Contents

List of Map, Figures and Tables ix

Acknowledgements xi

Introduction 1

‘Turtles Can Fly’: Vicarious Terror and the Child in South Asia
Bina D’Costa

Part I
Shaping Childhood in South Asia

1. Children and Civil Society in South Asia: Subjects, Participants and Political Agents
   Duncan McDuie-Ra 46

2. ‘We Will Work Harder to be Our Own Boss’: Children, Vulnerability and Structural Violence
   Elora Halim Chowdhury 62

3. The Kite Runner: Children, Violence and the Ethnic Imaginary in Afghanistan
   Syed Sami Raza 84

Part II
Conflict and Violent Peace

4. Migration, Mobilization, and Memory: The Sri Lankan Civil War in the Lives of Tamil Youth
   Amarnath Amarasingam and Tanuja Thurairajah 107

5. Politics of the Orphans of War: 72 Children’s Journey from the Chittagong Hill Tracts of Bangladesh to the Suburbs of France
   Kabita Chakma and Glen Hill 132

6. Besieged Childhood and Broken Dreams: Failed Promises of the State and Maoist Movement in India
   Swati Parashar 159
Contents

7. Impacts of Terrorism on Children in Pakistan: A Case Study of Displaced Children in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa
   Zahid Shahab Ahmed

Part III

Rights, Needs and Protection

   Cecilia Jacob

   Kazi Fahmida Farzana

    Anita Knudsen and Michelle Godwin

Part IV

Reflections from Human Rights Advocates in the Region

11. Being Young in a Time of Conflict: Kashmiri Youth and Children – A Reflection
    Parvez Imroz

12. The Killing of Youths in Sri Lanka: Historical Wrongs and the Failure of the State
    Kishali Pinto-Jayawardena

13. The Impact of War and Violence on Young Minds
    Azra Nafees Yousafzai

Bibliography

Cons on Contributors

Index