Contents

List of Figures page vii
List of Contributors ix

1 “The Justice of My Cause Is Clear, But There’s Politics to Fear”: Political Trials in Theory and History
   Jens Meierhenrich and Devin O. Pendas 1

2 The Trial of Socrates as a Political Trial: Explaining 399 BCE
   Josiah Ober 65

3 The Trial and Crucifixion of Jesus: A Formal Model
   Ron E. Hassner and Kenneth Sexauer 88

4 Jan Hus in the Medieval Ecclesiastical Courts
   Thomas A. Fudge 113

5 The French Revolutionary Trials
   Laurence H. Winnie 134

6 The Soviet Union, the Nuremberg Trials, and the Politics of the Postwar Moment
   Francine Hirsch 157

7 Brown v. Board of Education: Private Civil Litigation as a Political Trial
   Mark V. Tushnet 184

8 The Eichmann Trial in Law and Memory
   Devin O. Pendas 205

9 In the Theater of the Rule of Law: Performing the Rivonia Trial in South Africa, 1963–1964
   Jens Meierhenrich and Catherine M. Cole 229

10 China’s Gang of Four Trial: The Law v. The Laws of History
    Alexander C. Cook 263

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org
Contents

11 Anger, Honor, and Truth: The Political Prosecution of Neapolitan
Organized Crime
   Marco Jacquemet  295

12 “This Following Orders Thing Is Very Relative”: Ascriptions and Assumptions of Responsibility in the Causa ESMA, 1983–1987
   Christiane Wilke  317

13 The Microsoft Case as a Political Trial
   William H. Page and John E. Lopatka  347

14 The Trials of Khodorkovsky in Russia
   Richard Sakwa  369

15 Nashiri in Gitmo: The Wages of Legitimacy in Trials before the Guantanamo Military Commissions
   Lawrence Douglas  394

Index  417