gibson, James, 209–212
- global access to medicines movement, HIV/AIDS research and treatment and, 86–88
- global financial centres, offshore financial systems and, 165–166
- Global Forum on Taxation, 174–176
- Global Forum on Transparency and Exchange of Information for Tax Purposes, 174–176
- globalization of law
 African constitutionalism in context of, 15–22, 26–29
 Chinese global-local legal collaboration and,
 185, 187–188
 Chinese state-led legal reforms and, 180–181
 cultural issues and, 90–92
 global North influences on global South regulations and, 76–90
 HIV/AIDS treatment and research and, 69–92
 human rights compliance monitoring and, 32–50
 institutional change and, 6–7 intellectual property and creation of global rules, 52–65
 justice in context of, 7–8 legal creativity concerning offshore financial systems and, 170–172
 New Legal Realism and, xviii–xxi, 5, 147
 norm transfer and, 6
 transitional justice and, 201–220
- globalized localism, 70
- Google, evolution of offshore systems and, 164–168
- Gore, Albert, 57–59
- Gorlin, Jacques, 54–56
- grassroots legal profession
 Chinese privatization of law and growth of, 186–188
 emergence in China of, 183
- grassroots politics
 Sudanese Islamic law and, 101–103
 transitional justice and inclusion of, 213–215
- Griffith-Jones, Mervyn, 245–246
- Grossfeld, Bernhard, 27
- Grundy, Milton, 165–166
- Guatemala, Inter-American Court case against, 230–233
- Guatemala Historical Clarification Commission, 209–211, 212n.7, 213–215
- guilt, transitional justice and individualization of, 211–212
- Gutiérrez Soler v. Colombia*, 230–233
- Gutmann, Amy, 213–215
- Habermas, Jürgen, 209–213
- Hadith (Muslim scholarly teachings), Sudanese Islamic law and, 106–108
- Haiti, absence of reconciliation in, 215–217
- Halliday, Terence C., 70
- Hanafi school of Islamic law, 98–100
- hard law
 HIV/AIDS research and treatment and, 74–75 medicine and, 71–72
- Harmful Tax Competition: An Emerging Issue*
 (OECD), 173–176
- hate speech. See speech acts
- Hathaway, Oona, 32
- Health Action International, 57–59
- health care norms, HIV/AIDS treatment and research and, 73–75
- hedge funds, tax avoidance through offshore financial systems and, 161–163
- Heimer, Carol A., 69–92
- Herr, Jeffrey, 209–211
- historical records closure and remembrance from reconciliation
 and, 216
 transitional justice and importance of, 209–211
- HIV/AIDS treatment and research
 African constitutionalism and, 26–29
 compliance monitoring of clinics, 76–90 cultural tools for assessment of, 90–92 ethnographic studies of, 60–63, 69–73 intellectual property protections and, 57–59 interdisciplinary boundaries in, 73–75
 legibility of preexisting routines in, 77–79 mutual adjustment to rules concerning, 88–90 mutual influences in legal infrastructure for, 86–88 negative impact of regulation adoption and compliance in, 79–82 ranking of occupations in, 82–85 resistance to legal infrastructure and, 85–86 shared medical/legal jurisdiction in, 82–85
- Holomisa, Patekile, 115n.8
- Hudec, Robert, 150–151
- huduud* (crime of apostasy), 99–100

- Human Development Index (HDI) data sources for, 40–41
 statistical indicators scoring by, 36–40
- humanities, New Legal Realism and, xxi–xxii
- human rights
 African constitutionalism and, 24–25
 challenges in Sudan concerning, 106–108 Chinese lawyers' activism for, 193–194 closure and remembrance in transitional justice and, 215–217
 Inter-American Court prosecution of violations of, 226–229
 Islamic law and, 96–110
 media broadcasts and violations of, 242–244 monitoring and compliance of conventions in, 231
 New Legal Realism and, xviii–xxi, 5 politics of Sudanese Islamic law and, 103–106, 108–110 positive complementarity regime of IAC and, 226–229 reconciliation and, 206–209
 transitional justice and, 201–204, 205–206
 treaties and committees involved in, 34–40
- Human Rights Committee formation of, 35–36 indicators developed and gathered by, 36–40 monitoring of ICCPR by, 34–40
- Human Rights Watch, 215–217
- Huneus, Alexandra, 1–2, 7–8, 225–239
- hybrid transitional justice systems, 206–209
- Hyman, Lester, 167n.10
- ideology, in New Legal Realism, 151–152
- impunity
 Inter-American Court and issues of, 230–233
 transitional justice impact on, 212–213
- inclusive dialogue, transitional justice and, 213–215
- independence, African constitutionalism and, 15–16
- India intellectual property agreements and, 54–56
 marriage policies in, 48
- indicators of human rights compliance categories of, 40–41 treaty-based variations in, 36–40
- individualization of guilt, transitional justice and, 211–212
- Industry Functional Advisory Committee on Intellectual Property Rights for Trade Policy Matters, 54–56
- inflammatory speech, causation of genocide linked to, 242–244
- information financial services tax evasion and withholding of, 163–164 human rights monitoring and importance of, 36–40 informed consent, impact of law in HIV/AIDS clinics on, 84–85, 92
- Institutes of Political Science and Law (China), 182–184
- institutionalism, New Legal Realism and, 149–152
- institutional review boards (IRBs), global HIV/AIDS clinics and influence of, 82–86
- institutions. See organizations and institutions; state institutions
- Intellectual Property Committee (IPC), 54–56
- intellectual property law
 Chinese patent and trademark agencies and, 187–188 Chinese state restrictions on, 184 current and future challenges, 64–65 domestic origins of, 53–57 forum proliferation and shifting concerning, 57–63 political transformations of, 52–53
 Trans-Pacific Partnership negotiations and, 63–64
- Inter-American Commission, 226–229 restorative justice and victim participation and, 233–235
- Inter-American Court of Human Rights (IAC) challenges facing, 235–236 dialogic mechanisms of, 230–233 innovations of, 229–239
- International Criminal Court and, 236–239 positive complementarity regime, 226–229 restorative justice and victim participation in, 233–235
 transitional justice and, 225–226
 weak-form review under, 229–233
- Inter-American System for Human Rights (IAS), 225–226 challenges facing, 235–236
- interdisciplinary studies
 HIV/AIDS clinics research and, 73–75 of HIV/AIDS pandemic, 73–75
 New Legal Realism and, xxi–xxii, 4–5, 149–152 transnational legal structure and, 69–72
- Interim Regulation on Lawyers (China), 182–184
- Interim Regulation on the establishment of Foreign Law Offices in China, 185
- intermediary companies, tax avoidance using, 166–168
- Internal Revenue Service (IRS, US), 174–176
- International Banking Facility (US Federal Reserve), 168–170

- International Centre for Trade and Sustainable Development (ICTSD), 154–155
- International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR) compliance monitoring by, 34–40 information gathered for, 36–40
 Sudanese human rights issues and, 104–105 treaty hearings held by, 33–34
- International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR), 33–34 indicators requested by, 36–40
 monitoring committee for, 35–36
 Sudanese human rights issues and, 104–105
 Turkish human rights monitoring by, 45–47
- International Criminal Court (ICC)
 complementarity regime in, 225–226
 Inter-American Court experience and, 236–239
 new legal realism and, 7–8
 restorative justice and victim participation and, 233–235
- international criminal law. See also criminal law causation and criminal accountability, 7–8 criminalization of propaganda and inflammatory speech, 242–244 Inter-American Court prosecutions and, 226–229
 speech acts and causation in, 244–250
 transitional justice and reconciliation and, 206–209
- International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda (ICTR), 7–8, 206–209, 215–217, 242–244, 246–253
- International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (ICTY), 201–204, 206–217, 242–244, 255–259
- international criminal tribunals criminal accountability and, 7–8
 criminalization of propaganda and inflammatory speech in, 242–244 Inter-American Court experience and, 236–239
 legal realism at, 254–259
 transitional justice and reconciliation and, 206–209
- International Ethical Guidelines for Biomedical Research Involving Human Subjects, 89
- International Financial Services Centre (Ireland), 169–170
- international humanitarian law, transitional justice and, 201–204
- international human rights law
 transitional justice and, 201–204
 treaty system and, 34–40
- international law
 causation and genocide in, 242–259
 empiricism in, 149–152
 New Legal Realism and, 145–156
 reconciliation vs. transitional justice and, 206–209
 transitional justice and, 205–206
- International Law Commission, 246n.14
- International Military Tribunal, 7–8, 204–209 causation and speech acts issues and, 245–246, 251
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 171–172
- International Registries Inc., 167n.10
- international relations realism, 146–149
- international shipping ‘captive’ registries and, 168–170 flags of convenience strategies of, 166–168
- international trade law
 Chinese restrictions on, 184
 New Legal Realism and, 152–155
 privatization of Chinese law and, 184–190
- Internet, Chinese lawyers’ political activism using, 190–194
- Internet service providers (ISPs), Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement negotiations and, 60–63
- investment, state incentives for, 168–170
- Iraq war, transformation of Iraqi legal system following, 4–5
- Ireland, offshore financial systems in, 169–170
- Islamic law
 African constitutionalism and, 26–29
 benefits and costs of legal rigidity in, 106–108 grassroots politics in Sudan and, 101–103 human rights and, 96–110
 new legal realism and, 6
 Sudanese state manipulation of, 98–100, 108–110
- Jackson, Robert, 206–213
- Japan, banking facilities in, 169–170
- Jelisić, Goran, 256–259
- Jilin University, legal education at, 182–184
- judiciary benefits and costs of Sudanese legal rigidity for, 106–108
 in China, 180–181
 Chinese national judicial examination and, 188–190
 Chinese political activism concerning, 190–194
 New Legal Realism and, 150–151
 in postcolonial African states, 16–17 in postcolonial Nigeria, 20
 women’s justice in Kwa Zulu-Natal and, 113–140
- Julius Baer Bank (JBB) Group, 160–164
- jurisdictions
 complementarity of ICC and, 225–226

- of convenience, offshore financial systems and, 170–172
- medical and legal sharing of, in HIV/AIDS clinics, 82–85
- tax avoidance strategies and use of, 166–168
- tax information exchange agreements and, 173–176
- justice
- Chinese lawyers' collective action involving, 190–194
  - insecurity and volatility in KwaZulu-Natal for, 132–134
  - Inter-American Court experience and, 236–239
  - new legal realism and issues of, 7–8
  - transitional justice as, 201–220
- Kenya, postcolonial institutional collapse in, 16–17
- Keohane, Robert O., 74–75
- 'Khadi courts,' 28–29
- Khulumani Support Group on Behalf of Victims and Survivors of Apartheid, 213–215
- Kinyarwanda linguistics, Rwanda genocide and, 246–250
- Klee, Paul, 145n.2
- Klug, Heinz, 1–8, 70, 92
- Kretzmer, David, 36–40
- Kritz, Neil, 205–206
- Kuhn, Thomas, 151–152
- Ku Klux Klan, 244–245
- Kurds, Turkish human rights policies concerning, 45–47
- KwaZulu-Natal
- case studies in dispute management in, 125–131
  - HIV/AIDS clinics in, 82–85
  - insecurity and volatility in, 132–134
  - womens rights in, 113–140
- labor laws
- Chinese legal profession and, 185
  - enterprise zones and, 169–170
  - forced labor sanctioned in Kwa Zulu-Natal law, 114–117
  - Sudanese Islamic law and, 102–103
- Lacey, Nicola, 125
- Lakatos, Imre, 151–152
- language, African constitutionalism and, 23–29
- Latin America
- Inter-American Court cases and court systems of, 235–236
  - military dictatorship era in, 226–229
  - statistical indicators on human rights in, 36–40
- Law and Economics scholarship, 149
- New Legal Realism and, xvi, xviii–xxi
- law dissemination (pu fa) campaigns (China), 183
- law enforcement structures
- African constitutionalism and rights of, 26–29
  - in China, 180–181
  - Chinese lawyers' collective action against, 190–194
- Law Reform Commission, matatua system in Samoa and, 43
- Lawyers Law (China), 182–184
- League of Nations, 173n.17
- Leebaw, Bronwyn, 7–8, 201–220
- legal and regulatory infrastructure. See also specific laws and treaties
- avoidance of, strategies for, 166–168
  - Chinese state-led legal reforms and, 180–194
  - compliance monitoring in HIV/AIDS clinics and, 76–90
  - cultural issues and, 90–92
  - domestic origins of intellectual property law and, 53–57
  - evolution of offshore financial systems, 164–168
  - financial services law and legitimacy and, 163–164
  - HIV/AIDS treatment and research and, 69–72, 73–75
  - intellectual property law and, 52–53
  - legal creativity concerning offshore financial systems and, 170–172
  - legibility of preexisting routines in, 77–79
  - management of discretion in, 82–85
  - mutual adjustment in HIV/AIDS to, 88–90
  - mutual influences in development of, 86–88
  - post-TRIPS forum proliferation and shifting on intellectual property, 57–63
  - privatization in China of, 185
  - responses to and uses of in global South HIV/AIDS clinics, 76–90
  - Sudanese rival legal systems and, 96–110
  - transitional justice and, 201–204
  - women's justice in Kwa Zulu-Natal and, 113–140
- legal education
- in China, 180–181, 182–184, 188–190
  - judgment, globalism, and accessibility issues in, xviii–xxi
- legal pluralism
- African constitutionalism and, 24–25
  - disputing theory and, 121–122
  - legacy in postcolonial Africa of, 18–20
- legal realism
- American Legal Realism, 145–146
  - attributes of, 149–152
  - early versions of, 2–3, 146–149
  - at international criminal tribunals on, 254–259
- Levine, David, 61
- Liberia, offshoring systems in, 166–168

- Liechtenstein, offshore financial systems in, 164–168, 174–176
- Lin Biao, 182–184
- Liu, Sida, 6–7, 180–194
- Li Zhuang case, Chinese lawyers' political activism involving, 192–193
- Llewellyn, Karl, 145–146
- local justice bureaus (China), 190–194
- township legal workers and, 186–188
- Macaulay, Stewart, 150–151
- Mahdist state in Sudan, 98–100
- majority rule, African constitutionalism and, 15–16
- Mandela, Nelson, 208–209
- Maples, John, 165–166
- market economy
- Chinese lawyers as brokers in, 184–190
  - Chinese state-led legal reforms and influence of, 180–181
  - competition between Chinese lawyers and township legal workers and, 186–188
- marriage laws, in Kwa Zulu-Natal, 139n.23
- Masacre Mapiripán v. Colombia*, 230–233
- Massoud, Mark Fathi, 3–4, 6, 96–110
- matai* system in Samoa, CEDAW monitoring of sex discrimination in, 42–45
- Mauritius, evolution of offshore systems and, 164–168
- Mazrui, Alamin, 23–29
- McCann, Michael, xv–xxii
- media broadcasts
- genocide linked to, 242–244, 251
  - Rwanda genocide and, 246–250
- mediation/arbitration, disputing theory and, 121–122
- medical practices
- adaptations to legal influences in, 82–85
  - globalization of law and influence on, 71–72, 90–92
  - hard vs. soft law aspects of, 74–75
  - HIV/AIDS clinic regulations and changes to, 72–73, 79–82, 88–90
- Medicines Act (South Africa), 57–59
- mens rea* principle, causation in international criminal law and, 245–246
- Merry, Sally Engle, 1–8, 69–72, 92
- method concepts, sociolegal scholarship and, 1–2
- Metz, Elizabeth, 150–151
- Mexico, maquiladora zones in, 169–170
- Michelson, Ethan, 187–188
- micro-blogs, Chinese lawyers' use of, 192–193
- Middle East, statistical indicators on human rights in, 36–40
- Migrant Workers' Rights (MWR) convention, 35–36
- Miles, Thomas, 150–151
- Miller, Richard, 121–122
- Minisi Weeks, Sindiso, 6, 113–140
- Ministry of Commerce (MOFCOM, China), 188–190
- Ministry of Justice (MOJ) (China)
- establishment of foreign law firms and, 185
  - privatization of Chinese law and exclusion of, 187–188
  - regulation of legal profession by, 182–184
  - township legal service and, 188–190
- minority rights
- Sudanese Islamic law impact on, 101–103
  - Turkish policies concerning, monitoring of, 45–47
- Mironko, Charles, 251
- modernity
- African constitutionalism and, 26–29
  - religious belief and, 105
- MOJ. See Ministry of Justice (MOJ) (China)
- Moldova, monitoring of human rights in, 47–48
- money laundering, regulations against, 160–168
- monitoring. See compliance monitoring
- Moravcsik, Andrew, 74–75
- Morse, Jaimie, 6, 69–92
- Motion Picture Association of America, 53–54, 61–63
- Msinga community
- dispute management in, 120–121
  - vernacular law and, 117–120, 136–140
- multilateral trade agreements, intellectual property and, 54–56
- Multiple Indicator Cluster Surveys (MICSs), 33–34
- Muslim Brotherhood, 99–100
- Naess, Erling, 166–168
- Nahimana, Ferdinand, 246–250, 255–259
- National Institutes of Health (NIH, U.S.)
- funding of global HIV/AIDS clinics by, 72–73
  - regulations for HIV/AIDS clinics drafted by, 88–90
- national judicial examination (China), 188–190
- National Service of Gacaca Jurisdictions (Rwanda), 252–253
- negotiations, disputing theory and, 121–122
- neoliberalism
- African constitutionalism and, 20–21, 25–26
  - legal realism and, 3–4, 5
- Nepal, offshore financial system proposed for, 170–172

- Netherlands, evolution of offshore systems and, 164–168
- New Deal, New Legal Realism and, 147, 150
- New Legal Process, 149
- New Legal Realism
- attributes of, 149–152
  - breaching social divides with, xxi–xxii
  - current scholarship on, xv–xxii
  - defined, xvi
  - dispute management and, 123–125
  - earlier and international relations versions of, 146–149
  - examples of, 152–155
  - future challenges for, 155–156
  - international law and, 145–156
  - vernacular dispute management and, 136–140
- Ngez, Hassan, 246–250
- Nigeria
- postcolonial constitutional democracy initiatives in, 20
  - postcolonial military regime in, 16–17
- Nimeiri, Gaafar, 99–100, 102–103
- Nkrumah, Kwame, 16–17
- nongovernmental organizations (NGOs)
- African constitutionalism and, 24–25
  - coalition against SOPA from, 61–63
  - HIV/AIDS pandemic and medication access, 57–59
  - human rights information gathered by, 36–40
  - instability in Sudan of, 106–108
  - matai* system in Samoa, shadow report on, 43
  - Sudan Islamic law and human rights initiatives of, 103–106, 108–110
  - trade-environment issues and, 152–155
  - victim participation in Inter-American Court and, 233–235
- 'no-party' states, emergence in Africa of, 22–23
- norms
- globalization of law and transfer of, 6
  - reconciliation and transitional justice and, 206–209
  - Sudanese state governance and Western importation of, 98–100, 108–110
  - transnational legal infrastructure and, 69–72
  - vernacular law incorporation of, 117–120
- Nourse, Victoria and, 150–151
- numerical data
- as indicators of human rights compliance, 40–41
  - monitoring of matai system in Samoa and, 44–45
- Nuremberg Code, 84–85, 89
- transitional justice and, 204–213
- Nwabueze, Benjamin, 15
- OECD-Council of Europe Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters, 174–176
- Office for Human Research Protections (OHRP, U.S.), 89
- Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR), illustrative indicators developed by, 36–40
- Official Mechanism for Supervision (MOS Mapiripán), 230–233
- offshore financial systems
- bank secrecy and, 160–164
  - historical and political evolution of, 164–172
  - international cooperation for reform of, 173–176
  - international tax reform and, 176–177
  - law and legitimacy pressures on, 163–164
  - legal creativity and, 170–172
  - new legal realism and, 6–7, 160–177
  - solutions for control over, 172–177
  - sovereignty issues and, 168–170
  - tax avoidance and, 161–163
- Ohanian, Alexis, 61–63
- Okoth-Ogendo, H. W. O., 18–20
- Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act, 54–56
- Onassis, Aristotle, 166–168
- Oomen, Barbara, 26–29
- Opel, John, 54–56
- Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD)
- intellectual property protection and, 54–56
  - international tax reform and, 176–177
  - offshore financing and, 172–176
- Organization for European Economic Cooperation, 173n.17
- Organization of American States (OAS), 225–226
- Inter-American Court jurisdiction and, 226–229
- organizations and institutions
- failure in Africa of, 13–14
  - HIV/AIDS treatment and research and norms of, 69–72, 73–75
  - intellectual property law and role of, 52–53
  - legibility of preexisting routines in, 77–79
- New Legal Realism and, 6–7, 152
- postcolonial collapse of, 16–17
  - post-TRIPS forum proliferation and shifting on intellectual property and, 57–63
  - regulation of HIV/AIDS clinics and responses of, 76–90
  - soft legalization of, 73–75
  - transitional justice and reconciliation and, 206–209
  - vernacular grouping and, 131–132
- Osiel, Mark, 211–212

- Panama, offshoring systems in, 166–168
- parastatals, proliferation in postcolonial Africa of, 18–20
- Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property, 54–56
- partnership law firms establishment in China of, 185
 privatization of Chinese law and, 186–188
- patent law, evolution in China of, 184, 187–188
- patients rights
 HIV/AIDS clinic regulations and, 82 impact of law in HIV/AIDS clinics on informed consent, 84–85
- PayPal service, 61–63
- Peking University, legal education at, 182–184
- perceived injurious experience (PIE), 121–122
 case studies of dispute management involving, 125–131
- personal networks, privatization of Chinese law and importance of, 184–190
- Peru, Inter-American Court cases against, 230–233, 235–236
- pharmaceutical industry, HIV/AIDS pandemic and intellectual property protections for, 57–59
- Picciotto, Sol, 6–7, 160–177
- piracy, offshoring strategies and, 166–168
- pluralism, new legal realism and, 3–4
- politics
 African constitutionalism and, 15, 26–29
 benefits and costs of legal rigidity in Sudan and, 106–108
 Chinese lawyers' political activism and, 190–194 Chinese legal structure and, 180–181 embeddedness of Chinese lawyers in, 187–188 grassroots politics and Sudanese Islamic law, 101–103 human rights discourse and, 103–106 of intellectual property law, 52–53, 60–63 offshore financing and role of, 172–173 political myths in transitional justice and, 209–213 role of transitional justice in, 218–220
 Sudanese manipulation of Islamic law and, 98–100 of transitional justice, 205–206 transitional justice impact on, 216
- Popper, Karl, 151–152
- populist justice, Chinese lawyers' political activism concerning, 192–193
- Positivism, 149
- postcolonialism
 African constitutionalism and, 13–14, 15–16
 institutional collapse following, 16–17
 new legal realism and, 5
- Power, Michael, 40–41
- power asymmetry
 Chinese privatization of law and, 187–188 human rights in Sudan and, 103–106 intellectual property protection and public-private stakeholders, 54–56
 Sudanese Islamic law and, 101–103, 108–110
 Traditional Courts Bill in South Africa and, 123–125
 transitional justice and, 201–204, 218–220
- pragmatism
 critical pragmatism, 149–152
 New Legal Realism and, 123–125
- Pratt, Edmund, 54–56
- praxis, transitional justice and, 218–220
- President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR), 88–90
- private law
 legal creativity concerning offshore financial systems and, 170–172
 privatization of Chinese law, 180–181, 184–190
- private-sector community, intellectual property protection and, 54–56
- problem-centered approach, New Legal Realism and, 149–152
- propaganda, causation of genocide linked to, 242–244
- property law customary law in Africa and, 18–20 male bias in Kwa Zulu-Natal law concerning, 114–117
 Sudanese Islamic law and, 102–103
- Prosecutor v. Ferdinand Nahimana, Jean-Bosco Barayagwisa, Hassan Ngeze*, 246–250
- Protect Intellectual Property Act (PIPA), intellectual property protections in, 60–63
- public health policies, intellectual property protections for pharmaceuticals and, 57–59
- public interest litigation, in China, 192–193
- public law
 African constitutionalism and impoverishment of, 18–20
 Chinese lawyers as state bureaucrats and, 182–184
 Chinese lawyers' political activism in, 192–193
 experimentalist governance tactics in, 229–233
 intellectual property protection and, 54–56
 legal creativity concerning offshore financial systems and, 170–172
 Sudanese Islamic law and, 102–103
- Pupavac, Vanessa, 216
- purge laws, transitional justice and, 204–206

- qanoon September* (September law, Sudan), 99–100 quantitative data, human rights monitoring and, 33–34
 Quine, William, 151–152
 Quran, Sudanese Islamic law and, 106–108
- race, indicators of human rights based on, 40–41 “radio genocide,” 242–244
 Radio Télévision Libre des Milles Collines (RTLM), 246–250, 251 rape, monitoring in Fiji of, 48 Rational International Relations Theory, 149 ratios/percentages, as indicators of human rights, 40–41 Recognition of Customary Marriages Act 12 (South Africa), 139n.23 reconciliation closure and remembrance and, 215–217 inclusive dialogue and debate transformation and, 213–215
   transitional justice and, 201–204, 206–209
Reconstructing American Legal Realism & Rethinking Private Law Theory (Dagan), 2–3 Recording Industry Association of America, 61 recursivity
   HIV/AIDS treatment and research and, 70
   in intellectual property law, 52–53 Reddit, 61–63
 regional free trade agreements, TRIPS agreement and, 59–60 Reinhard, Eric, 154–155 religion
   African constitutionalism and, 26–29
   human rights and, 105
   Sudanese Islam law and tensions over, 106–108 remembrance, in transitional justice, 215–217
   Inter-American Court and, 234
 Renan, Ernst, 211–212
 reparatory orders, Inter-American Court prosecutions and, 226–229 reprisal killings, transitional justice and persistence of, 215–217 research outlets, inequities in dissemination of HIV/AIDS research in, 77–79 responsibility, transitional justice and principles of, 211–212 restorative justice theory
   closure and remembrance in transitional justice and, 215–217
   Inter-American Court prosecutions and, 226–229
   transitional justice and reconciliation and, 206–209 victim participation and, 233–235
   retributive justice, transitional justice and, 233–235 Review of Standards and Codes (ROSC), 171–172 revisionist history, transitional justice and risk of, 212–213
 Rodríguez-Garavito, César, 230–233
 Roht-Arriaza, Naomi, 201–204
 Roma, Turkish human rights policies concerning, 45–47
 Rome Statute, 225–226, 233–235
   International Criminal Court and, 236–239
 Roosevelt, Franklin Delano, 147
 Roundtable on Human Rights (Guatemala), 230–233
 Rubin, Ed, 155–156
Ruggiu Trial Chamber, 246–250 rule of law. See also regulatory infrastructure failure in postcolonial Africa of, 18–20 human rights compliance indicators and, 40–41
   human rights in Sudan and, 103–106
   New Legal Realism and, xviii–xxi, 5
   offshore financial systems and, 163–164
   on post-conflict societies, 218–220
   top-down vs. bottom-up approach to, 13–14
   transitional justice and reconciliation and, 206–209, 212–213
 Rule of Law Program of the US Institute of Peace, 205–206
 Russia, offshore financial systems and, 174n.18
 Ruzindana, Mathias, 246–250
 Rwanda, genocide in, 7–8, 206–209, 215–217, 242–244, 246–250
- Sabel, Charles F., 229
 Samoa abortion prohibitions in, 44–45
   CEDAW monitoring of human rights in, 41–49 high school dropout rates in, 44–45 human rights monitoring of matai system in, 42–45
 Sanford, Victoria, 213–215 Santos, De Sousa, 26–29, 70
 Sarat, Austin, 121–122
 second-order numbers, indicators of human rights compliance and, 40–41 Security Sector Reform and Transitional Justice Unit (UNDP), 201–204 self-governance
   Chinese lawyers’ political activism concerning, 190–194
   matai system in Samoa and, 42–45
 self-help solutions, disputing theory and, 121–122 self-reflexion, New Legal Realism and, 151–152 self-representation, lack of, for Kwa Zulu-Natal women, 113–117

- Sell, Susan K., 5, 52–65
- Šešelj, Vojislav, 255
- sex discrimination in Kwa Zulu-Natal law, 113–117
matai system in Samoa and, 42–45
- Shaffer, Gregory, 6–7, 52–53, 145–156
- shari'a* law
human rights in Sudan and, 105
political benefits and costs in Sudan of, 106–108
Sudanese grassroots politics and, 101–103
Sudanese state and, 98–100
- Shaw, Rosalind, 215–217
- Shekou District Law Firm, 183
- Shenzhen Lawyers Association, 191–192
- Sieder, Rachel, 213–215
- Sierra Leone, hybrid transitional justice tribunal in, 206–209, 216
- Silbey, Susan S., 69–72
- Simmons, Beth, 39–40
- Simon, William H., 229
- Singapore, offshore financial systems in, 169–170
- single-party systems, postcolonial growth in Africa of, 16–17
- situated knowledge, New Legal Realism and,
xviii–xxi
- Slaughter, Anne-Marie, 74–75
- Snidal, Duncan, 74–75
- social media, Chinese lawyers' political activism using, 190–194
- sociolegal scholarship causation and, 250–253 compliance monitoring of HIV/AIDS clinics
and, 76–90
divergence of law and science in, 242–259
New Legal Realism and, xxi–xxii, 7–8, 123–125, 146–149, 152–155
- soft law
HIV/AIDS treatment and research and, 73–75
International Criminal Court and, 236–239
medical law as, 71–72
- Somalia, as failed state, 21–22
- South Africa. See also KwaZulu-Natal
Constitutional Court in, 23–29
HIV/AIDS clinic rules and regulations in, 57–59, 76–90
intellectual property protections in, 57–59 mutual adjustments to regulation of HIV/AIDS clinics in, 88–90 mutual influences in HIV/AIDS clinic rules in, 86–88
single-party regimes in, 20
transformative judiciary in, 22–23 Truth and Reconciliation Commission in, 206–215
- South African Law Reform Commission (SALRC), 114
- sovereignty issues commercialization of sovereignty and, 171–172 human rights treaties and, 35–36
offshore financial systems and, 168–170
Turkish resistance to human rights monitoring
and, 45–47
- Special Economic Zones (SEZs), 169–170
- special intent principle, causation in genocide
and, 254–259
- speech acts, causation in international criminal law and, 244–250
- Sriram, Chandra Lekha, 219
- stability, transitional justice and, 208–209
- standard operating procedures (SOPs), legibility in HIV/AIDS clinics of, 77–79
- State Administration of Industry and Commerce
(China), 184, 187–188
- State Development and Reform Commission (SDRC, China), 188–190
- state development in Africa proliferation in economic bureaucracy and, 18–20
single-party states, 16–17
Sudanese rival legal systems and, 97–98
- State Economic and Trade Commission (SETC, China), 187–188
- State Economic Commission (SEC) (China), 183
- State Economic Restructuring Commission
(China), 187–188
- state institutions. See also bureaucracy; court systems; judiciary benefits and costs of legal rigidity in Sudan and, 106–108
Chinese lawyers as bureaucrats in, 182–184
Chinese state-led legal reforms, 180–181 corporate law in China and, 188–190
dialogic mechanisms in Inter-American Court
and, 230–233
financial services law and legitimacy and,
163–164
HIV/AIDS research and treatment and, 74–75 human rights compliance by, 32 insecurity and volatility in KwaZulu-Natal for, 132–134
Inter-American Court deference to, 235–236
legibility of preexisting routines in, 77–79
mobilization of resources by, 134 offshore financial systems and sovereignty of, 168–170
prosecution of atrocity by, 225–239 resistance to human rights obligations by, 33–34, 49–50

- Sudanese Islamic law and empowerment of, 101–103, 108–110
- Sudanese manipulation of Islamic law using, 98–100
- transitional justice and administrative purges of, 204–206
- transitional justice and reconciliation and cooperation from, 206–209
- transnational legal infrastructure impact on, 69–72
- women's justice in Kwa Zulu-Natal and, 113–140
- statistical information
- human rights monitoring and reliance on, 36–40
  - on Turkish human rights policies, 45–47
- Stettinius, Edward R., 167n.10
- Stop Online Piracy Act (SOPA)
- coalition against, 61–63
  - intellectual property protections in, 60–63
- Stover, Eric, 209–211, 215–217
- Strange Multiplicity* (Tully), 25–26
- Straus, Scott, 251
- Streicher, Julius, 245–246
- Sturm, Susan, 69–72
- Substantive Patent Law Treaty, harmonization with WIPO, 59–60
- Sudan
- benefits and costs of legal rigidity in, 106–108
  - grassroots politics and Islamic legal interpretations, 101–103
  - Interim Constitution of, 104–105
  - politics of human rights in, 103–106
  - rival legal systems in, 96–110
  - state manipulation of Islamic law in, 98–100
- Sunstein, Cass, 150–151
- Supreme People's Court (China), 192–193
- survivor groups, transitional justice and role of, 213–215
- Suvorin, Alexey, 145–146
- Swartz, Aaron, 61–63
- Swiss Law on Banks, 160–161
- Switzerland
- bank secrecy laws in, 160–161
  - evolution of offshore financial systems and, 164–168
  - law and legitimacy issues for financial services and, 163–164
  - tax information exchange agreements and, 173–176
- sybiotic exchange
- corporate law in China and, 188–190
  - privatization of Chinese law and, 185, 187–188
- Tamanaha, Brian, xix
- Tanzania
- constitutionalism in, 25–26
  - single-party rule in, 16–17
- Tarrow, Sidney, 52–53
- tax avoidance
- evolution of offshore financial systems and, 164–168
  - history of, 166–168
  - international coordination of taxation and, 173–176
  - international tax reform and, 176–177
  - new legal realism and, 6–7
  - politics and technocracy of international tax and, 172–173
- tax information exchange agreements (TIEAs), 173–176
- Tax Justice Network, 161–164, 172–173
- Taylor, Charles, 167n.10
- Thailand
- compliance monitoring of HIV/AIDS clinics in, 79–82
  - HIV/AIDS clinic rules and regulations in, 76–90
  - intellectual property protections in, 57–59
  - mutual influences in HIV/AIDS clinic rules in, 86–88
- “The Rule of Law and Transitional Justice in Conflict and Post-Conflict Societies” (United Nations), 218–220
- third-order numbers, 40–41
- Thompson, Dennis, 213–215
- Tilley, Helen, 70
- top-down legal processes
- forum shifting and TRIPS agreement and, 59–60
  - human rights in Sudan and, 105
  - New Legal Realism and, 154–155
  - Sudanese rival legal systems and, 97–98
- township legal workers (xiangzhen falü gong-zuo zhe), 183
- MOJ reform of, 188–190
- privatization and increase in, 186–188
- trademark law, evolution in China of, 184, 187–188
- traditional communities
- African constitutionalism and, 26–29
  - dispute management in, 120–121
  - state institutions and, 134
  - Traditional Courts Bill in South Africa and, 136–140
  - vernacular law in Kwa Zulu-Natal and, 114–120
- Traditional Courts Bill (TCB) (South Africa), 113–117
- failures and limitations of, 136–140
  - New Legal Realism and, 123–125

- traditional leadership bias in Kwa Zulu-Natal law toward, 114–117
 dispute management and, 120–121
 insecurity and volatility in KwaZulu-Natal and, 132–134
 state institutions and, 134
 Traditional Courts Bill and role of, 123–125, 136–140
- transfer of norms, HIV/AIDS treatment and research and, 69–92
- transformations studies dispute management and, 121–125
 New Legal Realism and, 125
- transitional justice challenges for Inter-American Court in, 235–236 challenges to legitimacy of, 209–211 closure and remembrance, 215–217 democratization and, 204–206 denial, accountability and political myths linked to, 209–213 evaluation of claims concerning, 209–217 globalization of law and, 201–220 inclusive dialogue and debate transformation in, 213–215
 Inter-American Court (IAC) and, 225–226
 Inter-American Court experience and, 236–239
 irreconcilable goals in, 201–204 Latin American innovations in, 229–239 political dynamics of, 218–220
 positive complementarity of IAC, 226–229
 reconciliation and, 201–204, 206–209 responsibility principles and, 211–212 shifting claims of advocacy in, 204–209 victim participation and, 233–235 “transition paradigm,” transitional justice and, 219
- transnational corporations, international tax reform and, 176–177
- transnational legal infrastructure cultural issues and, 90–92
 global North influences on global South and, 76–90
 HIV/AIDS treatment and research and, 69–72
 international tax reform and, 176–177
 mutual adjustments in HIV/AIDS clinics to, 88–90 mutual influences in HIV/AIDS clinics and, 86–88
 New Legal Realism and, 152
- Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP)
 intellectual property protections and, 60–63
 negotiations for, 63–64
- Treatment Access Campaign (South Africa), 57–59
- treatment guidelines, in HIV/AIDS clinics, 79–82
- treaty body hearings
 human rights compliance monitoring and, 33–34 human rights information gathering and, 36–40 resistance and acquiescence dynamics in, 41–49
- Treaty of Lausanne (1923), 46
- Trial of the Major War Criminals (Nuremberg), 204–213, 245–246
- trial systems, transitional justice and, 204–206
- TRIPS-plus agreements, Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement negotiations and, 60–63
- truth, right to, IAC transitional justice prosecutions and, 233–235
- Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC, South Africa), 206–215
- truth commissions closure and remembrance and, 215–217
 inclusive dialogue and debate transformation in, 213–215 transitional justice and development of, 204–206
- Tully, James, 25–26
- Turabi, Hassan al-, 99–100
- Turkey
 dam construction and food and housing rights in, 46–47 minority rights in, 45–47 monitoring of human rights in, 45–47 violence against women in, absence of information on, 47
- Tutu, Desmond, 208–209
- UBS Bank, 174–176
- Uganda
 governance of HIV/AIDS research in, 85–86
 HIV/AIDS clinic rules and regulations in, 76–90 legibility of preexisting routines in HIV/AIDS clinics in, 77–79 mutual influences in HIV/AIDS clinic rules in, 86–88 postcolonial institutional collapse in, 16–17
 single-party regimes in, 20
- Union of South Africa, role of law in creation of, 18–20
- United Kingdom
 offshore tax havens and policies of, 172n.16
 tax information exchange agreements and, 173–176
- United Nations
 Ad Hoc Committee of Experts, 173n.17
 Department of Peacekeeping, 201–204 human rights information gathered by agencies of, 36–40

- United Nations Security Council (UNSC), 236–239
- United States
- court system in, 118n.12
  - early intellectual property protections in, 53–57
  - experimentalist governance tactics in, 229–233
  - funding of global HIV/AIDS clinics by, 72–73
  - imposition of research protocols in global HIV/AIDS clinics by, 85–86
  - intellectual property law in, 52–53
  - offshore financial systems and, 165–166
  - speech acts and causation in, 244–245
  - tax information exchange agreements and, 173–176
  - truth commission proposals involving, 212–213
- United States Trade Representative (USTR), 53–56
- Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement negotiations and, 60–63
  - World Intellectual Property Organization and, 59–60
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), 104–105
- universal suffrage
- African constitutionalism and, 15–16
  - lack of, for Kwa Zulu-Natal women, 113–117
- Uruguay, criticism of IAC in, 235–236
- Valenti, Jack, 53–54
- vernacular grouping, dispute management and role of, 131–132
- vernacular law
- case studies in, 125–131
  - dispute management in Msinga community and, 120–121
  - disputing theory and, 121–122
  - evaluation of dispute management cases and, 131–136
  - flexibility of dispute management and, 135–136
  - new legal realism and, 136–140
  - terminology for, 117–120
  - women's justice in Kwa Zulu-Natal and, 113–117
- victim groups
- dialogic mechanisms in Inter-American Court and, 230–233
  - restorative justice initiatives and, 233–235
  - transitional justice and role of, 213–215
- Victims Trust Fund, 233–235
- violence
- acceptance of responsibility for, 211–212
  - African constitutionalism and, 13–14, 26–29
  - denial and accountability challenges in records of, 209–213
  - inclusive dialogue and debate transformation concerning, 213–215
  - insecurity and volatility in KwaZulu-Natal and potential for, 132–134
  - military dictatorship era in Latin America and, 226–229
  - transitional justice in wake of, 201–204
- Wales, Jimmy, 61–63
- Walker, William S., 165–166
- war crimes
- democratization and transitional justice and, 204–206
  - inclusive dialogue and debate transformation in tribunals for, 213–215
  - reconciliation and transitional justice concerning, 201–204
- weak form review, Inter-American Court of Human Rights, 229–233
- Web 2.0 technology, 61–63
- Weberian state model
- absence in Africa of, 18–20
  - African constitutionalism and, 28–29
  - in China, 180–181
- Weinstein, Harvey M., 209–211
- Westminster system, African constitutionalism, 15–16
- “What Does Coming to Terms with the Past Mean?” (Adorno), 216
- whistleblower protections, financial services law and legitimacy and, 163–164
- WikiLeaks
- Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement negotiations on, 60–63
  - financial services tax evasion and, 163–164
  - Trans-Pacific Partnership negotiations and, 63–64
- Wilson, Richard A., 7–8, 242–259
- women. See also gender equality
- African constitutionalism and rights of, 26–29
  - case studies of dispute management involving, 125–131
  - insecurity and volatility of conditions in Kwa Zulu-Natal for, 132–134
  - justice in KwaZulu-Natal for, 113–140
  - matai* system in Samoa and discrimination against, 42–45
  - state institutional resources for, 134
  - Sudanese Islamic law and fate of, 101–103
  - Traditional Courts Bill (TCB, South Africa) and rights of, 113–117, 136–140
  - in Turkey, violence against, 47
- World Bank Global Governance, indicators used by, 40–41

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-07319-7 - The New Legal Realism, Volume II: Studying Law Globally

Edited by Heinz Klug and Sally Engle Merry

Index

More information

282

Index

- World Health Assembly, 57–59 World Health Organization (WHO),
88–90
World Intellectual Property Organization
(WIPO), 54–56
New Legal Realism and, 152–155
Substantive Patent Law harmonization with, 59–60
World Trade Organization (WTO), 6–7
Chinese membership in, 188–190
Doha round, 57–59, 152–155 intellectual property protection and, 54–56, 59–60
trade-environment debate and, 152–155
TRIPS obligations and, 56–57
Yale School of Policy-Oriented Jurisprudence, 149
Yanagizawa-Drott, David, 252–253
Yeutter, Clayton, 54–56
Yu, Peter, 59–60
Zalaquett, José, 208–209