

Index

---

- ability to do otherwise, 123
 and determinism, 124, 161–62
 and moral responsibility, 6, 180–81, 198, 202–6
 and the reality of choice, 131 connected to control, 203–6 in God, 129–31, 138, 156, 203
 in human beings, 130
- accidents, 43, 44, see also modes
- accountability. See moral responsibility
- action, 23–24
 deliberate. See action, voluntary difference between voluntary and involuntary, 45, 150–51 free, 53, 66, 114–47
 in animals, 3, 67, 95
 in broad sense, 46–47, 70, 77 in narrow sense, 46–47, 70, 71, 77 instinctive, 53, 67, 76, 84 intentional, 148, 165
 involuntary, 66–67, 84, 204 voluntary, 53, 57, 66, 75–76, 77, 191–92, 204
- activity. See also primitive force
 and causation, 28–29, 48
 and occasionalism, 95
 cannot be grounded in matter, 11–12 ideal. See ideal influence
 in experience, 50
 in substances, 14, 31
 required for substancehood, 29, 100, 111
 vs. passivity, 2, 4, 37, 47–49
- Adams, Robert Merrihew, 14, 16, 18, 123, 131 on choice, 124
 on concurrence, 106
 on contingency, 131, 132, 133, 135
 on divine power, 130, 139 on moral necessity, 127, 134
 on perfection, 185
 on privation, 100
- akrasia, 6, 148–49, 162–75
 and control, 151, 162–63
 and freedom, 164–65, 168
 and moral responsibility, 196
 and regret, 168
 as ignorance, 163, 173
 definition, 164–65
 diachronic, 168–69
 diachronic vs. synchronic, 167–68
 synchronic, 169–74
 vs. compulsion, 174–76
- alternative possibilities, 161–62, 178–79, see also ability to do otherwise
- Anfray, Jean-Pascal, 74, 127, 138, 139
- angels, 26, 43
- animals, 13, 26–27, 67
 and attributability, 95
 lack capacity for happiness and suffering, 188–89 lack control, 151, 155–56
 lack freedom, 55
 lack moral agency, 181–82, 187–89
 lack moral knowledge, 189 lack rational teleology, 76, 137 lack self-knowledge, 187–88 possess immanent teleology, 88
- Antognazza, Maria Rosa, 13, 100
- Apparent Good Interpretation (AGI), 80, 84, 85
 and akrasia, 163
 problems, 81, 88
- appetitions, 4, 6, 16, 17–23
 and goodness, 85, 169
 as teleological, 60–61, 68 conflict, 20–22, 87
 conscious vs. unconscious, 22
 definition, 17–18, 68
 distinct, 23
 for ends vs. means, 18–20, 171
 global, 20
 long-term, 18–20, 21
 natural, 61, 86
 rational vs. non-rational, 22–23 relation to perceptions, 23, 24–26 sensible vs. insensible, 22–23

218 Index

- appetitions (cont.)
 strong vs. weak, 21–22, 177–78
 terminology, 17–18
- Aquinas, Thomas, 204
 on angels, 43
 on appetitions, 23, 68
 on control, 77
 on freedom and responsibility, 137, 204
 on goodness, 84
 on human agency, 57
 on instrumental causation, 94
 on privation, 98
 on secondary causation, 97
 on spontaneity, 50
 on substantial forms, 60–61, 89–90
 on teleology, 60–64, 75, 88–90
 on the ability to do otherwise, 162
 on voluntariness, 204
- Aristotle, 12, 88
 on akrasia, 163, 164, 169
 on voluntariness, 50
- Arnauld, Antoine, 122
- Arthur, Richard, 34, 36
- attributability, 5, 81, 95
 and concurrence, 92, 94, 97
 and control, 151
 and efficient causation, 96
 and ideal influence, 95
 and omissions, 201
 of passions, 95
- attributability problem, 92, 94, 96–105
 solution, 97, 104, 107–10, 112
- Audi, Robert, 165, 168
- Augustine, 97, 182
- author of an action, 94–96, 97–103, 105–7, see also attributability
 and moral responsibility, 180, 199–201
 broad vs. narrow sense, 95, 107
 vs. instrument, 105
- automata, 136, 147, 200
- autonomy, 2, 5, 38, 56, 76, 117, 151
- Barth, Christian, 17
- Baxter, Donald, 122, 145
- Bennett, Jonathan, 28
- best possible world, 9, 10, 79, 82, 155, 184–86
 contingently best, 139–40
- blame, 181, 196–99, 202, 204–5, see also moral responsibility, punishment
- blind thoughts, 170, 172, 174
- Blumenfeld, David, 74, 138, 185
- Bobro, Marc, 30, 31, 32, 33, 37, 40, 136, 200
- body, 11, 13, 26, 35, 42, 49, 52, 87
- Bolton, Martha, 17, 21, 25, 30, 80
- bondage, 153–54, 163, see also servitude
- Bramhall, John, 150
- Brown, Gregory, 52, 191, 194
- brute facts, 39, 140
- Carlin, Laurence, 30, 59, 63, 89, 121
- Carriero, John
 on arguments against materialism, 11
 on contingency, 114, 122, 132
 on goodness-directedness, 80
 on teleology, 62, 63, 64, 73, 83, 89, 107
 on violent change, 63
- causal chains, 30, 115, 117–18
- causal interaction, 29, 37–46, 48, 90, 110
- causation
 agent, 2, 5, 31, 115, 118
 deficient, 102–3, 104, 108 efficient, 27–32, 63, 66, 95, 102–3, 106, 107, 115 efficient presupposes final, 61–65, 69, 83, 104 event, 5, 30, 36, 115
 final. See teleology
 formal, 5, 28, 33, 92–93, 103–12, 118
 instrumental, 94, 101, 104, 107 occasional, 32–33, 34
 primary vs. secondary, 97, 109 productive. See causation, efficient state, 30, 36 substance, 31, 115
- Chappell, Vere, 56, 117
- choice, 134–35, 138, 142, 152, 164, 167, 198, see also freedom, will real, 124, 131–32
- City of God, 181–87, 190, 193–94
- Clatterbaugh, Kenneth, 25, 30, 31, 32
- coaction. See compulsion
- compatibilism, 2, 5–6, 115, 117–18, 119, 124, 148
- complete concept
 and causal interaction, 40–42
 and contingency, 122, 141, 142–47
 and creation, 10, 51, 105–7, 109
 and moral necessity, 143–46
 core, 143–47
 hierarchical structure, 143–47
- compossibility, 73
- compulsion, 6, 56, 149, 174–79
 external vs. internal, 176–77
 vs. akrasia, 163, 164, 174–76
- conatus, 18, 19, 53, 68
- concurrence, 5, 45, 92–113, 118, 120 general, 96–97, 100, 101
 special, 96–97, 100, 101, 103, 107, 112
- consciousness, 17, 22, 67, 85–87
- Consequence Argument, 161

Index

219

- conservation, 93, 101, 107 constraint, 45, 54, 155, 176–77, see also
   compulsion
 contingency, 5–6, 114–15, 121–47, 154
   and complete concepts, 142–47
   and freedom, 121–47
   and moral necessity, 126, 133
   and moral responsibility, 202–6
   and teleology, 116, 122–42
   in unfree actions, 123, 146 infinite analysis account, 146–47 of states of affairs vs. actions, 139 continuity, 12, 18–19, 26, 34–35, 66, 67 control, 6, 148–62
   and akrasia, 162–63
   and compulsion, 177–79
   and freedom, 197
   and God, 153
   and moral responsibility, 178, 181, 203–6
   and spontaneity, 54, 152–54
   and the ability to do otherwise, 203–6
   and voluntary agency, 77
   as worth having, 154–56, 158–59
 can be lacking in rational agents, 154–55, 192–93
 direct, 152–56, 177
 direct vs. indirect, 152
 failures of, 155, 197
 indirect, 151, 156–62, 175, 177, 178, 203–6
   over one's actions, 152
   over one's character, 157 over one's nature, 148, 150 over one's passions, 153 over one's will, 152, 156–62
 terminology, 151
 counterfactuals, 161
 counterpart theory, 161
 Cover, Jan, 39, 43, 144, 146
 Cox, Donovan, 41
 Craig, Edward, 163
 creation, 9–10, 48, 144, 184–86
   and authorship, 106
   and contingency, 131
   and striving possibles, 74
   as actualization of essences, 51, 82, 105, 118–19
   formal and final cause of, 107 Leibniz vs. Aquinas, 89

 Davidson, Donald, 164, 165
 Davidson, Jack, 164, 167, 168, 171, 173–74, 197
 defective reception interpretation, 98, 100–1 deliberation

   and freedom, 53, 57, 116, 121, 131, 165, 195–97
   and reasons-responsiveness, 160
   and the reality of choice, 131
   divine, 73–74, 117, 131, 145
   lacking in animals, 77, 156 Della Rocca, Michael, 62, 172 Dennett, Daniel C., 148, 154 derivative force, 14, 18, 34–35
 Des Chene, Dennis, 33, 76 Descartes, René, 93
 desert, 182–83, 185, 192, 203, 205 desire, 18, 46, 56, 86, 87, 169, see also
   appetitions
   blind, 76, 77
   strength or motivational force of, 170–73, 174
 determination. See also spontaneity by the good. See necessity, moral
   divine, 118–19
   external, 39, 49, 69, 117–20, 147, 153–54
   formal, 104
   indirect, 117
   inevitable, 125
   rational, 53, 54, 104
   value-neutral, 115, 130, 132–37, 138 value-sensitive, 115, 132–37 violent. See violent change
   vs. necessitation, 125
 determinism, 15
   and akrasia, 148, 178
   and compulsion, 174–79
   and control, 150–51, 156, 159
   and teleology, 136
   and the Consequence Argument, 161 compatible with freedom, 5, 115, 117–19, 147, 148–49
   psychological, 166, 206
 Di Bella, Stefano, 16, 41
 Dicker, Georges, 145 divided effort interpretation, 98, 99–100 efficacious appetite view, 30, 118 efficacious perception view, 30, 118 egoism, 190, 194

 end-directedness. See teleology endeavor. See appetitions, conatus endorsement theory of autonomy, 55–57, 76 entelechy, 8, 10, 12–13, 60 essences
   and attributability, 108
   and contingency, 131, 133, 142–47
   in divine intellect, 10, 51, 82, 89, 105–7, 118 eternal truths, 9, 95, 108, 187, 189–90

220 Index

- evil, 94, 185, 197, 198, see also privation, sin explanation, 33, 35, 41, 52, 79, 82 externalism about judgment and motivation, 174
- final and formal causation model, 97, 103–12
Fischer, John Martin, 148, 159–62
Frankel, Lois, 202
Frankfurt, Harry, 37, 38
Freddoso, Alfred, 96
freedom, 2, 5–6, 114–47
    and akrasia, 164–65, 168
    and concurrence, 92, 101, 112, 118
    and contingency, 25, 121–47
    and control, 148, 150
    and determinism, 5, 115, 117, 147, 148
    and moral necessity, 126–28, 133
    and spontaneity, 53–55, 92, 94, 117–20
    and teleology, 66, 75–76
    conditions, 116, 147
    definition, 116
    degrees, 57, 116, 153, 197
    divine vs. human, 116–17
    not required for moral responsibility, 180–81, 194–99
    of indifference, 101, 166, 167
- Garber, Daniel, 10, 39, 40, 41, 123
Garrett, Don, 122
Gennaro, Rocco, 17
God, 9, 26
    able to do otherwise, 129–31, 138, 156, 203
    and moral motivation, 190
    as final cause of the world, 88, 107
    as mind or spirit, 186
    as sole efficient cause, 32, 103 lacks passivity, 10, 16 relationship to finite minds, 182, 186–87, 190, see also City of God relationship to natural world, 182 role in creaturely actions, 92–113
- goodness. See also perfection
    and teleology, 78–80, 82–90, 132
    divine, 136, 138, 140
    in agent teleology, 78, 82 in metaphysical teleology, 78, 82 in rational teleology, 78, 82
    ipso facto, 79–80, 83, 84–85, 89 of character, 140
    standard of, 139–40
    types, 84
- goodness-directedness
    and contingency, 115
    and rational teleology, 75–76
- in the least perfect changes, 67, 78
    vs. teleology, 59, 78–80, 82–83, 91
Greenberg, Sean, 45, 121, 150
Griffin, Michael, 74, 133, 138
Grimm, Robert, 145
guidance control, 159–62
- habits, 157–58, 192, 196–97 happiness, 182, 188, 193–94 harmony, 43, 48–49, 66, 72, 109, 183
Hartz, Glenn, 73
Hirschmann, David, 28
Hobbes, Thomas, 85
Hoffman, Paul, 62, 63
Hoffmann, Tobias, 39, 50
Hostler, John, 163
- ideal influence, 47, 90, 109
    and attributability, 95, 107
    and spontaneity, 46–52, 57
    and teleology, 71–73
identity over time, 13, 16, 188
image of God, 116, 186–87, 191–92 Imlay, Robert, 163
inclination, 18, 126, see also appetitions prevalent, 141–42, 145, 151
    vs. necessitation, 124–26, 141–42
infinite analysis, 146–47 intellect, 6, 53, 114, 155
    and moral agency, 180, 187–90
    divine, 9
    role in free actions, 121 intellectualism, 6, 149, 163, 173 intelligibility, 42, 43, 62, 110 internalism about judgment and
    motivation, 174
ipso facto goodness, 79–80, 83, 84–85, 89
Irwin, Terence, 149
- Jalabert, Jacques, 123
Jauernig, Anja, 43
Johnson, Monte Ransome, 12, 88
Jolley, Nicholas, 30, 80, 163, 171, 172, 191
Jorgensen, Larry, 17, 65, 78, 82
joy, 188
judgment, 53, 54, 77, 114, 121, 127, 154, 168
justice, 182–86, 189, 192, 193
    corrective vs. retributive, 194, 199
    different characterizations, 185
    to animals, 189
- Kaphagawani, Didier, 55 kingdom of efficient causes, 27

- kingdom of final causes, 27 kingdom of grace. See City of God Knebel, Sven, 127
Kulstad, Mark, 14, 17, 18, 19, 30, 137
- Lærke, Mogens, 50, 122, 123, 131, 133 Lagerlund, Henrik, 131, 135 law of the series, 8, 14–15, 35, 42 laws of justice, 182–86, 190 laws of physics, 183–86
Lee, Sukjae, 32, 37, 99, 100 on agency, 23
  on efficient causation, 28, 107
  on final and formal causation, 33, 103–4, 106
  on teleology, 80, 81, 87
libertarianism, 117, 148, 166, 202
liberty. See freedom limitation. See privation Lin, Martin, 29, 134, 144, 195
Locke, John, 170, 188
Lodge, Paul, 14
Look, Brandon, 14
love, 190, 193–94
Lovejoy, Arthur, 138
lucky proof objection, 146
- MacDonald, Scott, 89 machines, 136, 200
Madden, James, 61, 82
marks and traces, 15, 41
mastery. See control matter, 11–13, see also body McDonough, Jeffrey, 28
  on appetitions, 20, 170
  on concurrence, 92, 100, 101
  on derivative force, 18
  on efficient causation, 28
  on teleology, 80
McGuire, James, 36
McRae, Robert, 23, 25, 66
mechanism, 8, 11, 64
Medea, 165
Mele, Alfred, 151, 152, 163, 164, 170 memory, 26–27, 187
minds, 26–27, 67
  have a special status, 184–87, 191–92 miracles, 137, 145, 183, 186 and violent change, 70, 73, 83, 90, 120
  definition, 111
Mitchell-Yellin, Benjamin, 56 modes, 10, 11, 16, 17, 24–26, 27, 30, 34–36, 96, 144
modifications. See modes Molina, Luis de, 50, 96, 101, 137
monadic agency view, 31
monads, 4, 8–16, 26–27, see also souls, minds bare, 26–27, 67, 81, 83, 85, 140 central or dominant, 13–14, 26, 52, 73 contain past and future, 14–15, 62, 106 subordinate, 13–14, 73
  terminology, 10
  windowless, 43
monism, 11, 100
moral agency, 6, 136, 180–94, 199 appetitive requirements, 191–94 cognitive requirements, 187–90 requires capacity for rational spontaneity, 193
  requires capacity for rational teleology, 193 requires capacity to love God, 190, 193–94 requires knowledge of eternal truths, 189–90
  requires knowledge of God, 189–90
  requires reflection or self-knowledge, 187–89
  terminology, 181
moral knowledge, 180, 189–90 moral obligation, 127, 190, 196 moral psychology, 2, 6, 149, 163 moral responsibility, 6, 136, 194–207
  and akrasia, 164–65, 175
  and compulsion, 175
  and control, 151–52, 159, 160–61, 203–6
  and freedom, 194–99
  as asymmetrical, 181, 205–6
  for attitudes, 202
  for omissions, 201, 204
  requires ability to do otherwise, 202–6 requires contingency, 194–95, 202–6 motives for action, 125, 126, 170–73, 190, 194
Mugnai, Massimo, 22, 40, 43, 54, 87
Murray, Michael, 39, 45, 46, 50, 68, 120, 127
Myrdal, Peter, 131, 135
- Nachtomy, Ohad, 40, 122, 127, 128, 131, 141, 143, 163
natural change, 63–65
natures
  and attributability, 105–6
  and complete concepts, 42, 144–45
  and efficient causation, 63–65
  and formal causation, 33
  and primitive force, 14–15
  and spontaneity, 39, 46
  and teleology, 68, 70, 77, 83, 90, 141
  broad vs. narrow, 63–65, 75
  in Aquinas, 89–90
  include imperfections, 90 independent of God's plan, 51, 82, 89, 105, 118

222 Index

- necessitarianism
and complete concepts, 142–47
and counterfactuals, 161
incompatible with freedom, 6, 116
Leibniz's attitude toward, 114–15, 121–23, 133–37, 142, 147
- necessity
absolute, 124–28, 137–42
blind or brute, 122, 126, 134–37, 147
extrinsic, 133
hypothetical, 126, 128, 137–42
intrinsic, 133
metaphysical, 124, 125, 126–28, 137–42
moral, 124, 125, 126–28, 130–31, 132, 133, 137, 139, 142
moral as sub-category of metaphysical, 138, 143
physical, 127, 128, 161, 177
- Nelson, Alan, 143
- Neutral Teleology Interpretation (NTI), 78, 82–91
- Newlands, Samuel, 122
- normativity, 83, 141
- O'Neill, Eileen, 44
- O'Connor, Timothy, 1
- O'Leary-Hawthorne, John, 39, 43, 144, 146
- Objective Good Interpretation (OGI), 81–82, 87, 163
- obligation. See moral obligation
- occasionalism, 11–12, 14, 32–33, 39, 95, 111
- omissions, 195, 201, 204
- omnipotence, 129
- omniscience, 9, 138
- organism, 13–14, 26, 52, 73
- Osler, Margaret, 59
- ought implies can, 190, 193
- Ovid, 165
- pain, 85–87, 188–89
- Pasnau, Robert, 33, 60, 69
- passions, 7, 54, 77, 86, 95, 153–56, 195, see also passivity
and indirect control, 156–62
as external, 153–54
- passivity, 11, 24
in experience, 50
vs. activity, 2, 4, 37, 47–49
- Penner, Terry, 167, 168
- per se* necessity, 132
- perceptions, 4, 16–17, 36
abstract, 171, 172, 174
as actions, 23–24
as isomorphism, 16
confused, 17, 24, 66, 153, 171
definition, 16–17
distinct, 17, 47
distinct vs. vivid, 171
of entire world, 17, 20
of pain, 85–87
relation to appetitions, 24–26 role in monadic change, 32–36 symbolic, 171
vivid, 170–74, 177, 179
- percepturatio*, 18
- perfection, 11–12
and ideal influence, 48, 49, 51, 72, 109
and spontaneity, 53
and striving possibles, 73–74
and teleology, 71, 72, 73, 75–76, 83
in Aquinas, 89
moral, 184, 185
natural or metaphysical, 184, 185 perceptions of, 85
strict vs. loose sense, 84
- personal identity, 188
- Phemister, Pauline, 18, 23, 80, 151, 187, 191, 197
- philosophy of action, 1, 3, 92, 151–52
- physical forces, 21
- physical influx, 44
- Pickup, Martin, 122, 139, 140
- plants, 3, 13, 26, 83
- Platonic model of agency, 55–57, 76, 149, 155
- pleasure, 85–87, 172, 188–89
- possibility, 161–62, see also necessity
- possible worlds, 129, 131, 140
- possibles, 10, 129, see also essences strive for existence, 73–74, 107
- possible-world-semantics, 161
- power
divine, 129–31
human, 130
to do otherwise. See ability to do otherwise
vs. will, 124, 129–31
- praise, 181, 199, 205, see also moral responsibility, reward
for unfree actions, 196–97
- predicate
contained in notion of subject, 142–47 essential, 144
fundamental vs. non-fundamental, 143–47
- prime matter, 13
- primitive force, 8, 10, 12–16, 18, 34–36, 46, 69
- Principle of Continuity, 12, 66, 67
- Principle of Contradiction and necessity, 126, 128, 129–31, 139–40, 145–46
in Spinoza, 134

- Principle of Sufficient Reason
and causation, 62
and contingency, 140–41, 145–46
and freedom, 147
and necessitarianism, 122 violations, 39, 140, 145, 146, 167
- Principle of the Identity of Indiscernibles, 26
- Principle of Wisdom and Goodness, 81, 127, 128–31, 137–40, 191
- privation, 97–103, 201 and deficient causation, 102–3, 108 has no efficient cause, 102
- proper function, 83
- providence, 60, 136
- punishment, 182–83, 185, 188, 195
and freedom, 198–99
corrective vs. retributive, 194, 199
- Puryear, Stephen, 48, 72
- Rateau, Paul, 194
- rationalism, 175
- Ravizza, Mark, 148, 159–62
- real self, 2, 4, 38, 55–57, 76, 117, 151–52, 154, 155
- reason, 26–27, 187, see also intellect reasons-responsiveness, 159–62
- reflection, 26–27, 187–89
- relations, 43
- Rescher, Nicholas, 127
- responsibility. See moral responsibility
- retribution, 194, 199
- reward, 182–83, 188
- Riley, Patrick, 150
- Rozemond, Marleen, 81
- Russell, Bertrand, 73, 114, 138
- Rutherford, Donald, 10, 14, 25, 28, 36, 45, 46, 151
on appetitions, 18, 30
on contingency, 128
on perceptions, 35
on spontaneity, 46, 52
on teleology, 68, 81, 82, 89, 163
- Sandis, Constantine, 1
- Schmaltz, Tad, 69, 94, 102–3
- Schmid, Stephan, 31, 32, 34, 65, 78, 82, 123, 133
- Scott, David, 100
- Seeskin, Kenneth, 128
- Seidler, Michael, 50, 150, 151
- self-determination. See spontaneity
- self-knowledge, 187–89
- sensation, 26–27, 63, see also pain, pleasure
- servitude, 56, 153–54, 176, 196, 198
- shared agency, 92, see also concurrence
- Shields, Christopher John, 74
- Simmons, Alison, 17
- simple privation model, 97, 98–102
- sin, 185, 198
and attributability, 5, 94, 97–103, 106
and formal causation, 108
and punishment, 183
and the ability to do otherwise, 202
can be unfree, 195
resulting from habit, 197
- Sleigh, Robert, 30, 37, 98, 99, 100, 114, 122, 127, 132, 144
- Smith, Angela, 196
- sophisticated privation model, 97, 102–3, 108
- Sotnak, Eric, 45
- souls, 26–27, 67, see also monads
- species, 89
- Spinoza, Baruch de
and blind necessity, 122
and teleology, 122, 132, 134–36
on goodness, 85
on motivation, 172
- Spinozism, 121–23, 133–37, 142, 194
- spontaneity, 4–5, 14, 37–58, 92–93
agent, 4, 38, 46–52, 53, 57, 58, 71, 77, 95, 120
and autonomy, 2
and control, 152–54
and freedom, 114, 117–20
and omissions, 201
connected to teleology, 65, 68–69, 136
degrees, 45, 57
divine, 39, 54, 117
explanatory, 52, 110, 111–12
metaphysical, 4, 38, 46, 52, 53, 58, 65, 70, 77, 95, 120 productive, 111, 112
rational, 4, 38, 52–58, 77, 112, 114, 119–20, 152–54
required for moral responsibility, 199–201
- spontaneity problem, 93–94, 97, 112
solution, 110–11
- spontaneity thesis, 37–46, 84, 88, 91, 93
- striving possibles, 73–74, 107
- Stroud, Sarah, 164
- Suárez, Francisco, 28, 43, 106, 137
on concurrence, 101
on instrumental causation, 94
- substance, 13–14, 43, see also monads
as dynamic, 128
- substancehood, 11, 14, 92, 94, 111–12
- substantial form
as normative, 141
in Aquinas, 60–61, 89–90

224 Index

- substantial form (cont.)
 relation to formal and final causation, 33, 69, 105, 106 relation to monads, 8, 10, 13
 vs. complete concept, 42, 107
 Swoyer, Chris, 17
- teleology, 5, 6, 28, 33, 48, 59–91, 118
 agent, 5, 70–74, 75, 77, 91, 132
 and autonomy, 2
 and concurrence, 5, 92–93, 103–12
 and contingency, 6, 122–42, 147
 and explanation, 34, 79
 and freedom, 114
 and goodness, 78–80, 82–90, 91, 132
 and moral agency, 180
 and omissions, 201
 as ubiquitous, 59, 60–68
 connected to spontaneity, 65, 68–69, 136 desire, 81
 extrinsic, 59, 71
 immanent, 59, 60, 65, 69, 71, 72–73, 81, 88, 90
 metaphysical, 5, 70, 75, 77, 90
 natural, 81
 neutral, 78, 82–91
 rational, 5, 75–77, 91, 114, 124, 132
 required for moral responsibility, 199–201
 thick sense, 64
 thin sense, 62
 telepathy, 43, 44
 Temmik, Aloys, 87
 tendency, 18, 24, see also appetitions, primitive force thought, 27
 tracing approach, 160, 162
 truth, 40, 142–47
- unity, 10–11, 13, 73
- Vailati, Ezio, 144, 164, 171, 173, 174
 van Ruler, Johannes, 69 violent change, 61, 63–65, 69, 72, 73, 90, 120
 and moral responsibility, 199–200
 virtue, 193, 196, 205
 vivacity, 170–74, 177
 volitions. See will voluntariness. See action, voluntary
- Watson, Gary, 38, 117, 163
 on akrasia, 163, 174
 on autonomy, 56, 76
 on compulsion, 175, 178
 on control, 149, 151–52
 on freedom, 2, 117, 121
 on the ability to do otherwise, 130
 weakness of will. See akrasia
- Whipple, John, 19, 25, 29, 34, 36, 93, 98 will, 6, 53, 114, 121, 155
 and moral agency, 180, 191–94
 can be lacking in intelligent creatures, 154–55, 192–93 determined by intellect, 121, 134, 149–50 importance of, 121, 150
 vs. power, 124, 129–31
- Wilson, Catherine, 74
 Wilson, Margaret Dauler, 123
 Wolf, Susan, 1
 on control, 151–52, 159
 on moral responsibility, 181, 193, 205–6 on the real self, 117
- Youpa, Andrew, 163, 194