

CONTENTS

Foreword by James Crawford	page xiii
Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xxi
Notes on Citations	xxiii
Table of International and National Decisions and Opinions	xxvii
Table of Treaties and International Instruments (in Chronological Order)	xxxix
List of Abbreviations	xlv
1 Peremptory Norms and Their Legal Consequences as a Feature of General International Law	1
A Introduction	1
a Preliminary Considerations	1
b Doctrinal History	7
c Terminological Clarifications	11
d Legal Consequences as a Relevant Characteristic of Peremptory Norms	14
B Peremptory Norms as a Feature of General International Law and the Relevance of Persistent Objection	18
C Peremptory Norms and Their Consequences as an Aspect of Multilateral Legal Relations in International Law	23
a Typology of Obligations	24
b Standing to Invoke the Breach of a Multilateral Obligation	28
c Legal Consequences of Peremptory Norms as a Characteristic of Multilateral Obligation	34
D Peremptory Norms in the Jurisprudence of the ICJ	47
a Before Acceptance of the Concept	47
b After Acceptance of the Concept	49
E Do These Consequences Follow from a Single Concept?	51
F Conclusions	53

- 2 Legal Consequences for Treaties 54
- A Introduction 54
  - B States' Positions during the Drafting of Articles 53 and 64 56
  - C Consequences under Articles 53, 64, 65, 66 and 71 VCLT 62
    - a Derogation, Conflict, Invalidity and Termination 64
    - b Dispute Resolution and Consequences of Invalidity 72
  - D The Relevance of Peremptory Norms for Treaty Interpretation 82
    - a Interpretive Presumptions 82
    - b Systemic Integration 87
  - E Consequences for Treaty Registration 91
  - F Conclusions 93
- 3 Peremptory Norms Outside the Vienna Convention: Treaties of Questionable Validity by Reason of Their Content 95
- A Introduction 95
  - B The Agreement for the Cession by Czechoslovakia to Germany of Sudeten German Territory 96
  - C The Secret Additional Protocol to the Treaty of Non-Aggression Between the USSR and Germany of August 1939 and the Soviet-German Friendship and Frontier Treaty and Protocols of September 1939 103
  - D The Protocol of Sèvres 106
  - E The Treaty of Guarantee 109
  - F Exchange of Notes Concerning British Indian Ocean Territory 116
  - G The Camp David Accords 118
  - H The Timor Gap Treaty 119
  - I The European Union-Morocco Fisheries Partnership Agreement 122
  - J Conclusions 127
- 4 Legal Consequences for Security Council Resolutions 128
- A Introduction 128
  - B Validity in the Event of a Conflict with a Peremptory Norm 129
    - C Reviewability for a Conflict with a Peremptory Norm 138
  - D Peremptory Norms as a Basis for the Interpretation of Security Council Resolutions 144
  - E Conclusions 151

CONTENTS

xi

5	Legal Consequences for Certain Unilateral Acts	152
	A Introduction	152
	B Consequences for Unilateral Acceptances of Jurisdiction	155
	C Consequences for Unilateral Acts of Waiver	157
	D Consequences for Reservations to Treaties	161
	E Consequences for Unilateral Declarations of Independence	167
	F Consequences for Unilateral Declarations Capable of Creating Legal Obligations	171
	G Standing to Invoke the Conflict of a Unilateral Act with a Peremptory Norm	178
	H Charter-Based Authority to Make a Declaration of Invalidity and/or Unlawfulness	180
	I Conclusions	183
6	Legal Consequences in the Law of International Responsibility	184
	A Introduction	184
	a Terminology and Basic Consequences	184
	b Seriousness Threshold	187
	c Limits to the Consequences of a Serious Breach	190
	B Collective Non-Recognition	193
	a Origins	193
	b Practice	197
	c Exceptions	204
	C Collective Non-Assistance	207
	D Obligation of Co-operation and Third-Party Countermeasures	212
	a Co-operation	212
	b Third-Party Countermeasures	215
	c Exercise of Collective Response Measures	219
	E Are These Consequences Peculiar to a Serious Breach?	222
	F Unavailability of Circumstances Precluding Wrongfulness	224
	G Issues Arising for the Responsibility of International Organizations	228
	a Basic Concepts	228
	b Legal Position of International Organizations with Respect to a Serious Breach	232
	H Conclusions	240

7	Conflict between a Peremptory Norm and General International Law: Legal Consequences for State Immunity	242
	A Introduction	242
	B Scope for Conflict between a Peremptory Norm and State Immunity	243
	a Application of Principles Governing Normative Conflict	243
	b Scope for Normative Conflict between Peremptory Norms and Other Rules of General International Law	244
	c Possibility of Normative Conflict between Peremptory Norms and Rules Governing State Immunity	245
	C Peremptory Norms and State Immunity: Possible Bases for an Exception	246
	a Three Possible Grounds in Support of an Exception	248
	i Character of the Act in Question	248
	ii Hierarchy of Norms	254
	iii Implied Waiver	256
	b Problems Associated with an Exception to State Immunity	257
	D International Practice on Peremptory Norms and State Immunity	259
	a International Instruments	260
	b National Legislation	265
	c Judicial Practice	267
	i Jurisdictional Immunities of the State (Germany v. Italy: Greece Intervening)	267
	ii Arrest Warrant (DRC v. Belgium)	273
	iii Al-Adsani v. United Kingdom	275
	iv Jones and others v. United Kingdom	277
	v National Decisions	279
	E Conclusions	284
	General Conclusions	286
	Bibliography	291
	Index	313