CONTENTS

The Committee

List of Persons consulted

Preface

Introduction

Part I: The Value of Music to the Community and the Place that it Should Occupy in Education

Part II: Specimen Schemes of Musical Training for Children and Adults

Introductory

*1. Primary Education:

(i) Infant Schools

(ii) Junior Schools

(iii) Preparatory Schools (Boys)

2. Post Primary Education:

(i) Senior Classes and Modern Schools

(ii) Secondary Schools

(iii) Public Schools

3. Small Schools: Covering Infant Schools and Junior Schools (Primary), and Senior Classes (Post-Primary)

* The nomenclature used is mainly that suggested in “The Report of the Consultative Committee on the Education of the Adolescent” (1926). “Senior Classes” means the top part of elementary schools, and “Modern Schools” means Central Schools.
Table of Contents

vi

CONTENTS

4. Training Colleges ........................................... 52
5. Part-time Further Education ............................. 55
6. The Contribution of the Universities ................. 64

PART III: SUGGESTIONS ON TEACHING METHODS ......... 69
1. Infants’ introduction to music in school ............... 69
2. Training of children’s voices ........................... 74
3. Treatment of adolescent voices ....................... 79
4. Ear-training in melody and harmony ................. 81
5. Training in rhythm and musical dictation ........... 84
6. Vocal sight-reading ....................................... 85
7. Instrumental sight-reading:
   (a) Pianoforte ........................................... 90
   (b) Strings ............................................ 92
8. Teaching the history of music ........................... 94
9. Extemporisation and melody-writing ................... 97
10. Learning instruments in class:
    (a) Pianoforte ......................................... 99
    (b) Strings .......................................... 101
    (c) Wind ............................................ 101
11. Listening to music ...................................... 101
12. The use of mechanically reproduced music ......... 111
13. Correlation of music with other studies ............ 115
14. Musical education of difficult and retarded types .... 120
15. Conducting and training of children’s choirs ..... 124
Table of Contents

CONTENTS

16. Conducting and training of children’s orchestras
    page 126

17. Conducting and training of adult choirs  130

18. Conducting and training of adult orchestras  133

19. Training of conductors  135

PART IV: OTHER ASPECTS OF MUSIC  139

1. Music and the corporate life of the school  139

2. Concerts for children  142

3. Other musical influences on the child out of school:

   (a) The home  144

   (b) Places of worship  146

   (c) Places of entertainment  147

   (d) Music and social conduct  149

4. Organisation of adult choirs  150

5. Organisation of adult orchestras  151

6. Musical festivals and competitions  153

7. The fostering of musical education by local organisations: as illustrated by the Cambridgeshire Council of Musical Education  159

8. Circulating libraries of music and books on music  162

9. Examinations, external and internal, and inspections  163

10. Community singing  168

PART V: RETROSPECT AND CONCLUSIONS  171
CONTENTS

APPENDICES:    page
A.   List of Song Books                      191
B.   List of Hymn Books                     204
C.   List of Orchestral and Chamber Music   205
D.   List of Pianoforte Music               214
E.   Classified list of Books on Music      230
F.   Periodicals on Music                   249
G.   Instruments and Apparatus             252
H.   Organisations which can give outside   253 musical help and the nature of the help given
I.   Societies and Companies which publish 258 educational gramophone records and player-piano rolls, and Publishers who have educational departments in music