Index

ABC model, 118–20, 131
Aboriginal community, 2
Aboriginal knowledges, 9
Aboriginal people
  deep listening, 9–10
  defined, 2
  emancipatory approaches, 11–12
  oral tradition, 7–9
  well-being, 1, 75
  world-views, 3–4
absent but implicit concept, 149–50 absolutist thinking, 117 activating events, 118–20 Addams, Jane, 15, 18
affect regulation, 91–2 agency system, 183–4
Aldgate, J., 47
Alfred, Taiaiake, 1, 12
Allen, J., 89, 160
altruism, 93
Andrews, Shawana, 15
anti-oppressive practice, 75, 163–6 anxiety management, 92, 101 approaches behavioural, 112–16
  cognitive-behavioural, 116–34
  emancipatory, 11–12
  feminist, 158–60
  human rights, 168–9
  narrative, 8–9, 138–42, 151–3 person-centred, 103–11
  psychodynamic, 97–103
  see also models; frameworks arbitrary inference, 117 Arnstein, S., 170
asceticism, 93
assertiveness
  case studies, 115
assessments, 45
  holistic, 56–8
  processes of, 50–8
  psychosocial, 50–4
  specialist, 54–5
Assman, Jan, 7
attachment theory, 88–90
Austin, A., 180
Australian Association of Social Workers (AASW), 4

Barak, William, 5
Barley, D., 96, 104
basic needs, 125
Bateson, Gregory, 140
Beck, A.T., 117
Beckett, C., 31, 161, 162, 163
Beddoe, L., 17, 34, 177, 178, 181, 183
Beels, C., 139
behaviour
  factors influencing, 51–3 modelling, 115
behavioural approaches, 112–16
  in practice, 116
  strengths and challenges, 129–34
beliefs, 118–20, 132
belonging, 47
Berlin, S., 23, 117, 122, 123, 128, 132, 183, 188
Bertalanffy, L., 63
  general system theory, 62–7 Bessarab, D., 4, 8, 174, 185 biological factors, 52
Bishop, B.J., 4
Blank, A., 129
Bloom, M., 71
Boulanger, G., 110
boundaries, 64–5
Bourdieu, P., 174
Bowlby, John, 88, 89, 90
brevity, 39
Briskman, L., 5, 6, 11, 168
Bromfield, L.M., 58
Bronfenbrenner, Uri, 76
  ecological map, 67, 77
  ecological theory, 67–71
Bronson, D.E., 116
Brown, C., 143
Bruce, E., 180
Burchall, A., 6
butterfly effect, 73

Care and Protection Practice Framework, 44–50 caregivers
  and attachment, 88–90
  emotions of, 92
Carey, M., 149
case studies
  ABC model, 118
  assertiveness, 115
  cognitive-behavioural approaches, 120–2
  collaboration, 124
  crisis intervention, 81
  ecomapping, 79
  family group conferences, 166–7 feminist approaches, 158–9
  narrative approaches, 151–2 psychodynamic approaches, 102–3 reframing, 126
casework. see practice challenges, 123
Chamberlain, L., 73
change
  achievable, 39
  cultural, 69
  first- and second-order, 22
  lens of, 21–4
Chanowitz, B., 129
chaos theory, 73
child welfare practice frameworks, 44–50 children, 54
Chodorow, Nancy, 94
chronosystems, 69
clarity, 39
client system, 182–3
client–worker relationships, 40 closed systems, 63, 65
cognitive-behavioural approaches, 116–20
  ABC model, 118–20, 131
  in practice, 120–9
  strengths and challenges, 129–34
collaboration, 39, 124, 137
  case studies, 124
  to generate resources, 125–8 colonisation, 1 community system, 184
compensation, 93
complex systems theories, 72–5, 82 complexity theory, 66
conceptual model, 44
conditioning principles, 113–16 conferences, family group, 165–8 congruence, 105
Connolly, Marie, 18, 37, 168, 169
containment, 100–1
coping behaviour, 80, 113 counter-transference, 95–6 crisis, 79
crisis intervention, 79–82
  case studies, 81
critical reflection, 6–7, 178–80 critical social work, 156–60 Crotty, M., 142
cultural change, 69

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-45863-5 — Social Work
2nd Edition
Index
More Information

cultural dimensions, 56–8 cultural influences, 53, 140–1, 142 cultural memory, 7–9 cultural rights, 33
cultural thinking, 20–1 culturally responsive
supervision, 185–6
culture, 132

de Shazer, Steve, 139, 150 decision-making, 41
decolonised practice, 5–7
deep listening, 9–10
defence mechanisms, 92–3, 101 deficits, 50
democratisation of services, 170–1
Denborough, David, 8, 139, 145
denial, 93
devaluation, 93
developmental needs, 51, 54 dialogue, 137
dichotomous thinking, 117 dignity, 104
direct protection, 162
disbelief, 137
displacement, 93
disputation, 119
Dominelli, L., 164
Dulwich Centre, 139
Durie, M., 56, 185

eclectic practice, 28–30
ecological map, 67
ecological theory, 51, 54, 67–71, 83
ecomapping, 77–9
Edmunds, F., 7
Egan, R., 177, 178
ego, 91
Ellis, Albert, 119
emancipatory approaches, 11–12
emergence, 63
emotions
after events, 118–20
of infants, 92
empathic, 107–8
empowerment, 132, 161
empowerment perspectives, 161–70
Enchiridion, Epictetus, 118 engagement, 45, 136
entropy, 65
environmental factors, 53, 55
Epstein, David, 139, 143
Epstein, L., 38, 41
equilfinality, 73
Erikson, E., 88
ethnocultural factors, 52 evaluation, 119
evidence-based practice, 31–3 exosystems, 68, 76
externalising, 143, 147–8, 154–5
extremes, 123

factors influencing behaviour and human potential, 51–3
fale, 56–8
families, 55, 56, 61, 138, 165–8
cognitive-behavioural
approaches, 126
engagement strategies, 167
group conferences, 165–8
interactional dynamics, 22 family dimension of
well-being, 56
family theory, 66
Fanon, Frantz, 11
faulty-engine theories, 112 feedback loops, 66, 73
feminism, 157–8
feminist approaches, 158–60
case studies, 158–9
Fisch, R., 22, 126
Fishman, H., 66
focus
future-focused questioning, 150–1
on extremes, 123
on here and now, 39, 130
on past, 87–8
Fonagy, Peter, 89, 90
Fonofale Framework, 56, 57
Fook, Jan, 6, 160
Foucault, Michel, 11, 30
Framework for the Assessment of Children in Need and Their Families, 54
frameworks, 26, 37, 44, 48
child welfare, 44–50 life-course, 169
see also approaches;
models
free association, 100
Freud, S., 88, 95, 110
Freudian theory, 91
Friedman, B.D., 22
Furlong, M., 139

Gambrill, E., 116
Gardner, F., 6
Garwick, A., 66
general system theory, 62–7
genuineness, 108
Germain, C., 51, 53, 66, 71
Gibney, P., 100
Giddens, A., 174
goals
psychodynamic approaches, 97
task-centred practice, 42
Goldstein, E., 93
good lives model, 121
Gould, N., 44
Granvold, D.K., 117, 120
Gray, M., 160
Green, J., 6
Green, S., 71, 74
group conferences, 165–8

Harms, Louise, 18, 89, 179
Hart, M., 3
healing, 136
health, 4
Healy, K., 37, 38, 60, 87, 164, 165
Hemingway, M., 4
Hepworth, D., 80
here and now focus, 130 historical factors, 52
holistic assessments, 56–8 homeostasis, 65–7
homosexuality, 142
Howe, D., 15, 23, 26, 41, 115, 133, 160
Hudson, C., 66, 73
human potential, 51–3
human rights approach, 168–9 humanistic. see person-centred approaches
humour, 93

idealisation, 93
ideas, 28
illness narratives, 146–7
Indigenous communities, 18, 58
Indigenous cultures
narrative approaches, 140–1 infants
and attachment, 88–90
and inner self, 91
brain development, 90–1
emotions of, 92
inner world, 87, 88
institutional attachments, 19 institutions, 61

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-45863-5 — Social Work
2nd Edition
Index
More Information

intellectualisation, 93 internalisation, 93
interpretive exploration, 101 interpretive lens, 14–24, 177–8 intersubjectivity, 96–7 interviewing for strengths, 137–8 introjection, 93
involuntary clients, 41 isolation of affect, 93

Johnson, S., 47
Jung, Carl, 96

Kadushin, A., 179
Kaupapa Māori supervision, 185 kinship care, 47
knowledge, professional, 25, 30 Kondrat, D.C., 23, 175, 186
Kovach, M., 3, 10

Lambert, M., 96, 104
Langer, E., 129
Larsen, J.A., 80
Lee, M.Y., 55, 128
legitimate power, 163
liberal feminism, 157
listening absent but implicit, 149–50 deep, 9–10
  for outcomes, 148–9
Locke, R., 17
Lonne, B., 47
Lyth, Isabel Menzies, 98

macrosystems, 69, 76
Mafile'o, T, 57
magnification, 118
Maidment, J., 17, 34, 183
Māori health, 56
Marxist feminism, 157
McDermott, F., 71, 74
McIntosh, M., 47
membership, 136
memories, 87
Mendes, P., 15, 157
mental dimension of well-being, 56, 57
mesosystems, 67, 76
microsystems, 67, 76
mindfulness, 128–9
minimisation, 118
Minuchin, S., 66
modelling behaviour, 115
models, 26, 48,
  ABC model, 118–20, 131
  good lives, 121
  of practice, 37
  personal/cultural/structural (PCS), 72 relapse prevention, 121–2
  supervision, 181
  systems-informed, 181
  whare tapa wha model, 56
  see also approaches; frameworks Moore, T., 147
motivations, 88
mountain-moving theories, 156 Mullaly, B., 72
multidimensional assessments, 50–4, 75

Nakata, M., 5, 6
narrative approaches, 138–40
  Aboriginal people, 8–9
  case studies, 151–2
  Indigenous cultures, 140–1 relationships in, 145
  see also story-telling National Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Organisation, 4 negative thinking, 118–20
Neuman Allen, K., 22
neuro-endocrine system, 90 neuroscience, 74, 90–1
Nipperess, S., 168
Norlin, J., 63, 65

offenders, 120–2
omnipotent control, 93
onion-peeling theories, 85–6 open systems, 63, 65
oral tradition, 7–9
organisation of self, 91–7 organisational contexts, 33–5 overgeneralisations, 117

Paradies, Y.C., 7
parenting, 88–90
parenting capacity, 54
participation, 167
partnerships, 40, 165–8 Pasifika cultures, 56
past, 87–8
Patterson, J., 66
Pavlov, I., 113
Payne, M., 83
Pemberton, A., 17
Perlman, H.H., 37
person:environment, 71, 74, 83 personal/cultural/structural (PCS) model, 72 personal factors, 52
personalisation, 118
person-centred approaches, 103–8
  in practice, 106–8
  strengths and challenges, 108–11
person-in-environment (PIE), 71 mapping, 78
perspectives, 26
Phillipson, J., 20
phobias, 113
physical characteristics, 51 physical dimension of well-being, 56, 57 Plath, D., 133
postmodern critiques, 30–1 post(modern) feminism, 158 post-structural theories, 143–4 power, 30, 154–5, 161
  legitimate, 163
  referent, 163
  statutory, 161–2
practice
  and theories, 25–7
  anti-oppressive, 163–6
  behavioural approaches, 116
  cognitive-behavioural approaches, 120–9 decolonised, 5–7
  democratisation, 170–1
  eclectic, 28–30
  evidence-based, 31–3
  feminist approaches, 158–60
  frameworks, 37, 44–50
  person-centred approaches, 106–8
  psychodynamic approaches, 97–103
  reconciliatory, 4–5
  reflective, 6–7, 173–7
  reflexive, 173–7
  relationship-based, 15–16
  rights-based, 168–70 standards, 176–7
  story-telling theories, 144–53
  strength-based, 135–8
  systems theories, 76–9
  task-centred, 38–44
  triggers, 45–9

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-45863-5 — Social Work
2nd Edition
Index
More Information

practice theories, 27–8 problems
  alleviation, 39
  exploring, 41–4
  externalising, 147–8
  task-centred practice, 41–2 problem-solving approaches, 37 professional knowledge, 25, 30 professional standards, 176–7 projection, 93, 95
projective identification, 93 protective leverage, 162
psychodynamic approaches
  case studies, 102–3
  goals, 97
  in practice, 97–103
psychodynamic theories, 86–97
  person-centred approaches, 103–8
  strengths and challenges, 108–11
psychological first aid, 81 psychosexual drives, 88 psychosocial assessments, 50–4 psychosocial drives, 88 purist approach to theory, 28–30

questioning exploratory, 41
  for strengths, 137–8 future-focused, 150–1
  reflective, 183, 184
  relative influence, 147
  Socratic, 120

radical feminism, 158
Rapp, Charles, 22, 34, 135
rationalisation, 93
reaction formation, 93
reciprocity, 64
reconciliatory practice, 4–5 referent power, 163
reflection, critical, 178–80 reflective lens, 19–21
reflective practice, 6–7, 173–7 reflective questions, 183, 184 reflexive practice, 173–7 reflexive practitioner, 176–7
reframing, 8, 126–7
regard, 107, 137
regression, 93
Reichert, E., 168
Reid, W., 38, 41
reinforcers, 114
relapse prevention model, 121–2 relational lens, 15–16
relationships
  and attachment, 88–90
  and transference, 94–5
  client–worker, 40
  collaborative, 39
  corrective emotional, 99
  dynamics, 94
  in narrative approaches, 145
  supervisory, 180–1
  therapeutic, 96, 99, 145
  trusting, 99
reoffending, 120–2
repression, 93
resilience, 74, 136, 138 respect, 104
reversal, 93
Richmond, Mary, 15, 61–2 rights-based practice, 168–70
Robertson, R., 72
Rogers, Carl, 103–5, 107
Rooney, R., 80
Russell, S., 149

Sackett, D., 32
safety, 47, 90, 99–100
Said, Edward, 11
Saleebey, Denis, 22, 135, 136–7
Sandler, J., 90
saving people, 123
Schön, D., 173
selective abstraction, 117
self organisation of, 91–7
  turning against, 93
self-empowerment, 161
self-harm, 159
self-righting tendency, 65, 80 Sennett, Richard, 104
sex offenders, 120–2
Sheehan, R., 34
Sheldon, B., 25
Sheppard, M., 176
Shulman, L., 183
Shyne, A, 38
Smith, L.T., 8, 185
social bonds, 88–90
social constructionism, 141–2
social constructivism, 23
social diagnosis, 61–2
social justice lens, 16–19
social network mapping, 77–9 social networks, 63
social reform, 156–60
social work, 188
  critical, 156–60
  green, 164
  lens of change, 21–4
  reflective lens, 19–21
  relational lens, 15–16
  social justice lens, 16–19
social workers, 14
  in organisations, 4, 33–5 non-Aboriginal, 8
  reflexivity, 176–7
socialist feminism, 157
Socratic questioning, 120
solution seeking, 47
somatisation, 93
specialist assessments, 54–5 spiritual dimension of well-being, 56, 57 spirituality, 55
splitting, 93
Staples, L., 132
statutory power, 161–2
steady states, 65–7
Stone, S., 82
stories, 135
  exceptions, 148
  reauthoring, 146, 147
  telling, 145–7
story-telling theories, 135
  cultural influence, 140–1, 142
  in practice, 144–53
  key concepts, 139
  post-structural influences, 143–4 social constructionist influences, 141–2 strength-based perspectives, 135–8
  strengths and challenges, 153–5 systems influences, 140 strange attractors, 74
strength-based perspectives, 135–8
strengths
  interviewing for, 137–8 lexicon of, 136–7
strengths-based approach, 22
Strom-Gottfried, K., 50, 52 structured approach, 39 subjectivity, 87
sublimation, 93
supervision, 20, 174, 178–80
  culturally responsive, 186
  models, 181
  systems-informed, 181

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-45863-5 — Social Work
2nd Edition
Index
More Information

supervisory relationships, 180–1 suspension of disbelief, 137 systematic desensitisation, 114 systems, 85
  and story-telling theories, 140 open and closed, 63, 65
systems theories, 60, 63, complex, 72–5, 82
  criticisms and strengths, 82–4
  in practice, 76–9
  influences, 72
  language of, 76
  see also general system theory systems-informed model, 181

talking cures, 99
task-centred practice, 38
  goals, 42
  planning and implementing tasks, 43–4 principles of, 38–40
  step-by-step approach, 40–1
tasks, 43–4
theories and practice, 25–7
  purist approach, 28–30
  strength of, 25
  types of, 26–7
theory of mind, 94
therapeutic relationships, 96, 99
  in narrative approaches, 145
  see also practice
Thompson, N., 72, 181
Thorne, B., 110
Thyer, B.A., 116
transactions, 64
transference, 94–5
Tree of Life methodology, 145
Trevithick, P., 30, 115, 116, 127
Trotter, C., 46
trust, 99
Tumarkin, M., 74
turning against the self, 93

unconditional positive regard, 105, 107, 137 undoing, 93
Ungunmerr-Baumann, M.R., 10

Vaillant, G., 93
values, 33

Walsh, Froma, 138
Walsh-Tapiata, W., 186
Walther, S., 149
Ward, T., 168, 169
Watson, J., 113
Watzlawick, P., 22, 126
Weakland, J., 22, 126
Webb, S.A., 160
Webster, J., 186
well-being, 56, 57
Western paradigm, 132
whare tapa wha model of Māori health, 56, 185, 186
Wheeler, C.E., 47
White, Cheryl, 139
White, Michael, 138, 140, 143, 148, 149
wholeness, 136
Wingard, Barbara, 139, 140
worker system, 183
world-views
  Aboriginal, 3–4
Wronka, J., 168

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org