

INDEX

- Armed Services Procurement Act (ASPA) 1948, 251
- Arms Export Control Act (AECA) 1976, 210, 392
- Article 346 TFEU, See Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU)
- barriers to defence trade
 EU incentives to remove, 15 influences other than legal regulation, 16 public procurement and procurement law, 66–9
See also EU Defence Directive as a barrier to US trade
- Belgium
 third country contractor participation, 177
- Berry Amendment (US), 346
- Brussels Treaty 1948, 22
- Budget and Accounting Act 1921, 264
- Bush Administration, USA, 63
- Buy American Act (BAA) 1933, 340–5
 qualified and non-qualified countries under, 343–5 waiver, 454
- ‘buy national’ laws and policies, 28, 339–40
- Campus Oil v. Minister for Industry and Energy*, 84
- China
 rare earth metals production, 355
- Clinton Administration, 35, 37, 63
- Code des Marchés Publics, France, 172–4
- Cold War, 28, 33, 49, 52, 58
- Commission v. Italy I and II*, 92–5
- Commission v. Spain*, 87–9, 93, 96
- Common Commercial Policy (CCP), 158
- Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP), 33
- comparative legal discourse on defence procurement framework, 436
 long-term focus, 463–92 extending bilateral defence trade treaties on a transatlantic basis, 464–6 transatlantic defence GATT, 466–80: abandonment and prospects for reconsideration, 473–80; Code of Conduct, 468–72; harmonisation of procedural rules for contract award, 470–1; juste retour, 471–2; lost opportunity to examine legal obstacles to transatlantic trade, 480; NATO Code of Conduct, 473–5; NATO defence GATT, 472–3; NATO transatlantic defence trade treaty, 475–80; non-discrimination and transparency in contract procedures, 469; notification and debrief, 471; open tendering subject to exceptions, 470; publication of contract notices through a NATO-wide

- portal, 469–70; rationale, 467–8; scope of equipment covered and financial thresholds, 470
- Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP), 481–92: defence procurement and global trade liberalisation, 491–2; initial inclusion of defence procurement within TTIP, 482–6; long-term structures for coordinating EU and US defence procurement rules, 486–7; recent background to the TTIP negotiations, 481–2; towards a defence TTIP, 487–91
- medium-term focus, 447–63
- EU policy on third countries in defence procurement, 447–9
- RDP Memoranda of Understanding, 450–9: bilateral approach to meeting trade objectives, 451–2; Buy American Act waiver, 454; conditions for participation, 453; dispute settlement, 457–9; juste retour, 456–7; justifications for limited tendering procedures, 453–4; national security and other exceptions, 454–6; offsets, 456–7; procedural requirements, 452–4; scope, 452
- US-EU government-to-government contracts and offsets: offsets, 459–63; offsets are economically efficient and should be legally prohibited, 459–62; US and EU calls for a dialogue on offsets, 462–3
- objectives, 436–7
- potential benefits of US and EU discourse, 435–6
- short-term focus, 437–47
- acquisition planning, 440–1
- ad hoc developments under national law addressing foreign participation, 442–3
- constitutional features affecting defence procurement legislation, 438–40
- legal conditions impacting foreign access, 440–3
- review and remedies, 446–7
- security exceptions, 445–6
- security of supply requirements, 444–5
- statutory limitations on competition, 441–2
- comparative perspective
- legal aspects of international defence procurement, 6–10
- competition failures
- in security sensitive contracting, 328–9
- Competition in Contracting Act (CICA) 1984, 251–9, 302, 312, 313, 316, 324, 334
- Conference of National Armaments Directors (CNAD), 26–7
- Task Force on Defense Trade, 34
- contract formation focus, 12–13
- contract performance conditions and social considerations, 307–8
- cooperative procurement
- EU Defence Directive as catalyst for, 148–53
- impact of the EU Defence Directive, 121
- remains largely unregulated, 151–3
- to avoid compliance with the Defence Directive, 148–51
- cooperative projects
- under NATO, 356–7
- cooperative R&D programmes
- cooperative procurement remains largely unregulated, 151–3
- cooperative procurement to avoid compliance with the Defence Directive, 148–51
- EU Defence Directive as catalyst for cooperative procurement, 148–53

- cooperative R&D programmes (cont.)
 EU Defence Directive exclusions,
 142–53
 EU oversight through notification, 147–8
 material scope, 144–5
 new product and later lifecycle phases, 145–7
 personal scope, 144
 Court of Justice of the EU
 interpretations of Article 346 TFEU, 87–98
 cross-border procurement, 121
 Culver-Nunn Amendment 1977, 28
- Declarations of Principles (DoPs) 2000
 US and UK, 35–6
 Defence and Security Public Contracts Regulations (DSPCR) UK, 170–1
 defence contractors concerns about discrimination, 7–8
 defence expenditure, 52–4 defence procurement comparative legal perspective, 6–10
 exclusion from EU procurement Directives, 2 exclusion from the GPA, 2 lack of open global debate, 2 security issues for states, 2
 Defence Trade Cooperation (DTC)
 Treaty US–UK 2012, 38
 Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation
 Supplement (DFARS), 252,
 259, 356–7
 Defense Procurement and Acquisition
 Policy Office (DPAP), 262
 Contract Policy and International Contracting Directorate
 (CPIC), 262
 Defense Production Act (DPA) 1950, 420
 Defense Security Cooperation Agency
 (DSCA), 392, 395
 Defense Trade Security Initiative
 (DTSI) US 2000, 37–8
- demand side of the transatlantic defence market, 48
 defence expenditure, 52–4 security interests, 51–2 sovereignty issues, 48–51
 Directive 2004/17/EC, 105
 Directive 2004/18/EC, 105
 Directive 2014/23/EU, 105
 Directive 2014/25/EU, 105
 Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (DDTC) US, 210
 dispute settlement
 RDP Memoranda of Understanding, 457–9
- Eisenhower, General Dwight D., 24
 Élysée Treaty 1963, 26
 empirical data limitations of, 16–17
 EU Defence Directive, 2–4, 45–6, 104–17
 Article 346 TFEU, 116–17 caution with regard to interpretations, 18–19 Commission's intention to issue revised guidance, 18–19 communication and conduct, 114
 cross-border procurement, 121
 expected EU review in August 2016, 19 external dimension, 5–6 government-to-government sales Article 13(f) exclusions, 403–15 award of US foreign military sales without recourse to Article 13(f) exclusions, 414–15
 EU–third country government sales, 413–14
 provision on procurement underlying the sale, 407–8 third country–EU government sales and procurement from third countries, 408–13 indirect effects on third country participation, 191–2
 information content, 114 material and personal scope, 107–9 performance conditions, 109–10

- procurement methods, 110–14
- publication, 114
- Recital 18, 159–60, 163, 165–8, 180, 187
- regulatory strategy for dealing with third countries, 5–6
- relative scope, 106–7
- remedies, 115–16
- security of information and supply, 109–10
- specifications, 109–10
- subcontracting, 114–15
- time limits, 114
- US perspective, 193–4
- EU Defence Directive as a barrier to US trade, 193–4
 - accommodation of third party considerations, 244
 - questions for legal debate, 244–5
 - security of information, 240–4
 - as a disguised market access barrier, 242
 - EU security of information arrangements, 243–4
 - general and specific conditions, 240–1
 - security of supply, 204–10
 - conceptualisation under the Defence Directive, 205–8
 - requirements under the Defence Directive, 208–10
 - security of supply and guarantees in a crisis, 234–40
 - European security of supply arrangements, 236–40
 - guaranteeing security of supply, 234–6
 - security of supply and supply chain organisation, 229–34
 - location and organisation of the supply chain, 229–30
 - organisation and location of third country sources of supply, 230–4
 - security of supply and third country export controls, 210–29
 - ability to honour export obligations, 225–8
 - export restriction provisions under the Defence Directive, 224–9
 - impact at prime or lower tiers of the transatlantic defence market, 214–15
 - International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR), 210–13
 - ITAR as justification for sole source procurement, 220–3
 - ITAR-free and the Defence Directives, 216–20
 - management of security of supply risks, 215–16
 - restrictions on disclosure, transfer and use, 228–9
 - security of supply as a disguised market access barrier, 213–14
 - US export control regulations, 210–13
- technical specifications, 194–204
 - definition and purpose, 194–5
 - emerging practice in the use of, 195–8
 - standardisation organisations, 196–7
- technical specifications under the Defence Directive, 199–204
 - equivalence and interoperability, 204
 - national defence standards, 203–4
 - order of preference, 200–1
 - performance of function, 201–3
- EU Defence Directive exclusions
 - cooperative R&D programmes, 142–53
 - catalyst for cooperative procurement, 148–53
 - EU oversight through notification, 147–8
 - material scope, 144–5
 - new product and later life cycle phases, 145–7
 - personal scope, 144
- debate on the scope of the exclusions, 153
- effects of the Commission's Guidance, 122

- EU Defence Directive exclusions (cont.) exclusion from directives but subject to treaties, 122–9 circumvention of the Defence Directive, 125–9 compliance with EU principles in procurement, 123–4 Member States' rights and obligations in relation to third countries, 124–5 impact on cooperative procurement, 121 international agreements and arrangements, 129–33
 definitions, 130–1
 general scope of the exclusions, 129–30 specific procedural rules, 131–3 international organisations, 133–42 as public authorities, 139–40 contracts awarded by a Member State, 139
 European Defence Agency (EDA), 140
 excluded purposes, 137–8 exclusion as contracting authorities, 134–5 exclusion of exclusive and mixed membership organisations, 136–7 general exclusions, 134
 NATO agencies, 141–2
 OCCAR, 141
 questions raised by, 121–2
 EU defence market influence of Article 346 TFEU, 118–20
 EU Defence Package, 2–4, 45–6
 directives under, 103–18
See also EU Defence Directive EU Directive on Intra-Community Transfers EU defence procurement law, 73–4 comparison with US federal defence procurement law, 268–9 directives under the EU Defence Package, 103–18 essential security, 81–3 form and standard of review, 83–5 free movement of goods,
 establishment and services,
 74–7
 Government Procurement Agreement (GPA) WTO, 80–1 limitations on free movement, 78–85 primary EU law, 74–7 public security, 81–3
 secondary EU law, 103–18
 security exceptions and derogations for free movement, 78–85
 Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU), 73
 Article 18, 74
 Article 28, 75
 Article 29, 183
 Article 34, 75, 78
 Article 35, 75, 78
 Article 36, 78, 82
 Article 49, 76
 Article 53, 105
 Article 56, 76
 Article 62, 105
 Article 114, 105
 Article 207, 158
 Article 207(6), 160
 Article 258, 81
 Article 259, 81
 Article 288, 103
 Article 346, 73, 78–81, 82, 85,
 118–20, 352
 Article 346 and the Defence
 Directive, 116–17
 Article 346 interpretations, 85–6:
 European Commission,
 99–102; European Parliament,
 102–3; General Court and
 Court of Justice of the EU,
 87–98; Member States, 86–7
 Article 347, 78, 85
 Article 348, 85
 Article 351, 124
See also EU Defence Directive EU
 Directive on Intra-Community
 Transfers
 EU Directive on Intra-Community
 Transfers, 2, 45–6, 117–18

- EU procurement law
 - Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU)
 - Article 346, 164
- EU subsidiaries
 - third country mode of access, 180–1
- Europe
 - need to reduce US defence trade advantage, 3
- European Coal and Steel Community (ECSC), 24
- European Commission
 - interpretations of Article 346 TFEU, 99–102
- European Committee for Electrotechnical Standardisation (CENELEC), 196
- European Committee for Standardisation (CEN), 196
- European Community (EC), 25, 34–5
- European Defence Agency (EDA), 40–4
 - EU Defence Directive exclusions, 140
- European Defence and Technological Industrial Base (EDTIB), 100
- European Defence Community (EDC)
 - proposal for, 24–5
- European Defence Equipment Market (EDEM), 31, 100
- European Defence Standardization System (EDSIS), 196
- European Economic Community (EEC), 25
 - renamed as the European Community (EC), 34–5
- European Handbook on Defence Procurement (EHDP), 198
- European Parliament
 - interpretations of Article 346 TFEU, 102–3
- European Security and Defence Policy (ESDP) 2001, 40
- European Telecommunications Standards Institute (ETSI), 196
- European Union
 - concerns about defence contracts with third countries, 3–4
- EU–third country government sales, 413–14
- exclusion of defence procurement from Directives, 2
- incentives to remove trade barriers, 15
- level of commitment to transatlantic cooperation, 15
- Member States, 14
- policy on third countries in defence procurement, 447–9
- protection of critical materials within the EU, 353–4
- public procurement expenditure, 1
- replacement of the EC, 40
- sales and procurement from third countries, 408–13
- SMEs and subcontracting policies, 308–9
- exclusions under the EU Defence Directive, See EU Defence Directive exclusions
- exclusive rights
 - exceptions to competitive procurement, 317–19
- Family of Weapons concept for weapons development, 27
- Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) and supplements, 259–60
- Federal Property and Administrative Services Act (FPASA) 1949, 251
- Finland
 - third county contractor participation, 178
- Fiocchi Munizioni SpA v. Commission*, 89–92, 96
- follow-on contracts and additional deliveries
 - exceptions to competitive procurement, 319
- foreign acquisition under US law ‘buy national’ laws and policies, 339–40
- definition, 338–9
- domestic source restrictions and security of supply, 339–55

- foreign acquisition under US law (cont.)
 Buy American Act (BAA) 1933, 340–5
 protection of critical materials within the EU, 353–4 qualified and non-qualified countries under the Buy American Act, 343–5 security and economic reasons, 351–2 security of supply guarantees, 354–5 security of supply under EU and US law, 350–5 specialty and rare earth metals, 346–55
 strategic metals critical to national security, 348–50 waiver of specialty metals restrictions for qualifying countries, 346–8
 Government Procurement Agreement (GPA), 355–6
 NATO cooperative projects, 356–7
 offsets, 415–21
 Reciprocal Defence Procurement Memoranda of Understanding (RDPs), 357–73 context, 358–63
 general procedures, 365–7
 main provisions, 364–5
 procurement procedures, 365, 368–73
 relevance to transatlantic defence trade, 338–9, 378–80
 Strategic Materials Protection Board (SMPB), 348–50 trade agreements and other international agreements, 355–7
 US–UK Defence Trade Cooperation Treaty (DTC) 2007, 373–8
 no export or transfer licence for eligible items, 376–7 oversight and review, 377–8
 personal and material scope, 374–6
- Foreign Comparative Testing (FCT) program US, 443 foreign competition
 full and open competition after exclusion of sources, 296–310
 continuous availability of a reliable source, 301–2
 contract performance conditions and social considerations, 307–8
 establishing or maintaining alternative sources, 297–302
 EU small business set-asides in defence procurement, 304–5
 EU SMEs and subcontracting policies, 308–9
 increase or maintain competition and likely cost reduction, 297–300 interest of national defence and industrial mobilisation, 300–1 small business set-asides, 302–10
 subcontracting under the Defence Directive, 305–7 transatlantic reciprocity in defence procurement for small businesses, 309–10
 full and open competition under US law, 276–7
 definition of full and open competition, 277
 discretionary exclusion of foreign competitors, 277–82
 extent of discretionary authority to exclude foreign competition, 310–11 facility security clearance requirements, 280–1
 KC-X case study, 284–96
 ‘no foreign personnel’ requirements, 279–80
 technical specifications, 283–4
 time limits between request for proposal release and submission, 281–2 US Department of Defense procurement, 271
 foreign competition rates, 273–6

- general competition rates, 271–3
- foreign military sales (FMS)
 - award without recourse to Article 13(f) exclusions, 414–15
 - definition, 381
 - EU Defence Directive Article 13(f) exclusions, 403–15
 - offsets connected with, 416–20
 - open competition in, 394–6
 - sole sourcing in, 396–402
 - under US law on foreign acquisition, 392–4
- framework contracting
 - exceptions to competitive procurement, 320–3
- France
 - Code des Marchés Publics, 172–4
 - defence industry, 50
 - third country contractor participation, 172–4
- free movement limitations, 78–85
- free movement of goods, establishment and services in the EU, 74–7
- full and open competition after exclusion of sources, 310
 - continuous availability of a reliable source, 301–2
 - contract performance conditions and social considerations, 307–8
 - establishing or maintaining alternative sources, 297–302
- EU small business set-asides in defence procurement, 304–5
- EU SMEs and subcontracting policies, 308–9
- increase or maintain competition and likely cost reduction, 297–300
- interest of national defence and industrial mobilisation, 300–1
- small business set-asides, 302–10
- subcontracting under the Defence Directive, 305–7
- transatlantic reciprocity in defence procurement for small businesses, 309–10
- full and open competition under US law, 276–7
 - definition of full and open competition, 277
 - discretionary exclusion of foreign competitors, 277–82
 - extent of discretionary authority to exclude foreign competition, 310–11
 - facility security clearance requirements, 280–1
 - KC-X case study, 284–96
 - background, 285–7
 - bid protest, 287–92
 - GAO review from a foreign contractor perspective, 292–6
 - ‘no foreign personnel’ requirements, 279–80
 - time limits between request for proposal release and submission, 281–2
- General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), 22
- General Court of the EU
 - interpretations of Article 346 TFEU, 87–98
- Germany
 - defence industry, 50
 - effects of ITAR restrictions, 217, 218
 - third country contractor participation, 176–7
- global defence market, 16
- Government Procurement Agreement (GPA), 1–2, 12, 80–1, 355–6
 - exclusion of defence procurement, 2
- government-to-government contracts and offsets, 381
 - definition of government-to-government contracts, 381
 - definition of offsets, 381
 - issues for US and EU comparative discussion, 429–31
- offsets
 - comparative legal discourse on offsets, 459–63

- government-to-government (cont.)
 discourse on their economic efficiency and legal prohibition, 459–62
 US and EU calls for a dialogue on offsets, 462–3
- offsets under EU law, 415–16, 421–9 offset receipt in government-to-government contracts, 428–9
 third country offset provision, 425–6
 third country offset receipt, 426–8
- offsets under US law on foreign acquisition, 416–21
 offsets connected with foreign military sales, 416–20 statutory obligation to report offsets, 420–1
- transatlantic defence trade, 382–91
 government-to-government contracts, 382–4
 offsets, 384–7
 significance in the context of, 387–91
- government-to-government sales under US and EU law, 392–415 foreign military sales under US law on foreign acquisition, 392–4 open competition in US foreign military sales, 394–6 sales under the Defence Directive, 403–15 award of US foreign military sales without recourse to Article 13(f) exclusions, 414–15
 EU-third country government sales, 413–14 provision on procurement underlying the sale, 407–8 third country-EU government sales and procurement from third countries, 408–13 sole sourcing in US foreign military sales, 396–402
- hard defence material
 focus of the analysis, 13
- historical overview, 20–1 armaments cooperation initiatives, 25–6
 Brussels Treaty 1948, 22
 ‘buy national’ procurement policies, 28
 Clinton Administration, US, 35, 37
 CNAD Task Force on Defense Trade, 34
 Cold War, 28, 33
 cooperative programmes through NATO, 26–7 creation of the European Community (EC), 25 creation of the European Economic Community (EEC), 25
 Culver-Nunn Amendment 1977, 28
 current procurement coordination issues, 44–5
 Defence Trade Cooperation (DTC) Treaty US–UK 2012, 38
 Defense Trade Security Initiative (DTSI) US 2000, 37–8
 EC replaced by the European Union, 40
 EEC renamed as the European Community, 34–5
 Élysée Treaty 1963, 26
 establishment of NATO, 21–3
 EU Defence Package 2007, 45–6
 European armaments industry post-World War II, 21–3
 European Coal and Steel Community (ECSC), 24
 European Defence Agency (EDA), 40–4
 European Defence Equipment Market (EDEM), 31
 European Security and Defence Policy (ESDP) 2001, 40
 Family of Weapons concept for weapons development, 27 formation of the Warsaw Pact, 25
 free acquisition markets
 NATO-wide, 33–4
 General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), 22

- Independent European Programme Group (IEPG), 28–33
- International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR), 37–8
- juste retour* (fair return, work-share) principle in awarding contracts, 31–2
- Letter of Intent 1998, 38–9
- Marshall Plan, 21
- military cooperation in the face of the Soviet threat, 21–3
- NATO Armaments Committee, 23
- NATO Basic Military Requirements (NBMR) initiative, 26
- NATO CNAD, 26–7
- NATO Defence Capabilities Initiative (DCI), 37–8
- NATO Forward Strategy for the defence of Europe 1950, 24
- NATO Industrial Advisory Group (NIAG), 26
- North American Free Trade Agreement 1988, 33
- North Atlantic Treaty 1949, 22
- Nunn-Roth-Warner Amendment 1986, 29
- OCCAR 1998, 39–40
- Paris Treaty 1951, 24
- proposed European Defence Community (EDC), 24–5
- Protocol of the Hague 1947, 23
- Reciprocal Defence Procurement Memoranda of Understanding (RDPs), 27–8
- Single European Act 1986, 33
- transatlantic defence industrial cooperation (TADIC) initiatives, 46–8
- Treaty of Dunkirk 1947, 22
- Treaty of Lisbon 2009, 35, 40
- Treaty of Rome 1957, 25
- Treaty on European Union (TEU) 1992, 34–5, 40
- Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU) 2009, 35, 40
- US military and economic support for Europe, 21–3
- US–UK Declarations of Principles (DoPs) 2000, 35–6
- weapons standardisation or interoperability, 27–9
- Western European Armaments Group (WEAG), 33
- Western European Union (WEU), 24, 28, 32–3
- Western Union (Brussels Treaty Organisation), 22
- indefinite delivery–indefinite quantity (IDIQ) contracts, 321
- Independent European Programme Group (IEPG), 28–33
- Insinööri-toimisto InsTiimi Oy v. Puolustusvoimat*, 97–8
- Inspector General Act 1978, 263
- international agreements and arrangements
 - definitions, 130–1
 - EU Defence Directive exclusions, 129–33
 - non-competitive procurement, 333–4
- International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) Task Force, 190
- international organisations
 - EU Defence Directive exclusions, 133–42
- International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR), 37–8, 207, 210–13
 - as justification for sole source procurement, 220–3
 - ITAR-free initiatives, 216–20
- Ireland
 - implementation of the Defence Directive, 179
- Italy
 - defence industry, 50
 - third country contractor participation, 174–5
- juste retour*, 471–2
 - fair return or work-share principle in awarding contracts, 31–2

- juste retour* (cont.)
 RDP Memoranda of Understanding, 456–7
- KC-X case study, 284–96
 background, 285–7
 bid protest, 287–92
 GAO review from a foreign contractor perspective, 292–6
- Letter of Intent 1998, 38–9
 Lockheed Martin, 58
- maintenance of the industrial base
 exceptions to competitive procurement, 324–6
- Marshall, George, US Secretary of State, 21
- Marshall Plan, 21
- Member States
 ‘buy national’ policies, 339–40 influence on national defence industries, 50
 interpretations of Article 346 TFEU, 86–7
 rights and obligations in relation to third countries, 124–5
- multiple award contracts (MAC), 321
- national security
 exceptions to competitive procurement, 326–31
- NATO, 13–14, 15
 and the EDA, 44
 Armaments Committee, 23
 Conference of National Armaments Directors (CNAD), 26–7
 cooperative programmes, 26–7 Defence Capabilities Initiative (DCI), 37–8 establishment of, 21–3
 Eurogroup, 27, 29
 Forward Strategy for the defence of Europe 1950, 24
 free acquisition markets
 NATO-wide, 33–4
 military standardisation activities, 197
 NIAG study, 444
 TADIC studies, 48
- NATO agencies
 EU Defence Directive exclusions, 141–2
- NATO Airborne Warning and Control System (AWACS), 138
- NATO Basic Military Requirements (NBMR) initiative, 26
- NATO Code of Conduct, 473–5
- NATO cooperative projects, 356–7
- NATO defence GATT, 472–3
- NATO Industrial Advisory Group (NIAG), 26
- NATO Maintenance and Supply Organisation (NAMSO), 141
- NATO STANAGs, 283
- NATO transatlantic defence trade treaty, 475–80
- Netherlands
 third country contractor participation, 177–8
- non-competitive procurement comparison of EU and US approaches, 336–7
- non-competitive procurement under US law access and treatment of foreign contractors, 312–13 extent of discretion to exclude foreign contractors, 336–7 justification and approvals, 313–16
 maintenance of the industrial base, 324–6
 national security, 326–31
 class justifications and approvals, 327–8 competition failures, 328–9
 exceptions under US and EU law, 329–31 necessary in the public interest, 334–5 only one responsible source, 316–23
 follow-on contracts and additional deliveries, 319
 framework contracting, 320–3

- privately developed items and
 - reasons connected with
 - exclusive rights, 317–19
- position of ‘other than full and open competition’ (CICA), 312
- requirements of international agreements, 333–4
- unusual and compelling
 - circumstances, 331–3
- North American Free Trade Agreement 1988, 33
- North Atlantic Treaty 1949, 22
- Northrop Grumman, 58
- Nunn-Roth-Warner Amendment 1986, 29
- OCCAR, 39–40
 - EU Defence Directive exclusions, 141
- Office of Federal Procurement Policy Act (OFPPA), 263
- Official Journal of the EU (OJEU), 111
- offsets
 - comparative legal discourse on
 - defence procurement, 459–63
 - definition, 381
 - discourse on their economic
 - efficiency and legal prohibition, 459–62
 - issues for US and EU comparative discussion, 430–1
 - RDP Memoranda of Understanding, 456–7
 - significance in the context of
 - transatlantic defence trade, 387–91
 - transatlantic defence trade, 384–7
 - under EU law, 421–9
 - offset receipt in
 - government-to-government contracts, 428–9
 - third country offset provision, 425–6
 - third country offset receipt, 426–8
 - under US law on foreign acquisition, 416–21
 - offsets connected with foreign military sales, 416–20
 - statutory obligation to report
 - offsets, 420–1
 - US and EU calls for a dialogue on
 - offsets, 462–3
- only one responsible source
 - exceptions to competitive procurement, 316–23
- Pleven, René, 24
- Poland
 - defence industry, 51
 - third country contractor participation, 178–9
- prime level supply companies (primes), 55–6
- privately developed items
 - exceptions to competitive procurement, 317–19
- procurement law
 - as barrier to defence trade, 66–9
- Protocol of the Hague 1947, 23
- public interest
 - exception to competitive procurement in the US, 334–5
- public procurement
 - as barrier to defence trade, 66–9
 - definition, 1
 - international and regional legal regimes, 1–2
 - purpose of regulation, 1–2
- public procurement markets
 - significance for international trade, 1
 - value of EU and US expenditure, 1
- Public Sector Directive 2004/18/EC, 104
- Public Sector Directive 2014/24/EU, 105
- Public Sector Directives, 160–2
- rare earth metals
 - security of supply, 346–55
- Reciprocal Defence Procurement Memoranda of Understanding (RDPs), 27–8, 357–73
 - bilateral approach to meeting trade objectives, 451–2
 - Buy American Act waiver, 454
 - comparative legal discourse, 450–9

- Reciprocal Defence (cont.) conditions for participation, 453
 context, 358–63
 European and NATO membership is not exclusive, 359–61 procurement focus is not exclusive, 358–9 uncertainty as to the effects of RDPs in practice, 361–3
 dispute settlement, 457–9
 general procedures, 365–7 full and equitable consideration of all qualified sources, 366 no substantive authorisation to export defence items, 367 obtaining information about possible procurement, 365–6 offers evaluated without application of ‘buy national’ laws, 367
 satisfaction of requirements, 367
juste retour, 456–7
 justifications for limited tendering procedures, 453–4
 main provisions, 364–5
 material and personal scope, 364 principles governing reciprocal defence purchasing, 364 regular discussion of adverse effects of offsets and other provisions, 365
 national security and other exceptions, 454–6
 offsets, 456–7
 procedural requirements, 452–4
 procurement procedures, 365, 368–73
 absence of a distinct set of rules specifically concerning award, 369–70
 content of invitations to tender, 368–9
 notification of outcome, 370 publication of contract notices in a generally available periodical, 368 publication of invitations to tender in adequate time, 369 reasons for non-award, 370–1 review and dispute settlement, 371–3 scope, 452
 review and remedies provision comparative legal discourse, 446–7
 Romania
 defence industry, 51
 third country contractor
 participation, 179
 scope and limitations of the analysis, 12–17
 contract formation, not contract administration, 12–13 hard defence, not security or dual use, 13
 legal perspective, rather than political or economic, 15–16 limitations of empirical evidence, 16–17
 USA and EU, not NATO or Member States, 13–14
 Security Assistance Management
 Manual (SAMM) US, 392, 399 security concerns
 comparative legal discourse on defence procurement, 454–6
 Security Cooperation Act 2010, 374
 Security Cooperation Organization
 (SCO) US, 397
 security exceptions
 comparative legal discourse, 445–6
 security interests of states concerns about defence trade, 51–2
 security of information, 52, 240–4
 as a disguised market access barrier, 242
 EU security of information
 arrangements, 243–4 general and specific conditions of the Defence Directive, 240–1
 security of supply, 49, 52, 204–10
 and guarantees in a crisis, 234–40

- European security of supply
 - arrangements, 236–40
 - guaranteeing security of supply, 234–6
- and supply chain organisation, 229–34
 - location and organisation of the supply chain, 229–30
 - organisation and location of third country sources of supply, 230–4
- and third country export controls, 210–29
 - ability to honour export obligations, 225–8
 - export restriction provisions under the Defence Directive, 224–9
- impact at prime or lower tiers of the transatlantic defence market, 214–15
- ITAR as justification for sole source procurement, 220–3
- ITAR-free and the Defence Directives, 216–20
- management of security of supply risks, 215–16
- restrictions on disclosure, transfer and use, 228–9
- security of supply as a disguised market access barrier, 213–14
- US export control regulations, 210–13
- conceptualisation under the Defence Directive, 205–8
- requirements under the Defence Directive, 208–10
- specialty and rare earth metals, 346–55
 - under EU and US law, 350–5
- security of supply guarantees, 354–5
- security of supply requirements
 - comparative legal discourse, 444–5
- Single European Act 1986, 33
- Small Business Act 1953 US, 302
- Small Business Administration (SBA) US, 302
- small business set-asides, 302–10
- contract performance conditions and social considerations, 307–8
- EU SMEs and subcontracting policies, 308–9
 - in EU defence procurement, 304–5
- subcontracting under the Defence Directive, 305–7
- transatlantic reciprocity in defence procurement, 309–10
- sovereignty
 - influence on national defence industries, 48–51
- Spain
 - third country contractor participation, 175–6
- specialty and rare earth metals
 - security of supply, 346–55
- standardisation organisations, 196–7
- Strategic Materials Protection Board (SMPB) US, 348–50
- structure of the transatlantic defence market, 55–7
 - companies producing off-the-shelf-type components, 57
 - prime-level supply companies (primes), 55–6
 - second- and third-tier companies, 56–7
 - sub-system companies, 56–7
 - supply chain globalisation and integration, 57
- subcontracting
 - EU SMEs and subcontracting policies, 308–9
 - under the Defence Directive, 305–7
- subcontractors
 - third country mode of access, 181–2
- supply chain globalisation and integration, 57
- supply chain organisation
 - and security of supply, 229–34
- supply side of the transatlantic defence market, 54
 - defence industry consolidation, 58–9
 - defence trade flow, 59–63

- supply side (cont.)
 foreign direct investment and foreign market presence, 63–6 integration of the transatlantic
 defence industry, 58–66
 mergers and acquisitions among companies, 63–6
 structure of the transatlantic defence market, 55–7
 value of non-prime-company trade, 57
 volume and value of the market, 59–63
- Sweden
 effects of ITAR restrictions, 218
 third country contractor
 participation, 178
- teaming arrangements
 third country mode of access, 184–6
- third country contractors
 definition, 156
- third country–EU government sales and procurement from third countries, 408–13
- third country modes of access, 179–86
 direct participation. See third country participation
- EU subsidiaries, 180–1 products of third country origin in free circulation, 182–4
 subcontractors, 181–2 taxonomy, 179–80
 teaming arrangements, 184–6
- third country offset provision under EU law, 425–6
- third country offset receipt under EU law, 426–8
- third country participation and the EU Defence Directive, 156–7 indirect effects of the EU Defence
 Directive, 191–2
 procurement directives, 157–68 enabling direct third country contractor participation, 162–5
 EU and Member State
 competences in procurement, 158–60
- factors affecting direct third country contractor
 participation, 165–8
 third country provision, 160–2 treatment of third country contractors, 168
- under national law after the Defence
 Directive, 169–79
 Belgium, 177
 Finland, 178
 France, 172–4
 Germany, 176–7
 Ireland, 179
 Italy, 174–5
 Member States with major defence capabilities, 170–7 Member States with some or limited defence capabilities, 177–9
 Netherlands, 177–8
 Poland, 178–9
 Romania, 179
 Spain, 175–6
 Sweden, 178
 United Kingdom, 170–2
- third country products in free circulation, 182–4
- third country relations in defence procurement equalisation of conditions on third country participation, 186–7
 potentially problematic aspects, 186–91
 regulating third country access and treatment, 187–91
- TODO contracts, 321, 322
- transatlantic defence GATT proposal, 466–80
- transatlantic defence industrial cooperation (TADIC) initiatives, 13, 46–8
- transatlantic defence procurement scope and limitations of the analysis, 12–17
- transatlantic defence trade
 legal barriers, 10–12
 problematic areas, 16

- proposals to reduce trade barriers, 11–12
- Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP), 11, 481–92
 - defence procurement and global trade liberalisation, 491–2
 - initial inclusion of defence procurement within TTIP, 482–6
 - long-term structures for
 - coordinating EU and US defence procurement rules, 486–7
 - recent background to the TTIP negotiations, 481–2
 - towards a defence TTIP, 487–91
- Treaty of Dunkirk 1947, 22
- Treaty of Lisbon 2009, 35, 40
- Treaty of Rome 1957, 25
- Treaty on European Union (TEU) 1992, 34–5, 40
 - Article 4(3), 125
- Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU), 35, 40, 73
 - Article 18, 74
 - Article 28, 75
 - Article 29, 183
 - Article 34, 75, 78
 - Article 35, 75, 78
 - Article 36, 78, 82
 - Article 49, 76
 - Article 53, 105
 - Article 56, 76
 - Article 62, 105
 - Article 114, 105
 - Article 207, 158
 - Article 207(6), 160
 - Article 258, 81
 - Article 259, 81
 - Article 288, 103
 - Article 346, 73, 78–81, 82, 85, 164, 352
 - Article 346 and the Defence Directive, 116–17
 - Article 346 influence on the EU defence market, 118–20
 - Article 346 interpretations, 85–6
- European Commission, 99–102
- European Parliament, 102–3
- General Court and Court of Justice of the EU, 87–98
- Member States, 86–7
- Article 347, 78, 85
- Article 348, 85
- Article 351, 124
- Truman, President Harry S., 21, 24
- TTIP, See Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership
- UNCITRAL Model Law, 491
- United Kingdom
 - Defence and Security Public Contracts Regulations (DSPCR), 170–1
 - defence industry, 50
 - third country contractor participation, 170–2
- United States
 - commentary on the EU Defence Directive, 7–8
 - defence trade advantage over Europe, 3
 - level of commitment to transatlantic cooperation, 15
 - position on removal of trade barriers, 15
 - public procurement expenditure, 1
- unusual and compelling circumstances
 - exception to competitive procurement in the US, 331–3
- US contractors
 - indirect effects of the EU Defence Directive, 191–2
- US Department of Defense
 - procurement, 260–2, 271
 - Better Buying Power (BBP) initiative, 318
 - effects of the Berry Amendment, 346
 - foreign competition rates, 273–6
 - general competition rates, 271–3
 - technical specifications, 283–4
- US Department of State, 210
- US federal defence procurement law, 249–50

- US federal defence procurement law
(cont.)
- comparison with EU defence procurement law, 268–9
 - procurement function, 260–8
 - administrative and judicial oversight, 265–8
 - executive oversight, 262–4
 - legislative oversight, 264–5
 - oversight, 262–8
 - procurement by the Department of Defense and Military Departments, 260–2
 - regulatory sources, 250
 - Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) and Supplements, 259–60
 - statutes, 250, 251–9
 - Armed Services Procurement Act (ASPA) 1948, 251
 - Competition in Contracting Act (CICA) 1984, 251–9
 - exclusion of sources and other than full and open competition, 257–9
 - Federal Property and Administrative Services Act (FPASA) 1949, 251
 - full and open competition, 252–7
 - US federal procurement
 - limitations of analysis, 270
 - US Military Departments
 - procurement function, 260–2
 - US–UK Defence Trade Cooperation Treaty (DTC) 2007, 373–8
 - no export or transfer licence for eligible items, 376–7
 - oversight and review, 377–8
 - personal and material scope, 374–6
 - Utilities Directive 2004/17/EC, 105
 - Utilities Directive 2014, 180
 - Utilities Directives, 160–2
 - variable quantity contracts, 321
 - Warsaw Pact, 25
 - Western European Armaments Group (WEAG), 33
 - Western European Union (WEU), 24, 28, 32–3
 - World Trade Organization (WTO) Government Procurement Agreement (GPA), 1–2