INDEX

Alexander VI, and efficacy of interdict, 176; bull about sanctuary, 1493, 179
Appeal, private accusation at common law, 41; before parliament abolished, 1 H. IV c. 14, 116; in modern sense non-existent, 117
Arthur, Prince, death, 1502, 23; grant in lieu of aid for knighting, 1504, 23
Attainder, its effect, 118
Attaint, check on juries, 82 f.
Auditors, or triers of petitions, 122; some commons among, by 1509, 123; judges among them, 132

Bacon, Francis, on Henry's title, and Elizabeth of York, 10, 12; on parliamentary approval of benevolence, 22; on Henry VII's law-making, 145; on corporations, 148; on the De Facto Act, 152
Beauforts, doubtful legitimacy of, 4, 5
Becket, Thomas, presented with sacred oil by the Virgin, 7; invoked by the rebels of 1489, 182
Benefit of clergy, nature and regulation, 180.
Benevolence, in 1491 and 1495, and Bacon's comment, 22; Benevolence Act, 11 H. VII c. 10, 147
Bill (cf. Petition), kinds of parliamentary, 121, 123; readings in either house, 124; amendments, 126; and petition, 128 (and earlier); “containing the form of an act”, 129
Boroughs, York expecting a vacancy of the crown after 1485, 14; Leicester to frequent the king's ovens, 17; officers and by-law supervised by justices of the peace, 61; some of their officers justices of the peace ex officio, 62; and parliament, 97 f.;  subordination to statute, 141, 148
Brittany, Henry's debts in, in 1485, 20; preventing absorption of, by France, 1489, 20, 22; duchess's marriage with Charles VIII, 22

Canterbury, archbishop of, his petition in the house of commons, 1401, 123
Certiorari, used by council to procure records of other courts, 46
Chamber, King's, balance held by Treasurer of, 24; and Court of General Surveyors, as royal instruments for controlling finance, 26
Church (cf. Clergy), t.r. Henry VII, 174 ff.; Henry's relations with Rome, 175; appointments, 177; and state, 177 ff.; royal control of emissaries and documents, 181
Clergy (cf. Church), and Benefit: grants by, in 1489 and 1496, 21, 23; clerical character not conferable by temporal authority, 181
Coke, E., on trial without indictment, 150; on the De Facto Act, 155
Commissions, judicial, 56 ff.; regularity of circuits since t.r. Edward I, 57; commissions of the peace, 67; commissions of array, 75
Commons, house of, 90; relation to parliament, 96; superiority of knights to burgesses, 97; composition of house: franchise, 98 f.; quality of election, 101; contests, 103; re-election, 104, 108; royal influence, 105; procedure, 107; and privilege, 109 f.; officers, 114; and attainder, 119; and statute, 125
Constables, and right of arrest, 60; appointment, remuneration, etc., 73 ff.
Constitution, comparative absence of, 1, 5; supremacy of law, 55; and the judges, 58; and juries, 87; increasing recognition of necessity, 163
Convocation (cf. Clergy), grants by, 23; Y.B. argument about Convocation being equivalent to Parliament, 159 f.
Cornwall, rebellion defeated at Blackheath, June 1497, 9; fined after the rebellion, 23
Index

Corporation, development of the notion, and subordination to crown and statute, 138; sole, 139; supremacy of statute, 141

Council, at the beginning of the reign, 12; and grant for the Scottish war, 1496, 23; composition, 28; clerk, and president, 31; magnum concilium, privy, etc., 32; relations between council and star chamber, 33; proclamations, 37; administration, 38; jurisdiction, 39; procedure, 41 ff.; not a court of record, 46; torture, 50; and justices of the peace, 62; and juries, 84

Council of the North, origin, 35–6
Court of Record, council was not, 46
Court of Requests, or Whitehall, origin of, 36–7

Courts, and inquisitory process, 50; general characteristics, and parliament, 89
Cresset, Thos., before the council, 1494, 34
Cromwell, T., election management, t.r. Henry VIII, 106

Crown (cf. Kingship), succession and attributes of in 1485, 2 ff.; Henry VII’s coronation, 30 Oct. 1485, 11; “own” income, 15, 18; financial strength, 19; especially after 1496, 25; and feudal innovations: and financial control, t.r. Edward IV and Richard III, 26; and king not separable (cf. 140, 157, 160), 26, 45; advantages for getting verdicts, 84; allotting parliamentary representation, 98; and borough incorporation, 100; influence on parliamentary elections, 105; continuing parliament for more than one session, 107; and parliamentary privilege, 1451–5, and t.r. Henry VII, 113; and parliamentary jurisdiction in error, 118; and reversal of attainder, 120; and commons and statute-making, 130; bill and prerogative, 131; not bound by statute unless expressly, 133; and Liberties, 136; and Corporation, 138; distinguishable capacities, 140, 157, 161–2; prerogative and authority of, and

Convocation, 160; usurper’s judicial acts valid, 162

Customs, by mere right of succession, 18

Custos rotulorum, and county records, 67

De Facto Act, 11 H. VII c. 1, 151 f.

Dicey, A. V., on competence of statute, 153 f.

Dudley, E., and repeal of 11 H. VII c. 3, 149; royal influence on episcopal appointments, 177

Economic legislation and policy: and enforcement by justices of the peace, 65; supported by preponderant opinion, 69; various statutes, 145, 146, 171

Edward IV, “that most noble prince”, 14

Embracery, and Star Chamber Act, 48
Empson, and repeal of 11 H. VII c. 3, 149

Exchequer, largely supplanted by King’s Chamber and General Surveyors, 27

Fifteenths and tenths, granted in 1487, 20; granted in 1489, 21; granted in 1491, 22; granted in 1496, 23; granted in 1504, 24

Fines, Statute of, 4 H. VII c. 24, and Statute of Non-claim (1560), 146

Fortescue, Sir J., on unction and the king’s curative power, and the succession, 8; juries and witnesses, 81; most of his space devoted to administration of justice, 89; on ultimate authority, 163

France, Henry’s debts in, on accession, 20; preventing absorption of Brittany by, 20, 22; Charles VIII’s marriage to Anne of Brittany, 22; Henry’s claim to throne of, 22; Henry’s pension from, 23; influence of French practice, 73

Gardiner, S., election management, t.r. Henry VIII, 106

Gloucester, Humphrey duke of, burnt papal letters, t.r. Henry VI, 181

Grants, rewarding supporters, 6 Sept. 1485, 11
Index

Hale, Chief Justice (1639–76), disapproved judges punishing juries, 83
Harington, John, clerk of requests, 1483, 37
Hatsell, John, on privilege, 109
Haxey, and privilege of free speech in parliament, 1400/1, 112
Henry IV, suspending the courts, 1403, 55
Hudson, William, on inefficacy of the attainder of juries, 84
Hussey, Chief Justice, on legates and safe-conduct, 181

Impeachment, early history, 115
Indictment (cf. Jury), trial without, 49, 65, 87, 149
Innocent VIII, bull about sanctuary, 1487, 179
Ireland, quieting of, by the end of 1495, 9; Poyning’s Law, 147

Judges, refusal to adjudge the crown, 1460, 3; hold kingship not liable to attainder, 1485, 16; de non procedendo rege incoluto, 45; two Chief Justices and Star Chamber Act, 47; exercising the king’s capacity to provide justice, 51; and bills and statutes, 52, 132; and palatine courts, 54; in eyre or commissioners of assize, 56; and the rule of law, 58; and justices of the peace, 62; directing and even punishing juries, 83; and parliamentary returns, 1410, 111; decline jurisdiction in parliamentary privilege, 1453, 112, 133; interpretation of statute, 134

Julius II, and Henry VII and crusade, 175
Jury, verdicts sent for by council, 46; special to enquire into livery, etc., 48; trial without indictment, 49, 50; still unmodern, 58, 79; origins, 77; grand and petty, 78; and witnesses, 80; and attainant, 82 f.; conciliatory control, 84; statutes about, t.r. Henry VII, 85 f.; and perjury, 86; substitutes for, 87
Justices of the peace, origin, 59; and warrants for arrest, 60, 64; and control of agriculture and industry, 61; checks upon them, 62; Henry VII’s statutes about, 63 ff.; and preliminary examinations of accused, 64; amalgam of feudal and bureaucratic qualities, 72

Kern, Fritz, on medieval law, 135
Ket, his rebellion, 1549, 169
Kingship (cf. Crown), regal and feudal, 67; abbot of Croyland’s surprise at the treatment of Henry as king before Bosworth, 14; exempt from attainder, 16; the motive power of the council, 33 ff.; sole fount of justice, 45; and parliament, 91; distinguishable capacities, 140, 161; and the De Facto Act, 151 ff.; entitled to revenue, 161

Lancastrians, their enhancement of Unction, 7; their regnal dates, 8
Law, how far “made”, 133 f.; legislation barely conscious, 141; and statute, 145 ff., 164 ff.; point of development of the notion of law-making, 156; land law the nearest to public law, 159
Leadam, I. S., on security of copyhold, 1450–1550, 173
Leech v. Galon, Moore and others, council attendant and Star Chamber, 34
Legates, and royal control, t.r. Edward I, Henry VI, and Edward IV, 181
Liberties, and courts, 54; and Law, 136; of Tyndale, and statute, 1495, 137
Lisle, Lord, “dismist of the Ritt”, 41
Littleton, on customary tenure, 172
Livery, and Star Chamber Act, 48; and justices of the peace, 69
Loans, at the beginning of the reign, 20
London, Henry’s acceptance by, 27
Aug. 1485, 11, 13; short-term loans from, 20; Henry’s control of, 70; recorder of, in parliament of 1485, 108
Lords, refusal to adjudge the crown, 1460, 3; house of, 90; trials of, 116, 134; jurisdiction in cases of privilege, and original, and in error, 117; and commons bills, 132
Lovell, Thos., Speaker, 1485, 108
Index

Maintenance, and Star Chamber Act, 48; and legal procedure, 81; brought into control, 88; oath against in parliament, 1485, 91; and allied evils, statutes against, 150
Margaret, Princess, marriage to James IV, 1502; grant in lieu of and on marriage, 1504, 24
Military, bodyguard, mercenaries, 73; ordinance, commissions of array, 75
Minehead, borough not answering parliamentary summons, 1614, 98
More, Thos., alleged recalcitrance in parliament, 1504, 24
Morton, John, of Ely, and Canterbury, 174; cardinal, 177
Navigation Acts, 1 H. VII c. 8 and 4 H. VII c. 10, 145
Norfolk, duke of, t.r. Elizabeth, 106
Ormesby, Justice, "the king's command...as high as the statute", 158
Palatinates, common law enforced in, 53
Pardon, general, 24 Sept. 1485, 11
Parliament (cf. Statutes), first summoned 15 Sept. to meet 7 Nov. 1485, 11; fifteenth century, and occasional taxation, 15; assurances, resumptions, and attainders, 1485, 16; grants by, 1487 and 1489, 20; approval of benevolence, 1491 and 1495, 22; and council petitions in fifteenth century, 42; and courts in general, 87; two houses, 90; and king, 91; and the York marriage, 92; composition, 93 f.; infrequency claimed as a merit by Henry VII, 97; its function, 175; attainder, 118 f.; and Law, ca. 135, 143; variety of function, 142
Perjury, and juries, 86
Petition, bringing matters before council, 41 ff.; bill read in identical sense, 46; and bill, 122 f., 128; commons petitions, 129
Prerogative, and conciliar jurisdiction, 45, 84; and bill, 131; and royal authority, 1481, 160
Privilege, of parliament, at end of fifteenth century, 109; not self-substant, 110; fifteenth century cases, 111; of free speech in parliament, 112
Privy seal, writs of, 43, 44
Proclamation, subjects of, 37; crown and, 133
Quorum, of justices of the peace, 67
Receivers, of petitions, 122
Retainder, and Star Chamber Act, 48; oath against in parliament, 1485, 91
Revenue, ordinary and parliamentary, 15; forfeitures, lands, feudal profits, 17; fines, 18; loans, 20; parliamentary, 21-4; king's right to exempt from taxation, 25; methods of collection, 66, 71; king's right to, 161
Reversal, of attainted, 120
Richard III, "king indeed but not of right", 14
Riot, justices of the peace to punish, 69, 66; and juries, 87; brought into control, 88
Saint-Germain, Chr., Doctor and Student on different sorts of law, 165
Sanctuary, nature of, 178; regulated by king and pope, 179
Scotland, preparations against, Oct. 1485, 11; Henry's profit from war with, 1496, 23
Seals, and distinguishable capacities of the crown, 140, 158
Serjeants (at law), refusal to adjudge the crown, 1460, 3
Sheriffs, and justices of the peace, 59 ff., 65
Simnel, Lambert, uncton, 9
Smith, Sir T., De Republica Anglorum mostly devoted to courts, 89; on absence of slavery, 160
Speaker (of commons), always a knight till 1544, 97; function, 107; remuneration, 108; and privilege, 109
Spigurnel, Justice, "the king's command...as high as the statute", 158
Stafford, Humphrey, his case, and sanctuary, 1481, 179
Stafford, Lord, and his villein who was mayor of Bristol, t.r. Elizabeth, 169
Index

4 H. VII c. 13, 7 c. 1, 12 c. 7, benefit, 180
Staunton, Justice, "king's command . . . as high as the statute", 158
Stonore, "king's command . . . as high as the statute", 158
Subsidy, "the first of the Tudor subsidies" (Tait), 1489, 21
Succession, doubtful rules of, 2–5
Henry VII's claim to, 5
Suffolk, Yorkist claimant, in the Tower, 1506, 10
Suggestion, private initiation of criminal charges, 41; 25 E. III st. 5 c. 4 on, 49
Surveyors-General, and control of finance, 26
Thorp, Thos., and parliamentary privileges, 1453–6, 111
Tonnage and Poundage, granted for life, 17
Torture, and council, and courts, 50
Triers of petitions, see Auditors
Unction, Lancastrian enhancement of, 77; conditions of efficacy, 8; and Simnel, and Henry VII's respect for, 9
Vavasour, Justice, evidence not essential for a verdict, 1499, 82
Villeinage, population just emerging from, 167; amount of, in Tudor times, 169; enfranchisement, 170
Wales, council in the marches of, 35
Waltham, abbot of, land law nearest to public law, 1481, 139
Warbeck, Perkin, capture of, late 1497, 91 defeat of, 1497, 9; 23
Warwick, executed, Nov. 1499, 9
Westminster, abbot of, and sanctuary, 178
Year Books, 19 H. VI people bound to grant as the king to defend, 22 n. 1; 8 H. VII judges in Star Chamber, 47 n. 4; 1 H. VII judges on what needed doing, 48 n. 1; 37 H. VI

Star Chamber, council in the, 32; relation with council about the king, 33, 34; jurisdiction, 40; procedure, 41 ff.; 3 H. VII c. 1, Star Chamber Act, 41, 43, 47; 3 H. VII c. 1 and justices of the peace, 64; the Act not innovatory, 145
Starkey, Serjeant, argument about authority of Convocation and of king, 160, 163
Statutes, 19 H. VII c. 14, choice of suing in Star Chamber, King's Bench, or council attendants, 34; 5 E. III c. 9 and 25 E. III, freehold exempt from conciliar jurisdiction, 41; 3 H. VII c. 1, Star Chamber Act, 41, 44, 47; of 1429 and 1453, about conciliar jurisdiction, 42; 25 E. III st. 5 c. 4, trial without indictment, 49; and 37 E. III c. 18, 50; 23 H. VI about sheriffs, 53; fourteenth century, statutes about judicial commissions, 57; statutes and justices of the peace, 60, 150; and sheriffs, 61; 18 H. VI c. 11, land qualification for justices of the peace, 62; tr. Henry VII about justices of the peace, 63 ff.; and juries, 85 f.; sheriff to send writs to all accustomed boroughs, 1382, 98, 1410, assize judges and returns to parliament, 111; 1 H. IV c. 14 abolished appeal before parliament, 116; attainder, 119f.; and crown, 133; 1495, 27 H. VIII c. 24, 19 H. VII c. 7, and 15 H. VI c. 6, about liberties and corporations, 157; purport of Henry VII's most notable statutes, 144 f.; on economic subjects, 145, 146; Benevolent Act, Poyning's Law, benefit, and sanctuary, 147; De Facto Act, and trial without indictment, 148, 151; Edward IV's act for prosecuting livery on information, 148 and Henry VII's act repealed by 1 H. VIII c. 6, 149; 11 H. VII c. 18 on the duty of military service, 156; of Westminster II, 158; competence of, 164 f.; Mortmain, De Donis, Quia Emptores, 165; Fines, Uses, and Wills, 166; 11 H. VII cc. 2 and 22, economic, 171; 4 H. VII cc. 16 and 19, economic, 172;
Index

Year Book (cont.)
king's power to order arrest, 51 n. 1; 1 H. VII judges declined preliminary consultation, 53 n. 1; 14 H. VIII justices of the peace's power to order arrest, 60 n. 2; 14 H. VII justices of the peace's power to order arrest, 61 n. 1; 14 H. VII evidence not essential to trial by jury, 82 n. 1; 7 E. IV attaint jury and evidence, 83 n. 4; 1 H. VII common house, 90 n. 2; 1 H. VII jurisdiction of the lords in error, 118 n. 2; 4 H. VII commons necessary to act of attainder, 119 n. 2; 33 H. VI common bill and private bill, 121 n. 4; 33 H. VI lords and commons bills, 127 n. 1; 7 H. VII parliamentary procedure, 127 n. 1; 33 H. VI parliament, 133 n. 1, 134 n. 3; 2 H. VII and 14 H. VIII corporation, 138 n. 1; 21 E. IV, 17 E. III, 4 H. VII corporation, 139 n. 1 and 2; 14 H. VIII king in and out of parliament, 140 n. 2; 1 H. VI and 2 R. III English laws in Ireland, 147 n. 3; 1 H. VII king unaffected by attaint, 151 n. 3 (and p. 16); 7 H. VII land law specially respectable, 159 n. 2; 9 E. IV judicial acts of usurper valid, 162 n. 1; 1 E. V king can do no wrong, 162 n. 1; 11 H. VII enfranchisement of villeinage, 170 n. 3; 21 E. IV and 7 E. IV customary tenant’s remedy against ejection, 172 n. 3; 1 H. VII sanctuary, 178 n. 5; 1 H. VII sanctuary, 179 n. 1; 1 H. VII alum and excommunication, 181 n. 1; 21 H. VII temporal act cannot make the king a parson, 182 n. 1
York, Edward duke of, claim to the throne in 1460, 2; Elizabeth of, Henry’s betrothal to, 5, 12; Elizabeth ignored in Henry’s title, 10; city’s reaction to Richard III’s death, 14
Young, Thos., and commons’ privilege, 1451–5, 113