

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-64754-1 - Europe and the Far East 1506–1912

Sir Robert K. Douglas

Index

More information

INDEX.

- Akidzuki, Prince, 181
- Alcock, Sir Rutherford, action in riot at Shanghai, 80; appointed British Minister at Peking, 129; appointed British Minister to Japan, 156; goes on leave, 160; returns to Japan, 163
- Alexeieff, Admiral, agreement with China, 417
- A-lu-té, Empress, death of, 214
- Amaral, General, murder of, 82
- Amherst, Lord, sent as ambassador to Peking, 54; arrives at Taku, 54; arrives at Summer Palace, 54; declines audience, 55; sent back to Canton, 55
- Andrada, Ferdinand, brings a fleet of merchantmen, 10
- Andrada, Simon, 10; infamous conduct of, 11
- Anglo-Japanese Treaty, the, 418–420
- Annam, French treaty with, 226; China protests against, 226; King of, sends embassy to Peking, 227; declares war against France, 228; treaty with France, 229; further treaty with France, 236; rebellion, 361
- Anson, Captain, captures a Spanish galleon in Chinese waters, 43
- Antoninus, M. Aurelius, Emperor, sends envoy to China, 4
- Arrow*, the, seizure of, by Chinese, 89
- Arsenals, establishment of foreign, at Foochow, Nanking and Shanghai, 129
- Baldwin, Major, murder of, 165
- Bird, Lieut., murder of, 165
- “Black Flags,” the, 228; attack French troops, 228; ordered to attempt the recovery of Phukai and Tangfung, 230; not to be handed over to the French, 232
- Blagovestchensk, massacre at, 359, 360
- Bogue Forts, the, foreigners first enter the, 10; captured by Weddell, 22; captured by Sir G. Bremen, 70; captured by British troops, 79; captured by Sir M. Seymour, 92
- Bonham, Sir George, sends letter to Hienfung, 83; sends Hermes to Nanking, 87
- Bowring, Sir John, Superintendent of Trade, 87; proposes to visit Governor Yeh, 87; urges the right of entry into Canton, 88; addresses ultimatum to Gov. Yeh, 89; applies to British Government for reinforcements, 96; his action in the Arrow case approved by Ld. Palmerston, 97; appointed envoy to Siam, 401; courteously received, 401; concludes treaty with Siam, 402; royal presents to, 402, 403; takes leave of Siam, 403

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-64754-1 - Europe and the Far East 1506—1912

Sir Robert K. Douglas

Index

More informationIndex

477

- Boxers, origin of, 334; receive support of the Gov. of Shantung, 336; spread of the movement, 336; defeated by Yuan Shi Kai, 336; gain recruits, 338; attack Christians, 339; murder Mr Brookes, 340; march into Chihli, 340; Tsungli Yamén profess to suppress, 341; acquire the upper hand, 342; soldiers fraternise with, 343; charms, 343; 30,000 at Chochou, 345; burn the station at Fêngt'ai, 345; act with Imperial troops, 346; attack Pei-t'ang, etc., 351; demands for the punishment of, 355; execution of leaders of, 357
- Bremer, Admiral Sir Gordon, 68; captures Chusan, 69; captures the Bogue Forts, 70
- Bruce, Sir Frederick, appointed Minister to China, 109; rumours of intended hostilities, 109; insists on going to Peking via Taku, 112; addresses demands to Peking, 113; introduced to Prince Kung, 122; returns to Shanghai, 122; resigns the post of Minister, 129
- Burlingame, Mr, represents U.S.A. at Peking, 131; appointed Chinese Minister to the courts of Europe, 131; negotiates a treaty with U.S.A., 131; not successful in Europe, 132; death of at St Petersburg, 132
- Catchpole, Mr, appointed Consul and Minister, 25; establishes a factory on the island of Condor, 26; island retaken by the Cochin Chinese (1705), 26
- Cathay, origin of term, 5
- "Central China Religious Tract Society," 266
- Chamot, Mons. and Mdme, save engineers at Fêngt'ai, 345
- Chang Ch'ien, campaign in Fergana and Bactria, 4
- Chang Chihlung, views on railways, 263, 279; supports Society for the Diffusion of Knowledge, 267; ordered to establish a mint, 269; made Viceroy of Hukwang with orders to make Lu-Han railway, 281; establishes railway works, 286; establishes a steam cotton-mill at Hankow, 287; Exhortations to Study by, ordered to be studied, 327; befriends foreigners, 353; his death, 443
- Chang Peilun, appointed to Tsungli Yamén, 231; cowardice at Foochow, 235
- Chên Kwojui, promotes anti-foreign riots, 136
- Chien Tong, King of Annam, 362
- China, early visitors to, 1; early names of, 2, 3, 9; European missions to, 4; visits of missionaries to court of, 5; arrival of the Polos in, 7; establishment of the Ming dynasty of, 9; establishment of the Ts'ing dynasty of, 15; Queen Elizabeth opens trade with, 21; physical features of, 30; the Loess district, 31; climate, 31; the people of, 31; population, 31; government of, 36; the Six Boards, 37; the Tsungli Yamén, 37; the eighteen provinces of, 37; attitude of government towards religion, 38; classes of society in, 40; see also Currency, Customs, Education, Foreigners, Missionaries, Railways, Reform, etc.
- China War, the second, 91; capture of Bogue Forts, 92; battle of Fatshan, 96; capture of Canton, 100; seizure of Yeh, 101; capture of Taku Forts, 103; advance to Tientsin, 104; treaty signed by Lord Elgin, 106; departure of Lord Elgin, 108; arrival of Sir F. Bruce, 109; unsuccessful attack on Taku Forts, 110, 111; return of Lord Elgin and Baron Gros, 114; occupation of Pehatang, 115; capture of the Taku Forts, 115; advance to Tientsin, 115; treachery at

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-64754-1 - Europe and the Far East 1506–1912

Sir Robert K. Douglas

Index

More information

- T'ungchow, 117; Parkes, Loch and others taken prisoners, 117; release of Parkes and Loch, 118; battle of Changchia-wan, 119; battle of Palikiao, 119; occupation of Yuen-ming-yuen, 119; surrender of the Anting gate, 120; destruction of Yuen-ming-yuen, 121; conclusion of peace, 121; revolution in, 438 et seq.
- Ching, Prince, at Imperial audience, 260; appointed Peace Commissioner, 354; proposes terms, 355
- Chino-Japanese War, Otori presents an ultimatum, 307; naval engagement, sinking of the Kowshing, 300; capture of Asan, 309; capture of Ping-yang, 310; battle of the Yalu, 311; Japanese victories in Manchuria, 312; siege and capture of Port Arthur, 313; occupation of Yingkow, 314; attack on and surrender of Weihaiwei, 314; Li Hung-chang appointed Peace Commissioner, 315; attempt to murder Li, 315; treaty of peace, 316; restoration of Port Arthur to China, 316
- Chou, dynasty, 2
- Chou Han, author of anti-foreign literature, 290; trial and sentence on, 294, 295
- Chuenpee, battle of, 67
- Ch'un, Prince, appointed President of Admiralty Board, 251; visits Tientsin, etc., 251; results of his visits, 251; his son put forward as Heir Apparent, 341; becomes Regent, 435
- Chunghow, sent to Paris to apologise for Tientsin massacre, 137; sent to Russia, 224; makes convention, 224; impeached and condemned to death, 225; relieved, 225
- Chung'ing, British gun-boats reach, 289
- Clement XI, decision in dispute between the Jesuits and the Dominicans in China, 17
- Coal-fields, in China, 33
- Cogordan, Mons., 386; concludes a treaty with China, 386
- Coup d'état in Japan, 1868, 177
- Courbet, Admiral, 236, 237, 383; takes Sontay, 383
- Crawfurd, Mr, appointed envoy to Siam, 397; granted an audience, 398; leaves Siam, 399
- Currency of China, attempts to reform the, 268, 269
- Cushing, Mr Caleb, arrives to make treaty, 76
- Customs Service, appointment of a Committee to collect dues, 125
- Daimios, yield up their feudal rights, 183
- Dugenne, Col., defeat at Langson, 233, 385, 386
- Dupuis, Mons., expedition to Yun-nan, 369; returns to Tonquin, 371
- Dutch, the, take possession of the Pescadores, 20; exchange these islands for Formosa, 20; send P. de Goyer and J. de Keyser as envoys to Peking, 21; send Van Hoorn as envoy to Peking, 23; received by the Emperor, 23
- East India Company, sends agents to Macao, 22; concludes a treaty with Koxinga's son, 24; compelled to withdraw their agents to Canton, 24; appoints Mr Catchpole Consul and Minister, 25; despatches (1734) the Harrison to Canton, 41; the Normanton (1736) to Ningpo, 41; H. M. S. Centurion, 42; sends Mr Flint to Ningpo, 43; sends Capt. Skottowe to Canton as its representative, 44; disapproves of action of foreign merchants, 59
- Education in China, proposal to introduce additional subjects at the examinations, 265; reform of, 430

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-64754-1 - Europe and the Far East 1506–1912

Sir Robert K. Douglas

Index

More informationIndex

479

- Elgin, Lord, appointed Envoy Extraordinary, 97; transfers troops to India, 99; goes to Shanghai, 102; proceeds with Baron Gros to Taku, 103; captures the forts and goes to Tientsin, signs the treaty of Tientsin, 106; makes a treaty with Japan, 107; visits Hankow, 108; reappointed to China, 113; allies land at Pehtang, 115; capture of Taku Forts, 115; proceeds to Tientsin, 115; Chinese attempts to deceive, 116; signs treaty in Peking, 121
- Elliot, Captain, appointed Superintendent of Trade, 62
- Emigration from China, system of, 141; put an end to, 142; to the United States and Canada, checked, 275
- Famine in China, 219
- Fatshan, attack on Englishmen at, 79; battle of, 96
- Faulcon, Constantin, 392; appointed Foreign Minister in Siam, 393
- Favier, Mgr., reports to Legation on Boxers, 344; holds the Peit'ang, 350
- Flint, Mr, sent to Ningpo, 43; goes to Tientsin, 43; sent back to Canton, 43; imprisoned at Macao and deported, 44
- Foreigners, conditions of their residence at Canton, 45; a Frenchman strangled, 46; English gunner strangled, 46; better relations with officials at Canton, 51; Viceroy protests against a British force landing at Macao (1808), 52; bearer of presents to Peking seized and presents confiscated, 53; foreign ladies not allowed at Canton, 56; in Japan, outrages on, 157, etc.; in China, outrages on, 216, 252; riots against, 277
- Fournier, Capt., concludes convention with Li Hungchang, 232
- French, the, hoist the tricolour at Canton, 57; treaty with China, 77; arrest two Englishmen at Canton, 88; attack Shanghai, 92; Lord Elgin to cooperate with, 97; French forces allied with British, 103; conclude treaty with China, 107; engage in the second war, 110; take possession of Yuen-ming-yuen, 119; convention with China, 121; expedition against Korea, 130; conclude treaty with Japan, 156; the French in Annam, 226–241; schemes in Tonquin, 269; intrigue in Siam, 302; relations with Annam, 363 et seq.; war with China, 384–387; open relations with Siam, 393; designs on Siam, 394; conclude treaty with Siam, 405; a further convention, 407
- French Indo-China, trade of, 387
- Galdan, the Eleuth chief, intrigues with Russians, 26
- Garnier, Francis, 372, 373; arrives at Hanoi, 374; proposes treaty, 374; storms citadel of Hanoi, 375; occupies the delta, 375; death of, 375
- Geary Exclusion Act, the, 299
- Germany, demands reparation for murder of missionaries, 318; occupies Kiaochow, 318
- Gialong, King of Annam, flies to Bangkok, 362; supported by the Jesuits, 363; restored to the throne, 364; death of, 364
- Gill, Captain, journey to Bhamo, 218
- Gordon, Gen., appointed to command the Ever Victorious Army, 127; his successes, 127; surrender of Soochow, 128; murder of the Wangs, 128; rewards showered on, 128
- Gough, Sir Hugh, takes over command on shore, 71; prepares to attack Canton, 72; captures Amoy, etc., 72; captures Chên-kiangfoo, 73

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-64754-1 - Europe and the Far East 1506–1912

Sir Robert K. Douglas

Index

More information

480

Index

- Grant, Sir Hope, capture of Taku Forts, 115; capture by the Allies of Changchia-wan, 119; capture of Palikiao, 119
- Gros, Baron, appointed French Envoy, 98; signs treaty at Tientsin, 107; reappointed to China, 113; signs treaty in Peking, 121
- Hamilton, Port, annexed by England, 248; restored to China, 249
- Harmand, Mons., 381; concludes treaty with Annam, 382
- Harris, Townsend, concludes a second treaty with Japan, 155; appointed American Minister to Japan, 156
- Hart, Sir Robert, arranges treaty between China and France, 238; honours conferred on, 257
- Henry, Prince, of Orleans, arrives in China, 290
- Henry, Prince, of Prussia, visits Peking and is received by Emperor and Dowager Empress, 261
- Hideyoshi, 148, 150
- Hienfeng, Emperor, ascends the throne, 83; death of, 123
- Hiogo, opened to trade, 167
- Hongkong, annexed by Great Britain, 74; attempt to poison foreigners at, 95
- Hope, Sir James, attacks Taku Forts unsuccessfully, 110; wounded, 111; visits T'ai-p'ings at Nanking, 127
- Hung Hsiu-ts'üan, visits Canton, 84; visions, 84; takes the field, 85; fails to capture Changsha, 85; captures Nanking, 85
- Hwangti, Emperor, 1
- Ibn-Batuta, visits China, 9
- Ignatieff, General, resident at Peking, 120
- Ii Kamon-no-Kami, appointed Regent, 156; murder of, 157, 173
- Ilipu, Kiying, and Niu Kien, appointed Commissioners at Nanking, 73; sign the Nanking treaty, 74; death of Ilipu, 74
- Inouye, interposes in the interest of peace, 164; chairman of conference on treaties, 207
- Itagaki, advocates representative assembly in Japan, 192, 196
- Italy, claims port in Chekiang, 333
- Ito, interposes in the interest of peace, 164; goes with Embassy to Europe (1872), 188; mission to Europe, 200; concludes treaty with Li Hungchang regarding Korea, 247; Resident-General in Korea, 449, 450; death of, 450
- Iwakura, embassy of, 206
- Iyemochi, Shōgun, 156; goes to Kiōto, 161; issues a notice closing ports, 161; death of, 166; marriage of, 174; allies himself with Mikado, 174; quarrel with the Prince of Chōshiu, 175
- Iyesada, Shōgun, death of, 156; policy of, 173
- Iyeyasu, Shōgun, 148, 150
- Iyeyoshi, Shōgun, 152
- Japan, early foreign relations with, 144; physical features of, 145; population of, 146; early history of, 147; establishment of the Shōgunate, 147; the Tokugawa line of Shōguns, 148; introduction of Christianity, 148; advance of Christianity, 149; persecution of Christians in, 150; foreign trade with, 151; trade concentrated at Deshima, 152; murders of foreigners in, 157; attacks on the British Legation, 158; order to expel foreigners, 159; murder of Mr Richardson, 160; envoys sent to Europe, 160; position of parties in, 173; political changes in, 178; divided into Fu, Ken, and Han, 182; reformed military system, 185; first railroad in, 185; telegraphs in, 186; reform in education, 186; embassy to Europe (1871), 188; establishment of

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-64754-1 - Europe and the Far East 1506–1912

Sir Robert K. Douglas

Index

More informationIndex

481

- Genro-in, or Senate, 192; titles created, 197; judicial system in Japan, 198; Imperial Diet of Japan, 202; relations with treaty powers, conferences on, 205, etc.; treaty of 1894, 208; treaty of Portsmouth (1905), 427; treaties of London (1905, 1911), 445, 446; friction with United States, 446; commercial treaty of London (1911), 447; annexation of Korea, 450; naval and military expansion of, 451; interests of, in Manchuria, 452 et seq.; conventions with Russia (1905, 1910), 452, 453
- Jenghiz Khan, dynasty founded by, 5; fall of his dynasty, 9
- Justinian II, sends envoy to China, 4
- Kagoshima, bombarded, 162, 174; political effects of the battle, 162
- Kamon, Prince of Mito, 170
- K'anghsi, Emperor, favourable to missionaries, 15; attaches Fathers Bonost and Gerbillon to his court, 17; makes successful war against the Eleuth chief Galdan and the Russians, 27; wise policy of, 35; his great Encyclopædia, 35
- Kangyi, visits treaty ports, 333
- K'ang Yuwei, 325; conference at the Tsungli Yamén, 326; reforms proposed by, 326; received in audience, 326; flight of, 331
- Keppel, Sir Harry, at the battle of Fatshan, 96
- Ketteler, Baron von, murder of, 350
- Kiak'ing, Emperor, refuses help to Nipal, 55
- K'ienlung, Emperor, favourable to missionaries, 18; receives Lord Macartney, 35; abdication, 35; remits the extra 16 per cent. duty on foreign trade at Canton, 42
- Kim-ok Kiun, conspires against the State, 304; escapes to Japan, 304; decoyed to Shanghai, 305; murder of, 305
- Kin Tartars, 5
- Kirin, attack on Mr Grey at, 296
- Kishen, prepares to attack British, 70; cedes Hongkong, 70; recalled and sent to Lhasa, 71
- K'itan Tartars, 5
- Kiying, appointed Commissioner at Nanking, 73; disgraced, 83; appointed Commissioner at Tientsin, 105; commits suicide, 105
- Kogisho, establishment of, 181
- Ko-lao-hui (secret society), 440
- Komei, Emperor, death of, 166
- Korea, persecution in 1866, 130; expedition to rifle tombs in, 130; Russian treaty with, 282; Japan proposes reforms in, 306; war in, 308 et seq.; annexed to Japan, 450
- Kowloon, leased to Great Britain, 322
- Koxinga, captures Fort Zealandia, 23; driven from Amoy, 23
- Kublai Khan, sends a mission to Rome, 8
- Kuldja difficulty, the, 223
- Kung, Prince, appointed Imperial Commissioner, 119; signs treaties, 121; signs treaty with Russia, 122; degradation of, 142; dismissal of, 213; sends ultimatum to France, 230; retirement of, 231; death of, 322
- Kuper, Admiral, bombards Kago-shima, 162
- Kwang-hsü, accession of, 214; marriage of, 256; grants audience to Foreign Ministers, 260; reform edicts issued by, 324, 327; deposition of, 331; death of, 433
- Kweiliang, appointed Commissioner to meet Allies at Tientsin, 104; begs Lord Elgin to forgo right of residence in Peking, 107
- Kwo Sungtao, appointed Minister to England, 213; recall of, 220
- Lagrenée, Mons., signs treaty of Whampoa, 77

D.

31

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-64754-1 - Europe and the Far East 1506–1912

Sir Robert K. Douglas

Index

More information

- Lang, Capt., appointed Admiral of Chinese Fleet, 242; his subordinates unruly, 288; resigns his command, 288
- Lay, H. N., appointed Inspector-General of Customs, 125; retirement of, 126
- Leo, the Isaurian, sends envoys to China, 4
- Leo XIII, Pope, proposes to send Nuncio to China, 250
- Li Hanchang, 212
- Li Hsieh-t'ai, 211
- Li Hungchang, appointed Viceroy of Chihli, 137; proposes to reform army, 221; appointed Commander-in-Chief in S. China, 229; negotiates at Shanghai, 229; makes treaty with M. Cogordan, 240; concludes treaty with Ito, 247; establishes colleges at Tientsin, 274; appointed Peace Commissioner to Japan, 315; murderous attack upon, 315; dismissed from Tsungli Yamén, 329; appointed Peace Commissioner, 354; presents memorial denouncing high officials, 353; negotiates for peace with Capt. Fournier, 385; signs convention, 385; death of, 359
- Lin, Commissioner, arrives at Canton, 64; imposes further regulations, 65; demands surrender of British sailors, 66; offers rewards for capture of British vessels, 68; disgraced and recalled, 70
- Liukiu, Islands, 143
- Liu K'un-yi, befriends foreigners, 353
- Loch, Lord, treacherous capture of, 117
- Louis XVI, intervenes in Annam, 363
- Luk'ou, attack on foreigners at, 341
- Macao, establishment of settlement at, 11; virtually ceded to Portugal, 272
- Macartney, Lord, appointed ambassador, 47; arrives at Taku, 47; arrives at Peking, 48; follows the Emperor to Jehol, 48; received in audience, 48; returns to Peking, and again received in audience, 49; arrives at Canton, 49; Emperor's reply to the King's letter, 50
- Macartney, Sir Halliday, appointed to arsenals at Nanking, 129
- Macauley, Mr, proposed exploration of Tibet, 243
- MacDonald, Sir C., his optimism, 343, 344
- Manchuria, Russian encroachments in, 412; Russian attempts to monopolise, 413; Russo-Japanese campaign in, 426; Japanese interests in, 452 et seq.
- Manchus, conquer the Empire, 20; abdication of the dynasty, 444
- Marcianus, 3
- Margary, R. A., sent to meet mission from India, 210; murder of, 211
- Mayebara Issei, 194
- Merchants, from Genoa and Florence, visit China, 8
- Millot, General, 233
- Mineral deposits in China, 33
- Minhmang, King of Annam, 365; persecutes Christians, 365
- Missionaries, during the Mongol dynasty, 5, 6; allowed to build a church in Peking, 18; missionary riot at Yangchow, 133; massacre of, at Tientsin, 135; proposed regulations concerning, 138; R.C. missionaries adopt official insignia, 138; early missionaries in Japan, 148; persecutions of, in Japan, 150, 151; murder of French missionary in Szech'uan, 215; outrage in Anhui, 216; proposal to appoint a Nuncio to Peking, 250; outrages in Kwangsi and elsewhere, 252, 277, 287, 293, 300; murder of German in Shantung, 318; ill-feeling towards R. Catholics, 332; Boxer outrages on, 336; murder of Messrs Robinson and

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-64754-1 - Europe and the Far East 1506–1912

Sir Robert K. Douglas

Index

More informationIndex

483

- Norman, 346; number of those killed by Boxers, 352; Jesuit plans in Siam, 394
- Monte Corvino, John de, reaches China by sea, 8; establishes a mission, 8
- Mukden, battle of, 426
- Mutsubito, Emperor, accession of, 176; reforms introduced by, 180; edict on reform of constitution, 197; revision of treaties announced, 208
- Napier, Lord, sent as Superintendent of Trade to Canton, 59; arrives at Canton, 60; insolent reception of, 60; retires to Macao, 61; death of, 62
- Napoleon III, Emperor, despatches force to Annam, 367; signs treaty, 368; Chinese alarmed at French action, 369; announces a protectorate over Annam, 377
- Neale, Col., Chargé d'affaires, 160; urges punishment of Richardson's murderers, 162; places affairs in hands of Admiral Kuper, 162
- Nerchinsk treaty of, 27
- Nestorian inscriptions at Hsi-an Fu, 3
- Nobunaga, 147, 148, 150
- Nurhachu, 34
- Okubo Toshimichi, murder of, 196
- Okuma, Count, attempt to assassinate, 208
- Opium Question, the, begins to take shape, 57; attempts to suppress the traffic, 63; appointment of Commissioner Lin, 64; Lin arrives at Canton, 64; surrender of opium, 65; destruction of the opium, 66; Opium Convention (1885), 243; Chinese decree against traffic, 431
- Opra Pitrachand, King of Siam, 395; puts Faulcon to death, 395; persecutes Christianity, 396
- Ōsaka, opened to trade, 167
- Palmerston, Lord, defeat in H. of C. on Chinese War, 97; his return to power, 97
- Pan Ch'ao, expedition to the Caspian, 4
- Parkes, Sir Harry, protests to Yeh against seizure of Arrow, 89; treacherous capture of, 117; examined in Board of Punishments, 118; removed with Loch to a temple, 118; appointed Minister to Japan, 165; attack on, 168; received in audience, 168
- Patenôtre, M., presents an ultimatum to China, 234
- Pegolotti, Francisco Balducci, 9
- Peking, Lord Macartney visits, 48; Lord Amherst at, 54; Sir H. Pottinger appointed Plenipotentiary to, 72; British propose a resident Minister at, 98, 105; Russian Minister in, 112; surrender to the Allies of the Anting gate of, 120; treaties signed in, 121; attacks on foreigners at, 215; Kuldja treaty welcomed at, 225; Prince Henry of Prussia visits, 261; proposed Imperial University at, 327; T'ung Fuhsiang's army ordered to, 341; Boxers in, 342; foreign escorts arrive at, 346; siege of Legations in, 350; relief expedition reaches, 351; peace negotiations, 353; terms of, presented by Legations, 355; protocol drawn up, 358
- Perestrello, Rafael, arrives in China, 10
- Perez, Thomé, appointed envoy at court of China, 10; imprisoned and beheaded, 11
- Perry, Commodore, arrival in Japan, 152; object of his visit, 153; agitation in the country concerning, 153; Shōgun concludes a treaty with, 154
- Philastre, Mons., sent to negotiate at Hanoi, 375; concludes a treaty, 375
- Pih-kwei, Governor of Canton, 102

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-64754-1 - Europe and the Far East 1506–1912

Sir Robert K. Douglas

Index

More information

- Polhill Turner, attack on Mr and Mrs, 297
- Polo, Marco, visits Cathay, 5; finds favour with the Khan, 7; sent on a mission to Annam, 7; appointed Governor of Yangchow, returns to Venice, 8
- Polo, Nicolo and Matteo, visit to the court of Kublai Khan, 7; sent by the Khan to engage artificers, 7; they return to the Mongol court, 7; return to Venice, 8
- Port Arthur, negotiations concerning, 410; Japanese indignation at the cession of, 411, 413; siege and capture of, by the Japanese, 426
- Portsmouth, treaty of (1905), 427
- Portuguese, arrive in China, 10; massacre of, 12
- Potoli, Emperor, sends envoy to China, 4
- Pottinger, Sir Henry, appointed Minister, 72; signs the Nanking treaty, 74
- Ptolemy, his use of the terms Sere and Serica, 3
- Puyi, Prince, nominated to succeed the Chinese Empress, 435
- Railways in China, Shanghai and Wusung line, 217; K'ai-p'ing railway, 249; proposal to make the Lu-Han railway, 263; Chang Chih-tung on, 279; Tientsin and T'ungchow railway completed, 280; extension of, 437; in Japan, 185
- Rebellion in China (1911), 439 et seq.
- Reform in China, motives for, 285; Chang Chih-tung advocates, 286; Imperial edicts on, 324; K'ang Yuwei, 325; sweeping reforms ordered, 326; obstructive officials disgraced, 329; six reformers executed, 331; hostility to reforms, 332; desire for, 414; China sends mission to Japan, 414; reforms of the Dowager-Empress Tzu Hsi, 430 et seq.; Imperial Assembly created, 436
- Ricci, Matteo, arrives in China, 13; his success, 13; visits Nanking and Peking, 14; the Emperor Wan-leih patronises him, 14; death at Peking, 15
- Richardson, Mr, murder of, 160
- Ricold, Monk, of Monte Croce, 5
- Rishisha, foundation of, 181; development of, 197
- Rivière, Capt. H., 228, 378; demands terms, 379; takes citadel of Hanoi, 379; takes Honggai and Namdinh, 380; attacks Phuhoai, 380; death of, 381
- Roberts, Mr, concludes a treaty between the U.S.A. and Siam, 400
- Roches, Mons., action on murder of French sailors, 167
- Rojdestvensky, Admiral, 427
- Rubruquis, William of, mission to the Mongols, 6; his estimate of the Chinese, 6
- Russia, her advances in Far East, 191; danger to Japan of, 192; concessions to, 317; occupies Port Arthur, 319; attempts to lease Masampo in Korea, 415; promises to restore Manchuria to China, 416; pours reinforcements into Manchuria, 416; see also Russo-Japanese War
- Russian Envoys, first sent to Peking (1567), 19; Evashko Pettlin (1619), 19; Count Baikoff (1650), 21; Ysbrandt Ides (1692), 27; Ismailoff (1709), 27; Count Vladislavich (1727), 28; Captain Krusenstern arrives at Canton (1806), 57
- Russian Lumber Co. in Korea, 420
- Russo-Chinese Treaty, 421
- Russo-Japanese War, opening of negotiations between Russia and Japan, 421; draft proposals, 421, 422; Russian reply, 422; progress of negotiations, 423; rupture of, 424; Japanese attack on the

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-64754-1 - Europe and the Far East 1506–1912

Sir Robert K. Douglas

Index

More informationIndex

485

- Russian fleet, 426; fall of Port Arthur, 426; treaty of peace (1905), 427; moral effects of the war, 428
- Saghalien, Russian encroachments on, 191; restored to Japan, 428
- Saigo Takamori, resigns office on Korean question, 192; rebels hope for assistance from, 193; trains malcontents, 194; heads Satsuma rebellion, 194; death of, 195
- Saionji, Marquis, Prime Minister of Japan, 454, 455
- Samurai, give up their swords and privileges, 184
- Satow, Sir E., visits Ōsaka, 165; attack on, 166; visits Kiōto, 167
- Satsuma rebellion, outbreak of, 194; defeat of, 195
- Schaal, Adam, 15; his success, 15; Schaal and others sent as criminals to Canton where he died, 15
- Secret Societies in China, 439 et seq.
- Senez, Captain, 369, 370
- Sentences passed on Boxer supporters, 357
- Seymour, Sir E., expedition for the relief of Peking, 347
- Seymour, Sir Michael, opens fire on Yeh's Yamên, 91; captures Canton, 91; defeats junks and takes the Bogue Forts, 92; defeats Chinese attack, 94
- Shang dynasty, 1
- Shimazu Saburō, 195
- Shimonoseki, bombardment of, 165; treaty of, 316
- Shuncheih, Emperor, wise policy of, 34; death of, 34
- Siam, early history of, 389; the Portuguese in, 390, etc.; arrival of the Dutch in, 391; Spaniards in, 392; King of, exchanges mission with France, 393; French intervention in, 404; ultimatum presented by the French to, 405; concludes a treaty with France, 405; the trade of, 407; concludes a further convention with France, 407; convention between England and France in reference to, 408
- Sikhim, dispute with Tibet about, 253
- Sinim, of Isaiah, 2
- "Society for the Diffusion of Christian and General Knowledge among the Chinese," 266
- Souza, Coello de, misconduct of, 11
- Spain, concludes a treaty with China, 82
- Spaniards, the, invited to visit China, 13
- Staunton, Sir George, sent to Canton, 53
- Stirling, Adm. Sir James, makes a treaty with Japan, 155
- Sugiyama, murder of, 347
- Sungpu, outrage on two Swedish missionaries at, 300
- Sun Yat Sen, Chinese revolutionary, 440, 444
- Sutton, Charles, murder of, 163
- T'ai-p'ing Rebellion, the, beginnings of, 84; unsuccessful attack on Changsha, 85; capture of Nanking, 85; H.M.S. Hermes fired on, 86; capture of Shanghai, 125; Ward appointed to command of Imperial forces, 126; death of Ward, 127; Burgevine succeeds, 127; appointment of Gordon, 127; Gordon captures Quinsan, 127; surrender of Soochow, 127; murder of the Wangs, 128; recapture of Nanking, 128; Heavenly King commits suicide, 128
- T'ai-wên Kun, Regent of Korea, 245; promotes attack on Japanese Legation, 245; kidnapped, 246; returns to Korea, 246
- Taku Forts, capture of, 105; unsuccessful attack on, 110, 111; capture of, 115, 350
- T'ang dynasty, trade during, 2, 4
- Taokwang, Emperor, death of, 82

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-64754-1 - Europe and the Far East 1506–1912

Sir Robert K. Douglas

Index

More information

486

Index

- Ta Ts'ing dynasty, establishment of, 34
- Telegraphs, introduction into China, 249
- Temple of Heaven, the, refusal to admit the German Minister to, 276
- Theebaw, King, 244
- Thientri, King of Annam, 365
- Tibet, aggression of Lamas of, 253
- Tientsin, missionary riot and massacre, 134, 135; Li Hungchang appointed as Imperial Commissioner, 137
- Togo, Admiral, 427
- Tong Hak rebels, 305
- Tonquin, piracy on the coast of, 81; French threaten to blockade ports of, 230; Fournier convention binds France to protect, 232; Chinese troops enter, 237; capture by the French of Langson and Tuyen Quan, 238; French defeat near Langson, 238; China agrees to join her railways with those of, 317; rebellion in, 362; province restored to Annam, 364; T'ai'ping rebels cross into, 368; French designs to annex, 373; France to establish a protectorate over, 377, 382, 384; treaty virtually cedes to France, 386
- Tourgouth Tartars, return to China of a tribe of (1771), 28
- Tsai Tse, Prince, 435
- Tsêng, Marquis, Minister to England, 225; makes treaty with Russia, 225; recall of, 231; protests against French action in Annam, 378; protests against French treaty, 383; asks the French to retire from Tonquin, 384; leaves Paris, 384; death of, 251
- Tsungli Yamên established, 124; sends Mr Burlingame to U.S.A. and Europe, 131; proposes missionary regulations, 138; opinion on Imperial audiences, 140; receives early news of murder of Margary, 212; members of the, pay new-year visits to the Legations, 218; Chang Peilun appointed to the, 231; denies that Fournier's treaty fixed date for evacuation of Tonquin, 235; Marquis Tsêng's influence at, 251; examination-reform scheme adopted by, 264; signs treaty opening Chungk'ing to trade, 289; verdict of, on Chou Han, 295; gives assurance to the Legations, 321; admits K'ang Yuwei to the audience, 326; ordered to report on reforms, 327; dismissal of officials at, 329; cries 'peace,' 341; remonstrances addressed to, 342; correspondence with, 343; Baron von Ketteler murdered on his way to, 350; proposes that the foreign representatives should leave Peking, 350; abolition of the, 355
- Tuan, Prince, appointed to Tsungli Yamên, 347
- Tuduc, King of Annam, 365; persecutes Christians, 366; signs a treaty with the French, 368; sends a mission to Peking, 377
- T'ungchih, Emperor, marriage of, 139; Foreign Ministers received by, 141; death of, 214
- T'ungchow, rescue of missionaries from, 346
- T'ung Fuhsiang, arrives before Peking, 341
- Tz'u-hsi, Empress, arrives in Peking, 124; combines with Kung to defeat Regents, 124; Dowager Empresses and Kung appointed Regents, 124; virtually declares war against France, 231; honorific titles conferred on, 258; seizes the reins of power, 331; orders execution of reformers, 331; issues anti-reform edicts, 332, 337; gives support to Boxers, 338; proposes to depose Emperor, 338; nominates an Heir Apparent, 341; calls a meeting of magnates,

Cambridge University Press

978-1-107-64754-1 - Europe and the Far East 1506–1912

Sir Robert K. Douglas

Index

More informationIndex

487

- 348; declares war, 349; flight from Peking, 354; reforms of, 430 et seq.; death of, 433; character of, 434
- Verbiest, made President of the Astronomical Board, 16; his death, 16
- Wade, Sir Thomas, arranges dispute between China and Japan, 143; demands reparation for the murder of Margary, 212; leaves Peking, 213; makes Chefoo convention, 213
- Wang Chao, 328; proposes reforms, 329; promoted, 329
- Ward, Mr, goes to Peking, 112; discourtesy towards, 112
- Warner, Captain, 67
- Weddell, Captain, attempts to open relations with China (1637), 22
- Weihaiwei, capture of, 314; leased to Great Britain, 320
- West River, opened to trade, 270
- Wood, Benjamin, sent to China to open trade, 21
- Wu Sankwei, General, 34; allies himself with the Manchus, 34
- Xavier, Francis, arrives at Shang-ch'uan where he dies, 12
- Yangchow, missionary riot at, 133
- Yangtze Kiang, upper waters of, opened to trade, 270; defeat of scheme to navigate, 271
- Yangtze riots in 1891, outbreak at Wuhu, 291; outbreak at Wuh-sueh, 293; riots at Nanking, etc., 294; conspiracy in Hankow, etc., 438 et seq.
- Yao, Emperor, 3
- Yedo, British Legation at, burnt down, 161
- Yeh, Commissioner, declines to answer on Arrow question, 89; issues an anti-foreign proclamation, 90; insolent reply to Lord Elgin's letter, 99; capture of, 101
- Yeh-ho-na-la, Empress, marriage of, 256
- Yeto Shimpei, rebellion of, 193
- Yoshinobu Hitotsubashi, last of the Shōguns, 176; resigns, 177; withdraws to Ōsaka, 178; defeat of, 178
- Yuan Shi Kai, 330; defeats Boxers, 336; Governor of Shantung, 339; his career, 441 et seq.; first head of new Government, 444
- Yuen-ming-yuen, occupied by the French, 119; the palace looted, 120; burnt to the ground, 121
- Yühsien, Governor of Shantung, 335; Governor of Shansi, 342; superintends massacre of missionaries, 352
- Yung-chêng, Emperor, encourages charges against missionaries, 18; receives the Russian envoy, Count Vladislavich, 28; sanctions a treaty, 28; hostile to foreigners, 35; his death, 35
- Yunglu, 330; scheme to behead, 330