Contents

List of figures, tables and boxes  page xiii
Acknowledgments  xviii

Part I: Human autonomy  1
1 Twins and autonomy  3
2 Justice and freedom  12
3 The great debate  30
4 Slow and quick decay of family effects  42
5 Reconciliation with twins and adoptions  62
6 The fairness factor  73

Part II: Intelligence  81
7 The Raven’s revolution  83
8 Learning from astronomy  97
9 The meta-theory of intelligence  107
10 Scientific theories of intelligence  129
11 Psychology and Cardinal Bellarmine  159

For scholars who wish to use the Age-Table Method to measure family effects in nations other than the USA  161
Appendix I: Wechsler Vocabulary and description of method of analysis  164
Appendix II: Stanford-Binet Vocabulary  186
Contents

Appendix III: Raven's Progressive Matrices  203
(Appendices I–XIV online)

References  245
Name index  253
Subject index  257