

Index

---

- abortion, information on 216 academic speech protection 154–5
 access obligations of granting of for media 261–5
     for speech intermediaries 81–2 to information, rights to 95–101 accident reporting, and privacy rights 174–8
 advertising
   EU law on 251
   political 263–5 religious 263
   see also commercial speech African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights (AfComHPR)
   on access to information rights 100–1
   on criticism of judiciary/judges 161–3
   on freedom of speech/media freedom 20, 133–4
   on national law and human rights law 110 on whistle-blower protection 210
 African tradition 111
 agency capture 38
 Albert (Prince of Monaco) 159–60
 Alexy, Robert 53, 139
 amateur journalism, and media freedom 62
 anonymous quotations 74–5 anti-Semitism prohibition 236–8
 apologies, obligations to publish 79–81
Areopagitica (Milton) 16 argumentative public discourse 30 arrest, protection of journalists against 91–2 artistic speech 78–9, 142
 audiovisual media, content regulation of 137
 Austria, public broadcasting in 259–60 authenticity, of information 90 authority of judiciary 219–20
   and media freedom 220–1
 authors, of information and ideas, media as 57–60
- balancing of conflicting rights 125–8, 234, 246, 269
 absolute 128–39
 alternative 142–4
 personality rights 153–4
 relative 139–42
 Berlusconi, Silvio 261
 Black, Justice 204
 bloggers, media freedom for 64–5, 68
 bottleneck rationales 81–2 broadcasting 137
   commercial 252
   content regulation of 137–8
   licensing of 135–7
   and media pluralism 191–2
   public 86, 103, 259–60, 265–6
- Campbell, Naomi 164 cartoons 239
 censorship 129–31
 child pornography prohibition 218 children, privacy rights of 178
 civic republicanism 14–15
 civil servants, privacy rights of 48–9, 160–1 civility rules 30–1, 116
   for media freedom 33–6
   in public discourse 186
 commercial speech protection 249–55
 Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, on hate speech 237–8 communication facilitators of 57–8
   mass 61
 communicative action theory (Habermas) 72 companies
   media 33, 266–7
   as public figures 157
 competition policy, and media pluralism 260–5

- conduct
  - of media 44–5
  - prior, and privacy rights 163–5
- confidentiality rules, and media freedom 150, 169–71, 205, 207–8
- conflicts
  - of norms 54
  - of principles 54, 117–18
  - of rights 54, 105
    - balancing of 125–8, 234, 246, 269
    - absolute 128–39
    - alternative 142–4
    - personality rights 153–4
    - relative 139–42
- consequentialist approaches to freedom of speech 14–17
- contempt of court 220
- content regulation, and media freedom 137–8
- convicts, former, privacy rights of 176–8
- copyrights, and media freedom 189–92
- corrections, of false statements 185–6
- Council of Europe
  - on definition of journalist 64
  - on hate speech 223, 226
  - on prevention of terrorism 197
- Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) see European Court of Justice (ECJ)
- court reporting restrictions 174–8, 220–1
- crimes
  - prevention of 196
  - reporting on 174–8, 185
- criminal proceedings, reporting on see court reporting
- criminal sanctions, for unlawful publications 138–9
- cultural differences 213–14
  - and international human rights law 5
- data protection laws, and media freedom 169–71
- defamation
  - criminalisation of 138–9
  - jurisprudence on 46–7, 107, 181
  - liability for 183–6
  - of religion 241–2
- defensive rights 85–92, 103
- democracy
  - and freedom of speech/media freedom 15–16, 22, 115–16
  - measures permitted in defence of 198
  - see also* public order
  - necessity of secrecy in 204
  - requirements for
    - media independence 85
    - media pluralism 256–7
    - and right to scrutinise government 156–7
- deontological approaches to freedom of speech 17–18
- derogation of rights 70–1
- diplomatic correspondence, confidentiality of 207–8
- disciplinary methods 25–6
- disclosure
  - of journalistic sources 90–2, 182
  - of personal information 169–71
  - of state secrets 203–11
- discourse theory of media freedom 28–47
- discrimination prohibition 101, 224–5
- disproportionate media freedom interferences 128–9, 132
  - see also* proportionality principle
- Dworkin, R. 53–4
- economic reporting 42
- editorial control requirement for media freedom 58, 60
- emergencies, derogation of rights permitted in 70–1
- essential facility doctrine 262
- ethics
  - journalistic 34, 46–7
  - violations of 207–8, 270
  - and law 47
  - see also* morals
- EU law
  - on access to information rights 100
  - on advertising 251
  - on combating terrorism 197–8
  - on copyright 190
  - on data protection 169–70
  - on hate speech 226–7
  - on media freedom 6–9
  - on rights of others 116
- European Commission of Human Rights see European Court/Commission of Human Rights
- European Court of Justice/Court of Justice of the European Union (ECJ/CJEU)
  - on commercial broadcasting 252
  - on internet service providers, liability of 59–60
  - on margin of appreciation 120–1
  - on media freedom 6–7
  - on media pluralism 191–2, 258–9

286 Index

- European Court/Commission of Human Rights (ECtHR)
 on margin of appreciation 122–3
 on media freedom/freedom of speech 16, 18–20, 31, 48–50, 65–6, 134–5, 140
 and authority and impartiality of judiciary 221
 commercial publications 252–5
 hate speech 223, 228–9, 231–6, 238–9
 health and morals protection 212–17
 information access rights 97–100
 journalistic ethics 34, 47
 licensing of media 136–7
 media pluralism 256–7, 259–60, 263–5
 media privileges 48–50, 93
 non-discrimination obligations 101
 prior restraint 130–1
 and privacy rights 148–50, 152, 157–61, 164–7, 170–1, 173–4, 177–9, 188–9 and public order/public interest 140–1, 199–202, 206–10
 religious freedom 243, 245–8
 reply/apology obligations 80–1
 sources protection 88
 on political debate 32
 on public order 194
 exclusionary approaches to hate speech 230–2
- facts
 and opinions/value judgments 72–3, 187 statements of 166–8, 270
 false 22–3, 44–5, 180, 185–6, 189
 true 168–80
 untrue/unproven 180–6
- fair comment defences 186–7
- false speech/statements of facts 180
 corrections of 185–6
 dissemination of 22–3, 44–5, 189
- foreseeability of the law 112–13
- forms of expression, rights to 76–9
- freedom of the arts 26–7, 78–9
- freedom of information 95–101
- freedom of the press 137
- freedom of religion 243
 and freedom of speech 241–2
 and media freedom 242–8
- freedom of science 26–7
- freedom of speech
 and freedom to hold opinions 70–1
 and information rights 71–6, 82–4, 95–101
 limits of
 hate speech 225
 public order/public interest 37–8, 194–5
 and media freedom 24–8, 48–51, 269
 protections 21–3, 65–6, 76–9
 and religious freedom 241–2
 theories of 13–15, 18–20, 28
 consequentialist approaches 14–20
 deontological approaches 17–18
 US First Amendment protections 4–5, 37
- freedom of thought 70–1
- fundamental rights
 as defensive rights 103
 incommensurability of 126
 media freedom 2–3, 10, 52–4, 268
- general measure doctrine 123
- general principles of law 7–8
- Germany, jurisprudence on media freedom in 108
- globalisation, and media freedom 9
- good faith, of media 45–8, 186, 270
- governments and media 38
 public scrutiny of 156–7
- Habermas, Jürgen 29–30, 72, 126
- harm caused by speech 201, 227–8
 principle 35
- hate speech prohibition 23, 223–4
 legal framework for 224–7
 and media freedom restrictions 227–40
- health, media interferences for protection of 212–13
- Hesse, Konrad 126
- historical debates 239–40
- Hoffmann, Lord 118
- Holmes, Justice Oliver Wendell Jr 17, 22
- Holocaust denial prohibitions 231, 236–7
- homosexuality, information on 217–18
- honour, right to respect for see privacy rights
- horizontal effect 105
 of media freedom 105–9
- human rights
 derogation of 70–1 individual applicability of 105–6
 law
 evolution of 3, 52–3
see also international human rights law limited by rights of others 35 protections of, positive state action required for 93–4, 105
 second-generation 52–3
- Human Rights Committee (UN)
 on media freedom/freedom of speech 5–6, 19, 32–3

- access to information rights 96–7
- commercial publications 250, 254–5
- hate speech 232, 236–7
- and media pluralism 263
- and religious freedom 243
- on protection of morals 214, 217–18
- ideas, rights to impart 71–6
- illegal action, media advocacy of 200–3
- impartiality of judiciary 38, 122, 219–20
  - and media freedom 220–1
- independence, of media 85–6
- indirect horizontal effect 106–7
- individual autonomy rationale for freedom of speech 17–18
  - and hate speech 227
  - not applicable to media 33, 202
- individuals
  - duties and responsibilities of 111
  - human rights applicable between 105–6
  - privacy rights of
    - private persons 163–5
    - public figures 155–61, 163–5
- information
  - authenticity of 90
  - media as authors of 57–60
  - privacy 169–71
  - protection against searching and seizure of 91–2
  - received in confidence 150, 205
    - see also* confidentiality rules
  - researching of, obligation of media 182
  - rights
    - access 95–101
    - imparting 71–6
    - receiving 82–4
    - seeking 86–7
- innocence presumption, and media reporting 185
- innocent dissemination principle 59
- intellectual property rights, and media freedom 189–92
- Inter-American Court of Human Rights
  - on freedom of speech/media freedom 8, 19–20, 25, 31–2, 133–4
  - information rights 19–20, 82–3, 95–6
  - media pluralism 257
  - privacy rights 179–80
  - on public order 194
- interception of information, protections against 91–2
- interference 102
  - see also* media freedom, interferences
- intermediaries
  - media freedom not applicable to 59
  - speech 58–9, 81–2
- internal pluralism, of media companies 266–7
- International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia, on protection of journalistic sources 88–9
- international human rights conventions
  - on authority and impartiality of judiciary 219
  - on freedom of speech 69–70
    - academic speech 154–5
    - hate speech 224–7
    - information rights 84
  - on media freedom 52
    - duties and responsibility clauses 36
    - licensing of media 135–6
    - privileges of media 93
    - professionalism requirement 64
  - on media pluralism 256
  - on privacy rights 147–8, 150–2
  - on protection of health and morals 212
  - on public order based measures 193–4
- international human rights jurisprudence
  - coherence of 6
  - on criticism of judiciary/judges 162–3
  - on freedom of the arts 78–9
  - on freedom of speech/media freedom 3, 6–8, 18–20, 31–3, 37–8, 65–6
    - authority and impartiality of judiciary 221
    - broadcasting content regulation 137–8
    - commercial speech/publications 250, 252–5
    - hate speech 228–40
    - health and morals protection 212–18
    - horizontal effect 108
    - information rights 82–3, 95–100
    - journalistic ethics 34, 46–7
    - legitimacy principle 115–16
    - libel/defamation 107
    - licensing of media 136–7
      - and media pluralism 191–2, 257–60, 263–5
    - media privileges 48–50, 93
    - non-discrimination principle 101
    - prior restraint 129–31
      - and privacy rights 148–50, 152, 157–61, 164–7, 170–4, 177–81, 188–9
    - and public interest 140
    - and public order restrictions 199–202, 204, 206–10
    - registration of journalists 133–5
    - and religious freedom 243–8

288 Index

- international human rights jurisprudence (cont.)
 reply/apology obligation 80–1
 sources protection 88, 92
 third party speech 75–6
 on internet service providers, liability of 59–60
 on margin of appreciation 120–3, 152
 on public concern 40–2
 on public order 194–5
 review of national jurisprudence 118–19, 121–3
- international human rights law 4, 7 and cultural differences 5
 on freedom of speech 5
 general principles of law in 7–8 and national law 110, 118–19
 state obligations in 102–3, 236, 256–7
 and United States 4
- internet communications/publications 61
 and amateur journalism 62
 and media freedom 63
- internet service providers 59–60
- interpretation, of treaties 205
- Jellinek, Georg 93–4
- journalism/journalists 64, 268
 amateur 62
 ethics of 34, 46–7
 violations of 207–8, 270
 protections of 39, 73–6, 91–2
 registration requirements 132–5
 sources protection by 87–92, 182
- journalistic freedom see media freedom
- judiciary/judges
 authority and impartiality of 38, 122, 219–20
 and media freedom 220–1
 privacy rights of 161–3
 public scrutiny of 161–3
- jurisprudence see international human rights jurisprudence
- justice, open, and privacy rights 175–6
- justification approaches to hate speech 233–40
- Kant, Immanuel 35, 195–6
- Kelsen, Hans 15
- law
 and ethics 47
 foreseeability of 112–13
 general principles of, in human rights treaties 7–8
 Kant on 35
- Le Pen, Jean-Marie 188
- legality principle
 in media freedom interferences 112–15
 and proportionality principle 123
- legitimacy principle, in media freedom interferences 115–17
- legitimate aim test, for media freedom interferences 124
- liabilities of media 58–60, 144
- libel see defamation
- liberalism, on freedom of speech 17–18
- liberty
 as defensive right against the state 85 doctrine 53
 positive/negative 79
 and tolerance 229
- licensing
 of media 114–15, 131–7
 of publications 129
- ‘Das Liebeskonzil’ (film, ‘Council in Heaven’) 245–6
- life, rights to 94
- limits
 to freedom of speech 37–8, 194–5, 225 to media freedom 33–6, 81, 110–11
 by rights of others 35, 81, 147, 189–92
see also privacy rights
- The Little Red Schoolbook*, litigation on 215–16
- McLuhan, Marshall 57, 137
- majority, tyranny of 213–14
- malice 46–7
- margin of appreciation 118
 applied to media freedom interferences moral protection 215
 personality rights 152–3
 public order 198–9
 religious freedom 244–6
 determination of 118–23
- marketplace of ideas 17, 21–2
- mass communication 61
- mass media 60–1
- means of expression, rights to 76–9
- media 57–60, 66–8
 conduct of 44–5
 definitions of 26–7, 57, 268
 duties and responsibilities of 25–6, 50, 141, 234–5, 244, 269
 balanced with privileges 34–5, 48
 journalistic ethics 34, 46–7, 207–8, 270
see also media freedom, limits of economic role of 6–7 good faith of 45–8, 186, 270
 independence of 85–6

- and individual autonomy rationale for freedom of speech 33, 202
- liabilities of 58–60, 144
- licensing of 114–15, 131–7
- mass media 60–1
- obligations of
  - to grant access 261–5
  - to publish a reply/apology 79–81
  - to research/verify information 44–5, 182
  - to transmit third party speech/statements 261–5
- ownership of 260–1
- powers of 1–2, 33–4
- privileges of 48–50, 69–84, 92–5
  - balanced with duties and responsibilities 34–5, 48, 69–84, 93
- protections of
  - in disclosure of state secrets 203–9
  - institutional 69, 84–101
  - see also* media freedom
  - public discourse role of 29–33, 36, 268
  - public interest role of 37–44, 65, 67–8
  - regulation of 131–2
  - subsidies for 265–6
  - transparency requirements for 135, 144
- media companies 33, 266–7
- media freedom 9–10, 22, 34–6, 47–8, 50, 59, 61–6, 193
  - and freedom of speech 24–8, 48–51, 63–4, 269
- as fundamental right 2–3, 10, 52–4, 268
- and globalisation 9
- interferences 103–9, 269–70
  - and authority and impartiality of judiciary 220–1
  - balancing conflicting rights 125–44, 153–4, 234, 246, 269
  - hate speech prohibition 223–4, 227–40
  - for health protection 212–13
  - justification requirements 112–18
  - for media pluralism 257–60
  - for moral protection 212–18
  - proportionality principle applied to 117–18, 144, 269
  - and public interest 140–1, 165–6, 168–9, 178–80
  - public order based 193–4, 196–9, 244
    - advocacy of illegal action 200–3
    - disclosure of state secrets 203–11
    - third party statements 199–200
  - and religious freedom 242–8
  - and state obligations 102–3
- limits to 33–6, 110–11, 154, 234–5
  - by rights of others 35, 81, 147, 189–92
  - see also* privacy rights
- obligations
  - to grant access to speech infrastructure by speech intermediaries 81–2
  - to publish a reply/apology 79–81
  - to research/verify information 44–5, 182
- and privacy rights 107–8, 147–53, 189
  - balancing of rights 144, 153–4
  - prior conduct 163–5
  - publication contents 165–89
  - victims 155–63
- protections/privileges 48–50, 69–84, 249–55
  - loss of 68
  - objections to 24–8
  - right not to publish 79–82, 109
- and public discourse contribution 37–44, 65, 67–8, 168
- theories of 24
  - discourse theory 28–47
- Media Freedom Principle 28–9, 268–70
- media law
  - contemporary challenges for 2
  - of EU 6–9
  - in Netherlands 258–9
- media pluralism 256–7
  - and media freedom interferences 191–2, 257–60
  - policies 260–7
- media speech privilege 48–50, 69–84
- medical information, confidentiality of 170–1
- Meiklejohn, Alexander 126
- Menem, Carlos Saúl 179–80
- Mill, John Stuart 16, 18, 35, 85, 180
- Milton, John 16, 180, 229
- mistakes, rights to make 50
- Mitterand, François 170–1
- monarchies/monarchs, and privacy rights 158–60
- monopolies, for broadcasting 259–60
- morals, protection of 121–2
  - and media freedom restrictions 212–18
  - see also* ethics
- ‘must carry’ obligations 81–2
- national law, and international human rights law 110, 118–19
- national security, assessment of 120–1
- necessity 216
  - of order 195–6
  - of security 204
  - test for media freedom interferences 124–5
- negative freedoms 79
- Netherlands, media law in 258–9

290 Index

- newsgathering, rights to 86–7
 non-coercive public discourse 30 non-derogable rights 70–1
 non-discrimination obligations 101, 224–5
 norms of civility 30–1, 33–6, 116, 186
   conflicts of 54
   social 35–6
- obligations
   of media
     to grant access 261–5
     to publish a reply/apology 79–81
     to research/verify information 44–5, 182
     to transmit third party speech/statements 261–5
   of non-discrimination 101, 224–5 of speech intermediaries, to grant access 81–2 of states in human rights law 102–3, 236, 256–7
- obscenity, permissibility of 213
 open justice, and privacy rights 175–6 openness of public discourse 29–30 opinions and facts 72–3, 187
   freedom to hold 70–1
   public 30
   see also value judgments
- order
   necessity of 195–6
   see also public order
- otherness, suppression of 213–14
 others, rights of 116
   limiting media freedom 35, 81, 147, 189–92
   state obligations to protect 236
- paintings, obscene 216–17
 Pentagon Papers, publication of 204 personal information, disclosure of 169–71
 personality rights 147, 153–4
   freedom of religion as 243
   see also privacy rights
- photos, publication of, and privacy rights 171–4 Plato 21
 pluralism 256
   see also media pluralism point-to-point communication 61 political advertising 263–5 political debate/speech 32
   protection of 121–2, 186
- political reporting 40–1
 politicians, privacy rights of 156–7, 179–80 Popper, Karl 229–30
 pornography
   child, prohibition of 218
   permissibility of 213
 positive freedoms 79
 Post, Robert 18, 29
 practical concordance principle 126, 142
 pragmatism, American 22
 pressing social needs, for media freedom
   interferences 124–5
- prevention of crimes 196
   of terrorism 196–7
- principles
   conflicts of 54, 117–18
   general principles of law 7–8
   for public order based interferences in media freedom 198–9
   and rights 53–4
 prior conduct, and privacy rights protection 163–5 prior notification rights 188–9
 prior restraint measures, and media freedom 129–31
 privacy rights 147–52
   and media freedom 107–8, 152–3, 189
   balancing of rights 144, 153–4
   prior conduct 163–5
   publication contents 165–89
   victims 147–52, 155–63
 private concerns, and public interest 38–40, 42–4, 153 private law, human rights law applicable in 106–7 private persons, privacy rights of 163–5 professionalism requirement for media
   freedom 64–5, 268
 proof, burden of 181–2
   for state secrecy 205
 proportionality principle 54
   application of 116
     to disclosure of journalistic sources 90–1 to media freedom interferences 117–18, 144, 269 to public order based interferences 199
   see also margin of appreciation and legality principle 123
- Protagoras 21–2
 public administration reporting 41
 public broadcasting

- independence requirement for 86
- internal pluralism requirement for 266
- and media subsidies 265–6
- monopolies for 259–60
- special obligations of 103
- public discourse 29, 268
  - aims of 30
  - civility rules in 186
  - falsehoods in 180
  - judges needing to refrain from 162
  - media's role in 29–33, 36, 268
    - and media freedom 37–44, 65, 67–8, 168
  - morality claims in 213
    - see also* discourse theory
- public figures
  - companies as 157
  - privacy rights of 155–61, 163–5
- public interest 116, 270
  - and commercial speech 249–50
  - and disclosure of journalistic sources 90, 92
  - and media freedom interferences 140–1, 165–6, 168–9, 178–80
  - media's contribution to 37–44, 65, 67–8
  - and privacy concerns 38–40, 42–4, 153
- public opinion formation 30
- public order 194–6
  - media freedom interferences based on 193–4, 196–9, 244
    - advocacy of illegal action 200–3
    - disclosure of state secrets 203–11
    - third party statements 199–200
- public safety, assessment of 120–1
- public sphere 30
- publications
  - alternatives 143–4
  - contents of
    - and privacy rights 165–89
    - and public order restrictions 202
  - licensing of 129
  - of photos, and privacy rights 171–4
  - of third party statements 199–200
  - unlawful, criminal sanctions for 138–9
- publishing, rights to refrain from 79–82
- quotations, journalistic use of 73–6
- racism prohibition 224–5, 231–2
- rationality, in balancing of rights 126–8
- Rawls, J. 35
- religious advertising 263
- religious feelings
  - rights to protection of 242–3
    - see also* freedom of religion
- religious traditionalist approaches to
  - religious freedom and freedom of speech 241–2
- replies, obligations to publish 79–81
- reputation, right to respect for see privacy rights
- rights
  - conflicts of 54, 105
    - balancing of 125–39, 234, 246, 269
    - absolute 128–39
    - alternative 142–4
    - personality rights 153–4
    - relative 139–42
  - defensive 85–92, 103
  - of others 116
    - limiting media freedom 35, 81, 147, 189–92
      - state obligations to protect 236
    - and principles 53–4
  - of reply 79–81
    - see also* fundamental rights; human rights
- Rousseau, Jean-Jacques 14–15
- satire, permissibility of 187–8
- Scalia, Justice 25
- Schiller, F. C. S. 22
- searching and seizure of information,
  - protections against 91–2
- secrecy, necessity of 204
- secularist fundamentalist approaches to
  - religious freedom and freedom of speech 242
- Security Council (UN), glorification of
  - terrorism condemned by 196
- shock advertising 251
- social norms, limiting media freedom 35–6
- Socrates 21
- Sophists 21–2
- sources
  - protection of 87–92, 182
    - see also* disclosure, of journalistic sources
- speech 126–7
  - freedom of see freedom of speech
  - harm caused by 201, 227–8
  - third party 73–6
  - speech intermediaries 58–9, 81–2
  - Spycatcher* (Wright), litigation on
    - publication of 206–7
  - state secrets, disclosure of 203–11
  - states
    - burden of proof for state secrets 205
    - defensive rights against 85–92

292 Index

- states (cont.)
  - entitlements to actions of 84–101
  - obligations of, in international human rights law 102–3, 236, 256–7
  - status positivus/civitatis* 93–4, 105
  - Stewart, Justice Potter 39
  - Sunstein, Cass 37
  - surveillance, of journalists, protections against 91–2
  - ‘suspicion of government’ theory 37
- television see audiovisual media
- terrorism, prohibition of glorification of 196–8, 239
- third party speech/statements
  - media freedom protections of 73–6
  - obligations of media to transmit 261–5
  - public order based restrictions on publication of 199–200
- tolerance, and liberty 229
- transparency
  - requirements for journalism/media 135, 144
  - and state secrecy 205
- treaties, interpretation of 205
- true statements of fact 168–80
- truth
  - discourse theory on 46
  - existence of 21–2, 180
  - as freedom of speech argument 16–17
- Turkey, media freedom in 201
- tyranny of majority 213–14
- uncertainty, and margin of appreciation 119, 121, 152
- understanding, as aim of public discourse 30
- United States
  - First Amendment doctrine in 4–5, 37
  - and international human rights law 4
  - media freedom/freedom of speech jurisprudence 4–5, 25, 54, 93, 126–7, 137–8
  - commercial publications 252
  - defamation 46–7, 107, 181
  - hate speech 228, 233
  - and privacy rights 165, 173
  - and public order restrictions 204
  - pragmatism of 22
- validity claims 46
- value judgments
  - and media freedom 186–9
  - see also* opinions
- victims, of privacy rights violations 155–63
- Weber, Anne 223–4
- whistle-blowers, protection of 210–11
- Zupančič, Judge 49