aberrant avatars. See also deviant behavior in cyberspace acceptable and unacceptable avatars, 246 blocking, 245–46
droppings, 247
eavesdropping, 246
flashing, 247
flooding, 245
graffiti, 244
identity disruption, 247–48
imposters, 247
overview, 244
sleeping, 246
spoofing, 245
abstract avatars, 236 accelerated time, in cyberspace, 43–44. See also temporal dimension
acceleration of psychotherapy, 388–89 acceptance, by synthesized therapist, 408 accessibility, of human versus synthesized therapists, 403–4 achievement, need for, and cyberspace addiction, 320–21 acquaintance, spam faking, 303 action accentuation, in text communication, 175 active, turning the passive into, 132, 338, 341 Adams, Ansel, 197 addiction. See cyberspace addiction adjourning stage, groups, 262 adjustable conversing speed, 164–66 adventure, as motivation for media transition, 285 advertisements, 334
adware, 300
affection, and buttonized relating, 123 aggregates, versus groups, 279 aggressor, identification with, 106
AIBO, Sony, 374
Aiken, M., 311
Allen, Woody, 317
Alone Together, 29, 89 altered states of consciousness. See also dreams cyberspace addiction and need for, 319–20 cyberspace as fulfilling need for, 368 imaginary synthesized realities, 357–58 ambient intelligence (AmI), 61, 373 ambiguity, in spam, 301–2 analytic neutrality, 403 Anaxagoras, 225 Angelou, Maya, 60 animal avatars, 230 animated avatars, 236–37 animated GIFs (graphical image format), 237 anonymity. See also online disinhibition effect and deviant behavior, 330–31 dissociative, 98–100 and dissociative imagination, 104 and intersection between online and offline self, 28–29 Anselmi, D. L., 146 Anthony, K., 390 anthropomorphization, 31, 129, 283, 373–74, 406–7 antisocial activity. See aberrant avatars; deviant behavior in cyberspace antisocial personality type. See psychopathic personality type anxiety media transition, 286–88 related to Y2K, 306 spam activating, 302 apocalyptic predictions, and Y2K scare, 305–6 appearance of images, importance of, 202
selfies, 209
applied cyberpsychology, 13–14 apps popularity of, 268
self-help, 396
archetypal concerns, spam activating, 301–2 archetypal images, synthesized realities based on, 356 artificial intelligence, 62. See also synthesized beings
artificially intelligent psychotherapists. See synthesized therapists
Ashby, W. R., 361
Ashton, K., 51
“as-if” personality, chatbots, 375
AsKi avatar, 240, 419 asynchronous communication. See also email in distance education, 272–73
and experience of time, 164–65
Mañana Principle, 151
and online disinhibition effect, 101–2
and presence, 67
synchronous communication versus, 40–43 text talk through, 159
text-mediated relationships, 118 therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 387–88
work groups, 269
AT&T Picturephone, 18
attention
gender swapping to attract, 145 and multitasking of presence, 65–67 attention-grabbers, in spam, 303–4 attitudes
text talk, 159–60
towards cyberspace, in interactive dimension, 34–35
towards synchronous versus asynchronous
communication, 42–43
attractive avatars, 233–35 Atwood, G., 154
Atwood, Margaret, 115 audience, equilibrium between interaction and, 275–76
audio conversations, in therapeutics, 389 auditory sensations, in relationships, 113–14, 117
auditory stimulation, and environmental presence, 55–56. See also sensory dimension
augmented reality. See also synthesized realities
defined, 24
and dissociated physicality, 50
integration principle, 85
and mindfulness, 67, 298–99
overview, 51–52
authority, attenuated, and online disinhibition effect, 105–6
automated correction programs, for text, 174 automation
as defense against spam, 300–1 of interventions for deviant behavior, 349–50
avatars. See also synthesized beings; The Palace aberrant, 244–48
abstract, 236
acceptable and unacceptable, 246 animal, 230
animated, 236–37
background graphics, 244, 248–51
behaviors, 236–37
billboard, 236 birth, 242
cartoon, 231
categories of, 229–30 celebrity, 231
clan, 235–36
collections of, 239–42
customized, 229
cybersex, 142–43
eotional attachment to, 239 environmental, 233, 240
evil, 231–32
evolution of, 237–38
experimental, 242
general discussion, 253
as hiding, revealing and transforming identity, 228–29
idiosyncratic, 232–33
inanimate, 236
lifestyle, 236
odd and shocking, 235
overview, 224, 226–28
paired, 235–36
personal expression through, 238–39 points of view, 232–35
power, 233, 241–42
primary, 242, 248
proteus effect, 228, 243
real face, 332
seductive, 233–35
Index

and self-as-transcendent, 71 sensations of physicality, 251–52 smileys, 229
social events designed for, 244 social interaction through, 242–44 stealing, 233, 239, 247
in therapeutics, 390–92
wannabe, 241
avid text users, 162
awareness, self as, 71–72 Babaeva, Y. D., 4
background graphics, for avatars, 244, 248–51
Bailenson, J., 47, 355, 369, 373, 378
Bainbridge, W. S., 369
Barak, A., 4–5, 99, 101
bartering, social, in buttonized relating, 122 BCI (brain-computer-interfaces), 361
B-cognition, 365
Be Here Now maxim, 55, 65–66, 67. See also presence behavioral therapies, 404–5 behaviors, avatar, 236–37 beings, synthesized. See synthesized beings belonging in The Geezer Brigade philosophy, 264–65 need for, and cyberspace addiction, 321–22 benign disinhibition, 96–98 Berry, Danielle, 314 bias, sampling, 422, 423
Bible Thumpers, 342
Biegelman, M., 343
big data challenges related to, 422–24 manipulation of online experience based on, 424–25
overview, 421–22
Big Four, cyberspace addiction, 310 big picture point of view, in synthesized realities, 359 billboard avatars, 236
Billig, M., 425
bio page, creating in eQuest program, 400 birth avatars, 242 bisexuality, gender swapping to explore, 145–46 Bisson, T., 370
black hat hacking, 346–47
black hole experiences
and cyberspace addiction, 323–24
general discussion, 155–57
overview, 92–93
responding to others in order to avoid, 191–92 text talk and, 165
in work groups, 270
The Black Hole of Cyberspace, 155
Blackboard, 271
Blascovich, J., 47, 355, 369, 373, 378 blocking avatars, 245–46, 335 blogs, 167. See also text talk body immersion experiences, 360–61 body language, 126
body of message, in text communication, 173 borderline personality disorder, 336, 339 bots (internet robots), 350–51 boundary, group, 279–80 Brad Pitt avatar, 234
brain stimulated experiences, 360, 361–62 brain-centric belief system, 370–71 brain-computer-interfaces (BCI), 361 Braun, Wernher von, 420 burn out. See also overload experiences media transition anxiety due to, 286 as symptom of overload, 295–96 Buros Center, University of Nebraska, 370 business mentality, in distance education, 273 buttonized relating addictive phase, 316 disapproval, 122–23
as easiest response, 122 feelings of guilt or sorrow, 121 and mood, 121
overview, 120
social bartering, 122
social conformity, 122
social currency, 123–25
support, 121
“Wow Factor,” 120–21
bystander effect, 107

© in this web service Cambridge University Press

www.cambridge.org
Index

Campbell, Joseph, 306
Card, S.K., 33
Carr, A., 140–41
Cartier-Bresson, Henri, 197
cartoon avatars, 231
case study method, 11, 418–19
Castaway, 31
casual greetings, in text communication, 171, 172 casual text users, 162–63 catastrophizing, 306
catfish, 142
Caudell, Tom, 51
The Cave, in The Palace, 333 celebrity avatars, 231
censoring, 349–50
chain emails, 304–5. See also spam change. See also media transitions; overload experiences cyberspace mania, 307–8
and environmental presence, 56–57
fear of, 306
Gartner hype cycle, 307–8
and interpersonal presence, 59
overview, 280, 281–82
spam, lessons from, 299–305
Y2K scare, lessons learned from, 305–7 chat rooms
deep conversations through, 188–89
interpersonal misunderstandings in, 185 lags in conversations, 185–86
overview, 183–84
private conversations, 188
sample conversation, 184–85
staccato to-the-point speak, 186–88 chat therapy, 385. See also therapeutics chatbot, psychological assessment of, 374–78 children, healthy conditions for, 278 children, transference involving machine as child, 132–33
machine as parent, 130–32
machine as wished-for parent, 133–34
overview, 128–29
wished-for parent to machine child, 134 chip on my shoulder emails, 137 Christie, B., 58
clan avatars, 235–36
clan leaders, gender swapping to become, 147–48 classes, in The Palace, 258 classes, online. See distance education/distance learning classification of photos, 212 client-centered therapy, 406 clinical cyberpsychology, 13
clique, in The Palace, 258 “clones” self-portraits, 193 cognitive dissonance, 289 cognitive overload, 293. See also overload experiences cognitive therapies, 405, 409 collaborative activities, with avatars, 252 collections
avatar, 239–42
of photos, 212
college courses, online. See distance education/distance learning combined names, as usernames, 169 commenting on photos, 219–22
commercially owned sites, deviant behavior on, 330 communication. See also asynchronous communication; image talk; synchronous communication; text dimension; text talk non-verbal, 119, 251 timing of, 40–43 communities. See also groups; social media; specific communities audience versus social interaction, 275–76 building, principles for, 267–68 composition of members, 265 cycles and stages in, 261–63
defining, 278–80
distance education, 271–74
emerging leaders, effect of, 266 experimentation and restraint, 275
Flickr, 274–78
founder, role in shaping, 263–67
The Geezer Brigade, 263–67
and mental health, 278
need for belonging, and cyberspace addiction, 321–22 niches, finding in, 274–75 online environment for, 266–67
overview, 253, 255
The Palace, 255–60
participant-observation research in, 419–20 psychological needs addressed by, 264–65
successful niches, 276–78
work groups, 268–71
community stage (stage 4), online groups, 262 compare and compete mentality, 124–25 compartmentalization, 72–75
Index

compliance stage (stage 5a), online groups, 262–63 composing message body, 173 self-portraits, 207–8
in synchronous versus asynchronous communication, 42
compulsive personality type. See obsessive/compulsive personality type compulsive use of cyberspace. See cyberspace addiction computational stylometry, 160–61
canadian computer addiction, 310. See also cyberspace addiction classroom networks, history of, 2–3 countertransference, 12, 387
criminal hacking, 346–47 criticism of photos, 220–21
crook, C., 89, 94
csikszentmihalyi, M., 313, 365
cultural differences, and text talk, 193 cultural preoccupations, spam activating, 301 cultural relativism, and deviant behavior, 329–30 culture clash, deviant behavior related to, 332
cut and paste reality, 179
cyberbullying, 338
cyberchondria, 311
cybercrime, 328–29. See also deviant behavior in cyberspace

Cyberflirting, 318
cybermania (cyberspace mania), 307–8. See also cyberspace addiction cyberpsychological niches audience versus social interaction, 275–76
experimentation versus restraint, 275
overview, 274–75
as resembling aggregates, 279
successful, 276–78
cyberpsychology applied, 13–14
birth of, 4–6
clinical, 13
defined, 22
future of, 17–20
immersive research, 11, 14–17
individual differences and subjectivity, 9–10 multifaceted quality of, 6–8
need for, 257–58
psychodynamic, 8–9
qualitative research, 10–13
cyberpsychology architecture. See also specific dimensions applying theory of, 53
building communities, 268
and cyberspace addiction, 316
and distance education, 273

competition and buttonized relating, 124–25
on flickr, 276
as motivation for media transition, 284
compliance stage (stage 6a), online groups, 262–63
compulsive personality type. See obsessive/compulsive personality type compulsive use of cyberspace. See cyberspace addiction computational stylometry, 160–61
canadian computer addiction, 310. See also cyberspace addiction classroom networks, history of, 2–3 countertransference, 12, 387
criminal hacking, 346–47
criticism of photos, 220–21
crook, C., 89, 94
csikszentmihalyi, M., 313, 365
cultural differences, and text talk, 193
cultural preoccupations, spam activating, 301
cultural relativism, and deviant behavior, 329–30
culture clash, deviant behavior related to, 332
cut and paste reality, 179
cyberbullying, 338
cyberchondria, 311
cybercrime, 328–29. See also deviant behavior in cyberspace

Cyberflirting, 318
cybermania (cyberspace mania), 307–8. See also cyberspace addiction cyberpsychological niches audience versus social interaction, 275–76
experimentation versus restraint, 275
overview, 274–75
as resembling aggregates, 279
successful, 276–78
cyberpsychology applied, 13–14
birth of, 4–6
clinical, 13
defined, 22
future of, 17–20
immersive research, 11, 14–17
individual differences and subjectivity, 9–10 multifaceted quality of, 6–8
need for, 257–58
psychodynamic, 8–9
qualitative research, 10–13
cyberpsychology architecture. See also specific dimensions
applying theory of, 53
building communities, 268
and cyberspace addiction, 316
and distance education, 273

Conversing speed, adjustable, 164–66
Cook, Scott, 1
Cooley, C.H., 60
core presence, continuity of in virtual worlds, 248 correspondence courses, 273 cost, of human versus synthesized therapists, 403–4 countertransference, 12, 387
creative keyboarding, 174–77, 398
criminal hacking, 346–47
criticism of photos, 220–21
Crook, C., 89, 94
csikszentmihalyi, M., 313, 365
cultural differences, and text talk, 193
cultural preoccupations, spam activating, 301
cultural relativism, and deviant behavior, 329–30
culture clash, deviant behavior related to, 332
cut and paste reality, 179
cyberbullying, 338
cyberchondria, 311
cybercrime, 328–29. See also deviant behavior in cyberspace cybermania (cyberspace mania), 307–8. See also cyberspace addiction cyberpsychological niches audience versus social interaction, 275–76

experimentation versus restraint, 275
group boundary, 280
overview, 274–75
as resembling aggregates, 279
successful, 276–78
cyberpsychology applied, 13–14
birth of, 4–6
clinical, 13
defined, 22
future of, 17–20
immersive research, 11, 14–17
individual differences and subjectivity, 9–10 multifaceted quality of, 6–8
need for, 257–58
psychodynamic, 8–9
qualitative research, 10–13
cyberpsychology architecture. See also specific dimensions
applying theory of, 53
building communities, 268
and cyberspace addiction, 316
and distance education, 273

competition and buttonized relating, 124–25
on flickr, 276
as motivation for media transition, 284
compliance stage (stage 6a), online groups, 262–63
compulsive personality type. See obsessive/compulsive personality type compulsive use of cyberspace. See cyberspace addiction computational stylometry, 160–61
canadian computer addiction, 310. See also cyberspace addiction classroom networks, history of, 2–3 countertransference, 12, 387
criminal hacking, 346–47
criticism of photos, 220–21
Crook, C., 89, 94
csikszentmihalyi, M., 313, 365
cultural differences, and text talk, 193
cultural preoccupations, spam activating, 301
cultural relativism, and deviant behavior, 329–30
culture clash, deviant behavior related to, 332
cut and paste reality, 179
cyberbullying, 338
cyberchondria, 311
cybercrime, 328–29. See also deviant behavior in cyberspace

Cyberflirting, 318
cybermania (cyberspace mania), 307–8. See also cyberspace addiction cyberpsychological niches audience versus social interaction, 275–76
experimentation versus restraint, 275
overview, 274–75
as resembling aggregates, 279
successful, 276–78
cyberpsychology applied, 13–14
birth of, 4–6
clinical, 13
defined, 22
future of, 17–20
immersive research, 11, 14–17
individual differences and subjectivity, 9–10 multifaceted quality of, 6–8
need for, 257–58
psychodynamic, 8–9
qualitative research, 10–13
cyberpsychology architecture. See also specific dimensions
applying theory of, 53
building communities, 268
and cyberspace addiction, 316
and distance education, 273
Index

cyberpsychology architecture (cont.)
eQuest, 396
identity dimension, 26–29, 383–84
interactive dimension, 32–35, 393–94
online environment for groups, 266
overview, 6–8, 25–26
physical dimension, 48–52, 392–93 reality dimension, 46–48, 389–92
sensory dimension, 37–40, 386–87
social dimension, 30–32, 384–85
temporal dimension, 40–46, 387–89
text dimension, 35–37, 385
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 381–82 and transference in cyberspace, 136 cyber-rape, 257

cyber-romances. See lovers, online
cybersex
general discussion, 142–43
needs behind, and cybersex addiction, 316–18 cyberspace
as alternative to dreaming, 368
birth of, 2–4
as dream world, 362–67
future of, 17–20
loose self-boundaries in, 366–67 online versus offline spaces, 23–25 personality of, 23
physics in, 363–64
as psychological space, 22–23
shape-shifting in, 367
spontaneous generation in, 364
time in, 364–65
as transitional space, 22 cyberspace addiction
and ability to function in life, 316 achievement, need for, 320–21 altered state of perception, need for, 319–20 Big Four, 310
diagnosing, 311–14
general discussion, 309–11
hidden needs behind, 314–16 imaginary synthesized realities, 357
integration principle, 325–26
intrusive nature of, 313 as manifesting transference, 139 medical problems related to, 314 mood, effect on, 313
and need for belonging, 321–22
overview, 308
and self-actualization, 324–25 sex, needs behind, 316–18 and social interaction needs, 322–24 symptoms of, 312
tolerance and withdrawal reactions, 314 cyberspace mania (cybermania), 307–8.
See also cyberspace addiction cyber-therapy. See eQuest; synthesized therapists; therapeutics cyborg beings. See synthesized beings cycles, in groups, 261–63 dark web (dark net), 99, 328–29
Darley, J. M., 107
Darwin, Charles, 8
dashes, in text communication, 176 dating sites, playing-at-love on, 140–41
Davies, Paul, 314
Davis, Miles, 154
Davis, Sammy, 238
death, fear of, 306
debaters, deviant behavior by, 340–42 decorations, in virtual worlds, 250 deep web. See dark web Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA), 407 deindividuation and anonymity, 99
and invisibility, 100 delight, as motivation for media transition, 285 denial of service attacks, 245 dependence clients with problems concerning, 388
fear of, 306
depersonalization, 64–65 depressive personality type, 81, 287, 343–44 derealization, 64–65
descriptions of photos, writing, 216–17 detached perspective, in synthesized realities, 359 developmental regression, 96 developmental stages of groups, 261–63 deviant behavior in cyberspace. See also aberrant avatars; cyberspace addiction advertisements, 334
automated interventions, 349–50 avoiding, 347–48
Bible Thumpers, 342
bots controlling, 350–51
checking, 348 commercially owned sites, 330 complex, 340–47
Index

and culture relativity, 329–30 cybercrime, 328–29
defining and controlling bad pictures, 334–37 depressives, 343–44
dumping, 346
frustration, role in, 330–31
gangs, 345–46
graffiti, 333
hacking, 346–47
harm caused by, 351–52
hurt, maim, and kill strategies, 348–49 identity switching and sock puppets, 343 identity theft, 342–43
image-related, 334–37
Kung Fu strategies, applying to, 347–49 language-related, 337–40 leader bashing, 339
lewd breathers, 337–38, 344–45
malware, 346–47
mild, 331–34
mischief, 332–33
need for education about, 351
newbie bashing, 338–39
by newbies, 331–32
and online disinhibition effect, 330–31
overview, 336, 328–29
pedophiles, 344–45
pornography, 335, 337
privately owned sites, 330 public role in managing, 351 revolutionaries, 340
scams, 345
self-destroyers, 339–40
spectrum of online deviance, 328 stalkers and cyberbullying, 338 subcultures, 333–34
suicidal proselytization, 344
techno-deviance, 346–47
tenacious debaters, 340–42
trolls, 341–42
verbal exhibitionists, 338 device errors, role in media transitions, 282–83 Dewan, N. A., 402
Dibbell, Julian, 257
Dickens, Charles, 396
digital classrooms. See distance education

digital divide, 32
digital dualism, 24
digital psyche. See also self cyberspace as compromising identities, 89–94

integration principle, 83–89
overview, 69
personality types in cyberspace, 80–83 reactions to lack of feedback, 92–93
self-correcting mechanisms, 93–94
superficiality of online relationships, 91–92 susceptibility to compromised self-identity, 92
symbiotic connectedness, 89–91
disapproval, in buttonized relating, 122–23 discomfort with diversity stage (stage 5), 122
online groups, 262
discussion groups, 16, 255, 396–97

See also online disinhibition effect

displacement, 331

See also online disinhibition effect

disassociation

anonymity and online disinhibition effect, 98–100
identity, 72–75
virtual worlds as attracting people suffering from, 248
when conducting multiple private conversations, 188
dissociative imagination

and conflicts, 150
and cyberflirting, 318
and online disinhibition effect, 103–4

dissociative personality type, 82, 343
dissonance, cognitive, 289
distance education/distance learning, 16
hybrid courses, 271
improving social media through, 273–74
instructors, 272–73
interpersonal aspects of learning, 273
overview, 271
young people, online savviness of, 272
distributed selves, 73
diversity

discomfort with in online groups, 262
in group composition, 279
distributed selves, 73
diversity

discomfort with in online groups, 262
in group composition, 265
Dixon, N. E., 212–13
Dodge City site, 346
Dewey, N. A., 402
Dibbell, Julian, 257
Dickens, Charles, 396
digital classrooms. See distance education

distance learning

digital divide, 32
digital dualism, 24
digital psyche. See also self cyberspace as compromising identities, 89–94
integration principle, 83–89
overview, 69
personality types in cyberspace, 80–83
reactions to lack of feedback, 92–93
self-correcting mechanisms, 93–94
superficiality of online relationships, 91–92 susceptibility to compromised self-identity, 92
symbiotic connectedness, 89–91
disapproval, in buttonized relating, 122–23
discomfort with diversity stage (stage 5), 122
online groups, 262
discussion groups, 16, 255, 396–97

See also online disinhibition effect

displacement, 331

See also online disinhibition effect

disassociation

anonymity and online disinhibition effect, 98–100
identity, 72–75
virtual worlds as attracting people suffering from, 248
when conducting multiple private conversations, 188
dissociative imagination

and conflicts, 150
and cyberflirting, 318
and online disinhibition effect, 103–4

dissociative personality type, 82, 343
dissonance, cognitive, 289
distance education/distance learning, 16
hybrid courses, 271
improving social media through, 273–74
instructors, 272–73
interpersonal aspects of learning, 273
overview, 271
young people, online savviness of, 272
distributed selves, 73
diversity

discomfort with in online groups, 262
in group composition, 279
distributed selves, 73
diversity

discomfort with in online groups, 262
in group composition, 265
Dixon, N. E., 212–13
Dodge City site, 346
Dewey, N. A., 402
Dibbell, Julian, 257
Dickens, Charles, 396
digital classrooms. See distance education

distance learning

digital divide, 32
digital dualism, 24
digital psyche. See also self cyberspace as compromising identities, 89–94
integration principle, 83–89
overview, 69
personality types in cyberspace, 80–83
reactions to lack of feedback, 92–93
self-correcting mechanisms, 93–94
superficiality of online relationships, 91–92 susceptibility to compromised self-identity, 92
symbiotic connectedness, 89–91
disapproval, in buttonized relating, 122–23
discomfort with diversity stage (stage 5), 122
online groups, 262
discussion groups, 16, 255, 396–97

See also online disinhibition effect

displacement, 331

See also online disinhibition effect

disassociation

anonymity and online disinhibition effect, 98–100
identity, 72–75
virtual worlds as attracting people suffering from, 248
when conducting multiple private conversations, 188
dissociative imagination

and conflicts, 150
and cyberflirting, 318
and online disinhibition effect, 103–4

dissociative personality type, 82, 343
dissonance, cognitive, 289
distance education/distance learning, 16
hybrid courses, 271
improving social media through, 273–74
instructors, 272–73
interpersonal aspects of learning, 273
overview, 271
young people, online savviness of, 272
distributed selves, 73
diversity

discomfort with in online groups, 262
in group composition, 279
distributed selves, 73
diversity

discomfort with in online groups, 262
in group composition, 265
Dixon, N. E., 212–13
Dodge City site, 346
Dewey, N. A., 402
Dibbell, Julian, 257
Dickens, Charles, 396
digital classrooms. See distance education

distance learning

digital divide, 32
digital dualism, 24
digital psyche. See also self cyberspace as compromising identities, 89–94
integration principle, 83–89
overview, 69
personality types in cyberspace, 80–83
reactions to lack of feedback, 92–93
self-correcting mechanisms, 93–94
superficiality of online relationships, 91–92 susceptibility to compromised self-identity, 92
symbiotic connectedness, 89–91
disapproval, in buttonized relating, 122–23
discomfort with diversity stage (stage 5), 122
online groups, 262
discussion groups, 16, 255, 396–97

See also online disinhibition effect

displacement, 331

See also online disinhibition effect

disassociation

anonymity and online disinhibition effect, 98–100
identity, 72–75
virtual worlds as attracting people suffering from, 248
when conducting multiple private conversations, 188
dissociative imagination

and conflicts, 150
and cyberflirting, 318
and online disinhibition effect, 103–4

dissociative personality type, 82, 343
dissonance, cognitive, 289
distance education/distance learning, 16
hybrid courses, 271
improving social media through, 273–74
instructors, 272–73
interpersonal aspects of learning, 273
overview, 271
young people, online savviness of, 272
distributed selves, 73
diversity

discomfort with in online groups, 262
in group composition, 279
distributed selves, 73
diversity

discomfort with in online groups, 262
in group composition, 265
Dixon, N. E., 212–13
Dodge City site, 346
Dewey, N. A., 402
Dibbell, Julian, 257
Dickens, Charles, 396
digital classrooms. See distance education

distance learning

digital divide, 32
digital dualism, 24
dreams altered state of perception through, 319–20 cyberspace as alternative to, 368 cyberspace as dream world, 319–20, 362–67
loose self-boundaries in, 366–67
lucid dreamers, 357, 368 negative feelings in response to images from, 215 physics in, 363–64
shape-shifting in, 367
spontaneous generation in, 364
time in, 364–65
Dressed to the Nines avatar, 241
droppings, 247
dualism, digital, 24
dysjunctions, intersubjective, 154–55
Dyson, Esther, 315
earth avatar, 240
eavesdropping, with avatars, 246 economy, of buttonized relating, 122, 123–25 Eddie Haskell maneuver, 348 editing, image, 202
education, online services related to, 16 educational groups. See distance education/distance learning ego dream, 367
observing, 71–72, 359
as self-regulating self, 76–78 tripartite model of psyche, 193
Einstein, Albert, 288, 353, 417
Eisenstaedt, Alfred, 222
Ekman, P., 201
electroconvulsive treatment (ECT), 371
Eliza effect, 406–7
Eliza interactive psychotherapy program, 5, 379, 406–7 Ellie computer program, DARPA, 407 ellipses (trailers), in text communication, 165, 176 Ellis, Albert, 405
email. See also asynchronous communication; spam; text talk creative keyboarding, 174–77
formatting, 179
greetings, 171–73
make-over of, 182–83
message body, 173
message title, 170–71
out-of-the-blue, transference in, 137
overview, 167, 168–69
quoted text, 178–79
sender name, 169
signature block, 181–82
sign-off line and name, 180–81 email therapy, 385. See also therapeutics embodiment. See avatars emerging leaders, effect on groups, 266 Emerson, Ralph Waldo, 158, 194 emojis, 176
emoticons, 153, 176–77 emotional attachment to avatars, 239 emotional hit and runs, 102 emotional impact, and buttonized relating, 120–21 emotional needs, and cybersex addiction, 316–18 emotional texting, 192–93
emotions
effect of cyberspace addiction on, 313
of human versus synthesized therapists, 403 negative, in response to dream images, 215
portrayed in images, 201 empathy, 117–18, 173, 366 enclaves, deviant, 333–34 encrypted connections, and online disinhibition effect, 99 End Time predictions, and Y2K scare, 305–6 Engelbart, D. C., 361 enthusiastic greetings, in text communication, 171–72 environment, online, for groups, 266–67 environmental avatars, 233, 240 environmental presence familiarity, 58
interaction, 57–58
movement and change, 56–57
overview, 55
sensory dimension, 55–56
environmental self-portraits, 204 environments, computer-generated. See media transitions ephemeral time, in cyberspace, 45 Epictetus, 351
Epstein, S., 80 equality, and online disinhibition effect, 105–6 cQuest, 16
consultant, relationship with, 398 and cyberpsychology architecture, 396 freeform browsing component, 399–400 information, analyzing, 395 initial stage, 394–95
integrative exercises, 400–1 online groups, participation in, 396–97
overview, 382, 394
personal bio page creation, 400 relationships, establishing, 397–98
text talk, 397–98
tools and resources supplied in, 398–99 Erikson, Erik, 27
erotic encounters, online, 142–43. See also cybersex
erotic transference, 131–32 essential self, 67, 79–80 e-therapy. See eQuest; synthesized therapists; therapeutics ethics, in research, 420–21, 423–24 evangelism, religious, 342 evangelism stage (stage 2), online groups, 262 evil avatars, 231–32
Evolution of Consciousness, 19 excess. See also media transitions; overload experiences cyberspace mania, 307–8 Gartner hype cycle, 307–8
overview, 281–82
spam, lessons from, 299–305
Y2K scare, lessons learned from, 305–7 feedback reactivity and online disinhibition effect, 101 reactions to lack of, 92–93 feeling language, using to resolve conflicts, 153 fear
over media transitions, 286–88
related to Y2K, 306
fear of missing out (FOMO), 94 feedback asynchronicity and online disinhibition effect, 101 expressive experiences in cyberspace, 13, 31 external validity, 11
face-to-face cues
experiential exercises in cyberspace, 13, 31
external validity, 11
eye contact, and online disinhibition effect, 100–1 face nites, The Palace, 232 Facebook, 424

face-to-face cues
lack of in text talk, 36, 163–64
and online disinhibition effect, 100–1
in online versus in-person relationships, 119
in synchronous versus asynchronous communication, 42 face-to-face world. See offline world facilitators, work group, 268–69 failure, media transition anxiety due to fear of, 286–87

familiarity
and environmental presence, 58
and interpersonal presence, 61–62
fantasized self, 76
fantasy lovers, 141–42
Farmer, Randy, 226
fear of
over media transitions, 286–88
related to Y2K, 306
feedback asynchronous and online disinhibition effect, 101 feeling language, using to resolve conflicts, 153
effect of cyberspace addiction on, 313
of human versus synthesized therapists, 403
negative, in response to dream images, 215
portrayed in images, 201 felt-sense exercises, 401 females, gender swapping by, 147–49 femininity, gender swapping to develop, 145 Fenichel, Michael, 4–5, 16, 179, 268
Festinger, L., 124
field research, cyberpsychology, 11 15-Minute Rule, for mobile texting, 192 filters, image, 202
Fiore, Q., 78
first person point of view for avatars, 252–53
in synthesized realities, 359 fit, between client and therapist, 403 Fitzgerald, F. Scott, 107 flaming/flame wars, 149, 179, 272, 341–42.
See also conflicts, online flashers, 247, 334
Flickr. See also stream of images audience versus social interaction, 275–76
deviant images, 335
experimentation versus restraint, 275 groups and communities, 274–78
niches, finding in, 274–75
photo overload, 296–97
photostream, 211, 212
successful niches, 276–78
therapeutic effects of photography, 224 flirting online, 318
flooding, 245, 346

© in this web service Cambridge University Press  www.cambridge.org flow experiences, 43, 313, 365 flow of images. See stream of images FOMO (fear of missing out), 94 formal greetings, in text communication, 171 formatting, in text communication, 179 forming and norming stage, groups, 261 forums, 255
forwarding spam, 304–5 founder, role in shaping groups, 263–64 free associations, use by synthesized therapists, 409 freedom fighters, 340–42 freeform browsing component, eQuest, 399–400
Freud, Anna, 106–7
Freud, Sigmund avatar of, 241
transference, 131–32
turning the passive into the active, 132
uncanny valley, 372
friendly greetings, in text communication, 171 Frisch, Max, 21
frozen time, in cyberspace, 44–45 frustration, role in deviant behavior, 330–31 future generations, in research, 426 Future Shock, 293
“Fwd” prefix, in spam, 303 gamification, 78
gangs, 345–46
Gardner, H., 370
Gartner hype cycle, 168, 307–8
Geezer Brigade. See The Geezer Brigade (TGB) gender confusion, 146
gender swapping
by females, 147–49
by males, 144–46
overview, 144
Gendlin, E., 401
generation, spontaneous, in dreams and cyberspace, 364 generativity principle, 174, 328 genuine love, online, 141 geographic location, in communication, 41 Gestalt psychology of perception, 252
Gibson, William, 2
GIFs (graphical image format), animated, 237
GMUKS (graphical multi-user konversations), 216–27. See also avatars; The Palace Godwin, M., 267
Godwin’s Law, 340 going public with images, 200 Goldberg, Ivan, 312
Goldberg, Ken, 379
Goldilock’s Effect, 91
Google+, 94, 296–97
Gracian, Baltasar, 124
graffiti
in avatar worlds, 244
as deviant behavior, 333 Greenfield, D., 310
greetings, in email, 171–73
Griffiths, M., 310
Grohol, John, 4–5
group boundary, 279–80
group dynamics theory, 250, 265 group polarization, 262 group texting
deep conversations through, 188–89
interpersonal misunderstandings in, 185
lags in conversations, 185–86
need for belonging and, 322
overview, 183–84
private conversations, 188
sample conversation, 184–85
staccato to-the-point speak, 186–88 groups. See also social media; specific groups; support groups audience versus social interaction, 275–76
building communities, principles for, 267–68 composition of members, 265
cycles and stages in, 261–63
defining, 278–80
discussion, 255, 396–97
distance education, 271–74
emerging leaders, effect of, 266
experimentation versus restraint, 275
Flickr, 274–78
founder, role in shaping, 263–64
The Geezer Brigade, 263–67
and mental health, 278
need for belonging, and cyberspace addiction, 321–22
niches, finding in, 274–75
online environment for, 266–67
overview, 253, 255
The Palace, 255–60
participant-observation research in, 419–20 psychological needs addressed by, 264–65
in social dimension, 31–32
successful niches, 276–78
human therapists, versus synthesized therapists, 401–4. See also therapeutics human-computer interaction (HCI), 33 human-computer symbiosis, 361 humanistic therapies, 405–7 humans, computer-synthesized.
See synthesized beings
Hume, David, 373
humility, of synthesized therapists, 409 humor, in The Geezer Brigade philosophy, 264–85 hybrid courses, distance education, 271 hype cycle, Gartner, 168, 307–8 hyperpersonal self, 29
hypertext, 3
“I” language, using to resolve conflicts, 153
IA (intelligence amplification), 361 id, 193, 328–29
idealized self, 29
idealizing transference, 135, 285, 374 identification with aggressor, 106 identity dimension. See also avatars; digital psyche; online disinhibition effect; self; synthesized beings choosing online expressions of self, 27–28 intersection between online and offline self, 28–29
key questions from, 29
overview, 26–27
psychological assessment of chatbot, 374–78
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 383–84 identity disruption, and avatar use, 247–48 identity manipulation, in The Palace, 259–60 identity switching, 343
identity theft, 342–43
idiosyncratic avatars, 232–33 ignorance, media transition anxiety due to, 288 image talk. See also avatars; self-portraits appearance, importance of, 202 combining with text talk, 216–22
commenting on photos, 219–22
descriptions of photos, writing, 216–17
going public, 200
increase in communication through, 35–36 insights from photosharing aficionados, 195
overview, 36, 193, 195
posting photos of others, 200, 207 psychological issues portrayed, 201–2 relationships, creating with text, 218–19 self-expression through, 199–202

Index

support, 223–24, 384–85, 396–97 work, 268–71
groupthink, 261
growth stage (stage 3), online groups, 262 guilt, and buttonized relating, 121 habitats, for avatars, 226–27. See also avatars;

The Palace
hacking, 346–47
hahahaha’s, in text communication, 177 haptic technology, 115 hashtags, in sidebar text, 175 have it your way strategies, 347–48 HCI (human-computer interaction), 33 health and cyberspace addiction, 314 mental, and social media, 278 problems related to cyberspace, 49 hearing, in relationships, 113–14, 117.
See also sensory dimension
Heaven’s Gate, 344
Heine, Henrich, 221
Heisenberg Uncertainty Principle, 370 helper therapy principle, 396 helplessness, fear of, 306 Heraclitus, 56
Hercules Taming Cerberus avatar, 241–42 hero personalities, gender swapping to explore, 147 Herrigel, E., 67
heterogeneity of group composition, 265 hidden needs behind cyberspace addiction, 314–16 hiding identity, with avatars, 228–29 hierarchy of needs, 285–86 high responders to image streams, 214 Hillebrand, Friedheim, 186
Hinduism, avatars in, 226 histrionic personality type, 81, 83, 161 hit and runs, emotional, 102 Hitchcock, Alfred, 373
Holland, N. N., 96, 131 home avatars. See primary avatars homogeneity of group composition, 265 homosexuality, gender swapping to explore, 145–46 homunculus, 72, 371 honesty, in image talk, 209 Hsiung, Robert, 4–5
Hubbard, Elbert, 36
Huh, S., 148

© in this web service Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
Index

image talk (cont.)
stream of images, 211–16
subject matter, 201
therapeutics, 222–24, 387 titles for photos, creating, 216–17 verbal and mental imagery systems, 196–99
"Wow Factor," 200–1
image therapeutics, 222–24, 387 imagery system, mental, 196–99 images. See also image talk deviant, 334–37
history of online use, 3 using to resolve conflicts, 153 imaginary synthesized realities, 356–58, 390–92 imaginary visuals, in online relationships, 115 imagination dissociative, 103–4, 150, 318
need for, 48
immersion, 55. See also presence immersive cyberpsychology research, 11, 14–17 impersonal greetings, in text
communication, 172
imposters, 247, 342–43
impulsive personalities, 161, 173 in real life (IRL). See offline world inanimate avatars, 236 incompatibility in preferred environments, 154 incompetence, media transition anxiety due to fear of, 286–87
indecision, as symptom of overload, 295 individual differences in disinhibition, 107–8 in interpersonal presence, 63, 64–65 in preferences regarding relationships, 126 in presence, 63–65
in psychological impact of image streams, 214
and subjectivity in cyberpsychology, 9–10 individualuation, disruption of, 89–91 Infinite Reality: The Hidden Blueprint of Our Virtual Lives, 47, 355, 369 informality, spam faking, 303 Ingham, Harrington, 205 inhibiting self, in sense of true self, 110 inhibition/disinhibition continuum, 108.
See also online disinhibition effect initial enthusiasm stage (stage 1), online groups, 262
in-person gatherings, influence on online
groups, 266–67
in-person relationships. See relationships in-person work group sessions, 269, 270–71 in-person world. See offline world insight therapies, 405–7 Instagram, 268
instant messaging. See group texting; mobile texting; synchronous communication instructors, distance education, 272–73 integrated physicality, 49–50, 360
integration principle, 14 balance as related to, 88–89 bringing offline behavior online, 88 bringing online behavior offline, 87–88 caveats about integration, 88
and cyberspace addiction, 325–26
in eQuest program, 400–1
hybrid courses, 271
meeting online companions online, 87 meeting online companions in-person, 87 in online groups, 266 online versus in-person relationships, 126
overview, 24, 83–86
self-correcting mechanisms, 94
and self-multiplicity, 74–75 sharing offline life with online companions, 86
sharing online life with offline
companions, 86
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 383
and work groups, 270–71
intellectualization, 289 intelligence artificial, 62
replicating human, 369–70 intelligence amplification (IA), 361
interaction
and environmental presence, 57–58
equilibrium between audience and, 275–76
and interpersonal presence, 60–61
spam faking, 303
interactive dimension. See also change; excess; media transitions; overload experiences attitudes towards cyberspace, 34–35
and cyberspace addiction, 316
key questions from, 35
learning curve, 33–34
overview, 32–33
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 393–94
interactivity, in synthesized realities, 359–60 interface, in interactive environments, 33 International Society for Mental Health Online (ISMHO), 16, 268, 271
Index

Internet, birth of, 3. See also cyberspace cyberspace addiction disorder, 7, 310. See also cyberspace addiction internet of things, 51 internet robots (bots), 350–51 interpersonal aspects, distance education, 273 interpersonal cues
lack of in text talk, 36, 163–64
and online disinhibition effect, 100–1
in online versus in-person relationships, 119
in synchronous versus asynchronous
communication, 42
interpersonal experiences. See relationships interpersonal misunderstandings, in chat rooms and group texting, 185 interpersonal perceptions. See also transference
black hole experiences, 155–57
gender swapping, 144–49
misperceptions, 138–39
online conflicts, 149–55
online lovers, 139–44
overview, 126
interpersonal presence
familiarity, 61–62
individual differences in, 63, 64–65
interaction, 60–61
movement and change, 59
overview, 58
psychoanalytic object relations theory, 64–65
sensory dimension, 58–59
intersected time, in cyberspace, 45 intersubjective dysjunctions, 154–55 interviews, in cyberpsychology research, 11 intimacy. See also lovers, online; relationships superficiality of online relationships, 91–92
and text talk, 163–64
intrapsychic homunculus, 72 introjection, solipsistic, 102–3, 150, 190 intrusive nature of cyberspace addiction, 313 intuition, in relationships, 117–18 invisibility, and online disinhibition effect, 100–1
IRL (in real life). See offline world irritable confusion, as symptom of overload, 295
ISMHO (International Society for Mental Health Online), 16, 268, 271 isolation, media transition anxiety due to fear of, 287
James, Clive, 305
James, William, 73
James Taylor avatar, 240–41
JenniCam phenomenon, 322
Johari’s window, 205–6
Johnson, D. W., 279
Johnson, F. P., 279
Joinson, A. N., 96
Jorgensen, D., 11
The Joy of Missing Out, 89
Joyce, James, 406
Jung, Carl, 70, 367
Jurgenson, N., 24
Kabat-Zinn, J., 298
Kahneman, Daniel, 219
Kapor, Mitchell, 293
Katkin, Ed, 9, 405
Kernell, John, 263–65, 266–67 keyboarding, creative, 174–77, 398 keywords, in sidebar text, 175
Kim, A. J., 267
King, S., 4–5, 343–44
Kintz, Jarod, 95
Kirwan, G., 311
Klinger, M. R., 213
Kohut, H., 74, 134–35
Kung Fu strategies, applying to deviant behavior, 347–49
Kurzweil, R., 369
LambdaMOO community, virtual rape in, 257 language, deviant. See also text dimension;
text talk
censoring, 349–50
leader bashing, 339
lewd breathers, 337–38
newbie bashing, 338–39
overview, 337
self-destroyers, 339–40
stalkers and cyberbullying, 338
verbal exhibitionists, 338
LaNier, J., 423–24
Lapidot-Lefler, N., 99, 101
Latané, B., 107
laughing out loud (LOL), in text
communication, 177
Law, A. L., 146
Le Bon, Gustave, 99
leader bashing, 339
leaders, emerging, effect of on groups, 266
Index

Learn to Write Badly: How to Succeed in the Social Sciences, 425 learning, vicarious/social, 369. See also distance education/distance learning
learning curve
  in interactive environments, 33–34 related to media transitions, 290 Lennon, John, 358 level of object relations, 374 leveling, as symptom of overload, 294–95 Levine, Murray, 10, 19
Levine, P. A., 371
lewd breathers, 337–38, 344–45
Lewis, C.S., 75
Licklider, J. C. R., 3, 361 life cycle of online groups, 262–63 Life on the Screen: Identity in the Age of the Internet, 22, 27, 89 lifestyle avatars, 236 like button. See buttonized relating Lima, Manuel, 293
listervs, 255
Loftus, E. F., 213
LOL (laughing out loud), in text
communication, 177
long forms, of text communication, 168 looking glass self, 60 loose self-boundaries, in dreams and cyberspace, 366–67 lovers, online
cybersex, 142–43
fantasy lovers, 141–42
in future, 143–44
genuine love, 141
overview, 139–40
playing-at-love, 140–41 low responders to image streams, 214
lucid dreamers, 357, 368
Luft, Joseph, 205
lumpers, 9
machine errors, role in media transitions, 282–83
machine intelligence, 34, 424 machines, transference involving. See also synthesized beings
  machine as child, 132–33
  machine as parent, 130–32
  machine as wished-for parent, 133–34
  and online relationships, 137–38
  overview, 129–30
selfobject transferences, 134–36
wished-for parent to machine child, 134 Madman, 410
magic, as motivation for media transition, 285 Mahler, Margaret, 89
Main Mansion, The Palace, 227, 249
Mainwaring, Simon, 380
males, gender swapping by, 144–46
malware, 300, 346–47
Mañana Principle (24 hour rule), 151 manic personality type, 81, 83, 285, 320 manifestation in avatar worlds with third person perspective, 253 self as, 71
manipulation
  based on big data, 424–25 of identity, in The Palace, 259–60 masochistic personality type, 81, 316 mastery, as motivation for media transition, 284 maturity stage (stage 6b), online groups, 263
Mayer, R. E., 216
McCloud, Scott, 228
McDougall, J., 371
McGinn, C., 362, 363
McKevitt, P., 216
McLuhan, M., 78, 79
McWilliams, N., 80–82, 92
Mead, G. H., 74
media equation, 227
media mental set, 288–90
media overload. See overload experiences media transitions anxiety over, 286–88 confusion, accepting, 290
  learning curve, 290
  machine errors, role in, 282–83 making, tips for, 290–92
  media mental set, 288–90
  motivation for, 283–86 observing before participating, 291
  overview, 282
  tech support, 291–92
  media-specific self, 78–79 medical problems related to cyberspace addiction, 314
  meditation, mindfulness, 66–67, 94, 298–99 members, composition of in groups, 265 memo mentality, 269 men, gender swapping by, 144–46 mental health online services related to, 16 and social media, 278 mental imagery system, 196–99. See also image talk The Mental Measures Yearbook, 370 mental set, media, 288–90 mental templates, 128–29. See also transference Merton, Thomas, 29
message boards, 255
message translation errors, 179 messages. See also chat rooms; email; mobile texting; text talk body of, 173
  conflicts arising from, resolving, 149–55
  out-of-the-blue, transference in, 137 microblogs, 168. See also text talk mind, theory of, 374
mindfulness meditation, 66–67, 94, 298–99 mind-merging, in text, 64–65 mind-reading, in relationships, 117–18 Minsky, M., 55
mirroring, selfobject transference through, 135 misbehavior. See aberrant avatars; deviant behavior in cyberspace mischief, as deviant behavior, 332–33
misperceptions
  interpersonal perceptions, 138–39 in text talk, 163 misunderstandings, in chat rooms and group texting, 185. See also conflicts, online mobile devices. See also machines, transference involving; mobile texting as involving physicality, 50
  symbiotic connectedness, 89
in therapeutics, 393
mobile texting clarity of messages, 192
  emotional texting, 192–93
  need for belonging and, 322
  overview, 167–68, 189–90
  pros and cons of, 190–91 responding, tips for, 191–92 similarity to traditional chat, 183 Monroe, Marilyn, 235 mood behavioral therapies to help manage, 404–5 and buttonized relating, 121
  effect of cyberspace addiction on, 313
  Moore, R., 346
Morahan-Martin, J., 310
Moran, T.P., 33
Mori, M., 372
Moscow on the Hudson, 293–94
motivation behind cyberspace addiction, 314–16 for media transitions, 283–86 movement
  and environmental presence, 56–57
  and interpersonal presence, 59 multimedia chat, 226–27. See also avatars; The Palace multiplicity, self, 72–75 multitasking
  and mindfulness, 298–99
  of presence, 65–67
  Munro, K., 102, 150–53
Murdoch, Iris, 358
mutual-aid movement
  and eQuest program, 396–97
  and photography, 223–24
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 384–85
Nadar, Felix, 203
Nagel, K., 262–63
names sender, in text communication, 169 sign-off, in text communication, 180–81 narcissistic personality type anthropomorphization by, 374
  and cyberspace addiction, 316, 320 media transition anxiety, 287 motivation for media transitions, 284
and newbie text users, 162–63
overview, 81
selfies, 208–9
self/other differentiation by, 64
tenacious debaters, 341
text empathy, lack of, 173
text talk, 161
trolls, 341
use of cyberspace by, 82
Nass, C., 374
natural life cycle of online groups, 262–63 Naughton, Michael, 209 necessity, as motivation for media transition, 284 needs
  hidden, behind cyberspace addiction, 314–16 hierarchy of, 285–86 negative feedback on photos, 220–21 negative feelings, in response to dream images, 215 negative self, 75–76
Negroponte, Nicholas, 14, 281
net democracy, 106 netiquette, 328. See also deviant behavior in cyberspace networks, history of, 2–3 Neuromancer, 2
neutrality, analytic, 403
newbies bashing, 338–39
deviant behavior by, 331–32 role of during media transitions, 286–87; 291 text users, 162–63
Newell, A., 33
news group personality, 82 niches, in groups and communities audience versus social interaction, 275–76
experimentation versus restraint, 275
group boundary, 280
overview, 274–75
as resembling aggregates, 279
successful, 276–78
non-digital world. See offline world non-verbal communication. See also face-to-face cues in online versus in-person relationships, 119
through avatars, 251
Norman, K. L., 6–7
norming stage, groups, 261 novelty
and environmental presence, 58
and interpersonal presence, 62
nowcasting, 422
Nrutas, The Palace, 240, 249 object constancy, 59 object relations level of, 374
and online disinhibition effect, 109
and presence, 64–65
psychoanalytic object relations theory, 60, 64–65 objective self-portraits, 203 O’Brien, E., 80
observation of media before participation, 291 of self through self-portraits, 204–5 observing ego, 71–72, 359 observing self, 205, 253 obsessive/compulsive personality type media mental set, 289
motivation for media transitions, 284–85
overview, 81
text talk, 161
use of cyberspace by, 83
Oculus Rift headset, 358–59 odd avatars, 235 offline self, intersection between online self and, 28–29. See also integration principle offline world
genuine love and, 141
versus online world, 23–25 and physical dimension, 52 oneness, longing for, 214–15 online dating sites, playing-at-love on, 140–41 online disinhibition effect, 7 and accelerated time in cyberspace, 43–44 anonymity, 98–100
asynchronicity, 101–2 attenuated status and authority, 105–6 and avatar use, 228
benign and toxic disinhibition, 96–98
and conflicts, 150, 154
and cyberflirting, 318
deviant behavior in cyberspace, 330–31 disinhibition/inhibition continuum, 108 Dissociative imagination, 103–4
displacement, 97–98
individual differences in disinhibition, 107–8 and inhibiting self, 109–11 invisibility, 100–1
overview, 94, 96
perceived privacy, 104–5 and self-boundary, 108–9 social facilitation, 106–7 solipsistic introjection, 102–3
text-mediated relationships, 119
and true self, 109–11
and work groups, 268, 269, 270 online educational groups. See distance education/distance learning online environment, for groups, 266–67 online groups and communities. See communities; groups online lovers. See lovers, online online personal space, 104–5 online psychotherapy. See therapeutics online publishing, of research, 425 online relationships. See relationships online savviness of young people, 272 online self. See digital psyche; identity dimension; self online support groups
and eQuest program, 396–97
involving photography, 233–24
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 384–85 online versus offline spaces, 23–25. See also integration principle online work groups. See work groups open-ended social environment. See The Palace operant theory, 320 oppositional personalities, 341 Oprah Winfrey animated GIF, 237 organic structures, recreating for synthesized beings, 370–72 organization of photos, 212 Ornstein, R., 19
out-of-the-blue messages, transference in, 137 over the shoulder point of view for avatars, 252–53
in synthesized realities, 359
overload experiences breaks, 297
indecision and regret, 295 irritable confusion, 295 leveling, 294–95
mindfulness, 298–99
in others, addressing, 299
overview, 292–94
photo overload, 296–97
physical activity, 297–98 reducing stimulation, 297 remedies for, 297–99
shutdown, 295–96
spam, lessons from, 299–305
symptoms of, 294–96
owl avatar, 240
pacing, in text talk, 164–66 paired avatars, 235–36
The Palace
aberrant avatars, 244–48
advertisements, 334
automated interventions, 349
avatar categories, 229 avoiding deviant behavior, 347 background graphics, 248–51
bots, 350
cartoon avatars, 231
The Cave, 333
checking deviant behavior, 348 classes and cliques, 258 collections of avatars for, 239–42 developmental process, 261 deviant behavior in, 329 deviant enclaves, 333
evil avatars, 232
evolution of avatars, 237 cassandra, 232
gangs, 345–46
graffiti, 333
groups and communities in, 255–60 hurt and maim strategies, 349 identity manipulation in, 259–60
identity switching, 343 image-related deviant behavior, 334–35 initial immigration to, 256–57
lewd breathers, 337–38, 344–45
loose self-boundaries in, 367
Main Mansion, 227, 249
mischievous behavior, 332–33
newbie bashing, 338–39
newbie misbehavior, 332 Nrutas, 240, 249
overview, 226–27
participant-observation research in, 15–16, 419
physicality in, 251, 252 physics-defying features, 363 picture scam, 345
The Pit, 249
psychological significance of avatars, 238 PUGsters, 258
rape of Quentin, 257
scams, 345
seductive avatars, 233–34
self-destroyers, 339–40
snert invasion, 257–58 social differentiation in, 258
suicidal proselytization, 344
techno-deviance, 346–47
tenacious debaters, 341 thought balloons, 366
time-out room, 349
2D, third person viewpoint in, 253 wizards, 232, 253, 259–60, 336–37
Women's Beach, 258
Palace User Group (PUGsters), 258 paralanguage, creative keyboarding as, 174
Index

paranoia
about cyberspace, 352
political, 340
paranoid personality type, 81, 83, 287 parenthetical expressions, in text
communication, 174–75
parents, transference involving machine as child, 132–33
machine as parent, 130–32
machine as wished-for parent, 133–34
overview, 128–29
wished-for parent to machine child, 134
See also communities; groups
See also communities; groups participatory medicine, 381 passive, turning into the active, 132, 338, 341 passive-aggressive personalities, 341 pathological use of cyberspace.
See also cyberspace addiction
perfectionism, as motivation for media transition, 284–85 performing, in groups and communities, 275–76 performing stage, groups, 262 Perls, Fritz, 38, 65–66 personal bio page, creating in eQuest program, 400 personal expression through avatars, 238–39 personal profiles for social media, 28 personal space online, 104–5
sense of when using avatars, 251 personal style, as seen through avatars, 239 personal touch, spam faking, 302–3 personality of cyberspace, 23
replicating human, 369
personality types in cyberspace. See also specific personality types and anthropomorphization, 374
and customized avatars, 230
and cyberspace addiction, 316
general discussion, 80–83
human versus synthesized therapists, 403 and image talk, 202
and online disinhibition effect, 108
and susceptibility to compromised self-identity, 92
and text talk, 160–62
personalized synthesized therapists, 407–8 person–situation debate, 80 perspectives
avatar, 252–53
in synthesized realities, 358–59
phantom vibration, 89 phone texting. See mobile texting
photo overload, 296–97
photographic psychology, 16–17, 195.
See also image talk photosharing communities. See also Flickr; image talk; self-portraits; stream of images deviant images, 335
insights from, 195
photo overload, 296–97
therapeutic effects of photography, 223–24
photostream, Flickr, 211, 212.
See also stream of images phototherapy, 213, 222–24, 387 physical activity, as remedy for overload, 297–98 physical contact
genuine love and, 141
in online versus in-person relationships, 115–16, 117 physical cues in communication. See face-to-face cues physical dimension
augmented reality, 51–52 boundary between spaces, 52 dissociated and integrated physicality, 49–50 incursions of digital realm into physical environments, 50–51
key questions from, 52
overview, 48–49
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 392–93 physical world. See offline world physicality integrated, 49–50, 360 sensations of when using avatars, 251–52 physics, in dreams and cyberspace, 363–64 Piaget, J., 289
picture scam, The Palace, 345
Picturephone, AT&T, 18
Pirsig, Robert, 64
The Pit, The Palace, 249 pit, virtual, 355–56
Pitt, Brad, avatar of, 234
Plato, 239
play, exploring identity through, 238–39 points of view
for avatars, 252–53
in synthesized realities, 358–59 polarization, group, 262 political attacks, 340
pornography, 318, 335, 337 positive self, 75–76 positive statements, using to resolve conflicts, 153 post-processing, image, 202 posts, out-of-the-blue, transference in, 137
power
gender swapping to experience, 148–49 of machines, transference related to perception of, 132 power avatars, 233, 241–42
The Power of Movies: How Screen and Mind Interact, 362 pranks, 332–33
preferred environments, incompatibility in, 154 presence architecture of, 62–67 and Be Here Now maxim, 65–66, 67
environmental, 55–58
individual differences in, 63–65
interpersonal, 58–62
mindfulness, 66–67
multitasking of, 65–67
overview, 53, 55
in synchronous versus asynchronous communication, 41–42
preservability
in cyberspace, 44–45
of text talk, 166–67 preventing deviant behavior, 347–48 preverbal dimensions in communication, 119 pride, as motivation for media transition, 284 primary avatars, 242, 248 primary process thinking, 109 privacy and online research, 423–24 perceived, and online disinhibition effect, 104–5 privacy paradox, 96
private conversations, in chat rooms and group texting, 188 privately owned sites, deviant behavior on, 330 profiles for social media, personal, 28 progress, measuring of by synthesized therapists, 410 projection
and black hole experiences, 156
in reaction to text communication, 150 prop-droppers, 247, 334–35 prop-gagging, 233–34
proselytization religious, 342
suicidal, 341
proteus effect, 228, 243, 369, 390
proximity, principle of, 132 psychodynamic theory, 8–9, 11 psychodynamics of digital psyche. See digital psyche psychological assessment of chatbot, 374–78 psychological benefits of writing, 161–62 psychological comments on photos, 221–22 psychological impact, and buttonized relating, 120–21 psychological impact of image streams conscious awareness, 213 dream images, 215
high and low responders, 214 images as meant to be, 215–16
individual differences in, 214 oneness and tranquility, longing for, 214–15
overview, 212–13
unconscious reactions, 213 psychological integration. See integration principle psychological issues
and avatar use, 247–48
and customized avatars, 230
portrayed in images, 201–2
Index

456 psychological needs addressed by groups, 264–65 and cybersex addiction, 316–18

psychological significance of avatars, 238–39 psychological space, cyberspace as, 22–23
The Psychology of Cyberspace, 5, 15, 155 psychopathic (antisocial or sociopathic) personality type anthropomorphization by, 374
and cyberspace addiction, 316
and newbie text users, 162–63
overview, 81
trolls, 341
use of cyberspace by, 82
psychosis, 248, 374
psychotherapeutics. See eQuest; synthesized therapists; therapeutics public self-expression through images, 200 publishing research, 425 PUGsters (Palace User Group), 258 push the power down strategies, 347–48
qualitative research, 10–13
Qualitative Research Methods in Photographic Psychology, 17
Quentin, rape of, 257
Questions of Gender, 146 quoted text, in text communication, 178–79 quotes, using as photo titles, 217 radarapp, Twitter, 350
rant websites, 329
rape of Quentin, 257
rapport, with human versus synthesized therapists, 402–3 rational-emotive synthesized therapists, 409 rationalization, 289
"re:" prefix in subject line, 170–71 reaction formation, 233 reading skills, 160, 161 real face avatars, 232
real self, 76
real world. See offline world real world scenarios, simulations of, 354–56 realism
in image talk, 209 tyranny of, 356
reality
cyberspace as imitating and defying, 37–38 illusive nature of, 47–48 of synthesized realities, 358 reality dimension. See also synthesized beings; synthesized realities illusive nature of reality, 47–48
key questions from, 48
overview, 46–47
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 389–92 reality testing, 103–4
real-time texting, 165
receptive experiences in cyberspace, 13, 31 reciprocal reactivity, and environmental presence, 57–58 reciprocity, rule of for mobile texting, 192 recognition, in The Geezer Brigade philosophy, 264–65 recordability, in cyberspace, 44–45 recording, by synthesized therapists, 410 Reeves, B., 374
reflection
in synchronous versus asynchronous communication, 42
use by synthesized therapists, 408 regression, as motivation for media transition, 96 regret, as symptom of overload, 295 regular text users, 162
reinforcement, as motivation for media transition, 285 rejection, media transition anxiety due to fear of, 287 relationships. See also groups; integration principle; text talk Be Here Now maxim, 55, 65–66
black hole experiences, 155–57
buttoned relating, 120–25
comparison test between in-person and online, 125–26
and cyberspace addiction, 322–24 ending online, 154–55
in eQuest program, 397–98
individual differences in preferences regarding, 126 male/female, gender swapping to understand, 145
online conflicts, 149–55
online lovers, 139–44
overview, 11, 113
paradoxical nature of in cyberspace, 324 perceiving transference in, 138–39 role of text versus images in creating, 218–19 sensory dimensions of, 113–18
in social dimension, 30–31
superficiality of online, 91–92

© in this web service Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
Index

457 text-mediated, 118–20

therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 384–85
transference in cyberspace, 136–38 relativity, cultural, and deviant behavior, 329–30 relaxation techniques, conducted by synthesized therapists, 404–5 relevancy, in synchronous versus asynchronous communication, 42 reliability, of cyberspace addiction concept, 311–12 replies, spam faking, 303 reposting. See buttonized relating rereading old text, 167 research becoming subject in, 419–20
big data, 421–25
case study method, 418–19
ethics, 420–21, 423–24 future generations, considering in, 426 overview, 410–18 publishing, 425
sample, defined, 421
sampling bias, 422, 423
self-selected samples, 421–22 restraint, equilibrium between experimentation and, 275 retribution, fear of, 306 revolutionaries, deviant behavior by, 340 Rheingold, H., 4, 255
rich text, 179
Richardson, A., 78, 196
Riessman, F., 396
Rift headset, Occlus, 358–59
Ringley, Jennifer, 322
Robin (Palace member), 260 robots, internet (bots), 350–51. See also synthesized beings Rogerian therapy, 406
Rogers, Fred, 128
role theory, 74
romances, online. See lovers, online Rosenhan, D., 10
rule of reciprocity, for mobile texting, 192 sample, in research, 421
sampling bias, 422, 423
Santayana, George, 19, 254 sarcasm, 150
saving text talk, 166–67
scams, 345

schizoid personality type, 81, 83, 161, 316 Second Life, 15–16, 227, 390 second-guessing, as symptom of overload, 295
seductive avatars, 233–35 self. See also digital psyche; identity dimension;
  online disinhibition effect
cyberspace as compromising identities, 89–94 identity dissociation and integration, 72–75 media-specific, 78–79
overview, 67, 69
positive or negative, 75–76
reactions to lack of feedback, 92–93
real and fantasized, 76 self-as-awareness, 71–72 self-as-manifestation, 71 self-as-structure, 69–70 self-as-transcendent, 70–71 self-as-willing-and-doing, 72
self-correcting mechanisms, 93–94 self-multiplicity, 72–75 self-regulating, 76–78
superficiality of online relationships, 91–92 susceptibility to compromised self-identity, 92
symbiotic connectedness, 89–91
ture and essential, 67, 79–80, 109–11 self-actualization benign disinhibition as, 97
and cyberspace addiction, 324–25
as motivation for media transition, 285–86
overview, 77, 78
self-awareness, 71–72
self-boundaries
in dreams and cyberspace, 366–67
and online disinhibition effect, 108–9 self-cohesion, 74. See also integration principle
self-correcting mechanisms, 93–94 self-destroiers, deviant behavior by, 339–40 self-expression by proxy, 79 self-expression through images appearance, importance of, 202
going public, 200
overview, 199
psychological issues portrayed, 201–2
subject matter, 201
“Wow Factor,” 200–1
self-harm, 344
self-help movement. See also eQuest
and photography, 223–24
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 384–85, 393–94

© in this web service Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-12874-3 - Psychology of the Digital Age: Humans Become Electric
John R. Suler

Index

More information

Cambridge University Press

Cambridge University Press
selfies, 201, 207–8. See also self-portraits selfobject, device as, 89, 283 selfobject transference, 64–65, 134–36 self/other differentiation, 64–65 self-portraits “clones,” 193
environmental, 204
information revealed in, 204 Johari’s window, 205–6
objective, 203
observation of self through, 204–5 opinions of others regarding, 206–7
overview, 203
selfies, 207–8
spontaneous versus composed, 207–8 stream of, information revealed through, 209–11 subjective, 203–4
therapeutic effects of photography, 223 365 projects, 210
self-presence, 60, 64–65 self-regulating self, 76–78
self-selected samples, 421–22
send and forget strategy, mobile texting, 192 sender name, in text communication, 169 sensation seekers, 357 sensory dimension. See also avatars; image talk; synthesized beings; synthesized realities and environmental presence, 55–56
imitating and defying reality, 37–38
and interpersonal presence, 58–59
key questions from, 40
online versus in-person relationships, 113–18
overview, 37
psychological experiences related to, 38–40 and text dimension, 39
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 386–87 sensory overload, 38, 293. See also overload experiences sentient self, 71–72
separation
clients with problems concerning, 388 disruption of, 89–91 set-dressing, in virtual worlds, 250 sex
cybersex, 142–43, 316–18
needs behind, and cyberspace addiction, 316–18 transference related to, 131–32 sex, swapping. See gender swapping sexting, 142
sexual harassment, 257 sexual predators, 344–45 sexuality gender swapping to explore, 145–46 spam activating, 302
sexy avatars, 233–35
Shakespeare, William, 68
shallowness, cyberspace as promoting, 91–92 shape-shifting, in dreams and cyberspace, 367 Shaw, George Bernard, 127, 423 shocking avatars, 235
Short, J., 58
short forms, online text communication, 168 short messaging system (SMS), 186. See also group texting; mobile texting shutdown, as symptom of overload, 295–96 sidebar text, in text communication, 175, 366–67 Siggie program, in Madman, 410
The Signal and the Noise, 423 signature block, in text communication, 181–82 sign-off line and name, in text communication, 180–81 Silver, N., 423
Simmel, Georg, 293
simulations of real world scenarios, 354–56 singularity, 306, 369, 370 Skeezil (Palace member), 259–60 skills, text talk, 159–60 sleeping avatars, 246
Small Pieces Loosely Joined, 255 smell, in relationships, 116–17. See also sensory dimension smiley avatars, 229
smiley emoticon, 176
SMS (short messaging system), 186. See also group texting; mobile texting smug complacency and stagnation stage (stage 6a), online groups, 262–63 Snapchat phone application, 45 snerts (snot-nosed eros-ridden teenagers), invasion of The Palace by, 257–58 Snow Crash, 226
social bartering, in buttonized relating, 122 social comparison theory, 124–25 social conformity, in buttonized relating, 122
social currency
and buttonized relating, 122, 123–25
and Flickr, 276
social differentiation, in The Palace, 258 social dimension. See also communities; groups; interpersonal perceptions; relationships; transference
key questions from, 32
overview, 30
relationships, 30–31
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 384–85 social events designed for avatars, 244 social experiences in cyberspace, 13 social facilitation, and online disinhibition effect, 106–7 social interaction and cyberspace addiction, 322–24 equilibrium between audience and, 275–76 through avatars, 242–44 social learning, 369 social media, 13. See also avatars; groups; image talk; specific social media; text talk buttoned relating, 120–25
harvesting of data through, 423–24 improving through distance education, 273–74
and interpersonal presence, 61
and mental health, 278
and online expressions of self, 28
out-of-the-blue messages, transference in, 137 relationships through, 31–32 and solipsistic introjection, 103 special interest groups in, 255
symbiotic connectedness, 89–90
social networking, 13 social presence, 58. See also interpersonal presence sociopathic personality type. See psychopathic personality type sock puppets, 245, 343
solipsistic introjection, 102–3, 150, 190
solitary sexual activities, 318 Sony AIBO, 374
sorrow, and buttoned relating, 121 spam activating anxiety, 302 activating archetypal concerns, 301–2 activating cultural preoccupations, 301 activating sexuality, 302 automation as defense against, 300–1 constipation, 304
faking informality and acquaintance, 303 faking personal touch, 302–3 faking replies and interactions, 303 forwarding, 304–5
overview, 299–301
quirky attention-grabbers, 303–4 weeding by hand, 301
special interest groups, in social media, 255 spirituality, and cyberspace addiction, 325 splitters, 9–10
splitting, 307, 316, 339 spontaneity in self-portraits, 207–8
in synchronous versus asynchronous communication, 41
in text communication, 173 spontaneous generation, in dreams and cyberspace, 364 spoofing with avatars, 245 in spam, 303
spoon-feeders, 137
Spradley, J. P., 11
staccato speak, in chat rooms and group texting, 186–88 stages, in groups, 261–63 stagnation stage (stage 6a), online groups, 262–63 stalkers, 338
standardization, in interactive environments, 33 statistical approaches, in research, 421–25 status attenuated, and online disinhibition effect, 105–6 in The Palace, 258 stealing avatars, 233, 239, 247
identity theft, 342–43
Stein, Gertrude, 294
Stephenson, Neal, 226
Sterling, B., 2
stimulation, reducing, as remedy for overload, 297 Stoefle, Gary, 4–5
Stolorow, R., 154
storming stage, groups, 261–62 stream of images conscious awareness, 213
dream images, 215
high and low responders, 214
images as meant to be, 215–16
individual differences in response, 214 oneness and tranquility, longing for, 214–15
stream of images (cont.)
organization of, 212
overview, 211–12
psychological impact of, 212–16
unconscious reactions, 213 structure, self as integrated or dissociated self, 72–75
overview, 69–70
styles, text talk, 159–60 stylometry, computational, 160–61 subcultures, deviant, 333–34 subject lines, in email, 170–71 subject matter, of photos, 201 subjective analysis, in research, 419–20 subjective self-portraits, 203–4 subjectivity
in cyberpsychology, 9–10 in participant-observation research, 12–13 subliminal stimulation, 212–13
suicidal proselytization, 344
superego, 193, 328–29
superficiality of online relationships, 91–92 support, in buttonized relating, 121 support groups
and eQuest program, 396–97
involving photography, 223–24
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 384–85
swapping genders. See gender swapping Sweller, J., 293
symbiotic connectedness, 89–91
synchronous communication. See also chat rooms; mobile texting versus asynchronous communication, 40–43
and experience of time, 164–66
and presence, 67
real-time texting, 165
synchronous psychotherapy, 387–88 synthesized beings. See also avatars;
synthesized therapists
anthropomorphization, 373–74 complexity of recreating organic structures, 370–72
general discussion, 378–79
psychological assessment of chatbot, 374–78 relationships with, 31
uncanny valley, 372–73
versions of oneself, 368–70 synthesized realities
body immersion experiences, 360–61
brain stimulated experiences, 360, 361–62
cyberspace as alternative to dreaming, 368
cyberspace as dream world, 362–67 difficulty distinguishing reality from, 47–48
general discussion, 378–79
imaginary, 356–58
as imitating and defying reality, 37–38
interactivity, 359–60
loose self-boundaries in, 366–67
overview, 352, 354
physics in, 363–64
reality of, 358
shape-shifting in, 367
spontaneous generation in, 364
in therapeutics, 389–93
time in, 364–65
true-to-life, 354–56
viewpoints, 358–59
synthesized therapists
analysis of information by, 401–2 behavioral therapies, 404–5
cognitive therapies, 405, 409 cost and accessibility, 403–4 Eliza, 379, 406–7
Ellie, 407
emotions, 403
free associations, 409 versus human therapists, 401–4 humility of, 409
improving design of, 407 limits, knowledge of, 410 in Madman, 410
overview, 382
personality style, 403 personalized, 407–8 progress, measuring, 410 psychoanalytic and humanistic therapies, 405–7 rapport with, 402–3
rational-emotive, 409 recording by, 410
reflection by, 408
types of psychotherapy conducted by, 404–7 as unconditionally accepting, 408 wisdom of, 408–9
tactile contact, in relationships, 115–16, 117 tactile stimulation, and environmental presence, 55–56. See also sensory dimension talking cure therapies, 405–7 Tantalus Effect, 92
Index

taste, in relationships, 116–17
Taylor, James, avatar of, 240–41
Teaching Clinical Psychology website, 406 tech support, during media transitions, 291–92 technical comments on photos, 221 technical failures, media transition anxiety due to fear of, 287–88
techno-deviance, 346–47
telepathy, in relationships, 117–18 telepresence, 55. See also presence templates, mental, 128–29. See also transference temporal cues, in communication, 42 temporal dimension accelerated time, 43–44
and environmental presence, 56–57 ephemeral time, 45
frozen time, 44–45
intersected time, 45
key questions from, 45–46
and online disinhibition effect, 101–2
overview, 40
synchronous versus asynchronous communication, 40–43
and text talk, 164–66
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 387–89
The Terminator, 52
Tests in Print, 370

text dimension. See also online disinhibition effect; text talk
key questions from, 37
negative aspects of text, 35–36
overview, 35
positive aspects of text, 36–37
and sensory dimension, 39
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 385
text empathy, 173
text talk. See also text dimension avid text users, 162
chat rooms and group texting, 183–89 combining with image talk, 216–22
commenting on photos, 219–22 conflicts, resolving, 149–55 continuum of long to short forms, 168
creative keyboarding, 174–77
and cultural differences, 193
descriptions of photos, writing, 216–17
e-mail, overview, 167, 168–69 e-mail make-over, 182–83
in eQuest program, 397–98
experience of time in, 164–66
formatting, 179
genuine love and, 141
greetings, 171–73
and hearing, 114
intuitive connections through, 118 lack of face-to-face cues in, 163–64
message body, 173
message title, 170–71
mobile texting, 167–68, 189–93
newbie or casual text users, 162–63 online text formats, 167–68
overview, 35, 157, 159
and personality, 160–62
and presence, 63
preservation of, 166–67
quoted text, 178–79
regular text users, 162
relationships, creating with, 218–19 rereading old text, 167 and selfobject transferences, 64–65
sender name, 169
and sensory dimension, 39
signature block, 181–82
sign-off line and name, 180–81
as skill, 36
skills, styles, and attitudes, 159–60
therapeutic aspects of digital realm, 385
titles for photos, creating, 216–17 user types, 162–63
and vision, 114
texting. See group texting; mobile texting

text-mediated relationships, 118–20
The Geezer Brigade (TGB)
composition of members, 265
emerging leaders, effect of, 266
founder, role in shaping, 263–64
online environment for, 266–67
overview, 263
psychological needs addressed by, 264–65
The Onion Router (TOR network), 99
The Palace Incorporated (TPI), 260
Th e ft of avatars, 233, 239, 247
identity, 342–43
thematic style, classifying avatars by, 230 Themistocles, 309
theory of mind, 374
therapeutic photography, 222–24 therapeutic process, sharing images as, 200 therapeutics. See also eQuest; synthesized therapists acceleration of, 388–89 in digital age, 381–82
identity dimension, 383–84
interactive dimension, 393–94
overview, 379, 381–82
physical dimension, 392–93
reality dimension, 389–92
sensory dimension, 386–87
social dimension, 384–85
temporal dimension, 387–89
text dimension, 385
They’re Made Out of Meat, 370 thinking, cognitive therapies to modify, 405, 409 third person viewpoint, for avatars, 253 thought balloons, The Palace, 366
365 projects, 210
3D virtual worlds, 252–53
Thumpers, Bible, 342
Tikhomirov, O. K., 4
tile configuration, photosharing communities, 211 time, in dreams and cyberspace, 364–65.
See also temporal dimension time-out room, The Palace, 349 Time-Warner. See The Palace
titles for photos, creating, 216–17
in text communication, 170–71
Toffler, A., 293
 tolerance reactions, cyberspace addiction, 314 TOR network (The Onion Router), 99 to-the-point speak, in chat rooms and group texting, 186–88 touch, in relationships, 115–16, 117 toxic disinhibition, 96–98 TPI (The Palace Incorporated), 260 trailers (ellipses), in text communication, 165, 176 transquility, longing for, 214–15 transcendence, in avatar worlds, 253 transcendent self, 70–71
transdisciplinary theory of cyberpsychology.
See cyberpsychology architecture transference, 12. See also interpersonal perceptions and anthropomorphization, 374
and avatars, 238
and black hole experiences, 156
countertransference, 387
in cyberspace, 129–30
and cyberspace addiction, 323–24
erotic, 131–32
exploring in eQuest program, 397
fantasy lovers, 141–42
idealizing, 135, 285, 374 involving instructors, 272 machine as child, 134–35
machine as parent, 130–32
machine as wished-for parent, 133–34
media mental set, 289
mirroring, 135
and online disinhibition effect, 96
in online relationships, 30–31, 136–38
overview, 128–39
perceiving, 138–39
in playing-at-love, 140–41
in reaction to text communication, 150
and reality dimension, 47 related to companies operating social media, 260 selfobject, 64–65, 134–36
and solipsistic introjection, 102
and text talk, 163
twinship, 135, 136, 137, 374 when calling tech support, 291 wished-for parent to machine child, 134 transforming identity, with avatars, 228–29 transitional space, cyberspace as, 22, 135–36 transitions, media. See media transitions transsexuals, gender swapping by, 145–46 transvestites, gender swapping by, 145–46
tripartite model of psyche, 193, 328–29 trolling, 152, 341–42
true and essential self, 67, 79–80, 109–11 true-to-life synthesized realities, 354–56 truisms, use by synthesized therapists, 408–9 Tuckman, B., 43, 261–62
Turing Test, 31, 62, 375
Turlie, S. boundary between mind and machine, 22 concerns over texting, 190 cyberspace and identity, 89
distributed selves, 73
expressions of self, 27
Goldilock’s Effect, 91
superficiality of online relationships, 91
symbiotic connectedness, 89, 90 warning about losing sense of self, 29
turning the passive into the active, 132, 338, 341
Index

463

tuxedo avatar, 241
Twain, Mark, 423
24 hour rule (Mañana Principle), 151 twinning relationships, 60
twinship transference, 135, 136, 137, 374 Twitter, 168, 186, 350
2D virtual worlds, 253
typed language. See text dimension; text talk uncanny, sense of related to interpersonal presence, 61

uncanny valley, 372–73
unconditional acceptance, by synthesized therapists, 408 unconscious media transition anxiety, 288, 289 unconscious mind in psychodynamic theory, 9 spontaneous generation by, 364 unconscious reactions to image streams, 213 undoing, in buttonized relating, 121 unidentifiability, 99
universality, 397
University of Nebraska, 370 unknown, fear of, 287, 306 untagging, 200
usernames, 169

validity of cyberspace addiction concept, 311–12 external, 11
verbal exhibitionists, 338
verbal system, 196–99. See also text talk verbalizers, 78, 198. See also text talk vicarious learning, 369 video conferencing, in therapeutics, 389 videophone, 18
videos, 199. See also image talk viewpoints
avatar, 252–53
in synthesized realities, 358–59 virtual addiction, 310. See also cyberspace addiction virtual beings. See synthesized beings
The Virtual Community, 4, 255 virtual pit, 355–56
virtual rape, 257
virtual reality. See also augmented reality; synthesized realities difficulty distinguishing reality from, 47–48

as imitating and defying reality, 37–38
overview, 354
virtual worlds, 226–27. See also avatars; The Palace vision, in relationships, 114–15, 117 visual aspects of sensory dimension. See avatars; image talk; sensory dimension visual overload, 293. See also overload experiences visual stimulation, and environmental presence, 55–56. See also sensory dimension visual style, 202 visualizers, 78, 198. See also image talk Vixie, Paul, 327
voice, in relationships, 113–14, 117 voice accentuation, in text
communication, 175
Voiskounsky, A., 4, 43, 313
voyeurs, 246
vulnerability, in image talk, 209 Walther, J. B., 29
wannabe avatars, 241
Warhol, Andy, 112
Warren, Rick, 97
Waseem, Muhammad, 140–41 web, birth of, 3. See also cyberspace web page, creating in eQuest program, 400 Weinberger, D., 255
Weiner, Anthony, 335
Weiser, J., 213, 222–23, 387
Weizenbaum, Joseph, 406
Weyer, Edward Moffat, 20
Whitman, Walt, 54
Whitty, M., 140–41
Whyte, W. F., 10
Wiederhold, Brenda, 389–90
Wiederhold, Mark, 389–90
Wilde, Oscar, 148
Williams, D., 148
Williams, E., 38
willing, self as, 72
Wilson, Daniel, 373
Winfrey, Oprah, animated GIF of, 237
winky emoticon, 176
Winnicott, D., 22, 238–39 wisdom, of synthesized therapists, 408–9 withdrawal reactions, cyberspace addiction, 314 Wittgenstein, Ludwig, 119

© in this web service Cambridge University Press  www.cambridge.org
Index

See also aberrant avatars; deviant behavior in cyberspace; The Palace women, gender swapping by, 147–49 Women’s Beach, The Palace, 258 word choice, importance in resolving conflicts, 153
work groups
barriers between online and in-person, 270–71 moving online as changing, 269
overview, 268–69
resistance to online, 269–70 working through, benign disinhibition as, 97 World Wide Web, birth of, 3. See also cyberspace worlds, avatar, 226–27. See also avatars; The Palace

“Wow Factor” in buttonized relating, 120–21 and self-expression through images, 200–1 writing skills, 159–60, 161, 269. See also text talk writing therapy, 161–62, 386 Y2K scare, 305–7
Yalom, I., 279–80, 378
Yee, N., 228
Yik Yak text messaging system, 49
Young, K., 4–5, 7, 310 young people, online savviness of, 272. See also distance education/distance learning Zen in the Art of Archery, 67
Zen Stories to Tell Your Neighbors website, 79–80