

Index

- absolute value, 186, 197–8
 as formal ranking, 165 acquired right, 252
 aesthetic presuppositions, 123–4, 271–7 affordance (social), 116–17 agency, 189
 agreeable, 68, 80, 83
 Allison, Henry, 42, 45, 54–5, 58, 62, 64, 67, 71, 75–6, 81–2 altruism, 134–5
 apperception, 22, 52, 58, 62–3, 157 and unity of space and time, 52 objective unity of, 26
 apprehension, 21–3
 Arendt, Hannah, 67
 Astington, Janet, 128–9 autocracy, 204, 211
 autonomy, 2, 6–7, 93, 96, 108, 157, 171, 175–6, 218, 222, 281
- Baumgarten, Alexander, 36, 142 beatitude (Seligkeit), 200, 203 and independence, 203 word origin, 204
 Beck, Lewis White, 53–4 beneficence, 101–2, 274
 Berger, Larissa, 97
 Bittner, Rüdiger, 192
 blame, 193
 Bratman, Michael, 114
 Browning, Christopher, 124
 Bushnell, I., 128
- capacity for morality, 5, 110 categorical imperative, 235 and duties of right, 246 formal character, 165 in civil condition. See also formula of autonomy, formula of humanity, formula of universal law, formula of the realm of ends
- categories, 1, 3, 30–8, 40, 66 as conditions of self-consciousness, 55 and content (Inhalt), 43–4 and intellectual origin, 41–2 objective validity of, 64
 and sensibility, 31
 and sensible intuition, 42
 and Transcendental Deduction, 52, 64
 vs. schematized categories, 45
- causality, 279
 change of heart, 222, 286–8 character, 195, 218
 choice (Willkür), 193
 Christology, 224–7
 CI-procedure, 144, 146
 civil condition, 253, 266 coercion, 8, 238, 245. See also hindrance principle
- cognition, 69, 71
 empirical cognition, 13 of freedom, 281
 objects of, 13
 and role of consciousness, 95
- compatibilism, 173–5, 188–90 concepts, 37. See also categories
 and Christian Wolff, 35–6
- conscience, 211–12, 278 constructivism, 6, 145–54 contentment, 207–10, 278 contractualism, 9, 251, 256–9 conventionalism, 9, 256–9
- Darwall, Stephen, 104
 Dean, Richard, 84–5, 112
 Deduction of Judgments of Taste, 68, 70, 72–4, 76–7 definitions, 48–9
 despondency, 209–11
 determination, 171–3 epistemological vs. causal sense, 172 formal vs. normative sense, 172

- developmental psychology, 6, 126–36 difference principle, 9, 250–5, 259, 262 dignity, 152, 156
 disposition (Gesinnung), 221–2 distributive justice, 2, 9, 250–1, 259 and consent, 260, 263
 Doris, John, 124
 duties of virtue, 276
 dynamical principles, 63
- Ebbinghaus, Julius, 233, 246
 Elimination of Sensibility Procedure, 6, 137, 144–5
 empirical judgment, 13–16 content and form, 14
 objective validity of, 13
 end-setting, 241. See also freedom and natural conditions, 275 willing necessary means, 274 enlightenment, 191
 Epicurus, 139, 141
 equality, 259
 in civil condition, 261 formal equality, 263–4, 266 Estlund, David, 257
 ethical community
 as church, 8, 217, 228
- fact of reason, 98–9, 157, 162, 283 faculty of desire, 152
 Fichte, Johann Gottlieb, 173, 233
 Flikschuh, Katrin, 191 formal equality. See equality formal intuitions and time-determinations, 59 formula of autonomy, 113, 182, 187 formula of humanity, 5, 90–2, 100–2, 113, 145, 149, 162, 165, 234, 237, 272 and containing others' ends, 101–2 and highest good, 104–5 and infant development, 133–4
 and intrinsic worth, 93 formula of the kingdom of ends, 165 formula of universal law, 91, 113, 145 as a principle of right, 247 validity of, 93–4, 96 freedom, 175–6
 acting under idea of, 158
 as causality, 188
 as end-setting capacity, 10, 271 equality of external freedom, 241 external freedom, 239
 and happiness, 89–90
 and human nature, 85
 as independence from alien influence, 97
- as innate right, 9, 242, 252 and intelligible character, 280
 and intrinsic worth, 92
 as “inner value of the world,” 6, 155 lending idea of, 5, 94, 96 and nature, 9, 269–70
 noumenal and phenomenal, 278–9 and principle of right, 237 and relation to moral law, 89 and validity of moral law, 94 Frierson, Patrick, 122, 196
- Garve, Christian, 103, 142
 geometry, 50
 Gibson, James, 116
 Ginsborg, Hannah, 83
 God, 215, 222, 224–5
 as author of nature, 290. See also practical postulates
 and grace, 226
 as ground of phenomenal world, 281 good will, 112, 125, 138, 144–5 Gottsched, Johann Christoph, 36 grace, 227
 grounds of morality, 139 guilt
 of “new man,” 225
 Guyer, Paul, 9, 52–3, 58, 62, 67, 69, 72, 78–84, 89–92, 110, 118, 120–2, 125, 155, 158–9, 164, 233, 236–8, 242–3, 245, 248, 250, 252, 257
- happiness, 2, 139
 and laws of nature, 292 as necessary end for human beings, 215 and relation to morality, 141 harmonious play, 68–72, 74–7, 80. See also pleasure
 temporal structure, 77
 harmony of the faculties, 79
 Helvetius, Claude, 139, 141
 Henrich, Dieter, 53
 Herder, Johann Gottfried, 192
 Herman, Barbara, 102, 112 heteronomy, 157, 185, 187–9 highest good, 2, 5, 8, 10, 90, 102–6, 141, 214, 271, 289
 and change of heart, 222
 and formula of humanity, 104–5
 and happiness, 102–3
 and immortality of the soul, 103 proportionality between virtue and happiness, 214, 289
 as realizable in natural world, 289 in Religion Within the Boundaries of Mere Reason, 216

- Hill, Thomas, 112
 hindrance principle, 257, See also coercion Hobbes, Thomas, 140
 holy will, 125, 215
 human nature determinable through freedom, 85
 and principle of taste, 67 humanity, 90–2, 161, 197, 199 and absolute value, 162 as capacity for morality, 112 as capacity to set ends, 92, 111–12, 272 criteria for recognizing, 119–20 as “end in itself,” 163 and joint cooperative activity, 114 as necessary end, 162, 164
 and principle of taste, 85
 as possession of a good will, 112 and rational nature, 111 and social affordances, 116–17 scope of, 108–10, 116
 value of, 162
 Hume, David, 256
 Hutcheson, Francis, 139
- imagination, 1, 67, 80, See also transcendental imagination
 attunement with understanding, 5, 71 immortality. See practical postulates imperfect duty, 273–4 inclination, 2, 7, 151, 195–9, 205, 211 and relationship with need, 200–2 independence, 7, 203
 as ideal, 206
 infant development, 126–36
 and formula of humanity, 133–4
 innate right to freedom. See freedom intrinsic worth, 91–3, 157 intuition, 14, 25, 27, 53–4
 and imagination, 26
- joint cooperative activity, 114–16, 126, 130–3 joy, 212–13
 judgments of beauty, 71, 82
 basis of, 68
 judgments of taste
 agreement in, 75
 basis of, 80
 and feeling, 80
 pure, 72–3
- kingdom of ends. See realm of ends Korsgaard, Christine, 6, 92, 111, 138, 149–54, 197
- Larmore, Charles, 182, 191
 Leibniz, G. W., 173
 libertarianism, 266
- Liszkowski, U., 131
 Locke, John, 252
 Longuenesse, Béatrice, 4, 56–9 love of others, 278
 luxury, 202
- Mackie, J. L., 147
 Mandeville, Bernard, 139, 141 manifold of intuition, 13, 27 mathematics, 48, 51, 64 mathematical principles, 61–3 Meier, Georg Friedrich, 37 mercy, 121, 125–6 metaphysical deduction, 14–17 metaphysical exposition, 49 miserliness, 209–11
 Moll, H., 115
 Montaigne, Michel de, 140
 Moore, G.E., 153
 moral anxiety, 8, 204, 206, 208, 211–12, 221, 224, See also moral misery moral character. See character moral feeling, 278
 moral goodness, 139
 vs. prudential goodness, 138–45 moral ideal, 270
 moral idealism, 156, See also constructivism moral law
 as causal law, 282
 consciousness of, 97–8 necessity of, 138, 140, 144, 180 moral misery, 207, 211, See also moral anxiety moral realism, 6, 144–5, 147, 156, 158–9 transcendental vs. empirical, 157 moral reliabilism, 5, 111 moral status, 110
 and aesthetic presuppositions, 123–4 attribution of, 5, 120 of non-human animals, 134–6
 scope of, 108–10, 116
 moral value
 as formal ordering, 6, 163 not intrinsic property, 159 morals (Sitten), 8, 233, 247
- need, 7, 198–203, 211 and relationship with inclination, 200–2 true needs, 102, 202–3
 noumenal will, 280
 Nozick, Robert, 266
- O’Neill, Onora, 112, 146, 148
 object constitution, 17 and transcendental imagination, 13 obligation, 8, 142, 234, 247 original position, 146, 258

- perfectionism, 142–3, 147
 Piaget, Jean, 127
 Pippin, Robert, 233
 pleasure, 69–71
 and harmonious play, 69, 79 as intentional feeling, 83 and play of faculties, 75 and self-consciousness, 83 and universal communicability, 83 as universally communicable, 80 universal validity in judgments of taste, 78 universally communicable feeling, 71 practical postulates, 160–1, 215, 272, 287, 293 practical reason, 161, 269 and ontology, 159, 162
 as Wille, 184–5
 predispositions to the good, 218 Prichard, H. A., 138, 150–1 principle of aesthetic judgment. See principle of judgments of taste principle of judgments of taste, 4, 66, 71, 74–5 normative function, 82 universally shared, 68, 73–4 principle of right, 2, 8, 252 as analytic, 236, 241
 and freedom, 237
 propensity to evil, 218–19, 285
 in heart, not will, 220 property right, 250, 252–4, 276 as mutual agreement, 253 requires consent, 254–5, 257 public use of reason, 191 pure concepts of the understanding.
 See categories
 pure judgments of taste. See judgments of taste purposive unity, 269–70 purposiveness internal and external, 270 radical evil, 217–18, 285–6 rational intuitionism, 145

 Rawls, John, 9, 112, 118, 144–8, 214, 250–1, 255–6, 258–9
 realm of appearance, 269
 realm of ends, 113, 181
 Reddy, Vasudevi, 130
 Reinhold, Karl Leonhard, 285 religion, 8, 216, 222–3, 228, 230 right. See also principle of right and coercion, 238, 245, 274, 276 cannot begin with ends, 240 as giving rise to ends, 243 and incentives, 235
 and obligation, 236
 and relation to ethics, 233–6, 247 right of equity, 245

 right of necessity, 245
 Ripstein, Arthur, 235, 238
 Rosenkoetter, Timothy, 44
 Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 173, 192, 203

 Sayre-McCord, Geoffrey, 156
 schematism, 45, 60, 119, See also categories
 Schmid, Carl Christian Erhard, 285
 Schönecker, Dieter, 93
 Schopenhauer, Arthur, 286
 Schulz, J. H., 190
 Searle, John, 116
 self-deception, 210–11
 self-esteem, 278
 selfhood, 173–4
 sensation, 18–19
 and imagination, 19–21
 Sensen, Oliver, 160
 sensible representations, 15–16
 Shaftesbury, 3rd Earl of, 139 shared cooperative activity. See joint cooperative activity skepticism, 55
 space and time
 representations as singular, 52
 Spalding, J. J., 173
 spontaneity, 1–2
 spontaneity of the understanding, 31, 37, 47 state of nature duty to exit, 257
 vs. original position, 258
 Sticker, Martin, 124
 Stoicism, 141, 207, 215, 223
 Sturm, Thomas, 122
summum bonum. See highest good taxation, 250, 264

 things in themselves, 55, 161 third antinomy, 163, 279–80 time determination, 59–60 Timmermann, Jens, 91, 197
 Tomasello, Michael, 113–16, 131–2
 Transcendental Aesthetic, 49 and transcendental idealism, 49 Transcendental Deduction, 4, 51 and categories, 52, 64
 Transcendental Exposition, 49 transcendental idealism, 4, 49, 51, 65, 270, 277, 279
 Kant's argument for, 51 and Transcendental Aesthetic, 49
 and Transcendental Deduction, 52
 transcendental imagination, 3, 16–17 and aesthetic contemplation, 28 and object constitution, 13 and perception, 25–6

Index

309

- transcendental synthesis of imagination, 57
 vs. empirical synthesis, 59
- Ulrich, Johann August Heinrich, 282
- understanding. See also spontaneity of the understanding attunement with imagination, 71
 and Christian Wolff, 33–7
 as capacity to judge, 37, 39
 and imagination, 23, 25
 and sensibility, 30, 39
- unity. See also purposive unity need for, 66–7
- unity of apperception. See apperception
- universal principle of right. See principle of right
- virtue, 195, 205, 223, 277
- Vouloumanos, P., 129
- Werker, J., 129
- will
 vs. Willkür, 285
- will (Wille), 178–9, 187, 193
 and practical reason, 184–5 and universal law, 181
 vs. Willkür, 179
- Willaschek, Marcus, 233, 246
- Wizenmann, Thomas, 201
- Wolff, Christian, 3, 30–3, 143
- Wood, Allen, 85, 92, 112, 123
- Zinkin, Melissa, 69, 70, 85
- Zuckert, Rachel, 67, 69, 74