

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-43723-4 - Nietzsche's: On the Genealogy of Morality: A Critical Guide

Edited by Simon May

Index

More informationIndex

- Acampora, Christa Davis on Socrates 207
 on the sovereign individual 72
- active happiness
 passive happiness contrasted with 308
- aesthetic conception of character see character
- aestheticism
 asceticism and 306–7
 disinterestedness and 7–8, 322–23
- affects evaluation and 86
 objectivity and 298
 power and 1–2, 149–50, 171, 179–80, 185
ressentiment and 131–32, 136–37 revenge and 46, 104–5
 transformation of 188–92
- agency see also freedom; sovereign individual aesthetic conception of 266–68
 Christian conception of 172
 evil and 20, 22–23
 genuine 101, 111–13, 116
 morality in pejorative sense and 218–19, 222
 power and 171, 177, 180, 182–85, 187, 190 slave revolt/morality and 3–4, 26–27, 34–35, 41, 46, 204–5
- aggression/aggressiveness assertiveness as proper 292 cruelty as perverted 293
- altruistic morality rise of 25
- amor fati see also* eternal recurrence content/meaning of 80, 87–88, 90, 91, 95, 118 desire for 11, 80
- Ansell-Pearson, Keith
 on the sovereign individual 101
- anti-Semitism
 as slave revolt 32, 33–34
- Aquinas, Thomas
 on cardinal virtues and capital vices 6, 21–22
 on simony 12
- aristocracy see nobles/noble values
- Aristotle see also virtue/virtues aesthetic conception of character and 7 discipline and 305, 308
 on human excellence 266–68
 on virtue 287, 288–89
- art, artists see also beauty
 asceticism and 243–47
 honoring of 310
 imposition of form and 277
 spectator view of see spectator view of art
- asceticism/ascetic ideal aestheticism and 306–7
 in art 243–45, 246–47
 bad conscience and 282
 charity and 308
 Christianity and 203–4
 conception of beauty and 322–23
 corruption of 225
 decline into 207–8
 discipline and 288, 306–8
 disinterestedness and 300
 features of 166–69, 307
 flourishing and 174
 guilt and 77
 as immature egoism 308
 intellectual form of 307 knowledge and 260–61, 262
 life-denial and 201, 281–82
 meaning of 241–42
 overthrow of 5–6, 10–11, 99, 100, 213, 260–61 philosophy and 100, 116–17, 211–12
 power and 2–3, 176, 178
 priestly 3–4, 92–93, 173, 185, 199, 201–4, 206, 208–9, 212–13, 219, 228–29
ressentiment and 122–23, 130
 role of 17
 suffering and 78–79
 as vice 8–9
 virtue and 281–82
 will to truth and 223–25, 248, 261–62

- assertiveness
 as appropriate aggression 292 cruelty contrasted with 288 excessive passivity contrasted with 288, 293–95
 field of virtue of 291–92
 as mature egoism 288, 291–95
 vices correlative with 292
- Austen, Jane Northanger Abbey
 example of bovarysme 272
- autonomy see also agency; freedom; sovereign individual Enlightenment vision of 244 of responsible agent 72–73, 74–75, 111–12
ressentiment and 130, 139
 of sovereign individual 101–2, 106–10
- bad
 evil contrasted with 6, 21–23, 196
 good, paired with 13–19, 28, 32–33, 41, 46–48, 196, 276, 283–84, 315–16
- bad character 279–80
- bad conscience see also guilt; ressentiment
 asceticism and 282
 Christian conception of guilt and 77, 183, 188, 260
 creativity and 206
 description of 61–65
 egoism and 285–86
 emergence of 165–66, 218, 259
 guilt and 57, 190
 indebtedness and 65–68
 morality in pejorative sense and 218, 219
 and ressentiment 317
- barbarians
 nobles and 291
- beautiful soul
 concept of 269
- beauty
 alternative conceptions of 322–23 artist's point of view and 310–11, 319–22 bad philosophers of 309, 312, 313, 319, 322 basis of conception of other-regarding 'No' 316 other-regarding 'Yes' 316–17 self-regarding 'No' 317–18 disinterested view of 312–13, 318 happiness and 313–14
 honoring of art and 310 mode of valuation 323–25
 nature of, aesthetic conception of 310–14 noble conception of contrasting conceptions in Aristotelian thought 266–68
 mode of valuation 314–16
 slavish taints 316–19
 spectator view of see spectator view of art valuation of, modes of 314–16 beloved of God 315–16, 321, 322
- Bentham, Jeremy
 modeling will to power and 158–64
- Bonaparte, Napoleon see Napoleon bovarysme, examples of 272–76
- capital vices theory of 21–22
- cardinal virtues
 theory of 21–22
- character see also self
 aesthetic conception of aesthetic ideal of character 280–83 character defects, labeling of 272–76 character defects aesthetic labeling of 272–76 excellence and 268–70 form-giving, capacity for 280–83 moral conception, contrast with 266–68 non-moral ideal 266–70
 self-control 278
 self-satisfaction 277
 shape of character 276–80 single code of conduct 270–72 splendor 283–84
 excellence of 28, 32, 44, 139, 266, 282, 287 giving style to one's 276, 277, 279–80, 281 moral conception of contrast with aesthetic conception 266–68
- charity
 as asceticism 308
 as herd instinct 301–2
 self-sacrificing see self-sacrificing charity will to power and 301–2
- Christianity see also God; morality; priests/priestly values; ressentiment; slaves/slave morality anti-Semitism and 33–34
 asceticism and 203–4
 conception of agency 172 conception of evil 6, 14, 20, 21–22 conception of guilt 5–6, 57, 64–65, 69, 76–77, 183, 188, 260 Dionysus in opposition to 156–57 dominance of 18–19, 193–94, 204 English psychologists and 216–17, 247 flourishing and 172, 173–74
 as form-giver 282
 freedom and 113
 genealogical method and 225–27
 Greek philosophy and 206–7 life-denial 154, 158, 201–2 love, glorification of 32 master morality contrasted with 151

- as means to power 156
- perceptions of power and 181–88, 190
- perishing of 167, 224
- redemption and 98
- ressentiment* and 127, 139, 223
- as slave revolt 29, 33–34, 197, 199–201, 230, 253
- subversion of language of 252–53
- suffering and 87–88
- theodicy 88, 90–91
- turning the other cheek 293–95
- vengeance, ridding of 23
- Wagner and 244
- Christ's assumption of man's debt 259–60
- common good
  - hyperobjectivity and 300
- congregation see herd instinct
- Conrad, Joseph Lord Jim
  - example of bovarysme 272–74
- conscience see also bad conscience; guilt
  - guilt and 57–58
- contractual obligation
  - moralization of 69–73
- Conway, Daniel W.
  - on spectator view of art 313–14
- courage
  - as endurance 306
- creation of values see values, creation of
- creativity
  - bad conscience and 206
  - conception of 94
  - conditions for 210, 254–55, 256
  - as degeneracy 210–11
  - parasitism as lack of 304
  - power and 146–47, 209
  - as self-celebration 321
  - slave revolt and 208–10, 252
  - stifling of 227
  - suffering and 10, 80, 88, 91, 98–99, 100
  - varieties distinguished 314
- credit
  - relation to debt 219, 257–58, 259–60, 261, 262
- Crisp, Roger
  - on Aristotle's thought on human excellence 266–68
- cruelty see also instincts; punishment
  - assertiveness contrasted with 288
  - as basic instinct 292
  - depth analysis of 291
  - evil contrasted with 14
  - as immature egoism 291, 292
  - immaturity of, reasons for 292–93
  - internalization of 5, 57, 62–65, 76–77, 212, 219, 226, 232, 258–59, 260, 261
  - justice rooted in 296
  - noble morality and 292
- as perversion of aggression 293
- praise of 85, 285–86
- as regression 292–93
- spiritualization of 209–10
- will to power and 60
- curiosity
  - as vice 12
- Dante Inferno
  - on simony 12
- debt/indebtedness
  - bad conscience and 65–68
  - Christian guilt and 76–77
  - Christ's assumption of man's 259–60
  - compensation for 73
  - credit, relation to 219, 257–58, 259–60, 261, 262
  - feeling of 69–70
  - guilt and 58–61, 74–75
  - justice and 295
  - moralization of 65–73
  - punishment and 257–58
- defects of character see character
- dependence, excessive
  - independence and 288, 304–5
- depression
  - weak's fight against 301–2
- depth-psychological features of virtue 290–91
- destabilization of morality by genealogical
  - methodology 227–30
- determinism see also free will
  - conception of 96, 99, 103–4
- Dionysus
  - conception of 94, 154
  - faith in 97, 117
  - opposition to Christian morality 156–57
- discipline see also self, self-mastery
  - asceticism and 288, 306–8
  - custom as 107–8
  - endurance and 305–6
  - field of virtue of 305
  - healthy sublimation and 306
  - lack of, as vice 282–83
  - as mature egoism 288, 305–8
  - power and 178–79
  - suffering as 90–91, 260–61
  - wholeness through 117
- disinterestedness see also beauty
  - as aesthetic ideal 7–8, 322–23
  - ascetic ideal and 300
  - view of beauty 312–13, 318, 319
- drives see also instincts
  - conflicting 278, 279
  - hierarchy of 110, 111
  - interaction of 112
  - mastery of 109–10

338

- drives (cont.)
  - morality and 208
  - repression of 38–39
  - transformation of 1–2, 188–92
- duty
  - contractual obligation and 69–73
  - requirements of 269
- egocentricity of perspective
  - objectivity contrasted with 288
- egoism
  - bad conscience and 285–86
  - immature see immature egoism
  - mature see mature egoism
- endurance
  - discipline and 305–6
  - related virtues 306
- English psychologists
  - Christianity and 216–17, 247
  - conception of beauty and 316–17
  - opposition to 215–16, 218, 226, 227, 240, 247, 324
- Enlightenment
  - vision of autonomy 244
- envy see also ressentiment
- equality based on 291
- equality
  - based on envy 291
  - development of the higher man and 304
  - and ressentiment 297–98
  - women and 303–4
- eternal recurrence see also amor fati
  - conception of 88, 91, 94
  - willing of 91, 95
- evaluation
  - affects and 86
  - nature of 142–44
- evil
  - agency and 20, 22–23
  - bad contrasted with 6, 21–23, 196
  - Christian conception of 6, 21–22
  - cruelty contrasted with 14
  - free will and 14, 20
  - God and 225, 239
  - good, paired with 13–23, 32–33
  - priests as 31–34, 52–53
  - ressentiment* and 21
  - reevaluation of 21–23
  - reevaluation of morality 6–7
  - uses of term 19–20
  - vengeance and 23
  - as vice 14
- excellence see also character
  - aesthetic conception 268–70
  - mature egoism and 287

Index

- excessive dependence
  - independence and 288, 304–5
- excessive independence
  - mature independence contrasted with 288, 303–4
  - women and 303–4
- excessive passivity
  - assertiveness contrasted with 288, 293–95
  - turning the other cheek as 293–95
- eye of just person 295
- Flaubert, Gustave Madame Bovary
  - bovarysme* and 274–76
- flourishing see life; power
- Foot, Philippa
  - on aesthetics and character 271
  - on splendor 283
- forgetfulness see also memory
  - force of 58, 247, 255, 294
  - overcoming of 257
- form-giving
  - aesthetic conception 280–83
  - Christianity as 282
- Foucault, Michel
  - on aesthetic basis of ethics 272
- free will
  - conceptions of 9–10, 38–39, 99, 101, 103, 110–18, 201
  - denial of 85
  - evil and 14, 20
  - feeling of 102
  - guilt and 5, 57
  - possession of 71, 101, 107
  - responsibility and 103–5
  - suffering and 83
- freedom see also sovereign individual
  - Christianity and 113
  - from morality 19
  - Nietzsche's conception of 110–18
  - responsibility and 103–5
- Freud, Sigmund
  - on aggressiveness 292
- Fries, Jakob Friedrich
  - on nobility and beauty 269
- Fuller, Peter Marches Past
  - as example of bovarysme 274–76
- Gemes, Ken
  - on freedom and agency 111–12, 116
  - on sovereign individual 101
- genealogical method
  - Christianity and 225–27
  - destabilization of morality by 227–30
  - as historical account 17–19, 230–33
  - as immanent critique 222–25

- necessity for 188–91
 non-naturalism and 225–27 problem of interpretation 170–71 as psychological account 215–21 as reevaluation of morality 207–13, 221–30
- generosity see mature generosity
- Geuss, Raymond
 on evil 6–7, 12–23
 on genealogy 214, 218, 221
- gluttony, vice of changed understanding of 12
- God
 art and 314
 beloved of 315–16, 321, 322
 conception of 159
 death of 83–85, 159, 167, 193, 213 evaluation of 230–33
 evil and 225, 239
 fulfillment in service to 173–74, 307
 genealogical method and 225–26
 guilt and 5–6, 56–58, 65, 69, 76–77
 indebtedness and 259–60
 man's origins in 109
 peace and 92
 redemption and 99
 slave revolt and 164–65
- Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von as highest type 97, 117, 176 Kant and 311
 ranked with Melville 178–79, 188
- good bad, paired with 13–19, 28, 32–33, 41, 46–48, 196, 276, 283–84, 315–16 common good, and hyperobjectivity 300 evil, paired with 13–23, 32–33
- gratification
 instant, as immature egoism 291
- Greek philosophy
 Christianity and 206–7
 Socrates and development of 199–202
- guilt see also bad conscience; Christianity; conscience; debt/indebtedness; responsibility
 asceticism and 77
 bad conscience and 57, 61–65, 190
 Christian conception of 5–6, 57, 64–65, 69, 76–77
 conscience and 57–58
 God and 5–6, 56–58, 65, 69, 76–77
 indebtedness and 58–61, 69–73, 74–75
 punishment and 73–75
 as rational passion 75–77
 responsibility and 69–73
- happiness
 artificial construction of 125–26 condemnation of 44, 50–51, 64–65, 201
 desire for 149
 forgetfulness and 255
 forms of 308
 goodness as 149
 meaning of 280
 measure of 199
 path to 175–76
 promise of 7–8, 309, 312, 313, 319, 322, 325
 reason and 204
 recipe for 198
 revenge against the happy 50–51
- happiness of minimal superiority
 will to power as 301–2
- Hatab, Lawrence J. on surrender of master morality 3, 193–213
- herd-animal vices
 depth analysis of 291
- herd instinct
 charity as 301–2
 parasitism and 304
- higher man
 equality and development of 304 excellence and mature egoism 287
- Hume, David 57, 74, 94, 118, 216, 231, 232
- hyperobjectivity
 common good and 300
 evils of 300
 features of 299–300
 objectivity contrasted with 288, 299
 weakness as basis of 302
- immanent critique
 genealogical method as 222–25
- immanent phase of slave revolt 38–39
- immature egoism
 asceticism as 308
 cruelty as 291, 292–93
 depth analysis of 291
 instant gratification as 291
- immersion in the collectivity, tendency towards independence and 288, 304–5
- impure bad and 51–52
- indebtedness see debt/indebtedness
- independence/self-sufficiency basic and differentiated distinguished 302–3 excessive dependence and 288, 304–5 excessive independence contrasted with 288, 303–4
 field of virtue of 302
 immersion in the collectivity, tendency towards, and 288, 304–5

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-43723-4 - Nietzsche's: On the Genealogy of Morality: A Critical Guide

Edited by Simon May

Index

More information

340

- independence/self-sufficiency (cont.)
 as mature egoism 288, 302–5
 parasitism and 288, 304
 as solitude 302
 virtues and vices correlative with 302
- instant gratification
 depth analysis of 291
 as immature egoism 291
- instincts see also drives condemnation of 61–65, 156, 158, 183, 193–94
 freedom and 113, 114
 guidance by 204, 205
 internalization of 3, 39–40, 61–65, 77, 166, 202, 209, 258, 296–97
 life-denial and 154, 166–67, 199, 209–10
 maternal 304
 release of 38–39, 293
 for revenge 295–96
 systems of evaluating 157
- internalization of cruelty 5, 57, 62–65, 76–77, 212, 219, 226, 232, 258–59, 260, 261 effects of 37
 of instincts 3, 39–40, 61–65, 77, 166, 202, 209, 258, 296–97
 by priests 37
- Janaway, Christopher on aesthetic self-satisfaction 277
 on Nietzsche's reevaluation of morality 268
- Jews/Judaism
 anti-Semitism as slave revolt 32, 33–34 invention of slave morality 33–34
 perceptions of power and 182–88
 slave revolt and 29
- justice
 cruelty as root of 296
 eye of just person 295
 field of virtue of 295
 indebtedness and 295
 as mature egoism 288, 295–98
 rigorous punitivism contrasted with 288, 296–97 scientific fairness contrasted with 288, 297–98 self-sublimation of 295–96 vengefulness contrasted with 288
 virtues and vices correlative with 295–96
 virtues of the strong and 295–96
- justification of suffering
 life-affirmation and 86–91
- Kant, Immanuel
 on art and beauty 7–8, 310–14, 317, 318, 322
 on disinterestedness 7–8, 312–13, 318 Nietzsche's criticisms of 101, 109, 117, 118, 227 on virtue as strength of will 305

Index

- Kautsky, Karl 160
- knightly-aristocratic values see nobles/noble values
- knowledge see also self, self-knowledge
 asceticism and 260–61, 262
 honoring of 310
 promise of 253–64
 use of language and 246–53
- language changes in meaning of moral terms 9–10, 15–16, 27–28, 101–2, 111–14, 118–19
 knowledge and 246–64
 morality as sign language 220–21 subversion of Christian 252–53 use in genealogical method 239–46
- Leiter, Brian see also morality in pejorative sense (MPS) on cruelty 292
 on excellence of the higher man 287 on Millian model of will to power 148–50
 on sovereign individual 101–19
- life see also power flourishing of
 asceticism and 174
 Christianity and 172–74
 as will to power see will to power
- life-affirmation characteristics of 10, 99–100 consideration of alternative sorts of life and 92–93 justification of suffering and 86–91
 life-denial and 85–86
 redemption and 98–99
 repudiation of particular life events and experiences, and 93–95
 theory of 81–82
 of whole of life 95–98
- life-denial
 asceticism and 201, 281–82
 Christianity and 154, 158, 201–2
 death of God and 84–85
 instincts associated with 154, 166–67, 199, 209–10
 life-affirmation and 85–86
 Nietzsche's radical account of 82–85 theodicy and 78–82
- literature, examples from influence of fiction on character 272–76 transformation of language 15–16
- love
 Christian glorification of 32
 self-love and mature egoism 301
- Marx, Karl 159–60
- masters/master morality see nobles/noble values

- maternal instincts 304
- mature egoism
 assertiveness as 288, 291–95
 concept of 285–86
 discipline as form of 288, 305–8
 features of 286–87
 independence as 288, 302–5
 justice as 288, 295–98 mature generosity as 288, 301–2 objectivity as form of 288, 298–300 self-love and 301
 virtues and vices of 287–88
- mature generosity
 field of virtue of 301
 as mature egoism 288, 301–2 pity and 301
 self-sacrificing charity and 288, 301–2 sympathy and 301
 unhealthy selfishness contrasted with 288 unselfishness contrasted with 301 virtues and vices correlative with 301
- May, Simon
 on asceticism and life-denial 282 on defining power 178–79
 on Nietzsche's reevaluation of morality 78–100 on personal accountability 68
- Melville, Herman
 ranked with Goethe 178–79, 188
- memory
 forgetfulness and 254–58
 reliability of 106
 of the will 57–58, 70, 75
- Mill, John Stuart
 modeling will to power and 148–50
- minimal superiority, happiness of
 will to power as 301–2
- morality see also Christianity; God; priests/priestly values; morality in pejorative sense (MPS); slaves/slave morality altruistic morality, rise of 25 of compassion (Schopenhauer) 239 destabilization of 227–30 disvaluation of 120–22
 freedom from 19
ressentiment, link with 120 self-deception of 16–17 slave revolt and see slaves/slave morality
- morality in pejorative sense (MPS)
 agency and 218–19
 bad conscience and 218, 219
- moralization see bad conscience; debt/indebtedness; guilt
- Napoleon
 as embodiment of noble ideal 79, 117–18, 253
- naturalism
 destabilization of morality and 227–30
- Nehamas, Alexander
 on aesthetics and character 270
 on self-control 278
- neurosis
 rigorous punitivism as 296–97
- nobles/noble values see also life-affirmation; morality; priests/priestly values; slaves/slave morality barbarians and 291
 Christianity contrasted with 151 cruelty and 292–93
 features of 315
 mode of valuation 314–16
 pathos of distance and 27
 priests and see priests/priestly values slave morality contrasted with 195–98, 207–13, 315 surrender/transition to slave values 15
- nothingness, will to 78–79, 83, 84, 87, 90, 100, 201, 213 see also asceticism/ascetic ideal; life-denial
- object mastery
ressentiment and 125–68
- objectivity
 affects and 298
 egocentricity of perspective contrasted with 288
 field of virtue of 298
 hyperobjectivity contrasted with 288, 299
 as mature egoism 288, 298–300
 perspective and 298–99
- Owen, David
 on agency 222
 on perception of power 181, 186 on slave revolt 25, 35
 on sovereign individual 71
 on use of genealogical method 223
- parasitism
 herd instinct and 304
 independence contrasted with 288 as lack of creativity 304
- passion, rational
 guilt as 75–77
- passivity
 excessive see excessive passivity as form of happiness 308
- pathos of distance of priests 28, 53
 value creation and 27, 44–45
- peace
 in God 92

- perseverance
 as endurance 306
- personhood see also agency
 conception of 72–73, 112
- perspective
 of the artist 157
 attainment of 263
 egocentric and objective contrasted 288 evaluative 227, 230
 of life 168
 of morality narrowly conceived 265–66, 279
 objectivity and 298–300
 of power 181, 188, 191
 of social cohesion 210–11, 212
 women and 245–46, 248
- philosophers of beauty, bad 309, 312, 313, 319, 322
- philosophy
 asceticism and 100, 116–17, 211–12
 Socrates and development of 199–202
- Picasso, Pablo expression of will to power 95
- Pippin, Robert
 on nobility of priests 25, 33
- pity
 depth analysis of 291
 mature generosity and 301
- Poellner, Peter
 on freedom 110–11
 on ressentiment 4, 120–41
 on sovereign individual 101
- power see also life; will to power affects and 1–2, 149–50, 171, 179–80, 185
 agency and 171, 177, 180, 182–85, 187, 190
 asceticism and 2–3, 176, 178
 Christianity as means to 156
 creativity and 146–47, 209
 Judeo-Christian morality and perceptions of 182–88
 perceptions of, and Christianity 190 slave revolt as priests' route to 40, 50 as umbrella concept 146–47
- powerlessness, responses to 30–31
- priests/priestly values see also Christianity; morality; nobles/noble values; slaves/slave morality; ressentiment
 asceticism and 3–4, 92–93, 173, 185, 199, 201–4, 206, 208–9, 212–13, 219, 228–29
 evil and 31–34, 52–53
 nobility of priests 45–53
 apparent anomaly of 25–27 exceptions to 34–35
 superiority over warrior nobles 45–53
 pathos of distance and 28, 53
 powerlessness and 30–31
ressentiment and 48–52
- slave morality and shared characteristics 37 transition to 41–42
- slave revolt and interpretive difficulty 36, 40–41 need for priests 34–45
 nobility of priests 45–53
 priests' purposes in promoting 50–51
 value creation and 42–44
 warrior nobles, conflict with 29–30, 45–53
- profundity as endurance 306
- promise of happiness 318–19
- promises, making and keeping 69–73, 95, 253–64
see also sovereign individual
- punishment see also cruelty; suffering
 guilt and 73–75
 indebtedness and 257–58
- punitivism, rigorous contrasted with justice 288
- Rand, Ayn Fountainhead example of excessive dependence 304–5
- rational passion
 guilt as 75–77
- redemption
 Christianity and 98
 life-affirmation and 98–99
- Rée, Paul
 on character 268
 Nietzsche's critique of 239–40
- Reginster, Bernard
 on affirmation 91–92
 on guilt 5, 56–77
 on ressentiment 37, 45, 48–49, 52, 54–55
 on suffering 80
 on will to power 176
- regression
 cruelty as 292–93
 sublimation and 308
- religion see Christianity; Jews/Judaism
- repression
 sublimation and 308
- responsibility
 freedom and 103–5
 guilt and 69–73
- responsible agent, autonomy of 72–73, 74–75, 111–12
- ressentiment see also* bad conscience; envy; revenge; slaves/slave morality
 affects and 131–32, 136–37
 asceticism and 122–23, 130
 autonomy and 130, 139
 bad conscience and 317
 Christianity and 127, 139, 223
 equality and 297–98
 evil and 21

- features of 123–25
 morality and 120
 object mastery and 125–38 priests and 48–52
 revaluation of values and 25, 29, 36, 40–41, 42–44, 50–51, 53, 164–65 scientific fairness and 297–98
 slave morality and 49–50
 value creation and 26, 43
 revaluation of all values 2, 54–55, 93, 151, 155–56, 167, 168, 170–71, 172–73, 185, 215, 221–30, 260, 268, 278 of evil 6–7, 21–22
   resentiment and 25, 29, 36, 40–41, 42–44, 50–51, 53, 164–65 of suffering 87–88, 100 revenge see also resentment
   affects and 46, 104–5
   against the happy 50–51
   evil and 23
   instincts for 295–96
   as motivation 25
   ridding of 23
   slave revolt see slaves/slave morality Richardson, John (art historian) on Picasso 95
 Richardson, John (philosopher)
   on freedom 101
   on priests as slaves 26 Ridley, Aaron
   on art as imposition of form 277 on beauty 309–24 See also beauty on priests as hybrid noble/slave 35–45 rigorous punitivism
   justice contrasted with 288, 296–97
   as neurosis 296–97
 Schacht, Richard
   on will to power 150
 Schopenhauer, Arthur
   on art and beauty 310–14
   on asceticism 307
   on character 268
   on morality of compassion 239 scientific fairness
   justice contrasted with 288, 297–98
 self self-celebration, as creativity 321 concepts of 7–8, 9–10, 101–2, 190 self-control, aesthetic conception of 278 self-criticism 88–89, 240, 245, 274 self-deception 3–4, 129, 130–31, 132, 133–34, 136, 138, 140, 141, 182, 184, 223, 228–29, 282–83 self-denial 7–8, 77, 123–24, 230, 244, 253, 261–62, 306, 317–18, 322–23 externalization of 130–31
   internalization of 258–59, 260, 261
   self-knowledge acquiring of 239–46
     capacity for 234–39
   self-love, and mature egoism 301 self-mastery 9–10, 71, 72–73, 103, 107, 108, 109–10, 246, 253, 261, 263 self-satisfaction, aesthetic 277 self-worth 195–96
   self-sacrificing charity
     depth analysis of 291
     mature generosity and 288, 301–2
   self-sufficiency see independence/self-sufficiency selfishness see also unselfishness healthy and unhealthy distinguished 301 mature generosity contrasted with 288, 301
   shape of character
     aesthetic conception 276–80
   simony, vice of changed understanding of 12
   sin see Christianity; evil; guilt slaves/slave morality see also morality; nobles/noble values; priests/priestly values;
     resentiment
   attractions of 199–202
   conception of beauty and 316–19
   creativity and 208–10, 252
   features of 36
   Jewish invention 33–34
   noble morality contrasted with 195–98, 207–13, 315 nobles' surrender to see nobles/noble values powerlessness and 30–31
   priests as hybrid noble/slave 35–41
   resentiment and 49–50
   slave revolt agency 3–4, 26–27, 34–35, 41, 46, 204–5
     altruistic morality, rise of 34–45
     anti-Semitism as 32, 33–34
     Christianity as 197, 199–201, 230, 253
     immanent phase 38–39
     Judaism and 29
     priests, role of see priests/priestly values as priests' route to power 40, 50–51 process of 15, 38–40 promotion by priests 29 transcendentalizing phase 39–40
     as vengeance 29
 Socrates development of philosophy and 199–202 solitude
   independence as 302

- sovereign individual see also freedom; promises, making and keeping; self autonomy of 101–2, 106–10 characteristics of 70–73, 106–10
 promises, making and keeping 69–73, 253–64
- spectator view of art disinterestedness of 312–13 problem of 311–12, 313–14
- spiritual origins of morality see Christianity; Jews/Judaism
- splendor
 aesthetic conception 283–84
- Stendhal
 on beauty 313–14, 322–23
- strong forgetfulness
 as self-sufficiency 294–95
 as virtue 293–95
- strong/strength
 as basis of assertiveness 295 dispersal of 302
 virtues of 295–96
 of will, virtue as 305
- sublimation
 discipline and 306
 regression and 308
 repression and 308
- subordination see powerlessness, responses to
- suffering see also asceticism/ascetic ideal
 asceticism and 78–79
 Christianity and 87–88
 creativity and 10, 80, 88, 91, 98–99, 100
 free will and 83
 justification of 86–91
 reevaluation of 87–88, 100
- sympathy
 mature generosity and 301
- Taylor, Charles
 on genealogy 170
 on secular and religious world views 173–74
- Taylor, Gabriele
 on punishment 73–74
- theodicy
 Christianity and 88, 90–91
 justification of suffering 90–91
 life-denial and 78–82
- Theognis of Megara 14–16
- Trotsky, Leon 161
- truth see will to truth
- turning the other cheek
 as excessive passivity 293–95
- unselfishness see also selfishness generosity contrasted with 301
- values
 creation of
 capacity for 45
 conceptual transformation and 27–28, 44–45
 pathos of distance and 27, 44–45
resentiment and 26, 43
 slave revolt and 42–44
 Nietzsche's own standard of 2–3 reevaluation of 2, 54–55, 93, 151, 155–56, 167, 168, 170–71, 172–73, 185, 215, 221–30, 260, 268, 278
- vengefulness see revenge
 justice contrasted with 288
- vice/vices
 asceticism as 8–9
 capital vices, theory of 21–22 changed understanding of 12–13
 evil as 14
 herd-animal 291
- virtue/virtues
 Aristotelian and Nietzschean thought contrasted 287
 asceticism and 281–82
 basic and differentiated distinguished 289–90
 cardinal virtues, theory of 21–22 depth-psychological features of 290–91 field of 288–89
 as strength of will 305 structure and nature of 288–91 thin and thick accounts of 288–89
- virtues of the strong justice and 295–96
- Wagner, Richard
 Christianity and 244
- Wallace, R. Jay 4, 26, 34, 44, 127, 131, 229
- warrior nobles see nobles/noble values
- weak/weakness see also power; slaves/slave morality fight against depression 301–2
 herd instinct and 301–2
 hyperobjectivity and 302
- will to nothingness 78–79, 83–84, 87, 90, 100, 201, 213 see also asceticism/ascetic ideal; life-denial
- will to power see also life Benthamite model of 158–64 centrality of concept of 164–68
 charity and 301–2
 cruelty and 60
 as happiness of minimal superiority 301–2
 life as 144–48, 175–77

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-43723-4 - Nietzsche's: On the Genealogy of Morality: A Critical Guide

Edited by Simon May

Index

More informationIndex

345

Millian model of 148–50 strength of concept of 177–79 will to truth 79, 167, 223–25, 244–45, 248, 261–62
Williams, Bernard
on splendor 283

wisdom
as endurance 306
women
equality and 303–4
excessive independence and 303–04
maternal instincts 304