CONTENTS

Contributing authors
page vii
Acknowledgements
page viii

Introduction
1 Tobias Kelly, Ian Harper and Akshay Khanna

PART ONE RECOGNISING HARM AND SUFFERING

1 Keeping magical harm invisible: public health, witchcraft and the law in Kyela, Tanzania
Rebecca Marsland
27

2 Non-human suffering: a humanitarian project
Miriam Ticktin
49

3 The causes of torture: law, medicine and the assessment of suffering in British asylum claims
Tobias Kelly
72

4 Trespass, crime and insanity: the social life of categories
Lydie Fialová
96

5 Local justice in the allocation of medical certificates during French asylum procedures: from protocols to face-to-face interactions
Estelle d’Halluin
117

6 Contentious Roommates? Spatial constructions of the therapeutic-evidential spectrum in medicolegal work
Gethin Rees
141
CONTENTS

PART TWO  UNDERSTANDING AND ALLOCATING REMEDY

7 The juridical hospital: claiming the right to pharmaceuticals in Brazilian courts 163
João Biehl

8 Courts and the control of TB: quarantine, travel and the question of adherence 197
Ian Harper

9 Dying to go to court: demanding a legal remedy to end-of-life uncertainty 214
Naomi Richards

10 Rehabilitation of paedophiles at the intersection of law and therapy 239
John Borneman

11 A republic of remedies: psychosocial interventions in post-conflict Guatemala 265
Henrik Ronsbo

Index 296