INDEX

arbitrator powers, share price determination, proposed statutory buy-out regime, 211–212

Basic Law, 38

Civil Justice Reform (CJR), 15–16, 30, 42–43, 72–73
context–mechanisms–outcome (CMO) pattern configurations, 49, 63 corporate governance code, informal dispute resolution public awareness, 205–206 Cotterrell, Roger, 25 court-connected initiatives legitimacy, 71–75 Ansar Mohammad v. Global Legend Transportation Ltd, 87
Chu Chung Ming v. Lam Wai Dan, 96 Civil Justice Reform (CJR) and, 72–73 dispute resolution forums, access opportunities, 100–102
Golden Eagle International (Group) Ltd v. GR Investment Holdings, 87–88
Good Try Investments Ltd v. Easily Development Ltd, 99 judicial acceptance, ADR policy evaluation, 81–102
judicial case management, 83–89
Kwan Wing Leung v. Fung Chi Leung, 98, 99–100
O'Neill v. Philips, 80
Order 22, 97–98

Pacific Long Distance Telephone v. New World Telecommunications Ltd, 88, 92–93 policy objectives, 75–77
Practice Direction 3.3, 94–95
proportionality, cost penalties, 96–100 proportionality, court referrals, 92–96 proportionality, dispute resolution processes choice, 89–102 proportionality, private ADR processes vs. public adjudicative courts, 90–100
Re NTK Technology (HK) Ltd, 98–99
Re Sun Light Elastic Ltd, 92–93, 94
cultural–cognitive legitimacy, 54–55 development pathway, 30–31
Arbitration Ordinance (Cap. 609), 34–35
Basic Law and, 38
Gao Haiyan v. Keeneye Holdings Ltd, 35 government policy, 38–39
in Hong Kong, 31–37
Hong Kong Airport Core Programme (ACP), 32
Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC), 32–33
hybrid forms, med–arb, 35–36
judicial support, shareholder disputes early/informal resolution, 39–43 mediation vs. arbitration, 38–39
mediation pilot processes, 36–37
Index

development pathway (cont.)
non-legal policy instruments, 34
O’Neill v. Phillips, 39–40, 41
Practice Direction 3.1 shares valuation, expert determination, 41
Practice Direction 3.3 alternative processes for unfair prejudice petition, Mediation Notice, 41–43
Practice Direction 3.4 case management procedures, 40
Practice Direction 31, 37
privately run ADR centers, 39
Re Prudential Enterprise Ltd, 39–40, 41
Section 168A reform, companies ordinance, 42–43
in shareholder disputes, 37–44 Working Group on Mediation, 34
dispute resolution forums, access opportunities, 100–102

family business model, 3
foreign models, innovative approaches, 181–185
future developments, 183
Hong Kong, arbitrator powers, share price determination, proposed statutory buyout regime, 211–212
Hong Kong corporate governance code, informal dispute resolution public awareness, 205–206
Hong Kong, future ADR codification for shareholder disputes, 204–212
Hong Kong Institute of Directors (HKIoD), 205
Hong Kong, shareholders’ agreement arbitration clause, 207–208 legitimacy, 184
New Zealand Arbitration Act (NZAA), 193, 194

New Zealand Companies Act (NZCA), 193, 198–199
New Zealand, mandatory arbitrations provision, minority buyout remedy, 193–196
New Zealand, scope of arbitrability, 197–200
New Zealand, share evaluations, cost-effective mechanisms, 194–197
O’Neill v. Phillips, 191
Quiksilver Greater China Ltd v. Quiksilver Glorious Sun JV Ltd, 208
South Africa, ADR use, directors duty to promote, 201–202
South Africa, settlements enforcement facilitation, 202–204
South Africa, voluntary code of governance, 200–204
South African Companies Act, 201
Tomolugen Holdings Ltd v. Silica Investors Ltd, 210 underlying premises, 182–183
United Kingdom, 185–193
United Kingdom, access to courts implied waiver, 190–193
United Kingdom, disputes subject matter arbitrability, 186–188 United Kingdom, Dunnett v. Railtrack, 192
United Kingdom, Fulham Football Club Limited v. Richards, 188, 191
United Kingdom, unfair prejudice proceedings, pre-dispute arbitration precedent, 188–190
Wong Tin Chee Tinly and Others v. Wong to Yick and Another, 213–214 Friedman, Lawrence, 25
future developments, 183, 204–212, 226–232
Hong Kong Airport Core Programme (ACP), 32
Hong Kong Company Registry, 3
Hong Kong Institute of Directors (HKIoD), 205
Index

Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC), 32–33
hybrid forms, med-arb, 35–36 innovative approaches. See foreign models, innovative approaches institutionalization, 16–18, 19–27, 216–226
judicial acceptance, ADR policy evaluation, 81–102
judicial case management, 83–89
judicial support, shareholder disputes early/informal resolution, 39–43
lawyers’ attitudes, 136–139, 228
ADR familiarity, 158–160, 172–173
ADR practices, diffusion among Hong Kong lawyers, 139–149 analytical techniques, 65–66 data collection process mode, 64 empirical legal research design, 61–66 out-of-court processes, 149–152 personal experiences with ADR processes, 157 sampling process mode, 64 testable arguments development, 150–165 unit of analysis/sampling frame, 62–64 use of ADR measurement, 65
legitimacy, 184
mediation pilot processes, 36–37
mediation vs. arbitration, 38–39
mimetic mechanisms, 53
moral legitimacy, 54
New Zealand
mandatory arbitrations provision, minority buyout remedy, 193–196 scope of arbitrability, 197–200 share evaluations, cost-effective mechanisms, 194–197
New Zealand Arbitration Act (NZAA), 193, 194
New Zealand Companies Act (NZCA), 193, 198–199
non-legal policy instruments, 34
normative mechanisms, 52–53
Order 22, 97–98
pluridisciplinary research methods, 46–47 policy development methodology evaluation, 46–47 ADR methods, development conditions, 49–50 coercive mechanisms, 51–52
context-mechanisms-outcome (CMO) pattern configurations, 49, 63
cultural-cognitive legitimacy, 54–55
Hyundai Engineering & Construction Co. Ltd v. Vigour, 57 iRiver Hong Kong Ltd v. Thakral Corp (HK) Ltd, 58 lawyers’ attitudes, analytical techniques, 65–66 lawyers’ attitudes, data collection process mode, 64
lawyers’ attitudes, empirical legal research design, 61–66 lawyers’ attitudes, sampling process mode, 64 lawyers’ attitudes, unit of analysis/sampling frame, 61–65 lawyers’ attitudes, use of ADR measurement, 65 methodology development, 47–56 methodology evaluation, 46–47
mimetic mechanisms, 53
moral legitimacy, 54
normative mechanisms, 52–53
O’Neil v. Phillips, 84 outcome patterns, 46–47
pluridisciplinary research methods, 46–47
pragmatic legitimacy, 54
realistic evaluation, methodology, 48–55
realistic evaluation, mixed research methods, 56
research focus, 47
study of law, comparative approaches, 59–61 policy development methodology evaluation (cont.)
study of law, doctrinal approaches, 57–59 theory-based realistic approach, 46–47 understanding, awareness of ADR mechanisms, 50–53 policy legitimizing, 19–27
policy objectives, 75–77
Practice Direction 3.1 shares valuation, expert determination, 41
Practice Direction 3.3, 94–95
Practice Direction 3.3 alternative processes for unfair prejudice petition, Mediation Notice, 41–43
Practice Direction 3.4 case management procedures, 40
Practice Direction 31, 37
pragmatic legitimacy, 54
privately run ADR centers, 39
procedural innovation diffusion empirical analysis, 144–149 ADR practices, court-based shareholder proceedings compatibility, 168–169
ADR practices, diffusion among Hong Kong lawyers, 139–149
ADR relative advantage, 154–156, 169–171
ADR use for settlement, potential barriers, 171–172
Cable and Wireless Plc, 157
Hong Kong Bar Association, 137, 141, 161
Hong Kong Mediation Accreditation Association Limited (HKMAAL), 175–176 Hyundai Engineering and Construction Co. Ltd v. Vigour Ltd, 157 innovative disputing resolution procedures, innovative characteristics, 150–154 judiciary, legal professional groups influence on ADR, 173–174 key agents, ADR characteristics articulation, 140–144
Lam Chi Tat Anthony v. Kam Ye Wai Andrew (No.2), 136–139 Law Society of Hong Kong, 137, 141, 161
lawyers’ attitudes, 136–139
lawyers’ attitudes, ADR familiarity, 158–160, 172–173 lawyers’ attitudes, out-of-court processes, 149–152 lawyers’ attitudes, personal experiences with ADR processes, 157 lawyers’ attitudes, testable arguments development, 150–165 legal environment, shareholder disputes resolution, 162–163 Mediation Ordinance, 176
O’ Neil v. Philips, 154, 164 research findings, ADR policy implications, 165–167 shareholder disputes, early settlement culture, 163–165, 174–176
proportionality cost penalties, 96–100 court referrals, 92–96 dispute resolution processes choice, 89–102 private ADR processes vs. public adjudicative courts, 90–100 realistic evaluation methodology, 48–55
mixed research methods, 56 research study contribution, summary, 216–226 dependent variables measurement, 233 future research, 226–232 independent variables measurement, 233–234
lawyers’ attitudes, empirical legal research design, 61–66 pluralistic research methods, 46–47
realistic evaluation, mixed research methods, 56
research focus, 47
Section 168A reform, companies ordinance, 42–43
shareholder disputes, small private company alternative dispute resolution (ADR), 14–15 alternative dispute resolution (ADR), policy legitimizing, 19–27
Civil Justice Reform (CJR), 15–16 court discretionary power and, 7–8 dispute classification: dissension, unfairly prejudicial, deadlock, 12 dispute resolution development, 5 Ebrahimi v. Westbourne Galleries Ltd, 7 English common law adversarial system, courts as last resort, 8–9
family business model, 3
minority shareholders, 6 O’Neill v. Phillips and, 13 proceedings length, cost, 14 self-interest, behavioral patterns, 11 shareholder techniques, 9–11
UK corporate legal framework, court-based legal proceedings, 5–6 unfair prejudice remedy, 6–7 unfair prejudice remedy vs. statutory derivative actions, 8 small private company. See shareholder disputes, small private company South Africa

ADR use, directors duty to promote, 201–202 settlements enforcement facilitation, 202–204 voluntary code of governance, 200–204
South African Companies Act, 201 study of law
comparative approaches, 59–61 doctrinal approaches, 57–59
theory-based realistic approach, 46–47
underlying premises, 182–183
United Kingdom, 185–193
access to courts implied waiver, 190–193 disputes subject matter arbitrability, 186–188 Dunnett v. Railtrack, 192
Fulham Football Club Limited v. Richards, 188, 191 unfair prejudice proceedings, pre-dispute arbitration precedent, 188–190