Aboriginal culture and language diversity, 78–80
Dreaming stories, 83, 84
Kriol, 79
respect for, 76
ways of learning and making meaning, 81
Aboriginal English, 77, 78, 79 Aboriginal people, population distribution, 78
Aboriginal perspective and cultural inclusion, 90 developing, 84–5
including in classroom, 83 Aboriginal young learners appropriate texts and resources, 83–4 bidialectal and bilingual development, 81 home language use, 81 kindergarten lesson on Our Little Yuin, 87–8 learning and confirming identity, 80, 90 lesson plan example, 85–7 links to land and cultural heritage, 80 role of stories, 81, 82, 83–4
two-way schooling, 81
advance/detail game, 140–1 alphabetic phase of reading acquisition, 121, 124 analogy phonics, 124
analytic phonics, 124
apps (interactive applications), 171 artefacts
artefact-centred joint activity, 36
use in play, 24, 25–6
arts activities
in response to literature, 154–3 in response to stories, 104–5, 162 Ashton-Warner, Sylvia, 118 assessment, 188
authentic assessment, 189
authentic literacy assessment, 187
diagnostic assessment, 188, 190
evaluation, 187–8
feedback, 191
formative assessment, 188–9, 190, 191
learning stories, 198
linking with Early Years Learning Outcomes, 192–4 meaningful assessment, 197–9 peer assessment, 197
performance-based assessment, 199
portfolios, 198
principles of, 193–7
purpose of educative assessment, 187 rich tasks, 199
standardised testing, 191–2
summative assessment, 191–2 assessment for learning, 187, 188–9 assessment of learning, 189, 191–2 assessment strategies cultural relevance, 195–6 potential range, 195
Australian Curriculum, 3
authentic assessment, 189
authentic literacy assessment, 187
author’s voice, 99
autonomy, encouraging development of, 196
Baldwin, James, 8
Basic Interpersonal Communication Skills
(BICS), development, 67, 68
Index

Bediagal lands, 80
behaviourist approach to teaching reading, 117 behaviourist theory of language learning, 11 benchmarks, 186
Bennelong, 78–9, 80
Bernstein, Basil, 14, 49–50
Bernstein, Nikolai, 8
BICS (Basic Interpersonal Communication Skills), development, 67, 68
bidialectal and bilingual development, 81
bilingual/bicultural learners acronyms to describe, 62 confirming identity in educational context, 71 factors impacting upon, 62–3 honouring first language and culture, 65 identifying structures and features of English, 70–1 literacy development, 68–9 and monolingual English-speaking teachers, 64–5 oral language development, 66–8 refugees, 65
supporting, 62–5
book talk, 101–2
bookhandling behaviours, 190
Butler, Dorothy, 98, 103
CALP (Cognitive Academic Language Proficiency), 69
Cambourne, Brian, 16, 118
Chambers, Aidan, 102, 191
Childhood Alliance, 24
Chomsky, Noam, 11
class books, 152
Clay, Marie, 121, 190
code breaker role, 115
Cognitive Academic Language Proficiency (CALP), 69 cognitive development, and imaginative play, 25 cognitive theories of language development, 11, 118 collaborative play, 25
Common Underlying Proficiency (CUP), 69
communication, with significant others, 35–6 comprehension, 120–1 constructivist theories of language learning, 117–18 Convention on the Rights of the Child, 23–4 creative writing, and oral storying, 143 creativity, concept of, 22, 23 creole languages, 79 critical literacy, 119, 174 critical perspective, development, 27 cue systems, 119
cultural heritage, and identity, 80 cultural inclusion, 90
cultural and linguistic diversity, 7, 61–2 culture, and language, 14–16, 61–2 CUP (Common Underlying Proficiency), 69
Dewey, John, 117
diagnostic assessment, 188, 190
digital literacy creativity and playfulness, 174 and critical literacy, 174
nature of, 171–3
pedagogical choices, 175–8 principles for, 173–4
relevant, engaging content and skills, 176–7 digital play
definition, 23
and digital literacy, 174 interrelationship with traditional play forms, 30–3 role in children’s lives, 31–3
and ‘screen time’ issue, 29–30 and technological literacies, 31 digital resources access to, 180
as literary texts and practices, 172–3 multimodal features, 179 technical considerations, 180 digital technology
importance in education, 171
role in children’s lives, 170
uneven access to, 180
digital texts, 169, 171
discourses, 14
dramatic play, 27
Dreaming stories, 83, 84
EAL/D (English as additional language dialect), 62
see also bilingual/bicultural learners early childhood education, importance of quality in, 1 Early Years Learning Framework (EYLF), 3 aims, 3
on cultural diversity, 1–2, 62 on play-based learning, 3, 23 Early Years Learning Outcomes, 192–4 educational discourse, 44 educative assessment, purpose, 187 elaborated codes, 14, 49–50
ELL (English language learner), 62 see also bilingual/bicultural learners Empacher, Helen, 82
Aboriginal perspective in the classroom, 83 kindergarten lesson, 87–8 lesson plan, 85–7
reading to kindergarten class, 88–9
use of Dreamtime stories, 83 engagement in tasks, 194
English as additional language dialect (EAL/D), 62 see also bilingual/bicultural learners English as second language (ESL), 62 see also bilingual/bicultural learners English language learner (ELL), 62 see also bilingual/bicultural learners English orthography, 122–3 ESL (English as second language), 62 see also bilingual/bicultural learners ethic of care, 194
FaceTime, 34
field (written and oral language), 45–6, 69 first language (L1), honouring, 65
supporting, 66–8, 101
formative assessment, 188–9, 190, 191
Fossil (Bill Thomson), 155–7
Fox, Carol, 99, 137, 142
Frith, Uta, 121
Frith’s reading acquisition model, 121–2 games, oral language games, 54
Gee, James, 14
genres, 149
Goodman, Kenneth, 118, 190
Goodman, Yetta, 190
grammar, 10
grammatical cues, 115
grapheme–phoneme correspondences, 125–8 graphophonic cues, 115
group play, 24
Growing Up in Australia, 15
Guernsey, Lisa, 30
Halliday, Michael, 9, 43, 118
Hasan, Ruqaiya, 1
Heath, Shirley Brice, 15, 118
Holdaway, Don, 118 identity
confirming in educational context, 71 and cultural heritage, 80 encouraging development of, 196 learning who ‘we’ are, 90 seeing self in stories, 101 social construction through stories, 137 imaginative play
and cognitive growth, 25
definition, 22
importance of, 23
and language development, 26–8 and social development, 25–6 spaces for, 22
with words, 27
Indigenous people see Aboriginal people information processing theories, 118 innatist theory of language development, 11 inquiry approach, 117
interactive applications (apps), 171 interactive whiteboards (IWBs), 176–8 intertextuality, 101
Keller, Helen, 9
Knol, 79
L1 (First language)
supporting, 66–8, 101
honouring, 65
labelling, 196–7
language and culture, 14–16, 61–2
definition, 14
Language Acquisition Device (LAD), 11
Language background other than English (LBOTE), 62 see also bilingual/bicultural learners language development
assessing, 189–91
dimensions of, 7–9
from birth, 6
and imaginative play, 26–8 learning to talk, 9–10
linking with Early Learning Years Outcomes, 192–4 milestones, 10
protolanguage, 9, 43–4
and quality early childhood education, 1 social factors, 49–50
and social interaction, 11–13 supportive practices, 16–17 Language Experience Approach, 118 language learning play-based pedagogy for, 35 theories of, 10–11
language structure
challenges for bilingual learners, 70–1 and meaning, 10–11
language, by babies, 9
Index

LBOTE (Language background other than English), 62 see also bilingual/bicultural learners learning communities, establishing, 194

learning stories, 198
Lempiere, Genevieve, 46–7, 52

letter–sound knowledge

grapheme–phoneme correspondences, 125–8
literacy plan for first months of schooling, 125 making meaning using, 112, 120–2 lexical density, 54

Life Series (ABC television program), 15

literacy
definition, 113–14
enhancement by technology, 178–9 place in Australian Curriculum, 3
and quality early childhood education, 1
as sociocultural practice, 114

literacy development
assessing, 189–91
bilingual/bicultural learners, 68–9
linking with Early Learning Years Outcomes, 192–4
phases, 119–20
plan for first months of schooling, 125
literacy practices
expanded view, 173
traditional view, 173

literature
and language skill development, 27 quality literature, 102–3 related arts activities, 104–5 responding to, 104–5
and rich learning experiences, 103–5 shared reading of, 97–8 literature lessons, 99
logographic phase of reading acquisition, 121

Malinowski, Bronislaw, 14 meaning, and language structure, 10–11 media, 172
media illustrations, 157
Meek, Margaret, 99
message abundancy, 67
metafictive devices, 150
metalanguage, 154–5
miscue analysis, 190
modalities, 115
mode, 47–8, 69

mode continuum, 48–9
Mourad, Amenah
as bilingual child, 63–4 on supporting bilingual learners, 64–5 multimodal texts, creating, 162–3 multimodality, 155
Mumm, Lisa, 48

narrative writing, and oral storying, 143 narratives, 99
National Assessment Program – Literacy and Numeracy (NAPLAN), 192 nature versus nurture dilemma, 11 NESB (Non-English speaking background), 62
see also bilingual/bicultural learners
Net Generation, 31
Non-English speaking background (NESB), 62 see also bilingual/bicultural learners onset–rime, 121, 122

oral language
difference from written language, 54–5, 70
field, 45–6
identifying features of, 70–1
mode, 45, 47–8
tenor, 45, 46–7
oral language development bilingual/bicultural learners, 66–8 identifying patterns from word to text, 51 learning to represent knowledge, 44–5 scaffolding, 35–6
talk as performance, 53–4 talk as process, 52–3
oral language games, 54
oral storying
by children, 142
and emergent creative writers, 143
nature of, 138
orthographic phase of reading acquisition, 122 orthography, 122–3
Our Little Yin, 85
kindergarten lesson on, 87–8
lesson plan example, 85
reading to kindergarten class, 88–9 Paley, Vivian Gussian, 141 parallel play, 24
Paterson, Katherine, 102
Pearl Barley and Charlie Parsley (Blabey), 157–9, 160 pedagogical tact, 197
pedagogy choices for digital literacy, 175–8 play-based pedagogy, 35

peer assessment, 197
Pemulwuy, 80

performance-based assessment, 199
peritext, 152

phonemes, 123
phonemic awareness, 123–4 phonics teaching balanced approach, 122–3 methods, 124–5, 128–9
theoretical basis of approaches/ programs, 117 phonological knowledge development, 124–9
grapheme-phoneme correspondences, 125–8

Piaget, Jean, 11, 25, 117

picture books
artistic and design features, 160 creating, 162–3
features, 152–3, 155
history, 149–51
metafictive devices, 150
metalinguage to engage with, 154–5, 157 parts, 152–3
place in children’s lives, 148–9 popular texts 1920s–1970s, 150 story-level features, 156 visual features, 155–7
visual language terms and concepts, 159–61 visual metalanguage use when reading, 159–61 visual responses to, 162 visual and written modes, 157–9

pidgin languages, 79

play children’s right to, 23–4
definition, 22
nature of, 22, 25
role of, 23, 24–6
see also imaginative play play-based pedagogy for language learning, 35 playful activities

artefact-centred joint activity, 36
communication with significant others, 35–6 popular culture, 26–7, 173, 174
portfolios, 198
postmodernism, 150
print, concepts about, 190 protoconversations, 9
protolanguage, 9, 43–4
psycholinguistic model of reading, 190

public speaking skills
building, 45
field, 45–6
tenor, 46–7

quality literature, 102–3

re-storying, 197
reader role, 115
reading
history of, 116–19
psycholinguistic model, 190
as sociocultural practice, 114
reading aloud
and book talk, 101–2
for enjoyment, 97–8, 104
principles for, 98–9
and shared reading of literature, 97–8, 113 to toddlers, 96
reading development
Frith’s model, 121–2
phases, 119–20
reading process
cues, 114–15
and meaning making, 113, 115–16
and reader roles, 115–16 refugee students, supporting, 65 register, 69
restricted codes, 14, 49–50 rhythm and rhyme, 27
rich assessment tasks, 199
rimes, 121, 122
Rosenblatt, Louise, 118 running records, 190

scaffolding, 12–13, 55–6, 118
schema theory, 8, 68, 117 screen-based technology, 170 screen-viewing time, 29–30, 172
self assessment, 197
semantic cues, 115
shared reading, 97–8, 113
Shkedanz, Judith, 190
silent period, 63
Skinner, B.F., 11
Skype, 34
Smith, Frank, 118
social constructivist theories of language development, 11 social development, and imaginative play, 25–6 social disadvantage, and language development, 49–50 social interaction and language development, 11–13 play and technology, 33–4 sociocultural approaches to literacy, 118–19 speech, 10
Spence, Bill, 98
Standard Australian English (SAE), 67, 80
Standard English, 80
standardised testing, 191–2
stories
advance/detail game, 140–1
children’s narratives, 135–6, 137 favourites, 27
and learning about culture, 81, 82 retelling with a partner, 140–1
role of, 136
storying
nature of, 136
see also oral storying storying development, supporting, 141–3 storyreading behaviours, 190 storytelling
by young children, 135–6, 137 distinguished from acting, 139 process, 139–40
and social construction of identity, 137 teachers as storytellers, 137–9 student–teacher relationship, 195 subtractive bilingualism, 69
summative assessment, 191–2 syntactic or grammatical cues, 115 synthetic phonics, 124

talk
as performance, 53–4
as process, 52–3
talking like a book, 99 teacher–student relationship, 195

---
technological literacies, and digital play, 31 technology use by children access, 180
and enhancement of literacy, 178–9 implications for literacy, 171–2
importance in education, 171 play and social interaction, 33–4
screen-viewing time, 29–30, 172
Tell Me framework, 102, 191
tenor, 46–7, 69
text, levels of, 51
text analyst/critic role, 115, 171 text participant role (readers), 115 text production, appropriate choices, 49 text user role (readers), 115 toys, use in play, 24, 25–6 transactional theory, 118 transmission model of reading, 117
two-way schooling, 81

videotelephony technologies, 34 visual codes, 159
visual language terms and concepts, 159–61
visual literacy, 162
vocabulary, 14
Vygotsky, Lev, 11–12, 23, 25, 118

Wells, Gordon, 13
whole language approaches, 118
Williams, Geoff, 15 words, imaginative play with, 27 written language difference from oral language, 54–5, 70
identifying features of, 70–1
as synoptic view, 70

zone of proximal development (ZPD), 11–12, 56, 118