What does Kiara want to be?

17

Read and listen.

Kiara is eleven years old, and she's from Moscow in Russia. Kiara wants to be a dancer. She goes to dance classes every week. She wants to dance at the Russian Winter Festival.

The Russian Winter Festival takes place every year in Moscow, in December and January.

Moscow is very cold in the winter, and there's a lot of snow. There are a lot of fun activities at the festival. You can go on a troika ride through the snow. Or you can go ice-skating in the city. There are also lots of beautiful snow sculptures.

At night, you can watch the fireworks. Or you can go and see a show with traditional singers and dancers. Look out for Kiara!

Read again and correct the sentences.

- 1 Moscow is in China.
- 2 Kiara wants to be an artist.
- 3 The Winter Festival is in November and January.
- 4 It's hot in the winter in Russia.
- 5 You can go swimming in the city.
- 6 You can watch fireworks in the morning.

Moscow isn't in China.

It's in Russia.

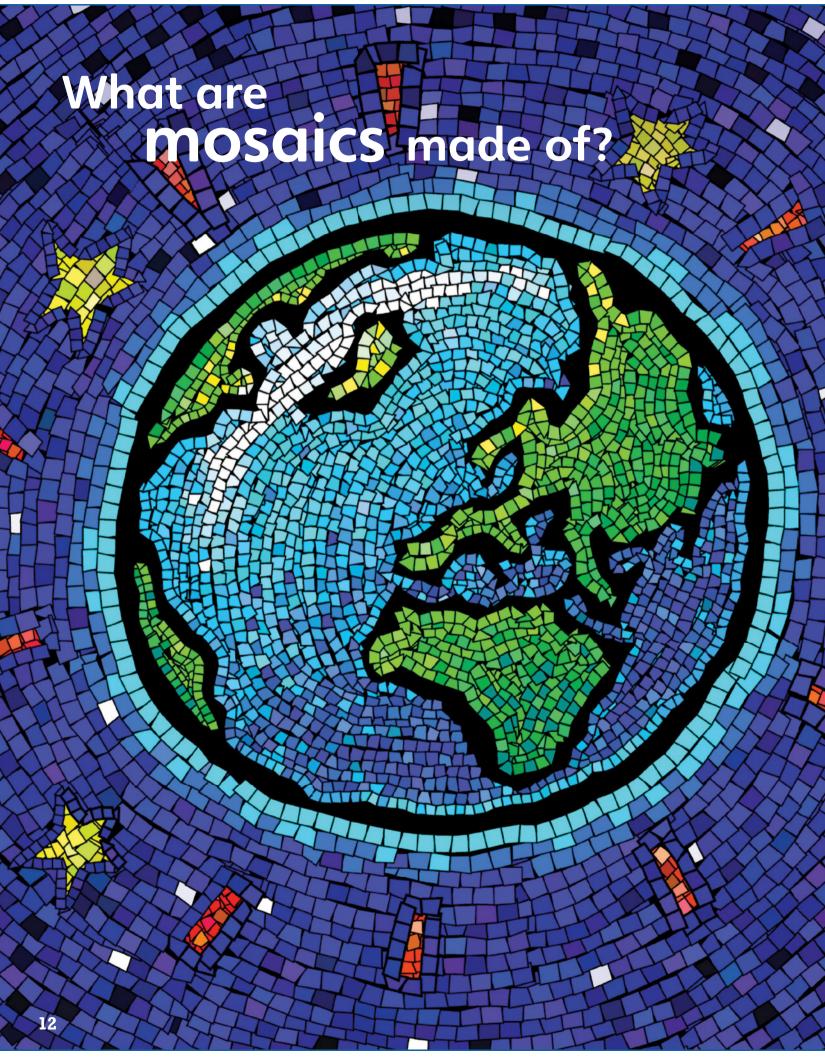

Think of a festival you enjoy.

When is it?
Which country is it in?
What can you see there?
What can you do there?

Now write about it in your notebook.

- Watch the video.
- Read and listen.

There are lots of different mosaics in countries around the world. Mosaics are made of many small tiles. These tiles are different shapes and colors, and are made of ceramic, glass, paper, or stones, like marble.

Artists put glue on mosaic tiles and then make pictures or patterns with them. Sometimes artists glue the tiles onto cardboard first, then stick the cardboard with the mosaics onto walls, floors, and roofs.

In the past, mosaics in Roman gardens and baths were made of round stones or shells. Today, artists make mosaics for places like train stations and shopping malls to make them look beautiful.

- Answer the questions.
  - 1 What kind of art has many small tiles?
  - 2 What can the tiles be made of?
  - 3 Where were there very old mosaic floors?
  - 4 Why do artists make mosaics today?
- Where would you put a mosaic in your school?

In Spain, some artists used spoons, forks,
