Index

accountability
adversarial form of adjudication, 60, 289–92
boundary crossing, 289–92
case loads, 133–4
citizen meetings, 33–4 comparisons drawn regarding, 166–9
conclusions, 74–5
CPS, 102–3
criminal law, 15–17
criminality narratives construction, 44–51
democratic citizenship, 43–59 democratic functionality, 59–74 discretion, 32–9
domestic violence, 54–7
due process, 45
education, 48–51
elections, prosecutorial, 62–3
electoral process, 206–10
England and Wales, 96–8, 102–3 extortion versus robbery, 54
France, 96–102
gatekeeping, 47–8
German case study lessons related to, 165–6
German civil code, 147–8
German prosecutors, 161–5
hate crimes, 54–7
independence versus, 206 inequality, 46–7 legislative, 57–9
narratives, 48–51
organized crime, 54–7
overview, 49–5
parquet, 98–102
penal laws turned into action, 44–7
to person facing prosecution, 34–9
police, 52–3
political contribution, 45–6 power, targeting illegitimate exercises of, 53–7 presenting authoritative accounts of criminality, 47–51
within profession, 32–3 professionalism, 45
public wrongs, 15–16
pulling levers, 293–4
Range case, 161–5
reason-giving, 121–2
social injustice, 34–9
transparency, 70
typologies, 60
collateral consequences, 72–4 elected political hierarchies, 62–3 information use, 72–4 politically insulated bureaucracies, 62–3 rationality and equality language, 64–70 scale of accountability, 70–2 U.S., 57–9, 166–9
to whom and how, 32–9, 51–9 adversarial form of adjudication accountability, 60, 289–92 answering to charge in, 15–16 boundary blurring, 276–7
democratic oversight, 293
democratic pluralism, 287–8
demographic disparities, 294–6
impartiality, 316–17
labelling of criminal cases in, 17 mediating effect of prosecutors in, 46–7 adversarial form of adjudication (cont.)
mediating figures, prosecutors as, 325
minister of justice, 320–2
narrative, 49
opportunity principle, 317
participatory democracy, 287, 288
prosecutor role in, 286–7
transparency, 296–9
trials, 9–10
U.S. and German systems compared, 140–1
Alaska, 322
Alizadeh, Kathi, 214–15
Allgood, Forrest, 290
Alvarez, Anita, 225
American Convention on Human Rights, 330
Anti-Drug Abuse Act, 200 APs. See associate prosecutors assisted suicide
CPS, 86–7
prosecutorial discretion, 29–31
associate prosecutors (APs), 89–90
Attorney General, 86–7, 207
Attorneys Manual. See Department of Justice
U.S. Attorneys Manual
Baltimore, Maryland. See Freddie Gray case
Barkow, Rachel, 178
Bäumler-Hosl, Hildegard, 160
Beckedahl, Markus, 161–2 bias
implicit, 205
towards police, 213
post-bureaucratic organization, 179 professional judgment, 178, 179 racial, 179, 205
Black Lives Matter, 212–13
bottom-up policy making, 131–3
boundary crossing
accountability, 289–92
discretion, 292
prosecutor role as, 286–7 separation of powers, 201
transparency, 296–9
Boyne, Shawn Marie, 56–7
Bronx Defenders, 247
Brown, Michael. See Michael Brown case burden
proportionality, 25–6
trials as, 18
Burger Court, 322–4
burglary case example, 203–5
CAR. See Criminal Alien Requirement prisons
carpenter’s mistake, 109
case loads, in France
geographic specialization, 133–4
high number of, 133
specialization, 133–4
categorical decision-making, 179
charging Freddie Gray case, 217
grand juries, 198
life-changing consequences of, 196–7 opacity of, 197
prosecutorial discretion, 196–202
race, 196–202
Schottdorf investigation, 160
Standards for the Prosecution Function, 197
Cházar, Angélica, 240
Chirac, Jacques, 100–1
Chisholm, John, 222–4 citizens
accountability, 33–4
community prosecution role of, 333–8 criminal law for, 11–16 criminal law shaping, 51 immigrants incorporated as, 229 citizenship, democratic
accountability, 43–59
constructing and sustaining, 43–59 criminality narratives construction, 44–51
education, 48–51
gatekeeping, 47–8
loss of rights of, 51
narratives, 48–51
penal laws turned into action, 44–7
presenting authoritative accounts of criminality, 47–51
civic trust, 18
Clemency Initiative, 201–2
Code for Crown Prosecutors
evidential test, 20
public interest test, 24–5 collective wisdom, 154–5 Colom, Scott, 279–80, 290
Colombia, 310, 334
color blind equality, 256–7 common law, criminal law as, 14 community prosecution
citizen role in, 333–8
for empowerment, 282–3 intelligence-led prosecution, 282–3
model, 182
participatory democracy, 285
representative democracy, 306–7
as symbolic, 282
concern. See equal concern and respect Connick v. Thompson, 177–8, 183–4
Conseil supérieur de la magistrature (CSM), 117–14
costantability
in France, 122–4
procédure pénales, 123
conviction mentality, 138–9 Cooley, Steven, 234 corruption, 54–7
Courroye, Philippe, 136
Cox, Dale, 279–80
CPS. See Crown Prosecution Service
Criminal Alien Requirement prisons (CAR), 228–9
Criminal Justice System, adversarial ideal of, 444–5
Criminal law
accountability, 15–17
burden, 18
for citizens, 11–16
citizens shaped by, 51
claim of necessity, 19
as common law, 14
criminality narratives construction, 44–51
democratic citizenship, 43–59
due process, 45
evidential test, 20–4
formal versus substantive terms, 21–2
good reason, 18
labelling of cases, 17
legality principle, 19–20
mala in se, 16
opportunity principle, 19–20
overview, 9–11
parochialism, 9–10
penal laws turned into action, 44–7
plea bargains, 9–10
Pol, 17–18
political contribution influencing, 45–6
proportionality, 25–6
prosecutor’s role in, 16–20
public interest test, 24–32
public wrongs, 14–15
Criminality, presenting authoritative accounts of, 47–51
Criminalization by proxy, 235
Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) accountability and policy from within, 102–3 APs, 89–90
assisted suicide, 86–7
Attorney General, 86–7
domestic violence, 86–7
EIA, 88
in England and Wales, 86–90
Full Code Test, 89
local policy, 103
offender’s choice, 90
PACE, 88
public interest, 102
R v. Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis, ex parte Blackburn, 88–9 role of, 86–90
serious, complex cases, 88 structure of, 87–8
Threshold Test, 89
CSM. See Conseil supérieur de la magistrature culture of misconduct, 262–3 De Minimi provision
evidential test, 22
proportionality, 25–6
dear colleague letter, 268 deliberation, in France, 120–4
costantability, 122–4
reason-giving, 120–2
democracy. See also specific form of democracy achieving functionality and accountability in, 59–74 public trust, 18
diffusion and localization of, 70 divergent understandings of, 283–6
electoral process, 266–10
equal concern and respect, 11–14
as exclusionary, 228–9
eyeball test, 11–14
French prosecutors as agents of, 110
good reason, 18
localism, 131–3
Pol, 17–18
politics, better, 250–3
post-bureaucratic organization, 191–4 relationship between prosecutors and overview, 276–7 democracy (cont.)
  politics as bureaucratic professionalism substitute, 278–80
  politics as enemy of justice, 277–8, 279 politics improved with transparency, 280–1 prosecution as community empowerment, 282–3 stakeholder, 193–4

democratic pluralism
  adversarial form of adjudication, 287–8
  demographic disparities, 294–6
  inquisitorial form of adjudication, 287, 288–9 participatory democracy compared with, 283–6
  themes of, 284
  transparency, 285, 286–9

demographic disparities, 294–6
Department of Justice (DOJ)
  Gupta, 268
  responsibility for excesses, 267
Department of Justice U. S. Attorneys Manual, 184
  Dignitas clinic, 29–31
  dignity, politics of, 252
  conclusions, 256–70
  dear colleague letter, 268
  dehumanization, 327–9
  Gascón, 268–9
  humanizing punished, 269
  overview, 265–6
  procedural justice, 266
  representative democracy, 307–8
  responsibility for excesses, 266–9

Director of Public Prosecutions (DPP), 83–4 Policy for Prosecutors in Respect of Cases of Encouraging or Assisting Suicide, 26–31 policy making role of, 85–6 disciplinary proceedings, 152–3 discretion, prosecutorial. See also post-bureaucratic organization
  accountability, 32–9
  accountability to person facing prosecution, 34–9
  allocation of resources, 28
  assisted suicide, 29–31
  bottom-up policy making, 131–3
  boundary crossers, 292
  case loads, 133–4
  charging, 196–202
  civil code as constraint on, 147–8
  conviction mentality, 138–9
  European limits on, 61
  evidential test, 20–4
  executive branch pressure, 61
  France, 71
  good faith, 129
  immigration, 263–4
  legal democracy, 322–4
  legislative carelessness, 23
  limiting, 129
  mercy, 25–6
  normal correspondence thesis, 27
  pre-trial detention, 130
  proportionality, 25–6
  public interest test, 24–32
  pulling levers, 293–4
  race, 196–206
  retributive justice, 28
  rule of law, 28–9
  self-censuring behaviors, 129–30
  social injustice, 34–9
  unionization, 134–6
  weak and strong, 32
  wide discretion as undemocratic, 24
  dismissals, case, 157–4

District Attorneys, 207 diversity, France, 124–8 demographics, 124–5 gender imbalance, 124–5, 127 homogeneity, 124–5
  race, ethnicity, 125–7
  representative bureaucracy, 124
  Division of Recidivism Reduction and Reentry
    (DR), 261–2

DOJ. See Department of Justice

Dolovich, Sharon, 228
  domestic violence
    CPS, 86–7
    power, 54–7

DPP. See Director of Public Prosecutions

DR 3. See Division of Recidivism Reduction and Reentry

drug case example, of racial disparity, 202–3 due process, accountability, 45

Duff, Antony, 48–51, 229

early investigative advice (EIA), 88

École nationale de la magistrature (ENM), 113
  education
    democratic citizenship, 48–51
    politically socializing experiences, 48
Index

efficiency pressures, 319 EIA. See early investigative advice
elections, prosecutorial
accountability, 62–3
representative democracy, 302–8
Switzerland, 302
electoral process
Attorney General, 207
District Attorneys, 207
federal, 208–9
history, 207
McCulloch, 219–22
Mosby, 219–22
public, 209–10
race, 206–10
state and local, 207–8
Emanuel, Rahm, 284
England and Wales. See also Crown Prosecution Service
changing shape of role in, 85–90
conclusions, 103–5
delegation of work, 94
French system compared with, 84–5 hierarchical structure in, 98 independence and accountability relationship in, 96–8, 102–3
legal democracy, 313
legality principle, 316–18
other prosecutorial agencies in, 84
overview, 76–78
police-prosecutor relationship in, 78, 83–5
public interest, 102
race, 127
right to silence, 79–80
ENM. See École nationale de la magistrature equal concern and respect, 11–14
European limits, on discretion, 61 evidence
carpenter’s mistake, 109
case loads
geographic specialization, 133–4
evidence sufficient to prove commission of
offence, 20–1
formal versus substantive terms, 21–2
legislative carelessness, 23
overview, 16–20
prosecutorial discretion, 20–4
wide discretion as undemocratic, 24
evidence-based empiricism, 260–3
evidence sufficient to prove commission of
offence, 20–1
formal versus substantive terms, 21–2
executive branch
checks and balances on, 206 French
external hierarchy, 117–18
history, 117
insubordination, 118
internal hierarchy, 118–20 subordination of prosecutors to, 117–18 German prosecutors, 143
parquet, 100–1
prosecutorial discretion, 61
experimentalist organization. See
post-bureaucratic organization
explicit norms, 179–80
extortion, 54
eyeball test, 11–14
Fair Sentencing Act, 201–2
fairness, 104
Falcone, Giovanni, 97–8
Di Federico, Giuseppe, 96–7 felonies, low level, 241–2 Ferguson, Missouri. See Michael Brown case focused deterrence strategy, 190–1 Force Ouvrière Magistrats, 134–6 formal test, 21–2
Fox, Kim, 225
France. See French prosecutors Frank, Christoph, 164–5
Freddie Gray case
acquittals in, 218
background of, 215–16
cases in, 217
electoral process, 219–22
grand jury in, 218
Mosby, 215–18
press conference related to, 217–18 protests related to, 216–17
special prosecutor, 218 freedom of press, 162–4 French prosecutors. See also parquet carpenter’s mistake, 109
case loads
geographic specialization, 133–4
French prosecutors (cont.)
high number of, 133
specialization, 133–4
changing shape of role of, 85–6, 90–6 collective decision-making, 118–19
conclusions, 123–5, 136–7
contestability, 122–4
couples, 129
CSM, 113–14
de facto independence, 128–36 deliberation practices of, 120–4 democracy agents, 110 discretion of, 71
diversity, 124–8
England and Wales system compared with, 84–5 ENM, 113
ethics, judicial, 128–9
evaluation system, 118
fairness, 104
garde à vue procedure, 78–9
good faith, 129
impartiality, 216
independence and accountability relationship, 96–102 independence of, 314
interview methodology used in studying, 111–12 as judges, 109–10
judicial authority, 77
juge d’instruction
attempt to abolish, 81–2
independence of, 80–1
minister of justice, 80–1
legal democracy, 311–12, 314
legality principle, 316–18
origins of police relationship with, 78–83
peer review, 128–31
policy making and specialization, 131–4
bottom-up policy making, 131–3
case loads, 137–4
political interference, 61 political promotions of, 112–14
pre-trial detention, 130
procédure pénale, 82, 123
promotion system, 136 prosecutorial power of, 78–82
public interest, 102
qualitative research methods used in studying, 111–12 reason-giving, 120–2
school, 113
selection process of, bureaucratic, 112–14
self-censuring behaviors, 129–30
separation of powers, 115–20
bizarre configuration of, 115 executive branch external hierarchy, 117–18 executive branch internal hierarchy, 118–20 judicial branch, 115–17
single corps, single courthouse, 115–17 substitution of, 119–20 telephone justice, 114
tenure of, 113
to theory of organizations perspective of, 128–31 transfers, promotions, and removals of, 113–14
unionization, 134–6
Full Code Test, 89
garde à vue procedure, 78–9
Garner, Eric, 211
Gascón, George, 251–2
intelligence-led prosecution, 282–3
lenience campaign of, 268–9
smart on crime, 261, 268–9
gatekeeping, 47–8
gender, France, 124–5, 127
General Public Prosecutors, 102
German
directives issued by, 151 hierarchical organization of offices, 149–51
Schottdorf case, 159–61
supervisory activities of, 150 German prosecutors. See also Rechtsstaat as apolitical figures, 141–2 bureaucratic controls collective wisdom norm, 154–5 documentation, 151–2 efficiency, quest for, 152–3
General Public Prosecutors, 149–51
LOSTA, 152–2
Ministry of Justice, 148–9
office leadership, 151–2 public complaints about case dismissals, 153–4 supervision, departmental, 152–3 bureaucratic structure related to, 143–5 career trajectory of, 153

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org
Index

case dismissals, 153–4
civil code as constraint on, 147–8 comparisons, preliminary, 141–3 department managers, 152–3 disciplinary proceedings, 152–3
duty to prosecute, 150–1
efficiency pressures, 319
executive branch, 145
federal, 142–4
history related to, 142–3 hybrid role of, 159
impartiality, 316
independence of, 314–15
law and state, 141–8
legal democracy, 312–13, 314–15
legality principle, 316–18
Ministry of Justice, 144–5
invisible hand of, 155–7 offices hierarchical organization, 148–9 oversight case studies, 150–65 lessons from, 165–6
Range case, 161–5
Schottdorf investigation, 159–61
overview, 141
parliamentary oversight of, 157–9
plea bargaining, 319
political accountability, public interest, 161–5 political influence, 155–7 Range, 138
reform, calls for, of, 139–40 rotation of positions of, 166–7 as staffed by civil servants, 142 state level, 143–4
truth finding role of, 145 under-prosecution by, 139 U.S. system compared with, 140–1, 166–9
good reason, 18
Goodson, Caesar, Jr., 217
grand jury, 198
in Freddie Gray case, 218 in Michael Brown case, 214–15
Gray, Freddie. See Freddie Gray case group decision-making, 180
Gupta, Vanita, 268
Harald Range case. See Range case
Harris, Kamala, 251–2
DR3, 261–2
return on investment, 259–60
Smart on Crime, 252
Hart, H. L. A., 48–51
hate crimes, 54–7
Hayek, Friedrich, 309
High Council of the Judiciary. See Conseil supérieur de la magistrature Hodgson, Jacqueline, 71
Hogan, Larry, 216–17
Holder, Eric, 251–2, 264
DOJ, 267
humanizing punished persons, 269 illegal reentry statute, 234
immigrants
defense counsel, expanding access to, for, 244–8 as incorporated into citizenry, 229 reforming treatment of, 239–48 representation for, 247
immigration
Bronx Defenders, 247
collateral consequences, 240–2
deportation for minor conviction, 227 JRAD, 243–4
misdemeanor cases, 241–2, 246–7
New York Immigrant Family Unity Project, 247
Padilla v. Kentucky, 241
participatory defense, 248
plea bargains, 240–2
pretextual prosecution, 233–6
procedural protections disparities, 233–6, 237
unequal punishment practices, 237–9
impartiality, 315–16, 319
implicit bias, 205
incapacitation through incarceration, 236
independence, prosecutorial accountability versus, 206
England and Wales, 96–8, 102–3
France, 96–102, 314
case loads, 133–4
de facto independence, 128–36
peer review, 128–31
policy making and specialization, 133–4
unionization, 134–6
German prosecutors, 314–15
in Italy, 97–8
in U.S., 97, 320
indigent defense, 58–9
inquisitorial form of adjudication
accountability, 289–92
boundary blurring, 276–7
inquisitorial form of adjudication (cont.)
democratic oversight, 293
democratic pluralism, 287, 288–9
demographic disparities, 204–6 German prosecutors as apolitical figures in,
  impartiality, 315–16
  independence and accountability related to, 104–5 local policy making, 94–5
  mediating figures, prosecutors as, 325
  minister of justice, 320–2
  narrative, 49
  participatory democracy, 287, 288–9
  prosecutor role in, 286–7
  transparency, 296–9
  trials, 9–10
in U.S., 321
U.S. and German systems compared, 140–1

Inspection générale des services judiciaires, 134–6 intelligence-led prosecution
  community prosecution, 282–3
  pulling levers, 293–4
Italy
  independence of prosecutor in, 97–8
  legality principle, 316–18

Japan, 311, 313–14
JRAD. See Judicial Recommendations Against Deportation judges
couples, 129
CSM, 113–14
ethics, judicial, 128–9
French prosecutors as, 109–10, 128–31
immigration, 242–4
peer review, 128–31
pre-trial detention, 130
self-censuring behaviors, 129–30
judgment, professional bias, 178, 179 bureaucracy, 180–1
categorical decision-making, 179
community prosecution model, 182
Connick v. Thompson, 177–8 examples related to, 177–8
explicit norms, 179–80
group decision-making, 180
non-enforcement discretion, 177 organizational form of, 170–7

Index

paradigm of, 176
racial bias, 179
recent trends related to, 178–82 traditional premises of, 176–8
judicial branch
  checks and balances on, 206
  in France, 115–17
Judicial Recommendations Against Deportation (JRAD), 243–4
juge d’instruction
  attempt to abolish, 81–2
  independence of, 80–4
  minister of justice, 80–1
Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative, 188–2
Kohl, Helmut, 136–7
Kozinski, Alex, 186
Küinast, Renate, 162–4
labelling of cases, 17
laboratory affair. See Schottendorf investigation Lacey, Nicola, 228
language, of rationality and equality, 64–70 Latin America, 316–18, 334–5
Laurin, Jennifer, 324–5
Law Enforcement Leaders to Reduce Crime and Incarceration, 225 Leaders in Law Enforcement alliance, 250
legal democracy
  advocates, 324–5
  apolitical, impartial agent, 319
Colombia, 310
  competing themes related to, 300–1
  conclusions, 338
  efficiency pressures, 319
England and Wales, 313
France, 311–12, 314
Germany, 312–13
Hayek, 309
impartiality, 315–16
independent, neutral ministers of justice, 309–26 institutional location of office, 309–13 Japan, 311, 313–14
  legality principle, 316–18
  managerial pressures, 319
  minister of justice, 320–2
  opportunity principle, 316–18
  plea bargaining, 318–19, 322–4
  prosecutorial discretion dangers, 322–4
  rule of law, 309
Index

legality principle, 19–20, 316–18
Léger Commission, 81–2
legislative accountability, 57–9 legislative branch, checks and balances on, 206 legislative carelessness, 23
legitimacy
politics, 233–5
procedural justice, 266
representative democracy, 302
Leitender Staatsanwalt (LOSTA), 151–2 liberal democracy collective responsibility, 327–9 competing themes related to, 300–1
conclusions, 338
defense of liberty, dignity, and equality, 326–32 non-citizens, 329 public office participation, 331–2 underenforcement, 326–7
Loader, Ian, 250
LOSTA See Leitender Staatsanwalt
Lynch, Loretta, 251–2 Maassen, Hans-Georg, 161–5
mala in se, 16
mala prohibita, 16
managerial pressures, 319
mandatory minimum sentences
plea bargains, 200
reform of, 201–2
states, 201–2
mandatory prosecution principle, 316–18 Martin, Trayvon, 210–11
mass incarceration
reform, 250–1
representative democracy, 303–4
McCann, Michael, 223–4
McCulloch, Robert
bias towards police of, 213
electoral process, 210–22
grand jury, 214–15
Michael Brown case, 212–15
police shootings, 219
McDonald, Laquan, 225
McCinty, Tim, 225
Meister, Andre, 161–2
mercy, public interest test, 25–6
Michael Brown case
Alizadeh, 214–15
background of, 212
bias towards police in, 213
Black Lives Matter, 212–13
electoral process, 210–22
grand jury in, 214–15
McCulloch, 212–15
protests related to, 212–13
special prosecutor requested in, 213–14 Miller, Garrett, 217
minister of justice, 80–1, 220–2
Ministry of Justice, German, 148–9
invisible hand of, 155–7
parliamentary oversight, 157–9
Schottdorf case, 159–61
Minow, Newton, 304–5
misdemeanors, immigration, 244–2, 246–7 Model Penal Code, De Minimis provision of, 22 modulate, 46–7
Mosby, Marilyn, 251–2
background about, 217
electoral process, 210–22
Freddie Gray case, 215–18
press conference of, 217–18 Mulgan, Richard, 53
Napolitano, Janet, 267–4
Nasheed, Jamilah, 213–14
National Security Agency (NSA), 162–4 necessity, claim of, 19
Nero, Edward, 217
New York Immigrant Family Unity Project, 247
Nixon, Jay, 213–14
normal correspondence thesis, 27
NSA. See National Security Agency offender choice, 90
O’Malley, Michael, 225
opportunity principle, 19–20, 316–18
organized crime, 54–7
oversight case studies, German prosecutors, 159–65
lessons from, 165–6
Range case, 169–5
Schottdorf investigation, 159–61
PACE. See Police and Criminal Evidence Act
Padilla v. Kentucky, 241
parliamentary oversight, 157–9
parochialism, 9–10
parquet
Chirac, 100–1
delegation of work, 94
Index

348

parquet (cont.)
democratic accountability through hierarchy, 98–102 executive control of, 100–1
France, 90–6
local differentiation of prosecution, 98–100
local policy making, 94–5
management role, 97–4
middle ranking offenses discretion, 100–1 oral instructions, 101–2
police, 92–3
power transfer to, 91
structure of, 81
supercop, 95
third way, 91
participatory defense, 248
participatory democracy
adversarial form of adjudication, 287, 288
citizen role in prosecution, 333–8 criticism of, 335
historical origins, 335–4
victim-rights movements, 336–8
community prosecution, 285
competing themes related to, 300–1
conclusions, 278
democratic pluralism compared with, 283–6
demographic disparities, 294–6
engagement, 284
historical background of, 285 idealism and expedience nature of, 285
inquisitorial form of adjudication, 287, 288–9
key theme of, 284
transparency, 296–9
peer review
French prosecutors, 128–31
as learning process, 187
post-bureaucratic organization, 187–8
penal welfare
politics, 255–6
recidivism, 250–3
PEP. See Priority Enforcement Program
performance measurement
focused deterrence strategy, 190–1 functions of, 189–90
post-bureaucratic organization, 188–91
Vera Institute Project on Racial Justice, 190
Philips principle, 54
plea bargaining
Alaska, 322
benefits of, 198–9
collateral consequences, 240–2
criminal law, 9–10
frequency of, 199–200
German prosecutors, 319
immigration, 240–2
involuntary, 16
legal democracy, 318–19, 322–4
low-level felonies and misdemeanors, 241–2 mandatory minimum sentences, 200 Padilla v. Kentucky, 241
as pervasive, 199–200
Proposition 8, 322
race, 196–202
reasonable doubt, 199
sentencing guidelines, 200–1
trial by jury, 321
Pol. See presumption of innocence collateral consequences, 240–2
criminal law, 9–10
collateral consequences, 240–2
criminal law, 9–10
collateral consequences, 240–2
conclusions, 270–2
culture of misconduct, 262–3
democracy, 250–3
as enemy of justice, 277–8, 279, 286
evidence-based empiricism, 260–3 improved with transparency, 280–1
legitimacy, 253–5
normative expectations of tough on crime, 255–8 penal policy, 250–3
penal welfare, 255–6
public safety, 253, 255–6
recidivism, 260–3
return on investment, 259–60
smart on crime, 259–65
Smart on Crime, 252
tough on crime paradigm, 253–5
transparency, 263–4
values, 253–5
Porter, William, 217
post-bureaucratic organization bias, racial, 179
bureaucracy, 180–6
categorical decision-making, 179
community prosecution model, 182
democracy, 194–6
elements of, 182–91
explicit norms, 179–80
focused deterrence strategy, 190–1
group decision-making, 180
mechanisms, 181, 182–91
overview, 175–6
peer review, 187–8
performance measurement, 188–91
presumptive rule, 183–5
recent trends related to, 178–82
root cause analysis of significant operating events, 185–7
stakeholder democracy, 193–4 traditional premises, 176–8
transparency, 192–3
Vera Institute Project on Racial Justice, 190
power
boundary crossers, 291
comparisons drawn regarding, 166–9
domestic violence, 54–7
extortion versus robbery, 54
of French prosecutors, 78–82
German case study lessons related to, 163–6
hate crimes, 54–7
organized crime, 54–7
parquet, 91
race, 196–206
separation of, 115–20
targeting illegitimate exercises of, 53–7 predictive prosecution. See intelligence-led prosecution presumption of competence, 256
of dangerousness, 256 presumption of innocence (Pol)
claim of necessity, 19
criminal law, 17–18
good reason, 18
presumptive rule, 183–5
pretextual prosecution
criminalization by proxy, 235
defined, 233
illegal reentry statute, 234
immigration, 233–6
low-level state crime, 234–5
transparency, 233
unintended consequences of, 235–6
pre-trial detention, 130
Price, Zachary, 177
Priority Enforcement Program (PEP), 237
PRJ. See Prosecution and Racial Justice Program Problem-Oriented Policing, 181–2 procedural justice reforms, 266
procedural protections disparities, 233–6, 237
procédure pénale, 82, 123
professionalism, 45
proportionality, 25–6
Proposition 8, 322
Proposition 47, 265
Gascon, 268–9
Prosecution and Racial Justice Program (PRJ), 222–4 prosecutors. See also specific topics increasing authority of, 1 as misunderstood, 1 overview about, 2–8 political contribution of, 45–6
professionalism, 45
regulatory trilemma related to, 43 van Aaken on role of, 41 Public Criminology? (Loader & Sparks), 250 public defender
immigrants, 244–8
immigration experts working with, 245–6 work load of, 245
public interest
England versus France regarding, 102
Range case, 161–5
representative democracy, 304–7
test
allocation of resources, 28
assisted suicide, 29–31
Code for Crown Prosecutors, 24–5
mercy, 25–6
normal correspondence thesis, 27
overview, 16–20
proportionality, 25–6
prosecutorial discretion, 24–32
retributive justice, 28
rule of law, 28–9
public wrongs
accountability, 15–16
criminal law, 14–15
pulling levers, 293–4

R v. Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis, ex parte Blackburn, 88–9
race
burglary case example, 203–5
charging, 196–202
Chisholm, 222–4
conclusions, 224–6
demographic disparities, 204–6
dignity, politics of, 352
discretion, 196–206
disparities related to, 202–6 drug case example, 202–3
electoral process, 206–10
England, 127
France, 125–7
narrow recruitment, 127 race of defendants, 126–7 race of judges and prosecutors, 125–6
implicit bias, 205
justice, role of prosecutor in achieving, 210–22
Martin, 220–11
McCulloch, 212–15
Michael Brown case, 212–15
overview, 195–6
plea bargaining, 196–202
power, 196–206
representative democracy, 307
responsibility for excesses, 266–9 selective prosecution, 205 studies on racial disparities, 205–6 victims of crime, 203–5

Index
Zimmerman, 210–11
racial bias, 179, 205
Range, Harald, 138
Range case
background, 161–2
freedom of press, 162–4
lessons from, 163–6
NSA, 162–4
political accountability, public interest, 161–5 Rawlings-Blake, Stephanie, 216–17 reasonable doubt, plea bargains, 199 reason-giving, in France, 120–2 as accountability mechanism, 121–2 circumstances requiring, 120–1 secrecy, 121
serious crimes, 122
at trial, 122
Rechtsstaat
concept of, 146
limitations of, 146 prosecutor fidelity to law, 145
rule of law, 146–7
recidivism
culture of misconduct, 262–3 decision makers impacting, 262
DR3, 261–2
smart on crime, 260–3
regulatory trilemma, 43 Rehnquist Court, 222–4
representative bureaucracy, 124
representative democracy
agents of popular will, 302–8 community prosecution, 306–7
competing themes related to, 300–1
conclusions, 338
legitimacy, 302
mass incarceration, 303–4
public interest, 304–7
race, 307
smart on crime, 307–8
Switzerland, 702
wishes of people influencing, 304 Request for Voluntary Transfer, 237 return on investment, 319–60
Rice, Brian, 217
Rice, Tamir, 211, 225
right to silence, 79–80
robbery, 54
Robert, Marc, 136
Roberts, Andrew, 71
Index

Roberts Court, 322–4
root cause analysis, of significant operating events, 185–7
rule of law
legal democracy, 329
prosecutorial discretion, 28–9
Rechtsstaat, 146–7
Schmidt-Sommerfeld, Christian, 160
Schotteldt investigation background of, 159–60
charges in, 160
lessons from, 165–6
as oversight case study, 159–61 selective prosecution, race-based, 205 sentencing guidelines, 200–1
Sentencing Reform and Corrections Act, 201–2 Sexual Offences Act, 21–2 significant operating events. See root cause analysis, of significant operating events smart on crime
conclusions, 270–2
dignity, politics of, 252
DRG, 261–2
evidence-based empiricism, 260–3 Gascón, 261, 268–9
non-violent and unserious crime, 264–5 politics, prosecutorial, of, 259–65 Proposition 47, 265
recidivism, 260–3
representative democracy, 307–8
responsibility for excesses, 266–9
return on investment, 259–60
transparency, 263–4
Smart on Crime (Harris), 252 social biography videos, 245
social injustice, 34–9
Soros, George, 280
Sparks, Richard, 250
specialization, French bottom-up policy making, 131–3
case loads, 132–4
stakeholder democracy, 193–4
stand your ground law, 210–11
Standards for the Prosecution Function, 107
Stewart, James, 279–80
Soros, 280
substantive test, 21–2
supercop, 95
Switzerland, 302
Syndicat de la magistrature, 134–6
Taskforce for 21st Century Policing, 266
telephone justice, 114
Tennessee v. Garner, 214–15
Teubner, Gunther, 93
third way, 91
Thomas, Clarence, 177–8, 186
Thompson, Kenneth, 251–2
Threshold Test, 90
Tory, Michael, 277–8
tough on crime paradigm
autonomy of prosecutors, 257–8
color blind equality, 256–7
color blind equality, 256–7
culture of misconduct, 262–3
dignity, politics of, 252
evidence-based empiricism, 260–3
Gascón, 268–9
incapacitation through incarceration, 256 legitimacy crisis, 253–5 normative expectations of, 255–8
presumption of competence, 256 presumption of dangerousness, 256 Proposition 47, 265
public safety, 253, 255–6
recidivism, 260–3
representative democracy, 307–8
responsibility for excesses, 266–9
return on investment, 259–60
transparency, 263–4
victims, 259–60
transparency
accountability, 70
boundary crossers, 266–9
democratic pluralism, 285, 296–9
politics improved with, 280–1
post-bureaucratic organization, 192–3
pretextual prosecution, 233 rankings and ratings related to, 298–9
smart on crime, 263–4
treatment courts, 46
trial
adversarial and inquisitorial forms of adjudication, 9–10 as burdensome, 18
plea bargaining, 321
reason-giving at, 122
unequal punishment practices, 237–9
Union syndicale des magistrats, 134–6 unionization, in France, 134–6
Index

United States (U.S.). See also specific topics accountability, 57–9, 166–9
adjudicative outcomes influenced by prosecutors in, 47
advocates, 324–5
collateral consequences, 73–4
conviction mentality in, 138–9 Department of Justice U.S. Attorneys Manual, 384 diffusion and localization of democracy in, 70
duty to prosecute, 320–1
German system compared with, 140–1, 166–9 independence at federal level, 320 independence of prosecutor in, 97, 320
inquisitorial process, 321 legislative accountability, 57–9
mediating figures, prosecutors as, 325
plea bargaining, 322–4
power, 166–9
private prosecution in, 335–6
prosecutor role in, 42
prosecutorial discretion, 322–4
treatment courts, 46
victim-rights movements, 336–8

United States v. Booker, 200–1 U.S. See United States
van Aaken, Anne, 41
Vance, Cyrus, Jr., 250
intelligence-led prosecution, 282–3
Vera Institute Project on Racial Justice, 100
victim-rights movements, 336–8
victims of crime
racial disparity for, 203–5
tough on crime paradigm, 259–60

Wales. See England and Wales
Warren Court, 322–4
Watkins, Craig, 251–2
White, Alicia, 217
Williams, Barry, 218
Wilson, Darren, 212–15
wisdom, 154–5 wrongs. See public wrongs Zedner, Lucia, 229
Zimmerman, George, 210–11