

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-53694-4 - The General Eyre: Lectures Delivered in the University of London at the Request of the Faculty of Laws

William Craddock Bolland

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

	PAGE
INTRODUCTION	ix

FIRST LECTURE	I
-----------------------	---

The early English courts. The county court, its jurisdiction and those who were bound to attend it. The procedure thereat. The hundred and seignorial courts. Regalities usurped by these courts. Onerous duties cast upon freeholders. Commencement of the system of itinerant justices in England. Sources of our knowledge of the eyres. Proceedings immediately anterior to an eyre. Preliminary proceedings in an eyre. Unhappy experiences of the mayor, aldermen and sheriffs of London in the eyre of 1321. Suppression of markets and fairs during an eyre. Power of justices to billet in all houses.

SECOND LECTURE	33
------------------------	----

Canterbury during an eyre. The number of those who were present at an eyre and the problem of accommodation for them. Procedure at the opening of the commission. Harsh treatment of all who failed to produce rolls for which they were responsible. The assizes of beer and wine and of food. The story of the revolt of the London poulterers. The Articles of the Eyre. The dozens. Englishry and the murdrum fine. Deodand. Presentments by the dozens, with some illustrative examples. The story of John of Crombwell. The constitution of juries trying presentments.

THIRD LECTURE	64
-----------------------	----

The Crown Pleas. The origin and story of the process by writ of quo warranto. Bills in Eyre and the procedure by them with particular examples. Refractory jurors and their treatment by the justices. Some observations on the frequent failure to prosecute bills in eyre. Financial provision for the justices. Pensions granted them from outside sources. Theory that the eyre lasted only a single day and the consequence of this theory in the process of outlawry. Cessation of eyres and the reason thereof. Conclusion.

INDEX	97
---------------	----