

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-62316-3 - The Teaching of Geography in Secondary Schools: Fifth Edition

Issued by the Incorporated Association of Assistant Masters in Secondary Schools

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	page v
Foreword	ix
The Central Committee	x
List of Corresponding Members	xi
Non-Members who have contributed	xv
Preface	xvii
Acknowledgements	xx
1 The Place of Geography; Historical Development and Trends	1
Development in the Nineteenth Century, 2; Twentieth Century Progress, 7; Developments since 1944, 9; The Future, 13
2 The Aims and Scope of Secondary School Geography	14
The Modern Concept of Geography, 14; Secondary School Geography, 17; School Geography Courses, 20
3 Schemes of Work	25
Some Fundamental Considerations, 25; Organisation of Material, 28; Geography or Geographies?, 40; The Importance of the Type of Pupil, 49; Availability of Teaching Aids, 54; The Influence of External Examinations, 55; Correlation with other Subjects, 55
4 Teaching Methods	58
General Considerations, 58; Class Teaching, 59; Pupils' Written Work, 83; Observational Geography, 89; Sample Studies, 92; Individual Work and Group Work, 94; Programmed Learning, 97; Specimen Lesson, 99
5 Sixth-Form Geography	110
The Specialist Course, 112; The General Course, 137
6 Examinations	140
Internal Examinations, 140; External Examinations, 150
7 Equipment	164
The Geography Room, 164; Furniture and Fittings, 173; Storage, 177; Projection Facilities, 180; Other Geography Room Equipment, 187; Geography Museums, 204; Pupils' Equipment, 205; Geography Libraries, 208; Teaching Geography in Ordinary Classrooms, 210

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-62316-3 - The Teaching of Geography in Secondary Schools: Fifth Edition

Issued by the Incorporated Association of Assistant Masters in Secondary Schools

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

8	Field-work	page 211
	Principles, 211; Terminology, 213; Provision of Time for Field-Work, 213; Day or Half Day Exercises, 214; Field Day Programmes, 229; Organisational Aspect of Day Exercises, 233; Field Courses, 238; Local Surveys, 246; Postscript: Field-Work and Geography, 247
9	Exhibitions, Societies and Foreign Travel	248
	The Geography Exhibition, 248; School Geographical Societies, 252; Ship Adoption, 255; Foreign Travel, 258
10	The Geography Master	262
	Introduction, 262; The Training of the Geography Master, 263; The Qualified Teacher, 265; Keeping up to Date, 266; Conclusion, 267
11	Geography and Careers	268
	The University-Trained Geographer, 268; The non-graduate Geographer, 274
12	Geography Teaching Overseas	277
	Introduction, 277; Different Approaches, 278; Syllabuses, 280; Geography Teaching in Individual Countries, 281
Appendices
A	Specimen Syllabuses	287
B	A Bibliography of Method	321
C	Sources of Teaching Material	339
D	Organising Field-work	381
E	Making Arrangements for Foreign Travel	386
F	Organisations of Interest to the Geography Master	388
G	Addresses of Book Publishers	391
	Index	393