

Index

- accountability, of office-holders, 150–51, 156
 Ackerman, Bruce, 86
 acquisition, 8–10
 egoism and, 8–10
 love as, 8
 analytic philosophy, 29–30, 34–37
 appetite, 9–10, 13
 defined, 7, 9
 desire and, 7, 12
 pure, 9, 13–14
 Aquinas. See Thomas Aquinas
 Aristotelian Principle, 17–20, 25
 defined, 19
 development of justice and, 230, 233
 naturalist Christianity and, 19–20
 Aristotle, 214, 221
 naturalism and, 10, 15
 Ashcraft, Richard, 81
 assisted suicide, 134, 139, 140
 assurance problems, xi, 36, 99, 151, 157–61, 163, 164–65, 211
 Audi, Robert, 51, 53, 59
 Augustine, 8, 11, 15, 22
 naturalism and, 10, 11–12, 15
 autonomy, political, 101, 147, 165. See also
 self-legislation
 for citizens, 168–70
 citizenship and, 184–85
 coercion compared to, 182
 convergence view and, 170–88
 in liberal democracies, 184
 Liberty Principle and, 171–72
 in non-well-ordered society, 165
 political freedom and, 168, 169
 political heteronomy and, 183, 184
 Public Justification Principle and, 172–73
 public reason and, 188, 189, 190
 religion and, 165
 self-legislation and, 146–47, 188
 stability and, 190
 in well-ordered society, 168–70
 aversion, naturalism and, 7
 background culture, 121
 Baier, Kurt, 164
 belief, religious social contract theory and, 58–60
 in well-ordered society, 75–77
 Bernardin, Joseph (Cardinal), 121
 Bok, Hilary, 3
A Brief Inquiry in the Meaning of Sin and Faith
 (Rawls)
 Aristotelian Principle in, 17–20
 creatureliness, spirituality and, 13–14
 moral motivation in, 20–26
 naturalism in aversion and, 7
 desire and, 7
 dualism in, 14–16
 hedonism and, 15–17
 human personality and, 6–7
 motivation and, 6–10
 natural relations and, 5–6, 10
 religiosity condition in, 217–20
 religious aspect in, 213–14
 A Theory of Justice and, 3, 17
 Catholics
 distributive justice and, 73
 religious arguments for justice for, 47
 religious liberty and, 50
 religious tolerance and, 70–74, 75–76
 Chambers, Simone, 90, 195–96
 Christian realism. See realism, Christian Christianity
 naturalist psychology and, 13–14
 naturalist version of, 4, 5–6, 10–14
 Aristotelian Principle and, 19–20
 Augustine and Aquinas and, 22
 core thesis of, 11
 exclusivity in, 12
 God as object in, 13
 problems with, 12–14, 15, 17, 19–20
 Rawls's argument against, 16–17

- citizens. See also liberal peoples
 common sympathies of, 207
 democracy and, 125
 friendship among, 128–29, 130, 132, 136, 144–46, 154–55, 169
 ideal legislators as, 57
 moral power of, 124–26, 127–28, 140–41
 office-holder accountability and,
 150–51, 156
 political autonomy for, 168–70
 in Political Liberalism, 124–25
 political power of, 125–26, 128–29, 146–47
 in public forums, 127, 133–38
 public reason requirements for, 120–21 respect among, 136, 144–46
 sense of justice of, 157
 trust among, 136, 144–46
- citizens of faith, ix–x, xi, 102, 104–12, 166
- citizenship
 duty of civility as part of, 131–32
 ideal legislators and, 57
 inclusive view of, 154–56
 in liberal democracies, 152–54
 rights in, 152–53
 moral duty of, 131
 obligations of, 154–56
 political philosophy and, 150–51
 political relationship of, 137
 under Public Justification Principle, 184–87
 public reason and, 123–24, 184–85
 as context-dependent, 166–67
 in democracies, 125
 exclusive view of, 160
 inclusive view of, 154–63
 moral power of, 124
 morality of ideals and, 130–33
 morality of roles and, 130–33
 political power of, 125–26, 128–29
 in public forum, 127
 requirements for, 120–21
- religion and
 obligations of, 149, 154–56, 166
 political autonomy, 165. See also autonomy, political role of citizenship, 131–32, 133, 149, 152–55
 status of citizenship, 37–38, 125, 128–29, 130–32, 141, 152–55
 religious organizations' influence on, 147–48
 as role. See role of citizenship
 as status. See status of citizenship in U.S., 137
- civic republican tradition, 79
- civility. See duty of civility
- coercion
 Liberty Principle and, 171–72
 political autonomy compared to, 182
 political heteronomy and, 183, 184
 Public Justification Principle and, 172–73
 self-legislation compared to, 182
- Cohen, Gerald, 195–96
- Cohen, Joshua, 84, 121–243. See also
 religiosity condition
- common knowledge, 211
- common sympathies, 207, 208–9
- comprehensive philosophical doctrine, 89, 134
 liberal democracies and, 140
 Public Justification Principle and, 185–86
 well-ordered society and, 98–99
- comprehensive public philosophy, 70–74
 defined, 64, 74
 overlapping consensus and, 70–74
 political elements of, 78–79
 political theory and, 79, 80–81
- Confessions* (Augustine), 11
- consensus view
 convergence view and, 174–77
- constitution
 democratic governance and, 100 legitimacy attaches to, 109, 114
 Rawls on, 38, 96, 99–100, 105–6,
 109–10, 114
- constitutional consensus, 164–65
- constitutional essentials, 38, 57, 96, 100–1, 107–9
- constitutional government, Rawls on, 30–32, 34
- constitutional stage, 101
- contractualism, moral motivation and, 34–37
- convergence view, 94, 98
 consensus view and, 174–77
 equality and, 171
 equality of citizens and, 171
 freedom of citizens and, 171
 Intelligibility Requirement and, 176–77,
 178–79
 Liberty Principle and, 171–72
 of political autonomy, 170–74
 public justification and, 188–89
 public reason and, 170
 Rawls and, 179–84
 self-legislation and, 176
- Declaration on Religious Liberty*, 47, 50–53
- democracy. See also liberal democracies citizens and, 125
 political power under, 125
- democratic regimes. See also liberal democracies
 pluralism of, 55

250 Index

- democratic regimes (cont.)
 political philosophy and, 64
 practical faith and, 32
- desire
 appetite and, 7, 12
 egoism and, 7–8
 expected state of relief and, 9
 naturalism and, 7
 possession through, 7–8
- Dewey, John, 29, 44, 63
- difference principle, xii, 47, 73–74, 89–90, 91, 164, 193–94, 195–96, 197–201, 202–5, 206–8, 209–10, 211–12
- distributive justice, 73
- dominant end theory, 23
- Douglas, William O., 60
- Dreben, Burton, 85–90, 94, 97
 on legitimacy, 94–95
- duty of assistance, xii, 193–94, 195, 197, 198–201, 202–7, 209
 stability and, 206
- duty of civility, 53–54, 60–96, 120, 131–32
- Dworkin, Ronald, 204, 206
- egoism, 7–8
 acquisition and, 8–10
- eros*, 25
- Estlund, David, 87–88, 90
- eudaimonia*, 21–22
- faith, religious. See citizens of faith; practical faith; reasonable faith; religion
- Fletcher, David, 46
- freedom, political, 169. See also autonomy, political convergence view and, 171
 liberalism and, 171
- friendship, 67, 136, 144–46, 212, 214, 221
 civic, 128–29, 130, 132, 134–35, 144, 145, 154–55
- full justification, 63, 188
- Gaus, Gerald, 78, 163, 170–74, 177–79.
See also convergence view
 Intelligibility Requirement and, 176–77, 178–79
 Liberty Principle and, 171–72, 181, 187
 Public Justification Principle and, 172–73
- global difference principle, 194, 198, 200–1.
See also difference principle
A Theory of Justice and, 205
- global justice, 194, 195, 197, 202, 204–5, 206–7
 Christian realist reading of, 212
- global regime. See also world government cannot be inherently stable, 211
- goodness of humanity, x, xii, 34, 196, 197
- Gregory, Eric, 22, 23, 24–25
- Habermas, Jürgen, 3
- Hampton, Jean, 63, 65, 69–70
- Harmon, Jonathan, 3–4
- Hauerwas, Stanley, 104, 241
- hedonism, 4
 dominant end theory and, 23
 naturalism and, 15–17
- hedonistic utilitarianism, 15
 naturalism and, 16
- Heschel, Abraham, 145–46
- heteronomy, political, 183, 184
- Hobbes, Thomas, 63, 81, 157–58
- Hollenbach SJ, David, 50, 57–58
- Holmes, Stephen, 102
- “Idea of an Overlapping Consensus” (Rawls), 30, 49–50, 54, 88–89, 92
- “Idea of Public Reason” (Rawls), 105
- ideal legislators, citizens as, 57, 180
- Ideal of Democratic Governance*, 100–1, 103–4, 108, 109–10, 112
- ideal theory, 137–38, 146, 168–70, 201, 203–5, 211
- ideals, morality of, 130–33
- incivility, 154–55
- “Independence of Moral Theory” (Rawls), 65, 69
- individually eligible set, 174–75
- Intelligibility Requirement, 176–77, 178–79
- intuitionism, 23, 30
 moral motivation and, 35–36
- Jackson, Timothy, 21, 23, 44–46
- Jefferson, Thomas, 76
- Jones, L. Gregory, 21–23
- just societies
 reasonable faith in, 34
 stability of, 34, 37–40. See also stability, inherent self-respect and, 37–38
 transition to, 32–33, 39–40
- justice
 citizens’ knowledge of, 31
 distributive, 73
 global, 197, 201, 204
 overlapping consensus on, 158
 religious arguments for, 44–49
 for Catholics, 47
 for Christians, 44–46
 justificatory priority of right in, 48–49
 as overlapping consensus, 46–47
 for Protestants, 47

- in unjust societies, transition from, 32–33
 - utilitarianism in conflict with, 16–17
- justification. See full justification; pro tanto justification; public justification
- Kant, Immanuel, 26, 30, 32, 34, 39, 56–57, 62, 66, 68, 79–80, 171, 173, 196, 210, 224, 225, 227–30, 233–34, 236, 239, 240–41
 - versus* inner purposiveness, 224–25
 - moral philosophy of, 196, 222, 223–24
 - religious aspect of, xii, 214–17, 220, 222–23, 229, 236
 - on outer purposiveness, 224–25, 240
 - Rawls' early knowledge of, 26
 - Rawls' political philosophy influenced by, 29–34
 - realm of ends, 56–57, 226–27, 230, 231–32, 236
 - self-legislation and, 171, 188
- Kantian interpretation of justice as fairness, 18–232
- Kelly, Erin, 3
- King, Martin Luther, Jr., 121, 142–45, 166
- Korsgaard, Christine, 133
- Langan SJ, John, 51, 58–60
- Larmore, Charles, 59, 161
- law
 - duty of compliance and, 113
 - individually eligible set, 174–75
 - legitimacy of, 108–9, 112–13
 - public reason and, 124
 - socially eligible set, 174–75, 179
- laws of reciprocity. See reciprocity, laws of
- legitimacy, 94–95
 - of law, 108–9, 112–13
- liberal, 97
- liberal principle of, 83–84, 86–87, 90, 95–97, 107–8, 109–13, 115, 129–30, 137
- political, 95–97
 - in political liberalism, 97, 105–12
 - in Political Liberalism, 92–93, 129–30
 - public reason and, 187–90
 - in “Reply to Habermas,” 109, 114
 - of states, 114
- liberal democracies
 - citizenship in, 152–54
 - comprehensive philosophical doctrine and, 140
 - pluralism and, 140
 - political autonomy and, 184
 - privatization of religion and, 42–44
 - stability in, 155–56
- liberal peoples
 - common sympathies of, 207, 208–9
 - features of, 207
 - representatives of, 197
- liberalism. See also Gaus, Gerald; political liberalism; Vallier, Kevin
 - equality and, 42, 171
 - fairness and, ix, 3
 - main features of, 138
 - political freedom and, 171
 - privatization of religion and, 42
 - defined, 42–44
- Liberty Principle, 171–72, 181, 187
- Lippman, Walter, 74
- Locke, John, 81, 136, 157–58
- love, as acquisitive, 8
- Macedo, Stephen, 78
- Madison, James, 60
- Malcolm, Norman, 14
- Marshall, T. H., 152
- May, Simon Căbulea, 87–88
- McKenny, Jerry, 3
- Meilander, Gilbert, 3–4
- metaphysical, political compared to, 62–63
- metaphysics, 76, 77
 - political philosophy and, 62–63, 64–65, 81
 - in political theory, 81
- method of avoidance, political philosophy and, 64
- modernity, 134–35
 - moral pluralism and, 238
 - religious pluralism and, 238
- moral motivation, 20–26
 - contractualism and, 34–37
 - eros* and, 25
 - eudaimonia* and, 21–22
 - Rawls's critique of intuitionists' account of, 21–23
- moral philosophy, 65–66. See also Kant, Immanuel, moral philosophy of
 - moral theory compared to, 65, 66–67
- moral theory, 65–66, 80
 - moral philosophy compared to, 65, 66–67
 - natural law theory as, 65–66
 - realism and, 194
- motivation. See also moral motivation
 - appetition and, 7
 - naturalism and, 6–10
- Murray SJ, John Courtney, 52–54, 60, 71
 - on pluralism, 54
- Nagel, Thomas, 213, 217–20. See also religiosity condition
 - on religiosity condition, development of, 227–28, 241

252 Index

- natural law theory, as moral theory, 65–66
 natural relations, 5–6, 10
 defined, 5
 objects in, 5–6
 naturalism
 Aquinas and, 10, 15
 Aristotelian Principle and, 19–20
 Aristotle and, 10, 15
 Augustine and, 10, 15
 core thesis of, 11
 desire and, 7
 dualism in, 14–16
 exclusivity in, 12
 God as object in, 13
 hedonism and, 15–17
 hedonistic utilitarianism and, 16
 human personality and, 6–7
 motivation and, 6–10
 natural relations and, 5–6, 10
 naturalist version of Christianity, 4, 5, 10–14
 Plato and, 10, 15
 problems with, 12–14
 naturalist psychology, 13–14
 Niebuhr, Reinhold, 194–95
 non-ideal theory, xi–xii, 156, 198
- O'Connor, John (Cardinal), 122, 139
 oppression
 pluralism and, 140, 141–42
The Order of Public Reason (Gaus), 170
 members of the public in, 177–79
 overlapping consensus, 31
 comprehensive public philosophy and, 70–74
 conceptual development of, 48
 diversity and, 46–47
 full justification and, 63
 in “Idea of an Overlapping Consensus,” 30, 54, 89
 on justice, 158
 religious arguments for, 46–47
 justice as fairness and, 63, 69–74
 in Political Liberalism, 92–93
 political liberalism and, 97
 in political philosophy, 31
 in political theory, 70–74
 pro tanto justification and, 63
 public justification and, 63, 75–77, 158
 public reason and, 49–52, 54–58
 toleration principle and, 70–74
 in well-ordered society, 98
- perfectionism, as moral theory, 65–66
 personality (in Brief Inquiry)
 defined, 7
 naturalism and, 6–7
 Plato, naturalism and, 10, 15
 pluralism “fact of,” 54, 93, 100, 140–41
 about justice, 92–93
 liberal democracies and, 55, 140
 Murray, John Courtney, on, 54 oppression and, 141–42
 religious liberty and, 52–54
 in U.S. society, 143
 political, metaphysical compared to, 62–63 political autonomy. See autonomy, political political consensus, religious liberty and, 52–54 political freedom. See autonomy, political; freedom, political political legitimacy. See legitimacy, liberal political liberalism, 39, 95–97. See also liberal democracies legitimacy in, 97, 105–12
 overlapping consensus and, 97
 political philosophy and, 78–81
 public reason and, 97
 Rawls' shift to, 85
 religious aspect of, 237–41
 stability in, 97–101, 105–12
Political Liberalism (Rawls), 31, 39, 56
 citizens in, 124–25
 difference principle in, 89–90
 Dreben on, 85–90
 Ideal of Democratic Governance in, 99–101, 103–4, 109–10, 112
 justice as fairness in, 83–84, 85–90
 religious reasoning in, 60–96
 standard reading of, 82–97
 four steps in, initial statement of, 82–83
 legitimacy in, 92–93, 129–30
 overlapping consensus in, 92–93
 pluralism in, 93
 textual problems with, 91–92, 112–15
 political philosophy
 analytical foundations of, 29–30, 34–37
 citizenship defined by, 150–51
 comprehensive public philosophy and, 70–74
 democracy as priority over, 64
 development of, 29
 full justification in, 63
 justice as fairness, 62–65
 Kantian influences on, 29–34
 metaphysics and, 62–63, 81
 method of avoidance and, 64
 overlapping consensus in, 31
 political liberalism and, 78–81

- political theory and, 64–65, 69–70
- principles of justice as part of, 201–3
- pro tanto* justification in, 63
- problems of, 190
- public justification in, 63, 75–77, 158
- political power
 - of citizens, 125–26, 128–29, 146–47
- political realism. See realism, political
- political theory, 65–70
 - comprehensive public policy and, 79, 80–81
 - Hampton on, 69–70
 - justice as fairness in, 66–68
 - metaphysics in, 81
 - moral theory and, 65–66
 - overlapping consensus in, 70–74
 - political philosophy and, 64–65, 69–70
 - public reason in, 70
 - realism and, 194
 - Rorty on, 69
- political values, public reason and, 70, 115, 123, 126, 129–30, 133–35, 137, 148, 160–61
- Porter, Jean, 3
- practical faith, 32, 34, 39–40. See also reasonable faith
- pro tanto* justification, 63
- Protestant Reformation, 41
- public. See also citizens
 - members of (Gaus), 177–79
- public consensus, 53–54
- public goods, 58–61
 - privatization of religion as, 43–44
 - reasonable faith, xiii
 - social contract theory and, 58–60
- public justification, 63, 75–77, 158
 - convergence view and, 188–89
 - ideal of, 171
 - self-legislation and, 171, 188
- Public Justification Principle, 172–73
 - citizenship under, 184–87
 - comprehensive philosophical doctrine and, 185–86
- public philosophy, 64, 74. See also comprehensive public philosophy
- public reason, 49–52, 58–61
 - background culture for, 121
 - citizenship and, 123–24, 184–85
 - in democracies, 125
 - inclusive view of, 161
 - moral power of, 124
 - morality of ideals and, 130–33
 - morality of role and, 130–33
 - political power of, 125–26, 128–29
 - in public forum, 127
 - requirements for, 120–21
 - conceptual development of, 119–23
 - convergence theory and, 170
 - exclusive view of, 151, 160
 - good-faith weighting of, 108
 - guidelines of, 123–30, 162–63
 - honoring of, 131
 - ideal of, 168
 - inclusive view of, 154–63
 - independence of, 138–42
 - Intelligibility Requirement and, 176–77, 178–79
 - King and, 142–45
 - law and, 124
 - legitimacy and, 187–90
 - moral power and, 124
 - morality of ideals and, 130–33
 - morality of role and, 130–33
 - overlapping consensus and, 49–52, 54–58
 - political autonomy and, 190
 - political liberalism and, 97
 - in political theory, 70
 - political values and, 123, 137
 - in public forums, 133–38
 - religious language and, 142–45
 - religious liberty and, 50–52
 - requirements of, 120–21, 122
 - the right and, 169
 - self-legislation and, 188
 - in well-ordered society, 119, 189–90
- public theology, 74
- Quakers, 95, 102, 104, 109
- Rawls, John. See also A Brief Inquiry in the Meaning of Sin and Faith; citizenship; The Law of Peoples; Political Liberalism; political theory; public reason; A Theory of Justice
 - on acquisition, 8–9
 - on appetite, 7, 9
 - comprehensive philosophical doctrine for, 89, 98–99, 134
 - on convergence views, 179–84
 - on desire, 7
 - exclusivist view of, 151, 160
 - expected state of relief for, 9
 - intellectual roots for, 29
 - intuitionism and, 30, 35, 36
 - political philosophy
 - analytical foundations of, 29–30, 34–37
 - development of, 29
 - Kantian influences on, 29–34
 - on public reason, 49–52, 58–61
 - religiosity condition for, 213, 214–20
 - on religious liberty, 51

254 Index

- Rawls, John (cont.)
 shift to political liberalism, 85
 on sin, 17
 on spiritual life, 7
- Rawls, John, essays of Dewey Lectures, 92, 233
 “Idea of an Overlapping Consensus,” 30, 49–50, 54, 89
 “Idea of Public Reason,” 105
 “Idea of Public Reason Revisited,” 56, 61–102, 121, 161, 189
 “Independence of Moral Theory,” 65, 69
 “Justice as Fairness: Political not Metaphysical,” xi, 62–63, 79, 91–92
 “Reply to Habermas,” 63, 99, 102, 109, 114, 189
- Raz, Joseph, 62, 175
- realism. See also political realism; secular realism
 Christian, 194–201, 212
 defined, 194
 moral theory and, 194
 political, xii, 194–96, 206–7, 210–11
 political theory and, 194
 secular, 194–96
- realism, Christian, 194–96
 global justice and, 212
The Law of Peoples and, 193–94, 195, 196–201
- reasonable faith, x, xii, xiii, 30, 34–131, 196, 240
- reciprocity, laws of, 230
- Reidy, David, 87–88
- religion
 citizenship and
 obligations of, 154–56
 political autonomy, 165 role of, 152–54
 status of, 152–54
 incivility and, 154–55
 justice and, 44–49
 justificatory priority of right in, 48–49
 as overlapping consensus, 46–47
 veil of ignorance and, 45
 in political discourse, 49–54
 privatization of Aquinas on, 43–44
 critiques of, 41
 defined, 42–44
 liberal democracy and, 42–44
 as public good, 43–44
 social relevance of, 53
A Theory of Justice and, ix–x
 religiosity condition, 213, 214–17
 in A Brief Inquiry in the Meaning of Sin and Faith, 217–20 moral law and, 216
 Nagel on, 227–28, 241
 religious belief. See faith, religious religious goods, 58–61
 social contract theory and, 58–60
 religious language
 public reason and, 142–45
 in U.S. Supreme Court decisions, 59–61 religious liberty
 in Declaration on Religious Liberty, 50–51
 pluralism and, 52–54
 political consensus and, 52–54
 public reason and, 50–52
 Rawls on, 51
 religious pluralism. See pluralism
 religious reason. See reason “Reply to Habermas” (Rawls), 63, 99, 102, 109, 114, 189 representatives, of liberal peoples, 197 respect, 136, 144–46
 restrictive inclusivism, 151, 155, 156–63
 role, morality of, 130–33
 Rorty, Richard, 41, 47, 64, 65, 69. See also comprehensive public philosophy on demise of philosophy, 76–77
 on demise of religion, 76–77
 Ryan, Maura, 3
- Santurri, Edmund, 195, 196–202, 206, 210, 211
- Schaefer, David, 3–4
The Second Treatise (Locke), 136
 “Secular Philosophy and the Religious Temperament” (Nagel), 217–20
- secular realism, 194–96. See also realism; realism, Christian; realism, political
- self-legislation
 coercion compared to, 182
 convergence view and, 175, 176, 179, 187
 Kant and, 171, 188
 political autonomy and, 171, 188
 public justification and, 171, 188
 public reason and, 188
- self-respect, 123, 166–67, 185
 most important primary good, 37
 social foundations for, 37–38
 stability and, 37–38
- shallow foundations, 62, 64–65
- Simmons, A. John, 95
- social class, 184–85
- social contract theory, 58–60
 moral motivation and, 36–37
- social union of social unions, 100
- socially eligible set, 174–75, 179. See also individually eligible set

- spiritual life, 7
 creatureliness and, 13–14
- stability, 37–40
 duty of assistance and, 206
 of global regimes, 211
 inherent, 155, 169, 207–8, 209–11
 of just societies, 34, 37–40
 self-respect and, 37–38
 of justice, 207–8, 209–11
 in liberal democracies, 155–56
 political autonomy and, 190
 in political liberalism, 97–101, 105–12
 in A Theory of Justice, 207–8, 209–11
 of well-ordered society, 84
- states
 legitimacy of, 114
 oppression by, 140–42
- sub specie aeternitatis*, 235, 237–38, 239–40
- Summa Theologiae* (Aquinas), 11
- Supreme Court, U.S., religious language and, 59–61
- teleological theory, 15–17, 18
- A Theory of Justice* (Rawls), 3
 Aristotelian Principle in, 17–20, 25, 230, 233
 citizen's knowledge of justice in, 31 dominant end theories, 16, 23
 economic justice in, 201
 global difference principle and, 205 hedonism in, 4
 utilitarianism and, 15
 inherent stability in, 155, 207–8, 209–11
 intuitionism in, 30
 justificatory priority of right in, 48–49
 moral motivation in, 20–26
 moral theory in, 66–68
 political liberalism in, 39
 religion and, ix–x
 religious aspect in, 230–36, 237–41
 teleological theory in, 15–16
 utilitarianism in, 15, 16–17
 well-ordered society in, 132
- Thomas Aquinas, 11, 22
 naturalism and, 10, 15
- overlapping consensus and, 47, 70–74, 211–12
- privatization of religion and, 43–44
- toleration, principle of. See religious liberty
- toleration, as principle
 development of, 71–74
 overlapping consensus and, 70–74
- United States (U.S.)
 citizenship in, 137
 pluralism in, 143
 religious traditions in, 147–48
- unjust societies, transition from, 32–33
- utilitarianism, 15, 16–17, 19–20, 30, 35, 65–66, 72–73, 79, 158, 203–4 hedonistic, 15, 16
 naturalism and, 16
- Vallier, Kevin, 170–74. See also convergence view
 Intelligence Requirement and, 176–77, 178–79
 Liberty Principle and, 171–72, 181, 187
 Public Justification Principle and, 172–73
- veil of ignorance, 21, 22, 45, 179–80, 203, 234, 238
- We Hold These Truths* (Murray), 53–54
- Weimar Germany, 31, 37, 38, 39
- well-ordered society
 comprehensive doctrine and, 98–99
 convergence view in, 94, 98
 defined, 119, 230
 inherent stability of, 156, 169, 207–8 political autonomy in, 168–70
 religious belief in, 75–77
 stability of, 84
 as worthy of devotion and reverence, 232–33
- Williams, Bernard, 82
 the standard reading of Political Liberalism and, 82–97
- Wittgenstein, Ludwig, 14, 241
- world government, 210–11. See also global regime