

Index

---

- Abramovich, Roman, 110n3, 129–31
 Aburamoto, Mari, 154–55
 administrative resources of gubernatorial elites, 213–14, 215–20
   political decentralization and strength of, 249–56
   of Russian regional elites, 87, 99–101, 102–4, 198–99
- Africa
   dominant party emergence in, 257–65
   election outcomes in, 52
   elite party structures in, 45 ethnic diversity and elite strength in, 253–54 financial liberalization and regime opposition in, 222–24 postcolonial dominant parties in, 14, 34
- African National Congress (ANC), 5
 Agrarian Party (Russia), 90–91
 Aldrich, John, 35–37, 47, 51–52
 All-Russian Coordinating Council (OKS), 93–95, 112–14
 All Russian Party “Unity and Fatherland.”
   See United Russia Party
 All Russia (Vsvya Rossii) movement, 109, 110, 112–14, 123–24
 All-Russian Peoples Front (ONF), emergence of, 271–77 anti-colonial liberation movements, dominant party origins in, 46
 “Apatit” company, 154–55
 Arab Socialist Union, 277
 ARENA party (Brazil), 45
 Arriola, Leonardo Rafael, 222–24
 Artyukh, Evgenii, 182n44
 Assad regime, 7–8
 asset-mobile sectors, party affiliation in, 238 audience costs for leaders, 62n8
- authoritarian regimes
   agreements with elites,
     monitoring of, 63
   benefits of United Russia Party dominance for, 159–60
   breakdown of, 277–79
   commitment credibility and, 49
   democratic characteristics of, 1–4
   democratization and, 37–39
   dominant party as stabilizers of, 4–9, 10–13, 37–39, 277–79
   future in Russia for, 279–81
   Geddes’ typology of, 247–48
   global patterns in party organization
     by, 245–49
   liberal non-democracies, lack of dominant parties in, 257–65
   limits of dominant parties in, 1–4 parties established by, 46
   in post-Soviet Russia, 32–35
   presidential succession in Mexico, 186 rent distribution (rent-seeking)
     in, 257–65
   United Russia Party as commitment device for, 185–96
- autonomous resources
   of business elites, 222–24, 229–33
   credible commitments and, 60
   in dominant party regimes, 187, 242–43, 265–66, 267–71
   elite commitment problems
     and, 67–70
   extent of leaders and elites control
     of, 249–56
   of gubernatorial elites in Russia, 204–5, 211–15
   of Russian regional elites, 83–89,
     99–104, 116–21, 137–46, 148
 Ayatskov, Dmitry, 104–5
 Azarov, Nikolai, 280

302 Index

- Ba'ath party, 7–8
 Baburkin, Sergei, 166–67
 balance of power and resources dominant party emergence and, 23–24, 202, 256–57, 265–66
   individual and gubernatorial elite party affiliation and, 203–5
   institutional solutions to commitment
   and, 65–66
   maximization of dominant party likelihood and, 70–73
   probability of dominant party emergence
   and, 262–65
 bandwagon process, gubernatorial elite party affiliation and, 214
 banking institutions
   business elites control of, 100n30
   Our Home is Russia party and, 92–93
 Barisan National alliance, 277
 Belarus, authoritarian regime in, 2
 Berezovsky, Boris, 103, 110n3, 111
 Bespalov, Alexander, 124–25, 126, 195–96
 Bienen, Henry, 11, 45
 Bogatyreva, Lyudmila, 166–67
 Bogomolov, Valerii, 126, 133–34, 140–41
 Bolshevism
   intraparty conflicts in, 46n6
   power seizure by, 13
 Botswana, dominant party in, 5
 Botswanan Democratic Party (BDP),
   5, 17
 Brazil
   authoritarian regime in, 2
   elite control of resources in, 69–70
   elite influence on election outcomes in, 52
   factionalism in parties of, 270
 Brownlee, Jason, 6, 12–13, 17–18
 Brudny, Yitzhak, 102
 Bulychov, Sergei, 198
 Burbulis, Gennady, 77, 79, 82
 business elites dominant party affiliation of, 222–43 economic conditions and power
   of, 99–101
   in Egypt, parliamentary clashes with,
   162n7
   executive branch influence on, 164–66
   gubernatorial economic control and, 211–13, 215–20
   models of party affiliation of, 233–42
   Our Home is Russia party and,
   92–93, 95
   penetration of Russian parliaments
   by, 163–64
   in regional legislatures, 101n31, 224–29, 237–38
   resource ownership and membership in United Russia Party, 229–33
   United Russia Party and, 129–31, 150, 153–55, 267–71
   Yeltsin's reelection campaign and role
   of, 102–4
 Cambodian People's Party (CPP), 89f1.2 capitalist class, emergence in post-Soviet countries of, 223n1
 Castaneda, Jorge G., 32
 causality dominant party research and, 39–41 endogeneity in neo-institutionalist research and, 37–39
   global patterns in dominant party emergence and, 265–66
   proliferation of dominant parties and, 14
   quantitative analyses of, 41
 Center for the Study of Business-State Interactions, 160–68 center-periphery, strength of elites and leaders and outcomes of, 249–56
 Chaisty, Paul, 163
 Chavez, Hugo, 277
 Chechnya conflict, Russian political division over, 92–93
 Chemezov, Viktor, 129–31
 Chernetsky, Arkady, 94n18
 Chernomyrdin, Viktor, 89–90,
   94–95, 104–5
 Chiang Kai-Shek, 187
 Chinese Communist Party (CCP), 46, 277
 Chirikova, Alia, 153–54
 Christian Democratic Party (Italy), 4–5
 Chubais, Anatoly, 79, 234–37 Citizens Union of Georgia (CUG), 7–8 civil war, dominant party emergence in, 255, 257–65
 clientelist networks
   of business elites, 234–37
   commitment credibility and, 49
   democratic regimes, dominant parties and, 5
   dominant party emergence in Russia and, 4
   as gubernatorial resource, 211
   Putin's regime and, 34–35
   of Russian regional elites, 83–89, 99–101
   strength of elites and leaders over, 249–56
   United Russia Party and, 135, 136, 143–46, 151–52

- collective action problems
  - dominant parties and, 21
  - of elites, 44n3, 62
  - gubernatorial economic control and, 211–13
  - political parties and, 35–37
  - United Russia Party management of, 192–93
- Colorado Party, 7–8
- Colton, Timothy, 82–83
- commitment framework
  - balanced resources and maximization of dominant party likelihood, 70–73
  - dominant party emergence and, 17–18, 58–65, 271
  - elite commitment problems, 47–48, 55–58, 63–64, 67–70, 105–6, 196–98
  - institutional constraints on dominant party emergence and, 65–66
  - leader's commitment problems, 50–55, 60–63, 66–67, 105–6, 185–96
  - political parties and, 47–48
  - problems of, 17–18, 19–24
  - of Russian gubernatorial elites to United Russia Party, 206–10
  - severity of problems with, 66–67
  - solutions to problems in, 58–73
  - two-sided commitment problem, dominant party formation and, 48–58
  - United Russia Party and, 30–32, 154–58, 185–98
- commodity prices
  - in post-Soviet growth of, 137–39, 142–43, 224
  - Russian central economy and role of, 99
- common pool resource issues, commitment credibility and, 49
- Communist Party of the Russian Federation (KPRF), 93–95, 111
  - cooptation and rent distribution by regional legislatures and, 163
  - gubernatorial membership in, 209, 214, 215–20
- Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), 9
  - constitutional support for, 60
  - demise of, 24–26
  - evolution of, 13
  - legacy of, 40–41, 83–89, 96–99
  - origins of, 46
  - United Russia Party compared with, 159–60
- communist systems
  - dominant parties in, 10–13
- Comparative Constitutions Project, 250–51
- Congress Party (India), 5
- cost-benefit exchange, leadership and elite commitment and, 107–8
- court systems, in autocratic regimes, 1–4
- credibility
  - balanced resources and increase of, 70–73
  - for dominant parties, 21, 63–64, 267–71
  - of elite commitments, 63–64
  - leader's credible commitments, 60–63
  - repeated play for enhancement of, 58–65
  - two-sided commitment problem and, 48–58
  - for United Russia party, 30–32
- crisis conditions, dominant party emergence in, 255, 257–65
- Cuba, single party regime in, 9
- Cuban Communist Party, 46
- cultural institutions, United Russia Party dominance in, 131–32
- decentralized political institutions
  - probability of dominant party emergence and, 262–65
  - strength of elites and leaders and, 249–56
- decree-making presidential powers, limits in Russia on, 176–79
- delegation of decision-making, leader's credible commitments and, 60–63
- democracies, dominant party formation in, 270–71
- Democratic Party (DP) (Turkey), 7–8
- Democratic Party of Russia, 77–78, 80–81
- Democratic Party of Turkmenistan, 9
- democratic regimes, dominant party characteristics in, 5
- Democratic Russia movement, 74–79
  - elections of 1993 and, 79
- democratization
  - dominant parties and, 37–39
  - economic liberalization and, 242–43
  - failure in First Russian Republic of, 74–79
  - failure of Third Wave democracies, dominant party emergence and, 248–49
  - regime breakdown and, 248–49, 277–79
- Department for Internal Politics (DIP) (Russia), 132–34, 164–65, 186n50, 191–92
- Deripaska, Oleg, 129–31

304 Index

- Desalegnhas, Hailemariam, 89f1.2
- developing countries
 dominant parties in, 10–13
 political decentralization assessment
 in, 249–56
- dispersion per capita measurements (DPC), population dispersion
 and, 251–53
- distance indicator, geographic resources of gubernatorial elites, 213–14, 215–20
- distributional theories of institutions, 65–66
- dominant parties. See also political parties actors in formation of, overview, 42–58 authoritarian survival and formation
 of, 10–13
 autocratic regime structure and, 1–4 barriers to formation of, 2–3 business elites affiliation with, 222–43
 characteristics of, 4–9
 commitment problems of, 58–65
 democratization and, 37–39
 determinants in emergence of, 257–65 elite commitment credibility and, 63–64 elite role in creation of, 44n3, 242–43 EliteStrengthXLeaderStrength coefficient and emergence of, 257–65 emergence of, 13–16, 65–73
 global patterns in emergence of, 89f1.2, 244
 independent authority of, 61–62
 independent funding for, 60 individual and gubernatorial elite affiliation and, 203–5
 institutional evolution in nascent systems, 72–73
 institutions of, 58–65
 international comparisons of, 200–1 leader's credible commitments
 and, 60–63
 logit models of affiliation, 234 modeling emergence of, 256–57 modeling existence of, 256n11 mutual investment in, 2–3
 new institutionalism and, 35–37 predicted probability of emergence
 of, 262–65
 proportion of regimes with, 1–4, 248–49 qualitative studies of outcomes
 for, 12–13
 regime breakdown and, 277–79
 replacement of leader with candidate
 from, 61
 research methodology
 concerning, 39–41
- revolutionary organizations and
 origins of, 46
 rules and norms of, 64–65
 society-based explanations for, 44–47 stabilization of regimes by, 4–9, 10–13, 37–39, 277–79
 summary of research on, 267–71 terminology used for, 9 theories on formation of, 42–73
 two-sided commitment problem and
 formation of, 48–58
 United Russia Party as example of, 159–201
 Unity Party case study and, 108–23
- Duma
 business elite penetration of, 163–64, 224–29
 cooptation and rent distribution
 and, 163
 declining United Russia Party majority
 in, 272, 274
 in First Russian Republic, 74–79
 legislation passed from 2007–2010
 by, 164–66
 logrolling procedures in, 160–68 loyalty to United Russia Party in, incentives for, 170–71
 party lists for elections to, United Russia Party control of, 188 presidential monitoring of, 186
 proportional electoral system
 for, 193–95
 Putin's bargains with, 176–77
 Putin's cooptation of, 1–4, 145
 regional elite autonomy and,
 58–59, 149–50
 United Russia Party influence on, 30–32, 127–29, 152–53, 187
- durability of dominant parties, 7–8, 247, 248–49
 global patterns in, 265–66
 Dyachenko, Tatyana, 110n3
- Earth Institute of Columbia University, 252
- Eastern Europe, dominant party emergence in, 257–65
- EBRD-World Bank Business Environment and Enterprise Performance Survey (BEEPS), 232–33
- economic conditions
 autonomous resources of regional elites
 and, 116–21
 democratization and liberalization
 of, 242–43

- gubernatorial control over, 211–13, 215–20
- Kremlin power linked to, 129–31, 141–42
- large public economies and authoritarian rule, 222–24
- leadership strength and, 254–56
- political institutions and, 49
- privatization initiatives in Russia and, 87
- regional elites and impact of, 83–89, 99–101, 148–49
- United Russia Party rise linked to, 142–43
- economic elites. See business elites
- Edinstvo (Unity) bloc, 109, 110–11, 122
- Egypt
- dominant party-leadership commitment problems in, 187
  - NDP influence in, 6
  - parliamentary clashes with business elites in, 162n7
- electoral authoritarian regimes, emergence of, 277–79
- Eliseev, Evgenii, 171–72
- elites. See also regional elites
- agency of, 67–70
  - autonomous resources of, 67–70, 267–71
  - balance of resources and cooperation with leaders, 70–73, 256–57, 265–66
  - career advancement of, 55
  - cohesion of, 5, 11–12, 16–19, 44n3, 203
  - collective action problems of, 44n3, 62, 192–93
  - commitment problems for, 55–58, 66–67
  - costs of cooperation and incentives to renege by, 54–55, 56–57, 198–99
  - definition of, 16, 42–43
  - democratization and endogenization of, 37–39
  - dominant parties and role of, 19–24, 41, 42–58, 242–43, 267–71
  - duration of authoritarian regimes and cohesion of, 277–79
  - electoral politics and, 52
  - incentives for party affiliation, 44
  - independent authority of, 61–62
  - individual elites, Russia's governors and, 203–5
  - leaders' cooperation with, 2–3, 45–46, 50–53, 55–56, 63
  - leadership strength separate from strength of, 254–56
  - maximization of gains and cooperation of, 70–73
  - measurements of strength of, 41
  - modeling of strength of, 256–57
  - policy influence of, 56
  - political parties and commitment of, 47–48
  - population dispersion and strength of, 251–53
  - reduction of transaction costs through cooperation of, 56
  - regime breakdown and cohesion of, 37–39
  - routinized political appointment of, 53
  - schisms among, as threat to leaders, 50–51
  - society-based theories of dominant party origins and, 44–47
  - spoils distribution and, 12, 56
  - strength of, 249–65
  - support for regimes and role of, 47
  - United Russia Party cooptation of, 176–85
  - United Russia Party example of, 28, 32–35
- endogeneity
- global patterns in dominant party emergence and, 265–66
  - in leader-elite relationships, 37–39, 138n50
  - of resources strength of elites and leaders linked to, 249–56
- Ethiopia, Haile Selassie's regime in, 280–81
- Ethiopian People's Democratic Revolutionary Front (EPRDF), 89f1.2
- ethnic minorities
- elite strength and concentration of, 253
  - gubernatorial ethnic resources and, 213, 215–20
  - Russian regional elites and, 85, 101–2
- event history model, of gubernatorial party affiliation, 214–20
- Executive Branch, United Russia party influence over appointments in, 171–72
- exogenous factors, in leader-elite power distribution, 43n2, 138n50
- Fatherland (Nur-OTAN) (Kazakhstan), 7–8, 17, 45
- Fatherland-All Russia (OVR) party formation of, 110
- Kremlin relations with, 112–14, 122

306 Index

- Fatherland-All Russia (OVR) party (cont.)
 Putin and, 110–11
 Unity Party merger with, 112, 123–24, 139, 146–47
- Fearon, James, 62n8, 253
- federal government in Russia (Kremlin) autonomous resources of regional elites vs., 116–21
 gubernatorial elites and, 209, 215–20
 lack of support for Our Home party from, 95–99, 104–5, 108, 121–23 limits on United Russia Party by, 185–96 non-partisan structure of, 132–34
 regional elites and, 85–87, 108–9, 112–14, 188–92
 transfers of wealth and, 212–13, 215–20
 United Russia Party and, 137–46, 176–85, 198–99
 Unity Party and, 112–14
- federal transfers, gubernatorial economic resources and, 212–13
- Federation Council (Russia), 90–91, 166–67
 elections to, United Russia Party control of, 188 legislative activity of, 164–66 loyalty to United Russia Party and appointments to, 171–72 political independence of, 93–95 Putin's restructuring of, 137–46
 regional elite power and, 101–2 United Russia Party membership and, 126–27
- Federation Treaty (Russia), 86
- Feith, Herbert, 52
- Fifth Republic Movement (Venezuela), 277
- Filatov, Sergei, 93–95, 97–99
- financial industrial groups, 99–101, 103
- First Russian Republic (1990–1993), absence of ruling party in, 74–79
 500 days program (Russia), 80–81
 “For Our Native Ural” party, 148n73
- fraudulent vote totals, United Russia Party results and, 272
- free-riding, commitment credibility and, 49
- Front of National Unity (Poland), 277
- Frye, Timothy, 52, 229–33
- Gabuniya, Georgii, 104–5
- Gadafi, Muammar, 2, 280–81
- Gaidar, Yegor, 79, 82–83, 87, 92–93
- game theory, commitment credibility and, 50
- Gandhi, Jennifer, 12, 15–16, 45, 179–83, 255
- Gattarov, Ruslan, 171–72
- Gazprom, 92–93
- Geddes, Barbara, 37–39, 247–48
- Geertz, Clifford, 52
- Gehlbach, Scott, 62, 192–93
- General People's Congress (GPC) (Yemen), 89f1.2
- Georgia, ‘colored’ revolution in, 34–35
- Glorious Revolution, 66
- GOLKAR party (Indonesia), 187
- Golosov, Grigorii V., 87, 103, 226
- Gorbachev, Mikhail, 85–87, 198–99
- Goskomstat registries, 233
- governors
 appointment of, United Russia Party influence in, 172–73
 autonomous resources of, 204–5, 211–15
 business elites and, 237–38
 coercion of, to join United Russia, 150–53, 209–10
 collective action problems of, 192–93
 controls as resource for, 214 defections from United Russia Party, 179–83 economic resources of, 211–13, 215–20 election outcomes for, 101–2, 139–40, 172–73, 188–92, 196–98, 211, 215–20 ethnic resources of, 213, 215–20
 federal government relations with, 188–92, 204–5 geographic and administrative resources of, 213–14, 215–20 Higher Council (Vyshii Soviet) membership for, 206–10 individual elites in Russia and, 203–5 inherited political resources of, 211, 215–20 legislative clashes with, 162
 membership status in United Russia Party of, 206–10 party affiliations of, 114–15, 204–5, 209 peer pressure among, concerning United Russia party membership, 210
 political machines of, 183–85
 Putin's electoral reforms concerning, 204–5, 209–10 statistical analysis of party affiliation and resource endowment, 214–20 tenure of, 211
 United Russia Party and, 127–29, 136–37, 172–73, 196–98, 206–10, 267–71
- Govorun, Oleg, 132n39

- Greene, Kenneth E., 222–24, 247
 Gridded Population of the World Project, 252
 Grief, Avner, 58–59
 Gromov, Boris, 90–91
 GRP per capita variable, gubernatorial economic resources and, 212–13, 215–20
 Gryzlov, Boris, 126, 127, 133–34
 Gusinsky, Vladimir, 103
 Guyana, dominant party regime in, 5
 Guzhvin, Anatolii, 115n8
- Haber-Menaldo data, 254n8
 Hagopian, Frances, 52
 Haile Selassie, 280–81
 Hale, Henry, 48, 65–66, 103–4, 211–13, 229–33, 237 hazard rate, statistical analysis of gubernatorial party affiliation and, 214–20 hegemonic parties, dominant parties vs., 89f1.2 Herfindahl index, 212, 251–53
 Higher Council (Vysshii Soviet), 206–10
 Hough, Jerry, 84
 Huntington, Samuel P., 14–15, 64
- Igummov, Gennady, 104
 immobile assets
   business elites with, 222–24, 229–33, 238
   in economic resources of gubernatorial elites, 211–13 imperative mandate laws, introduction in Russia of, 193–95
 India, dominant party regime in, 5 Indonesia
   dominant party-leadership commitment problems in, 187
   election outcomes in, 52
 industrial concentration, gubernatorial economic resources and, 212, 215–20 infrastructure projects, United Russia Party spoils distribution through, 167–68 institutional nesting, leader's credible commitments and, 60 Iran Novin party, 45
 Isayev, Andrei, 170–71, 192–93
 Italy, dominant parties in, 4–5
 Ivan Rybkin Bloc, 90–91, 95–99
 Ivlev, Leonid, 132n39
- Japan, dominant parties in, 4–5
 Jatiya Party (Bangladesh), 45
- Jordan, parliamentary clashes with business elites in, 162n7 judicial independence, commitment credibility problems and role of, 58–59
 Just Russia party, 191–92
- Kalmykov, Yurii, 81
 Kazakov, Aleksandr, 93–95
 Keefer, Philip, 62, 192–93
 Kenya African National Union (KANU), 7–8, 9, 246–47
 Kenyatta, Uhuru, 7–8
 Kerimov, Suleiman, 129–31
 Khasbulatov, Ruslan, 75–76
 Kochanovskii, Eduard, 184n49
 Kokov, Valery, 104–5
 Kolsk Metallurgical Company, 154–55
 Kostin, Andrei, 129–31
 Kostin, Konstantin, 164–65, 187
 Kozak, Dmitrii, 146n71, 172n24
 Kozyrev, Andrei, 79
 KPRF. See Communist Party of the Russian Federation (KPRF)
 Krashennikov, Pavel, 152–53
 Kuchma, Leonid, 2, 176, 280
 Kudrin, Alexei, 179n41, 192–93
 Kuomintang (KMT), 7–8, 187
- Laos, single party regime in, 9 Lapina, Natalya, 153–54
 large companies, party affiliation of, 222–24, 232–33
 Latin America
   dominant party emergence in, 257–65
   elite influence on voting behavior in, 52
 Law on Political Parties (Russia), 193–95
 Law on Voters' Rights (Russia), 193–95 leadership in authoritarian regimes. See also regime leaders balance of resources and cooperation with elites, 70–73, 256–57, 265–66 benefits for elites from, 50–53, 55–56
   breakdown of, 277–79
   commitment problems for, 50–55, 66–67
   costs of cooperation and incentives to renege in, 54–55, 56–57, 198–99 credible commitments in, 60–63
   dominant parties and, 12–13, 19–24, 267–71
   dominant party affiliation of, 42–58, 247
   elites commitment to, 2–3, 67–70 elite strength independent from, 254–56 equilibrium constraints on, 18
   future in Russia for, 279–81

308 Index

- leadership in authoritarian regimes (cont.)
 global patterns of party dominance and characteristics of, 245–49
 modeling of strength of, 256–57
 parallel party organizations and, 59–60
 population dispersion and strength of, 251–53
 PRI in Mexico and, 32 pro-regime candidates, election outcomes and coordination of, 53 regime typology and, 255
 relinquishing authority to parties by, 61–62 rent distribution (rent-seeking) by, 257–65
 replacement of, 61
 reputation mechanisms for credibility enhancement, 62 routinization of political appointments by, 53
 strength of, 249–57
 United Russia Party and, 26–32
- legislative branch. See also Duma;
 parliamentary institutions
 career advancement opportunities in, United Party influence and, 168–73 collective action problems in, 36n14 cooptation and rent distribution in Russia by, 163
 cross-national measures strength of, 163
 defections from United Russia Party in, 179–83, 224–29 economic elites in regional legislatures, 222–29
 in First Russian Republic, 74–79
 global patterns of party dominance and presence of, 245–49 governors' power concerning, 188–92
 leader's control of, 51–52
 logrolling procedures in Russian Duma, 160–68 political parties, 47
 Putin's cooptation of, 1–4, 145
 regional legislative autonomy, 58–59, 149–50
 United Russia Party influence on, 30–32, 127–29, 152–53, 176–79, 187, 196–98
 voting discipline of United Russia in regional legislatures, 177–78
- Levitsky, Steven, 12–13
- Liberal Democratic Party (LDP) (Japan), 4–5
- Liberal Democratic Party of Russia (LDPR), 79–80
- liberal non-democracies, lack of dominant parties in, 257–65
- Libya, authoritarian regime in, 2
- lobbying efforts of United Russia Party, 166–67
- local governments coordination of elections for, 184n49
 defections from United Russia Party and, 179–83
 influence on elites of, 152–53
 legislative-governor clashes and, 162
 logrolling in local and regional parliaments, United Russia Party role in, 161–62
 political decentralization and strength of, 249–56
 political machines of, 183–85
 United Russia Party dominance in, 131–32, 135, 274–75
- LogoVaz group, 103
- Lukashenko, Aleksandr, 2
- Luzhkov, Yuri
 business elites and, 140–41
 commitment problems for, 198
 political machines and, 109, 110, 146–47
 post-Soviet politics and, 94–95
 Russia's Choice Party and, 81
 United Russia Party and, 25, 124–25, 179n41, 205–6, 208–9
- Lysytsin, Anatoly, 114–15, 148, 166–67
- Maddison, Angus, 255
- Magaloni, Beatriz, 18, 59–60
- Makarenko, Boris, 94
- Malaysia, dominant party rule in, 187, 277
- Markov, Sergei, 115n8
- mayors coordination of elections of, 184n49
 defections from United Russia Party and, 179–83 dominant party influence on, 152–53
 legislative-governor clashes and, 162
 logrolling in local parliaments, United Russia Party role in, 161–62
 political machines of, 183–85
 United Russia Party influence over, 131–32, 135, 196–98
- McFaul, Michael, 115n8
- McMann, Kelly M., 222–24
- media
 business elites control of, 100n30
 Russian regional elites control of, 87
 United Russia Party dominance in, 131–32, 153–54

- Medinsky, Vladimir, 171–72
 Medvedev, Dmitry
   candidates list selections and, 188 Federation Council and, 171–72
   Presidential Administration and, 136–37
   Putin and, 26–32, 271–77
   United Russia Party and,
     89f1.2, 185–86
 Melik'yan, Gennadii, 81
 Mexico opposition parties in, 246–47 patron-client ties in, 32 policy brokerage in, 186 “presidencialismo” period in, 176–77
 Mezhrregionalnoy Dvizheniye (“Edinstvo”) (Interregional Movement “Unity”). See Unity Party (Russia)
 Migdal, Joel, 16, 34
 Milgrom, Paul, 58–59
 Miller, Alexei, 129–31
 Milosevic, Slobodan, 7–8 modernization dominant party origins and, 14–15 postcolonial proliferation of dominant parties in Africa and, 14 Mohammed, Mahathir, 187
 Moiseev, Boris, 153–54
Molodaya Gvardia (Youth Guard), 170–71 monetization of social benefits
   business elites role in, 140–41
   government-United Russia Party conflict over, 192–93
   United Russia Party cohesion
   over, 176–77
 Morozov, Oleg, 136–37, 171–72, 273n5
 Most Group, 103
 Motherland party (Russia), 142–43
 Movement for Democratic Reforms
   (Russia), 77–78
 Mozambique Liberation Front
   (FRELIMO), 46
 Mubarak, Gemal, 6
 multiparty elections, lack of dominant parties in years with, 257–65
 Murashev, Arkadii, 79 Muslim indicator, gubernatorial ethnic resources and, 213, 215–20

 Namibia, dominant party regime in, 5 national agenda, dominant parties' influence on, 6
 National Democratic Party (NDP)
   (Egypt), 1, 6, 89f1.2, 187, 277
 National Liberation Front (FLN)
   (Algeria), 9

 National Projects of United Russia Party, 136, 142–43, 167–68, 192–93
 National Resistance Movement (NRM)
   (Uganda), 1
 natural resources dominant party emergence and role
   of, 270
   leadership strength and revenues
   from, 254–56
   party affiliation of business elites
   in, 229–33
   political impact of, 222–24, 242–43
 Navalny, Alexei, 272, 275–76
 Neverov, Sergei, 170–71
 new institutionalism dominant party analysis in, 11–12, 35–37, 277–79
   endogeneity in research of, 37–39
   on post-Soviet Russia, 32–35
 Nigeria, absence of dominant parties in, 1, 7–8, 17, 45, 200–1, 270
 nomenklatura system in Soviet Union, 5, 10–13, 53
 nomination procedures Russian electoral coordination and,
   184n46
   Russian legislation concerning,
   193–95
 North, Douglas C., 58–59, 66
 North Korea, single party regime in, 9

 oil prices decline in, 17
   Kremlin-elite relations and, 2–3, 107–8, 116–23
   lack of Our Home party support
   and, 96–99
   leader's commitment, 54–55
   Putin's ascendancy and, 17, 40–41
   United Russia party and, 24–26, 129–31, 141–42
 Orlovsky, Daniel, 279–80
 OTAN. See Fatherland (Nur-OTAN)
   (Kazakhstan)
 Otechestvo (Fatherland) movement
   (Russia), 109, 110
 “Our Home is Our City” movement
   (Russia), 94n18
 Our Home is Russia (NDR) party, 24–26, 74
   commitment problems and failure
   of, 105–6
   electoral losses of, 90–91
   failure of, 89–105
   formation of, 89–90

310 Index

- Our Home is Russia (NDR) party (cont.)
 Kremlin lack of support for, 95–99, 104–5, 121–23
 national elites and, 92–93, 104–5 presidential and regional neglect of, 92 regional elites lack of support for, 92, 93–95, 99–105
 rump status of, 108
- parliamentary institutions
 commitment problems and, 66
 cross-national measures strength of, 163
 independence of, 58–59 regional parliaments, business elites
 in, 224–29
 United Russia Party control of, 169–70
- Parliamentary Powers Index, 163
- Partido Revolucionario Institucional (PRI), 1, 7–8
 as dominant party, 200–1 elite circulation and, 10–13 factors in dominance of, 13 hegemony of, 89f1.2 opposition to, 246–47
 patron-client ties and, 32 policy direction controlled by, 186 “presidencialismo” period and discipline
 of, 176–77
- Party for Russian Unity and Accord (PRES), 80–81, 88, 92–93
- Party of Life (Russia), 142–43
- Party Projects of United Russia Party, 167–68, 170–71
- party-state model in communist regimes, 186
- party substitutes, in electoral campaigns, 48
- patron-client ties Mexican PRI and, 10–13, 32
 proliferation of dominant parties and, 14
 Putin’s development of, 112–14
 in Russia, 30–32
 United Russia Party influence on, 135, 136–37, 160–68, 183–85
- Pempel, T. J., 4–5
- Penn World Tables, 255
- People’s Democratic party (PDP) (Nigeria), 1, 7–8, 17, 45, 200–1
- People’s National Congress (PNC)
 (Guyana), 5
- People’s Party (Russia), 142–43
- People’s Republic of China dominant party rule in, 277 parliamentary clashes with business elites in, 162n7
 single party regime in, 9
- Percent Russian indicator, gubernatorial ethnic resources and, 213, 215–20
- personalism, future of authoritarian regimes and role of, 279–81
- Philippines
 elite control of resources in, 69–70
 political bosses in, 52
- Platov, Vladimir, 114
- Pligin, Vladimir, 165
- Poland, dominant party rule in, 277
- Polish United Worker’s Party, 277
- political appointments avoidance of term limits
 through, 150–53
 costs of cooperation and incentives to renege, 54–55
 delegation of elite control over, 63–64 elected officials as, 146n70
 routinization of, 53
- political decentralization
 probability of dominant party emergence
 and, 262–65
 strength of elites and leaders
 and, 249–56
- political machines
 autonomous resources of, 116–21
 in collectivized agriculture, 237 economic resources controlled
 by, 211–13
 elite dismantling of, 63–64
 in ethnic regions, 85, 99
 ethnic resources of, 213, 253
 geographic and administrative resources
 for, 213–14
 as gubernatorial inherited political resources, 211
- Our Home Party neglected by, 92
- in post-Soviet Russian politics, 80–81, 84–85
- Putin’s cooptation of, 143–46
 of regional elites, 87, 108–9, 115–16, 141–42, 155–58
 strength of elites and leaders
 over, 249–56
- United Russian Party cooptation of, 183–85, 196–98
- political parties. See also dominant parties in autocratic regimes, 1–4 commitment problem and formation
 of, 65–66
 elite commitment and formation
 of, 47–48
- First Russian Republic and absence
 of, 76–78
- new institutionalist theory and, 35–37

- Our Home is Russia party, 89–105
in post-Soviet Russia, 48
Russian legislative reforms
concerning, 193–95
Russian regional parties, 115n8
Russia's Choice party, failure of, 79–89
Yeltsin's initiatives for creation of, 89–90
- politsovet* (political councils).
business elites and, 131–32
conflicts within, 183–85 delegation of authority to, by United Russia Party, 188–92
gubernatorial membership in, 208
local elites and, 135 mobility and turnover in, 170–71 regional governors in, 95 regional *politsovet*s, 166–67 United Russia Party organization and role of, 133–34
- Popov, Gavril, 77–78, 80–81
Popov, Sergei, 122, 139–40 popularity of regime leaders dominant party investment and, 45n5
Putin's popularity decline and, 271–77
- Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola (MPLA), 46
- population dispersion, strength of elites and leaders and, 251–53
- power-sharing balance of resources and, 23–24, 70–73
by elites and leaders, 23–24, 42–43, 45–46
- First Russian Republic manipulation
of, 75–76
regime survival and, 7–8
regional elites and, 84–85
strength of elites and leaders linked to, 249–56
by United Russia party, 25
- Presidential Administration (Russia) absence of party affiliation in, 185–86 declining United Russia Party influence in, 273n5
dominance of legislative process
by, 162
Duma list of candidates and, 188 regional elite relations with, 188–92
United Russia Party and, 132–34,
136–46, 172–73, 182–83, 187
- Primakov, Yevgenii, 25, 110, 111
primary party organization (PPOs), 185 prisoner's dilemma, commitment credibility and, 49–50 private sector, party affiliation of business elites in, 229–33, 234
- privatization
business elites and, 222–24
demise of dominant parties and, 13–16
Russian regional elites' power over, 87, 99–101
- proportional electoral system, Russian shift
to, 145, 193–95
- Przeworski, Adam, 12, 245–46, 277–79
- public sector
party affiliation of business elites in, 229–33, 234–37
patronage resources in, 222–24
- Putin, Vladimir
declining popularity of, 271–77
defections from regime of, 179–83, 195–96
dominant parties and, 40–41
Duma negotiations of, 176–77 economic conditions and rise of, 137–46 election as president, 111 gubernatorial elites and electoral reforms of, 204–5, 209–10 limits on United Russia imposed
by, 185–96
party coalition building and, 112–14 public approval of, 142–43
regional elites and, 4, 17, 24–26, 34, 107–8, 116–23
United Russia Party and, 89f1.2, 26–32, 124–25, 127, 136, 152, 192–93, 195,
199–200
Yeltsin and, 110–11
- qualitative analysis
dominant parties and democratization outcomes, 12–13
dominant party emergence and, 41
- Rakhimov, Murtaza
commitment problems of, 198
federal government and,
112–14, 146–47
Russia's Choice Party and, 81
United Russia Party and, 124–25, 205–6, 208–9
- Rally of the Togolese People, 277
- RAO-Unified Energy Systems, 234–37
- rational choice theory dominant party analysis and, 35–37 political party formation and, 47
- regime leaders
agreements with elites,
monitoring of, 63
balance of resources and cooperation with elites, 70–73

312 Index

- regime leaders (cont.)
 benefits for elites from, 50–53, 55–56
 commitment problems for,
 50–55, 66–67
 costs of cooperation and incentives to
 renege, 54–55, 56–57, 198–99
 credible commitments of, 49, 60–63 defined, 42
 dominant party emergence and, 42–58, 247, 267–71
 failure of, 277–79
 generating support and winning elections, 52
 global patterns of party dominance and characteristics of, 245–49
 modeling of strength of, 256–57
 parallel party organizations for, 59–60 population dispersion and strength
 of, 251–53
 preexisting party constraints on, 46
 presidential succession in Mexico, 186
 regional elites and, 43–44
 relinquishing authority to parties
 by, 61–62
 rent distribution (rent-seeking)
 by, 257–65
 replacement of, 61
 reputation mechanisms for credibility enhancement, 62
 routinization of political appointments by, 53
 strength of, 249–65
 United Russia Party benefits for, 176–96
- regional elites. See also business elites;
 elites; ethnic regions; gubernatorial elites; national elites access to policy and spoils through United Russia Party, 160–68
 autonomy of, 83–89, 108–9, 149–50
 benefits of United Russia Party
 for, 160–75
 business elites and, 101n31, 237–38 career advancement through United Russia Party for, 168–73
 coercion of, to join United Russia, 150–53
 collective action problems of, 192–93
 commitment problems in Russia
 of, 105–6
 definition of, 42–43
 discipline of, under United Russia Party, 154–55
 dominant party emergence and, 4, 40–41, 74, 123, 267–71
 in early post-Soviet Russia, 24–26, 40–41
 economic conditions in Russia and, 83–89, 99–101
 electoral politics and, 102–4, 109–10, 183–85, 188–92
 ethnic minorities and strength of, 253
 federal government in Russia and, 85–87, 108–9, 112–14, 123, 137–46
 in First Russian Republic, 74–79
 lack of party affiliation in Russia
 of, 89–90
 leaders' ties with, 37, 43–44
 legislative-governor relations, 162, 188–92
 lobbying activities of, 166–67
 logrolling in local and regional parliaments by, 161–62
 multiple political affiliations of, 114–15
 Our Home Party and, 92, 93–95, 99–105
 political decentralization and strength
 of, 249–56
 political machines of, 109, 183–85
 population dispersion and strength
 of, 251–53
 professions of regional deputies, 231 purges by United Russia Party of, 170–71, 177–78
 Putin and, 111, 137–46
 regional legislatures, economic elites
 in, 222–29
 regional parties and movements and,
 115n8, 115–16
 Russia's Choice party failure and, 80–81 uncertainty reduced by United Russian Party for, 168–73
 United Russia Party and, 26–32, 123–37, 139–40, 146–55, 188–92, 196–98
 Unity Party of Russia and, 111–12, 114–21
 voting discipline in regional legislatures, 177–78
 Yeltsin and, 83–89, 102–4, 108–9
- Remington, Thomas, 161–62, 163
 rent distribution (rent-seeking)
 costs of cooperation and incentives to
 renege, 54–55
 democratization and, 222–24, 242–43
 dominant parties and, 17, 257–65
 leadership strength and, 254–56
 Our Home is Russia party and lack
 of, 96–99
 by Russian regional elites, 89, 163
 United Russia Party role in, 161–62

- Reuter, Ora John, 52, 163, 172, 179–83
 revolutionary organizations dominant party emergence and role of, 270
   dominant party origins in, 46
 Reznik, Vladislav, 151
 Robertson, Graeme, 163, 172
 Rodina party, 191–92
 Roizman, Evgenii, 182n44
 roll-call voting, institution of compulsory voting, 177–78 Rossel, Eduard, 93–95, 148n73, 151 ruling parties, in autocratic regimes, 1–4
 Russian Congress of People's Deputies, 74–79, 85–87
 Russian Federation, Russia regional elites and legacy of, 85–87
 Russian Movement for Democratic Reforms, 80–81
 Russian Union of Industrialists and Entrepreneurs, 129–31
 Russia's Choice party Chechnya conflict and, 92–93
   failure of, 79–89, 105–6
   formation of, 79
   loss of power by, 89–90
 Rwandan Patriotic Front (FPR), 7–8
 Ryabov, Andrei, 115n8
 Rybkin, Ivan, 89–90
- Sadat, Anwar, 277
 Sanchez-Cuenca, Ignacio, 22, 49
 Scott, James, 52
 Shabdurasulov, Igor, 110n3
 Shaimiev, Mintimer, 205–6
   Kremlin and, 146–47
   political machines and, 109, 141
   post-Soviet politics and, 94n17, 94–95
   United Russia Party and, 124–25, 208–9
 Shakhrai, Sergei, 80–81, 83–90, 92–93
 Shevardnadze, Eduard, 7–8
 Shoigu, Sergei, 110–11
 Shokhin, Alexander, 81, 104–5, 108
 Shvetsova, Olga, 109–10, 111
 Sidel, John, 52
 single member districts (SMDs)
   business elites in, 150 challenges to United Russia Party from, 276n18 election of legislators from, 224–29
   Our Home is Russia party and, 90–91, 95–99
   political machines in, 87
   Putin's coalitions with, 112–14
   Russian party coalitions in, 123–24
   Russia's Choice Party and, 79–80, 81
   United Russia party influence on, 127–29, 140–41, 145, 149, 154–55
   Unity Party presence in, 115, 115n10 single parties
   as dominant parties, 9 modernization and evolution of, 14–15 regimes characterized as, 247–48
 Sizov, Aleksander, 166–67
 SKRIN Ltd., 233
 Slider, Darrell, 103
 Sluzhu Kuzbassu (I Serve the Kuzbass) movement, 148, 207–8
 Smith, Benjamin, 15–16, 45
 Smyth, Regina, 37, 48, 65–66, 145, 229–33
 Sobchak, Anatolii, 80–81
 Sobyenin, Sergei, 124–25, 136–37, 146–47, 172n25, 186n51 social benefits, monetization of
   business elites role in, 140–41
   government-United Russia Party conflict over, 192–93 United Russia Party cohesion over, 176–77
 Social Democrats (Sweden), 4–5 Socialist party of Yugoslavia, 7–8 social opposition defections from United Russia Party as, 179–83, 224–29 dominant parties' influence on division of, 6 inherited political resources and emergence of, 257–65 strength of leaders in relation to, 255 society-based variables in dominant party origins, 44–47
 South Africa, dominant party in, 5
 Southwest Africa People's Organization (SWAPO), 5
 Soviet Congress of People's Deputies, competitive elections for, 74–79 Soviet Union collapse of, 24–26, 75
   party-state structure in, 187
   Russia regional elites and institutional legacy of, 85–87
 "Soyuz Pravykh Sil" (Union of Right Forces) party, 112–14
 Special Purpose Programs, 167–68
 spoils distribution
   costs of cooperation and incentives to renege, 54–55

314 Index

- spoils distribution (cont.)
 delegation of elite control over, 63–64, 191–92
 elite commitment and, 12, 18, 61–62 independence of dominant parties
 concerning, 59–60
 logrolling of legislation and, 51–52 loyalty to leaders and, 50–51
 routinized political appointments and, 53 security of elite access to, 56, 191–92
 United Russia Party role in, 28–32,
 160–68, 186, 191–92
 Stable Russia group, 92–93
 Stalin, Joseph, 187
 Stankevich, Sergei, 81
 state-affiliated businesses economic elites from, 222–24
 party affiliation in, 229–33, 234–37
 Stroeve, Egor, 88, 94–95, 207n3
 Strossner, Alfredo, 7–8
 subnational elites. See regional elites Sumin, Petr, 94n17
 Surkov, Vladislav, 110n3, 124–25, 136–37, 139, 144–45, 186
 Svolik, Milan W., 23n6
 Sweden, dominant parties in, 4–5
 Szakonyi, David, 52
- Taiwan, dominant party-leadership commitment problems in, 187 Tanganyika Africa National Union (TANU), 11, 46
 tax avoidance, in post-Soviet Russia, 232–33
 tax policy
 commitment problems and establishment of, 66
 immobile assets and, 222–24
 temperature per capita metric, 252n5
The World Economy: Historical Statistics, 255
 third-party institutions absence in dictatorships of, 2–3 commitment of political parties and, 47 commitment problems of dominant
 parties and, 58–59
 dominant parties and role of, 267–71
 Russian party development and, 103–4
 Third Wave regimes, democratization and dominant party emergence in, 248–49, 277–79
 Tishanin, Alexander, 190
 Titov, Konstantin, 109, 112–14, 150–53
 Tkhakushnov, Aslan, 146n71, 172n24
 Togo, dominant party emergence in, 277 transaction costs in politics elite cooperation and reduction of, 56 pro-regime candidates, coordination of linked to, 53
 United Russia Party reduction of, 30–32
 Transformation of the Urals Party, 94n17
 Travkin, Nikolai, 77–78, 80–81
 Trofimov, Evgenii, 187, 197
 True Whig Party (Liberia), 45
 Tuleev, Aman, 109, 148, 207–8
 Turchak, Andrei, 172
 Turkmenistan, single party regime in, 9
 Turovsky, Rostislav, 169–70
 two-sided commitment problem dominant party formation
 and, 48–58
 independence of dominant parties
 and, 59–60
 summary of, 58
- Ukraine
 authoritarian regime in, 2 ‘colored’ revolution in, 34–35 dominant party influence in, 176 Russian dominant party cohesion and crisis in, 276
 uncertainty, United Russia Party dominance and reduction of, 154–55, 168–73
 uncommon democracies, 4–5
 Union for the Republic (Togo), 277
 “United Election Days” (Russia), 145–46
 United Front (China), 277
 United Malays National Organization
 (UMNO), 1, 89f1.2, 187, 200–1, 277
 United Russia Party, 1
 access to policy and spoils and, 160–68 accommodative arrangements and membership rules in, 168–73 approval ratings for, 135–36
 autonomous resources of, 183–85, 186
 benefit to authoritarian regime
 of, 159–60
 benefits of membership in, 150–53, 160–75
 business elites and, 129–31, 150, 153–54
 career advancement opportunities
 and, 168–73
 cell organizations in, 135 coalition building by, 123–24 coercion to join, for regional and gubernatorial elites, 150–53, 209–10
 collective action problems managed
 by, 192–93

- commitment problems and, 30–32, 154–58, 185–98
- current organizational structure of, 133–34
- declining popularity of, 271–77
- defections from, 179–83, 193–96, 224–29, 276–77
- as dominant party, 89f1.2, 26–32, 39–40, 198–201, 267–71
- Duma coalition, 176–77
- electoral benefits of membership in, 173–75
- electoral reforms and strengthening of, 146
- electoral success and mobilization of popular support by, 183–85
- evolution from 2001–2010 of, 123–55
- executive branch influence on, 164–66
- future challenges after 2011–2012 elections, 271–77
- grassroots organization by, 185
- gubernatorial elites and, 127–29, 136–37, 172–73, 196–98, 206–10, 214–15
- Kremlin and, 137–46, 176–85
- leadership commitment and role of, 185–96
- lobbying activities of, 166–67
- logit models of party affiliation, 234
- membership statistics for, 126–27
- natural resources affect on loyalty to, 222–24
- origins of, 4, 24–26
- party brand of, 150–53
- popularity of, 173–75
- purges in regional branches by, 170–71
- Putin's association with, 107–8, 195
- “Putin's Plan” platform of, 136
- regime stability and, 32–35
- regional elites and, 26–32, 45, 123–37, 139–40, 146–55, 196–98
- regional legislative dominance of, 125–26, 127–29, 139–40, 224–29
- resource ownership and membership in, 229–33
- Russian governors' support for, 127–29, 136–37
- statistical analysis of gubernatorial affiliation with, 214–20
- uncertainty reduction by, 154–55, 168–73
- vote mobilization in support of, 47
- United Socialist Party of Venezuela, 277
- United States, political party formation in, 47
- Unity and Progress movement, 94n17, 107–8
- Unity Party (Russia)
  - decline in regional elections of, 123–24
  - electoral success of, 111
  - evolution in 1999–2001 of, 24–26, 108–12
  - founding of, 110–11
  - Kremlin relations with, 112–14, 116–21
  - OVR merger with, 112, 123–24, 139, 146–47
  - regional elites and, 111–12, 114–21, 214
  - United Russia party and, 123
- universities, United Russia Party dominance in, 131–32
- Ural Rebirth party, 94n17
- Urlashov, Evgenii, 182n44
- Vargas, Getulio, 2
- Vekselberg, Viktor, 129–31
- Venezuela, dominant party rule in, 277
- Vietnam, single party regime in, 9
- Volodin, Vyacheslav
  - Executive branch and, 171–72
  - in Presidential Administration, 136–37, 186n51
  - Putin and, 152
  - regional elites and, 170–71
  - United Russia Party and, 133–34, 141, 273n5
- Voloshin, Alexander, 110n3
- Vorob'ev, Andrei, 154–55
- Vorobyov, Andrei, 172
- vote mobilization
  - candidates' personal vote resources and, 48
  - elite role in, 47, 214
  - registration procedures for elections and, 173–75
  - United Russia Party role in, 183–85, 205–6
- voter expectations
  - dominant parties' influence on, 6
  - leaders' strength and, 254–56
- Vozrozhdeniye (Revival) movement, 109
- Way, Lucan, 12–13
- wealthy countries, lack of dominant parties in, 257–65
- Weibull test, statistical analysis of gubernatorial party affiliation and, 214–20

316 Index

- Weingast, Barry, 58–59, 66
 Weldon, Jeffrey, 176–77
 within-case analyses, dominant party
 emergence and, 40–41
 World Bank Development Indicators, 254n8
- Yakovlev, Vladimir, 109
 Yakunin, Vladimir, 129–31
 Yanukovich, Viktor, 280
 Yarovaya, Irina, 170–71
 Yavlinsky, Grigory, 80–81, 83–89
 Yeltsin, Boris, 17 failing health of, 108–9
   failure of Russia's Choice party and, 79–89 Fatherland-All Russia (OVR) party
   and, 110
- as First Russian Republic leader, 74–79 leadership weaknesses of, 83–89
 Our Home is Russia party and, 92,
   95–99, 104–5, 121–23
 political motivations of, 82–83 reelection campaign of, 102–4
 regional elites and, 74, 85–87
 Russia's Choice opposition to, 89–90 undermining of parties by, 4, 105–6
 United Russia Party and, 24–26
 Yumashev, Valentin, 110n3
- Zelawi, Menes, 89f1.2
 'zero-reading' logrolling policy, 160–68
 Zheleznyak, Sergei, 170–71
 Zhirinovskiy, Vladimir, 79–80
 Zyuganov, Gennady, 102