

Contents

List of figures	page viii
List of contributors	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
The relevance of rhetoric: an introduction	1
Austin Sarat
1 From “equality before the law” to “separate but equal”: legal rhetoric, legal history, and Roberts v. Boston (1849)	12
Eric Slauter
2 “The civilizing hand of law”: defending the legal process in the civil rights era	31
Christopher W. Schmidt
3 The evolving rhetoric of the gay rights and same-sex marriage debate	54
Teresa Godwin Phelps
4 The rhetoric of precedent	83
Bernadette Meyler
5 Alternative conceptions of legal rhetoric: open hand, closed fist	100
Linda L. Berger
Afterword: Use your words: rhetoric as absence of law, rhetoric as essence of law	127
Adam N. Steinman
Index	141